In Home Ceremony Tuesday Morning To Be Married in

News

Nuptial rites of impressive simplicity were performed at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning to unite Miss Eloise Norman and William Everett Shipp Jr. of Midland. The wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Jones Norman and William Everett Shipp Jr. of Midland. of Mrs. James Norman, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. Rev. Russell A. Wingert, Presbyterian minister, officiated. For recitation of their vows, the couple stood before the fireplace in the living room. The mantle was flanked with a profusion of giant white daisies and gladioli intermingled with greenery. At each side were tall, slanting candelabra which held burning tapers to form an appropriate background for the

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Ethan Allen, sister of the groom, sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. U. C. Thompson, another sister of the groom. For the entrance of the couple, Mrs. Thompson played, "The Bridal March" from Lobengrin and during the ceremony played, "Liebestraum" (Liszt) and "Ave Maria."

The bride was attired in a fall suit with jacket of saddle tan widewale silk corduroy and skirt of aqua blue. She wore a large offthe-face felt hat of aqua and other accessories of rust. Her corsage was of pink Briercliff roses and

FRIENDS OF HALL COUNTY-

I wish to express my sincerest thanks and appreciation to you people of Hall County for your splendid support in my race for County Superintendent. Whether you voted for me or whether you voted for my opponent, I am grateful indeed. One of the American ideals we hope to be upheld throughout the centuries is is the right to cast a vote for whomever one desires.

I assure you that it is my greatest desire to be of service to everyone of you alike.

For you boys and girls and men and women who worked for me so faithfully in every rural community and in every town, I am putting in an extra "Thank You!"

> Mary Foreman

THANKS!

for the nice vote given me in Saturday's Primary.

FRIENDS AND VOTERS—

I want to thank each of you who voted for me for your loyal support, and to let those who did not vote for me know that there is no resentment on my part.

I ran a clean, fair and honest race and am ready to accept the verdict of the voters.

I urge that everyone cooperate with the new County Superintendent in making and keeping the Hall County schools the best.

ELECTION POSTLUDE

MOTERS of Hall County have made known their wishes and Y the first wartime election in the present world tragedy it now a matter of history. Now we can all get even more serious- Abee. ly and earnestly to work in helping our country to win the war.

A capable and honest set of officials has been elected to view spent Saturday night with run the affairs of the county for the next two years. Which is E. Foster. not to say that those candidates who were defeated for county and precinct offices were not also capable and honest. In a free and son Don spent Thursday and open election they simply failed to get a majority of the night and Friday visiting Mr. and votes, which is no reflection on their characters or competence. And it is very much to the credit of these defeated candidates ing to school at Lubbock, spent that not one has been heard to complain about the result. Some unfavorable comment has been heard concerning property owners who permit limbs of trees close to sidewalks Conway spent the week end with to grgow so low as to slap passersby in the face. Now that people are doing a lot more walking it's neighborly, to say the least, to keep lower limbs on trees pruned above the height of pedes-

On the whole Memphis is a clean little city and we can and family and Mrs. S. A. Ellis all be proud of that. However, there are some few vacant lots went to Lubbock Saturday night with weed growths that bear some resemblance to primeval to visit Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lindjungle. THANKS, FRIENDS!

To the voters of Precinct 2, who gave me a clear majority in the race for County Commissioner, I wish to express my sincere gratitude.

However, words are of no value unless backed by action. It is in service as your Commissioner that I expect to show how much I really appreciate your support.

Thanks to one and all.

Lee Roy Martin of Mem phis was the first Hall County young man to enlist in the Coast Guard and is now stationed at New Orleans, La. In a letter to The Democrat he tells about life in that branch of the service. Dear Folks:

Since I was the first boy from Hall County to join the Coas Guard (several have jonied up since) I will tell you a little about

First, we are just a branch of cuff. You haven't heard much of the Coast Guard because several Army camps have more men in them than all the Coast Guard put together. But don't let the name Coast Guard fool you, for have lots of argume we have stations all over the which state is the best world and we could be sent to any always wins, becau of them as easily as staying on the more Texans here the

Now for something about what we do. We get up a little before weeks before yo six in the morning, wash, shave (if got my first we get a chance), thea muster in front of our barracks and march town, I still to the mess hall, where we take a even if you little exercise. Then we march in street of New to eat. Sometimes we wait a long time and sometimes we are lucky funny way. and do not have to wait so long. clear off ar After chow we muster in again with our wo in different companies, each of bunch of office which has about 100 men, and drill we all like the for about an hour. Then we have a smoking period, during which we | U. G. Byars get a drink and have a cigaret if body "hello We also have sick call and any- letter, but
