HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Wandell Ferrel Treated for Night Injuries

Result of an automobile accident at the corner of 10th streets at noon yesterday, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferrel, 713 North 10th street, receiving treatment today at the hospital for neck and other injuries of minor seriousness. Fry, Amarillo salesman, owner of the car, in the Hall County court after he refused to share the blame for the accident according to Deputy Wilson. No charges had been filed against Fry at noon today. The accident occurred as the car in which Mr. and Mrs.

Ferrel were riding. The car was driven south
on Fry and Fry drove west on Fry street, according to Mr.
Ferrel. The accident occurred at 10 o'clock. Neither car was seriously damaged.

Fry was placed under arrest by Deputy Wilson about a mile north of Fry street immediately following

STATE FINISHES HAMLIN TRIAL TESTIMONY

Defense Starts Pa- rade of Witnesses This Morning

AMARILLO, March 29.—State testimony, introduced for the last 10 days, was completed yesterday afternoon in the trial here of George Hamlin, charged with the hammer slaying of his bride, the former Irene Hare.

"The state rests," announced Mayor E. A. Simpson, special prosecutor, at 3:10 o'clock.
After a brief discussion of a juror's request for night sessions, Judge E. C. Nelson adjourned court until this morning.

E. T. "Dusty" Miller, defense counsel, who has caused to be subpoenaed between 30 and 40 witnesses, announced it would take "two or three days" to present his case.

Will Ask Instructed Acquittal

3 Adult Classes In Joint Meeting

A joint meeting of three adult education classes—citizenship, singing and mathematics—will be held at the Junior High School tonight at 8:30 o'clock, according to R. C. Houkholder, teacher of citizenship.

A varied and entertaining program has been arranged and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the open program.
Mr. Houkholder said. Music, readings, and other entertainment will be featured.

The teacher of singing is O. L.
Earham, and of Mathematics, St.
Elmo Powell. The three classes—singing, mathematics and citizenship—meet nightly and separately during the week. But for tonight the three are meeting jointly and have planned to have a public program instead of the regular study.
In order that the public may attend and enjoy an evening with them, it was stated.

1,104 COTTON CONTRACTS SIGNED

First State To Get As Many Contracts As In 1934

Cotton acreage reduction contracts for 1935 have been signed by 1,104 Hall County farmers today and supplements to the 1934 contracts for this number were mailed to state offices yesterday by County Agent James A. Jackson and the Hall County Cotton Committee.

Supplements mailed by the committee yesterday are equivalent to about 90 per cent of the total contracts expected to be signed in this county, Mr. Jackson said.

Acreage reduction this year will be slightly less than that of last year, while parity payments will be slightly higher, the report revealed. Acreage reduction for 1935 will amount to about 38 per cent of the base acreage. Last year's reduction was about 38 per cent. Parity will amount to one and a fourth cents per pound on farm allotments, as compared with one cent per pound last year.

Farmers participating in the government's cotton production program this year may reduce their acreage from 25 to 35 per cent, while reductions last year were from 35 to 45 per cent.
Under the 1934 contracts, Hall County farmers placed 147,410 acres in cotton, a reduction of 54,756 acres from the base. This year additional acreage under contract will amount to more than 6,000 acres, Mr. Jackson explained.

SANDSTORM PLAYS HIDE-AND-SEEK WITH TREES

Another sandstorm story.
Told in the colorful language of the contributor, Winston Montgomery:

One evening a Panhandler was fixing to make a dry camp. He noticed that the sky looked bad, so he figured that one of those "things" would be blowing up.
In order that his horse wouldn't drift with the wind, why he ties it to a cottonwood about six feet high, then rolls up in his soogans and goes to sleep.

During the night the storm blew up all right enough. The Panhandler was rolled around considerably by the force of the wind, and when daylight came he awakened in a different spot than when he went to sleep.

He wasn't surprised very much as he knows how those winds can change the looks of the country just overnight,
which is why it is named
"Them Things" (so it can go in print). But when he started hunting for his horse, he can't find it anywhere. He can't even find the little tree it was tied to. The only tree near by was a full grown cottonwood about 40 feet high. So the Panhandler knew he must be blown farther than he had calculated.

Just as he was heading out to search for his cayuse, he happened to look up at the top of this tall tree, and there it was with only a halter rope. Only after a right smart bit of figuring was he able to deduct that some previous storm had covered up that tree to look like a seedling, and then last night's storm had come along and blew all the sand away
again—leaving the Panhand-ler's horse up in the air to die of strangulation.

YOUTH INJURED WHILE PLAYING 'HAT BALL'

Harold Smith Taken To Amarillo for Eye Treatment

Harold Smith, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Smith, may lose the sight of an eye as the result of injuries sustained yesterday afternoon while he and other children were playing ball at the Smith home, 1206
Main street.

Immediately following the accident, the child was carried to specialists at Amarillo for treatment. Attending physicians this morning reported that, although it will take time to determine the extent of the injuries, "there is a good chance that his eyesight will be saved." It is feared that the right eye-ball has been ruptured.

Mr. Smith said that the children were playing "Hat Ball" when a tennis ball, thrown by one of the playmates, struck the boy in the right eye. "It was purely an accident and none of the children are to blame for the tragedy," Mr. Smith explained.
The accident occurred at about 4:15 o'clock.

230 VACCINATED HERE YESTERDAY

Nearly 600 School Children in County Receive Diphtheria Serum; More Ordered

Two hundred and thirty school children of Hall County received free diphtheria vaccinations yesterday afternoon at the office of the city and county health officer, Dr. C. Z. Stidham announced this morning.

This brought the total in the drive made available to those who desire the vaccinations by the State Health Department to nearly 600 children in Hall County. More than 50 children failed to get vaccinations yesterday although they reported to the health officer, because of lack of time.

Dr. Stidham announced that he had ordered 800 more doses of the vaccine. He will give additional "shots" next Tuesday and Thursday afternoons between 12 o'clock and 3 o'clock.

SCHOOL STUDES ARE REVIVAL GUESTS

Junior High Children Will Take Part in Program Tonight

Junior High School students will be guests at the First Methodist Church revival meeting tonight and will have part in the program.

A big wolf story will be told by the evangelist, Rev. R. N. Huckabee, of Amarillo, he announced this morning. The parents of the students are especially urged to be present.

A resume of Rev. Huckabee's talk last night follows:
"We have become the world's most lawless nation and are becoming more lawless every day.
Democracy is still a 'noble experiment.' It remains yet to be seen whether democracy can produce a government which can protect society from the criminal element."

"Outlaw judges, shyster lawyers and politically minded executives frequently join hands with the indifferent citizen in producing a state of society which is intolerable. When these exist along with a cold church, which fails in its mission of teaching the masses, we have crime waves, burnt court houses and raids on the penitentiary by the underworld."

"Sometimes it seems that we do not have enough honest men left to guard our prisoners."

"Burglary insurance is going higher. Thievery and robbery are increasing. Human life is never as cheap in our country as it is now."

"What is the matter with us?
The prophet Hosea describes a condition like ours in ancient Israel. There was 'swearing, lying, killing, stealing, murder and adultery' in abundance. He said 'the trouble was that there was 'no knowledge of God in the land. . . .
My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.'"

"We have a crime wave and three-fifths of our children are not going to church and Sunday school. Our criminals are not coming from our family altars and church services. Religious indifference on the part of parents bring moral decay to the next gen-were flocking into Memphis today for the district Christian Endeavor convention to be held this week-end at the First Christian Church.

Dr. R. C. Snodgrass of Amarillo speaks tonight at 7:30 o'clock on "The Task of the Church in Today's World." Dr. Snodgrass is recognized as one of the outstanding ministers of the Christian Church. Everyone is invited to attend this and all other services during the convention.

Saturday morning, Rev. E. R.
McWilliams will address the assembly, and in the afternoon Rev.
Travis White, state secretary of Christian Endeavor, will discuss
"Facts About Texas Christian Endeavor."

On Saturday night at 6 o'clock, a fellowship banquet will be held at the church. Dr. Charles Dickey of Canyon will act as toastmaster.

A sunrise service, directed by Mary McNeil of Borger, will be held Sunday morning. In the afternoon, Dr. John Angus MacMillan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, will give the closing address of the convention.

Hold Last Rites For Sloan Child

Last rites were held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Church of Christ for Lula Mae Sloan, four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sloan. The services were conducted by John H. Banister. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery with King's Mortuary in charge.

Palbearers were R. D. Harris, L. L. Grimes, J. W. Parnell and F. C. Dodson. Those in charge of flowers were Jacqueline Pounds, Dorothy Jean Harrison, Patricia
Wingrove and Mary Jo Mclear.

Lula Mae died Tuesday night at 11:50 o'clock in a local hospital, following an illness of one month. Pneumonia was the cause of death.

Survivors are the parents and one sister, Alma Lois.

Out-of-town relatives here for the services were Mr. and Mrs.
P. A. Crane and family; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crane and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Courson and family, all of Childress, and Mr. and

1,000 Cars To Be Registered Here Tomorrow

The busiest place in Memphis tomorrow will be the office of County Tax Collector Holt Bownds.

Almost 1,000 car owners will make a dash for the tax collector's office tomorrow to secure new 1935 license tags before closing hours. Tags for 1934 will cease to be of value at midnight Sunday and more than 2,000 vehicles in Hall County will be expected to bear the new 1935 tags. Officers have promised strict enforcement of laws requiring current year tags.

Despite the fact that Texas automobile owners were granted two extra months this year for the payment of license, almost half of the Hall County car owners have delayed purchasing tags until the final day.

"Come early and avoid the rush," is the final word issued by Mr. Bownds this morning.

ARTISTIC TEMPER—AMENT.

The DARK BLOND

BEGIN HERE TODAY MILLICENT GRAVES, secretary to GEORGE DRIMGOLD, finds her employer in his office dead. In panic she rushes away and registers at a hotel under an assumed name.

JARVIS HAPP, distinguished-looking stranger, recognizes Millicent and offers to help her. He sends her to a beauty parlor where she is transformed into a brunet. Happ takes her home, introduces her as his secretary. His son, NORMAN HAPP, warns Millicent against his stepbrother, ROBERT CAISE, and tells her a mysterious woman in black ermine has some power over his stepmother.

Millicent stood staring at that fateful typewritten note. She had no means of knowing who had sent it, nor could she tell whether the steps she had heard in the corridor were those of a man or a woman.

She wondered if Norman had sent her this message. Surely he was the only one who knew of her interest in the woman in the black ermine coat. But how about Jarvis Happ? Jarvis was very, very shrewd, and it was apparent that he knew more about what was going on in the house than he let on. Moreover, he, above all others, knew of her connection with George Drimgold's murder.

milcent's own identity beyond doubt. No, there was only one thing for her to do. That was to shadow this woman and find out where she lived, then seek to learn something of her connection with the murder. Perhaps, having found out where the woman lived, she could trade information with Jarvis Happ.

Millicent waited until the woman had rounded a corner in the corridor. Then she sped swiftly and silently down the thick carpet, pausing at the corner to peer out into the other corridor.

She heard a door slam—a door, apparently, located about half way down the long corridor, but there was no one in sight.

Fighting back her disappointment, Millicent ran along the corridor, trying to locate the door that had slammed. She came on a back staircase which she had almost forgotten, a staircase which she remembered ran to the kitchen and then to the garage. She leaned over the banister and looked down.

She caught a glimpse of a black fur coat. Running down the stairs, Millicent heard a door slide back, heard the purr of a motor. She threw caution to the winds, ran rapidly, and was in time to see a car pull out from the garage, a black sedan, with the curtains in the rear tightly drawn, so that it was impossible to see anything of the person or persons who occupied it.

She could almost have touched the car as it slid into the darkness and, for one wild moment, she thought of rushing out to try and climb to the spare tire, holding to the trunk rack, but she realized the futility of doing this and swung her eyes to the license number, determined to remember it.

The figures seared themselves into her memory—9J3410. She looked around her in the garage, wondering if she could find a car in which she could follow.

HIS LIFE IS BESET WITH OBSTACLES

THE NOSEY GUY

By J. C. W.

A citizen made a remark recently that this would be a great country to live in if there were no sand storms, if it would rain a lot more, and if the people were all fine citizens. To which an old-timer replied, "So would hell."

It used to be that a person, if he didn't like a place could move. Now, whether he likes a place or not, he has to stay—lack of finances prevent his moving.

After all, every country has drawbacks—and the person who can live in any place and be contented—at least act like he is—is the kind of citizen who has a part in building something worth while. The fellow who is always knocking the country, the climate, the community, the churches, schools, officials and leaders, is responsible to a degree for the many features that go to make life unpleasant.

The man who can smile in adversity, grit his teeth during a sand storm, and just keep on attending to his own business, is the man who will win in the long run.

There are many just such people in Memphis. They go about their tasks uncomplainingly, without the fanfare of trumpets and the plaudits of their fellows, and in the ead their daily efforts to improve their own conditions, build a greater and better community and citizenship, will result in hearing, "Well done thou good and faithful servant!"

Teachers Urged To Get Tickets Early Tomorrow

School teachers in the Memphis Area who plan to see the screen presentation of "David Copperfield" as the guests of the Ritz Theatre Sunday or Monday, are urged to call for their admission tickets at The Democrat office before noon tomorrow.

Plans for a special preview showing of the film scheduled for Saturday morning were abandoned when it was learned yesterday that the film would not arrive in Memphis before Saturday night. All school teachers in the Memphis Area were to be the guests of the Ritz Theatre and The Democrat at the special Saturday morning showing.

However, free tickets issued by The Democrat will be honored at the regular showing Saturday midnight, Sunday or Monday, it was decided.

Admission charges to the Ritz for the regular showing of the Charles Dickens masterpiece will be 10 cents for children under 12 years of age, 15 cents for school students over 12, and 25 cents for adults, it has been announced by Lee Bell, manager of the Ritz.

Mother of Two Memphians Dies

Word was received here Wednesday of the death of Mrs. Nannie Leonard, mother of Mrs. J. C. Wilson and Bob Leonard of this city.

Mrs. Leonard was visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Garrott, at Powell, at the time of her death.

Mr. Leonard had been at his mother's bedside for two weeks preceding her death.

Besides Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Leonard, survivors include four daughters and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Leonard was well known here, having visited in the homes of her daughter and son a number of times.

A Brand New Bunch of ANAGRAM

HANDY ENTRY BLANK

In the blank space below I have rearranged the letters in the anagrams to spell the names of the words which I think to be the solution of today's game. The ones checked with a cross mark thus X are advertised in today's Democrat.

ANAGRAM	SOLUTION
1. EVNO	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. GANGLUAE	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. BORPEVR	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. KECCHIN	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. PUMTIGNO	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. EFRECSISA	<input type="checkbox"/>
7. NALVAHCEA	<input type="checkbox"/>
8. HETSAMUC	<input type="checkbox"/>
9. OLDONES	<input type="checkbox"/>
10. TARLETP	<input type="checkbox"/>

I have used all of today's anagram solutions in the following sentence of not more than 30 words:

My Name _____

I buy my groceries at _____
If awarded a prize, I want my order drawn on the store checked below:
(Place cross mark after name of store you want your order drawn on).

- City Grocery () Crawford Grocery ()
- Fields & Son () Memphis Gro. Co. ()
- 'M' System () Chitwood's Market ()

10 BIG PRIZES

The Democrat Will Award

FREE

BASKET OF GROCERIES

And 10 Tickets to the Ritz

To See Chas. Dickens' Masterpiece

"DAVID COPPERFIELD"

RULES:

- The letters in each of the accompanying anagrams when arranged properly will spell ten words. Two of the words each week will be selected by the editor. You are invited to solve the anagrams and to send in your solutions. The words you arrange them in a sentence of not more than 30 words (you may use less if you wish), and try to win ten prizes.
 - To the persons who send in the best solution in accordance with these rules, The Democrat will award a basket of groceries and ten tickets to the Ritz. The basket of groceries will be offered as a prize to the person who sends in the best solution. Two tickets to the Ritz as second prize, and each to the next eight contestants.
 - This offer is open to all except employees of the Democrat and their families. You pay nothing.
 - Awards will be made on the basis of the correct list of anagrams and the cleverest way of rearranging the letters in each anagram word in common usage. Then check the words in today's Democrat and place a cross mark in the square if you find either of the two words advertised. If the item is NOT advertised, do not mark.
 - Then arrange the ten words into a sentence of not more than thirty (30) words. You may use less if you wish.
 - All entries will be considered by a committee appointed by the Democrat. Contestants agree to the decisions of the committee as final. The committee will be based upon suitability of words inserted in checking, cleverness in arranging the words, neatness. No special consideration will be given to entries. In case of ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded to tying contestants.
 - All entries must be received at the Democrat by four o'clock Saturday afternoon.
- You need not purchase The Democrat to win a prize. You may use the handy blank submitted here. Submit your entry on a separate sheet of paper. Winners will be announced in Sunday's Democrat.

been made by the Department of Justice in Washington of hair found clutched in the victim's hand and samples of hair taken from both the victim and the accused.

Only the report of the analysis was entered as an exhibit. No reference was made as to what it contained.

There were no other developments during the afternoon session.

Kitchen Set-up Removed At the court's order, the reconstructed kitchen of the Hamlin honeymoon home, where the crime was committed on the night of January 4, was removed to provide more space.

As court adjourned, Judge Nelson said the setting would be returned at the request of defense counsel.

Whether night session will be held has not been decided. Juror U. S. West said just before adjournment:

"We are wondering whether night sessions might be held to make up for lost time."

Day Moves Smoothly "The court is anxious to see the case progress and night sessions may be held if it is fair and right to all concerned to do so," replied Judge Nelson.

Grady Hazlewood, district attorney, John Fullingim, special prosecutor, with Simpson and Miller expressed willingness to do anything to expedite the case.

Throughout yesterday the wheels of justice moved more smoothly. There were few arguments between counsel.

Asks About Lewis Again Again yesterday, as on practically every previous day, Miller inquired about the much-sought L. D. Lewis, wanted as a defense witness. Officers say his whereabouts are unknown.

Right up to the close of its testimony, the state has hammered at the point about the accused at no time saying there was a man at the Hamlin home. Early in the case an attack was made upon the defense plea of insanity, but one state witness, a next door neighbor of the accused, testified Hamlin "didn't seem right."

Let us bring in the 620 school children in this community who were not in Sunday school and church last Sunday.

"We save to the church and a profession of faith 80 per cent of those we get to come to church regularly. We lose to the church and religion over 90 per cent of those who do not come. This means that the church people are allowing 424 school children to be lost for all time who could be saved if we would get to the church. This loss becomes the greatest menace to society and is the sin of the ages."

Mrs. Virgil Allen and baby, who have been visiting their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Gibson, here for the past several weeks, are visiting relatives at Shamrock this week.

A. Anisman made a business trip to Amarillo yesterday.

Downward Trend Of Poultry and Eggs Continues

AUSTIN, March 29.—The downward trend in poultry and egg shipments from Texas to interstate points which has been apparent for the past three years continued during February, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

A total of only 110 cars were shipped from the State last month, against 169 cars a year ago. Poultry shipments amounted to 79 cars, compared with 100 during February last year; and egg shipments were 31 and 69 cars respectively for the comparable periods.

Devaluation of Belga Necessary

BRUSSELS, March 29.—Premier Van Zeeland told Parliament today that the immediate devaluation of not more than 30 per cent in the Belga is necessary and asked a vote of confidence.

He announced that Belgium would suspend the gold payments pending an international agreement on currency, thereby virtually ending Belgium's alignment with the European gold bloc.

MOTHER, CHILDREN DIE

WOBURN, Mass., March 29.—A mother and two children were burned to death today when a fire swept two family homes here.

Ross Springer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Springer, is reported very ill with pneumonia in the Memphis Hospital.

Mrs. T. A. Roach, of the Friendship community, is reported to be very ill with pneumonia in the Odom Sanitarium.

Target of Gang Orders 'Mop-Up'

Target of gang bullets which missed their mark, Thomas J. Courtney, above, Cook county state's attorney, has declared a "wipeout" drive on Chicago thugs. The six-foot prosecutor, who has been a terror to racketeers, was riding with an alderman when gangsters, speeding by, fired eight shots into his car, without effect.

"When You Meet a Frown" is the topic of the Epworth League Sunday evening. The program is as follows: Song, to be selected; song, "O Happy Day;" prayer, sentence prayers; round-table discussion of reasons for frowns; "Physical Causes for Moods," Miss Ira Hammond; "How Frowns May Be

Sharp Increase in Building Permits

AUSTIN, March 29.—A sharp increase in the value of building permits in Texas occurred during February in comparison with February, 1934, according to a report by the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. It shows there was a decline, however, from the previous month mainly as a result of a marked falling off of permits in one city.

Reports from 38 Texas cities give total permits of $2,139,44, and increase of 130 per cent over February a year ago but 49 per cent below that of the previous month. Cities showing gains both over the previous month and the comparable period last year included Brownsville, Cleburne, Del Rio, Denison, El Paso, Galveston, Longview, Lubbock, Port Arthur, San Angelo, Sweetwater, and Wichita Falls.

Labor Backs FDR On NRA; Demands Short Work Week

WASHINGTON, Mar. 29.—William Green put the American Federation of Labor firmly behind President Roosevelt's request for NRA extension today, but also demanded a blanket 30-hour work-week law.

The federation president testified before a Senate Finance committee and refuted reports that labor had abandoned the 30 hour week plan in order to get the NRA extended. He said that NRA was "the only plan available at this time for rehabilitation of our economic system."

I GUESS I'D BETTER LEAVE SOMETHING OUT FOR WILLIS TO EAT - HE'LL ROOT THROUGH EVERY CUPBOARD AND THE ICE BOX, IF I DON'T.

NOT ONLY THAT, BUT I'D BETTER PUT OUT, IN PLAIN SIGHT, EVERYTHING HE MIGHT NEED, OR THE HOUSE WILL BE A WRECK.

I'M SURE I WON'T BE BACK BEFORE SCHOOL IS OUT, SO I'D BETTER PLAY SAFE.

HE'D LOOK EVERYWHERE FOR THIS TENNIS BAT - AND IF I DON'T TAKE IT DOWN, HE'S SURE TO WANT IT.

HIS BALL AND GLOVE MAY, OR MAY NOT, BE WHAT HE'LL WANT, SO I'LL PLAY SAFE.

HE HAS TO COME IN TH' BACK DOOR, SO HE CAN'T MISS SEEING THESE, STUCK RIGHT UNDER HIS NOSE.

NOW, WHAT ELSE IS HE LIKELY TO WANT? OH, YES - A LUNCH - THAT'S TH' FIRST THING HELL WANT.

AND SOME MONEY - WE'RE ALWAYS AFTER ME FOR NICKLES OR DIMES - NOW I'M SURE HE CAN'T WANT ANYTHING ELSE.

HE'S BEEN HOME, ALL RIGHT - THE BACK DOOR IS OPEN - HE ALWAYS LEAVES SOMETHING OPEN.

GOOD GRIEF! WHAT'S HAPPENED TO THE KITCHEN CABINET?

YE GODS! I FORGOT TO PUT SOMETHING OUT - I MUST HAVE! I DIDN'T USE MY HEAD - HOW DUMB!

EVERY DRAWER AND CABINET IN TH' HOUSE TURNED INSIDE OUT! OH, WHY DIDN'T I THINK A LITTLE HARDER? THERE'S SOMETHING I DIDN'T LEAVE OUT.

OH - HERE YOU ARE! SAY - WHAT ARE YOU LOOKING FOR?

SOME SOAP! I GOT A NOTION TO TAKE A BATH, AND YOU DIDN'T LEAVE OUT ANY SOAP.

OH - I'M ALL RIGHT, THEN - SOLOMON, HIMSELF, WOULDN'T HAVE THOUGHT OF THAT!
