MEMPHIS WINS FROM CLARENDON

Memphis Squad Went to Clarendon Saturday and Took Score of 29 to 0. Memphis High School boys played a very fast game of football on Saturday and played the Clarendon team to a decisive victory. The score was 29 to 0. While the score indicates a one-sided affair, yet the Clarendon boys played a fast snappy game and showed the Memphis boys that they were on the field all the time. The Clarendon boys will strengthen their line up and come down to Memphis next Saturday with the full intention of getting revenge for the drubbing they received last Saturday. Be sure and see the game.

Business College Entertainment.

Tuesday night quite a large number of our citizens were highly entertained at Carnegie Library with a pleasing program especially arranged for the occasion. Short talks and a nice musical program was enjoyed. Then the class prizes of a beautiful and instructive work entitled, "Kingship or Control" were given to the following pupils for proficiency and advancement in Orthography: Mrs. A. Travis, Misses Maude McElreath, Lucy Shaw, D. B. Carrol, Winston Montgomery, Jack Leak, Albert Harvey. In the class examination the pupils show they have had careful training and that they had made close application to the study. The class improvement showed a gain of 22%.

MAN LOST ARM AT OIL MILL

While Putting a Belt on a Pulley Last Thursday afternoon. Quite a deplorable accident happened at the oil mill Thursday afternoon about four o'clock in which A. T. Tolbert happened to the sad misfortune of losing an arm. Mr. Tolbert was attempting to place a belt on a pulley while the machinery was in motion. In some manner it is thought his clothing caught on a set screw and the body was whirled around the shafting several times, finally being released when the arm was torn off and thrown several feet, the body also falling to the floor. There were several other bruises about the head and body. He was conveyed to the Wilson Sanitarium where the wounds were dressed. Mr. Tolbert had been employed at the mill for something like a year and was a good workman. He has been getting along nicely since the accident and his many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Children's Home and Aid Society.

Rev. W. A. Nicholas, of Fort Worth, and State secretary of the Texas Children's Home and Aid Society, made an address at each one of the churches in Memphis Sunday in the interest of the home. He is also gathering up children over the state that has no parents and whose parents are not able to take care of them properly and raise them up to be better men and women. He found three children here in Memphis whose mother is not able to take care of the children and seems as though she has no control over the children. The mother was approached as to letting the children be carried to this home and she has practically refused to let them go. The family is in destitute circumstances and on the charity list, and it is probable that the case will be brought into county court today and the children sent to the home by law.

LOVING CUPS ARE AWARDED.

Dr. M. M. Carrick Makes Inspection and Awards Prizes Saturday. For some time our merchants and ladies of the city have been busy cleaning business houses and residences for the purpose of winning the beautiful loving cups and premiums for the cleanest homes and business houses. At the solicitation of the Civic Committee who had the work in charge, Dr. M. M. Carrick was persuaded to return to Memphis and make inspections and award these respective prizes, as it was thought that Dr. Carrick was more competent or in a better position to make the awards on account of his extensive work along this line. These awards were made after three very close inspections and Dr. Carrick speaks very highly of the fine sanitary conditions now prevailing in our city, and while there were only six loving cups to be given, yet many of the homes which will be mentioned graded very highly. The subject was discussed from two view points, human nature as well as the insurmountable barriers established by nature. That Clarendon Game

The Memphis Highs put it over the Collegiates of Clarendon last Saturday with a score of 29 to 0. Although this might appear to our home people as a walk-over, we wish to say that we had to play the game all the way through and watch them well in order to hold them down. They are to play us a return game next Saturday on the Memphis High School Athletic Field, and we have asked them to bring their very best material in their first team. This will make a different game, and everybody in Memphis should see it. We really expect this game to be the hardest game we will play on our fields this season. Our home boys are making a fine showing, playing a strictly clean game, and above all are bringing up first class school work. This being the case they need your encouragements, so be sure to bring 25c and see the game next Saturday. We are having a hard struggle, this the first season in our athletics, to make expense money and thus make the work self sustaining. Later in the season, we are to have the Quannah High School Team here for a game. This will be the most expensive game of the season, because of the distance between the two towns. Therefore we will be compelled to have a good balance in our treasury before this game comes off. We are expecting a big crowd next Saturday and we want a big crowd. You are sure to get your money's worth out of this game, so remember the date, Saturday, Oct. 25.

Crude Thoughts From The Editorial Pen

"Melancholy cannot hold its own with perennial good nature. Sunshine is contagious. Smiles are epidemic. One joyous nature will fill an auditorium with good cheer. Despondency is a poor debater. It can bring no argument that sunbeams will not penetrate."

Let us not be low-spirited over little things. Worry never accomplished anything. It is useless to cross a bridge until we get to it. Evil forebodings never lightened any pathway, and the feet are prone to stumble or go astray in the darkness of melancholy and sorrow. Look on the bright side. Be cheerful. Be self-reliant. Be brave and patient.

If a young girl reads that which is weak and false and foolish, she will be weak, false and foolish; but it is true, tender and inspiring, then something of its truth and tenderness will glow into her soul and become a part of her very self. The boy who reads deeds of manliness, of bravery and noble daring feels the spirit of emulation glow within him, and the seed is planted which will bring forth fruit of pure endeavor and exalted life.

"Is your father rich?" someone asked a five-year-old girl; and the one replied confidentially, "Why, of course he's got me." And she was right, too for, the father of a sweet, loving, helpful little daughter is richer than some millionaire whose money cannot buy the love of a single heart. How about your father? Do you think he is a rich man because of the daughter at home? There are households where "it is hard to make both ends meet," but where there is plenty of that better wealth of love and kindness and loyalty. Is yours one of them?

Everyone has annoyances. The housekeeper finds them in lazy servants; or on a rainy day the stove wood will not burn; the floors get soiled and the children fret. The business man finds them in an unfaithful partner, and we all find them in one thing or another. We have found them in appointments and failures, but life is too short to be trifled away in sighs and worrying over the trials and rough places in our way. There are too many good things to enjoy. Just think of the bright things all around us. It matters not how poor we may be, still the bright sunshine is ours; the flowers and the little birds that sing for us. And there is too much to do in our one short lifetime. As we once heard an aunt say, "Well, we hear so much about good words, why doesn't someone do something good?" And it is high time we were all doing it.

We owe it to our friends and we owe it to ourselves to cherish gentle good nature, that has a sympathetic eye, a glowing, bright face and a warm, responsive heart to greet the world with. It is one of the most affective of all means of doing good. Kind words and gentle looks cost nothing; and yet they are often more grateful to the poor and oppressed than purses of gold.

All love is sweet, given or returned. They who inspire it most are fortunate but they who feel it most are happier still.

The word "home" is only applied to the habitations of man. Beasts have lairs, birds have nests—temporary abiding places, both of them. Man alone builds his permanency, and a safe housing of his treasures and loved ones. A house is not a home. You cannot rear a home with boards alone.

Men and women were made to labor but not to slave. Each one of us has an inalienable right of liberty and happiness, and we must insist upon the rights. Learn to know what the essentials are and learn to let the non-essentials go. Let us take time for thought. Let us take time to read and develop what mind God has given us. Let us take time for conversation, for pleasant, social intercourse, for making and keeping friends.

WANTED—A friend who will recognize me when compelled to wear patched pants; who will take my hand when I am sliding down hill, instead of giving me a kick to hasten my descent; who will lend me a dollar without two dollars security; who will come to me when I am sick; who will pull off his coat when the odds are two to one; who will talk of me behind my back as he does to my face. Such a being is wanted by ten thousand human beings throughout the world.

A man who is a man at all, does not want his wife to be a beast of burden; and, if circumstances makes it necessary for her to overwork, he will at least endeavor by tenderness and forethought and such help as his own labors permit, to make life easier for her. Such is the heart of a woman that this attitude on the part of her husband is the elixir of life to her, and sustained by it she can endure strain and toil that otherwise would break her spirit and materially injure her health.

GLIMPSE OF LIFE IN FOREIGN LANDS

How an Old Chinese Scholar found all he needed in marvelous book of John—A new day dawning in marvelous countries—Japan's untouched millions—Nationalities in Argentina—Clarion call from China and some unanswered appeals. BY IDA CLYDE CLARKE

Over in a distant province of North China there is a man who knows no church, no ordinance, no fellowship, no teacher save Jesus. His one book is the marvelous Book of John, but in this he has found the simplest and the profoundest truth, and he wants no other.

Mr. Edgar L. Morgan, a missionary, writing from Laichow fu, North China, tells the story and it is worth retelling.

Forty miles east of Laichow-fu in a village infrequently visited by preachers, an evangelist, Mr. Lin, discovered one he described as the most remarkable man he has met in his six years of work. By some means about five years ago this old man, now beyond sixty, had secured a large print of the gospel of John.

To a Christian messenger he said, "I know that Jesus came down from God, I have the book that tells about him, Yoa-Han Fu-yin (John's Good News.) I read it constantly, but there are some things which Jesus says that I do not understand. Can you tell me, sir, what he means when he says, 'I am in the Father and the Father is in me.'" On being answered he asked, "What was the name of the pool to which Jesus sent the blind man, I have forgotten?" This and other things Mr. Lin patiently hunted out, explained and discussed.

Such a knowledge of the book and its meaning heretofore hidden from him, amazed the old searcher for truth, "How, sir, do you know these things?" he said, "every chapter and verse and just where they are and just what they mean. How long have you been acquainted with the book?"

Mr. Lin then told him of his own ten year's experience, and asked if in his reading he had found the "flavor" of this book different from that of the classics. "Sir, I read no more of the books of this world," he replied. "My whole leisure time is spent on this one."

He was told that there are other sacred writings. John was only one of many, and that some of the others would be sent to him. He said, "Thank you, you need not trouble to do that. I do not care for any others; this 'flavor' is excellent. I read this constantly, and ten parts (perfectly) believe in Jesus. You need not exhort me to trust in him. For nearly five years I have read about Him in this book and I want nothing better."

Mr. Lin then taught him to pray, and urged him to visit and become acquainted with the bodies of believers near him, with whom he might have fellowship. "We have sent him a complete large print New Testament writes Mr. Morgan, "and have invited him to visit us at some meeting day. I want to get to know this lover of Jesus and John."

"A new day has come to Brazil, Argentina and Chile, the three foremost countries of South America," writes Missionary W. B. Bagby, "and it is a day of new life for our mission and mission enterprises. The millions already in those rich and productive lands are every month added to by thousands of immigrants from Europe and Asia—Italians, Germans, Spaniards, Portugese, Russians, Norwegians, Swedes, Austrians, Syrians and Japanese.

Seventy-five thousand immigrants last year entered the great Brazilian coffee state of Sao Paulo Railroad lines are piercing the vast interior of those distant lands and filling them with new life. Towns and large cities are fast building up. Buenos Ayres today has 1,400,000 souls and Rio Janeiro 1,000,000 while Montevideo has 300,000, Sao Paulo 400,000 Bahia 300,000 and Rosario 300,000.

Education is becoming more widespread, and large government institutions are being built up and fostered for general as well as technical and professional instruction.

The evangelical denominations at work in South America are beginning to build up first class schools and colleges in the countries occupied, and these schools are patronized by the best classes of Brazilians, Argentines and Chileans.

Maude Bonnell, writing from Kobe, Japan, says:

"In Japan there yet remain 25,000,000 wholly unevangelized farmers, 1,000,000 fishermen, 8,000,000 practically untouched business men, 743,000 factory employes, 300,000 army and navy men in active service and a large body of students who are still without God, and most of them know too little to be called in any sense evangelized."

From Kyoto, Japan, Mr. W. A. Davis writes to his board:

"Our work is in the very center of Buddhism. The majority of the people look on us with suspicion, if not without positive hatred. In the villages in reach of Kyoto there are more than 200,000 people who have no one to give them the gospel. My heart is going out toward these people, but what am I and my small force among so many? We pray and trust that the Lord will multiply the loaves as we hand them out to the people."

A missionary in Argentina tells of having received twenty-four members into his church in the last few months. He says: "Perhaps it would be interesting for me to give a list of the nationalities represented in my church. They are as follows: Scotland, England, New Zealand, North America, Germany, Russia, Sweden, Spain, France, Italy, Argentina, Chili and Uruguay." This church, which is located in the great city of Buenos Ayres, shows what a tide of immigration is turning toward that great city and the rich surrounding country.

In a letter that came to one of the mission boards recently Rev. L. D. Patterson, writing from Sungkiang, China, sounds a clarion call to the people of his home land. He says:

"We are in the midst of heathenism. It rolls like an ocean all around us. We can not step out to our front gate without seeing a half score of people who know absolutely nothing of our

God and His Christ. If we walk a few blocks we see hundreds. There are 75,000 people in Sungkiang and only 250 christians. There are more than a hundred heathen temples and only three Christian churches. For 75,000 people there are only three ordained preachers.

"O, that the church at home could but see the fields as we see them." "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few."

Some people do not understand why the mission boards are always mentioning the inadequacy of funds for carrying on their work. The answer is found in almost every one of hundreds of letters that come in every year to the mission boards from those who are in the hearts of the work in the foreign lands and who feel the need so deeply.

The following extracts from letters that have come only within the past few weeks should be answer enough:

Since our last conference more than a hundred people have joined the church. There is a great stir and move in this land toward the church of God. All of our chapels are entirely too small to meet the rapidly increasing need. Do let our people know."—Rev. J. D. Hendro, Huechow China.

What opportunities! Would that I could sound it aloud from every housetop in the home land. China's salvation is in the hands of the Christian church. Will the church fail in this day of her opportunity?"—Rev. John C. Hawk, Changchow, China.

"We are turning patients away and all for lack of room. I am averaging one major operation a day. I do not know what we are to do. We need our new doctor and new hospital at once."—Dr. John Snell.

"There isn't anything needing attention more than the villages, and there is almost nothing being done in them. I need a tent a phonograph, a cornet and a Japanese worker to assist me in this work."—Rev. T. W. B. Demaree, Matsuyawa, Japan.

Elder Young will affirm that instrumental music in religious worship is contrary to the teachings of the word of God. These two gentlemen are among the very strongest debaters of their respective churches, and each has a state-wide reputation, therefore a most interesting and thorough discussion is looked for. 43-44

Both debaters are christian gentlemen and the discussion will doubtless be carried on in the same christian spirit as that shown in the Tulsa debate in which Elder Young recently represented his church. 43-44

Religious Discussion. Debate to be Held at Memphis Between Leading Elders of the Christian Church. Memphis, Tex., Oct 21—There will be a religious debate here on Nov. 3rd, between Elder A. W. Young of the Church of Christ of Gainesville, Texas, and Elder D. A. Leak, pastor of the Progressive Christian church of this place. 43-44

Elder Young will affirm that instrumental music in religious worship is contrary to the teachings of the word of God. These two gentlemen are among the very strongest debaters of their respective churches, and each has a state-wide reputation, therefore a most interesting and thorough discussion is looked for. 43-44

Both debaters are christian gentlemen and the discussion will doubtless be carried on in the same christian spirit as that shown in the Tulsa debate in which Elder Young recently represented his church. 43-44

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side. The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not get up and I gave up in despair. At last, my husband got n Broun's Cardui, the woman's tonic. I began taking it. From the first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles a day, and am doing all my own work. If you are all run down with troubles, don't give up. Buy Broun's Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is more than a million times better than any other medicine. It will do. Ask him to send it. Begin taking it now. Write to: Chattanooga, Tenn. Broun's Cardui, 111 Broadway, N. Y. City. Instructions on your case on each box."

COMFORTABLE UNDERWEAR

Did you ever stop to think of the difference between 'just underwear' and "comfortable underwear."

A great many people go into a store and buy underwear at 50c, $1.00 or whatever may be the price per suit, without ever giving a thought to whether the underwear is made comfortable or whether it will be ill fitting and uncomfortable. Whether it is made full, long sleeve, etc. You can do that at some stores alright and at some you can't.

We carry the Coopers Closed Crotch union suits for men, also the separate garments in five weights.

We carry the Maline underwear for Women and Children.

Come to our store for your underwear, we fit you comfortably and at reasonable prices. We buy both lines direct from the mills.

CITY BUILDING NOTE

By L. M. Ward, President Texas Commercial Executive Association.

An empty jail is a valuable asset.

There are those who enjoy to occupy a front seat on the band wagon while their comrades lift the wheels out of the ruts.

If sanitation, housing and recreative conditions are made, half the difficulty of securing industries are removed.

The farmer who drives six miles to town is as much a citizen of the community as the man who walks six blocks to his office.

If you desire to know whether your commercial organization is accomplishing results, ask the man in the adjoining town; he can tell you.

If you pay taxes in your community you are a member of a great corporation, the board of directors of which is your commercial organization.

Health is a most vital factor in community development, therefore activities looking to the improvement of sanitary conditions are of vital importance.

Buck-shooting is a serious malady and has caused the downfall of many a city building organization. Concentration is the first law of successful accomplishments.

The man who is not an active member of the constructive organization of his community is doing himself and his community a great injustice and is unmindful of his opportunity.

"BLUE EYES"
 The thinking farmer is the successful farmer.
Farmers Day At Waco Cotton Palace.
 Waco, Texas October—Saturday, November 15th has been set aside by the management of the Waco Cotton Palace and Exposition at Waco, which will be held from November 1st to 16th, inclusive, as Farmers Day, and it has been announced that Peter Radford of the Texas Farmers' Union, Judge S. A. Lindsey, of Tyler, Chairman of the Texas Farm Life Commission, and other prominent speakers will deliver addresses on that day.
 The day has also been designated as McLennan County and Old Settlers Day, Confederate Veterans Day and Pratorian Day and the attendance is expected to make it the banner day of the Cotton Palace.
 Waco—A large and spacious poultry building will be added to the already large exposition grounds at the Texas Cotton Palace this fall. There additional facilities are mandatory to meet the increasing demands for exhibit space in poultry department.

FARM FACTS.
 By Peter Radford, Farmers' Union.
 Diversification is the highway to prosperity.
 Farming without thinking is like reading without light.
 Up until the present time our land has been mined instead of farmed.
 Permanent agriculture and livestock rearing and feeding are inseparable.
 Feeding livestock upon the farm establishes a home market for the crops.
 A load of corn is more cheaply transported when converted into animal products.
 Marketing farm products is an item that must be reckoned with when profits are accounted for.
 Millions of dollars have been expended in solving the marketing problem and still it is not comprehensive.
 When the farmer and merchant properly understand each other, then they will have no trouble in working together.
 Adding the silo to the farm simply means applying one of the first principles of modern manufacturing industry to the oldest of all industries.
 The rapidly increasing population given rise to a large demand for food, both in the form of bread and meat, and the farmer must meet this demand not only by increasing production, but by a betterment of marketing facilities.
 The feeding of farm animals not only enables the farmer to return from 85 to 90 per cent of the fertilizing value of the crops to the soil, but in growing crops as peas, alfalfa, clover and other legumes, the soil has a more nitrogen stored in the soil than is sold in the form of animal products.

GOOD ROADS.

By Homer D. Wade, Secretary Texas Good Roads Association.

People may be judged by the kind of highways they want.

Now is the time to select the tool to be used on Good Roads Day—November 5th and 6th.

Individual prosperity means general prosperity. Both can be greatly enhanced with a practical system of good roads.

If the United States had as good roads as there are in Europe, it would mean a saving in transportation of foreign products of $250,000,000 per annum.

There are two things on a road that are just about as bad as a mud hole or a sand bank—one of these is a goggle-eyed culvert and the other is a hump backed bridge. The elimination of all four of these impediments is a thing to be devoutly hoped for.

Good roads for motorists cannot be built so that they will not be a benefit to vehicle traffic of all kinds. It is equally true that when roads are built for wagons and buggies they will be a benefit to the motorist. What helps one is a benefit to both.

The successful office seeker of the future and the one who will be called higher, is the man who will pay more attention to laws with reference to improved highways and less to the tariff and other theoretical questions. The "dear people" are not as interested in their legislators knowledge of the intricacies of the cur law question, as they are in giving them to enact laws that will give them relief from matters that are vital in their every day life. They want less bumble and more sense, less smoke and more fire, less shooting and more game, fewer laws and better laws.

Mrs. Chas. Baldwin of Lodge, county, was a guest of Mrs. J. F. Baldwin several days last week.—Clarendon News.

Citation by Publication.

THE STATE OF TEXAS. To The Sheriff or Any Constable of Hall County Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED, that you summon, by making Publication of this Citation in some newspaper published in the County of Hall if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 40th judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said judicial district, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said 40th judicial district, for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, the heirs of Edrick Davis, deceased, whose residences are unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be holden in the County of Hall at the Court House thereof in Memphis, Texas, on the fifth Monday in December, 1913, the same being the 29th day of December, 1913, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 13th day of September, A. D. 1913, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. 752, wherein W. B. Duncan is plaintiff and the Continental Land and Cattle Company, a corporation, and the heirs of Edrick Davis, deceased, are defendants. The nature of the plaintiffs demand being as follows: to-wit: Plaintiff represents to the court that on or about the 1st day of January, 1913, he was unlawfully seized and possessed of the following described land and premises situated in the County of Hall, Texas, holding and claiming in fee simple, to-wit: Sec. 12, No. A, surveyed by _____ issued to Adams _____

Beaty & Moulton, containing 640 acres of land. That on the day and year aforesaid defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withholds from him the possession thereof, to his damage in the sum of $5000.00. Plaintiff would further show to the court that this suit is brought to correct and perfect the title to the above-described land and premises; that same were conveyed to him by defendant Continental Land and Cattle Company and W. E. Hughes as its President, under a general warranty deed, dated on the 4th day of December, 1900; that plaintiff paid for said land in good faith believing and relying upon the terms of the warranty in said deed of conveyance and upon the representations then and there made to him by said defendant Continental Land and Cattle Company, and believing said Company had a good and perfect title to same, when in fact and in truth it did not have a good and perfect title to said land and premises in this, to-wit: The said corporation was holding said land under a deed from one of the heirs of Edrick Davis, deceased, which was not joined in by any of the other heirs, and which failed to convey to the said corporation the title to said land and premises. That by reason of the failure of the warranty of said defendant corporation to convey a good and perfect title to said land and premises, plaintiff has been compelled to bring this suit, and plaintiff asks for damages in the sum of $250.00 for costs of bringing this suit. Plaintiff prays that citation issue to Continental Land and Cattle Company in terms of the law, and that he have citation by publication to the heirs of Edrick Davis, deceased, and that he have judgment for his title and the failure of his warranty, and for damages; that he have judgment divesting title out of said heirs and investing title to all of said land in this plaintiff. That he have judgment for his costs, and for relief both general and special, etc.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, and have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Memphis, Texas, this 18th day of September, A. D. 1913.

ECHOES FROM THE PRESS ASSOCIATION MEETING HELD IN MEMPHIS ON SEPTEMBER 19-20, 1913

The T.-C. man spent Friday and Saturday in Memphis attending the convention of the Northwest Texas Press Association. As it is a time honored custom for the country newspaper man, whenever he leaves home, to jot down his impressions, and present them to his readers, we shall not fail to inflict our readers thusly.

Memphis is a town we have always felt partial to, in the heart of a fertile country that always gets rain, no matter how dry the rest of the Panhandle maybe. While everywhere else the farmers are moaning over their cotton being short, here the cotton raisers complain about the scarcity of pickers. They can use one thousand cotton pickers in Hall county, they assure me, and from the looks of the cotton patches I have seen and the few people working in them, we see no reason to doubt that statement.

Yesterday an automobile excursion was organized to show the editors the country. There were some thirty people in the bunch who saw about fifty miles of country, full of cotton and feed stuff. While farmers complain of crops being short, we saw several fields that would average over half a bale of cotton to the acre, hence concluded the Hall county farmer is hard to satisfy.

We enjoyed our trip thru the country, by the way of Lodge and Lakeview—inland towns that gin lots of cotton, they carry to Memphis. We went thru the celebrated Shoobar ranch, bought a few years ago by the Swifts for one million dollars, and sold by them to the farmers for twenty dollars per acre. D. A. Grundy, a brother of our townsman, who made the million deal with the Swifts, collected over $50,000 as his commission, and as he resold the land for them, and there was over 195,000 acres of it, he will probably manage to stay out of the poor house in his old age.

Some sixteen years ago I traveled over this country with Alex Lewis and Ed Brice hunting quail and ducks. Yesterday, stopping at Lakeview, my recollections ran to a lake in the neighborhood, where a one arm school teacher used to live, who objected to our duck shooting. Think I never would have known that country. But then we saw most of it under disadvantages. I still remember driving two mules that wouldn't travel some sixty miles into the face of a furious norther. I thought of that drive when skirting Indian creek and looking for the spot where we broke the doubletree.

Now all this prairie land and sandy waste of old is in farms and very productive farms at that. Neatly painted houses dot the landscape, and pretty orchards help to enliven it. A magic wand seem to have been passed over it.

The newspaper folks are all here, all the old familiar faces and several new ones. There is Major Hammer, who ran a paper at Claude in 1892, and is still running it; nearly eighty years old, and the most cheerful looking man of the convention. Old standbys like Orion Procter of Bridgeport and Senator Johnson of Memphis instruct the young fellows how to run things.

The convention is most interesting. Every newspaper man is eager to learn something, and picking up some useful bit of the other fellow's experience. We meet in the new Carnegie library a comfortable place, and many of the town people attend the meetings, and listened interestedly at subjects rather dry to an outsider.

Visitors of note are attending. Mrs. Mary Ligon Christensen of Wichita Falls delivered a grand address on Peace. She is a member of the Peace Commission of the Federation of Texas Women's clubs, and was appointed a delegate to the World's Peace Conference at The Hague. Twenty-nine civilized nations have now signed W. J. Bryan's peace proclamation, and promised instead of rushing into war, they will henceforth call upon an arbitration committee to settle their differences. Seventy-two per cent of our taxes go to pay for wars of the past and future and it is time that this money, instead of being wasted any longer, should be applied to more useful and needed things. Mrs. Christensen described the sufferings of the non-combatants: the degeneration that follows in the wake of war, and had no trouble in securing a resolution from the editors to be sent to Washington, indorsing the peace policy of President Wilson.

Mrs. Christensen is making this peace movement her life work, and is prominently mentioned in connection with the Nobel prize, for doing more good than anybody in the great state of Texas.

Thus far had I proceeded putting some rambling thoughts on paper at Memphis Saturday night when the band, headed by Paul James, passed the commercial club room, and drove all thoughts of further writing from my mind. The boys were to give their customary weekly concert on the courthouse square, and as the scribes had been invited, I put my implement of war (lead pencil) and followed the procession.

The whole town was there, listening to real good music. Most of them were strolling about, while others were taking their ease in automobiles, of which Memphis possesses a large number.

And thus our stay in that hospitable town drew to a close. We had attended a reception the night before at which eloquence ran riot and good cheer prevailed, and had met most of the leading Memphians. They had been anxious for the Association to make their city permanent headquarters, and several of the boys were willing, but as there is a possibility of the Panhandle Press Association being merged into the Northwest institution, it had been thought best to meet with the Panhandle editors in Amarillo next year.

When the train finally carried me off homeward bound, it was with the recollection of two delightful and profitable days, spent in one of the best and most charming little cities of Texas.—Quannah Tribune-Chief.

The Spirit of The Rio Grande.

Down in the Rio Grande Valley the bankers are helping the farmer through business co-operation. Arrangements have been made whereby cattle can be bought on time and paid for when they are sold. The bankers also finance silos, and scientific feeding of livestock is directed through experts.

The tremendous attention which these bankers are paying agriculture is one of the best signs of the times, and the spirit of the Rio Grande is rapidly spreading throughout the State.
