36 Inch Moisture Is Result of Snow

Falling Sunday night and Monday, snow blanketed the ground in Hall County and the Panhandle in general this week. The snow and freezing weather did some harm to fruit prospects, but provided the ground with .36 of an inch of moisture.

The temperature during the cold spell, which was late for this section, dropped to as low as 20 degrees Fahrenheit.

The welcome moisture brought the total amount received during the month of March to 1.07 inches, which is more than is ordinarily received here during March.

Women of this section observed Easter as the day to step forth in their new spring clothes; however, most of the Easter frocks were covered up by heavy winter coats.

1,350 Auto Tags Are Issued For 1937 Here

Thirteen hundred and fifty automobile license plates for 1937 had been issued from the office of J. M. Ferrel, Hall County Tax Assessor-Collector, to Thursday morning of this week. About 450 cars in the county are yet to be registered, Mr. Ferrel estimated.

Several extra clerks have been employed at the tax collector's office this week, as car owners waited until the last few days to buy their new plates. The deadline set for new tags to be attached to cars was Thursday midnight of this week.

Scrap iron brings $3 per ton on the market, with bones selling for about $8 per ton, and rags selling at $6.50 per ton.

City Will Observe "Clean-Up" Period

Striving to clean up the city and to lessen fire hazards, city authorities have announced a general "clean-up" week for Memphis, running from April 4 to 11.

City Health Officer O. R. Goodall and Chief of Police Edd McCreary have requested all Memphians to clean up their premises and put their rubbish into containers to be hauled off during the week by city employees. The rubbish should be sacked or put into boxes and placed in back alleys, where it will be collected.

The cooperation of every Memphis citizen is requested in this effort to make the city cleaner and more healthful, Dr. Goodall stated.

Hall Pension Agent Arrives This Week

W. K. Sampson of Decatur arrived in Memphis this week to assume his duties as Hall County old age assistance investigator.

Mr. Sampson will office in the county commissioners courtroom at present and will be in his office on Tuesdays and Fridays. The remainder of the time he will travel over the county calling on pensioners and pension applicants.

Mr. Sampson stated that no changes in the pension setup have been announced. He said, however, that all who are on the roll and all who have made application will be re-investigated. There are 474 persons in the county who have made application for the old age pension, and there are 216 who are drawing the pension.

Requirements Of City And School Election Voters

To acquaint the citizens of the community with the requirements of voters in city and school elections, The Democrat contacted local attorneys and presents here a summary of the election law:

In order for a person to be entitled to vote in a school or city election, such person must be a qualified voter in the State and County. This makes it necessary for all persons between the ages of 21 and 60 to have a poll tax receipt showing payment of poll tax prior to February 1, 1937. Persons 60 years of age prior to January 1, 1936, are exempt. There are also other exemptions such as blindness, dumbness, deafness, permanent disability, or loss of hand or foot.

In the city election there is an additional requirement making it necessary for all male citizens between the ages above stipulated to have a poll tax receipt from the City of Memphis. In other words, a man between the ages above mentioned must have both state and county poll tax receipt and also a city poll tax receipt.

A woman between such ages may vote with only a state and county poll tax receipt. Voters must have resided in the city six months.

The hours for holding the voting places open in a city election are from 8 o'clock a. m. to 6 o'clock p. m.

The hours for holding the voting places open in school elections are from 8 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Ginners Sponsor Planting Of Best Of Cotton Seed

Hall County cotton ginners have launched a campaign to show farmers of this section the desirability of planting better staple cotton.

The large proportion of short staple cotton grown in Hall County and the Memphis trade territory in the past several years has injured the local market, ginners of the county declare. Manufacturers of cotton goods are paying much less for short staple cotton than for better staples, and as a result ginners are forced to pay less for the short staple. The discount on the short staple is now about $15 per bale.

Ginners declare that the cost of securing good planting seed is an investment and not a cost, and they are urging all planters to secure good staple planting seed.

SUPERINTENDENTS ELECTED

Announcement has been made by the independent school boards of Memphis, Estelline, Turkey, and Lakeview that the school superintendents of those places have been re-elected for next year. Supt. W. C. Davis will again head the local schools next year, and Supt. J. T. Duncan has been named to succeed himself at Estelline. Supt. Lee Vardy has been given a three-year contract at Turkey, and Supt. H. B. O'Neill has a year remaining of a contract, it is said.

Attend Easter Pageant

Thirty people of Newlin and vicinity left Newlin early Saturday morning for the Easter Pageant which is held annually in the Wichita Mountains near Lawton, Okla. They arrived at the appointed place at 7:30 a. m. and found a suitable camping place, and built a fire, as the weather was disagreeably cold. The place was well lighted with powerful lights about every one hundred yards. On the hill above the amphitheater was a lighted cross about 15 feet high, which could be seen many miles away. On both sides of the cross was a lighted star about five feet in diameter, which represented the Eastern and Western stars.

Information and official programs could be obtained here. East of this was a natural theater which could seat approximately 400,000 people on the ground. The natural stage, which is about 300 yards long, is on a natural rise with buildings for a 200-voice choir, the sepulchre, the "old rugged cross," a temple, and a building in which various megaphones broadcast the program to the crowd.

These buildings, which have been built by the government at an expenditure of $85,000, are lighted only one at a time, as they are used in the program. The east is composed of members of various churches in the vicinity. The most impressive tableau of the entire 32 was of Christ in the Garden of Gethsemane.

It was estimated that 75,000 people were present this year. Because of the extremely cold weather (which was 22 degrees), shivering groups huddled around smoking fires, trying to brave the cold east wind, but about half of the crowd left before the program was half over. One couple was seen lying on the ground on one quilt, covered with two quilts and with a bare-headed baby of some six months of age between them. All were apparently asleep.

At sunrise, at the conclusion of the pageant, Art Goebel, world-famous aviator, at several thousand feet in the air, wrote "World Faith" in smoke.

The Newlin crowd arrived home at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, sleepy and tired. Those who went were Mrs. John Burnett, Mrs. Lula Nelson and children, Lucille and Sonny, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Jarrell, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tucker, Mrs. A. H. White, Miss Lorene Hayes, Miss Alma and Ruth Rogers, Mrs. D. W. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hemphill and daughter Marjorie, Miss Bonnie Davis, Miss Dorothy W. Watson, Mrs. Lita Ellis, O. B. and Alencia Hoover, Lloyd Crow, Olaf Phipps, R. O. Nelson Jr., Jack Crawford, Royce Lee Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Godfrey and son Curtis of Memphis, and J. D. Sims of Memphis.

TEXAS EDUCATOR DISCUSSES ILLS OF COTTON INDUSTRY IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, March 31.—"Cotton-placency still dominates the thinking of the South and of the Nation as a whole regarding the loss of foreign markets for American cotton during the past three years," it was charged by Dr. A. B. Cox, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research and an internationally recognized cotton economist, in a lecture.

"The hope based on wishful thinking that when the price gets right the market will be there for our asking is utterly false," he continued. "The wishful planners every face of cotton the United States has curtailed during the past four years, foreign producers have increased production a little more than one. Prior to the depression our normal production of cotton was about 15,250,000 bales, and foreign production about 12,000,000 bales.

"Following 1932 Federal planners chose to reduce our annual production to under 12,000,000 bales on an average. Foreign producers promptly accepted the invitation and increased their production to over 17,000,000 bales the past year. These stark facts describe the changed world cotton situation and our place in it. Certainly no one in the South wanted the cotton growers to hold markets continuously at unprofitable prices. On the other hand, many believed even in 1933 that it was much wiser to subsidize the cotton growers to hold their markets, rather than subsidize them to give them up.

"Regardless of opinions of past programs, for they are 'water over the dam,' the fact remains the South has lost a large share of its former market for cotton and that it is now face to face with the very serious problem of finding profitable employment for the hundreds of thousands who are out of employment or are on government work projects because of our unwise cotton policy.

"To what extent should efforts be made to regain foreign markets for cotton and by whom? These two questions strike at the heart of national policies and involve the whole system of our specialized system of regional production and economy. In dealing with this situation it is highly important to realize that it was our national economic policies and not the cotton growers which caused the loss of our foreign cotton markets. Can these markets be regained? Possibly, yes. What will it require? It will require organized effort in the South to improve the quality of its cotton and to lower the cost of its production. Will that be sufficient? No. These were not the causes of loss of markets, and any improvement in them alone will not restore the markets.

"The fundamental causes for the loss of cotton markets were the war debt policy, the high tariff, restriction of immigration, and, of course, the advantage foreign producers took of our short sighted cotton policy under the Farm Board and the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to build up markets for their cotton.

Exhibit Of Pictures Is To Be Displayed Here

Reproductions Of Works Of Great Artists Will Be Shown To Pupils And General Public At High School April 12-16

Miss Zady Belle Walker, art teacher, has announced that an exhibit of 150 of the finest reproductions of recognized masterpieces of art has been engaged to be placed on display to local students and the general public April 12 to 16, at the high school building.

A small admission charge will be made, and the fund thus raised will be used to purchase pictures for the local schools.

In making the announcement, Miss Walker said, "It has been the privilege of students and the general public to enjoy the masterpieces of music and literature for generations; but an enjoyment of the masterpieces of art has until very recently been restricted to those who were wealthy enough to travel throughout the world, visiting the museums in which the original paintings hang.

"Recent improvements in color photograph and printing now make it possible to bring the art of the world to even our smaller towns and villages through the medium of faithful reproductions. Those reproductions are true to the originals in all respects, with the possible exception of size. Even the most delicate variations in color are maintained. In most instances the brush strokes in the original picture are clearly discernible."

Memphis should feel fortunate to be able to bring a collection of these splendid pictures.

The first showing will be on Monday, April 12, and the final showing Friday, April 16. A regular schedule has been worked out, by which students will visit the exhibit by classes between 9 o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The exhibit will be open to the general public from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock in the morning and from 4 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

High school art students familiar with the pictures and the artists represented will be on hand at all times to discuss the pictures with students and adults who visit the exhibit.

At each of the evening showings a number of the pictures will be posed by school children. A large frame will be erected and the children, dressed in costumes similar to those shown in the picture, will pose within this frame in an effort to make the picture appear just as realistic as possible. In all probability, music and appropriate literary selections will be given in connection with the entertainment.

A ticket-selling contest has been instituted among local students in connection with the exhibit of pictures to be held at the High School April 12 and a prize will be awarded to the school selling the most tickets.

Question About CARDUI

PERIODICAL PAINS "Why do so many women take Cardui for functional pains of menstruation?"

Each dose of Cardui contains a purely vegetable sedative and anti-spasmodic—that is, a pain-relieving and cramp-relieving medicine that is especially effective at monthly periods.

This fact about Cardui (that it helps to relieve many of the ordinary functional pains of menstruation with a beneficial plant extract, not habit-forming, not objectionable to take) is greatly appreciated by thousands of women. They recommend it to others.

Cardui is purely vegetable, liquid in form, and comes in 9-ounce bottles, with full directions for use. Try it! Of course, if it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.—Adv.

EASY TERMS CROSLY REFRIGERATORS-WASHING MACHINES-RADIOS NORMAN'S

To The Cotton Growers of Memphis Territory

We, the undersigned ginners, believing it our duty to our customers to keep them advised as to marketing conditions of cotton, deem it advisable at this time to circulate the following information:

During the past few years with low price cotton, short staple sold to the exporter for only about $2.50 per bale below the price for 15-16 inch staple. Ginners, eager for patronage, in many cases, paid the same price for the short cotton as they paid for the better staple. In each case the ginner lost that amount out of the ginning for that bale. Now, since the price of cotton has advanced to higher levels, the discount on short staple has increased to about $15.00 per bale, it will be impossible for the ginners to absorb the loss with the amount received for ginning, because the amount received for ginning does not amount to that much.

At present there is practically no demand for short cotton. Many of you know that there are several thousand bales on the Memphis Compress too short to sell.

The large proportion of short staple cotton grown in Hall County and the Memphis Territory in the past has seriously injured our local market. The recent losses of our foreign markets, together with the refusal of most all our American spinners to buy our short staple cotton, has brought us face to face with one of the most serious cotton marketing situations of all times.

We earnestly request all our customers to secure good staple planting seed for their ENTIRE COTTON ACREAGE. We believe the cost is an investment and not an expense.

We hereby guarantee to you that we will pay for good staple cotton the best price and premium the market will justify, and that we will be forced to buy the short staple cotton at short staple discounts, as we can't absorb the losses.

We pledge our full support and cooperation in this movement.

and Bill Ferrell, boys' doubles. The best game of the tennis tournament was the finals contest between Crain of Amarillo and Sheffy Mahan, Childress' ace netman. Towns entered in the tennis: Amarillo, Childress, Borger, Wellington, Claude, Clarendon, Quitaque, and Memphis.

Towns represented in the track meet included Lubbock, Amarillo, Plainview, Childress, Borger, Mt. Pleasant, Estelline, Memphis, Dumas, Goodnight, Turkey, Roaring Springs, Hedley, Happy, Wellington, Claude, Samnorwood, Goodnight, and Flomot.

Claude's junior team won the junior division of the meet, and the senior team won fourth place. Wellington was third in the senior division, with Estelline fifth.

Approximately 75 coaches, visitors, and Memphis business men attended a special luncheon in the banquet room of the Memphis Hotel at noon Saturday. Dr. L. M. Hicks of Memphis acted as toastmaster, and District Attorney John Deaver was the principal speaker. He spoke on the value of true sportsmanship in sporting circles and in every-day life. The Memphis school band, under the direction of Milton Pullis, played during the meal. Supt. W. C. Davis of Memphis gave the welcoming address, and Harry Delaney presented the visitors with the key to the city. Joe Gibson, Childress head coach, spoke briefly.

Presentation of the individual and team trophies for both the tennis and track was made at the high school auditorium Saturday night, following a colorful ceremony in which Miss Owen Gilmore of Memphis was crowned "Queen of the 1937 Cap Rock Relays and Tennis Tournament." Presentation of the awards was by the queen of the relays, with Coach Frank Hubbell reading the award list. The high school band played during the evening program, and District Attorney Deaver gave the only talk.

Dozens of coaches and track fans from this section were lavish in their praise of the first annual Cap Rock meet, and the tennis and track and field events went off without a hitch. Because of recent sandstorms, the Cyclone track had sand mixed with the cinders, and the track was fairly slow, cutting down the speed. Good performances, however, were made in most of the events. Several hundred persons viewed the tennis and track which lasted throughout the day. The meet was put on by Memphis High School and was sponsored by the Memphis Chamber of Commerce.

Company 1821, the Memphis CCC company, is the third oldest veterans company in the nation. This unit moved to Memphis in October 1935, from the Palo Duro Canyons, where the men were doing state park work. At Memphis the company has made a record in soil conservation, the results of which will be felt in this section years after the ECW organization is forgotten, it is said.

Open house Sunday will permit residents of the section to become acquainted with Lieut. Roberts, the new commanding officer.

pose of boosting any certain brand of cotton seed, but to cause serious thinking on the part of those most concerned to the end that conditions be improved in Hall County.

The old expression, "I'll see you in the funny paper," has been revamped and brought strictly up-to-date. Two negro boys were walking down Main street together Tuesday afternoon. They met a negro girl, stopped and talked with her for a short time. As she started on her way the boys said, "We'll see you in de Democrat Friday."

And since that brings up The Democrat, here is something from the Stanton (Texas) Reporter which is reprinted because it concerns the writer and this column:

"J. Claude Welis, in taking over his Memphis Democrat several months ago, started a column, 'Name It!', figuring someone would send in an appropriate name, but evidently his naming the column best suited him for it has been going steadily ahead full of bright and sparkling comments. That's another town where the merchants liberally support their newspaper. Every week the Democrat comes out with lots of advertisements from the business section, and too, Wells surrounds these advertisements with the very latest of local happenings."

It is very gratifying to the publishers the way Hall County people are renewing their subscriptions lately. Many of those renewing have expressed themselves as favoring the idea of having their subscriptions expire during the fall months when money is (or should be) more plentiful.

The offer being made to the people of the Memphis area is The Democrat 8 months for 75 cents.

Vance Johnson, former Memphian and now Line Rider for the Amarillo News, gives another former Memphian a good sendoff as follows:

John McCarty came back from Washington recently with the impression that the average Panhandle newspaperman could go East and burn up the woods. And the work of our home boys in the recent New London school tragedy might indicate he wasn't far wrong.

One of the key men in covering the tragedy was Jerry Sitton, who a few years ago edited the Memphis High School newspaper and then started in the business as a reporter on The Memphis Democrat.

Jerry was one of the first reporters to reach the scene after the explosion. While staff men of the Associated Press rushed to New London from Dallas he kept the AP informed from his office, the Kilgore News, where he is on the news staff.

Jerry wrote an account of the news coverage of the tragedy for Editor and Publisher. He told of a wire from an Oklahoma newspaper which said: "Would appreciate 300 words on tragedy giving cause of explosion, names of dead and injured." "Three hundred words on a tragedy that took 450 lives!" he declared. "I didn't bother to answer."

As Close As Your Phone

Suppose daily to your door came the butcher, the grocer, the clothier, the furrier, the furniture man and every other merchant with whom you deal? What a tedium of doorbell answering that would mean!

It would be even more impractical for you to visit daily all these stores to find what they have to offer and the price.

And yet you need those merchants' service quite as much as they need your patronage. Contact between seller and consumer is essential in the supplying of human needs. Before a sale can be closed the goods must be offered. Every week, through the advertising columns of this newspaper, the merchants of this city come to your home with their choicest wares. THE DANGER IN SHORT STAPLE COTTON

SOME CONDITIONS that have developed in the world market for cotton should be carefully noted by farmers as the time draws near for this year's planting.

Those conditions make it appear that the demand for Texas cotton of less than 7/8-inch staple is going to be very slack. Some authorities are predicting that the difference in price between short staple cotton and that of 7/8-inch or more will be as much as three cents.

The situation arises from the fact that foreign countries are now producing all the short staple cotton they require, largely cutting off the export market for that product. American spinners who use short staple can obtain all they need in Georgia, which is closer to the mills, so that they are indisposed to buy from Texas.

Buyers this year are expected to pay close attention to staple. That means that the grower of cotton under 7/8-inch staple is going to be penalized.

There has been a penalty imposed in the past, but the farmer was not always aware of it. The practice of "hog-round buying, which has prevailed in much of Texas in the past, has caused the emphasis to be put on quantity rather than on staple. The farmer who produced standard staple got no more for it than his neighbors got for their short staple bales. That has not been the case as much in this immediate vicinity as it has been in Texas generally.

The president of the West Texas Ginners association, C. A. Douthit of Stamford, announced recently that members of the organization who buy cotton this year are going to discriminate sharply between cotton of less than 7/8-inch staple and cotton of standard staple. This means that the farmer who plants short staple varieties, knowing the per-acre yield to be larger, is going to find that the added production is more than offset by the reduction in price.

Most of Texas' cotton is export cotton. There is little export demand for cotton under 7/8-inch staple. That is the case against short staple cotton, in a nutshell. The farmer who ignores it will be penalized. —Wichita Times.

THE WELLINGTON LEADER SPEAKS

THE WELLINGTON LEADER, one of Texas' leading weekly newspapers and winner of numerous awards as an outstanding paper, gave The Democrat a welcomed "pat on the back" last week by stating editorially:

"The Memphis Democrat modestly admitted last week that it had completed one year of work under the present ownership and management. This masterpiece of understatement was confined to the following words: "With conditions looking much better now than they did a year ago. The Democrat views the future with confidence and hopes and expects to observe many more anniversaries with the good people of this section."

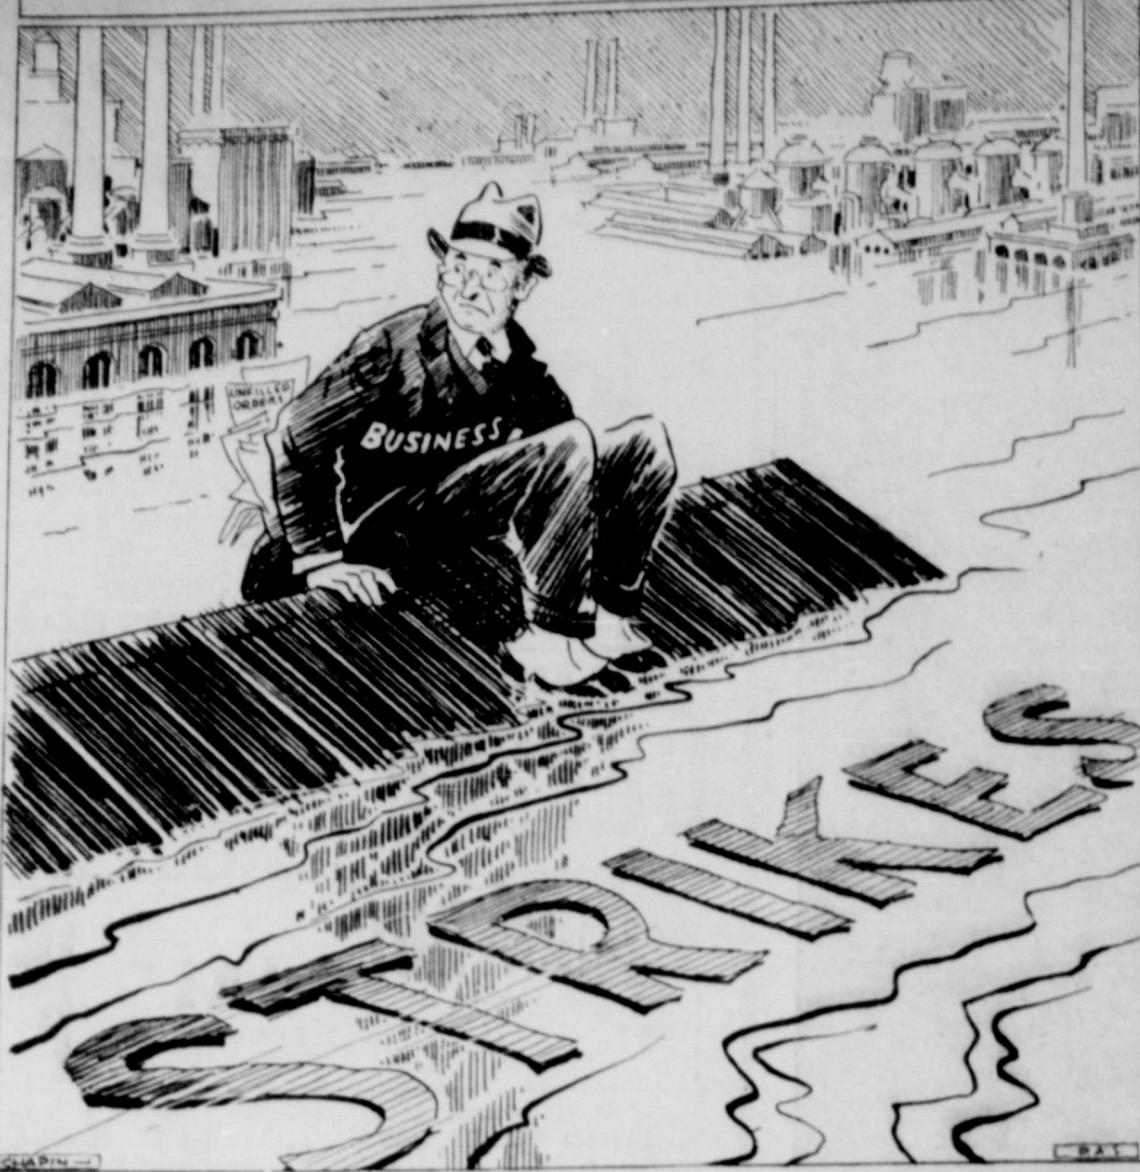

"Understatement is an art. The English have always used it and they rule most of the world. Since The Democrat obviously is not trying to rule anybody but is simply trying to serve them, we fail to see the advisability of underestimating the worth of their publication.

"It is quite true that this is the first year that The Democrat has been operated under the ownership of J. C. Wells and Herschel Montgomery, but to leave it at that leaves a lot unsaid. The first of these is that The Democrat is now in its thirtieth year of publication—a period that would lend prestige to any publication. It does not hint that this publication under the direction of Claude Wells was once judged the best weekly paper in Texas. It gives no intimation that the groundwork is now being laid for making the paper such a publication once again.

"While this is true it is obvious to thoughtful editors over the state that this weekly, keenly alert to local needs, vitally conscious of county happenings, is calmly, steadily and modestly laying the foundation for a greater weekly paper. A paper with every inch of its reading matter devoted to stories of its home county is worth noting. A paper that sincerely and steadfastly champions the causes of the section it serves is worth considering. Such a paper is The Democrat, but many of its readers will not wake up to its excellence until it wins another cup. They should realize that it is an excellent paper now."

PANHANDLE PARAGRAPHS

Many people deride the government's efforts of increasing the rainfall of this section by planting trees. However, history shows that where forests have been cut down ruthlessly, the rainfall was lessened greatly. It stands to reason then that should the trees be replanted, it would help precipitation. —Quannah Tribune-Chief.

No, JAUB hasn't budged one inch from the stand we took on the needless out-of-town buying by local citizens who make their money in Shamrock. And what we said about bread and clothing and furniture, likewise applies to photography. Shamrock has a good photographer in Wade Atkinson who pays taxes here and spends his money with Shamrock people. And he can sell you good photographs as cheaply as the peddler who knocks at your door. Please do your bit in helping your friends and neighbors. And you are hurting yourself worst of all when you patronize out-of-town firms. —The Shamrock Texan.

Another dynamite blast in the drive to exterminate the abundance of crows in this county sent approximately 35,000 crows to their deaths last Friday night in the shinnery thicket on the Tom Crow place. The kill would have been much greater had not scores of spectators been present, with automobiles whose lights frightened many crows away. The blast is estimated to have brought the total of dead crows in the county in the past few weeks to near 10,000. —Hollis Post-Herald.

Almost every Sunday issue of Texas daily papers carry stories of beer and liquor elections in counties and precincts of the state, and in nearly every instance the people have voted to outlaw these scourges of modern life. It might be well for the members of the Texas legislature to take a tip from the regularity of these "dry" verdicts and quit toying with liquor legislation. Liquor is easy to whip in Texas now, and with excesses and lawlessness on every hand, the job is getting easier all the time. —Clarendon News.

Prompted by the New London school disaster, the city commissioners voted this week to furnish free inspection to any home or business which desires this service. —Donley County Leader.

Wheeler Boxing Tournament Attention Of Fight Fans

WHEELER, March 31.—With seven schools already entered and several others having indicated they intend to participate, the First Annual Wheeler Invitation Boxing Tournament to be held in the Wheeler gymnasium on April 9 and 10, gives promise of becoming one of the biggest athletic events in the history of the Wheeler schools.

Coach Bob Clark, who is sponsoring the two-day tournament for the Wheeler High School Athletic Department, says indications are that so many schools will be represented in the invitation meet that it will be necessary to extend the session into five periods instead of four, as was previously planned.

Teams will be entered by the athletic coaches of the various towns, through the permission of the superintendents, and only students who are attending school now and attended last semester, will be eligible for the matches. All ten weight divisions will be matched, ranging from the speedy little 90 pounders to the hard punching heavy weights.

The fighters will be weighed in on Friday morning, and the bouts will begin Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Sessions will also be held Friday night and Saturday morning, with the finals scheduled for Saturday. If more teams are entered, it will be necessary to hold eliminations Saturday afternoon.

The fights will be held according to interscholastic rules, with judges, from towns not represented by fighters, officiating. Two judges and the referee will decide the winners of all bouts.

Three trophies will be awarded the three winning teams, while gold boxing gloves will be awarded the winners of individual fights in each weight division.

In Remembrance

Resolutions of respect by the Winnie Davis Chapter United Daughters of Confederacy.
 In the passing of the Confederate Veteran, J. W. Wells, Memphis and Hall County as well as the Winnie Davis Chapter has lost one of its most honored citizens and members.
 As a Christian and friend he was loyal and true. His pastor and his friends were always welcome in his home.
 As a neighbor he could be depended upon under the most trying circumstances, responding to any call with his means and personal help.
 As a Confederate Veteran he contributed his part to the War Between the States. In later years he strove valiantly to keep alive the sacred memories of the Southland, being the last member of the John B. Gordon Camp of Hall County, and an honorary member of the Winnie Davis Chapter U. D. C.
 Therefore be it resolved:
 1. That the Winnie Davis Chapter express to the family of Mr. Wells their profound sympathy in this hour of bereavement, trusting that the Great Ruler of the Universe may be found nearby to give strength and support to all who mourn the going of their father and friend.
 2. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished The Memphis Democrat with a request that same be published and a copy be incorporated in the minutes of the Chapter.
 3. That a copy of these resolutions be mailed to the family of Mr. Wells.
 Respectfully submitted,
 Mrs. J. A. Whaley,
 Mrs. J. H. Norman,
 Mrs. C. W. Broome,
 Mrs. R. E. Clark,

WANTY BASEBALL LEAGUE PLAY ON APRIL 11TH

Estelline, Salisbry, Memphis CCC Friday night the opening of the Hall County league will play 20 games during the season before the play-off series for the championship is held. Jack Sitton of Memphis was elected president of the Hall County Baseball League at the meeting Friday night, succeeding Jack Boone of Memphis.

The ball loop this year will be strictly a Hall County affair, with no players eligible to compete who reside over a mile out of the county. Play will be on Sunday afternoons, and a regular admission of 10 cents will be made for each game to pay for the balls and bats. Players will be amateurs, as the league was founded last year for the purpose of providing recreation and giving the young players of the Hall County communities a chance to develop.

Rules and regulations of the Hall County loop will be announced within the next week or so, as will the season schedule. All player lists must be in by April 19.

Estelline is the only new team in the league. Turkey was in the circuit last year but has not been heard from this year. Lesley is the defending champion, having defeated Salisbry in the play-off last year. A hot race is expected this year, with all teams looking strong.

Model Trailer Is Displayed in City

A number of Memphis and Hall County people were given free rides last Saturday in the famous "Bluebonnet Trailer" which the Waples-Platter Company is giving away in a White Swan Coffee contest. The trailer and several other prizes are to be given away by the company after the contest of writing 200 words on "Why I Prefer White Swan Coffee" closes April 30.

Ottie Jones, manager of the local branch of the company, and Waples-Platter employees conducted the well-equipped trailer over the county giving free rides.

James E. King made a business trip to Austin the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Mary E. Combest has gone to Dumas for an indefinite stay with Mrs. Ed McMurry.

School Students Will Compete In Writing Contest

Superintendents of schools throughout the state have given their whole-hearted approval to the essay contest on "Why I Want to See the Greater Texas and Pan American Exposition."

About 150,000 school children already are writing in this contest, none of whose essays must exceed 500 words. Forty-eight free trips to the Exposition, with all expenses paid, will be awarded as first prizes, but the real objective of the competition was to give Texas students a knowledge of the international fair.

The principle of world peace and friendship and goodwill between neighboring nations, the basis of the Pan American Exposition, will be stressed in the essays. Also, students competing for Exposition trips will become familiar with South and Central American customs, resources and industries.

Sixth and seventh grade school children and all high school students are eligible. In both the elementary and high school divisions in each of the 24 supervisory districts into which Texas is divided, first prizes of free trips to the Pan American Exposition will be awarded.

The Dallas Chamber of Commerce will accept entries in the contest up to April 21.

"BLACK-DRAUGHT IS PURELY VEGETABLE"—What Does That Mean?

A great many things can cause constipation and there are many remedies to relieve it, but possibly none more popular than the "vegetable" laxatives.

Among these, "Black-Draught" is outstanding. In its manufacture, leaves of a certain plant are used, and the roots of certain others. These are dried so they will keep without preservatives... no other chemical change from the way they grew in "Mother Nature's medicine garden." By their being finely ground, the digestive system extracts the active medicine right where it is needed. Constipation is relieved.

Black-Draught is so economical that a 25-cent package averages upwards of 25 doses. (Adv.)

Car Owners Fail To Return Cards

According to the latest available report from the Highway Planning Survey, 49 car owners of Hall County have mailed the post cards which were handed to them at the time they paid their 1937 automobile license fees at the office of J. M. Ferrel, tax assessor and collector. Since the number of cards thus far returned from this county are insufficient to give complete proof of the real needs of the county, every car owner should request one of these self-addressed, postage-free cards and should fill it in and mail it at once because information so collected, together with information compiled by other branches of the survey, will be used by the State Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in allocating federal funds which will soon be spent in improving the secondary road system and in planning the future construction and maintenance of the roads and highways.

Throughout the state the car owners have been returning these cards in a highly satisfactory way. This county, in order to furnish information which places it on a comparable basis with other counties, should return these post cards from as high a percentage of its car owners as its neighboring counties.

G. A. Sager of Amarillo spent Saturday in Memphis on business.

Rural Resettlement Agency Progress Is Outlined In Statistical Analysis

Statistical analyses of the Rural Rehabilitation activities for 1936 in District Two of Region Two of Region Twelve, which includes Hall County, indicate how great has been the help extended by the Resettlement Administration to enable the low-income farm worker and his family to become self-sustaining and self-supporting. The figures reflect just how understanding has been the attitude of the Resettlement workers, and the close cooperation which has existed between all parties concerned, it is said.

The district is composed of 22 counties and 1,899 Rural Rehabilitation borrowers in the area known as the Texas South Plains, in addition to a number of more southern counties favorably known for their livestock industry.

Records of the clients show these borrowers have total assets of $2,667,864 or an average of $1,402 per client. Their liabilities total $1,188,673, or an average of $625 per client.

Further statistics show loans to all clients, $825,141, or an average of $435 per client; estimated income from cotton, $985,945, or an average of $519; estimated income from grain, $393,803, or an average of $207; total income from all crops, $1,379,748, or an average of $726; estimated income from stock, $110,923, or an average of $58; estimated income of all clients from all sources, $1,610,807, or an average of $941.

Records further show that the total amount due the Resettlement Administration from all borrowers for the year 1936 is $492,392, while the total repayments as of February 20, 1937, aggregate $397,485.62, with collections still being made.

Clients were asked to pledge their cotton benefit checks and if those had been applied on borrowings, collections would have been more than one hundred per cent. Only in exceptional instances have these pledges been collected; rather the farmer has been allowed to keep the money and urged to spend it usefully. Every effort has been made to aid the farmer in conserving his income and to spend it to the best advantage.

Since the beginning of the program several thousand acres of land have been terraced and contoured with the cooperation of the Extension Service. Additional thousands of acres will be terraced and contoured for the 1937 crop year. Strip-crop farming and all moisture-conserving practices are being encouraged and farmers are responding favorably and willingly to these more modern methods of cultivation.

Loan applications for 1937 indicate that about half as much money will be needed as was used in 1936 and a comparison of collections made in 1936 as against money needed in 1937 indicates that considerably more has been collected than is needed in 1937. These figures are indicative of the progress shown in the area by the Rural Rehabilitation program of the Resettlement Administration.

SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES
Congressman from Panhandle

In view of the recurring dust storms in the Southwestern Great Plains area, several of us have been endeavoring to secure an emergency fund so that immediate work can be started to counteract the damage that would otherwise be caused.

We have been trying to induce the Director of the Budget to approve the use of some unobligated funds of the AAA for this purpose. I hope that before this is published, his approval will be obtained. Practical assurance has already been given us that if the Budget Bureau approves, the Appropriations Committee will make these funds available.

Early use of such funds would make possible a program of listing and other practices to assist in preventing further destructive effects of the wind.

"Preventing Soil Blowing on the Southern Great Plains" is the title of a new bulletin issued by the Department of Agriculture. This publication should prove helpful to the farmers in our section.

It takes up many practical problems which are confronted in attempts to conserve the soil. Included in it are discussions of the following subjects: Implements useful in preventing blowing; cultivation for row crops; strip cropping; wind breaks; and regrassing.

I have asked that a supply of these bulletins be sent to the county agents. If the county agent is unable to supply one, I shall be glad to have a copy sent direct from Washington to anyone who is interested. I can be addressed at the House Office Building, Washington, D. C. The bulletin to ask for is No. 1771.

The Senate Agriculture Committee last week gave its approval to a crop insurance measure for wheat.

Under the provisions of the bill, farmers would pay premiums in wheat or cash, and in years of crop loss, indemnities would be paid back to the farmer in wheat.

To take care of the percentage of the crop which is guaranteed, the program would be entirely voluntary on the part of the farmer.

It was felt that crop insurance should be tried in one commodity first to see how the plan would work. Wheat was chosen because there is more statistical information on wheat available at the present time than for other major crops.

After passage by the Senate, the bill will come to the House of Representatives for further consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Hoffman of Lubbock and Miss Ruby Hoffman of Plainview visited Saturday night and Sunday here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hoffman.

139 Crippled Children From County Are Sent To Hospitals In Past Decade

One hundred and thirty-nine crippled children have been sent from Memphis and vicinity to hospitals maintained by the state and by welfare organizations within the past 10 years, according to D. Max King of Memphis, self-appointed head of the crippled children's work here.

Twelve crippled youngsters of the county are now on the waiting list.

The scene above is typical of children at one of the state hospitals. The youngsters are being loaded into a bus to be taken on a ride into the country. This is a joyous occasion for the children, for these are boys and girls who have spent too many hours in bed, to sunlight and the scenes which the ordinary child accepts casually.

Crippled by accident and disease, they face a long, hard road, beset by hazards and hardships which do not confront others more fortunate. Year by year that journey is being made happier and less difficult.

This is just one illustration of the benefits which some of these children are receiving through the generosity of persons who realize their predicament. There are many more pressing needs, of course. They must receive treatment which will give them the maximum use of their crippled bodies. They must acquire some how an outlook on life not distorted by their afflictions.

To bring all crippled children in the state into contact with the facilities available is the purpose of the International Society for Crippled Children and its affiliated state and local groups. Easter Seals, now on sale over the state, provide the medium through which funds are raised for this work.

Our congregation will assemble in classes at 9:45 a. m. to study the Word of God. These classes are open to every one who wishes to learn more about the teachings of the Bible. Devotional exercises and preaching will be at 10:45 a. m. The sermon subject at this service will be, "The Great Gulf That Separates the Righteous from the Wicked." The time will come when no one can cross this gulf, which side are you on now? All of us should be deeply concerned about this.

The evening worship will be at 7:45 o'clock. At this hour the minister will discuss the question, "What Constitutes a Christian?" The standard of right living has been let down so low, that it is difficult in many instances to distinguish between a professing Christian and a man of the world. Let us think this matter over seriously.

Women's Bible class Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. Men's class Tuesday at 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
On account of the absence of the teacher, Rev. Orion W. Carter, a program at the Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist Church will be given during the class hour Sunday morning, April 4, with Sam Cowan, president of the class, in charge of the program and Harry Delaney in charge of the music.

Men of the class choir will open the service with a song, and the program will be as follows: Announcement, collection, song by the choir, prayer by Emmett Solomon, talk, "They Went Away" by E. N. Hudgins; male quartette, talk, "The Church Reaching the Unreached," Judge A. S. Moss; song by the choir, and closing prayer by Roy Guthrie.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. J. Wm. Mason, Pastor
The pastor will preach Sunday morning on the subject, "Not Ashamed," using as a scriptural basis Romans 1:1-17. We would all declare that we are not ashamed like Paul declared it. We want to look into this passage, however, and see if we are always not ashamed.

The subject for the message Sunday evening will be in the form of a question, "What is the Worth of Your Religion?" Is your religion worth very much to your neighbor, your church, and the lost person with whom you make contact?

The Sunday school and B. T. U. has been missing several faithful ones from their number. It is hoped that all the regulars and many prospective new members and visitors will be present Sunday.

BORGER MAN IS UP FOR MURDER

Indicted In Connection With Death of 'Shake' Davis of Memphis In January

CLARENDON.—A district court grand jury here last week indicted Roy T. Darbison for murder in connection with the death of S. S. (Shake) Davis of Memphis, who was killed in an automobile accident near Clarendon on the night of January 27. Bond was set at $3,000 by Judge A. S. Moss of Memphis.

The grand jury failed to report on Ted Means, who was with Darbison at the time of the fatal accident. Another indictment of driving while intoxicated was returned against Darbison.

Darbison pleaded not guilty in a preliminary hearing on February 28, and has been held in the local jail since that time, in lieu of a $2,000 bond. Means posted bond in a similar amount a few days after the hearing.

Mr. Davis, a salesman for the Waples-Platter Grocery, was fatally injured when his car overturned three times after a collision with the automobile in which Darbison and Means (of Borger) were riding near Clarendon on Highway 5.
