

Scout Leaders Meet; Rally To Be At 7:30 p.m.

Men who believe enough in the Boy Scout movement to give voluntarily of their time in capacities of leadership were assembling here Thursday afternoon for the annual Buffalo Trail council meeting.

While business sessions were to begin at 4 p. m. in the Settles hotel, the high spot of the program this year was to be a program in the municipal auditorium at 7:30 p. m.

Feature of this event to which the public is urged to come—was to be an address by Jeff H. Williams, who was coming directly here from Chickasha, Okla., where he is an attorney, to fill the engagement. He was to carry out the meeting theme of "We, Too, Have A Job To Do" in his inspirational address.

Many had Williams as one of the most entertaining, inspirational, fluent and eloquent speakers in this part of the nation.

Other featured spots on this part of the program include a colorful flag ceremony and tribute to Eagle scouts, the presentation of veteran awards to M. L. Atkinson, Odessa, and the presentation of Silver Beaver awards to three men by the Rev. Dick O'Brien, Big Spring. Executive committee of the council will be presented by Charles Faxon, Sweetwater, veteran president of the council.

Nomination committee of the council, composed of H. L. Wren, Snyder, Guy Breneman, Midland, and B. Reagan, Big Spring, was to go into session at 2 p. m. In the business sessions, the proposed budget and officers were to be reported for approval.

Indications were that there had never been an annual meeting which would bear such favorable reports as the current one. Membership of Cubs is up 22 per cent and that of Scouts is up 25 per cent. In addition, the council led the entire Ninth region in three of seven points on which areas are graded, topping the lists in membership growth, advancement, and the smallness of dropped scouts in relation to the number registered members.

E. F. Gaskin, area executive, Jack Hodges and Stanley Mate, field executives, were busy Thursday completing decorations for the meetings at the hotel and at the auditorium. They joined with other council officials in urging all friends of scouting to attend the 7:30 p. m. meeting, the first time the evening session of the annual meeting has been held at the auditorium.

O'Daniel Says He Will Run

AUSTIN, Jan. 22 (AP)—Announcement of Senator W. Lee O'Daniel in Washington that he is a candidate for re-election was the starting gun for the 1942 political campaign in Texas.

The announcement did not surprise the state capital—political circles long had believed O'Daniel would seek election for a full six-year term—but, nevertheless, interest was keen. Speculation took the look: Who will oppose him?

Joe Steadham of Austin, state labor leader, announced his candidacy several weeks ago, declaring the office "vacant since the death of Senator Morris Sheppard and that Texas was entitled to two U. S. senators."

O'Daniel was elected last June, while serving a second term as governor, to fill out the unexpired portion of Sheppard's term. Interest centered on the plans of Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, who ran third in the special election which sent O'Daniel to the senate.

Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson was second.

Mann declined to comment on the O'Daniel announcement, but recently he said he would announce his intentions "at the proper time." Others who have been mentioned as possible entries in the senatorial race include former Governor Dan Moody of Austin, Federal Judge James V. Allred of Houston and Hal Collins of Mineral Wells, a businessman.

Judge Cecil Collins ordered the special venire drawn Thursday for the trial of Francisco Castillo, charged with murder. The case was set for Feb. 2 earlier this week when the defendant entered a not guilty plea upon arraignment.

There were no other cases before the court and the judge anticipated no more activity before Monday. The second week of the current term.

British Hit At Japs; Reds Push On

Nazis Pushed Back Along Whole Front

Hitler Exhausting All Resources To Stem The Tide

MOSCOW, Jan. 22 (AP)—While red army artillerymen blasted at the rear of a German army reeling back from Moshaisk on the old Napoleon road from Moscow, dispatches from the northern and southern wings of the 2,000-mile front told of the continuing, forward surge of the Russian offensive.

The front reports indicated that the Germans were exhausting every ready resource in manpower in an effort to stabilize the vast front.

Among prisoners taken in one sector were soldiers just arrived from France who said they came to Smolensk by train and were carried there by plane to a point the Russians identified as "E" to help the Germans make a stand.

The Moscow newspaper Pravda said that in the Volkov sector of the Leningrad front the Germans were bringing in worn-out detachments from other sectors in their desperation.

Despite these efforts, the Red army drive on the Leningrad front continued, with the Germans withdrawing from four villages in the last three days under industry pressure backed by deadly artillery action. South-east of Leningrad the Germans were said to have been ejected from 27 villages in a single day.

The mid-day Russian communiqué told of a southern front fight in which 1,400 German officers and men were killed and said that the Russians captured 11 German tanks, 83 motor vehicles and 15 motorcycles.

In 40-below zero weather—so cold it coats exposed hair and eyelashes with frost—the heavily clad troops of Lieut. Gen. Leonid Gorov pressed the advantage of their greatest victory on the central front.

They proclaimed the battle of Moscow finally was ended with the recapture of Moshaisk, 87 miles west of the capital, and sought to give the German survivors not a moment to blast out even fox-holes for a new stand on the road to Smolensk.

The Japanese troops were being landed in Lingayen Gulf, 110 miles north of Japanese-held Manila, and in Subic Bay, near the approaches to Batan peninsula.

As evidence of the toughness of Gen. MacArthur's little band, the entire Japanese 14th army and a number of other units were officially reported now operating on Luzon Island.

The Japanese are renewing their attacks all along Gen. MacArthur's line on the Batan peninsula, the war department said. "Particularly heavy fighting is in progress on the left and the center."

In Malaya, it seemed apparent that a crucial test in the struggle for Singapore was in progress. Behind the lines, British fliers claimed a heavy toll of Japanese transport columns north of Port Moresby.

Canada To Vote On Draft Plan

OTTAWA, Jan. 22 (AP)—A Canadian plebiscite on raising troops by conscription was announced today at the opening of parliament.

The last time I looked at the curves, the sinkings and the new production were just about balanced for the first time during the war, and new war construction is getting ahead."

That was on Dec. 5. He reported that United States merchant marine tonnage was about 7,000,000 and that a total of 13,000,000 more tons was in prospect for 1942 and 1943. On the other hand, he said that Great Britain started with about 21,000,000 tons, lost about 6,000,000 tons and at the same time had additions of about 5,000,000 tons. But Axis powers have lost about 14,000,000 tons, he estimated, and all world shipping losses amount to about 27 per cent of the 52,000,000 tons available at the outbreak of the war.

After saying that United States and Great Britain had made placements of about 1,500,000 tons each annually, Land asserted: "On replacements, the Axis

Pan-American Accord Faces New Snag As Argentina Asks Change

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Jan. 22 (AP)—A member of Argentina's delegation to the Pan-American conference raised an 11th hour objection today to the turn of an important phrase in the draft resolution for severance of relations by American nations with the axis—a point which cast a shadow on previously indicating unanimity.

The Argentine foreign minister and head of that country's delegation, Enrique Ruiz Gutierrez, meanwhile, said he approved the idea of breaking off relations "in principle" but added that the delegation was awaiting final word from Buenos Aires.

A member of the delegation said his group would seek two modifications in the text of the agreement this afternoon.

The first change would be to drop the word "collective" at the end of article four to make the resolution say that consultation be held before any resumption of axis relations thus to establish that the decision is merely "unanimous" and not "collective." Other conferees are expected to agree to this.

But the other objection, a proposal to change the wording of key article three, was expected to produce a fight.

As article three stands it would have the American republics declare that they "cannot continue diplomatic relations with Japan, Germany and Italy x x x."

The Argentine proposed to change the Spanish text on "cannot continue"—"no podran continuar"—to "podrian no continuar," which, freely translated means, "perhaps will not be able."

Nevertheless, fundamentally an agreement among five nations, including Argentina, Chile and China, on the much-debated proposal opened the way to a unanimous stand by the 21 American republics against Germany, Italy and Japan.

Participating with Argentina and Chile in working out a four-point compromise resolution were the United States, Brazil and Peru. The action drew favorable comment in conference circles and little difficulty was anticipated in obtaining formal approval from the remaining 18 nations represented in the conference of foreign ministers of Pan American republics.

Mexico, Columbia and Venezuela introduced last Friday the original resolution calling for a rupture of relations with the axis, a measure against which Argentina and Chile balked.

The agreement, as rewritten from that resolution, did not stipulate that the break must be immediate and eliminated the original provision for a simultaneous cutting of economic ties with the axis.

It stated, in a carefully-worded section that the constituted powers of the governments signing it must be in accord, indicating that the Argentine congress would have to pass on it for that nation. The Argentine delegation accepted the compromise resolution without reservation.

Price Control Plan Sought

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—A three-way compromise was proposed by senators today in an effort to break the legislative log-jam on wartime price controls.

The compromise admittedly involved some concessions by the house, by the senate, and by President Roosevelt as the joint congressional committee trying to adjust conflicting interests resumed closed sessions.

Senators walked out of the joint conference yesterday explaining that they hoped the five house conferees would agree among themselves on the compromise proposal.

Members of the senate delegation said they would be willing to drop the controversial attempt to tie farm prices to urban wage levels, as provided in an amendment sponsored by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Ty.) which the senate approved 52 to 35.

They asked the house conferees to accept Senate provisions for licensing of business, a single price administrator, and granting the government broad powers to buy and sell commodities as a factor for controlling their prices.

President Roosevelt was expected to withdraw his outspoken objections to giving Secretary of Agriculture Wickard a virtual veto power over any farm price ceilings fixed by Kenneth Henderson, acting price administrator.

Texas February Oil Quota Hiked

AUSTIN, Jan. 22 (AP)—The office of the petroleum coordinator today recommended maximum daily production next month of 1,500,000 barrels of Texas crude oil, an increase of 25,000 over the agency's recommendation for January production.

The estimate was certified by a telegram from Coordinator Harold L. Ickes to Chairman Ernest C. Thompson of the Texas railroad commission, oil regulatory body.

'At's Foolin' 'Em, Chief!

MADISONVILLE, Jan. 22 (AP)—When everybody got to chasing the fire truck here to see where the fire was, the volunteer firemen began having trouble getting their themselves.

So Assistant Fire Chief William hit on a plan.

Now when the alarm sounds, he goes in an old, 1915-used fire truck and heads off in one direction, with the apparatus driver following, while the new truck proceeds unimpeded in the right direction of the fire.

The commission was established and is maintained by the 48 states and the federal government. McDonald's appointment is for a two year term.

Federal Agencies' Appropriation Cut

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—A $2,000,000,000 supply bill for independent agencies of the government in the next fiscal year carrying 1934,410,800 for the shipbuilding program of the maritime commission went to the house today from its appropriations committee.

The total was about $5,000,000 less than President Roosevelt's budget recommendations and $1,207,500,349 under comparable appropriations for this fiscal year. But the committee said that subsequent supplemental funds probably would offset that apparent reduction.

The committee reported that on Jan. 1, the maritime commission had contracted for construction of 956 vessels and had made other awards for which contracts had not actually been let. Chairman Land of the commission told the committee Dec. 9 that 909 ships had been contracted for and contracts would be let for 425 more before June 30.

Except for such bottlenecks as strikes and machinery and generating power, Land said that "very good to excellent" progress had been made.

Detriot Faces New Strike

DETROIT, Jan. 22 (AP)—A labor crisis, the first in five months, was at hand again today for the city of Detroit, vital producer of the tools of war.

Only hours distant was a final verdict by a union of city employees whether or not to go out on its announced strike at 4 a. m. tomorrow, a move which might cripple the productive capacities of this great factory center.

Faced with the city council's flat rejection of its wage increase demand, the City Employees Union (AFL) intended to meet tonight to frame its answer. On the decision may rest the opportunity for thousands of defense workers to go to their jobs.

Leaders of the union, which demands a 15 per cent flat wage increase, claimed that a strike would pull out 15,000 of the city's 37,000 employees, and a tieup of the city's transportation system was feared.

A second AFL union, the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, took a stand that if picket lines were thrown around transportation system property they would be respected. This union also has been seeking a wage boost.

Last August a strike crippled the transportation system for five days.

US Has 'World Licked' On Cargo Ships

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Chadwick Land of the maritime commission has told congress that construction of allied shipping is now forging ahead of losses by sinkings at sea, and that the United States has "the world licked right now" on standard cargo ships and tankers.

LONDON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Service in Britain's home guard will be compulsory after Feb. 15, the war office announced today.

Simplicity Marks Lombard Service

GLENDALE, Calif., Jan. 22 (AP)—Viracious Carolis Lombard, who loved life, was buried with brief, simple funeral services yesterday.

A prayer . . . a short eulogy . . . a poem . . . organ music . . . fewer than three score intimate friends in attendance.

That was all. That was the way the actress willed it. All except the eulogy. Friends insisted that the pastor, the Rev. Gordon C. Chapman of Westwood Hills Community Methodist church, read a short tribute they had prepared.

Clark Gable, Miss Lombard's husband, consented.

Sharing in the simple service was Miss Lombard's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth K. Peters.

Otto Winkler, Gable's publicity manager and close friend, another victim of the crash, will be buried late today.

High School Gridders Loaded With Laurels

Baylor's Kimbrough Has Praise For Pat Murphy And Game Of Football

Certificates of awards and laurels were conferred upon members of the Big Spring high school football team of 1941 in the third annual grid banquet sponsored at the Southern ballroom Monday evening by the Lions club.

Between 175 and 200 were on hand to hear a varied program, featuring Frank Kimbrough, Baylor university coach, who spoke briefly and projected motion pictures of the Texas-Baylor game which ended in a 7-7 upset tie.

But it was Cecil Hunter, Amarillo, better known to radio audiences as "Stuttering Sam," who stole the show. For more than half an hour he kept the audience in stitches and had to come back for an encore.

The Rev. Dick O'Brien presided as toastmaster, keeping the program moving along with his flow of stories and wit. The program, in charge of Jack Smith, included talks by Coach Pat Murphy and W. O. Blankenship, and songs by Shirley June Robbins with Mrs. Anne Gibson Houser at the piano.

Both Kimbrough and Blankenship had words of praise for Murphy and it was Kimbrough who paid him the compliment of saying "I admire Pat Murphy because I know from long years of acquaintance that he teaches his boys more than football."

He recognized the criticism of over-emphasis on football, but observed cryptically that "it might have been far better if it had been football that was over-emphasized in some foreign countries." From this, he turned to note that "today we are all playing together—using the lessons we learned in football—under one coach only, Uncle Sam."

Farmers Of County Exceed Original Food Goals; Need May Be Increased

Final tabulation of food production goals set by Howard county farmers for 1942 show that they exceed the quotas fixed by the department of agriculture early last fall.

Last September Secretary of Agriculture Wickard announced an extensive program of food production for the triple purpose of feeding hungry friends abroad, feeding the army, and feeding defense workers, as well as for the purpose of having a supply of food on hand at the war's close to make America's words more impressive at the peace table.

Wickard's lieutenants fixed food production goals for every county in the nation. Howard county promptly accepted those goals, and overachieved them. All that was before the war started, however, and the situation may have changed.

The final tabulation of these goals, promised by farmers themselves, show increases of 10 to 100 percent in major food production items.

The number of hogs slaughtered or marketed, for example, will nearly double, farmers of the county promise. In 1941, a total of 2,648 hogs were slaughtered for hams or marketed for slaughter; in 1942, farmers plan to dispose of 6,182 swine in this method.

Production of milk and milk cows will rise. In 1941 a total of 2,987 cows were milked for a production of 1,924,116 gallons of milk. The 1942 plan sheets show that 3,785 cows will be milked for 1,900,000 gallons of milk.

Egg production, encouraged by higher prices, will rise, farmers promise. In 1941 the hens produced 502,547 eggs, in 1942 the figure is due to be 609,701.

Ackerly Pastors To Get Homes

ACKERLY, Jan. 17—The Baptists have just acquired a parsonage and the Church of Christ members are in the process of raising funds for a similar project here.

The parsonage question was settled by the Baptists last week when members purchased the residence located two blocks east of the postoffice from Lewis Stump. The modern place has recently been redecorated inside and out, and likely will be occupied Monday. Cash was paid for the home.

Plans call for the Church of Christ parsonage to be located just south of the church structure. It will be of stone construction and ample for the needs of the ministers.

Walter Grice Asks 2nd Term

WALTER GRICE

Walter Grice, serving out his first term as justice of the peace, precinct No. 1, announced Saturday that he would be a candidate to succeed himself in office, subject to the Democratic primaries.

Grice went on to be chosen in the general election.

Rationing Used Cars Unlikely, Henderson Says

CHICAGO, Jan. 20 (AP)—Leon Henderson, federal price administrator, told representatives of 42,000 automobile dealers today "as far as the office of price administration is concerned, there is not now any prospect either of rationing used cars or of commandeering private cars."

His address was read to the National Automobile Dealers Association by Cyrus McCormick, chief of the OPA automobile and truck section, because business kept Henderson in Washington. Convention headquarters said the statement relieved a tension that had disturbed the trade badly.

Henderson said that in his judgment any need for considering any rationing plan for used cars might be dissipated by a decline in the use of cars due to shortage of tires.

Clock Moves Up An Hour February 9

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt signed the daylight-saving bill today and it becomes effective at 2 a. m. on the morning of February 9, for all interstate commerce and federal government activities.

During congressional debate it was said that it was assumed the observance of daylight time, by moving all clocks ahead one hour, would become general throughout the nation.

The measure will become operative six months after the war ends, unless congress votes to terminate it before then.

Stephen Early, presidential secretary said that it had the same objective as the daylight-saving act of the last World War—"greater efficiency in our industrial war effort."

Car Use Tax Stamps On Sale At Post Office

Car use tax stamps went on sale at the U.S. postoffice here Monday.

Although there was no previous announcement to the effect, clerks experienced a lively demand during the morning, according to Postmaster Nat Shick.

The price is $2.05. Every motor vehicle operated after Feb. 1 must bear one of these federal stamps. There are no exceptions save for governmental units, real estate, and so on.

By having this stamp, the car user may operate the machine until July 1, 1943, when another stamp—a 35 cent one—must be purchased to carry over through June 30, 1944.

Stamps are available at all the postoffice windows except the money order section, said the postmaster. By this arrangement, he hoped to avoid long lines and undue rushes. Shick predicted that any person could get an automobile tax stamp quickly by only stating the number desired and having the cash. (No checks are to be accepted.)

As the stamps are issued, the purchaser is given a card which must be filled in (carry from the window) with the date, stamp value, make of vehicle, body type, year and engine number, signature and complete address. This card must then be mailed to the collector of internal revenue, at Dallas for this city. Hence, people were advised to guard the card the same as they would the stamp because either represents just that much money.

The stock of 5,800 stamps on hand is expected to last for a few days until an ample amount can be had in care for all registered vehicles in the county, possibly 7,000 or more.

He will be assigned to Northwestern University for a period of four months, after which he will receive his commission as ensign, USNR, and possibly assigned to active duty. In order to qualify as an ensign in the reserve, a young man must have a college degree, backed by certain required subjects in mathematics and science.

So far as could be ascertained, he is the first in this area to be selected for this type of intensive deck training.

Simplified, this means all unregistered males resident in the United States who were born between Feb. 17, 1897, and Dec. 31, 1921.

Man Stables His Rubber Horses

Boy, with the gentleman's spurs!

This might have been the last cheer's call to the hobby Friday evening when J. Schmitz, Houston cotton buyer, put in for the night.

Schmitz happened to be one of those fortunate souls who owns two spurs. But he also happens to be one of those unfortunate souls who must travel a great deal without any priority ratings. Because he has to make sure his spurs last as long as humanly possible, he was taking no chances—he removed the spurs and took them to his room at the hotel.

ADVERTISING

Everything is a matter of TIME — blitzkrieg... national defense... aid to Britain... production... advertising... and selling.

With conditions changing overnight, advertising must now be prepared for publication today. Tomorrow, it may be as out-of-date as yesterday's headlines.

No medium is better fitted for this situation than your daily newspaper. It enables you to time your advertising to meet changing conditions... make 11th hour revisions... and tie in with the news of the day. What's happening in Europe and what's selling on Main street all come out in the same edition.

Club Told Of Home Defense

Civilian defense and public acceptance—or lack of it—of voluntary registration for home defense work that is not at all compulsory was the theme of affairs at today's meeting of the Kiwanis club. Speakers were Judge Walton Morrison and Herchel Summerlin.

Morrison outlined the various classifications of work under the civilian defense set-up and their respective duties, and Summerlin told of the registrations and classification preference percentages received to date. Through last Saturday, which ended the week set aside for signing of the blanks, only 713 out of 10,000 had been returned. He estimated that up until noon today a total of about 1,500 had been received.

"This is still a percentage too small to boast about for the size area that has been covered," Summerlin said. "Since so many seem to have interpreted civilian defense as an obligation that could call the signer from his work, from the city and even to other parts of the state, we would like to point out that this work is not of that nature. You are under no obligation to serve at an inconvenience, you will not be asked to help for unreasonable lengths of time; we simply want to know that in event of local emergency we would have a well-organized home front for civilian protection."

According to the speaker's figures, 180 men would be needed for air raid warden work in the city of Big Spring alone, and only one-fourth of that number has signified willingness to assist in that field.
E. R. McEwen, a guest, called attention to the Boy Scout meeting at the city auditorium at 7:30 this evening, and urged all Kiwanians to be present.

Whatever The Hour, It'll Still Be 'Standard' Time

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22 (AP)—Clocks may be an hour "faster," but officially they still will be on "standard" time after Feb. 9. This was developed today in response to questions as to whether the law signed Tuesday by President Roosevelt puts the nation on "daylight saving time," as happened in the first World War.

Interstate commerce commission officials offered their views anonymously. After all, they don't care what you call it, but they don't want you to call them. The ICC is the federal agency most concerned with time because of its effect on the railroads whose operations ICC supervises.

In 1918 congress adopted "an act to save daylight and to provide standard time for the United States." It said that the states should be divided into four time zones. A fifth zone was fixed for Alaska. The law provided further that time one hour earlier than standard should be in effect from March to October. This portion—was repealed after President Wilson's veto in August, 1919.

The ICC was charged with the responsibility of delimiting the zone boundaries, and fixed them generally along the lines already in use by the carriers. The commission has made a number of changes, such as bringing states which originally were divided into a single zone.

It retains the power to make such changes, and officially already are anticipating, with no delight, demands that the lines be moved eastward at some points to offset the effect of the new standard. In a few instances, however, congress itself fixed time zone boundaries because the ICC had rejected requests. One such law involves Idaho, and another, Texas and Oklahoma.

The purpose of jumping clocks up an hour, as in 1918, is to conserve electrical power by putting more of normal activity into daylight hours.

Welfare Offices In Bank Building

District offices for the state department of public welfare have been transferred from their location in the old city hall building to the second floor of the First National bank building. Here 'n There

Anxious to see how the stamp program is working, a local man suggested that his wife always ask for defense stamps when given any dime in change. She did this. The first two places she tried, they had no stamps. The third place had them, but had to run back to the safe to get them.

Walter Davidson has identified and recovered two tires and wheels reported to police earlier in the week. Officers found the tires under the east viaduct.

Tyrus R. Timms, farm management specialist for the Texas A. & M. college extension service, was here for a conference with farm leaders Wednesday.

The fire Tuesday evening was at 704 Hummels street where firemen said a cook stove too close to the wall had caused paper and then the wall to ignite. They brought flames under control before they gained much headway in the two-story structure. Fire Marshal J. D. Stenbridge said that damage was slight.

Private Joe Glickman, inducted at Big Spring September 25, has been assigned to the mid-west for special training by army officials at Camp Hearn, Calif. Private Glickman operated Margo Shoe Stores, including one at Big Spring, before his induction. He received his education at Fort Worth.

Martha Hubbard of Coahoma will complete the requirements for the bachelor of science degree at East Texas State Teachers college Jan. 31. Miss Hubbard majored in English and minored in Spanish.

Civilian defense and Civil Air Patrol are given spots in a special defense window prepared by Leon at B. Sherrod Supply. It is, so its designer said, intended as suggestion to other concerns to use the defense theme in decorations.

Tenth Of Car Owners Buy New Stamps

Approximately one-tenth of the car operators in Howard county had paid the new federal car use tax Thursday, it was announced at the postoffice.

Tuesday business picked up sharply and 448 stamps were issued to applying owners, said Postmaster Nat Shick. Wednesday was a lighter day, with only 210 stamps sold. The total now stands at 796. The stamps cost $2.00 and permit the machine to which it is affixed to be operated until July 1, when the $5 annual tax comes due. Those securing the stamp are furnished a card which is to be filled in away from the window and posted to the collector of internal revenue so that he may make a record of the transaction.

Deadline for paying the tax is Feb. 1, but the postmaster urged all who possibly can to pay now to avoid a last minute rush and a stamp shortage. The stamps are available at any window save the money order place, in the postoffice.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLESTON, JR. (Wide World Sports Columnist)
NEW YORK, Jan. 22 (AP)—Jack Dempsey shouldn't have much trouble with his new duties as head coach to Major General William Oltman of the New York state guard.... Jack has had plenty of experience as aide de camp which required him to keep from laughing while he said so-and-so had a good chance against Joe Louis.... Baseball men are wondering if they will be able to get back to the seven-game limit for night games after they boost it to 14 as a war measure.... Jack Meagher, Auburn coach, figures the threatened shortage of small-college football opposition can be overcome by having traditional rivals play home-and-home games.... Ex-Mayor Jimmy Walker presented the Eddie Neil memorial trophy to Joe Louis at the boxing writers' dinner last night, but it might have been more appropriate if he had delegated the job to Quent Reynolds, who followed Eddie's footsteps from sports to war reporting.

Bramham Rules That Baseball Leagues Cannot Recess

DUREHAM, N. C., Jan. 22 (AP)—President W. G. Bramham of the national association ruled Wednesday that a minor baseball league could not recess for a period but would be considered disbanded if it did not qualify for the 1942 season, and its players declared free agents.

At the close of the last fiscal year the federal bureau of investigation had nearly 22,000 sets of fingerprints on file.

They get the break—Warren Switzer of Jeff Davis High, Houston, and Jack Wilson of Baylor U. are rivals for the all-Texas hard luck championship.... Switzer broke his collar bone twice during the football season, got himself all fixed up for a fast start in basketball and then went back to the bench with a busted hand.... Wilson, who was cracked up about half the time during his three years of football, also was going great guns on the hardwood this winter but appendicitis got him down last week.

Today's guest star—Bob Beble, Watertown (S. D.) Public Opinion: "If your congressman do nothing else, by passing the daylight saving time bill they have earned the votes of sleep-loving nirroda.... Because duck shooting starts at sunrise, hunters will get an extra hour's sleep next fall."

Service dept.—One of Bob Feller's first acts after reporting at the Norfolk naval training station was to join Chief Gary Bodie's basketball squad for a workout. He's not a candidate for the team.... Best wishes go to Jay Simon, sports editor of the Coffeyville (Kas.) Journal, who gets his uniform at Fort Leavenworth next week; Jim Decker, the Syracuse U. tub thumper, who has joined the Navy; fight managers Joe Yelis (Gus Lesnevich) and Jimmy White (Aaron Saltes), who are rejoining the Army after having been discharged under the 28-year age limit.... Private Pete Sasso of Fort Knox, Ky., former assistant golf pro at West Orange, N. J., says his great ambition is to caddy for Sam Snead. Pete says he would cure Snead of blowing up and would "sweet him in."

Johnny Roukens, the Fairport, N. Y., speed skater, isn't finding N. Y. life a handicap to keeping in condition. Johnny is stationed at Plattsburg, N. Y., where there is plenty of ice.

Linseed oil is the principal ingredient in printing inks.

CADET—Fall winter flying gear for Randolph field, Texas, aviation cadets is bulky—and warm, as John A. Deo Perles formerly of Fort Mill, S. C., can testify as he heads for a plane.

FSA Officials To Meet Here

Landlord-tenant problems will be studied here Saturday when the FSA officials will meet with landlords and tenants of this county to work on model long-term leases and to study rent paying capacity and farms in this section.

In trying to anticipate needed agreement between parties to the lease, the tenure situation has been investigated. FSA discovered that a more complete lease was needed to prevent economic waste from moving annually, to protect land owners investment, and to conserve the natural resources.

The model lease to be discussed embodies the compensation principle for the construction of improvements by tenant, provision for farm practices which contribute to soil and water conservation and comply with the federal crop program, to provide repairs and improvements for minimum housing standards, to have ample grassland and woodland management and to conserve these resources, to provide security of tenure by a long time farm home program, to provide for clear understanding regarding proper financing of farm operations and improvements, and to make pro-

Praise Goes To Cosden Officers

DALLAS, Jan. 20—A vote of commendation for the management and officer personnel of the company for its record of operations for the calendar year 1933 was voted by directors of the Cosden Petroleum Corporation at a special meeting in Dallas Monday, when the operations were reviewed.

It was the first meeting of the new year and directors took note of the occasion to praise the work of the Cosden safety committee, which has done outstanding work in reducing plant accidents and which also has led the way in safety education and instruction in the Big Spring area.

In congratulating officers and management for the 1933 operations, the board cited specifically the record of upkeep and operation of plant and equipment and the service rendered to the public and patrons during a period of developing emergency.

Sale Of Tax Stamps Slow

Considerably less than 200 automobile operators availed themselves of the opportunity to pay their federal car use tax Monday, the first day they were on sale at the postoffice.

Postmaster Nat Shick said that the total sales in the neighborhood of 170 stamps sold—but the thing which gave him concern was the failure of the rate of purchase to increase Tuesday morning.

These stamps are to be on all commercial and private automobiles, trucks and motorcycles by February 1.

Shick was fearful that all delay until the last and that it would thus be impossible to have stamps on hands to accommodate the rush. Presumably, those who do not have the stamps affixed to their automobiles on Feb. 1 would not be permitted the use of them until this is done.

The postoffice has only 2,000 stamps on hand—possibly only half the needed amount to pay tax on all cars in use in the county. In order to get a new supply of stamps, Postmaster Shick said that the order would have to be dispatched by the end of this week, and then it would be on margin too close for comfort.

Those leaving were Tom Paul Tarwater, Midland, yeoman second class, USNR; Marcus Leonard Carmack, Snyder, general service; Cody McDonald O'Brian, Stanton, general service; and J. P. Hurlidge, Big Spring, apprentice sheet metal worker.

MEN WANTED: That Sign Doesn't Mean Maybe Now

Men Wanted!

That sign is hanging out on factory gates now in ever-increasing numbers, and not only in industrial centers but in the hinterlands of West Texas men are being begged to take steady jobs with high pay.

O. R. Rodden, manager of the United States Employment Service office here, is receiving call after call for men in shipyards, aircraft plants, and other war-bombing industries.

The prospective worker does not need to be trained in the crafts named. Uncle Sam will train him free of charge, if he will promise to go to work in the war industries.

Rodden only a day or so ago received a call for 150 welders. Such calls are almost daily matters.

"We need more students to learn welding and sheet-metal work in the national defense training school here and fill these jobs," Rodden said Saturday. "Those who are interested are urged to come to my office Monday morning." The employment service office is in the Hills building, just across the street north of First National bank and across the street east of State National bank.

Workers in these factories earn 80 cents to $1.50 per hour, with lots of overtime hours worked. Applicants must be over 18 years of age.

Court Term Opens Here

District court made a quick start into its slate of business for the four-week January term today by empanelling a grand jury and calling the civil docket.

The grand jury was given a routine charge by Judge Cecil Collings, who reminded the members that the attitude of the public toward law enforcement was no higher than that of the grand juries over a period of time.

District Attorney Martelle McDonald said little had accumulated for the grand jury to investigate since the last term of court.

Members of the group are R. L. Cook, foreman; Willis Winters, A. J. Stallings, R. N. Adams, Harry Hurt, Robert W. Curtis, Alvin Lay, R. C. Reed, Lloyd Brannon, Albert McKinney, L. E. Shafer and F. C. Shortis.

Old criminal cases were set for trial next Monday, and new criminal cases will be heard the third Monday of the term.

Case of W. P. Douglass and wife against H. E. Turner, a suit for recovery of deed and damages, was set for trial Monday afternoon, but was settled out of court, resulting in dismissal of the petit jury for the week.

Six Passenger Tire Sales Get Approval

Six passenger car tires, the first to be certified here since the stocks were frozen by government orders, were included in the authorizations by the tire ration board here Friday.

To date, the board has passed favorably on applications for six passenger car tires, as many tubes, for 25 commercial truck castings and 22 truck tubes. This is considerably under the 83 passenger tires and 64 tubes and the 98 truck castings and 83 tubes allotted to the county for January.

farm income. But in the southwest hardly enough emphasis has been placed on the correct care of cotton. A commonly accepted and at the same time quite expensive practice has been to leave the ginned cotton in an open lot, where it is exposed to the wind, rain and all other elements which couldn't but damage it and lower its value.

The Big Spring Compress Company storage rates are so low as to make it a business proposition to use it. The first fifteen days are free and a charge of seven mills a day thereafter is the cost of storage and insurance to 7-1-20 a month. No one can afford to leave a bale of cotton worth from $90 to $95 in the open where rain and other elements can damage it to the extent of from $5 to $15, to say nothing of the danger of theft and fire. This warehouse is bonded and as such is accepted for government loan cotton. With the Big Spring Compress Company located here they make a concentration point for cotton grown in this section thereby making a better cotton market here. (Adv.)

Born in Missouri August 1, 1878, he had been a cattleman and rancher. For the past two or three years he had lived with his brothers.

Survivors include three brothers, W. I. Richard D. of Bartlesville, Okla., and Leroy of Wynona, Okla.; and a sister, Mrs. P. D. Hope of California.

Eberley funeral home had charge of local arrangements.

Big Spring Compress, A Local Asset

Originally established in 1924, the Big Spring Compress Co. has for years made cotton storage available to West Texas farmers. Bonded storage facilities for 50,000 bales, E. F. Shoemaker, Prop.

What has always seemed to be an appallingly wasteful practice is the method employed by the American farmer in the indifferent manner in which many care for their products after they have spent so much time and labor in producing them.

Cheap land and labor in the early days caused many wasteful habits to be cultivated which in many cases are practices today with the same indifference as that of the farmer of fifty years ago.

In late years, however, it has become necessary for the farmer to adopt businesslike practices. County farm agents, agricultural colleges and our national departments of agriculture have judiciously urged crop rotation and diversification—balanced feeding, better care of livestock and other practices as a means of bolstering

"Here's how advertising WORKS"

"You hear a lot these days about what advertising means to people...how it brings them better goods at lower prices, and makes life more comfortable and more enjoyable. Well, advertising does all that, of course, but I'm more interested in what it does for me as a retailer..."

- "I'm in business to sell goods, and I've learned about advertising right here at the store counter where results are what count. I've seen how advertising works with my own customers and, believe me, I've got all kinds..."
- "There's Mrs. Stockbridge, for instance, the banker's wife in that big house up on the hill. She's one of my best customers, and so is Mrs. Brickley, whose husband is a foundry foreman. Both these families have been trading here for years."
- "I don't know whether Mrs. Brickley and Mrs. Stockbridge read the same magazines or listen to the same radio programs. But I do know that they both read the local newspapers and the ads in them...my ads and my manufacturers' ads."
- "That's the way it works with all my customers. No matter where or how they live, they all read the local papers. So you can see why newspaper advertising by the manufacturers of the products I carry means more sales for me."

This retailer, like other successful dealers everywhere, knows from his own experience that newspaper advertising is the one medium through which manufacturers can reach all his customers and prospects. That's why manufacturers produce more sales for their retailers...and themselves...when they advertise in local newspapers.

Only Eight Days To Pay Poll Tax

Eight days remain in which poll taxes must be paid if those from whom this tax is required expect to vote in the elections that will be held in Texas this year.

There will be candidates in plenty, and choice of them must be made. Only the poll tax payers and the exemption holders can engage in this important affair.

They will be still heavier. But the small amount required for a poll tax certificate, compared with its worth, is of little if any consequence.

Hollywood Sights and Sounds—For The Fourth Time—Here Comes That Film 'The Spoilers' Again

By ROBBIN COONS HOLLYWOOD — A good many years ago a gentleman named Rex Beach wrote a book called "The Spoilers" and any way you look at it he did the movies a good turn.

Three times since 1914, when the movies first made a mint of coin by putting nine reels of celluloid around a fight between two brawny males over a purtydame, other gentlemen have looked upon "The Spoilers" and found it still first-rate movie material.

Farm Price Fight — Henderson Or Wickard Must Lose

By JOHN GROVER AP Feature Service Writer The only thing certain about the struggle for control of farm prices under the pending price control law is that one of two governments will be kicked squarely in his official teeth.

Henderson and Wickard. The farm state senators want Wickard, the farmer, running the farm price show. Senators from industrial states seem to feel their city constituents will get a better price break with Henderson giving orders.

Wickard's rebuttal pointed out that he already has control, through surpluses of corn prices and that they had been deliberately held below parity to promote hog production. Likewise, less-lend funds have stimulated other key production but food prices have lagged behind wages.

Oven-Baked Beans Join Up With Meats

To Please the Hungry Men and Help the Budget—Oven-baked Beans Join Up with Dried Beef. This Main Dish Makes a Particularly Attractive Menu Served with Peanut Butter, Corn Salads and Pickles of Fresh Cucumber Pickles and Grape Jelly.

By CAROL BRUECK
Maine Home Institute

AN EVER-PRESENT help in keeping the budget under control while prices rise are oven-baked beans. A protein food rich in iron and other minerals—beans may frequently take the place of the more expensive meat in your meal.

Then, too, baked beans combine well with meats and thus make them go further. Dried beef is one of the many meats with which oven-baked beans will make a fine showing. The recipe for this combination is given below.

When one considers bidders that there are four different kinds of the oven-baked beans with which to form a great variety of quick main dishes—one realizes that they are a "must" for the pantry shelf. The oven-baked beans in molasses sauce with pork (Boston style) are made from a prized old New England recipe—and so they are always well-liked especially by people from that part of the country. Mid-westerners favor the two kinds of oven-baked beans in tomato sauce—one with pork and one without (vegetarian style)—both are delicious with all kinds of meats. The oven-baked red kidney beans are prepared with a delicate sweet sauce to please the fancy South-westerner as well as form a good basis for delicious main dish bean salads.

Oven-Baked Beans With Dried Beef: Scald the contents of 1 small jar (5-oz.) dried beef in 2 tbsp. butter. Then move to one side and heat 1 medium (15-oz.) can oven-baked beans, Boston style, in the same pan. When heated, turn the beans out on a warmed platter and top with the dried beef. Serve 4.

Nazis Claim Ships Sunk

BERLIN, Jan. 23 — (Official Broadcast Recorded By AP)—German bombers sank a 4,000-ton merchant ship and a 600-ton collier off the northwest coast of Scotland and damaged a fairly large merchant ship off the southwest coast of England yesterday, the high command said today.

"Dumber aircraft scored several direct hits on targets of military importance on one of the islands off the Shetlands," the high command reported.

A British raid upon the coastal district of northwest Germany last night was acknowledged. Residential quarters were described as bombed, but the high command said there were no civilian casualties and "no military damage was done."

Five of the attacking planes were reported shot down.

The British were declared to have lost a total of 35 planes in European and Mediterranean fighting from Jan. 11 to 20 while German losses "in operations against Great Britain" in that period were listed at 16.

More Clemency, Less Crime In State For '41

AUSTIN, Jan. 23 (AP)—Clemencies are up and crime down in Texas, T. C. Andrews, chairman, said in reporting on operations of the state board of pardons and paroles.

Clemency recommendations for 1941, all approved by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel and Coke R. Stevenson, totalled 2,019, a small increase over the previous year due to a more liberal policy of the board.

"The prison population was 8,814 on Jan. 2, compared with about 7,000 a year ago," Andrews said.

"While I do not have the exact figures to support the statement, I am inclined to think there is an overall decline in crime. There were fewer burglaries and killings last year.

"In my opinion, the electric chair has had something to do with the trend. Also, more people are at work and there are fewer idlers. In general, crime increases when there is unemployment and idleness."

Amending the board's clemency policy justified by the reports, Andrews pointed out that only 10 per cent of those given clemency "went back" to prison. Burglars and burglars led the "repeaters."
