Death of Mrs. J. W. Wallace.

A dark gloom spread over our city Wednesday night when the sad news of the death of Mrs. J. W. Wallace became known. She had been in bad health for several months but her condition was not considered so serious until a few days before her death.

Death came peacefully Wednesday night, June 14, 1911. Her sister, Miss Eva Ward of Kansas City, was with her at her death. Funeral services were held Thursday, June 15, 1911, at 3 p. m. from the Methodist church by Rev. B. W. Dodson. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to Fairview cemetery where they were gently laid to rest by tender loving hands in our silent city of the dead.

Mrs. Wallace was an every day christian. The beautifying influences of a pure religion were spread over a life and character as spotless and charming as was ever possessed. As such a life was a blessing and benediction to all within the sphere of its influence, so is the death of such a one a public misfortune as well as an irreparable loss to the home circle made desolate by her departure.

No one was more willing to soothe the suffering, cheer the desponding, and throw over the frailties of our race the mantle of Christian charity, and when sickness and death come to her, as it comes to all, neighbors and friends joined with each other in acts of loving kindness and tender solicitude, but love and skill were equally of no avail. The great destroyer had placed his signet on her brow and today, hundreds who loved her living, mourn her dead, and as such, the Democrat begs to join this great throng of friends in expressions of deepest sympathy to the heart broken husband and children left behind to mourn her sad loss.

Class Reception.

The several members of the 1909-1910 class of Memphis High School, who have been away at college, were pleasantly entertained Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Thrasher on South Seventh street. Eighteen of the original class of twenty were present. The pleasant and unpleasant hours of High School and College days were pleasantly gone over by these young students. Nice refreshments were served after which all departed for their various homes wishing for each other the best there is in this life.

The Commercial Club.

No doubt many are wondering how the Commercial Club is getting along, and we feel that it will not be amiss to say a few words through the Democrat, to the members of the Club and to the citizens generally, about the progress that is being made.

The work of getting the affairs of the club started off in a systematic way has been considerable but the executive committee has been working faithfully and in earnest, but have proceeded with caution and have been studying every phase of the work closely, having in view the permanent success and usefulness of the club.

The committee on location has secured the corner room of the Mickle building and it is now being fitted up for offices for the Club and Club room, directors room, etc., and a stenographer has been employed, and within the next few days the secretary will have his office fitted up so that he can begin work in a systematic way. He is already doing considerable advertising and is getting enquiries right along about this country and just as soon as we can get our forces thoroughly organized we will get excellent results.

In the meantime let every member of the Club and every citizen lend a helping hand—let us all pull together and we will bring things to pass. The first thing to do is to get our town cleaned up. There is nothing that appeals to a visitor like a clean town. We are going to have prospectors coming in within the next month, in fact, we have some already and some of our streets do not look good. We MUST get everything in order, so we ask that every civic league and citizen get busy, lets have a general crusade of "cleaning up." Let everyone look to his own first then get after his neighbor. The Commercial Club will be glad to cooperate with all the other clubs. We have a number of plans under consideration and will keep you posted through the papers. Memphis and Hall county never had brighter prospects than now. A general forward movement is now upon us. Lets make the most of conditions. So let everyone pull who can, if can't pull push if you can't push—grunt for the other fellow—DON'T KNOCK.

There is going to be "something doing" in Memphis and the Upper Red River valley.

Yours for progress,
W. A. BENNETT, PRES.
A. W. READ, SEC'Y.

S. R. Crockett Dead.

Died at the family home in Memphis on Friday night at 10:30 Samuel R. Crockett, age fifty-two years and one month. He has long been a sufferer from cancer of the throat which was the cause of his death. Funeral services were held at the grave Saturday afternoon by Rev. B. W. Dodson. Interment in Fairview cemetery.

Mr. Crockett with his family moved to Memphis a little over two years ago. He was a faithful member of the Methodist church also a member of the local W. O. W. lodge. He leaves a loving wife and two sons to mourn the sad loss of a husband and father, and the many friends of the family joins us in heartfelt sympathy for the bereaved ones.

Miss Anna Collins was brought in from Bowie Monday morning with typhoid fever. She had been visiting relatives down there. Her uncle came up with her.

Children's Day at the Methodist Church.

The Methodist church was crowded last Sunday night to witness the children's Day services.

Superintendent J. S. Ulm with the assistance of Miss Ethel Dodson, Miss Eva Brumley, Mrs. S. E. Major, Mrs. N. H. Bowman and others had been drilling the children for about 10 days, and they have great reason to be proud of their work. The primary department rendered nearly all the program; and their songs and recitations were received with great applause.

Everything moved like clock-work and the vast audience was delighted. In a short address, the pastor declared that "Children's Day" meant that we were re-discovering childhood. He proved the supreme importance of early impressions by referring to the oath of hatred toward Rome which Hannibal took when but nine years of age. A great feature of the program was the magnificent and inspiring Chorus singing by a choir of about 40 voices who had been trained by our popular and efficient Superintendent, J. S. Ulm.

A large collection was taken for the general S. S. work.

Superintendent Ulm is doing a great work in the Sunday School and can certainly be proud of the magnificent showing made by the Methodist Sunday School in this Children's Day service.

If the reader wants to settle in a wide-awake community, all he has to do is to look at the local newspapers. A wide-awake, well supported home newspaper is always associated with good schools, church, active business, and intelligent people. It never fails. No business man or pioneer in any community makes any better investment than in the support of a home newspaper.

First Baptist Church.

A large crowd heard the second sermon on First Things at the First Baptist church Sunday morning. This sermon was a discussion of the First Christian Organization as shown by the New Testament. The constituents, the constitution and the consummation of this first organization were discussed and shown by the scripture. Next Sunday morning will bring a discussion of the First Miracle: recorded in second chapter of John, showing the place and purpose of this feature of Christianity in its beginning. The fourth sermon on the first great Christian doctrine will be Sunday July 2. Sunday night was given to a study of revival work in Nehemiah's time under the subject of Devotion and Devotion.

The prayer meeting lesson for tonight is the 5th chapter of Nehemiah. Next Sunday night a sermon will be preached to the Commercial Club on the building of a city. All are cordially invited.

Jolly Fishing Party.

A lively crowd composed of young married folks and a few singles departed Tuesday morning for Salt Fork in Browder pasture for a several days fishing trip. I was evident they were not going to starve from the great amount of provisions they loaded on their wagons before leaving. The crowd was composed of the following ladies and gentlemen:

B. Webster and wife, Clarence Powell and wife, D. S. Munn and wife, Spookie Duke and wife, Misses Ira Hammond, Mary Gillenwaters and Mr. Grady Moore. They will return the latter part of this week and report their success.

G. J. Herd has been confined to his room several days with bilious fever.

San Antonio, June 15.—Five persons were hurt late last night in an auto oblique wreck on the famous Mission loop and a 17-year-old boy was shot and seriously injured by a man whose automobile he had appropriated for a ride. The Mission loop accident was caused by the chauffeur turning a swiftly moving automobile to avoid a collision with a buggy. The automobile turned over and all its occupants were hurt; they are:

Mrs. A. G. Kranz, Houston, left hip broken.

A. G. Kranz, Houston, left arm broken.

D. H. Campbell, Tampico, chest bruised and probable internal injuries.

P. H. Kilpatrick, Tampico, right arm dislocated, severe bruises.

"Shorty" Hearn, San Antonio, arms bruised.

Three boys took the automobile of Charles M. Armstrong, a business man, from in front of his sister's house and proceeded for a ride on the north loop. Mr. Armstrong pursued them in a friend's automobile and overtaking them two miles out of the city, ordered them to stop. When they refused, he fired upon them. Alton McDonald, 17 years old, who was driving the machine was shot through the body. The boy is in a hospital and Mr. Armstrong is under arrest. The other two boys escaped.

Athens, Ga., June 16.—The most unique freak of nature found in this vicinity in many years is a hen owned by William Brittain, a policeman of the Athens department, which has laid fifteen eggs during the past five days. In addition to this she cares for a brood of chickens only two weeks old. The owner of the phenomenon has watched her nest carefully and is positive that she lays three eggs daily.

Houston Constable, Shot by Negro He Arrested, Succumbs.

KILLED IN RUNAWAY

Wife of Farmer Thrown Out of Carriage and Killed.

Waco, June 15.—Mrs Tom Burge, wife of a farmer, was killed and her 7 year old daughter hurt late yesterday afternoon in a runaway at China Springs, in this county. The team became frightened by the raising of a parasol.

Eight Men Hold Up A New York Hotel; Two Are Captured.

New York, June 15.—An automobile containing eight men pulled up in front of the Hotel Roy, on West Thirty-fifth street near Broadway, early today and all lined up before Charles Simmons the night clerk. Each of them held a revolver and their leader ordered the clerk to stand back while he explored the cash drawer of the open safe. The intruder quickly scooped out $160 in bills. Then the men filed out, the last one covering the clerk with his revolver until all were outside.

As soon as he was free, the clerk grabbed his own pistol from a drawer and fired five shots. He was so quick about it that he got a response from a Broadway patrolman before the robbers could crank their automobile and get started. The patrolman captured two of them and found in the pockets of them a roll of bills twice the amount they had just stolen.

TASTE FOR GOOD READING

This Should Be Result of a Child's Training and With It He Will Educate Himself.

From the total training during childhood there should result in the child a taste for interesting and improving reading, which should direct and inspire its subsequent intellectual life. That schooling which results in this taste for good reading, however unsystematic or eccentric the schooling may have been, has achieved a main end of elementary education; and that schooling which does not result in implanting this permanent taste has failed. Guided and animated by this impulse to acquire knowledge and exercise his imagination, through reading, the individual will continue to educate himself all through life. Without that deep-rooted impression he will soon cease to draw on the accumulated wisdom of the past and the new resources of the present, and, as he grows older he will live in a mental atmosphere which is always growing thinner and emptier. Do we not all know many people who seem to live in a mental vacuum—to whom, indeed, we have great difficulty in attributing immortality, because they apparently have so little life except that of the body? Fifteen minutes a day of good reading would have given anyone of this multitude a really human life. The uplifting of the democratic masses depends on this implanting at school of the taste of good reading.

SOLDIER FOUND DEAD

Private's Body Discovered Among Pile of Staves at Galveston.

Galveston, June 15.—Private Peter Meneitto of the Ninety-ninth company, coast artillery, was found dead in a pile of staves at Pier 10 on the water front this morning. There were no signs of violence on the body. He had been missing from his company for nine days.

SHOOTS TWO-YEAR-OLD

Girl Playing With Revolver Accidentally Wounds Baby.

Atlanta, Ga., June 14.—Playfully warning her 2-year-old cousin, Frances Bowen, that she was going to shoot her, Katherine Ray, 3 years old, yesterday shot the index finger off the child's hand with a revolver.

The children were playing in a room adjoining one in which their parents were talking. The pistol was secured by the Ray child from under a pillow, where it had been left by the Bowen baby's father.

OLD AGE AND YOUTH.

A somewhat elderly bridegroom of New York has started a suit for separation from his bride of five weeks on the ground of wilful abandonment against his wishes. His wife says, in reply, that her aged husband is a faddist, who insisted that she should accompany him on a barefoot walk on the wet grass every morning. She took two early barefoot walks, she says, just to be agreeable, but the experience cooled her enthusiasm, and she firmly declined to repeat it. The bridegroom insisted that it was good for her health, but she stood firm, and then they quarreled.

MORE PIE, IF HE NEEDED IT

Grateful Man is Offered the Remainder of the One He Had Partaken of a Year Before.

"My friend," said a good-looking, well-dressed man when William Henry Younghusband went to the door, "I have called here today to offer you my thanks. A year ago I passed this way. Luck had been going against me. I was down and practically out. A dozen people had turned me from their doors. You heard my story, and instead of reading me a lecture gave me a piece of mince pie. By your kind act my confidence in humanity was renewed. I went on my way, vowing that I would yet succeed, and I have done so. I wish to offer the sincerest expression of my gratitude."

"I am mighty glad to see you again and to hear that you have made good. In case you happen to be in need of any more pie I think we still have the one from which the piece you got was cut. My wife, who loves me dearly, has never been willing to let me tackle it."

THE DOG FANCIER.

"My neighbor has a dog for which I am willing to pay $1,000," said the householder, "but the owner won't sell. He stands out for $2,000. I may possibly be able to get the dog for $1,500, but I doubt it." And he shook his head pensively.

"Why do you want the dog so badly?" inquired somebody.

"To break his neck. He barks all night."

NO LONGER A COMPLIMENT.

BILLY SUNDAY ON THE SALOON

Since the immortal Sam Jones passed away we have never heard of a single revivalist, who combined a fiery zeal to combat with the gift of strong language like Billy Sunday possesses. Here is what he says about the saloon, and if, after reading these invectives of the ex-baseball champion, you still feel like voting with the saloon crowd, we do not feel like complimenting your good taste or judgement.

"You talk about regulating the saloon. You might as well try to regulate a powder factory in hell. You say if we vote the saloon out that the farmers won't come to town to trade, and you're a liar. I've as much respect for a saloon keeper as the man who signs his petition. Seventy-five per cent of our idiots come from intemperate parents. The open licensed saloon pays nothing back but disease, and damnation, gives an extra dividend to delirium tremens and a free pass to hell. Listen, in this hour twelve men have died drunkards, 300 a day and 110,000 a year. What does a town do which licenses saloons, pays taxes in boys, paupers, weakminded children, desolate home. If you vote for the dirty business, you will go to hell, as sure as you live, and I'd like to fire the furnace while the old lobster are in there.

"The saloon strikes in the night. It fights under cover of darkness and assassinates the characters that it can not damn and it lies about you. It attacks defenseless womanhood and childhood. The saloon is a coward. It is a thief, it is not an ordinary court defender that steals your money, but it steals your manhood and leaves you in rags and takes away your friends, and it robs your family. It impoverishes your children and it brings insanity and suicide. It will take the shirt off your back and it will steal the coffin from a dead child and yank the crust of bread out of the hand of the starving child; it will take the last bucket of coal out of your cellar, and the last cent out of your pocket, and will send you home bleary-eyed and staggering to your wife and children. It will steal the milk from the breast of the mother and leave her with nothing with which to feed her infant. It will take the virtue from your daughter. It is the dirtiest, most low down, damnable business that ever crawled out of the pit of hell. It is a sneak and a thief and a coward.

"It is an infidel. It has no faith in God, has no religion. It would close every church in the land. It would close every public school. It respects the thief and it esteems the blasphemers. It fills the penitentiaries. It despises heaven, hates love, scorns virtue. It tempts the passions. Its music is the song of a siren. Its sermons are a collection of lewd, vile stories. It wraps a mantle about the hopes of this world and that to come. Its tables are full of the vilest literature. It is the moral clearing house for rot, damnation and poverty and insanity, and it wrecks homes and blights lives today."—Tribune Chief.

Death of Florine McCoy.

On Sunday evening June 11 the death angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McCoy, living four miles south of Lakeview, and claimed the sweet life of their little three year old daughter, Florine, the little thing had something like consumption. Friends and neighbors took charge of the funeral and direct it to Memphis where she was laid to rest. A long procession of loved ones and friends followed the remains to Memphis where the funeral was held at 3 o'clock by Rev. R. B. Morgan. The little body was laid to rest by tender and loving hands in the Fairview cemetery Monday afternoon.

The friends of Lakeview extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved parents in the loss of their little daughter Florine.

Our Boundary Line.

Government Engineers are making a preliminary survey of the boundary line between the United States and Mexico. At present the Rio Grande River is the boundary line but this stream changes its bed as often as a tramp and it has kept Uncle Sam guessing ever since the Treaty of Peace with Mexico and he is now endeavoring to more permanently locate the border line.

WHAT came very near causing serious trouble at San Antonio Saturday night between Sheriff Bot and Soldiers was averted by good luck and a little pluck. The local officers made a raid on a name and arrested two soldiers and two civilians. It was not but a short while until a howling mob estimated between 500 and 1000 composed largely of soldiers were after the officers. The prisoners were finally gotten in an automobile and rushed away from the crowd.

WEALTH CANNOT BUY THIS

Imperial Tokay, a Product of Hungary. Reserved for Exclusive Use of Austrian Emperor.

There is one product of the earth that money cannot purchase—imperial tokay. This world-famed wine is the product of a vineyard in Hungary, and is reserved for the exclusive use of the Austrian emperor. The present emperor very generously distributes the bulk of the annual vintage among the crowned heads of Europe, but very rarely indeed does any of the precious liquor find its way into the market. This happens only when the contents of the cellars of a deceased monarch are sold. Consequently, unless he could procure a few bottles by underhand means, even the multi-millionaire would never be able to taste imperial tokay.

There is, however, another ordinary tokay, made in fairly large quantities by the peasants of Hungary, and this anyone with money can buy. But, of course, it falls very far short of the tokay consumed at the royal tables.

instead of using the night for recreation, however, too many of us seem to think the night was particularly created for pleasure, more or less legitimate.

The things we do in the daytime bring us the regret, the disappointments, the morbidity, the sorrows and the extravagance that our night doings result in. The daylight can't bring the crow's-feet, the sunken eyes, the pallor of skin, the prematurely gray hair, that are the stages of too much living in the glare of artificial lights.—Edna K. A Split Log Drag Club.

A Split Log Drag Club is one of the latest organized movements for road building in Texas. The territory covered by a Club usually embraces about six miles of road and the Farmers along the route join the Club and they pay fifty cents membership dues per month. All the money received by the Club is used in defraying the expenses of running a Split Log Drag of steel construction, which cost $25.00 to build and the club stands the expense of operation. Cooke County now has eleven of these Clubs in operation and the results are so satisfactory that the movement is rapidly spreading throughout the entire county. The business men of Gainesville assist in the organizations. It is quite a common occurrence for fifteen or twenty merchants and bankers to ride ten or fifteen miles in the country to attend a Split Log Drag meeting and they usually join the Club, lending their moral and financial support to the movement. Why not Hall county farmers, merchants, and citizens get in line.

Texas To Hold Land Show.

Texas is to have a land show. The Real Estate men of Texas are making plans for an exposition of Texas products to be held in Houston in November, the date to be decided later. Enough funds have already been secured to insure the plans being carried out and prominent business men of Houston and other South Texas cities are taking active interest in the movement. Mr. Max Rosen of Houston, who is general manager of the exposition, is mailing out thousands of pieces of literature and the Association has established a press bureau in St. Louis for the purpose of working up interest in the project in the North and East. The fact that Texas leads all States in the Union in agricultural production insures the complete success of such an exposition.

WELL SNUBBED BY HER MAID

Little Mrs. Jones, Being Green at Housekeeping, Submitted and So Kept Her Domestic.

"Yes, this last maid has stayed a long time," admitted little Mrs. Jones, "but it's only because I've been willing to let her snub me left and right. She saw the minute she got in the house that I was young and green at housekeeping, so she took the privilege of middle age to disapprove of everything I did and had. She never dusted the old mahogany, for instance, without audibly lamenting that it was a pity young folk just married couldn't start out with brand-new furniture instead of 'them old-style things'. The day the winter coal was delivered, five tons of it, she met me when I got home with this rebuke: 'You never told your coal dealer to have his men sprinkle that coal—suppose you never heard of sprinkling coal to keep the coal dust from flying. As it is, everything on this first floor is black with it. Why, if this old thing' pointing to the valuable Persian rug father brought from Bagdad last year and which is the pride of our lives, 'if this old thing had been a handsome Brussels carpet it would have been ruined; but of course, being a faded-out old thing, it doesn't matter.'"

Industrial Congress Issues Maps.

Dallas, Texas, June.—The Texas Industrial Congress has issued a contestants' map showing by counties the number of men, women, boys and girls in each, who are raising corn and cotton by intensive methods of cultivation with a view of securing better yields and conserving the fertility of the soil. 1,746 contestants are competing for the $10,000 in cash prizes offered for the best yields, and are in effect conducting that many experimental farms in 160 counties, thus practically demonstrating in almost every section of the state the efforts of the Congress to educate the people in the use of better cultural methods. The map, which is the first one published for general distribution that shows the new counties created at the last session of the Legislature, may be obtained upon application to the Congress at Dallas.

ITS YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Memphis Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to dropsy or bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It is for ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Memphis people testify to permanent cures.

G. H. Hattenbach, 8, 9th Street, Memphis, Texas, says: "There was an extreme lameness in my back and nothing removed it until I obtained Doan's Kidney Pills from the Montgomery Drug Co. They proved to be just what I required, giving me prompt and lasting relief. I feel justified in recommending this preparation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wall of Newlin wishes to sincerely thank their friends for the many kind deeds and acts shown them during their recent illness and bereavement.

Request.

All members of the Praetorians to meet at the I. O. O. F. Hall Wednesday night, June 21. Also Saturday night June 24. For the purpose of reorganizing.

T. E. Seigler, Gen. Deputy.

Earl Bradley and Paul Harle came in last week from College where they have been the past year.

Will Headrick came in Monday from Southwestern University to spend the vacation with his parents.

We are pulling for a greater Memphis and Hall county. We are all so busy boosting, that we have no time to knock.

Mrs. Will Goffinett was up from Esteline several days last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Herd.

Scott Broome, Bertie Tharsher and Marvin Durham came in last week from A. & M. where they have been attending school the past year.

Hall county has the brightest prospects she has ever had. The prospects look like the marketing of 35,000 bales of cotton here this fall.

We are glad to announce that W. T. Read was able to be out on the streets again Friday after being laid up in his room for several weeks.

V. R. Jones came in Monday from Altus on a business trip. Mrs. Jones and baby stopped with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Spencer, at Wellington.

FAMILY OF 24 CHILDREN

Pittsburg Glassworker, Aged 42, Leaves America with Family for Native Land of Belgium.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 17—August Clondeaux, aged 42, an expert glass worker of Ford City, near here, left for New York today, en route to Belgium, his native land, accompanied by his wife and twenty-four children. Incidentally he also takes with him a comfortable fortune made in the glass industry in the Allegheny valley. Clondeaux and his wife came to this county twenty-one years ago, a short time after their marriage.

The family was happy today. Clondeaux was especially joyous. He is a great admirer of baseball and described his family and departure as follows:

"The score is 24 to 0." He meant none of the children had died. "If was a great game, too, thirteen singles, four two-baggers and a triple. Now we make a home run."

Is This the Meanest Man?

Two strangers met at one of the small tables in a dining car. They found a common bond in the effort to secure something to eat, and by the time the coffee came they were on friendly terms.

"I wonder if you will do me a favor said the first one, as he paid his bill. The other man seemed receptive, and the first one continued, "Have you a lower berth for tonight?" The man across the table nodded. "Well, I am traveling with my mother, who is well along in life, and I am anxious to make her comfortable. Would you be willing to give up your berth?"

"I should be delighted," responded the stranger. They went back to the sleeper, where the accommodating man was presented to the other's mother, a white-haired old lady with a charming face. The Good Samaritan had exchanged his lower berth for the upper belonging to the old lady, and was radiating with a sense of kindness. It led him to remark affably to the other man. "But where are you going to sleep?"

"Oh, that's all right," was the answer. "That's my lower berth, over there."—From Norman E. Mack's National Monthly

Tailor Shop Changes Hands

The Kinard Tailoring Co., on Monday was bought by Bertie Thrasher who will conduct it in the future along the same high business methods as heretofore. Bertie is a fine young business man and will appreciate any and all patronage extended him. Mr. Falkner will remain in his employ.

The public finger today is pointed to the duty of the states and the nation towards the good roads question. Texas needs more roads and better roads. Let's don't let the good roads proposition in Hall county lag.

Farmers everywhere are giving their earnest support to the good roads movement, for they realize that good roads will promote social intercourse as well as cheaper transportation.

The Clarendon Fire Company will give a ball at Clarendon opera house July 4th, a good time assured to all that attend.

We received a post card today from R. E. Truly at Coleman stating that he and wife were the proud parents of a fine girl born on the 19 inst. Mr. Truly was foreman of the Democrat office for several months. As this is their first, congratulations are in order and we wish for the little Miss a long and happy life.

OFFENDING BLACK BOTTLE.

A church member in a lonely district of Saskatchewan absented himself from services for some months.
On being approached on the subject he said he was sorry, but it was impossible to attend any more. He was pressed to give reasons, and at length said it was owing to the bad conduct of the superintending clergyman and catechist.

He and others had witnessed them drinking when driving round on their visits. They had passed a black bottle from hand to hand. It was impossible to attend the ministry of such men. Inquiries proved that the offending "bottle" was a pair of field glasses with which the drivers surveyed the surrounding country and tried to locate the various churches, shacks and trails!—

Crude
Thoughts

The Editorial

There is no fault so hard to overcome as the hasty temper.
We may make any number of good resolutions, and then the first time we have any provocation we go without an instant's warning and before we realize what we are doing the kind words have been spoken, and no matter how much regret we feel they cannot be unsaid.

Children are very observant and even the tiny little ones notice the difference between the smile and the frown on the parent's face. Year by year, as children grow older, and the souls, minds and hearts begin to expand under the influence of the environments, sensitive children usually cultivate unconsciously the mother's disposition.
The child will be sad and melancholy if the mother sighs and complains. If the child is independent and self-reliant often under such circumstances it will become stubborn, and defiant. When the child leaves the childhood behind and becomes a young man or woman then the evil effects of the sad mother becomes still more apparent.

It is in the home that woman rises to her truest heights and wields her widest influence.
Every home is a miniature world and the wife is a crowned queen.
The wife who makes society the field of her accomplishments soon finds her husband a devoted club man. The woman who fills her head with many of the ideas and pleasures of much that is called society, soon wants to entertain her husband any evening she may not have some other engagement with cards. She plays just as she did to win some prize at progressive euchre or whist parties. She cheats a little, and they have a little spat over it, and then another and another, and presently she fires something at his head, but misses it and hits the motto over the door, "God Bless Our Home." Their little boy says: "Ma, you missed pa's head, but you gave the motto hail Columbia." Often the only question to be decided in that home is, "who shall have the boy?" God pity the woman who has set her heart on much that is in modern society.

There are a thousand pretty, engaging little ways, which every person may put on without running the risk of being deemed affected or foppish. The sweet smiles, the cordial bow, the earnest movement in addressing a friend, is inquiring glance the graceful attention which is so captivating when united with self-possession, these will insure us the good regards if even a churl. Above all, there is a certain softness of manner which should be cultivated, and which,

in either man or woman, adds a charm that almost entirely com-pensates for lack of beauty, and inestimably enhances the letter where it does not exist.

Time was when woman was described as the helpmeet of man. Was it only a phrase, and meaningless? Possibly; but then, words in the Bible mostly did mean something. The time, too, was and yet is in some quarters of the world, when a woman was a helpmeet and accepted and worked up to her position as such. She did not demand everything and do nothing.
Why is marriage easy and universal in such a country as Japan? Life there is simple; two or three small rooms, a few dishes, a mat upon which to sleep, one dress, a little rice and some fruit—these suffice for all, rich and poor alike, in a great city like Yeddo, which has a civilization as perfect and as old as ours. And it is not a life of stupidity of barbarism; all can read and write; manner are good, books and pictures are plenty; theaters abound; processions and festival days enliven life. It is easy to see, therefore, why marriage is not a fearful thing in that far-off land; and by contrast it is easy to understand why few have the courage to dare it here.

Let our homes be places of love, joy and brightest sunshine, places of enduring love that outlasts the wedding day, and which produces a life of one unbroken honeymoon, the molding place of character, a place where the child breathes an atmosphere perfumed by the choicest flowers of heaven, where it finds the greatest earthly security in mother's loving, fostering care.

There is only villainous abomi-nations in the doctrine that leads a creature, called by courtesy a man, to announce that a transfer of his affections warrants a breach of loyalty and desertions of one who has become his wife and the mother of his children. No guise of prophecy can cover so vile a principle; no charm of poetry gild so hateful a treason, and the breath of perdition is on the lips of all such as advocate anything else than loyalty to wifehood and manhood.

There are few things more tempting to a man than to go home with something on his mind he wants to scold about, and find company there, and be obliged to act agreeably.

There is nothing more convenient for the lonely dwellers of the rural districts as well as for the Millionaire Spends $300 a Day in Rain Cannonade on Ranch

C. W. Post, the millionaire cereal manufacturer, is spending $300 a day in buying giant power and dynamite to make rain at Post City, Garza county.

Roy A. Toombs was in Post City two days ago. He heard terrific explosions, and upon inquiring the cause was told that Post is trying to make rain for his "Double U" ranch and his model town of Post City. The powder is touched off at the ranch a mile from the city.

The explosions had not brought rain to Post City up to Wednesday, but rain had fallen at Lubbock, fourteen miles, and at Lamesa. The people are confident that the explosions brought the rain and the cannonading will continue.

Scores Perish in Storm Sweeping Austrian Coast.

Taies, Austria, June 15.—A hurricane raged during the night, causing many deaths and much damage to shipping. Early today the bodies of twenty victims had been recovered at this point.

It is feared that fishing smacks with crews totaling forty men, which were at sea last night, were lost. These ships in the roads where severely damaged.
A Greek vessel with its crew of twelve foundered. Minor damages to craft are reported from other points on the Adriatic sea.

Mrs. Blas Garcia, whose features were seared beyond recognition, hair burned off and body terribly scorched from an ex-

was endeavoring to start a fire last night, lingered in terrible but escaped injury. He was Bethmann-Hollweg to call upon the chancellor when his car struck the curb smashing a wheel.

The crown prince was thrown great force. The chauffeur was post, was slightly bruised. The crown prince continued his trip

ARCHITECTURAL

When Woodrow Wilson was making his campaign for the governorship of New Jersey, he was asked to speak at the dedication of a new building in Jersey City. In the course of his remarks, he had something to say about architecture.
"These modern New York hotels," he declared, "remind me, in their architectural style, of a cross between the early Pullman and the late North German Lloyd periods."

PLAY CHILDREN ENJOY.

Alice in Wonderland was one of the reproductions at Christmas time in Boston, which proved most entertaining and instructive to the children, who followed all the adventures of the wonderful lady with the white rabbit and the mad hatter. "Alice" toys were on sale, made by special order of the "King of Hearts."

SIGNS ON TOPS OF THINGS

Stranger in New York Marveled at Advertisements Painted on Wagon Covers and Flat Roofs.

It wasn't the height of the buildings in lower Manhattan that impressed him, nor the crowds of Nassau street, nor the speed of the elevators, nor the intentness of the people, relates the New York Sun.
He took them as matters of course—about what he had expected. When they took him up to the twenty-fifth floor he was plainly interested in the ships and the ferryboats. But these too were about what he had looked for. Presently, however, he caught something moving in the bed of the cave at his feet. "By George," said he, "that's queer. I'd never thought of that." What he saw was a covered delivery wagon with the name of the firm painted broadly on the top. On the flat roof of a little building to the south was painted the name of a printer and the special kind of work he did. Elsewhere were names of fruiterers, dealers in office furniture, restaurant keepers, all painted on the roofs of their buildings. "Yes, sir," said the newcomer, "I consider those signs just as remarkable as the high buildings themselves."

PRACTICAL LANGUAGE SCHOOL

Cleveland to Have an Institution Where the Foreign Tongues Will Be Taught by Native Experts.

Because a woman dreamed and worked for years to realize her dream, Cleveland will have a school where modern languages, French, German, Italian and Spanish, will be taught by teachers native to the countries. Pupils will learn to speak each of the languages "as well as though it had been learned in the country where it was invented."

Mme. Archinard will be at the head of the new school, which will be called the Practical School of Language and which will be opened in a house equipped for the purpose.

Mme. Archinard came to Cleveland eight years ago. She was born in Paris and for several years previous to coming here taught in a private school just outside of that city.

All this time it has been her great ambition to see a school started here where the languages could be taught in a practical manner, in a way that would enable each of the students to become proficient in pronunciation and in using the idioms of the language which he would study.

Already German, Spanish and Italian teachers have been engaged.

FIRST JURY CASE.

A noted case tried in the reign of the conqueror, with Otho, bishop of Bayeux, presiding as judge, has been erroneously supposed to be the first jury case on record. A dispute had arisen about certain lands, to which the sheriff laid claim on behalf of the king. All the men in the county were assembled and sworn to say the truth. Eventually they found for the sheriff. The judge, dissatisfied with the verdict directed the men of the county to choose out of their number 12, who should upon their oaths, confirm the verdict if they thought fit. This they did. Authorities now agree, however, that the chosen 12 were not jurors, but merely computators, sworn to give evidence. The legal existence of jurors was first recorded under the Plantagenets.

WHOOPIING COUGH CURE.

"Will you please give mother a nut to put a spider in, as baby's got the whooping cough." This extraordinary request was made to a Tiverton shopkeeper this week by a little girl whose mother believes that if she imprisons a live spider in a nutshell and ties it round her infant's neck the whooping cough will disappear when the spider dies.—

WORLD'S WHEAT FIGURES

Government Statement Shows United States Furnish 18 Per Cent of International Trade

Washington, June 15.—The United States furnish about 18 per cent of the total international trade in wheat, including flour, according to a statement today of the Department of Agriculture.

In recent years the world's wheat crop has averaged slightly more than three billion bushels annually, of which about 8 per cent is exported from one country to another in the form of flour and 17 per cent in the form of wheat, making a total of about 25 per cent of the world's wheat crop which enters international trade. The United States exports about 62 per cent of all the flour that is shipped from one country to another and about 11 per cent of the wheat.

It was payday at the camp and the money had been shipped by express to the lumber company. For some reason the express was slightly detained and the robbery netted only $15.

SHATTERED HULK OF THE MAINE EXPOSED

As Water in Coffin Dam Becomes Lower, Extent of Disaster Is Shown to Have Been Great.

Havana, June 15.—The water in the coffin dam around the wreck of the battleship Maine, lowered to a depth of seven feet, today shows that the destruction of the vessel thirteen years ago was on a larger scale than supposed. As the water became lower and lower, evidence of the extent of the disaster became worse and worse. Amidship received the main force of the explosion. The bow is sunk underneath the mud and it is not yet known whether the hulk can be raised.

$940 DIFFERENCE IN THE PRICE

First 1911 Cotton Bale Auction in Houston Brings Only 15c at New York Exchange.

New York, June 15.—A bale of cotton that sold at auction a few days ago in Houston, Texas, for $2 a pound brought only 15c a pound today—less than the spot price—on the steps of the New York Cotton Exchange. In Houston the bale brought $1,015 and here $75. It will next be sold in Liverpool, and the proceeds of all three sales will go to charity.

The bale was pressed from the first cotton from the new crop and the difference in price is purely sentimental.

It is understood that the Commercial Club of San Benito, Tex., where the cotton was grown, will trace it to England, and after the last sale will have it woven into suits for King George, President Taft and the Governor General of Canada.

"Snake" Charmer Dies at Preston, Kan.

Wellington, Kan., June 16.—William Talkington, who came into notoriety in this county a few years ago through his connection with an unique religious sect popularly known as "Snake Charmers", died yesterday at Preston, Kansas, and his body was brought here today for burial.

Talkington, who was a wealthy farmer, became so carried away with the doctrines of the sect that he would have deeded all his property to one of their preachers had not his son Roy succeeded in getting a guardian appointed by the probate court, the same son afterward becoming a convert himself. His wife died of typhoid fever without medical attention, because the belief of the sect forbade it. He was prosecuted for criminal neglect, but the jury failed to convict. The Talkingtons later went to Western Kansas, where they organized a colony of the "Snake Charmers" cult. From time to time reports of members being bitten, while handling rattlesnakes have appeared in the papers. Talkington's wife died from a snake bite a couple of years ago, and soon after Talkington himself was bitten by a rattler he was handling. He recovered after a long illness, but never was in good health again. He leaves an estate in this county valued at fully $20,000.

It is too bad people can't use abbreviations over the telephone. A farmer's idea of a vacation is to go on a homeseekers excursion.

Some people think they are aristocratic as soon as they can afford to be.

If this condition of affairs continues we are liable to have an early summer.

What has become of the big fashioned man who had his neck ties tied at the factory?

There are various notions about a good time; a boy rather likes being caught out in the rain.

One of the very pleasant social occasions of the season was a party given on Friday night, June 9th, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Finch, at which time Mrs. W. B. Quigley and Mrs. Finch entertained friends who were present and who were most highly entertained with games of various kinds, also a large number of phonograph records were played on the phonograph for the musical part of the entertainment. The lawn was beautifully lighted and seats arranged for the comfort of the guests. Rook being the principal game of the evening. Nice refreshments of brick ice cream and cake were served. After an evening most pleasantly spent, the guests reluctantly departed voting the hostesses, Mesdames Quigley and Finch, to be the royal entertainers.

Echos From the Band.

The members of the Memphis Concert band wish to express their great appreciation to the commercial club for the step they have taken by employing Mr. Paul James as their director and standing behind his salary. By so doing, you have taken a great load from our shoulders and makes it possible for us to use more of our time towards practicing our music instead of getting up plays to pay the leader's salary. There are several in the city who are contemplating joining the band and, with the renewed energy and enthusiasm the band is now taking on, we will soon have a membership of twenty-five. Come out to the concert Saturday night.

Fourth of July "To Do" Postponed.

At a meeting of the Commercial Club last Thursday night, it was decided to postpone the Fourth of July picnic, which had been contemplated. The limited time in which to advertise was considered too short and other Fourth of July celebrations nearby which had been properly advertised were some of the reasons for postponement.

It is proposed to have a big fall festival and make it two or three days and pull off a big affair, at which time prizes will be offered for the best sample in each and every line of the county products. The samples to be shipped to the Dallas Fair for county exhibit. In our judgment this is by far the better movement that a Fourth of July celebration. Then again we can make this a yearly affair and not conflict with other set dates of any of our neighbors.

Dies From Poison Just After His Trial is Called.

Decatur, Texas, June 20.—E. H. Boone of Memphis, Texas, formerly a wealthy farmer of Wise county and last year candidate for tax assessor; died suddenly in sheriff's office this morning, two hours after a case against him charging passing of forged instruments had been called. A doctor said his death was due to strychnine poisoning. Boone went to Fort Worth yesterday. He left there last night and returned to Decatur this morning about 11 o'clock. He came from the station direct to the sheriff's office. Just as he reached the room he was seen to stagger and fall. Clerks rushed to his side, but it was found that he was dead. A doctor was called and gave it as his opinion that Boone died of strychnine poison self-administered.

It is believed that he took the poison on the train as it was pulling into Decatur. The remains were received at Memphis today (Wednesday) and carried out to Lakeview for burial. Two brothers, one from Fort Worth and one from Weatherford accompanied the remains.
