SCOUT CLASSES WILL INSTRUCT TROOP LEADERS

Men Will Learn by Actual Scouting at Two Day Class

A quite a large group of local men are anticipating both an enjoyable and instructive time with the opening of the Elementary Scout Leadership course in Scout Leadership, Monday and Tuesday at the basement of the First Methodist Church. The purpose of the course is the proper training of executives to lead the Boy Scout patrols to be organized in Memphis and Hall County in the near future, so that the leaders of the various troops will be thoroughly familiar with the ideals and methods. Particular stress will be laid on the methods of teaching the Scout program to the boys. Prospective troopmasters will be given a logical viewpoint of Scouting and a thematic basis upon which they may build their future activities with the boys.

The classes will be conducted in a manner as to make it as much like a real Boy Scout Troop as possible, the men being organized into a troop with definite patrol organizations. Each patrol will have its patrol leaders, names, songs, etc. In fact, the men

PIONEER WOMAN DIED LAST EVE

Mrs. Mary Rector Brown, 55, wife of J. G. Brown, died yesterday afternoon at the family home, 130 South Thirteenth Street, at 4 o'clock, after an illness of one week of pneumonia.

Funeral services for Mrs. Brown will be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. Orion Carter, conducting the services, assisted by Dr. John MacMillan, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Interment at Fairview cemetery with King Mortuary in charge. Pallbearers are Bill D. Hart, A. Moore, J. M. Ferrell, Roy R. Ziege, Carl Jones of Estelline and Herman Horschler of Hedley. Those in charge of the flowers will be members of Mrs. Brown's Sunday school.

HALL COUNTY FARMERS ATTEND MEETING

Several Hall County farmers attended a mass farm meeting in Memphis yesterday afternoon to hear M. A. Pillars, member of the State Farm Advisory Committee, outline the probable government agriculture plan for this year.

The farm authority stated that a program to aid the farmers is under consideration in Washington at the present time, but that nothing definite could be said in regard to the governmental farm program.

Farmers attended the meeting from Wilbarger, Cottle, Collingsworth, Childress and Hall counties. Pillars is well known as a farm authority in this section, having spoken several times in Memphis and nearby towns.

Uncle Sam Gets Taste of Record Winter, Too

As if to make up for neglecting the nation's capital in the succession of blizzards and sub-zero waves that have swept most of the United States since before the holidays, King Winter gave Washington, D. C., a fifteen-inch snowfall to set a 14-year record. The brightly illuminated dome of the Capitol building rising above snow blanketed shrubbery and lawns makes a scene that symbolizes the severe weather besetting the nation.

SALE OF COTTON GETS APPROVAL

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—Over the opposition of the administration, the Senate agricultural committee this morning approved the Smith Bill, directing the sale of approximately five million bales of government owned cotton in weekly blocks of 20,000 and 25,000 bales. Senator Smith held that the large holdings of the government

MANY DEAD IN DISTURBANCES

Northern Hemisphere Rocked by Storms and Earthquakes

By Associated Press
Virtually every form of atmospheric and climatic disturbance except a heat wave plagued some part of the Northern Hemisphere the past twenty-four hours.

The elements have sent windstorms and duststorms raging over the southwest, while snow, hail, sleet and rains have visited various parts of the United States. Moderate earthquakes were felt in western Montana.

The Pacific Coast has experienced floods and landslides. A zero belt stretched last night

The Weather

WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy, not so cold in north, colder tonight in extreme southeast; Saturday partly cloudy, warmer in southeast.

EAST TEXAS: Partly cloudy, colder in south and east, cold wave southeast and central, except in lower Rio Grande Valley; 14 to 20 in north, 24 to 28 in central, about freezing on coast, except in extreme west tonight; Saturday cloudy and unsettled, rising temperatures in north and extreme west.

LOCAL: Clear and cold. Temperature at 8:00 a. m. was 11, which rose by noon to 30. Minimum temperature last night was 3 degrees above zero.

NEUTRALITY LAW GETS APPROVAL

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 14.—The House foreign affairs committee this morning unanimously approved the bill extending the present Neutrality Law until May first, next year, with the addition of provisions for the restrictions of loans and credits to belligerents, and exemption of Latin-American nations at war with non-American countries.

The approved measure is virtually identical with that reported out of the Senate foreign affairs committee. The measure is expected to be called in the House Monday, under rules suspension.

No Blanks Here for Old Age Pensions

Despite previous announcements from Austin to the effect that application blanks for the Old Age Assistance pensions would be available here today, county authorities have not received the forms.

Inquiries and applicants have been flooding the office of the county judge and the Democrat office today concerning the pensions.

"There is no need to rush for the applications," County Judge Jim Vallance stated, "as the first payment will not be made until July; and application can be made at any time."

Section nine of the Old Age Assistance Bill reads: "The amount of Old Age Assistance shall be..."

FLAMES BEYOND CONTROL WHEN FAMILY AWOKE

R. P. Martin Home is Total Loss; Cold Hampers Firemen

Fire of an undetermined origin early this morning almost completely demolished the seven-room wooden dwelling of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Martin, located at South Sixth and Harrison streets. Memphis firemen battled in sub-freezing weather to save the building and to keep the fire from spreading.

The fire was discovered about 3:00 o'clock this morning by the Martins, who awoke to discover the house in flames. The family, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, a grown son and three small grandchildren, were all asleep in the front part of the house. The fire broke out in the center and rear of the building, and the roof was falling in when the blaze was discovered.

The family barely had time to get out into the street, clad in their night clothes, before the flames spread to the bed room. Neighbors took the shivering family into their homes.

Because of the high wind blowing from the north, Memphis volunteer firemen residing in the north section of town were unable to hear the fire alarm and as a result the fire squad was small.

The firemen fought the blaze, taking turns, until almost 6:00 o'clock this morning. When the fire was finally extinguished, the entire hulk was a mass of ice; and

SEVERAL YOUTHS ON NYA PROJECTS

Seventeen Hall County youths from Lakeview, Parnell, Estelline and Memphis have been assigned positions with the National Youth Administration by F. N. Blevins of Childress, who is the local National Reemployment Service representative.

The youths will work on the beautification school campus projects over the county. Seven NYA youths are already working on beautification projects, and the additional group will begin work Monday. Work will start at Ell and Webster next.

There are still several NYA openings for youths between the ages of 16 and 25 who were certified for relief last January. Every school campus in the county is to be beautified by the state funds.

DUST BLANKETS SKY YESTERDAY

Memphis experienced its first bad duststorm of the spring yesterday, when a heavy blanket of red dust hung over this section of the state and sifted down like fine flour. There was no wind and the settling of the dust was hardly perceptible, except by noting the accumulation on cars parked on the streets.

Last night's norther, which hit the city about 10:00 o'clock, dissipated the dust cloud, however, and today the sky is again clear.

WHAT SCOUTING MEANS

THE reorganization of the Boy Scout movement in this city, which gets under way Monday and Tuesday with a Leaders Training School, has turned the eyes of our citizenship upon the Boy Scouts of America, this week observing the Twenty-Sixth Anniversary of the founding of the movement in 1910.

During the first quarter century of its existence the organization has been actively serving American youth and future American manhood.

During the past twenty-six years, approximately 7,000,000 boys and men have come under the influence of the Scout ideals and its happy, healthy outdoor program.

When, on February 8, the Scout birthday proper, the entire membership including Sea Scouts, Rural Scouts and Troop Scouts and their leaders re-dedicated themselves to the Scout Law and Oath, it was a pledge taken a million strong, north, east, south and west, from coast to coast.

What such a youth program is doing, has been doing for over a quarter century, in contributing to the virility, idealism and social responsibility of our national life, both now and in the years to come, is beyond counting.

A man power is being created "physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight," dedicated to service and loyalty to God and country, friendliness to man, beast and bird, and even to the very trees of the forest.

The Boy Scouts of America may well congratulate themselves on this its Twenty-Sixth Anniversary, and the citizens of Memphis and Hall County can congratulate themselves on the revival of this great movement in our midst.

That Scouting is here among us carrying on its fine, practical ideals, its great out-of-door traditions, is surely a matter for deep gratitude for the present and hope for the future.

With the training that Scouting gives our coming citizens, there is no fear for the future of our great country. The lessons learned in youth will mean much for the future stability of the nation.

Boy, oh boy, are we "irrigated," as Andy says? After all the nice things we've said about "Pegleg" King in this column the "thus and such" doublecrosses us.

Yesterday, in the most serious fashion you can imagine, he told us about Bill Kimberlin's fish story. Taking his word, as we always have, for the matter, we ran the story just as he told it to us. Imagine our consternation yesterday afternoon, after the paper was on the streets, to find exactly the same darn fish story in the Wichita Record News, under a United Press dateline. Only the guy that caught the fish was named Mellon instead of Kimberlin; the fish was caught at Sarasota, Florida, instead of near Dallas; the fish was a salt water trout instead of a black bass, and the container was a jug instead of a water bottle. Outside of these discrepancies, the story told us by "Pegleg" was substantially correct.

Oh me, oh my, what we'll do to that guy "Pegleg" at every opportunity. And we hereby absolve Judge Butler from having to reply to such a whopper, unless he wants to reply to the real story as told by the Florida man.

And speaking of doublecrossers, can it be that the Soil Conservation folks have slipped over a fast one on us. They told us that their work would stop the duststorms. They've been at work a month or dist is sifting down from the sky dusts sifting down from the sky in handfuls.

Word received yesterday from two customers in California, ex-Memphians both, and both complaining that apparently an "Ex-Memphian" hasn't much chance

Behind the Scenes in Washington

By RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Staff Correspondent

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
 NEA Service Staff Correspondent
 WASHINGTON — Washington lives from one U. S. Supreme Court decision to the next.

The court and the Constitution are on every mind and every tongue. Much of the talking is done in whispers.

Most persons here sense a dull, lethargic atmosphere which doubtless comes from the general belief that the court will go right on killing legislation until there's next to nothing left of the New Deal.

Anti-New Dealers are tensely alert for every possible political advantage. Old men mumble to their wives at night. Government employes go around asking one another, "Are you unconstitutional yet?" The whole tempo of the Capital has slowed down.

IN the White House, Roosevelt discusses the court and the Constitution with his advisers and many visitors, again and again. He has little hope that much but fragments will be left of the New Deal.

His congressional leaders have told him that any immediate attempt to pass legislation curbing the courts would be too great a risk. He just waits, while many of his supporters take occasional cracks at the court and strain their ears for the popular reaction.

Everybody agrees that popular reverence for the court tradition of infallibility will die hard, if ever.

OUT of all the huddling and buzzing and plotting come certain fundamental implications which are now thoroughly appreciated by both sides, but which thus far have been little publicized.

If Roosevelt is rejected, the of making this column.

In a letter to "Watty" Wattenberger, Jimmie Perkins, now living at Long Beach, complains that, even if he used to live here, he can't get his name in the column. Well, that's remedied now.

The other was Mrs. Lawson E. Brown, of Beverly Hills, California, (the home of the movie stars). Mrs. Brown, in sending in a change of address to the circulation department, said: "The paper is good, but strains my eyes. Can't you use a little more ink? Tell this to the We Saw editor, as we ex-Memphians feel neglected."

Well, Mrs. Brown, this gets your name before the waiting world, and we've instructed the boys in the back office to use a little blacker black on your copy of this great metropolitan daily.

Dr. Henry Wilson bragging about the technique he used in a delicate operation he performed on Ed Foxhall at the dance Wednesday night. Doc said that he, seeing that Ed required an emergency operation, and having no surgical instruments with him, used his pocketknife as a scalpel and with deft fingers and sure strokes made an incision at the back of Ed's neck, and did the cleanest bit of nation is likely to see a "New Deal."

In other words, as some of the New Dealers already are predicting, the legislation killed by court—or laws of the same type may be enacted all over again.

Of course the idea is that Roosevelt's second term, with likelihood that nearly all of it would be validated by the court.

Conservative Justice Van vander's health is none too good and it is rumored that he, as well as Conservative Justice Reynolds—would have retired this if he could have been of being replaced by a conservative.

Whether either would stick another four years after inauguration in January, 1937, is questionable.

CERTAIN Liberty League voters already have warned the court if he gets back in, such choice of words is also defensible.

Presidents have the constitutional prerogative of appointing supreme court justices. If voters are afraid of the type of jurists Roosevelt will name if he gets the chance, they can elect him off next November.

The voters might as well point liberals of the Brand Stone-Cardozo type if he can't get the Liberty League might as prepare to pipe down in case can't beat him this year.

Leonard Doss vehemently claiming any intention of running for office, despite the fact that several of his friends have been quizzing him about it.

Virgil Meason bragging that he didn't take his necktie off Wednesday night until he got to bed . . . and we always thought that guy slept in his collar and these cold nights.

R. C. Householder secure his permit to drive a car in Texas yesterday—the first person in the County to get his drivers license. We were number five.

Johnnie Wilson mailing dozens of valentines yesterday afternoon. We thought she was mailing them to Hall County voters, but developed she was sending them to small boys and girls.

Johnnie was "in a froth" to speak, because one of her friends had sent her a valentine by telegraph. "If you were ten and I were nine, I'd ask you to be my valentine," the telegram read, "Doesn't he think of the cleverest things?" Johnnie said she regretted to disillusion her, we sent that same rhyme to the lass about three years ago.

George Lovelace buying a cent valentine. Don't know whether he got it for his wife, then or not.

deceedly afraid of your terrible gangs over here?" exclaimed Duke of Marlborough, strapping six-footer, as he ordered newspapermen to refrain from photographing his four children on arrival in New York. Reason: kidnaping scare. But he doesn't look nearly frightened, posing with the Duchess as his words suggest. Duplicate Returns

To carry out the provisions of section 55 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1934, as amended by an act (Public No. 40) approved April 19, 1935, every person (except non-resident alien individuals) required to file an income return for a taxable year or period beginning on or after January 1, 1935, must file with the return a copy thereof on the duplicate form (green paper), which will be provided for that purpose, or a photostatic or photographic copies of the original return. Such copy must be a complete duplicate of the return except that the affidavits on the duplicate form need not be filled in. The copy on the duplicate form must also include any schedules and statements attached to the original return except (1) schedule C-1 (information to be furnished by corporations as to compensation of officers and employees in excess of $15,000), (2) in the case of a fiduciary the copy of the will or trust instrument, (3) in the case of a return made by an agent the power of an attorney on form 935 or form 936, and (4) in the case of an insurance company the copy of the annual statement made to the State insurance department.

In accordance with the statute above mentioned, within a reasonable time after they are filed the copies of the return will be made available for inspection in the office of the collector of internal revenue in which the returns are filed, by any official, body, or commission lawfully charged with the administration of any State tax law, if the inspection is for the purpose of such administration or for the purpose of obtaining information to be furnished to local taxing authorities. The law provides that the inspection shall be permitted only upon written request of the governor of such State, designating the representative of such official, body, or commission to make the inspection on behalf of such official, body, or commission. The statute does not authorize inspection of the duplicate returns by the public.

Inspection of returns is governed by subdivision (a) of section 55, which provides, in effect, that income returns made under the Revenue Act of 1934 shall be open to public inspection only to the extent expressly provided by law or as authorized in regulations approved by the President, and this provision is similar to the provisions of preceding revenue acts. Under existing law and the regulations approved by the President income returns are not open to inspection by the general public.

Basketball Games Start Tonight

Enthusiasm is running high in school circles over the county in anticipation of the County Inter-scholastic League Basketball Tournament that opens tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the High school gymnasium at Estelline.

Notwithstanding the cold weather, indications point to large crowds attending the matched games. Memphis, Estelline, Lakeview and Turkey will compete in the tournament, which is to be a Round Robin affair, with every team playing every other team. Lakeview and Estelline open the tourney at 7:30 o'clock tonight, and Memphis and Turkey will play at 8:30.

Coach Joe Coleman of Wellington had been selected as referee of all the games.

ance or aid from State funds that may be paid to any applicant who has qualified under the terms of this Act, shall never exceed the sum of $15 per month, and in addition thereto such funds as the Federal Government may appropriate and allocate to the State of Texas from time to time, shall be distributed among recipients of assistance in like manner as State funds are paid under the terms of this Act; provided that in no case shall such aid or assistance be in an amount which, when added to the income of the applicant from all other sources, including income property and from the State and Federal Governments, shall exceed a total of $30 per month; provided that the assistance granted herein shall be granted in such subsistence in keeping with the accustomed standard of living of the applicant.

So far the federal government has not made a regular appropriation for the pensions. This means that the applicants may get any amount from $15 to $30.

To be eligible for the Old Age pension, one must be 65 years of age. He must have lived five of the past nine years in Texas and must have lived the last year continuously in Texas. A single person making over $360 per year from all sources is not eligible. A married person making over $720 annually from all sources is not eligible.

A single person owning property valued at over $5,000 is ineligible for the pension. A married person owning property valued at more than $7,500 is ineligible. A single person having cash and cashable securities over $500, or a married man having over $1,000 in cash is ineligible.

Mother Advised Ailing Daughter To Take CARDUI

Many, many women have taken Cardui on the advice of their mothers who had been helped by it.

"I would have severe cramping spells," writes Mrs. F. C. Allen, of Smithdale, Miss. "I would get nauseated, and feel faint and would have to go to bed. I would be very nervous for two or three days. I was afraid to go away from home, for fear I would faint and fall. My mother, having used Cardui with good results, advised me to try it.

"I am so glad I took Cardui and got relief for it has done wonders for me."

If you suffer this way, send to the drug store for a bottle of Cardui and begin taking it today. Of course, if Cardui does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

whirr-hirr-irr-irr-irr ... and your battery gets weaker and weaker... if the tank is filled with ordinary low-test gasoline. BUT WHAT A DIFFERENCE WITH PHILLIPS 66 POLY GAS! Stepping on the starter turns on the heat. Spins your icy motor into instant action. Warms it up fast. Gives you summer pep, power, and mileage, even though the thermometer is at zero or below. This remarkable winter performance is the result of the scientific POLYmerization process, the greatest improvement in motor fuel manufacture since the introduction of "cracking." It literally adds a rich supply of extra heat units to every drop of high test Phillips 66. Thus producing the fastest-starting cold-weather gasoline which Phillips has ever offered... at the price of ordinary motor fuel. The quality and economy of Phillips 66 Poly Gas undoubtedly explain why our sales are right now at the highest levels in the history of the company. More motorists than ever before have found out the extra value and extra driving pleasure given by this new kind of cost-cutting gasoline. We invite you to join them by trying a tankful of Phillips 66 Poly Gas. You will quickly feel that difference.
