NOTE—Many readers of the Democrat who were subscribers eight or ten years ago, will notice the writing in this column this week. H. King Stephens substituting as the NAME IT columnist. You will like his style.—J. C. Wells.

ROSEMARY KING STEPHENS for six years away from home has returned to the editor of this Home Town. I am called upon to return to my true love—newspaper writing. This week's column for the Democrat. Once a man has engaged in newspaper work, he never forgets the interest in editorial work especially in conducting a column.

My personal column is named "WELL!" by WELLS. Every opportunity would be taken to bring to the readers the little personal stories that can be written for no other department of the paper. But how an improvement could be made over the present one I can not tell, for improvement is needed.

The issue of the Democrat by the thirty-third year of its existence to the end of 29 years of service to the community—Memphis, Hall County, and surrounding territory; even a booster for the betterment of this section of the people; offering a real service to merchants in their efforts to distribute their merchandise in the closest margin of fair dealing; that is by offering an interesting advertising service. I intend to point to the fact that the printing job was with the Democrat and further that the Democrat is published for the people.

LOCAL PASTOR ATTACKS VICE ELEMENT HERE

Continuing his attack on the lawless element in Memphis, Rev. O. K. Webb, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, delivered an address on "What is Going On In Memphis" from his pulpit Sunday night to a packed house.

Every available seat on the main floor was filled, with chairs placed in the aisles; and several were seated in the balcony. T. R. Easterling, court stenographer, took down the sermon in short hand.

The fiery Baptist pastor condemned the "bootleg" element in Memphis in particular, but included the general moral conditions existing here. After launching a lengthy sermon on the degraded moral condition of the town as a whole, Rev. Webb gave a terse plan for coping with the situation here.

"Law enforcement, convictions when substantiated by evidence, and public sentiment are the three controlling factors in curbing the vice here," he said.

Rev. Webb announced that his topic next Sunday night will be "Death In The Pot," which will follow along lines similar to last Sunday night's sermon.

FOUR-COUNTY SOCIETY HAS OUTING HERE

Five Local Doctors Entertain Medical Men Friday Night

Five Memphis physicians, Doctors Henry Wilson, J. A. Odum, R. E. Clark, W. Wilson, and O. R. Goodall, entertained the Four-County Medical Society members and their families last Friday night at the Brookhollow Club Lake here with an out-door dinner and outing.

The evening of entertainment represented the last meeting of the year for the Four County Society. The next meeting of the organization will be held in September. Friday evening's affair was the annual such fete given by local doctors, who give a feed for the society each year because of the fact that all club meetings are held in Memphis.

Doctors who were present, most of them with their families, were: F. A. White, Perry Jeter, S. H. Townsend, Childress; J. M. Bubbles, Kirkland; E. W. Moss, C. E. High, Clarendon; J. A. Odum, O. R. Goodall, R. E. Clark, and W. Wilson, Memphis.

LOCAL WPA HOME ECONOMICS PROJECT WINS DISTINCTION

The most educational Works Progress Administration Home Economics project in this entire district of 20 counties was the way WPA authorities and judges described the Memphis WPA Home-Ec class at Lubbock last week-end.

Representatives from the local project participated in a district-wide Home Economics exhibit Friday of last week at Lubbock. Five counties, Hall, Hale, Swisher, Floyd, and Lubbock counties, were represented.

Your Home Paper

TWENTY-NINE YEARS AGO the first issue of The Memphis Democrat was published. The paper has been continuously published ever since. This issue starts the thirtieth year of service to Memphis, Hall and adjoining counties.

The length of time—29 years—may not seem long to some, and to others it may seem a century. It marks a whole lifetime for many, while to others it is one-half or one-third of a lifetime.

Measured in terms of service to the community, The Democrat has always worked for the advancement of the community's interests—business, civic, moral, social. It has chronicled the births, weddings and deaths of the citizens; their comings and goings; their successes and sorrows. It has carried the messages of the merchants to the customers, and has always been loyal to home institutions.

In 1928, The Democrat was chosen as the best all-round weekly in Texas and was awarded the Belo Cup. It has always been published weekly with the exception of nearly two years, from May 1934 to March 1936, when it was published as a daily.

In March 1936 it was reverted to a weekly and as such is striving to serve the community's needs as it has done for 29 years.

ELI FARMERS HOLD MEETING

Discussion Held On Phases of Federal Farm Program

A mass meeting of farmers in the Eli community was held at Eli Monday afternoon for the purpose of discussing phases of the federal agricultural program.

"Red" Walker, assistant to the county farm agent's office, had charge of the meeting and led the farmers in a discussion of troublesome aspects of the national farm bill. Forty-two farmers attended and took part in the discussion.

Primarily among the topics taken up were the interpretations on the farm program set forth by the county and community committees here last week.

SCHOOL TRANSFER APPLICATIONS NOW BEING MADE HERE

All parents in the county who are interested in making an application for school transfer may apply at the office of the county school superintendent at any time between now and the first of August.

All transfers must be made by the parents, regardless of whether the grade is taught or not in the home district. Miss Inez Mason, assistant county school superintendent, is now accepting the applications.

One Out of Three Gets Driver's Tag In County To Date

SMALL COTTON DEALERS SEEK TO NULLIFY '40-BALE RULE'

Well over one out of every three persons in Hall County has received a driver's license from the office of the Hall County Tax Assessor-Collector, according to information received from that office this week.

Approximately 6,350 persons in the county have received driving permits. Of this number about 100 are chauffeur's licenses, and the rest are the free driver's licenses, which are required for the operation of a motor vehicle on the highways of Texas.

The few reports that have emanated from various sections of the State state in effect that the Driver's Act Law is accomplishing its main objective—diminishing the number of motor car accidents over the State.

Arrests in this section for failure to comply with the driver's license laws have been few.

Proponents in the recent controversy between the interior compresses of Texas and the Wichita Valley railroads have petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for a reconsideration of this commission's decision on the controversy insofar as it applies to the so-called "40-bale rule."

The controversy, which has been settled by the ICC in favor of the railroads, was actively taken part in by the local compress and by local cotton dealers.

The petitioners request that the ICC condemn the 40-bale rule, but authorize the railroads to publish a "100-mile any quantity rule," with a 50-mile rebal, and with an additional 50 miles for a penalty of three cents per 100 pounds on all such cotton shipments.

This would permit a small shipper, where he does not have sufficient number of bales to make a consignment of 40, to ship any quantity he might have under the present rule for 40-bale shipments. He would be permitted to ship the cotton in any quantity a distance of 100 miles, which would include 50 miles free haul. Beyond this distance a penalty of three cents per 100 pounds for all such transportation would be charged.

As the rule now stands, local cotton dealers contend, the small shipper has to pay more proportionately than does the large shipping man.

Arrests in this section for failure to comply with the driver's license laws have been few.

A barbecue dinner was given for the directors, officers and employees of the First National Bank of Memphis and for invited guests Saturday night at Dr. W. C. Dickey's cottage at the Brookhollow Club Lake.

The barbecue dinner, a stag affair, was enjoyed by bankers from Pampa, Clarendon, Hedley, Wellington, Dodsonville, Chilled, Quitaque, Lakeview, Paducah, and Memphis.

A spirit of optimism was shown by the bankers in that they never once spoke of the depression, the dry weather, or the government. Dr. Dickey reported. The entire evening was pleasantly spent in light conversation and in eating barbecue.

Saturday night's affair was the annual entertainment by the local First National Bank for its employees and invited guests.

Those attending were: Forrest Taylor, W. H. Patrick, Walter Taylor, M. R. Allenworth, J. D. Swift, Van Kennedy, Clarendon; J. W. Noel, C. L. Johnson, Hedley; R. D. Wiley, Morris Wells, A. S. Jones, Wellington; J. G. Nisbet, Dodsonville; J. M. Crews, Charley Crews, "Cowboy" Newberry, Frank Weddington, Dick Whaley, J. H. Harrison, Childress.

C. M. Bedwell, Buck Russell, Quitaque; W. W. Williamson, Lyman Davenport, Lakeview; J. O. Gilham, Pampa; C. A. Phillips, Mr. Gill, Paducah; F. N. Fehall, Frank Fehall, D. L. C. Kinard, J. E. King, J. H. Smith, S. S. Montgomery, T. E. Noel, T. H. Deaver, O. L. Helm, T. E. Whaley, Guthrie Bennett, and Dr. W. C. Dickey, Memphis.

Placard, literature and news reel will be combined to tell of the agricultural and industrial advantages of Memphis and Hall County at the Frontier Centennial Celebration in Fort Worth, which opens July 1.

W. L. Daniel, film photographer from Lubbock, together with a local committee from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, composed of S. T. Harrison, R. E. L. Pattillo, Dr. W. C. Dickey, and P. V. Clark, secured views from over the county during the past week for the news reel which is to be shown at Fort Worth. Lakes, livestock, and a vivid panoramic scene of the rich and varied soil of this county, together with numerous industrial and civic views will tell the story of Memphis and Hall County at the Fort Worth show.

Scenes filmed during the past week include pictures of the Memphis oil mill, the local compress, and the gin section. An Eighth street scene, revealing the First Baptist, the First Presbyterian, and the First Methodist churches, was taken. Another view is from the south side of the square, showing the entire business square of the city.

Another picture is of the Bryant Lake east of the city, which shows the expanse of water and a shore line of green trees. Numerous farm scenes were filmed, including livestock and pasture scenes from the E. M. Ewen and son farm near Esteline and from the D. H. Davenport farm near Lakeview. Deep Lake and farms of the Deep Lake section were photographed. One of the Memphis (Continued on page 5)

Tuesday, June 30, is the deadline for Hall County property owners to pay their 1935 taxes if they expect to avoid the excess penalty, according to word from Mrs. Holt Hovdens, county tax assessor and collector.

An eight-per-cent penalty, plus 31 cent charge and six per cent interest, will be levied July 1 on all delinquent 1935 taxes.

The final split tax payment is also due before July 1, it was pointed out. A good many Hall County taxpayers paid only half of their current taxes last October, and the other half is now due.

Although past payments on 1935 taxes have been better than in several years heretofore, there are still a large number of assessments which will become delinquent next Tuesday, it was said.

Works Progress Administration To Have New Set-Up; Hall Officials Await Orders

WPA work in precinct 2, the Lakeview precinct, has closed; and unless orders from the district or state headquarters are received today this week in the other precincts of Hall County, officials of the relief work said yesterday.

The current WPA program officially closes June 30, and a new program will go into effect after that date.

Much of the responsibility for administering the new WPA program will be placed in the hands of state administrators, and relief workers from the unemployed on relief, or those certified as in need of relief, will be given positions first.

Quotas fixing the number of workers and the amounts to be spent in each state will be fixed shortly by the Washington organization.

Under the new program it will be possible to provide for some needy who under the present rules have difficulty in obtaining either work relief jobs or direct relief from local or state governments.

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any person, firm or corporation, which may appear in the columns of this paper, will be gladly corrected upon due notice of same being given to the editor personally at the office at 417 Main Street, Memphis, Texas.

WELLINGTON LEADER WINS AGAIN

THE BELO LOVING CUP was awarded to The Wellington Leader at the meeting of the Texas Press Association at Tyler June 12 for being the best all-round weekly newspaper published in Texas.

The Leader was the winner also of third prize for having the best set ads under 30 inches in size. Last year, the paper was the winner of the National Editorial Association prize. Its editor, Deskins Wells, was the first Texas editor to be placed on Casey's All-American Eleven two years ago.

The awarding of the Belo cup, given for the best weekly paper by the Dallas News, climaxes many merited winnings by The Wellington Leader, and removes any doubt that may exist as to its being the outstanding weekly of Texas.

We congratulate Wellington's first citizen, mayor, editor—Deskins Wells.

IS IT TRUE?

IS IT TRUE that Memphis is becoming known as the "widest-open" town in the Panhandle?

Is it true that young girls and boys may be seen on the streets of Memphis at night in an intoxicated condition?

Is it true that some out-of-town people are referring to Memphis as "Little Juarez"?

Is it true that people come to Memphis from other counties to get their "likker" and also have a "high old time"?

Is it true that a majority of the citizens of Hall County some months ago against the sale of liquor within the confines of the county?

Is it true that the wishes of the majority count for nothing?

Is it true that many parents who live outside of Memphis will not allow their daughters to come to town at night to attend any function unless they are accompanied by a male member of the family for fear they will be insulted on the streets by some drunken person?

CLIMBS LADDER OF SUCCESS

HOWELL KING STEPHENS, superintendent of printing in the Government Printing Office at Washington, D. C., the largest printing office in the world, is a visitor in Memphis—his home town—this week.

King lived here and worked for The Memphis Democrat several years, then went to Washington to work in the G. P. O. as proof reader. There, among five thousand other employees, his ability soon won for him the promotion that placed him over seventeen hundred workers in the printing department which place he has creditably and capably held for the past two years.

Just a case of determination and ambition, coupled with good common sense and congeniality.

SUBSISTENCE FARMS

(From the Denison (Texas) Herald)
WE CANNOT AGREE with the critics of the administration's Rural Resettlement plan that there is anything Communist about it. A few of Tugwell's "cooperative farms" have been fashioned along the lines of the Soviet collective farms, with the farmers all working together and pooling their resources but these experiments must not be confused with the general plan of the Rural Resettlement Administration, which is trying to provide homes for the landless tenants and share-croppers of our agricultural belt.

In fact, the plan of the RRA is the very antithesis of Communism. In Russia, all land was taken away from the farmers and turned over to the government and the farmers are all forced to work for the government. No one is allowed to make any profit from the products of the land which he works.

Under the RRA plan, the government is helping landless farmers to secure farms of their own, by extending long-term loans and assisting them in securing the needed equipment with which to start producing crops. If they make any profit from their farms, it will be theirs. Instead of working for the government, they will work for themselves. In other words, the government is helping tenant farmers and share-croppers to become land owners, and land owners are never Communists.

"Exalt the citizen . . . Make him self-respecting, self-reliant and responsible."—Henry W. Grady.

RUDY VALLEE AND ORCHESTRA COMING TO AMARILLO MONDAY

AMARILLO, June 25.—For his first personal appearance in Texas the "Vagabond Lover" is coming here next Monday, June 29.

So it will be "high-he" for music-lovers and dancers at municipal auditorium and at The Nat. Amario's dance palace.

Rudy Vallee and his orchestra were booked for a concert and dance by the Tri-State Fair to carry out a long-considered plan by the late Wilbur C. Hawk.

For his Amarillo engagement the celebrated crooner is bringing his full band, including six beautiful girls, the Stewart Sisters, the Three Graces and Judy Starr.

Three special cars, including a baggage coach for instruments and other equipment, are required to transport the nation's No. 1 dance and night club band.

Incidentally, there is a Texan with the orchestra—Red Stanley who comes from Waco.

Reservations for the concert, which will begin at 8 o'clock next Monday night, are coming from every section of the Southwest.

Miss Lois Black at The News-Globe has charge of advance orders, which may be made by mail or telephone. There are four prices for the concert—40 cents, $5 cents, $1.10 and $1.65.

Admission to the dance, which will begin at 10 o'clock, will be $2.20 a person. Night club reservations at The Nat may be made by calling the dance palace.

News of Vallee's engagement in Amarillo has created a sensation among radio and dance fans and officials of the Tri-State Fair anticipate the largest crowds ever at both the concert and dance.

Buster Helm and Frank Foxhall Find Rattlesnake That Swims, Climbs Trees

O. L. (Buster) Helm, local bank cashier, and Frank Foxhall, Memphis cotton buyer, have topped all fish stories of this section with a snake tale; and local anglers are rummaging through their bags of experience to find a story its equal.

It seems that Messrs. Foxhall and Helm, accompanied by Mrs. Foxhall and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston, went to the Brook-hollow Club Lake, six miles northeast of Memphis, Wednesday afternoon about 6 o'clock for a bit of fishing.

The men were trolling along in the west "neck" of the lake, fishing and enjoying themselves in general, having caught one beautiful bass, when a snake swam past the motor boat. The men supposed that it was some small water snake, but decided to investigate.

Turning their boat after the snake, they were amazed to find that the reptile was a genuine, dyed-in-the-wool rattlesnake. Helm grabbed an oar and tried to kill the rattler, but was unsuccessful as the snake tried to coil, and struck at the oar.

The men decided to go ashore, which was about fifty yards distant, and wait for the snake to do likewise. The rattler, however, in presently, and the men got in one lick before the quarter-acting snake started climbing a nearby tree.

The snake was well up the tree before the men succeeded in landing a telling blow with an oar blade, crushing the snake's head on the tree trunk. The snake was hung over a limb, but the men were required to administer another head pounding when the snake fell to the ground and tried to crawl off.

Anxious to secure witnesses, Helm and Foxhall went after Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Foxhall. When they returned the snake had again fallen from the tree and was in the edge of the water.

The snake was next taken to a hard stretch of ground, and his head was literally pounded off. It was said to be a Black Diamond Rattler and had five rattles and a button.

"I never intend to go fishing again without taking along a little snake medicine," Helm said.

Mrs. Tommie Wood returned Thursday from a several days visit with relatives at Dumas.

MEMPHIS HAS UNIQUE POST FOR VETERANS

Sherman Names Unit After Charles R. Simmons, Also

Forty-two of the original 63 charter members of the Charles R. Simmons Post of the American Legion are residing in Hall County today, according to Joe Rehels, present post commander.

The Charles R. Simmons Post was organized in 1920 by 10 ex-service men—Elbert Kittinger, Robert L. (Monk) Wheat, David Fitzgerald, Ollie Jones, Ray Martin, Jesse Ballew, O. B. Jones, J. V. Leak, H. H. Lindsey, and Bryan Reynolds.

The local post was chartered as The Charles R. Simmons Post, No. 175, on April 1, 1921. David Fitzgerald was the first post commander, Ray Martin was the second, and J. L. Walker was the third.

Meeting place of the local Legionnaires until 1925 was the city hall. In 1925 the present Legion Hall was built at a cost of over $6,000.

The hall is modern in every respect, including a ball room, a recreation room, men's and ladies' rest rooms, cloak rooms and a kitchen. Machine guns, large shells, wartime pictures and a large cannon lend a military air to the place.

The local post obtained its greatest membership in 1924 under the leadership of Dean J. Morgensen, at which time the post boasted 160 members.

Present officers of the post are Joe E. Rehels, commander, E. S. Crowning, finance officer, and Roy Guthrie, chaplain. E. H. Whittington, adjutant, has moved away, leaving the organization temporarily without an adjutant.

Following are the charter members of the Charles R. Simmons Post of the American Legion:

J. W. Alexander, Olin Alexander, T. E. Allen, Mark J. Anthony, W. S. Anthony, W. B. Baldwin, Jesse L. Ballew, Harold E. Berry, W. W. Brumley, W. G. Bush, Willard Chamberlain, Arthur R. Cherry, A. J. Clover, C. D. Combest, C. S. Compton, C. B. Cook, R. C. Cummings, S. S. Davis, L. G. DeBerry, Louis A. Earhart, L. A. Elliott, LeRoy Ewen, David Fitzgerald.

H. C. Posey, Miss Anne Pritchett, Rufus R. Randal, L. G. Raseo, B. W. Reynolds, U. B. Rogers, J. H. Rich, W. S. Simmons, Horace A. Simms, Elmer S. Shelley, C. H. Stephens, Mac C. Tarver, G. R. Thomas, J. L. Walker, J. W. Walker, Sid Wells, Robert L. Wheat, E. M. White, Archie Williams, A. M. Wilson, Frank Fore.

Following are personal items of interest concerning the war records of a few of Hall County's sons who took part in the Great War:

Charles R. Simmons, for whom the local American Legion Post is named, was the first Hall County man to be killed during the World War. He enlisted as a sailor, and was killed when the Lusitania was sunk by a torpedo from a German submarine off Kinsale Head, on the south coast of Ireland, May 7, 1915.

Simmons was born near Sherman, and the Sherman post was likewise named in his honor. Simmons' parents resided in Memphis before their death, and three of his sisters still live in and near Memphis. They are Mrs. G. C. Posey, Mrs. Quentice Posey, and Mrs. Jesse Foster.

James V. Leak, former district judge and a charter member of the local Legion post, was one of the commanding officers of the "lost battalion." The "lost battalion" was so named because it became lost from its division during a battle and was shelled by the enemy for several days and nights, having been cut off from the American trenches without provisions.

An article in the American Magazine about three years ago dealt with the "lost battalion" and publicized Lieut. Leak's war record.

Robert L. (Monk) Wheat was one of the first Hall County men to see action in the war. He went across with the first battalion under the command of General John J. Pershing. Wheat was present in the trenches, it is said, when Harry Gresham, and Enright, the first three Americans to be killed in action, were slain.

Dr. J. M. Ballew and Dr. D. C. Hyder were commissioned officers during the war, holding positions as captains in the Medical Corps. There were four members of the Ballew family of Memphis to enlist in the war—Dr. J. M. Ballew, Raymond, Tom, and Jesse Ballew.

Bryan W. Reynolds is said to be perhaps the youngest man to enlist in the army from Memphis. He was 17 years of age when he enlisted in the 36th division, it was said.

Two Hall Countians, Leonard Doss and Roy Russell, won considerable fame with their fists during the war. Doss was recognized as the boxing champion of his ship, and Russell "could whip anything west of the Mississippi" while training in the army at San Antonio.

There is one woman charter member of the Charles R. Simmons Post, No. 175, of the American Legion; she is Anne Pritchett, a Red Cross nurse who saw service in France. Although related to several Hall County citizens, she did not enlist from here, but was sent to Hall County as nurse following the World War.

Ray Martin, a charter member of the local Legion Post, has been a Legionnaire perhaps longer than any other ex-service man in this section of the country. He is a charter member of two Legion Posts, the one at Fort Worth and the one here. He joined the post at Fort Worth in 1919, and the Fort Worth post was one of the first organized in the United States. Mr. Martin is eligible for a national citation for 17 years of continuous membership in the American Legion.

Scores of other such paragraphs might be added here, as a number of soldiers, sailors and marines who joined in the war against Germany from Memphis and Hall County received citations for bravery and gallantry in action. A number of Hall County ex-service men were given Distinguished Service medals and other medals of honor; but no record has been kept here of such events, and consequently these records are not available to The Democrat.

R. S. Greene, Thomas Hampton and J. D. Webster spent the day in Amarillo Wednesday.

$150,000,000 FREE!

Yes, absolutely free, by that we mean that $150,000,000 is spent annually in bringing to your home the finest available music and entertainments, through your radio loud-speaker—all at no cost to you other than operating your receiver.

Do you hear these programs, or merely a mumble and jumble that is often grating on the nerves and far from the restful entertainment which it is intended to be.

If not, you have the same right to this perfect form of entertainment as your neighbor, why not get it? A radio set is a delicate, scientific instrument and should be treated as such. Proper care and service should be given every receiver at intervals, not to exceed a year. Why? Because, just as any other mechanism made by man; they deteriorate with use and time. What means should be used to find if the receiver is gradually failing, so slowly that you perhaps do not notice it but your neighbors ask themselves, "What in the world is wrong with their radio, it sounds so unnatural and doesn't have half the music reproduced in the room?"

Is that true of your radio? If it is, let the most modern radio shop in this section of Texas, THE MEMPHIS RADIO AND ELECTRIC SERVICE check the tubes of your radio; many times a faulty tube will spoil reception of your desired program, and replacement will bring back the allure and zest to your programs.

If tubes are not at fault, our modern equipment enables us to find the trouble in a short time and correct it permanently. A visit to our shop and an examination of the Cathode-Ray Oscilloscope in operation will convince you this is true.

After six years "abroad" there are many impressions instilled in the mind of a Texan, namely:

That an expert is a small town boy away from home.

That merchandise in Memphis show windows is exactly the same as that shown in Washington, New York and Baltimore.

That Memphis food stores are cheaper than those in Washington, and the merchandise is equal.

That the first real steak we've had in six years was served at this week in Memphis.

That people are ten times as friendly in West Texas than in the East; a Howdy! really means something here and the person spoken to does not feel insulted because a stranger dared speak.

That Memphis is still our home and we are proud to say, "Memphis, Texas, not Tennessee."

That I am grateful to my many friends who have sent their congratulations on the occasion of my promotion in Washington, and for their loyal support and recommendations.

That the only bad road on the entire route between Washington and Memphis is the horrible stretch between Memphis and Wellington. Maybe on my next trip down to God's country this will be paved or at least hard-surfaced.

That there are no tickets laying around the editor's desk which will admit a newspaper reporter to any of the affairs being held this week in Memphis. Every newspaper man gets used to the Annie Oakleys (free tickets) which will enable him to attend shows, entertainments and the like there, saving a few cents and then returning to the office and writing a ten dollar story and printing it free on the first page of the paper instead of as a display advertisement for cash.

That I was all prepared to answer any and all political questions after preparing notes for several months before leaving Washington and that not one question on politics has been asked; but a hundred or more on the Louis-Schmeling fight and equally as many on the chances of Bradlock to defeat Schmeling and not London to defeat Roosevelt.

Pursing Often Aids in Clearing Complexion

Helps Build Red Blood Corpuscles and Tones Up Entire System

How do you know your skin can't be white and beautiful? Why take it for granted that you must look sallow and unclean-scrubbed? Perhaps you're simply run-down — so many people are at this time of year — and need more iron in their blood. We recommend Pursing to you.

Pursing is the product of the Kesson Laboratories, famous in the manufacture of drugs and medicines for more than a century. It is a scientific preparation containing organic compounds of iron and copper. These important elements make Pursing an effective hematinic—a builder of hemoglobin—the substance which makes red blood corpuscles red. In addition, Pursing contains ingredients that stimulate appetite, make you enjoy eating more, and make your food worth more to you.

If lack of iron in your blood is dragging you down—making you feel and look below par—get a bottle of Pursing today.

The hostesses were Mrs. Willie Favors, Mrs. Katie Montgomery, daughters of Mrs. Smith, and Miss Oleta Favors, granddaughter of the honoree.

LISTEN TO THE VOICE OF FIRESTONE

. . . featuring Margaret Speaks, soprano, with the Firestone Choral Symphony, and William Daly's Orchestra . . . every Monday night.

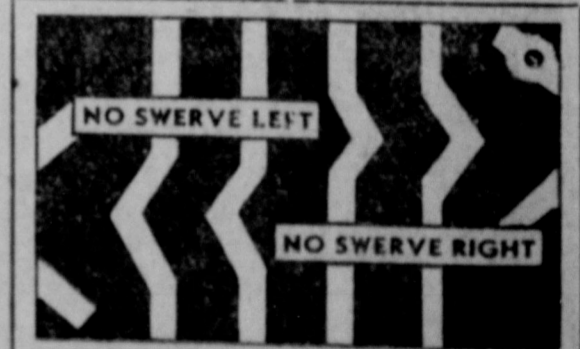

OVER NATIONWIDE N. B. C. NETWORK

The body of the New Firestone High Speed Tire is made from selected long-staple cotton dipped in liquid rubber, absorbing eight pounds of rubber in every hundred pounds of cotton. This patented Gum-Dipping process insulates every fiber in every cotton cord, preventing internal friction which creates the heat so destructive to tire life, and giving to the tire added strength.

This heavy, broad, traction and non-skid tread is held to the cord body of the tire with Two Extra Layers of Gum-Dipped Cords, a patented construction, making the cord body and tread an inseparable unit.

A leading university in 2350 tire tests has found that the new, scientifically designed Firestone High Speed tread stops a car up to 25% quicker. Its super-traction and non-skid efficiency have also been proved in the famous Pike's Peak Race where for eight consecutive years it has been used on the winning cars.

County Baseball League Results

Cross Roads was supported by the Salisbury baseball nine as leader in the Hall County Baseball League last Sunday. The two top-ranking teams have been battling on almost even footing all season, and the Cross Roads crew was undefeated until two weeks ago.

Almost as important as Salisbury's taking the league lead was the winning of a game by the Eli team, which defeated Fairview Sunday on the home lot. Fairview now occupies the cellar position. It was the first game that Eli has won, although the Eli nine is composed of good ball players.

Lesley downed Cross Roads Sunday, June 14, and Turkey downed them again last Sunday. The Salisbury-Eli game was postponed June 14, and the teams will play a double-header the next time they meet. Salisbury was forced to go 10 innings in setting down the Memphis CCC last Sunday, and Lesley took 13 innings to win a slugfest over Parnell, 13-12.

League results on Sunday, June 21: Lesley 13, Parnell 12; Eli 7, Fairview 6; Salisbury 7, CCC 7; Turkey 7, Cross Roads 6. Results Sunday, June 14: Lesley 7, Cross Roads 4; Parnell 15, Turkey 6; Eli and Salisbury postponed; CCC 12, Fairview 6.

The standings:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Salisbury	7	1	.875
Cross Roads	7	2	.778
Lesley	7	2	.778
CCC	4	5	.444
Parnell	4	5	.444
Turkey	4	5	.444
Eli	1	7	.125
Fairview	1	8	.111

Sunday's play—Eli at Lesley, Cross Roads at Salisbury, CCC at Parnell, Turkey at Fairview.

CARDUI

Cardui is a purely vegetable medicine for the relief of functional periodic pain, nervousness and weakness due to poor nourishment. It is successful use by thousands of women.

"I have used Cardui and had good results from its use," writes Mrs. W. E. Barnett, of Taylor, S. C. "I suffered with cramping and headaches and would have a chilly feeling. Sometimes I would feel miserable and have pain more than a day, and I would be nervous. I read of Cardui and decided to use it. After taking six bottles of Cardui, I had less pain and was regulated. I feel much better."

When such suffering can be avoided by the use of Cardui, it is a boon to women. To reach the cause of your trouble, consult a physician.

Ed and Harley Cudd, proprietors of the Cudd Brothers Service Station here have announced that they have secured the wholesale dealership for Firestone tires, and that hereafter they will act as the sole wholesale distributing agency for Firestone tires in Hall County.

There are approximately twelve retail firms over Hall County which will handle the Firestone line through the Memphis dealers. In addition to having the wholesale agency, Cudd Brothers will also sell the tires retail.

Cotton Bloom Is Displayed Here Tuesday

To N. E. Burk goes the honor of bringing in the first cotton bloom of the season to The Democrat office Tuesday.

Estelline Downs Tipton Team In Easy Ball Game

ESTELLINE, June 25.—The Estelline Tigers "beat the stuffings" out of the Tipton, Okla., nine, 22 to 5, here Sunday afternoon to annex the first half title of the Red River Valley League.

In the regular old-fashioned slugfest the locals slugged the offerings of four Sooner pitchers all over the park and scored runs in every inning. Estelline collected a total of 20 hits.

The Tigers took an early lead with three tallies in the two initial frames, but the visitors staged a four-run rally, including a circuit blow by Taylor, in their half of the third to go into the lead. The locals retaliated with a five-run spurge in their half of the same canto to regain the lead, and from then on the champs scored almost at will to make a race track out of the diamond. The only other Tipton tally came in the sixth inning.

Tommy Hall, the leading tosser of the loop, chalked up his seventh win of the season, relinquishing seven hits and striking out 13 men.

The melec boosted the batting averages of the champion Tigers considerably, everyone on the team but Bridwell collected at least one safe lick. Homer Biddy continued his heavy slugging with three long blows, one of which apparently established a distance record into "the cotton patch." Hale, Berryman, and L. Marcum also led in the attack.

The second half gets underway here next Sunday against Wellington.
