Women's Talk by Betty

The other day in a midwestern town a water main burst, flooding a bank. There was a half-million on deposit but in the safety deposit vault, $375,000 in cash was found soaked by water.

Another news story of the week told of a fellow who withdrew $200 from a bank and stuck it in a dresser drawer. Rats chewed the currency so badly that he could not redeem it.

Figures released Wednesday showed that postal savings in the United States increased $63,000,000 during the month of January, reaching a total of $658,081,934 as compared with $595,237,908 at the beginning of the fiscal year.

All these things point out one of the very fundamental reasons why the circulatory system of American business has become somewhat stagnated. Arteries of trade, when not used, not only deteriorate but the millions of "cells" in the American body politic, become undernourished.

The same lack of confidence that causes some folks to take money out of circulation and place it in safety deposit vaults, between the mattresses or in postal savings accounts also causes folks in this other town to voice such beliefs as "we haven't seen the worst yet"; "this town never will come back"; "wonder why they put up that building"; "I don't see why they'd want to build that new railroad now anyway," etc.

It is a peculiar fact that the very business men who are hurt so much because billions have been hoarded in this country are themselves to a great extent responsible for the lack of confidence so many American citizens have today.

And he will.

The same lack of confidence that causes folks to store away that stuff that is so useless when hoarded leads folks in this and other towns to lack the intestinal fortitude to go onto the field in open battle of competition for the trade of additional people and wider territory.

Yep, we still believe this country will come back. We all will have learned some valuable lessons. Things, let us hope, won't get back to the place where we'll all get it in our heads an eternal boom is upon us. It won't have to be that way for us all to get along a lot better.

Everything's going to be all right. The only discouraging thing we see in this part of the world is that Jim Ferguson got hard up again and returned to the good old-fashioned Ferguson plan for replenishing the family larder—running his wife for governor.

Mrs. Ferguson Makes Formal Entry Into gubernatorial Race, Issuing Statement Addressed To Friends

AUSTIN—Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson Thursday issued a formal statement announcing her candidacy for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas. The statement follows:

Responding to the written request of more than 400 friends in 20 counties in Texas that I again enter the service of the state and pledging their active support, I hereby announce as a candidate for governor. These friends assure me that there is an urgent demand for my candidacy not only from all former supporters, but from thousands who have heretofore opposed me.

While I am not anxious to, nor will I enter into any scramble for office, yet I do not feel that any citizen is at liberty to decline to render public service in time of public need. My family having been in the past signally honored I recognize a special obligation to heed the call of the people of Texas if I am needed or wanted in the public service.

I sincerely hope that the contest in which we are about to engage will be conducted on the basis of merit rather than personal antagonism. "Who can best serve Texas" should be the uppermost thought in the minds of the voter when the time comes to cast the ballot in our democratic primary.

In addition to my connection with and my experience in the governor's office, I shall avail myself of the advice and cooperation of competent friends, of the legislature and my husband in determining a policy that will relieve the present precarious condition of our state affairs.

In submitting my name as a candidate I deem it proper to take the people into my confidence and tell them that I am not financially able to make any extensive or expensive campaign and will have to leave myself in the hands of my friends in the various counties of the state. I will go into office again, as in the past, under no promise or obligation to any special interest or faction for past, present or future favors.

Steers, Backs to Wall, Advance Upon Abilene Basketeers This Evening In Second Title Contest

Tonight in the Abilene High gym George Brown and his Big Spring High Steers go into the second game of the District 8 playoff series against the Abilene High Eagles with their backs to the wall and savage determination in their hearts.

For a loss this evening to Johnny Gregg's eagles would mean the end of the 1932 championship season for the local loop brigade, which suffered its first defeat of the year Tuesday night in an exciting game, 33 to 28.

The collection of rangy basket experts that downed the Big Spring team in the first of the playoff series naturally ranked as favorites as they prepared to take the court for the second game under the inspiring influence of an Abilene crowd and in the familiar surroundings of an Abilene gym.

Coach George Brown declared that his charges would really make their last stand tonight, and that General Custer and his gang of Indian fighters were nothing out "pikers" after all.

For more than two hours Wednesday afternoon the former A.C.C. star, who has cherished the ambition all season of leading a championship quintet into the city where he attended school and for four years was a basketball star in the T.L.A.A. conference, drilled his charges upon a lightning defense and a complete change in signals.

One new play was added to their collection, a revision with his guard breaking in, and the dribbler doing the passing instead of vice-versa.

Confidence reigned in the camp of the Eagles, where Coach Johnny Gregg declared that the Abilene ball game Tuesday night was far from being their best exhibition of the season and that they would be an improved team tonight before a home crowd.

However, Gregg insisted that he was not taking the Howard County entry lightly, and that they too were sure to flash improved basketball as they prepared to make a last stubborn defense of the honors they captured in two straight contests last season.

Gregg was due to start his regular lineup with Street and Smith at forwards, Coppinger at center, and Chapman and Landers at guards, at least three of which played stellar roles in the 33 to 28 decision Tuesday night. Coppinger and Street, elongated players who steadily slid under the basket, were due to come in for more than ordinary attention at the hands of Forrester, Flowers, and Reid, defensive stars for the Steers.

In spite of the one day's drill upon a new play and a speeding up of the local timing Brown said that he was standing pat upon the scoring system, that had carried the Steers to championship with straggle to the first game of the playoff, Hopper and Reid, tall behemoths who carry the major part of the scoring burden, failed to make anything other than a mediocre offensive showing Tuesday night.

'Big Push' By Japan Said To Be Nearer

Would Observe Chinese Movements From Airplanes

WASHINGTON (AP)—The state department emphatically denied the statement from the Tokyo foreign office that the United States assisted in framing the note to the council of the League of Nations as delivered to Japan yesterday appealing to Japanese "sense of honor." The department announced it had no knowledge whatever of the note until delivery was made.

It was learned that the United States has advised both Japan and China probably will be held responsible for American lives and property lost in the International Settlement of Shanghai.

MUKDEN, Manchuria (AP)—Establishment of the new state of Manchuria will be known as "Ankuo" or "Land of Peace," was formally proclaimed by Chinese leaders and Japanese advisers and its national emblem will be the discarded Chinese five-barred flag emblazoned by the rising sun of Japan.

It will have a republican form of government ruling under what is generally regarded as Japanese direction and will be headed by a dictator whose identity persistently is linked with that of Henry Pu Yi, former "boy emperor" of China.

Leading Chinese officials, prompted by Japanese advisers, so decided today in continuing their labors to set up a stable government in place of the military command of the army of occupation.

Chief among them was General Maoh Chan-Shan, former commander of the Chinese forces in northern Manchuria and once a stubborn obstacle to Japanese subjugation of the "three eastern provinces."

Five fundamental principles will be embodied in the projected constitution according to reliable information. They are: vesting of sovereignty in the people; autonomy of the state, equality of races, cooperation among racial elements and maintenance of the "open door" policy.

SHANGHAI (AP)—General Keiichi Uryeda, chief Japanese commander, served an ultimatum tonight demanding that the Chinese withdraw twelve and a half miles outside the city by sunset Saturday.

The same demand was submitted and rejected in peace parley earlier today.

This is considered preliminary to long awaited major offensive. The Japanese have 25,000 troops and the Chinese 50,000. Both sides have considerable number of airplanes. The Chinese, it was learned, have prepared for guarded, systematic retreat if defeated. The customary cannonading began in the Chapet area after the peace parley failed.

Problems of Municipal Finance Confronting Big Spring Shown In Talk By City Manager Spence

Present conditions and obligations considered, best interests of the people of Big Spring can be served by maintaining for another year the same tax rate and property valuations, declared Mayor W. Spence before the Wednesday Luncheon club.

He used a blackboard upon which he had listed the essential items in the city's financial picture as it now exists. He declared that he did not especially relish the task of discussing taxes, but that he regarded it as his duty to inform the people of the financial obligations and resources of their municipal government.

Listing the bonded indebtedness, and the sum that must be set aside annually to pay it, he showed the present valuation of property in the city, and the present tax rate, concluding with the statement that future welfare of the city demands that sufficient revenue be assured to care for indebtedness.

"This cannot be done at this time by reducing the rate or valuations," he said. "Perhaps you have a house that cost $5,000 which you could not now get $2,500. What you could sell for is not the principal factor in the valuation that should be put upon it. The valuation it carried last year is a fair book value for it."

Bonded indebtedness of the city of Big Spring is $860,000. Mr. Spence said he had no criticism for those who voted the bonds, and that he felt sure the people got value received for the money obtained from sale of those bonds.

Some taxes and counties job interest are sinking funds being used in order to enter to the public. "This has led some to defaulting of bonds and violation of the town's financial situation and credit standing."

Christians Enter Loop

Methodists Defeat New Team 19 To 17 Thursday

The First Methodists gained a deadlock for first place in the city game loop by turning back the Christian Church in a ragged game 19 to 17 Thursday evening. It was the Methodists' second straight of the year and the first appearance of the Christians, who replaced the Herald after the first week of the season.

The Lindseymen led the Methodists for over three quarters of the game holding a 9 to 5 advantage at the end of the third quarter. Loper, the high point man of the contest, with five field goals, sunk a shot from just back of center to knot the count a moment after the last period had begun, and Lindley's successful try from the foul line went for naught as Howie converted a free gratis try. Loper scored twice in succession in the next six minutes to place the Methodists four points in the lead and Kelly of the losers sunk one from almost the center of the court to end the scoring.

The Methodists, pre-season favorites to breeze through to the championship of the league, made a ragged appearance against the Christians, who were hustling all the time and kept breaking in the final quarter. Kelly and Lindley starred for the late entry in city play, while Rockhold and Loper featured the play of the Methodist Sunday School team.

Steers Scoring Spurt Too Long Delayed To Overcome Eagle Lead And First Game Is Dropped 28-33

By CURTIS BISHOP

Beating back a furious last quarter rally the Abilene High Eagles, champions of the eastern division of the district, turned back the Big Spring High Steers 28 to 33, western half time holders, in a thrilling contest in the local gym Tuesday evening. Parker Coppinger, south-paw center, led the scoring for the visitors with twelve points, while David Hopper of the locals tallied ten.

The Taylor county quartet roundly outplayed George Brown's proteges in the first three quarters, leading 9 to 12 at the end of the first period, 21 to 15 at the half, and 29 to 17 at beginning of the fourth quarter.

Late in the final period a rejuvenated Big Spring team went wild, scoring three field goals almost in succession, but time was too short for the rally to do more than intensify the interest.

The Eagles drew first blood, with Chapman sinking a long shot to put the visitors off to a two point lead and forrester evening the score a few seconds later with a spectacular shot from almost the center of the floor. A pass from Smith to Smith to Coppinger netted the Abilene club two more points, and Chapman raised the score two points with his second long shot of the evening. Hopper scored with a one-handed shot from the corner and made good on a free try a minute later, but the Eagles rushed in to the lead again and ended the quarter ahead 9 to 5 as Coppinger made good on the foul line and a chance from the foul line.

Second Quarter
The second quarter opened with Coppinger tossing a pass to Stanley Smith and the all-state football center delivering with a shot through the basket. Hopper received the ball in his favorite corner and sent a high one arching through the goal to make the score 17 to 7. Coppinger increased the advantage as he scored on another opportunity under the goal, and Big Spring's opportunity to tighten the count saw Morgan passing low to Hopper and the ball rolling out of bounds.

Chapman, Abilene guard who played a stellar defensive game until dispatched from the game early in the fourth quarter, made a wild over backward, but possession of the ball availed the Bovines nothing as Forrester's long try rolled around the rim and finally decided in the negative. Smith increased the visitors' lead with a shot from just an front of center, but Forrester evaded the scoring somewhat with a free try as Smith was fouled for a few seconds later. Smith broke through and intercepted a Bovine pass, and Coppinger took his shot off the board and sent the ball through the hoop for another pair of points. On a double foul Coppinger made good on two opportunities and Reid missed.

Break Even
The two teams broke even in the last two minutes of the second quarter with Morgan scoring from the left hand corner and Street taking a rebound and delivering. Reid missed another free try as the half ended with score 21 to 12 in favor of the Eagles.

The Steers came back in the first minute of play in the third quarter to score two consecutive goals as a combination play worked perfectly with Hopper on the tallying end and Flowers scoring his first long shot of the evening. A third straight goal failed when Forrester had another of his shots rolled around the hoop and then dropped into the waiting hands of an Abilene guard.

Mauzey Takes 32nd District Judge's Post

Nolan County Man Selected To Succeed Judge Fritz Smith

SWEETWATER, A. S. Mauzey, former county judge of Nolan county, qualified Tuesday afternoon as judge of the 32nd judicial district of Nolan, Mitchell and Butte counties. He received formal appointment from Governor Sterling today in the post made vacant by the death of Judge Fritz R. Smith of Snyder. Court is in session here, presided over by Judge Jim Brooks of Big Spring, and the grand jury of Nolan county will convene Thursday after a recess. Mauzey probably will disqualify himself in the most important case left on the docket, that of the Sweetwater school district vs. W. H. Bartlett, former district tax collector, a suit on fees. As attorney for the district, Mauzey gave an opinion in the case. Judge Mauzey is a long-time resident of Sweetwater, and served as Nolan county judge for ten years.

Colorado and Coahoma Engineer Upsets In First Round of Meet By Beating Roby and Sweetwater

A hectic first round of the West section, District 8, basketball tournament, saw the Colorado Wolves upset the Roby Lions, favored for at least a finalist berth on an early period game to 18. Roby led at the end of the first quarter, 1 to 4 and 10 to 6 at the half, but Hardy Pierce's proteges came back to take the lead 13 to 10 at the beginning of the final period, holding the Lions scoreless in the third quarter. Two long shots by Burke put the Lions a point in the lead and the count slipped back and forth until Stagner's field goal tied the score at 15-all just before the whistle sounded.

A break gave the Wolves their opportunity to score in the extra period. Stagner intercepted a pass under his own basket and shot wild. But Fuller took the rebound and slapped it neatly into the basket.

Dunn, with Geary showing the way with four field goals, ran up a 9 to 0 lead at the quarter and 17 to 6 at the half over Divide, but were extended to stretch their advantage to 27 to 20 as the game ended.

A mob of enthusiastic Howard county fans went wild as the Coahoma Bulldogs, with Bill Neal and Spears turning in great games, upset the Sweetwater Mustangs 19 to 18 in the only game Friday evening. Neither team was more than three points ahead at any time, with the Bulldogs fighting an uphill battle to win by the single margin of a free toss made in the final two minutes of play by Neal. The Baugh brothers, Sam and Bob, starred for Sweetwater.

Lead

The Mustangs led 11 to 10 at the end of the first half, but Neal went on a scoring rampage in the third quarter to tie the score at 16 all at the beginning of the fourth period. The Coahoma center, aided with some great play on the part of Spears, outscored the Mustangs 3 to 2 in the final quarter to bring victory to the Howard county club.

The Steers won their way to the final round by routing the Coahoma Bulldogs 46 to 12 Saturday morning, while the Dunn Owls were noosing the Colorado Wolves 19 to 18 in an exciting game that was not decided until the final minute of play, when Captain Gary converted a free try afforded him by a technical foul called on Coahoma Stagner of the Colorado club.

The Wolves led 8 to 2 at the quarter and 11 to 7 at the half as Stagner and Viles were sinking goals far back on the court and the former was starting in a defense that held Gary and his mates almost helpless. The same long shooting epidemic, however, proved to be the cause of the defeat of Hardy Pierce's crew, as Debra and Lester of the Owls scored twice each to put the Dunn quintet in the lead. Fuller scored for the Wolves to tie the score at 15 all with only a minute or so to play, and then Stagner called time with the ball in Dunn's possession and technical foul. Gary converted and the one point advantage proved to be the margin of victory.

Steers Win

Coahoma, heroes of a 19 18 upset of the Sweetwater Mustangs in the first round, provided little or no opposition for George Brown's Roby Lions in the second match of the meeting. Morgan, Morgan and Reid led the scoring with sixteen, fourteen, and twelve points respectively.

Firestone Continues Adding Developments To Automobile Tires

With the constant development during recent years of faster high-powered cars, Firestone dealers point out that tremendously increased responsibility has been placed upon tires. Safety in car operation, they say, depends more on the inbuilt quality of tires than on any other factor, and it is vital that car owners select tires that are built to withstand the grueling service of present-day conditions.

"Firestone has been the leader in developing tire construction to meet the high speeds of today," declares the local Firestone dealers. "This construction has been proven in the Indianapolis races where year after year Firestone have carried all the winners to victory."

"Race drivers were the first to recognize the real responsibility of a tire. Their major problems are steering and tire performance. In reality it is only one problem, that of steering, because there are actually three steering wheels on every automobile—one in the driver's hand and two on the road. The failure of any one means immediate danger."

"Ask the average car owner what starts his car and he will invariably say 'the engine.' But in actuality the engine will only spin the wheels—it is the tires gripping to the road that really start the car. And, also, it is the tires clinging to the road that stops the car when he applies the brakes."

"Firestone have developed the greatest advances ever known in the history of tire building to give inbuilt safety even beyond the severe demands of today."

"The Firestone Gum-Dipping Process minimizes internal heat and friction—the greatest enemy of tire life and safety. By this patented process Firestone transforms the cotton cords into a strong, tough, sinewy unit that makes the strongest cord body ever built."

"Firestone's patented construction giving two extra cord piles under the tread prevents what was formerly one of the largest single causes of premature tire failure—tread separation. Firestone's two extra cord piles under the tread are so placed that they give 50% stronger bond between tread and cord body, and 20% greater protection against punctures and blowouts."

"Firestone have also made a notable advance for greater safety through their quiet, safe, long-wearing non-skid tread that gives greatest traction under all driving conditions."

It is announced that Firestone dealers are now offering Firestone Tires, with these extra construction features, at the lowest prices ever quoted in the history of tire building.

George Washington, The Boy

Written in honor of Eagle Scout Steve D. Ford Jr., by Mrs. L. S. McDowell.

George Washington, whose bicentennial all of the world is celebrating, was born February 22, 1732, at 'Bridges Creek' on the Potomac river, in a four-room cottage with attic. He came of pioneer stock and was the oldest of his father's second wife. As a boy he was strong, healthy, tall, industrious, energetic, dependable and persevering.

He loved horses and had ability to tame and ride the unruly ones. And he could ride and walk all day and all night without resting or sleeping. He loved to camp in the forests alone, for there were no near neighbors. And he observed the Indians and knew how to deal and treat with them on terms of peace and friendship.

When a boy he set down "110 rules of conduct and civility," outlining the conduct that was essential to good manners in dealing with his fellow men, which plays a great part in his character as a boy and as a man.

He loved mathematics and became a surveyor at 16 years of age and set out to survey the 'Fairfax' million acres of land. He was efficient at whatever he did. He was a judge of good land and knew every acre of good land in the country. He knew roughness, hardship, struggle and adventures of his day and the common life of the people. He knew men and became a man among the people, whose touch has been with them all his life.

His "110 rules of conduct" was the secret of his faultless life as a boy and as a man and his success in life was achieved because he knew hardships and struggles when he was a boy. He had a many-sided career and could have succeeded any one or all of the things he did. He was surveyor, engineer, soldier, statesman, prophet and planner; traveller, father of his country, America's first geographer, America's first "Boy Scout," as well as America's first president and all ways first in the hearts of his countrymen.

Stock Market In Most Feverish Week-End Session of Two Years; Issues Up $2 to $14.50 Per Share

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market surged upward Saturday in the most feverish week-end session in nearly two years.

The anti-deflation tonic administered by the proposal to liberalize the Federal Reserve system was the apparent reason.

Net gains on most leading issues ranged from $2 to $14.50 per share and prices averaged indicated a gain in quoted values of more than five billion dollars Friday and Saturday, restoring the general level of prices close to the peak of mid-January.

United States Steel and American Telephone both registered new high levels for 1932.

CITIZEN OF BIG SPRING

SHYNE PHILIPS

At last a great secret is going to be divulged to the world. It has been discovered what Shyne's real name is—Earl Grover Cleveland Philips. No wonder the kids nicknamed him Shyne for short.

There have been all sorts of rumors afloat. Some druggists throughout the state have insisted that he is called that because his duty was once to shine the lamps in a drug store.

But Shyne himself has scoffed that rumor. The real reason, he says, is that when he was a baby he had some sort of skin eruption on his scalp and his mother treated it with an oily salve which produced a high gloss. Shyne's older brothers were very greatly struck by this glossy shine and that's how the name Shyne began.

When Shyne selected a wife he found one that also had unusual given names. Few people in town know that Mrs. Philips' full maiden name is Nannie St. Clair Bell.

Shyne's career as a druggist has paralleled the town's growth as a town—a remark which is not original.

New Bridge Club Adopts Name Of Delta Han'aroun'

The newest bridge club in town has selected, as its name, the Delta Han'aroun' Bridge Club. Mrs. R. Harris, Jr. was hostess to the members yesterday. Mrs. Milburn Barnett was received as the ninth member, completing the roster.

Mrs. Kin Barnett made high score and received linen hand-embroidered towel. Mrs. McCarty made high cut and received bath salts in a glass elephant.

Lovely refreshments consisting of a mouled salad course with dessert was served to the following: Mmes. Graham Foshee, Lionel McKee Kin and Milburn Barnett, S. S. King, W. A. McCarty and Miss Mary Allen, Jeanette Barnett and Thelma Crouch, of Marshall, sister of the hostess, who assisted in the entertaining.

Mrs. Foshee will be the next hostess.

James Dailey, of the T & P railway company in Fort Worth, is now improving after having been very ill.

Vast Cave Found By Road Workers Near Langtry

LANGTRY.—A vast cave almost within the shadow of this deserted outpost of the once dreaded "Law West of the Pecos," has been revealed by blasting to form grade for Highway 3.

Explored for only about 1,000 feet, the hole in the canyon foothills of the Rockies through which the highway runs, has all the appearance of a second Carlsbad, say those who recently entered it.

Stalactites as large as their bodies rained about the party of explorers as they climbed the 60-foot cliffs and followed pitch dark tunnels in the cave. They fled from the place to find that rocks had been shaken loose, not by the ghost of Judge Roy Bean, the ancient "law" of Langtry, but by further blasting by the road crew.

Six miles of grading and structures are being done by the highway in the Langtry area by the contracting firm of Thomson & Simpson of San Angelo. The work is almost entirely blasting so far as the grading is concerned, the road winding through some of the most rocky and desolate country in West Texas.

The contract calls for an original price of $114,000.

Similar rough work over 22 miles of the last unfinished gap of the highway between Sanderson and Fort Stockton is being done by the San Angelo firm.

Murray Enters Dakota Primary

BISMARCK, N. D. (AP)—Gov. William H. Murray, Oklahoma, filed as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in the March 15 preferential primary.

President Hoover and Senator Johnson of California announced they had not entered the republican contest in the state.

After the dinner these descriptions, written by the men, were read out and the men auctioned off according to them as partners for bridge and 42. Dr. C. K. Bivings and Sim O'Neal tied for the most votes in the auctioning and drew straws. Mr. O'Neal receiving as a popularity prize a pewter ash tray.

During the games Dr. and Mrs. Carter made high score in 42 and received a novelty ash tray, and Mr. and Mrs. Faw in bridge, receiving a double deck of cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim O'Neal were the only guests. Mr. O'Neal is a member of the Lions International. The members and their wives attending were Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Hardy, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Carter, Dr. C. K. Bivings, Messrs. and Mrs. R. C. Pysat, C. P. Woody, W. M. Paull, Clyde Waits, Jr., B. T. Caldwell, Theron Hicks, Tracy T. Smith, E. W. Potter, Cecil Colings, H. S. ### Mechanic Killed, Bystander Hurt When Goodyear Blimp Falls Over New York; Pilot Escapes Unhurt

NEW YORK (AP)—The Goodyear blimp Columbia, was smashed to bits, its mechanic killed, a bystander injured and several small buildings wrecked in an accident today.

The man killed was John Blair of Rockford, Ill. Pilot Prescott Dixon was uninjured.

The craft which had been making advertising flights over the city was banged against the ground by a sudden downdraft of air as it was making a landing. Fifty feet from the ground Blair tumbled or was thrown out. Dixon crawled from the wreckage unhurt after the blimp ended bouncing and landed on railroad tracks.

Lions' Wives Stage Leap Year Party

The wives of the members of the Lions Service Club entertained them with a Valentine Leap Year dinner party at the home of the president, R. W. Henry, Thursday evening.

The house was cleverly decorated with hearts and cupid and a red spider web across the front door. The wives tried to bring Lion husbands that were not their own and, where possible, sent flowers.

The attractive two-course dinner was served at the bridge tables which were covered with white linen cloths, centered with a square of red lace and containing for decoration a red heart tree growing in a small pot. Score pads, tally and prize wrappings carried out the valentine theme, as well as the meal.

During the dinner, Mrs. Tracy T. Smith gave a reading and Mrs. W. B. Hardy sang a solo.

When the guests first entered on each one was pinned the first line of a popular song which was to be their howdy-do to each other. During the dinner the men were asked to write descriptions of themselves as desirable husbands. While they were doing this several wives described the perfect husband.

After the dinner these descriptions, written by the men, were read out and the men auctioned off according to them as partners for bridge and 42. Dr. C. K. ### New Electric Refrigerator Is Shown Here

Show for the first time in any store, the new TruKold Electric Refrigerators on display at Montgomery Ward & Co. are part of the initial shipments introducing this simplified, advanced type of electrical refrigeration to the American public. It is hailed as the answer to the need for a refrigerator dependably operated by electricity, in the low price field. Evidence of something decidedly new is indicated in the guarantee which is unsurpassed.

TruKold will be offered to the public only by Ward's. It is made for them by one of the largest and strongest exclusive manufacturers of refrigerating equipment. "The Ward firm," stated C. P. Woody, manager of the local store, "has remained cautious about entering the field until positive that the right electric refrigerator could be developed to sell at a low price in reach of most homes, and be of such simplified, dependable construction that it could fully justify an unsurpassed guarantee."

Clifford Jones Refuses To Make Congress Race

Clifford B. Jones, Spur, has said "No," gently, as he always does but none less firmly to suggestions of his candidacy for congressman-at-large from Texas.

A proposal to draft Jones—make him run—put him over as West Texas' candidate—was made in last Sunday's issue of the Standard and Times; and it immediately won cordial support from other West Texas papers. The editorial urging the Jones draft was written without either his consent or knowledge. Monday he scotched the movement in the following letter:

"As I read your more than generous editorial I was again reminded of how kind you have been to me on many occasions. The more I think of it, the larger and more definite loom the obstacles and the personal sacrifice; even assuming as of course no one has any right whatever to assume, success at the polls.

"It seems imprudent from so many angles, for me to attempt to make the race for congress. But I am grateful to without end.

West Section Entrants Here For Contests

Big Spring and Roby Favorites to Take Championship Here

Sixteen schoolboy quintets, most of them survivors of the county eliminations, stood ready for the district 8 sectional tournaments to be opened at Abilene and Big Spring Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock with the two host cities favorites to 23 to 25 and 23 to 24, and enter added a 40 to 24 decision over the undefeated Steers are the Roby Lions, coached by one of George Brown's A.C.C. pals, Dalton Hill, and touted almost as highly as are the Sweetwater Mustangs, who are paired in the same bracket with the Bovines.

Practice season comparison, however, gives the Steers a slight advantage over both clubs. Big Spring defeated both the Lions and the Mustangs in the Colorado invitational tournament, by respective scores of 26 to 25 and 23 to 24, and later added a 40 to 24 decision over Ed. Hennig's red and white Ponies. The Lions captured the championship of Fisher county without experiencing more than casual opposition while Sweetwater and Big Spring, independent school districts, did not compete with county schools.

Dunn, Coahoma, Girard, Divide and Colorado complete the entry list for the tournament here, with Colorado playing Roby at 4 o'clock, Divide playing Dunn at 5 o'clock in the last of the afternoon matches, and Howard county's pair of entrants, Coahoma and Big Spring, playing at 7:30 and 8:30 this evening against the Sweetwater Mustangs and the Girard team from Kent county, respectively.

George Brown pronounced his black-clad Steers in excellent shape for the tournament, with the lack of capable substitutes still the only cloud on the local basketball horizon. The starting lineup for the Girard game was given as Hopper and Morgan, forwards, Reid, Carter, and Forrester and Powers, guards, the same quintet that has borne the brunt of the play for the Bovines this season. Harris and Dennis forwards, and Dyer, center, were certain to see action in the majority of the contests.

Woodward To Washington In T.&P.N. Case

Attorney for Intervening
Towns to Enter Oral Argument

Garland A. Woodward will leave Friday night for Washington, D. C., where he will represent Big Spring and other towns along the proposed route, which are intervenors for the extension of the Texas & Pacific Northern Railway company to build a 330-mile line northward from here.

Mr. Woodward, being sent by Chambers of Commerce of the various towns, at suggestion of the local Chamber, will join attorneys for the railway company and strongest exclusive manufacturers of refrigerating equipment. "The Ward firm," stated C. P. Woody, manager of the local store, "has remained cautious about entering the field until positive that the right electric refrigerator could be developed to sell at a low price in reach of most homes, and be of such simplified, dependable construction that it could fully justify an unsurpassed guarantee."

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

No. 2098. Virgie Craig vs. Horace Craig. In the District Court, of Howard County, Texas. The State of Texas to the Sheriff or any Constable of Howard County—Greeting:

moved in the manner above provided. SECTION 2. All operators of vehicles on the streets of the City of Big Spring shall, in approaching any and all street intersections, look for stop signs; and if there is a stop sign on the line of intersection of the street upon which they are traveling with the intersecting street, they shall yield the right-of-way to any vehicles traveling on the intersecting street, and shall bring the vehicle to a complete stop before entering upon such street intersection.

SECTION 3. Any person violating any provision of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $100 and not more than 30 days.

SECTION 4. The fact that there is not at the present time adequate regulations within the City of Big Spring governing traffic and street intersections in which stop signs are maintained creates and is here-necessitating the suspension of the rule requiring that Ordinance be read at three meetings before passage, and such rule is hereby suspended and this Ordinance shall become effective from and after its passage, approval, and publication as required by law.

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING REGULATING THE PLACING OF "STOP SIGNS," STREET INTERSECTIONS IN SAID CITY, REGULATING TRAFFIC AT STREET INTERSECTIONS WHERE STOP SIGNS ARE PLACED, PROVIDING PENALTIES, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF BIG SPRING: SECTION 1. The City Manager, with the approval of the City Commission, shall designate from time to time street intersections at which "stop signs" shall be placed and maintained; and such "stop signs" as are so designated shall be placed at street intersections under the direction of the City Manager. Additional stop signs may be placed, or stop signs may be removed, by the City Manager with the approval of the City Commission, without the necessity of an Ordinance of the City of Big Spring, specifically authorizing the removal of stop signs or placing of additional stop signs; but any removal of stop signs or the placing of additional stop signs, if not authorized by the City Commission in advance, shall be reported to the City Commission for approval at the next regular meeting of the City Commission after such change is made. The stop signs now in position and maintained at various street intersections in the City of Big Spring, Texas, are hereby specifically approved and adopted, until such time as they shall be removed.

Metcalf Is Candidate

Representative From This District Issues Statement

Penrose B. Metcalfe, member of the pioneer Tom Green county family, has authorized The Herald to announce he is a candidate for re-election to the office of representative in the lower house of the legislature from the 91st district, which includes Glascock, Howard, Sterling, Reagan, Irion and Tom Green counties.

particular interest to the independent oil operator. During the 2nd legislature he was very active in pushing a measure to re-district the state into congressional districts so that West Texas should receive her proper allotment of two additional congressmen. His measure was overwhelmingly passed by the house on several occasions but was defeated in the senate by a narrow margin. The "Metcalf Bill," as the house measure came to be known, received the approval of the press throughout the state and its fairness and justice to all sections was commented on extensively.

In addition to the specific measures cited here Mr. Metcalfe has always been active in support of measures for the betterment of our schools, especially the rural and grade ones, and in general has kept the interests of this section always in view.

Mr. Metcalfe states that he does not expect to burden the people with the pronouncement of his political platform; that he does not favor tax innovations nor a material disturbance of the existing scheme of taxation. That it has been his experience that new forms of taxation instead of being a means to eliminate or reduce existing taxes are usually only added to those taxes already in effect.

WILL ROGERS: Japanese Believe They Have Right To Enter China for Own Interests

TOKYO, by mail.—Well all I know is just what I read in the papers, and what I see as I stroll, and this is the proud country there in the senate by a narrow margin. The "Metcalf Bill," as the house measure came to be known, received the approval of the press throughout the state and its fairness and justice to all sections was commented on extensively.

These Japanese have a real city here, about two and a half million, and it almost connects with Yokohama another big city and their principal seaport. They are of course excited over the war in China. These Japanese take their war seriously, they go in to win em. Of course all the propaganda you get here is on their side, naturally, they feel they got a lot of money invested in that country and they want to be in charge of things so they can supervise the things their way.

Well, this is a great movie country. They make more movies here than they do at home, and naturally I wanted to see some of the Studios. You know the old Gag, when a Motorman is off he visits another Motorman and rides with him. Well being off from the Studio for a couple of months before I was to start another picture they naturally made me a member of the Fox Pictures out here and he arranged it.

Well we finally got out there. Of course it was a pretty and lot after seeing the tremendous things at home. But it did have the same stuff at that. Mind you they make their pictures at an average cost of five thousand dollars, but they do a good job with what they have. They did not happen to be shooting that morning, said they had worked the night before, that sounded kinder natural. But we had tea that was the minute we went in. They sure will load you up on tea if you do any visiting around. Just at the drop of the hat somebody will start bringing in tea. They started out to try and scare up some of the Stars. You know they have favorites over there just like ours, and some of em are big drawing cards. Well we walked all around among the old buildings, you know they are all silent pictures, they have only made a few talkies, they don't like em so well, only the foreign ones.

How it feels to find yourself at the rim of a vast, uncharted, unexplored continent larger than the whole of the United States, Mexico, Canada and Alaska, where the only inhabitants are those funny little birds, the penguins, was related to several score Boy Scouts and a large number of other Big Spring people here Tuesday evening at the First Methodist church by Captain A. Innes-Taylor, who was in charge of the most valuable asset the Byrd expedition of 1928-30 possessed—the sled dogs.

ing to sea for their food. There were more than 300 on the ice as we tied up. They stand upright. When we jumped out they walked up to us without fear. You could put your hand on them.
