HENRY AGARD WALLACE

PRESIDENT HAS BIG MAJORITY IN HALL COUNTY

W. N. Corry Loses Write-in Campaign Against McDonald

President Franklin D. Roosevelt was re-elected by an overwhelming majority of electoral votes in the general election Tuesday to become the first man in the history of the United States to be chosen for a third term for the highest office of the nation. Texas followed the rest of the "Solid South" and gave Roosevelt a large majority over his Republican opponent, Wendell L. Willkie. Willkie conceded the victory to Roosevelt Wednesday morning, but Charles L. McNary, Willkie's running mate, conceded victory to the Democrats, Roosevelt and Henry A. Wallace, late Tuesday night. Unofficial returns from Hall County boxes gave Roosevelt 2,221 to only 217 for Willkie. Norman Thomas, Socialist candidate, received three votes in Hall County, while Roger Babson, running (Continued on page 7)

Final Plans Being Made for Annual Poppy Day Sale

Mrs. J. E. Roper Named as Poppy Chairman; Workers To Sell Flowers Saturday

Final plans were being made this week by the American Legion Auxiliary of the Chas. R. Simmons post for the annual poppy sale in Memphis, to be held next Saturday. In charge of sales will be Mrs. J. E. Roper, poppy chairman. In addition to booths, which will be placed in convenient places on the square, a number of workers have volunteered their services to sell the poppies throughout the city. Aiding in the sales will be Betty Sue Lindsey, Gwendolyn Coursey, Frances Kinard, and June Edmondson. All funds derived from the sale will go in their entirety into the rehabilitation and welfare funds of the Legion and Auxiliary, it was explained. Saturday has been proclaimed by Mayor J. C. Wells as official Poppy Day. Mayor Wells, in making the proclamation, urged "all citizens" to wear the memorial flower of the veterans, and "give for the poppy as generously as they are able to aid the war's living victims, the disabled veterans and dependent families." "The dimes, quarters, and dollars which are dropped into the boxes of the poppy workers on Poppy Day form the principal source of support for the relief and welfare work carried out by the Auxiliary throughout the year," Mrs. Roper said. "There is a vast amount to be done for the disabled veterans, for their families and for the families of those who have died, and we believe that those in distress because of patriotic sacrifices are entitled to everything which can be done for them."

Lakeview Eagles, Lefors Pirates to Play Friday Night

Game to Be Played Under New Lights on Lakeview Field; Pirates Favored

The luckless Lakeview Eagles, beaten in their first six attempts to overrun conference opponents, will end their District 3-A schedule when they meet the Lefors Pirates under the new Lakeview gridiron lights Friday night. The Pirates are favored in the tilt, since the Eagles have been unable to gain any headway in the conference race. The game, however, is expected to be a hot contest, for the Eagles will be using every trick they know in an attempt to win their final conference tilt. Condition of either of the two teams was not learned this week, but comparing the scores of each (Continued on Page 6)

Charles W. Kinslow Is Found Dead at Home in Memphis

Funeral Services Are Held at Presbyterian Church; Interment at Fairview

Charles W. Kinslow, resident of Memphis for the past 15 years and local agent for the Texas Company, was found dead at his home in Memphis about 9:30 o'clock Monday night. Funeral services were held from the First Presbyterian Church Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. M. M. Miller, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Clarendon, in charge of the rites. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery, and the rites there were in charge of the local Masonic Lodge. King's Mortuary was in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Kinslow had left the house slightly after 8 o'clock. She returned home at about 9:30, and found Mr. Kinslow. Efforts to revive him failed. Survivors include his wife; two children, Helyn of Lubbock, and C. W. Jr. of Memphis, who is now a student in the University of Texas; one brother, Ed Kinslow of Hedley; one sister, Mrs. Ed Dishman of Clarendon; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Frank McClure of Rocky Ford, Colo., and Mrs. Joe Kendall of San Antonio. Hi, Lookee, People— DEMOCRAT BARGAIN DAYS HERE

Those BARGAIN DAYS are here again! Beginning this week, citizens of Hall County and of surrounding counties may subscribe to The Memphis Democrat for one year at the low price of one dollar. The no-solicitor plan, tried last year with great success, is again being tried by the publishers. By avoiding the use of personal solicitors, to which a portion of the subscription cost must be paid, the low rate of one dollar per year can be made, it was explained. The plan of not having solicitors was tried last year, with the result of gaining more subscribers, as well as the obtaining of a paid-up subscription list for the first time in several years. The low rate is to be offered for only a limited time, the publishers stated, urging every old subscriber to re-new his subscription and soliciting all new subscribers. Prices of various products used in publishing the paper are advancing steadily, and it is doubtful whether the low rate can be

Maybe Early, But— Santa Letters to Be Published Again

It may be a little early to mention it, but— The Democrat will publish again this year letters to Santa Claus from children of Hall County and its trade territory. After all, it's only 48 days until Christmas, and we want to copy the letters and forward them on to Santa in plenty of time. Teachers in the county schools are especially urged to send letters from their children in early to avoid any rush on either the part of The Democrat staff or on the part of Santa. The issues in which the letters will be published will be announced at a later date.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE OF RED CROSS WILL START OFFICIALLY TUESDAY

The annual American Red Cross roll call will officially open in Hall County next Tuesday, November 12, E. E. Roberts, chairman of the county chapter, announced this week.

"We want at least one thousand members for the county chapter," Mr. Roberts said, "and the intensive drive to obtain these members will be opened next Tuesday."

Committees to work on the annual roll call will be announced later, Mr. Roberts said. Each committee appointed in Memphis will have a certain portion of the city to work, and the various committees throughout the county will have their allotted territories.

Fifty per cent of the amount raised during the roll call will be sent to the national organization, where it will be used in times of emergency. The remaining 50 per cent will be kept in Hall County for local uses.

No portion of the Red Cross funds is used for either salaries or for maintenance of the organization, Mr. Roberts said. The organization exists through an endowment fund which was set up when the Red Cross was first organized.

... PROCLAMATION ...

WHEREAS, when the forces of ruthless autocracy committed aggressions against the United States in 1917, the best young men of this nation offered their lives in the nation's defense, and

WHEREAS, among these young men were many from Memphis, who served gallantly and sacrificed greatly in the conflict, and

WHEREAS, more than one hundred thousand Young Americans were called upon to sacrifice their lives that America might be secure as the land of liberty, justice, and democracy,

NOW, therefore, I, as mayor of the City of Memphis, believing that the memory of their high patriotic sacrifice should be kept bright for the inspiration of America, urge all citizens to wear their memorial flower, the poppy, on Saturday, November 9, and give for the poppy as generously as they are able to aid the war's living victims, the disabled veterans, and dependent families.

To that purpose, I do hereby proclaim Saturday, November 9, to be Poppy Day in the City of Memphis.

Womack Confines All Activities to Better Serving the Funeral Profession

The interests of the personnel of the Womack Funeral Homes are confined to their activities as funeral advisors and directors and Professional Embalming services rendered and largely because of this specialization, their conduct of service has come to be accepted as a criterion in the profession. With no financial interests in other merchandising plans and promotions, they are free to give disinterested advice and assistance in arranging final disposition. The display room of the Womack Funeral Home in Hedley has been recently enlarged and a larger selection of burial caskets are made available to their many friends and policyholders. Their funerals are complete and there are no additional charges after your original decisions are made with a Womack Burial Policy. It has been repeatedly proven in Hall County that the prevailing prices of finer caskets at Womack's are by far more nominal in price and this is easily explained by the greater volume of business produced by this firm. Naturally the cost of overhead is not as great at the Womack Funeral Homes, yet, they furnish a 1940 LaSalle Funeral Coach, new 1940 Modernistic Cemetery Equipment, the very latest in sound equipment, and for the departed they furnish the Burial Suit and dresses, have the funeral notices printed notifying friends and acquaintances and all the EXTRAS as charged in addition to the family by other leading funeral homes. Be protected from all this and secure a Womack Burial Policy as Womack was responsible for this type protection in Hall County. (Adv.)

100,000 Farm Families Now Have New Mattresses

Members of more than 100,000 Texas farm families are sleeping on new mattresses this fall. Late in October, 100,286 new cotton mattresses had been made in the state under the Department of Agriculture's program for aiding low-income farm families and reducing the cotton surplus. This figure was compiled in the office of Mildred Horton, vice director of state home demonstration agent of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

In Hall County, more than 300 farm families had completed their mattresses, with slightly more than 200 yet to be made, County Agent W. B. Hooser reported.

The cooperative program provides that educational work and supervision of mattress making centers shall be furnished by the Extension Service, cotton and ticking shall be made available by the Surplus Marketing Administration, and certification of eligible families shall be the responsibility of county agricultural conservation committees of the Triple-A.

To date centers have been set up in 2,654 Texas communities, and mattresses are being made in 150 counties, Miss Horton reported. Voluntary leaders who supervise mattress-making in the centers number 37,290—24,859 of them women and 12,431 men.

More than a million farm families in the Southern States will receive mattresses under the 1940 demonstration program, according to a report received by Miss Horton from Mrs. Ola Powell Malcolm, Extension field agent in charge of home demonstration work in the Southern area. Nearly 600,000 mattresses had been made in 17 states late in September.

Specialist Explains 3 Cooking Terms

You may know when meat is fried but the odds are stacked that you don't know when it's "pan-broiled," "sauteed," or "braised." Yet every good cook should know these distinctions and add these terms to her vocabulary.

Nora Ellen Elliott, specialist in food preservation for the A. and M. College Extension Service, has explained that "panbroiling" is cooking without added fat, without water, and without a cover on the skillet. This is the method to use for tender chops and steaks which have fat of their own and are quickly cooked.

"Frying," she says, means actually to cook in fat. Sometimes the fat is deep enough to cover the food entirely, as in frying chicken or croquettes. In addition, one can also fry with shallow fat in a skillet such dishes as hash or meat patties. Some meats, sausages and bacon for instance, fry in their own fat.

"Sauteing," principally because it's a French word, is another puzzler. It's a cross between pan-broiling and frying. It means to brown the food in a little fat and turn it often to keep it from sticking.

"To braise" means to brown in a little hog fat, and cook with a small amount of water added. Swiss steak and pot roast are good examples of this method of preparation. These meat cuts are not so tender to start with, but if properly braised can be cut with a fork.

Eligibility Rules For Wheat Loans For '41 Announced

Study of Rules Should Be Made by Wheat Growers, Says AAA Administrator

A loan has not been offered on the 1941 wheat crop, but—

The wheat farmer who is deciding how much acreage to plant this fall should study the eligibility rules for obtaining a loan in 1941 if one is offered.

A producer's share of the wheat produced on a farm will be eligible for the loan only if a 1941 parity payment can be made with respect to that share of the wheat in accordance with the eligibility provisions of the 1941 parity payment regulations, E. N. Holmgreen, state AAA administrator, said in a statement issued from AAA headquarters.

Which all means that wheat produced will be eligible for a loan if none of the following provisions are violated:

- (1) The acreage planted to wheat on the farm is not in excess of the wheat acreage allotment for the farm.
- (2) The sum of the acreages of wheat and cotton for the farm does not exceed the sum of the allotments or permitted acreages for such crops under the 1941 program.
- (3) The producer's aggregate share of the 1941 acreage of wheat and cotton on all farms in the county does not exceed his aggregate share of the allotments or permitted acreages for such crops under the 1941 program on such farms.
- (4) The producer's aggregate share of the 1941 acreage of wheat, cotton, corn, rice, and tobacco on all farms in which he has an interest, wherever situated, does not exceed his aggregate share of the allotment or permitted acreage for such commodity under the 1941 program for such farms to such an extent as to offset substantially the performance on the farm with respect to which the loan might otherwise be made.

Eligibility for parity payments will be determined early in 1941, the administrator said, and, since those eligible for parity payments will be eligible for loans, only one determination of eligibility need be made.

The announcement of these eligibility rules does not in any way constitute an announcement of a loan on the 1941 crop, Holmgreen pointed out. The statement was issued as a protective measure for the producers so that they might plan their farming operations in order to be eligible for a loan if one is offered.

MOTOR IN THE SOURPUSS SWEEP STAKES?

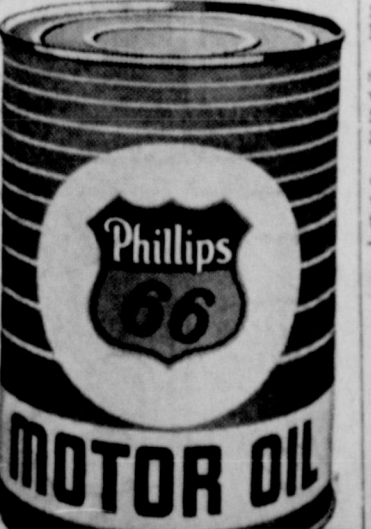

It's HARD to tell... but EASY to pick a winning oil

PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1 may well have been a smiling, gurgling baby. And by the same token, there is no reason why this screaming, yowling, sad-eyed child should not end up as a radio comedian.

Only a rash man thinks he can predict a child's future. But any car owner can readily foretell which is a winning oil for his motor.

He has no question or doubt because the integrity of the great Phillips organization is back of this direct statement: If you want our best oil, remember we specify that Phillips 66 Motor Oil is our finest quality... the highest grade and greatest value... among all the oils we offer.

When you make the seasonal change to lighter lubricant, or the 1,000-mile replacement which every engine needs, pick a winning oil. Refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

I GET CUSSED

I AM THE weekly newspaper. I make no effort to cover national news or state news unless it has direct bearing on the people in my county. Sometimes I get cussed out for not carrying this news. And sometimes when I do, I get cussed out for it.

I try to avoid editorializing in my news columns. I take the "lovely" from in front of the "refreshments," I take the "beautiful" from in front of the "bride." I state facts in funeral stories, rather than print some flattering material which may or may not be true. I always get cussed for this.

I try to serve the people of my county and its trade territory, try to cooperate in what I think is worthwhile. When I cooperate in something which some one does not like, I get cussed for it.

I have to be "manufactured" every week, but some people can't realize it. They insist on bringing in some week-old item just before press time—then wonder why it doesn't "get in the paper," or why it contains some error made in the rush. I get cussed for this.

I give worlds of publicity to various activities—some very good activities, and some not so good. If I don't give publicity, I get cussed for it.

I publish little personal items, mainly because most everyone likes to see his name in the paper. I have to rely on these people to tell me where they have been, or who visited them. If I don't carry their visitings, I get cussed for it. If I do, I sometimes get cussed for it. And if I happen to spell their names wrong, or say they went where they didn't, I always get cussed for it.

I have to depend on revenue from advertising for my upkeep. Many merchants appreciate their ads, and know they are paid to advertise. Others are benefitted indirectly and don't realize they are benefitted by the ads—and I get cussed for it.

I have to support other types of advertising—such as those on posters, books, programs, and the like—advertising which does me no good. If I don't support them—I get cussed for it.

I go into the hands of my subscribers once a week. If something happens to me on the way to the subscriber, if I am lost or misplaced in the mail, if any of a number of things keep me from getting to my subscriber, I get cussed for it.

I have one great privilege, however. I can print what I want to print in this editorial space. I can say what I want to say because this is a democratic nation. I can be of great benefit to my country by helping to keep this nation from becoming a dictator-controlled nation. I am the first line of defense.

I am a weekly newspaper.

POPPY DAY

MORE THAN twenty years ago, thousands of young Americans sent to foreign soil were giving of their blood, and ruining their health for the remainder of their lives, to give the people back home the privilege of continuing to live in a democracy.

Now those Americans who were not killed but were injured for life are forced to remain in hospitals throughout the nation because they fought for what they believed right.

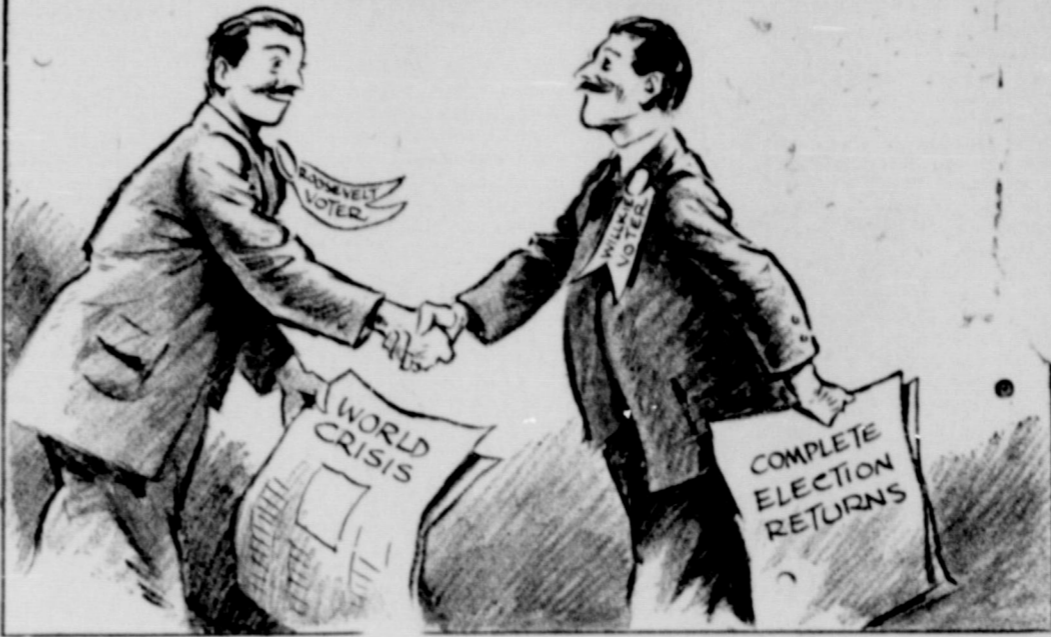

We Americans today are not often asked to give them aid. The annual sale of artificial poppies is one of the means by which these thousands of injured ex-soldiers are kept alive.

Next Saturday, November 9, is the date on which American Legion auxiliary members throughout the nation will work, without pay, to sell these poppies which have been made by the veterans during the past year.

Sentiment for buying the poppies this year should be greater than at any time in the past, since European countries are once more engaged in great conflicts. We should remember the days of 1917 and 1918 before we become entangled in the international struggle.

Poppy Day will bring back those memories. And the wearing of a poppy next Saturday will designate you as one who has great appreciation for the sacrifices made by the veterans of the World War.

'OKAY—HE'S EVERYBODY'S PRESIDENT'

Press Paragraphs

CULLED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGES

Getting the Gossip
Gertie Haskett in the Childress County News: Suburban combination filling stations and grocery stores are convenient for busy mothers to purchase a cold drink, sliced ham, canned beans, bread, milk, thread, and get all of the neighborhood and town news before lunch time.

Support
The Quanah Tribune Chief: We who are not eligible for selective service should lend our spiritual and moral support to every man called to take part in the training. His sacrifice, be it long or short, should be to us a gracious expression of his and our belief in democracy. For each man will put himself before us a staunch defense of our ideals, that all good citizens cherish as the component of liberty, equality, and devotion to country. Three cheers for a democracy that can call its people to its defense against aggression and lawlessness—and yet remain a great state for the preservation of freedom and unanimity.

Worth Having
The Stephenville Empire-Tribune: A system worth having is a system worth fighting for. The United States was never a country to give an inch to its possible enemies. If the appeasers should have their way, we will go the way France went—and all that America has stood for in the past will become meaningless. Let's make up our minds that this is one corner of the world where democracy, social and economic, will be defended to the last ditch.

Advertise in The Democrat!

Wilkie—Or Else

Bill Serecomb in the Clarendon News: Latest proof that the big boys are out to beat President Roosevelt is the statement of an official of a large oil company in the Panhandle who told his employees they could vote for whom ever they wanted, but, if Mr. Roosevelt got back in they could look for a 10 per cent cut in wages—effective immediately.

Too Many Promises

Bill Miller in the Spearman Reporter (who went deer hunting—and actually killed one): To those 500 people who I promised to give a buck steak—I will say that Eddie Fay has taken over the deer meat. She has it locked in our locker at the Equity, and says she is going to figure out some way to take care of all my friends. I never once expected to bring back a buck or I wouldn't have promised everyone in Hansford County a deer feed.

Fast Age

Carl Roeve in the Turkey Enterprise: Speed is the thing for the younger generation. Odell Cunningham claims he rides his bicycle so fast that it's using oil!

Give and Take

The Plainsman in the Lubbock Morning Avalanche: That Girl on Broadway says in many cases it is more harmful to give a man something than it is to take something from him.

Good Behavior

The Plainsman in the Lubbock Morning Avalanche: That Girl on Broadway says perhaps the reason the good die young is because they're given time off for good behavior.

Quick Answer

Carl Roeve in the Turkey Enterprise: One of the best answers turned in by members of the First Aid Class was the snappy one that

Obie Colvin came up with in response to Riley Duncan's question: "What is the best preventive measure in exposure to sunburn?" Obie thought a minute and then said, "Keep your shirt on."

Robbery

The Spearman Reporter comes up with a new way of writing a story on a robbery. Here it is: You can take the boy out of the country, but you can't take the country out of the boy—and how true that is of our good friend Bob Fuller, who has been making good in a big way in Panhandle cities.

Bob owns about two used car lots and the Pontiac agency at Seagraves. Bob lives at Lubbock, and this last Saturday night he found out that he needed one of his colored assistants to shine up a used car that he was trying to give away to a cotton picker. Bob jumped in his car and went to that section of the city inhabited by the elite colored sons of the "I Will Rise."

He evidently turned left when he should have navigated right, because instead of finding his fourth vice president in charge of car refinement, Bob ran smack into a couple of nigger gals and a big nigger boy who were plumb out of money or anything to do. The colored trio had a good friend, called a persuader, known by the white man as one of the toys made by Col. Colt. After a friendly chat, and a few punches in the ribs, Bob agreed that it wasn't right for the dark town trio to be bereft of money, so he ups and hands 'em one hundred snackers in currency.

Spending

The McLean News: Spending our way into prosperity is just as feasible as drinking ourselves sober. It just can't be done that way.

Builders

The Paducah Post: The optimist builds a house, the pessimist a bomb-shelter.

Challenge of the Golden Rule

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Nov. 10
Text: Luke 6:27-38

THE Golden Rule offers a tremendous challenge in times like these. In a world at war, it is doubly difficult to love our enemies, to bless those who curse us, and to turn the other cheek to him who smites us.

It is obvious that there is some limit of practical common sense to this idealistic teaching. If one followed the injunction of the lesson, "Give to everyone that asketh thee," there would very soon be nothing to give.

The ultra-pacifist would say that we must follow these teachings literally, regardless of consequences to ourselves and regardless even of the sweeping away of our government and its free democratic institutions. It is a principle of martyrdom for individuals and governments.

Few follow an interpretation that leads to such an illogical, impractical, and disastrous end. Nevertheless, to disregard this teaching and nullify it, making it of no account, is as false as to interpret it with complete literalness.

OUR lesson is a lesson for Armistice Day, and if we look back to the first Armistice Day in 1918 and observe what has followed in the years since then, we can perhaps understand more clearly something of the meaning of this lesson.

If, in the settlement of the first World War, there had been more love for one's enemies, if there had been greater magnanimity, if there had been a greater purpose, such as Lincoln expressed, to "bind up the wounds of the vanquished," the world might have been a different place.

The Treaty of Versailles which has been so often denunciated, was not a treaty as such, but a peace settlement which was very mild in its provisions. It was the result of a comparison with what Germany had conquered in Europe. It was likely to impose a yoke upon the victors and to be used by the victors for the purpose of recovering the international relations for all time.

HOW different was the situation in the United States when the War of 1812 had been fought. Lincoln's policy of magnanimity had been followed. Instead, what the victors did was to impose a yoke upon the vanquished and to use the spoils of war for their own purposes. The result was a turning of the physical into a moral something of a nature which has never been defeated.

Perhaps it is in this that we can best learn our lesson. People are not to be dissuaded by a strong attack, and from defending their position, and from the threat of violence, and destruction. Yet, the defense depends not only on resistance, but on the spirit of that resistance which would not dissipate any part in hatred.

May our PEACE be Everlasting

Let us Cherish ARMISTICE DAY

WHY does everyone face to the East for one minute today, Daddy?"

"They're paying their respects to the men who died in a war that ended twenty-two years ago today, for this is Armistice Day when all Americans look back to that time in 1918. We cherish Armistice Day as a symbol of gratitude to those who fell, and as a symbol of hope to the living that war will never again come to Americans."

"But, Dad, why are the soldiers marching today? Teacher says we must grow strong, and that the President intends to make us strong. Why must we be strong if we don't want war again?"

"Well, son, there are forces loose in the world that don't recognize anything but strength, and we must be strong to discourage attack and to repel it if it should come. But even more important that that, is unity. The spirit of this family, mother, you and I, must be extended to the nation so that every American feels himself a part of a great whole, part of a great national family that takes things as they come... that meets trouble with a united faith that all will be well... that will work together for the common good with courage and determination. Nothing could succeed against that spirit."

"What is that bugle playing, Daddy? Why is everyone so sad?"

"That is 'Taps,' son, the end of the Armistice Day ceremony... the final tribute to the dead of the Great War. It brings up memories that make people sad, but these memories should stimulate hope and determination for the future... hope that our peace may be everlasting to the benefit of you, mother, me and all mankind."

Monday Armistice — Legion Program At Church Sunday

Next Monday is Armistice Day, and citizens throughout the United States will pause briefly in their regular activities to observe the 22nd anniversary of the signing of the document which ended the World War. No parade will be held this year, although the Chas. R. Simmons Post of the American Legion will sponsor a special Armistice program at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Armistice program has not been definitely arranged as yet, but it will include special music and other forms of entertainment. The public has been invited. The banks in Memphis, and a few other businesses, will close in observance of the day.

Food Stamp Plan Now Operating in 14 Texas Counties

Plan Barely One Year Old; Two Other Counties in State to Get Plan Soon

As flexible as an accordion, the food stamp plan is being expanded rapidly in Texas so that already this method of surplus commodity distribution is in operation in 14 Texas counties although the program is barely over a year old. Counties where the plan is operating are Wichita, Hall, Harris, Travis, McLennan, El Paso, Childress, Taylor, Eastland, Dallas, Tarrant, Hale, Lubbock, and Wilbarger. In addition, Hidalgo and Gregg counties are to begin operation within a few weeks, according to regional officials of the Surplus Marketing Administration. Agricultural commodities and products which have been designated as surplus foods by the Secretary of Agriculture and may be exchanged for blue food order stamps in Texas and 10 other Southern states until further announcement of the secretary are as follows: Butter, raisins, rice, pork lard, pork, corn meal, eggs, dried prunes, hominy grits, wheat and whole wheat flour, fresh oranges, cabbage, Irish potatoes, tomatoes, apples, pears, and dry beans. All fresh cuts, including chilled, frozen, pickled, salted, cured or smoked pork may be secured with blue food order stamps. However, cooked pork or pork packed in metal or glass containers are not included in the designation. Under the food stamp plan surplus agricultural commodities are purchased through the regular channels of trade in any eligible retail store.

Retail Association Is Organized Here

First work toward the organization of a Retail Merchants Association to serve Memphis was started here this week by Mr. and Mrs. George Hurst, who came here this week from Hereford. The association will open for business about November 15, Mr. Hurst said. An office has not been selected as yet, but headquarters are now in the Memphis Hotel. Main purpose of the association, Mr. Hurst explained, will be to pass credit relationships among various business houses in Memphis. In addition, the local organization will be affiliated with similar associations throughout the state and nation, thereby enabling merchants to have credit ratings of people who move to Memphis from other locations, Mr. Hurst pointed out. The activities of the association will be limited to credit relationships at first, Mr. Hurst said, and may later serve also as a collecting agency.

No Soil Payments Received Here Yet

A total of 750 applications for soil conservation payments for Hall County farmers have been sent to the state AAA office, although no checks have been received, J. C. Thompson, ACA secretary, said this week. The conservation payments are the second of two groups of checks which farmers receive under the present farm program. The other payments—parity checks—have already been made in this county. Only a few more of the parity checks are to be received, Thompson said. They are checks to tenants who have moved, and are being reviewed by state AAA officials before being mailed out.

HEIGH HO, COWBOY! Large numbers of cowboys, cowgirls, and entertainers are expected in Fort Worth November 15-24, when the All-American Rodeo and Horse Show is held. The 10-day celebration will start November 15, Will Rogers Day, when the entire Southwest will pay tribute to the late humorist.

Food Stamp Sales $13,907 in October

Falling slightly below the record sales of September but still above any other previous month since the plan was inaugurated here, sales of the food stamps in Hall County totaled $13,907 during the month of October, R. L. Madden, issuing officer, said this week. The record month of September found $14,946 worth of stamps, both orange and blue, being distributed. During October, $8,084 worth of the stamps distributed were orange stamps, and with them were given $4,024 in blue stamps. Blue stamps only were distributed to the amount of $1,781, slightly below the September amount of $1,991.

Raymond Ballew Sentenced Year In Donley Court

Case Transferred From Hall to Clarendon in Fall Term of Court in Memphis

Raymond Ballew, who is now serving a two-year term in the state penitentiary at Huntsville on an assault with intent to murder charge, was given an additional one year sentence on a similar charge in district court in Clarendon last Friday.

The case was transferred from district court in Hall County to Donley in the September session of the court here.

The term which Ballew is now serving was assessed him on a charge of assault with intent to murder Ed McCreary, member of the Memphis police force. The second charge, on which he was found guilty last Friday in Clarendon, was one of assault with intent to murder C. B. Hume, another member of the police force.

The two charges were made following a raid on the Ballew residence in Memphis in November of 1937, when the two policemen were injured.

Ballew's cases have been given much recognition over the nation due to a series of advertisements placed in The Democrat before he left for Huntsville to begin serving his term July 1.

Carter to Unveil Rogers Memorial

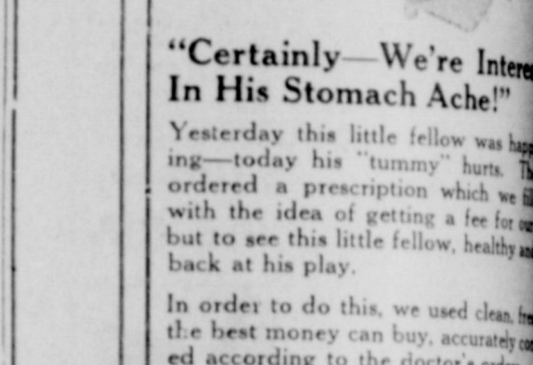

Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth publisher and benefactor, announced this week he would officially dedicate the Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum on the night of November 15 to climax the celebration and to present the premier showing of the All-American Rodeo and Horse Show.

In dedicating this $2,000,000 shrine to the memory of the great American and cowboy, Mr. Carter will unveil a gift he is presenting to the city of Fort Worth and the citizens of the Southwest.

The gift is an oil painting of his most beloved friend, Will Rogers, who died in a plane crash on August 15, 1935.

The picture, which is the work of the artist, Mr. J. G. Neill, is now on display at the port of the coliseum. It is one of the masterpieces which are being shown by the coliseum.
