Program Outlined in Meeting At Estelina Wednesday by District Man from Lubbock

Republicans made big gains in many parts of the nation in the general election Tuesday, but Texas just went ahead without furor and voted Democratic as usual. The Republican and independent vote, as a matter of fact, was hardly large enough to count. As with the state at large, the vote cast in Hall County was extremely light. No tabulation of the total number of ballots was available today, however.

Lakeview Schools To Re-open Monday

After several weeks recess to allow students to assist with the cotton crop, the Lakeview public schools will resume classes Monday morning, November 9, at 9 o'clock, it is announced by Supt. H. A. Wallace.

It had previously been announced the school term would be resumed on October 26, but it was decided to put the date off for another week. It is not expected by school officials that there will be a full attendance at the re-opening, as cotton picking has been held up at intervals by wet weather and many farmers still have lots of cotton in the fields. However, it is hoped a few more weeks will see all the students in their places.

CIVILIAN DEFENSE AUXILIARY NOTES

By INEZ BAKER
My goodness, gracious! We'll never live this down. Just when we were so puffed up about the Little Sewing Club making so many hospital articles, fifty-nine of us got lost some where in the shuffle and we reported only 5. Hope they forgive us. This club will be glad to furnish patterns for many of these hospital articles.

Have you read of Capt. Emma Wolf of the Russian Army? She is the only woman to be assigned as a commissar with the front line units of the Red Army. She fought beside her husband in Spain and with him enlisted in the Red Army the first week of the war between Russia and Germany. Later her husband was killed in action and today Capt. Emma's son, 16 years of age, is a member of her company. She is a slender little woman of 40 years who leads her men into actual combat.

Other women of Russia are working to win the war. Many are fighting in the army. It is no uncommon thing for a wife to take her husband's place when he is killed. Others print newspapers near the front, chop wood to fuel war defense plants, harvest wheat, serve as conductors of trains, trolley, buses and subways. Many work ten to twelve hours daily in factories, police roads and man anti-aircraft batteries near Moscow and other cities. These women are facing actual warfare.

The American woman's present role is large one of preparedness. Yet she is not shirking, she does whatever her hands find to do.

We are happy to report that some of the articles have arrived for the kit bags. Those sending gifts this week are: Mesdames Ellis Cross and C. R. Cross (Brice), C. W. Broome, E. L. Yeats, $1.00 each. The Hattie Hunt Auxiliary, Women's auxiliary of the Tri-County Medical Society, also sent in $1.00 and voted to give $1.00 to each of the three counties, Hall, Collingsworth and Donley. Mrs. J. A. Odum is president of this organization.

Miss Wanda Posey and R. B. Phillips Wed Sunday in Ceremony at Estelline

Miss Wanda Posey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Q. E. Posey, became the bride of R. B. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Phillips of Harrell Chapel, on Sunday in Estelline.

The ring ceremony was read in the Baptist parsonage by Rev. A. F. Loftin, pastor. The bride's maid of honor was her sister, Miss Katie Vernell Posey of Amarillo. She wore a blue alpaca dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of yellow chrysanthemums.

J. N. Helm Jr. attended his brother-in-law as best man. The bride wore a blue wool tweed suit with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations and tube roses. For "something old" she wore a lavender belonging to her mother. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations and tube roses.

Those present for the service were Mr. and Mrs. Q. E. Posey, Mrs. J. N. Helm Jr. and Mrs. A. F. Loftin.

Food Speeds War Efficiency

To combat the loss of 80 million working days which Paul V. McNutt, Chief of the Office of Defense Health and Welfare Services, states occur each year because workers do not keep fit, many large industrial companies are launching all-out campaigns against malnutrition. These programs for improving the health and efficiency of industrial workers are one of the most effective phases of the National Nutrition Program. Among the most successful of these is that of the Serval Company of Evansville, Indiana. With the company devoted to 100 per cent war production, every hour of man labor saved means a contribution to national defense.

One innovation used is a "Victory Lunch" in the cafeterias and lunchrooms of the company. Another is the sale of milk from "snack wagons." The lunch features milk, meat, a vegetable, a salad, whole-wheat or enriched bread and butter. The "snack wagons" feature a mid-meal milk service. According to the nutrition authorities of the National Dairy Council, both of these food practices are important in improving the health and developing the maximum efficiency of war workers.

To encourage better food habits, each purchaser of either the "Victory Lunch" or a mid-meal bottle of milk is entitled to participate in a weekly prize drawing. Prizes in each drawing consist of $5.00 in war stamps and $3.00 in coupon books.

Milk consumption in the Serval plant is now five times as great as it was when the program began. Time lost from illness has decreased by 16 per cent in the first four months.

No Place in Flock For Loafing Hens

There is no place for loafers in the poultry flock in these days declares County Agent W. B. Hooser. Nor can the loafing hen conceal herself from an owner who knows the signs. Before finishing the laying year she looks slick with glossy, oily feathers. On the other hand, the dry and frayed laying clothes of the hard-working, well-fed hens are easily recognized. The oil and fats from her feed went into egg yolks. The loafer stopped laying and made feathers. Her place is in the stew.

Another way to test is to examine the beak and shanks. If the hen belongs to one of the common yellow skin varieties and is a layer, the color will be faded or bleached out, and the comb will be full of blood, red and waxy. If she's a loafer, it will be pale and shriveled. The skin of a layer is soft-textured, like a kid glove. A non-layer has a hard, dry skin which is relatively tight.

Cull the oafers and save the best layers for breeding stock. Next year their daughters will help produce more Food-for-Victory.

Fireman's hat, asbestos gloves and gas mask are part of the equipment Jane Tuttle wears at an exhibit in Philadelphia showing the latest in safety appliances.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Navy Cruisers are built in two classes, light and heavy, the latter displacing about 10,000 tons. Our navy has about an equal number of light and heavy Cruisers, the 10,000 ton Cruiser costing approximately $20,000,000. Many Cruisers are under construction and many more are needed.

To pay for these speedy and powerful ships with their heavy guns and armament we must buy War Bonds. Citizens of a large town or a given community, working in unity, could buy one of these ships for the Navy if they put at least ten percent of their income in War Bonds every pay day.

NEWS about boys in the Service

Another Hall County boy in the United States Coast Guard is Stacy Waites, who is stationed on the Isle of Wight, off the coast of Maryland. He tells about his duties in the following letter:

Isle of Wight Ocean City, Md. Oct. 2, 1942 To the Democrat and Friends in Hall County: I am a Coast Guardsman and take this means of telling my friends about it. I am stationed on the Isle of Wight, which is five miles from Ocean City, Md., and am attached to a life-saving surf station. Some of our duties are patrolling the coast, staying on the lookout tower, which is for keeping an eye on the beach, in the air and in the water.

When I first became a Coast

Guardsman I was sent to Curtis Bay, Maryland, for boot training and then was transferred to the Isle of Wight. Here there is only one other Texas boy, who is Cal Pearce from Pampa.

After one has been in the Coast Guard for three months, he becomes a second class seaman. I received my rating just a few days ago. To become a first class seaman, you must be recommended by the officer in charge, which is usually after you've been in six months.

You've always heard about their feeding you good in the Army Well, the same is true of the Coast Guard.

I think Maryland is a very beautiful state, but give me Texas. They have lots of lovely trees, mountains and farm lands here. The ocean is very good for deep sea fishing.

Well, I'll sign off, hoping to see my friends of Hall County soon.

A dry land sailor, S2c Stacy Waites, U. S. C. G. Isle of Wight Ocean City, Md.

Navy Still Wants Volunteers, Says Recruiting Chief

November Is Expected to Be Another Banner Month for Enlistments, Avers Ridout

Spiking all rumors to the effect that voluntary enlistments in the Navy soon will be halted, Lieut. L. H. Ridout Jr., officer in charge of the North Texas Naval recruiting district, today announced that November is expected to be another banner month for enlistments, and called on every citizen in this area to cooperate in recruiting additional men and boys for our vast two-ocean Navy.

The Dallas district enjoyed its third biggest month in history, with enlistments totaling 2,763 during October, Lieut. Ridout said.

The Navy's overseas construction battalions, known as the Seabees, have been thrown wide open for enlistments, and ratings now are available to almost every man between the ages of 17 and 50 with experience in a construction trade. Interviews to Seabees applicants were to be granted at the Dallas station only seven days this month, on Nov. 2, 3 and 4, and on Nov. 17-20, Lieut. Ridout warned. Applicants must first report for a physical exam, bringing with them two letters from responsible persons, listing their experience in their respective trades.

For the month of October, the total Navy enlistment figures in Amarillo recruiting district was 224 as compared with its quota of 240.

This blank, known as Form R-0536, is for the "T" ration book. It is emphasized that the truck or commercial vehicle owner should not try to register at the school house where passenger car owners register, but instead, should apply directly at the office of the Hall County War Price and Rationing Board and present also a Certificate of War Necessity executed by the office of Defense transportation.

All filing stations must be closed at six o'clock November 21, but they may reopen at midnight if they wish.

Red Cross to Aid—

If the application is made by a person other than the serviceman, documentary evidence must accompany the application. On the other hand, if the soldier himself makes the application, he is allowed six months in which to furnish documentary proof to the War Department. Field directors will assist soldiers, and chapter will aid dependents in furnishing this evidence.

Pending the grant of allowances to dependents of servicemen, Red Cross chapters in nearly 4,000 communities are prepared to aid families who might otherwise suffer hardship because of the soldier's military service.

AAA Committee—

The present County Committee, which has done an excellent job during 1942, consists of D. A. Neeley, chairman; R. A. Eddie, man and John Sharp, members and W. B. Hooser, ex-officio member.

"Zillah can lay claim to the champion 'young' apple picker after what five-year-old Peggy Bales did last Monday on the ranch of her grandmother, Mrs. O. E. Hagemeier. The little girl took one of her grandmother's small steel kettles and marched off into the orchard. In a short time she had picked 10 boxes of apples, which is a mighty good record for such a little girl. Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bales of Zillah, who came here recently from Memphis, Texas. The folks around her would welcome any more Texan if they're like Peggy."

a big way in the closing minutes of the game in a last desperate effort to score. They succeeded in making two first downs, but the rally ended when Pruitt, Irish quarter, intercepted a pass. The game ended with the ball in Shamrock's possession on the 42-yard line.

Shamrock made eight first downs to seven for Memphis. Calvin Montgomery, fullback; Gilford Nolan at half and Pat Pruitt at quarter stood out for a smoothly working Shamrock eleven. Shirley, playing an unaccustomed position at full; Jackson at half; Lawrence at half; and Doss at end turned in good performances on a hard-fighting Cyclone squad. Robertson's bolting tackle did much to slow the Irish offense.

Officials were J. L. Stone, Childress, referee; J. R. Gilliam, umpire; and W. G. Abbott, head linesman.

The new tires, made of reclaimed rubber, are now in production for the rationing program," he continued. "Under the plan to get these Grade III tires into dealers' stocks only establishments which have filed September 30 inventory reports on OPA Form R-17 in compliance with the rationing regulations will be eligible for allotments. The only exceptions are establishments operated by tire manufacturers or mass distributors, who are eligible under a special provision."

The size of the allotment for each establishment will be governed by the dollar amount of a firm's 1941 sales of passenger-type tires and tubes and the number of Grade III tires already in stock at the time of the application for an allotment. This will apply to wholesale as well as to retail where a firm does both types of business.

In the case of an establishment where there is no inventory for Grade III tires and there are no replenishment certificates authorizing their purchase, the allotment may be made in the ratio of one tire for each $1,000 of 1941 sales. However, there is a limit of 200 tires of this grade for any one establishment regardless of the 1941 sales total. On the other hand an allotment of 12 Grade III tires may be authorized for any establishment regardless of whether the 1941 sales total would warrant that. Where an applicant already has an inventory of Grade III tires, these must be deducted from the amount of the allotment that would be made if the establishment had no such inventory or certificates.

"If the board determines that an applicant is eligible," said Sloan, "it will compute his allotment and issue him a certificate authorizing the necessary purchase of tires. The certificate must be presented to the supplier from whom the applicant makes his purchase. Only one allotment may be made each establishment after purchase of the number of tires allotted. All subsequent purchases from suppliers will have to be accompanied by the transfer of replenishment portions of rationing certificates which represent sales to customers."

Price and Rationing Board, consists of J. M. King and Sam Hamilton of Memphis, Jess Mann of Lakeview, Ben T. Pruett of Estelline and Elmer Christian of Turkey. These men will administer the gasoline rationing program for the county.

Additional temporary members of this panel will be named for Memphis, Lakeview, Turkey and Estelline to receive and pass upon applications for supplemental gasoline rationing in addition to the regular "A" and "D" cards, Sloan said. Names of those who will serve in this capacity will be made public at an early date.

HEADACHE FOR MERCHANTS

GOVERNMENTAL EFFORTS to keep the cost of living within reasonable limits and to promote equitable distribution of such goods as will be available for civilian use are regarded with favor by the consuming public. But for the retail merchants of Memphis and other trading centers they add up to an acute pain-in-the-neck.

The great majority of retailers do not regard upward spiraling prices with any more favor than do the buyers. They understand quite well the disastrous results of inflation and for that reason are eager to cooperate in holding prices down. But too frequently they are caught between a rock and a hard place by constantly changing regulations.

In the first place, the failure of price control measures to place ceilings on farm products made it utterly impossible to keep down the cost of many foodstuffs, including meat and fresh vegetables.

Local merchants are striving valiantly to comply with complicated ceiling decrees. These change so rapidly and involve such a vast amount of red tape and paper work that it is inevitable some mistakes will be made.

If there are times when you feel inclined to criticize your merchant for the way he is conducting his business, just remember that never before in the history of this free United States has he been restricted by such a multiplicity of rules and regulations. He has a lot to contend with and will have more. He will be lucky if he manages to stay in business at all.

Bull Calf Registers in Person

Victory Son of Elsie, 10-month-old bull calf, startled registrar Margaret Baun of the American Jersey Cattle Club, New York, by showing up in person with his famous mother. It was the first such registration in person. The 1,800,000 previously registered pure breeds mailed or wired their registrations.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Ships of the Destroyer type comprise the bulk of our fighting ships in the American Navy. Their average displacement is about 1800 tons, and they are fast, powerful, and hard hitting. They have been particularly effective in convoy duty and gave a good account of themselves in the Coral Sea engagement. They cost approximately $3,600,000 each.

Every Navy shipyard is turning out Destroyers in record time. They are essential for our two-ocean Navy. Purchase of more and more War Bonds will assure all-out production of these vital units for the Navy. Buy every pay day. If everybody invests at least ten percent of his income in War Bonds we can do the job. U. S. Treasury Department

Excerpts from the Official OEM Bulletin

Tire Service Prices Controlled

Services such as mounting and demounting, pick-up and delivery in connection with sales of new, used or recapped tires and tubes, are priced under the separate OPA regulations covering those commodities, and not under the general service price regulation, officials announced. Maximum prices for services in connection with new tires, under revised price schedule No. 63 are at levels in effect on November 25, 1941; in connection with used tires and tubes, under MPR No. 107, at March 7 levels, and in connection with recaps, under revised price schedule No. 66 as amended, at January levels.

Packers Get Higher Preference Ratings

Higher preference ratings for use of fruit and vegetable packers in obtaining machinery and materials for maintenance, repair and replacement have been granted by WPB under order P-115, which also was extended to include fish packers. The new regulations will assure adequate supplies and equipment for packing the 1943 crops and fish catch.

Service Men Get Sugar On Leave

Sugar certificates, available to service men on furlough at local war price and rationing boards will call for a ration of half a pound a week, OPA announced. Previously such certificates called for the same weight value as that of the ration stamp valid for the period in which service men applied.

Kitchenware Production Slashed

A drastic reduction in the variety and types of cast iron kitchenware, and simplification of styles of enameled kitchenware have been ordered by WPB in two limitation orders. Cast iron kitchenware will be cut from 200 different items to about 12, the permitted items being skillets, griddles, household kettles, sugar or wash kettles, butchering kettles, dutch ovens, muffin pans, corn or bread stick pans and flatirons. Production of only relatively few enameled ware items will be permitted, but manufacture of these will be greatly increased.

Vehicle Owners Can Get Blanks

Commercial vehicle operators who do not receive their application blanks for certificates of war necessity, by mail may obtain the blanks from district offices of ODT, officials announced. All commercial motor vehicles must carry certificates by November 15. ODT district offices are located at Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Lubbock, Amarillo, Austin, Waco and San Angelo in Texas.

Big Inch Extended to East Coast

The "Big Inch" oil pipeline, now under construction from Longview, Texas, to Illinois, will be extended to the East Coast, OPC Coordinator Harold L. Ickes announced. The extension will insure a daily pipeline delivery of 300,000 barrels of crude oil or products direct from the East Texas fields to terminals in the New York-Philadelphia district. Completion of the line to Illinois is expected in December, when work will begin on the extension to the East Coast.

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

Fair Warning

Whatever you do, try to arrange your affairs so as to have some money laid away, either in tax certificates or in cash, to pay off that huge income tax bill you are going to have next spring. It will not be necessary for you to make a lot of money to owe Uncle Sam a quite substantial sum. It is a most unfortunate thing that a pay as you go policy has not been adopted for most of us taxpayers, who spend just about what we make as fast as we make it. Next spring we'll owe taxes we can't pay and there'll be hair in the butter. Uncle Sam can't get blood out of a turnip, it is true, but he can make a turnip sweat.—Homer Steen in The Floyd County Hesperian.

Making It Easier

The more thoroughly the individual understands the gasolining regulations and the more carefully he complies with the rules, the easier he will find it. A certain amount of confusion is perhaps unavoidable, but the individual can hold it to a maximum by finding out just what is expected of him and then obeying the rules in both letter and spirit. The administrators of the ration plan have a task which will be very difficult, under any circumstances. They are entitled to the sincere cooperation of all with whom they must deal. A necessary preliminary to that cooperation is an understanding of the rules.—The Wichita Falls Times.

Off the Beam

"Pappy" told us hundreds of times during the campaign that "There aint gonna be no run-off," "there aint gonna be no gasoline rationing" and "there aint gonna be no long war." It seems he was sadly mistaken about the first two, but we hope he guessed right on the third.—The McLean News.

Eye for an Eye

The world cannot blame Stalin if when Hitler is turned back the Russian troops should be sent on a march to Berlin carrying out the same campaign of destruction that has been waged against Russian cities by Hitler's armies.—Foard County News.

Speaking of gasoline rationing reminds us of the report that "moonshine" gasoline is rather easy to make. Of course, it is unsafe, but all the motorist needs is a drum which can stand some heat. Four young raw crude oil into the drum and heat it, catching and condensing the vapors that boil off, producing a gasoline of about 50 octane. Present standard brands of gasoline are about 70-72 octane. It might cause a knock or two, but it will drive your motor. If you're successful with your experiment, let us know.—Sain Jo Tribune.

On the Home Front . . . .

CIVILIANS FEELING PINCH OF WAR

The Government's rationing plans have taken precedence over all other news on the Home Front the past two weeks, and, as the winter weeks roll by, the consumer will feel more and more the pinch on civilian production.

Uppermost in the people's minds in the Southwest, naturally is mileage rationing registration which gets into full swing next week. Application blanks are being made readily available in every county and parish this week in preparation for registration which will be held on Nov. 12, 13 and 14, in Texas and Louisiana and on Nov. 9, 10 and 11 in Oklahoma. School houses will serve as registration sites. Motorists who have not disposed of passenger-type tires in excess of five are urged to sell them to Uncle Sam now in order to be eligible for the basic "A" book. The Railway Express Agency is the authorized collection agency for excess tires.

Gasoline rationing was not alone in the spotlight—there was coffee too. OPA officials, in order to sound an early death knell to foolish rumors, announced last week that coffee rationing would begin on November 29. Officials were quick to add that the early announcement should not be any reason for hoarding and they put a hasty okay on plans by stores to puncture cans of coffee to prevent hoarding.

The individual coffee ration will be one pound for five weeks, which is at the rate of 10.4 pounds per year. Adding the amount of coffee consumed by the public through restaurants and other institutions, the average American coffee drinker under rationing, will use at the rate of about 13 pounds per year, which is about 36 per cent less than the amount he averaged over the five-year period from 1937 to 1941. The coffee ration, of course, may be changed from time to time to meet the varying conditions of supply.

The first quota of coffee will be released in exchange for coupons from the sugar rationing book; so all consumers who did not get the sugar book are urged to apply to their local boards immediately. The regulations permit late registration, and local boards will give consumers information on how to dispose of excess sugar. Local board members have been asked to check late registrants carefully, however, to see that no one gets two books.

GPA spokesmen, meantime pointed out several ways in which consumers can get greater "age" out of their coffee. Here are some of the suggestions: Use coffee frequently. Keep your coffee in a tightly covered container. Keep it in the refrigerator or other cool place. It deteriorates less rapidly when cool. Keep your coffee pot immaculately clean. Have your coffee ground as fine as possible for the pot you intend to use. Use accurate measurements. Don't boil coffee. Serve the coffee as soon as it is made. Use only the exact amount you intend to use.

Wage Freeze Questioned

With wage and salary increases now restricted by the President's Wage Stabilization program, War Labor Board, which will administer part of the program, announced plans to open office in the field. Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana will be served by a regional office in Dallas. Work with the WLB, the Dallas office, has announced that it will answer questions concerning stabilization problems.

Rip Van Winkle Was a Lucky Man!

When Rip Van Winkle woke up and wandered back to the old home town, he was neither recognized nor remembered. He found his wife gone, his daughter married, his native village remodeled, and America independent. He had slept clear through the Revolution!

Nevertheless, Rip was a lucky man, because we'd never have known about him to this day if Washington Irving hadn't written him up.

Any business firm that is contemplating hibernation from advertising during World War II might well consider the plight in which Rip found himself. For after this war even a Washington Irving—if you could find one—might not be able to bring back into public favor a once popular trade name.

It ALWAYS pays to advertise.

Cut Fuel Wood

Farmers now are being urged to cut and season as much fuel wood as possible, and to substitute wood for coal and oil. Fuel value of wood is proportional to its dry weight, the Forest Service reports.

Clean Cotton Has Increased Value

The men who gin it, and men and women, boys and girls who drag the cotton sacks in the fields can land a stiff wallop for the war effort by using extra care to remove trash and dirt, and by trying extra hard to pick their cotton clean and dry, says W. B. Hooser, County Agricultural Extension Service agent.

There is pressing need for doing these two things. Here is the reason: Cotton linters, the residue of fibre from cottonseed after ginning, are the source of the best quality cellulose used for making smokeless powder and windows for bombers and fighter planes.

Trash, dirt and water in seed cotton lower the grade and value of the bale, as well as reduce the quantity and quality of food products and munitions made from the seed. Moreover, dirt and trash in linters cannot always be removed during purification in the process of making smokeless powder.

The greatest manufacturing industry in Texas today is petroleum refining, which contributes more than 40 per cent of the total value of Texas manufacture. Spindles and looms were introduced in the early Spanish missions at San Antonio and the first cotton grown in Texas was turned into cloth by the Indians who were trained at the missions.
