GUDE'S Comments

Dear Santa,
Whether you are ready to visit Memphis or not, Memphis is getting ready—and getting ready quickly—for you.

Decorations are going up daily —and nightly, too. Almost every merchant in Memphis has done something or other in the way of making his place of business seem more Christmas-ey.

Of course, Santa, your picture or a miniature model of you is one of the main objects to be seen in the windows and in the stores themselves. Christmas trees, all highly decorated and most of them well-lighted, are also very popular.
There seems to be some difference of opinion on the number of reindeer you have hitched up to your sleigh. Some of the window displays show you with one, some with two, some with four, and some with six.

Merchandise—things which people can give people for Christmas in case you don't drop in—is displayed in nearly all the windows so attractively that it's hard to be-

Cotton Quotas Get Big Majority

Farmers in 19 states went to the polls Saturday and cast a heavy affirmative vote for the continuance of marketing and production control over cotton, unofficial and incomplete returns indicated this week.

Hall County returns, although voting was relatively light, gave the marketing quotas a 96 per cent majority, with 708 balloting for the quotas and only 27 against.

Voting throughout the 19 states was approximately the same in strength as in this county, with a percentage of 92.5 approving the program. A two-thirds majority was necessary to continue the quotas.

Less than one-half of the eligible voters cast ballots, it was reported. An incomplete count showed 761,117 for the program's continuance to 61,408 against.

Under the system, the Department of Agriculture establishes marketing quotas for all cotton growers. Sales of cotton in excess of the quotas are subject to penalty taxes of three cents a pound.

The program was inaugurated in 1938. In the first year's referendum, 92.1 per cent of the growers approved; in 1939, the count was 84.1 on the affirmative side; and in 1940 the quotas were approved by 91.2 per cent.

Voting in Hall County was as follows (affirmative vote is given first): Baylor, 18-0; Newlin, 26-1; Lakeview, 59-2; Eli, 20-0; Turkey, 117-3; Brice, 30-1; Parnell, 41-0; Memphis, 108-0; Lesley, 49-1; Estelline, 51-6; Plaska, 64-0; Bridle Bit, 16-0; Deep Lake, 10-3;
Hulver, 28-2; and Oxbow, 11-3.

MENTOR—Coach Harold (Chesty) Walker of Phillips, former Memphis coach, whose bi-district champion Blackhaws will meet the Paducah Dragons at Phillips Friday afternoon to play for the regional championship.

Phillips, Paducah Meet for Regional Grid Tilt Friday

Blackhaws Coached by 'Chesty' Walker, Former
Memphis Cyclone Mentor

Two powerful teams, both of whom outclassed their bi-district opponents in last Friday's games, will meet at Phillips Friday afternoon to play for the regional championship.

The two teams, the Phillips
Blackhaws and the Paducah Dragons, have both made impressive records—the Blackhaws finishing their regular season undefeated and untied, while the Dragons have tied two and won the remainder of their games.

The game on the Phillips gridiron will start at 2:30 o'clock, it was decided last Saturday when officials of the two schools met in Memphis. Local officials had invited the two teams to play here, but it was declined since each of the two schools felt that larger attendance would be possible on one of the home fields.

In last week's bi-district games,
the Dragons downed Shamrock's fighting Irishmen 19 to 2, while

TWO HURT IN CRASH

Two Newlin residents were seriously injured in a head-on collision about two miles north of Hedley Wednesday night at about 12 o'clock.

One of those injured, T. H.
Abrams, was not expected to live,
an attending physician said today at noon. The other, Charlie Reed, suffered a fractured jaw and other injuries, and he is expected to recover.

The driver of the other car, reportedly from Pampa, suffered severe lacerations, but he was not thought to be seriously injured.

Both Reed and Abrams were brought to a Memphis hospital following the accident. Abrams had not regained consciousness today at noon.

An Editorial CONSERVE COUNTY RESOURCES

LANDOWNERS OF Hall County will vote Saturday to determine whether a soil conservation district will be organized to serve this vicinity.

First of all, every landowner should go to the polls and vote one way or the other—that is the democratic way of life and one of the marks by which the democratic way of life can be distinguished.

Another reason why a large percentage should vote either for or against the district is that the state conservation board, if the district receives an affirmative vote, can disregard the outcome if a representative number of citizens do not vote.

Surely there can be no doubt as to the value of a conservation district. Those landowners who have had conservation work done through the facilities of the SCS office and the CCC camp in Memphis know that conservation practices pay off in dollars and cents.

If the CCC camp should move, then this county and the surrounding area would be without the knowledge, experience, and aid which the SCS office offers.
A soil conservation district is one means by which expert aid can be obtained.

The election must be carried by a two-thirds majority before the district can be organized, and the vote must be representative of the citizenship.

Conservation of land is undoubtedly a good thing.
Land which no longer produces is not land of production nor wealth nor security nor...

BALLOTING ON SOIL DISTRICT WILL BE HELD

Eligible Voters to Include Those Who Have Title to Land

Hall County's landowners will vote Saturday to determine whether one more step forward is to be made in the near future in the conservation of this area's natural resources.

A meeting of all persons interested in either the soil conservation district election or the road bond election will be held in the City Hall tonight at 7:30 o'clock, Carroll Smyers, secretary of the chamber of commerce said. Phases of both elections will be discussed, and both proposals will be explained.

The balloting will determine whether a soil conservation district is to be organized to serve Hall County and possibly surrounding areas. For the election to carry, a two-thirds majority is necessary.

Eligible voters include those who hold legal or equitable title to land lying within the proposed district, live within the district, and are otherwise qualified voters under the state election laws.

Balloting will be held in the regular polling places, with the following acting as presiding judges of the "serious boxes":

SPOILING YOUR FACE

The face that you carry everywhere with you is the only one you will ever get. But it is possible for you to give it a lot of change.

Your face is a sort of publicity agent for you. It tells people a great deal that you do not imagine it tells. Also it publishes volumes of things you are glad to have known.

Your face is the most important "ware" that you exhibit. Usually you pass for your "face value."

So do you see how important it is not to spoil your face? Here are some of the things that rebuild faces. First, smiling at every stage of your day makes a wonderful face.

It can never be spoiled by smiles. So learn the art of smiling. Believe in better things. A face grows in beauty and power under the working of a mind that sees the good in everything. Change not your expression in the front of defeat; look victory and you are sure to see it.

Worry not. More faces are lined and creased and folded up through worry than any other thing. Worry is a worse disease than the small pox and leaves deeper scars.

You are no older than your face. Clean thoughts and purposes made plain, stamps a rainbow of youth and promise across the planes of your face that nothing can erase—least of all, mere years.

It's a good thing to believe in your face. And if you do, it's not liable to spoil.

1st Graders Erect Yule Decorations

The first-grade room has been made colorful and attractive by the use of Christmas decorations.

Under the directions of their teacher, Miss Atchley, the pupils have made blackboard borders by using Christmas trees, pictures of Santa Claus, and by using magazine pictures.

On the sand table is a miniature log house, which was made by using rolls of wrapping paper.

Santa has been placed in a sleigh drawn by reindeer. All of this is surrounded by cotton and artificial snow. On a window shelf is a miniature village covered with ice and snow.

To stimulate interest in reading, a new reading chart is being used. Instead of giving the usual star to the person who does not miss a word in reading, a Christmas seal is placed by his name.

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED

The Lakeview Grade School received a large shipment of library books Monday, December 7. The library has a number of new books and it is hoped that a library of good size can be built.

Cal Farley Circus To Be at Lakeview

Cal Farley believes a busy boy is a good boy, that youthful, overflowing energies can be diverted into constructive channels. He knows that boys hate "preaching," resent "goodness" that is rammed down their throats. So he feeds it to them under a sugar-coating of competitive sports at the Maverick Club.

The club is designed to provide spare-time activities for boys with homes. These homes may be with parents, relatives, or friends. They may be underprivileged and humble. They may be mansions of cattle kings. But all Mavericks are equal to each other and to everyone else.

Lakeview is privileged to be host to Cal Farley and his company, including the Maverick Club boys, Friday night, December 13. The company will be served by the homemaking students.

W. B. Morrison, Commissioner Precinct No. 1.

T. L. Davis, Commissioner Precinct No. 2.

Roy Russell, Commissioner Precinct No. 4.

G. M. Dial, County Clerk.

IT APPEARS that this court has ordered that an election in and throughout Hall County be held on the 14th day of December, 1940, upon the question of authorizing the issuance of $500,000.00 road bonds for Hall County.

Only in case it is arranged that said bonds, as needed, may receive 100 per cent participation as aforesaid and as provided by law it is further contemplated that the uses made of the proceeds of said bond issue are to be allocated as follows:

Three-fourths of said bond issue are to be set aside and used as provided by law on a designated State Highway from Turkey north to the Donley County line, in Precincts 2 and 4, and on the Farm to Market road in Precinct 1 from the Fort Worth & Denver tracks on Noel street in Memphis eastward to the Childress County line when designated, or to be designated, as a State Highway in the manner required by law; and any surplus which may be derived from said three-fourths of said bond issue, after construction of said highways named above in this paragraph, may be used on any other new State Highway construction in said Precincts 1, 2 and 4. The proceeds of the remaining one-fourth of said bond issue shall be set aside and used, as provided by law, whenever the Highway Commission shall designate, survey and agree to construction in Precinct 3 of a State Highway from Estelline southward to the South line of Hall County.

In the event substantially the foregoing shall not be done, then these contemplated road bonds will not be issued and sold.

The foregoing order was read and it was moved by Commissioner Russell and seconded by Commissioner Morrison that it be passed, and upon the question being called, it was unanimously passed, Commissioners Morrison, Davis and Russell voting AYE, County Judge Goodpasture concurring; and no one voting NO.

M. O. GOODPASTURE, County Judge.

WAR IS A MAN'S GAME

—and—

WINE IS A WOMAN'S DRINK

By CARL MILLER

The cyclonic shakes and blows of this world cataclysm will revitalize decadent civilizations. Men's minds cling to the ideas of yesterday like a senile old man to his boyhood tales. Time, the impartial evaluator, is the Great Leveler of all humanity. Time, the only infallible historian, never imparts sanctity undeservedly to an individual or an institution. Under the exigencies of threatening war we are in a political upheaval, the magnitude of which, we are unable to comprehend.

The divination of the mass mind has risen little above the troglodyte, from which we evolved ten million years ago. Just as it takes fire to burn dross out of gold, it takes war to kill off the surplus, the useless, the hopeless, that burden society and stalemate progress. War is a divine and eternal recurrent like famines, floods, earthquakes and pestilences. It provides more food, more space, fresh blood streams for a more virile and intelligent civilization, and destroys the debris of reckless humanity.

Man, like a tree, begins dying at the top. His brain ossifies and becomes impervious to new thoughts. Man is never so ingenious as when in danger of annihilation. His mind, in a clash of wits with deadly foes, creates a more efficient engine of destruction. This is self-preservation—the first law of humankind. War, in all its horrors, is progress, just as death has its benefits—because it is universal to all mankind.

War changes our basis of judgment, clarifies economic relations between nations, revitalizes spiritual and moral values, purveys the truth, and disseminates world history geography. "War is a he-man's game and wine is a woman's drink," said Byron, just as a woman's oppressed heart is relaxed by tears, so it is gladdened by a brave and chivalrous man. Only heroes inspire a great art, drama, opera or legend. Nations rise on fields of battle and perish at the conference table.

A society of "merely good" men is stagnant. Old races and old governments run to monotonous conformity. Democracies grow as the soul grows and the intellect broadens. The burden of freeing humanity must be shifted from mass legislation by the state to Christian education of the individual by the church. Where are the fearless thinkers to propound this philosophy—a Luther, a Huss, a Zwingley or a Calvin? These Godly men were persecuted and called heretics because they did not respect ancient rites and decalogues.

It took a Renaissance to obliterate the sophistry, hysterical passions and occult illusions of Medieval Europe. Who dared break through this crustaceous conformity was a radical and a sinner, cursed and reviled. America is now at the apex of her civilization—rolling in material wealth and wallowing in spiritual decay. Calculate the historical nodes—they are of five centuries duration, which is a cycle of seasons for civilizations—Assyria, Judea, Babylon, Egypt, Greece and Rome. These nations did not learn of history and their epitaphs are read on the crumbling stones of their greatness.

The world is choking with the stench of hypocrisy. Stereotyped creeds are shop-worn and show thin and evanescent. Luther posted his Thesis and the whole world read—as the old creeds crumbled into folly. He was the Hammer of God to beat down the cold, skeptical practices of the Middle Ages. Nature had to produce ten million boobs to create one Luther.

The wave, bearing upon its crest the new life, not as an abstraction, not as a huddle of sects, but as a mighty force and principle as taught by the gentle Nazarene upon the lowly hillsides of Judea, is coming. It is the religion of Christ—not the religion about Christ.

Amount of Salary Aid to Schools Is Approved by Hunt

State to Pay $22,449 To County Schools; Figure Slightly Below That of '39

A total of $22,449 in salary aid from the state to rural schools in Hall County was approved by Anthony Hunt of Childress, deputy state superintendent, in his inspection of the various schools last week.

The final approval on the aid will be made by the state auditor, and plans now are being made by the state to pay the full amount of the aid.

The amount approved by Mr. Hunt was slightly below that of last year, when the schools received $24,906 in state aid. The drop was caused by a decreasing number of scholastics in the county, and a consequent loss of several teachers, County Superintendent Tops Gilreath explained this week.

The amount approved for each school is as follows: Eli, $720; Deep Lake, $614; Webster, $211; Newlin, $1,215; Indian Creek, $29; Brice, $220; Pleasant Valley, $480.

Salisbury, $331; Lesley, $703; Plaska, $1,427; Friendship, $789; Buffalo Flat, $699; Bridge Bit, $659; Esteline, $3,661; Lakeview, $5,102; Turkey, $5,584.

Reigning Collegiate Court Kingpins Are Threatened

BY ART BRONSON

PRESENCE of several outstanding collegiate prospects in every section of the country indicates a continued climb in popularity for the cage sport, which attracts more participants than any other athletic pastime.

Conference champions on almost every hand are threatened, and some of the independents will again be among the nation's best teams. One of the principal attractions of basketball is that a little school like Long Island U., Toledo, or Bradley Tech can come up with a winner.

On the Pacific coast, Southern California faces a long road if it is to repeat as conference champion. Only one regular is back, California, Stanford, and U. C. L. A. are all expected to be more powerful; all four will be contenders for the title.

The real choice on the coast is Oregon, national champions of two years ago. Coach Howard Hobson has four of last year's regulars back, needs to replace only John Dick, center. Leading the Webfoot attack will be Archie Marshik, giant center, and the veteran Vic Townsend, stellar guard.

COLORADO doesn't seem to be as strong as it was last season, but should still be good enough to win the Rocky Mountain Conference. Utah should be a contender, and so should Wyoming, near the bottom of the heap last trip.

In the Southwest Conference, Rice stands a fair chance to repeat, although Baylor—with five lettermen back—and Texas will be strong contenders. Rice boasts one of the tallest players in the country in Bob Kinney, center, who stands 6 feet 7 inches.

Oklahoma A. & M., winner of 25 straight games last year and one of the nation's best teams, will be strong with seven lettermen back.

Kentucky is favored to be tops in the south, with Tennessee and Vanderbilt as the chief opposition. North Carolina is a contender with the sensational 6-foot 5-inch center, George Glamack, back. Glamack averaged nearly 20 points a game last season, totalled 453 points.

George Glamack... the big North Carolina center should be one of the year's outstanding players.

INDIANA, which won the national collegiate championship last season, has a good chance to take the Big Ten title, with 11 lettermen on hand as the nucleus for the new aggregation. Purdue and Illinois are the chief threats.

Kansas U., Toledo and Bradley Tech are all expected to return with outstanding teams.

New York City has several crack outfits in Long Island U., City College and N. Y. U. Rhode Island State again sizes up as the class of New England. Dartmouth is strong in the Eastern Intercollegiate League. Duquesne has a veteran team and should be one of the leading independents.

The four delegates chosen will choose the county AAA committee of three members following the election of Memphis' community committee Saturday afternoon.

First of the community meetings will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Estelline theatre building. Farmers of the Estelline community will choose the delegate to the county convention to be held Saturday, the community committee, of three, and two alternates.

Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, farmers of the Turkey community will meet at the theatre for the election; and the meeting at Lakeview will be held Friday night at 7 o'clock, either preceding or immediately after the soil conservation district educational meeting there.

All members of the county agricultural conservation associations, composed of producers cooperating with the AAA, are eligible to participate in the committee elections.

Phillips, Paducah—

the Blackhawks were crushing Hereford 40 to 0.

Coach Harold (Chesty) Walker of Phillips, former Memphis resident and coach here several years ago, uses the single and double wing back formations, while Coaches Ab Pruitt and Burns McKinney of Paducah use the famous Notre Dame system.

The Dragons have rolled up 233 points to only 20 for their opponents during the season, and the record of the Blackhawks is almost as impressive since they have made 231 points to 35 for their opponents.

Of the 233 scored by the Dragons, Rudolph Mobley, leading high school scorer of the state, has made 161 points. Mobley has made long runs consistently throughout the season.

Both teams have heavy lines. Phillips backfield aces are R. S. Cooper and 'Manny' Jackson, both of whom are fast runners. In addition, Cooper is one of the best passers in the Panhandle.

Estelline Patrons To See School in Action January 17

State Superintendent, Dr. L. A. Woods, to Make Principal Speech at Night

That Estelline patrons will have the opportunity to see their 'School in Action' was announced this week by J. W. D. Chappell, principal.

The theme of the program, to be held January 17, Mr. Chappell said, is 'Our School in Action.' We want the patrons to see each department in actual operation. Students will be placed entirely in charge of the day's program, and will also have charge of the night program preceding an address by Dr. L. A. Woods of Austin, state school superintendent, who has already accepted an invitation to speak at 7:30 o'clock at night.

Also invited to attend the day's observance is Anthony Hunt of Childress, deputy superintendent, Miss Tops Gilreath, Hall County superintendent, and members of the county school board, Theodore Swift, Hulien Clifton, J. O. Adams, J. W. Burk, and J. E. Eudy.

Visitors will be allowed to go into the class rooms as the classes are in progress. Other rooms will be open for inspection during the day, and various exhibits will be made, Mr. Chappell explained. Dr. Woods will speak on the 12-grade system in his night address. The Estelline school is now operating under the 11-grade system.

Several other counties have recently held similar elections on bond issues of the same nature, and other counties have elections ordered before the month of December is over.

If the bonds are passed and sold, three-fourths of the funds derived from the sale will be spent on a road north of Turkey to the Donley County line; and on the feeder road east of Memphis to the Childress County line. The remaining one-fourth is to be set aside for a road from Estelline south to the southern Hall County line, provided, of course, that this road is designated by the state highway commission.

The election was ordered by the Hall County Commissioners Court November 9, following the presentation of a petition to the court by a group of citizens.

Clarendon Group Appeals for Help

An appeal from the Clarendon Red Cross for Memphis women to aid in making sweaters for the British refugees was received this week, and several women have already agreed to help, it was announced.

Approximately forty women are needed to knit at least one sweater each during the month of January. Mrs. Murray Dodson, who is in charge of the movement here, said. Volunteers to aid may contact either Mrs. Dodson, or Mrs. Frank Foxhall.

Materials and instructions for the making of the sweaters will be furnished, Mrs. Dodson explained. The Clarendon Red Cross called for aid from Memphis in order that the quota of supplies from that group might be filled.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tucker and Mrs. T. M. Potts were Amarillo visitors Tuesday.

Judge (Sec. 246 S.W. Reporter, p. 79, in any law office).

The proposed bonds can never be sold, at any time, unless it is arranged for the state to assume full payments, with no direct burden left on the county or its citizens. Neither can they be used for any other purpose.

Q. Can and will the Legislature repeal the bond assumption law? A. Yes and no. It has the power to repeal the bond assumption law.

The Legislature has the power to repeal any act ever passed by the Legislature itself. It has the power to repeal the laws against murder, burglary, and theft, or any act on the books. But we know it will not repeal any law of general interest to the people. Every citizen in Texas except 12 scattering ones has outstanding road bonds already assumed by the state. We know that when 242 of 254 counties benefit by the continuance of the bond assumption act that no Legislature will dare repeal it.

Q. If the state has the money, why doesn't it build its roads?

To do a given job it must have the money in a lump sum and bonds are necessary to do this. By this means the jobs can be completed and the bonds repaid over a course of years by annual payments made out of gasoline taxes as collected. Or, in other words, it is an application of the installment plan to road building. Bonds are necessary for the same reason that notes are necessary in financing a car bought on installments.

Q. Will the state be compelled to assume all the bonds voted, as fast as they are voted, in the many counties holding bond elections?

A. No. Q. Then what? A. Some of the counties, if too many vote bonds, will have to wait until the state is ready and able to build their roads while floating their bonds out of gas taxes collected by the state.

Q. Will Hall County be one of the counties delayed perhaps for years?

A. Hall County has a chance to be among the first to have roads built because it is generally deemed desirable to improve roads leading south toward the Mexican border from Gray County where more than a hundred million dollars is invested in oil production. An east and west road is needed to carry part of the traffic now on Highway 66. Hall County lies in the path of both of these proposed new roads.

Q. Doesn't the state have a big income out of current gas taxes for building new roads and not included in the one-cent tax used for bond retirement?

A. Yes. But it will take 19 years for this fund to complete the needed work already laid out on it, as stated by members of the highway commission. Also the big counties where the most people live exert strong pressure against much new road building out of current funds in western Texas where fewer people live. West Texas must use inducements to speed up road building or must wait many, many years in most cases.

Q. Just who can vote in the bond election? A. You must own real estate or personal property which you have rendered for taxes, be a resident of Hall County, and be otherwise qualified as a voter in order to vote in the election. No matter how much or little property you own, if you failed to render it for taxes, you cannot vote in a bond election.

A hearing for the election was held last spring, following reports that a C.C.C. camp in Memphis, and with it the Soil Conservation Service, might be moved from this county. Landowners have been urged to vote in the election, since the state soil conservation board requires that a representative vote must be cast before the election can be upheld. The state board first ordered the election to be held October 19, but it was later changed to December 7 and then still later to December 14.

The polls will open at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, and remain open until 7 at night.

registration tags, front and rear lights, horns or bells that can be heard 100 feet, the barring of any wheel without a seat. Also making it illegal to ride on the sidewalk and all kinds of stunt riding. The advocate is about 99 per cent correct, except that most of the riders would keep people holding their ears to shut out the noise of the horns or bells, and would see just how many of the provisions of the ordinance they could break in one day, just like a lot of people who drive automobiles. Most of the drivers in Memphis think stop signs are placed at crossings just for ornaments.

Again, let me remind the readers that the cut-rate subscription campaign will not be continued very long.

Three hundred pounds of Jehovah's Witness literature was received in Memphis lately by one of the followers. I suppose this literature is to be distributed in Memphis, and speaking for myself, I don't want any of it left at my place of business or my home. These people who live off of the U. S. Government and do not believe in saluting the flag of their country may be sincere, but certainly they are misguided, or are the rest of the 130 million people of the U. S. wrong? As the constitution of the United States gives people the right to worship as they see fit and the right of free speech, there isn't anything to be done about their not believing in saluting the flag, especially in time of peace.

W. C. Wolf of the Deep Lake community attended the Masonic Grand Lodge at Waco last week. "It was the most enjoyable grand lodge meeting I ever attended, and there were some big men in attendance, such as Senator Tom Connally, Rev. George W. Truett, and Hon. Pat Neff," he said.

More Checks Here Raises Total Past $200,000-Mark

Payments Arrive in Three Groups; 363 Applications To Be Sent to AAA Office

Three more shipments of conservation checks arrived during the past week to raise the total amount received to $204,072.25, it was reported from the county agent's office.

Largest of the three shipments was received Wednesday, when 271 checks brought in $34,354.69. The first shipment of 94 checks, arriving Monday, totaled $9,119.42, and the second, received Tuesday, included 86 checks amounting to $11,216.32.

The number of checks now received is 1,562 of an approximate two thousand.

All applications except 363 have now been sent to the state AAA office for payment. These were held up until some of the farmers completed their soil building units.

Since December 1 was the final date on which the units could be completed, the 363 applications will be sent in as soon as possible, probably the first of next week, it was explained.

The conservation payments are expected to bring in about $275,000 to the cotton-producing farmers in Hall County.

American Producers Can Be Helped If Surplus Foods Bought, Says Goode

That all citizens can cooperate with the U. S. Government in the food stamp plan by buying surplus foods with cash as well as with the orange and blue stamps was brought out by Wynn S. Goode, area supervisor, in a called meeting of the grocers of the county last Thursday night in the City Hall.

Mr. Goode first explained briefly the manner in which the plan works. The government, he brought out, is trying to aid the farmer by ridding the market of so much surplus materials.

Participants in the stamp plan, he said, can aid the government by buying surplus foods with the orange stamps as well as with the blue stamps. Non-participants can likewise help rid the market of surplus foods by paying cash for the foods, and thus also help the producers.

The program was opened by Mayor J. C. Wells, who welcomed the grocers in behalf of the city. Mayor Wells told of the work of the city in obtaining the plan and expressed his opinion of the value of the distribution of the food stamps.

Carroll Smyers, secretary of the chamber of commerce, then told something of the history of the plan in Hall County, stating that the means by which it was obtained here.

Following Mr. Goode's address, M. E. Thompson, who has been employed to assist Mr. Goode over the area, stated that he was willing at all times to aid the grocers or any others in matters pertaining to the plan.

Present at the meeting were J. B. Ledford, R. L. Madden, Paul Meacham, J. C. Wells, Ray Childress, J. E. Roper, Derrel Hannon, H. H. Flowers, Homer Huggins, H. E. Goodnight, Charles Lacy, F. O. Harris, H. E. Childress, Carroll Smyers, D. W. Echols, F. P. Richerson, Dei E. Wells, W. E. Williams, A. L. Burks, H. B. Bennett, Kenneth Hawkins, Herbert Curry, Edgar Foster, Claude Prather, Mrs. Wynn S. Goode, Mrs. M. E. Thompson, Ed Smith.

Christmas Rates Offered by Denver

A smashing reduction in round-trip coach fares in Texas for the Christmas holiday season, effective December 20, has just been announced by F. D. Daggett, general passenger agent, FW&DC Railway, Fort Worth, through J. J. McTicken, local representative.

According to Mr. Daggett, this reduction lowers the basis of round-trip chair car fares far below regular rates. Mr. McTicken has complete information.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Buchanan of Wibaux, Mont., visited last week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lamb. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan are moving to Hereford, where he will be connected with SCS.

anywhere in the United States at the rate of 1-2 cents per ounce; sealed letters cost 3 cents per ounce outside the city; sealed letters on a route from the place where they are mailed cost 2 cents per ounce.

The domestic air-mail rate of postage is 6 cents for each ounce or fraction of an ounce on the mainland of the United States, and the pound rate is 96 cents a pound. The post office department prefers that air-mail envelopes be used, but plain envelopes are acceptable if the proper amount of postage is attached and the letter plainly marked as "air mail."

All parcels must be securely packed and wrapped. Mr. Read said. Strong paper and heavy twine should be used, and the packages should be addressed in ink, he added.

Certain odd-shaped articles, such as canes, golf sticks, hats, and sharp-edged instruments, should be carefully wrapped, it was explained. Clerks at the post office will give instructions as to the proper method of wrapping such articles.

Fragile articles, such as glassware, some toys, and crockery, must be carefully wrapped, and must be plainly marked "Fragile." Perishable matter should also be marked "perishable," and should be packed in a suitable container.

Do not mail Christmas greeting cards in red, green, or other dark-colored envelopes or in very small envelopes, it was urged. The post office will be rushed during the Christmas season, it was explained, and addresses on dark envelopes will be hard to read. Small envelopes will stand a better chance to be lost.

No parcel may be more than 100 inches in length and girth combined, nor exceed 70 pounds in weight.

If parcels or letters are mailed special delivery, they will be assured delivery on Christmas Day, provided, of course, that they are mailed in time. Only special delivery packages will be available on Christmas Day.

Grundy New M-M Implement Agent

Announcement has been made this week of the formal opening of the M-M Tractor and Implement Company showroom in Memphis to be held Saturday, December 14, at the company's showroom at 7th and Noel Streets.

The new company is under the management of Allen C. Grundy, who will be assisted by Earlie C. Rasco in the operation of the new implement business.

According to Mr. Grundy, a motion picture show of the M-M tractors and implements actually working will be shown at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and all those interested in farming are urged to be present. Refreshments will be served to the guests at this opening, it was announced.

Mrs. G. R. Dickson of Brice spent last week-end in Amarillo with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Sitton and family.

"Build-Up" Important Protector of Women

A weak, undernourished condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get a foothold; this leads to much of woman's suffering from headaches, nervousness, and other periodic discomfort.

CARDUI'S principal help for such distress comes from the way it usually stimulates appetite; increases flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion; helps build energy, strength, physical resistance to periodic pain for many.

Another way, many women find help for periodic distress: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

ROAD BOND ELECTION

HALL COUNTY citizens will vote Saturday on a $500,000 road bond issue.

The issue isn't like most bond issues. It seems to have its better points, outstanding among them the fact that Hall Countians will not be expected to pay off the bonds when they are sold and become due.

The bonds, as stipulated by the commissioners court, will be paid off by the state. Only when the state agrees to assume payments on the bonds will they be sold.

Most of the other counties in Texas have passed similar bond issues. Only last week Deaf Smith County and Castro County voted heavily in favor of bond issues ($600,000 in each county) under the same provisions as the bonds here.

The state, under the present law, would agree to pay off the bonds from the one-cent state tax on gasoline. The highway department is in favor of counties voting bonds under these conditions, because if the money is not used in this manner, then it may be diverted to some other department of the state government—something which the highway department naturally does not want to happen.

The money derived from the sale of the bonds, if they are voted and sold, would be used only on roads designated by the state highway department.

The election order, issued by the local commissioners court, stipulates that the money would be spent on three roads in particular, and others in case of a surplus. The first road is one from Turkey north to the Donley County line; the second is the completion of the farm-to-market road from Memphis east to the Childress County line; and the third is one from Estelline south to the south line of Hall County.

The Democrat is taking neither side in the road bond issue, although it does seem to be a means of "getting something for nothing." Every qualified voter, however, should vote one way or the other.

A LOST CAUSE?

WHAT HAS happened to the American Red Cross drive in Hall County?

Is it that people are not willing to contribute to the cause which almost everyone believes is worthy? Is it because no one is willing to do his part of the work in collecting funds? Or is it because no interest can be created in the movement?

Surely the latter reason is not to be blamed. If the Red Cross has ever needed funds, it needs them this year—and will need them for the coming year.

Thousands and thousands of human beings, people just like the people of Hall County, are suffering daily in Europe. Thousands of human beings are unable to find any relief from pain because no money is available to buy hospital facilities, and in some cases, no facilities are available even if the people of Europe had money to buy them.

That is the purpose of the American Red Cross. First in its purpose is, of course, the help in case of emergencies in the United States. But the Red Cross is also an organization to aid suffering humanity, not just suffering Americans.

The Red Cross, however, cannot aid humanity unless it is supported wholeheartedly by humanity. We in Hall County are a part of humanity, and must do our share in supporting the cause which has in years past given so much relief.

Even in Hall County, the Red Cross has spent thousands and thousands of dollars. Several years ago, when the Turkey area was in distress from flood waters, the Red Cross spent hundreds of dollars to aid the citizens there.

Only last year, the Red Cross spent more than $400 in Hall County for tonsillectomies for under-privileged.

Supporting the Red Cross is not a luxury nor a gift nor a donation—supporting the Red Cross is an investment and a sound one. In the words of a well-known American columnist—Be the first to help the Red Cross for the Red Cross will be the first to help you.

Press Paragraphs

CULLED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

At Least One Reader

The Wheeler Times: Although you may not excuse, the Times hopes you won't overlook a little commercial "plug." Last Saturday a young matron of Wheeler bustled into the office and asked if an extra copy of the paper containing an article on cooking venison could be spared. She stated that, when reading the recipe in the previous week's paper, she didn't expect to have need for it—but the gift of some of the meat reminded her of the article. Her paper had been mislaid but she hastened to remedy the situation. Now, do people read The Wheeler Times, or don't they? What do you think?

Consumers' Welfare

The Stephenville Empire-Tribune: The kind of manufacturer or store which worked on the principle that anything they could get away with was all right, is going out of the picture. Business today is fully aware that its own welfare depends upon the consumers' welfare. It knows that a "gypped" customer doesn't come back. And the consumer is getting the breaks.

His Welcome

Ed Bishop in the Dalhart Texan (after being gone for a week): Thanks to the tailor shops, garages, doctors, and drugstores, I can tell that I have been missed. After one week away from the office I find my desk piled high with bills, bills, BILLS. Taking advantage of my absence they added interest, carrying charges, and surcharges, knowing full well that they wouldn't get any money for weeks, months, and maybe years.

Headaches

"Give Me Liberty" in the Liberty Vindicator: Postmaster J. Howard Payne of Dallas prepared for Christmas by requisitioning 6,000 aspirin tablets, which will be kept in first aid kits for the use of postal workers. Postmaster Tom Calhoun of Liberty and his associates can be saved many a headache if YOU mail your cards and packages early!

A Dizzy Story

Sid Spear in the Tulsa Herald: A traveler informed a pullman agent that he wanted a pullman berth. "Upper or lower?" asked the agent. "What's the difference?" he asked. "A difference of fifty cents," replied the agent. "The lower is higher than the upper. The higher price is paid for the lower. If you want it lower you'll have to go higher. We sell the upper lower than the lower. In other words, the higher the lower. Most people don't like the upper, although it is lower on account of it being higher. When you occupy an upper you have to get up to go to bed and get down to get up. You can have the lower if you pay higher. The upper is lower than the lower because it is higher. If you are willing to go higher, it will be lower."

The Race Was Won

The Donley County Leader: Leaving here Thanksgiving morning to spend the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Sanders of Hobart, Okla. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rhodes and children had little to worry about.

Once on the highway, an impending crisis appeared inevitable and a race with the stork was soon in progress in an effort to reach the parental home more than a hundred miles away. The race was won, but only by five minutes.

Sensible

"Cracks" in the Chillicothe Valley News: A sensible girl is not so sensible as she looks, because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible.

Force

The Foard County News: The force of America is like a sleeping giant. It awakens slowly, but once it is aroused it is a force to be reckoned with, the like of which no other nation of the earth can approach. We have come to the time in the history of the race that the machine is the important element in peace and war alike and there is no country that can approach America when it comes to producing machines whether for peace time pursuits or for war. In this field we have no peer.

Cautious

Carl Roewe in the Turkey Enterprise: Doug Doshier may not be gun-shy, but he must be some kind of shy, because the boys he hunted with last Sunday came back with reports that he refused to climb through a fence to recover a bird that fell just out of reach, and they swear he carried a ruler and measured the tail feathers of every bird he shot before he'd pick it up. According to the boys, Doug started being cautious about things 'way last summer.

The Philosophy Behind Prayer

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Dec. 15.
Text: Luke 11:1-13

INCLUDED in the text for this lesson is the Lord's Prayer, which in itself might offer sufficient subject matter for many lessons. But the particular interest in this text is that which lies in its philosophy of prayer.

For it is here that Jesus teaches His disciples how to pray, and gives them the form and model which Christians have so universally used since that time. What is this philosophy of prayer? It is different from that of many people who pray. In some respects the conception and practice of prayer, that Jesus taught and practiced, are different from the ideas of prayer commonly encouraged and fostered by many religious teachers.

THIS common notion of prayer is that it is a means or method of asking for and getting things. Jesus puts the emphasis all the other way. Prayer is a human means of receiving and appropriating what God is waiting and anxious to bestow. The soul that does not ask can hardly receive; but that does not affect or limit God's willingness to give. Apart from the verses of the Lord's Prayer itself, the most important verse in our lesson is the last verse. After pointing out what any sort of decent earthly father will do for his children, Jesus goes on to tell how much larger is the willingness and purpose of the Heavenly Father to give to man His best and most precious gift. But Jesus warns us we do not receive God's best and most precious gift. This is the lesson of the importance of the Lord's Prayer. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His grace and His mercy. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His love and His kindness. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His forgiveness and His pardon. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His peace and His joy. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His life and His salvation. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His kingdom and His glory. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His eternal life and His everlasting joy. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His love and His mercy. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His grace and His kindness. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His forgiveness and His pardon. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His peace and His joy. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His life and His salvation. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His kingdom and His glory. We do not receive God's best and most precious gift until we have received His eternal life and His everlasting joy.
