Community Bodies to Be Named Soon At Farm Meetings

Beginning Thursday, March 11, a series of community farm meetings will be held over Hall County, at which time community committees for the 1937 federal farm program will be elected.

The schedule of meetings: March 11—Eli at 9 a. m., Plaska at 10:30 a. m., Brice at 1:30 p. m., Lesley at 2:30 p. m., Lakeview at 3:30 p. m. March 12—Estelle at 10 a. m., Turkey at 2:30 p. m. March 13—Memphis at 10 a. m. in the county court room.

The program in general will be almost the same as was had in 1936, the first step of which will be the signing of work sheets. This will get under way in two or three weeks.

Large crowds have attended the community farm meetings held over the county this week, as County Farm Agent R. E. L. Pattillo and Assistant Agent W. S. Bennett have discussed in a series of meetings changes in the 1937 governmental farm program as compared with the program of 1936.

Almost all of the farmers have signed letters to be sent to Austin urging the legislature to adopt the Davis-Fox agriculture bill. This bill is before the state House and provides for the setting up of conserving agencies to be administered by the various counties. The signed letters, however, stipulate that the bill must conform to the federal conservation bill.

The series of farm meetings will close Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a gathering in Turkey.

All farmers and ranchers of Hall County are urged by County Agent Pattillo to attend a mass meeting in the county court room here Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at which time details of the 1937 governmental range benefit program will be explained.

Following are the principal changes in the new farm program as outlined by the county agent in his community addresses this week:

1. Farmers can earn 25 cents per acre for contour listing and cultivation of all or any of the crop land.
2. Peas can not be interplanted with grain sorghums and corn as diverted acreage.
3. Peas, if planted solid rows on diverted acreage, may be turned under while growing.
4. Sudan grass can be planted and counted as diverted acreage.
5. Grain sorghums at 100 bushels per acre can be counted as diverted acreage.

Civil Service Exam Will Be Held Here

The United States Civil Service Commission announces an open competitive examination for the position of substitute clerk at the Memphis post office. Applications for the examination must be on file with the manager of the 10th U. S. Civil Service District, Customs House, New Orleans, La., not later than March 16.

From the eligibles resulting from this examination it is expected to make certification to fill existing and future vacancies in the position of substitute clerk and occasionally in the position of regular clerk.

The basic rate of pay for substitutes is 65 cents an hour. For regular employment the initial basic salary of clerks in offices of the first and second classes and carriers in the city delivery service is $1,700 per annum.

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

W. M. Davis, Minister. The Bible school will assemble for study at 9:45 a. m. We have twelve classes with good teachers that will meet the requirements of every age. We extend a cordial invitation to those not now enrolled in a Bible class to come and study with us. Bring your Bible. Morning worship and preaching at 10:45 a. m. The subject of the morning sermon will be, "Hearing And Doing." In the sermon on the mount Jesus said those who heard his sayings and did them not were like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. Evening worship and sermon at 7:30 p. m. The evening theme will be, "Prayer." The Lord's supper will be observed both morning and evening. Women's Bible class will meet for study Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. Men's training class Tuesday at 8 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

E. C. Cargill, Pastor. Installation service Friday evening at 7:30, to which all members and friends are most cordially invited to attend. A number of ministers from other places will be present to have part in the service. We shall hope to have special music for this service. We look forward to next Sunday with fond anticipation to the Sunday School hour, and then the regular morning service. At the "Vesper Hour" Dr. McNeely will have charge of the special study course to which all are invited to attend. It has been a great source of pleasure to visit in a number of homes, and each week we have good reason to be thankful for finding new friends and interested people in the cause of Christ. Next Sunday morning the subject for the hour will be: In what shall we major? The great responsibility in one single hour, may settle our destiny for triumph or despair. "The field is white unto harvest." Will you make it your hour when in yielding you will find rest and peace. We shall hope Saturday afternoon will be clear and bright so that the pastors may resume their "Mission Preaching" on the streets.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

Lakeview, Texas. C. L. Taylor, Minister. Preaching the first and third Sundays in each month. Bible study each Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. Wm. Mason, Pastor. At the First Baptist Church Sunday morning the pastor will bring a message on "The Abundant Life" using as the scriptural background John 10:1-10. What kind of a life are we living? Are we satisfied merely to get along and to have something to eat and a place to stay? This is not the abundant life, we are sure, that Jesus came into the world that we might have. Sunday evening meditation will be on the passage in Luke 5:1-7, the subject being "Failure, Faith, and Fortune." We believe that this is a subject that all will be interested in. We have all made failures, we do not exercise the little faith that we have, and there is much in store for us if we have faith. The fishermen learned the fortunes were in store for them as they trusted the word of the Lord.

Everyone should be looking forward to the forty-seventh Anniversary Celebration for our church on March the fourteenth. We have big plans for the day and are looking toward a real good time. Sunday school and B. T. U. attendance were both fine on last Sunday. Everyone who does not go elsewhere to church is cordially invited to be in these services Sunday. We all have good times of fellowship together and great feasts on the truths of God's Word. "Come thou with us."

FUTURE VIEWED WITH CONFIDENCE

CONFIDENCE IN THE FUTURE of this section was expressed in a significant manner at the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet in Memphis last week. So subtle was the expression of confidence that it was wasted on us until it was brought to our attention by an outsider. The optimistic outlook was manifested on every hand by the 250 persons present by their refusal to view with alarm any conditions which might seem to harbor bad times in the future.

And the speakers, too, displayed the same feeling. As was pointed out to us, the mere fact that none of the speakers spoke of "these hard times" is significant that the times have been more trying than now. Not all of those at the banquet were town and city residents; some were farmers. And when our farmers assume an optimistic view, it means something. For the farmer is the backbone of this agricultural area.

The presence of farmers at the Chamber of Commerce banquet last week was a welcome sight, for the cooperative working together of farmers and civic organizations is an ideal situation. The Chamber of Commerce is an organization made up of Memphis business men and citizens who are primarily interested in building their town and community.

Merchants and public-spirited citizens will be given an opportunity to enlist in this cooperative community work, as a membership drive is being launched by the local civic body. All who are able should take advantage of the opportunity and get into the harness and work for community advancement.

SOIL EROSION CAMPAIGN URGED

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT Sunday sought to enlist all states of the nation in a campaign which he carried out would be of untold millions of dollars worth of good to this section of the country. The president is asking all states to unite in a campaign to save farm lands from blowing away in dust storms or washing away in floods.

He has asked all governors to obtain passage of legislation along the lines of a model soil conservation law suggested by the agriculture department. Governor Allred of Texas has replied that he will urge enactment of soil conservation laws to the legislature, and agricultural leaders of the state have expressed the opinion that a bill will be drawn up that will meet with both state and national approval.

"The dust storms and floods of the last few years have underscored the importance of programs to control soil erosion," President Roosevelt stated. "The erosion that destroys its soil destroys itself," he said.

Under the plan approved by President Roosevelt, land owners would construct terraces, check-dams or other conservation projects; follow certain practices such as contour cultivating, strip cropping, and planting trees or grasses; and refrain from cultivating steep or otherwise highly erosive lands.

Farmers and land owners have been shown how to protect their lands from erosion, but the country needs systemized programs for conservation of the land on a large scale, it seems to us. The Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act is doubtless helping some, and such an act is heartily endorsed by most agriculturists. It provides payment for farmers for doing what is to their advantage to do—the building and conserving of their land.

The nation has a good start toward a national soil conservation campaign, it seems. How far it will go remains to be seen. The Soil Conservation Service, of which there is an active unit in Memphis, and a few other governmental agencies are training men for leadership in controlling water and soil erosion. The national campaign should boast competent leaders when and if it starts, and that is half of the battle.

CAP ROCK ATHLETIC MEET

THE ANNUAL Cap Rock Relays and Tennis Tournament to be staged in Memphis this month appears to be a worthy school activity. Memphis will draw notice from almost every town in the Panhandle during the meet, as some 30 towns are expected to be represented in the meet. The business resulting from the visiting delegations will be welcomed by Memphis merchants, and it is to be hoped that the event will help revive interest in athletic competition here.

Three's A Crowd

The Texas House of Representatives has passed a bill putting teeth into the drivers' license law. The bill requires examination of all applicants, except that licenses will be issued without examination for three months after the effective date of the act to those able to prove they have driven satisfactorily the past year. It is to the interest of the people, large for the bill to become a law, as an effort to cut the number of automobile accidents.

SIDELIGHTS

By MARVIN JONES

Congressman from Panhandle

There are many angles to the farm tenant problem. Land tenantry has been increasing gradually for a number of years, and every thinking person will agree that it is desirable to check this increase and turn the trend back in the other direction. There are more than two million farm tenants, many of whom desire to be and are capable of being farm owners. But securing a solution to the problem is not easy. The damages of half a century cannot be repaired in a day.

Any approach toward a solution for the tenancy problem must take into consideration these points: It must be made financially profitable to own a small farm home, and a way must be found to finance the purchase of small farm homes by owner-operators on long-time payments at low interest rates.

The most important step in making farm ownership profitable is to maintain a fair price for farm products. This question of price is the most important single element in the whole subject. Much progress has been made along this line through the operation of the recent farm acts, but further provision must be made and maintained in order to assure a fair price for the things the farmer raises.

Tenancy is but an outcropping of the real problem. The problem itself is one of price and income. Neither landlords nor tenants have had sufficient income. They have had to compete with a business system which has not taken into consideration their needs.

For a number of years industry received consideration while the farm problem grew. The market for industrial products has been protected to allow prices which brought a profit. Exportation of these products has been encouraged by cheaper freight rates which have not applied to agriculture. Similar discriminations have prevailed. The problem, then, is to bring agriculture into balance with industry.

The question of taxes—state county, and district—is also extremely important. In most of the states an undue share of the taxes has been borne by the farmer. In many instances, a full property levy is made by both state, county and district units against all land regardless of whether there is a crop failure or any form of income from the land. Some states have already taken steps to improve this condition. Much assistance can be rendered if others will cooperate also.

I believe it is important that any tenant legislation that is adopted should provide for participation of local citizens familiar with conditions in their own section in administering the program. Wherever possible the tenant should be consulted, so that he will feel a personal interest and responsibility in his homestead.

We are all familiar with famous old songs about home—"Home Sweet Home" and "The Little Gray Home in the West" and others. These songs were not written about a rented shack or a tenant's temporary abode, but about a home in the real sense of the word. It is the home that the fine and enduring sentiments, the worthwhile traits of character, are begun. That is why homes for the tenant are important to all of us as citizens.

J. R. Harrell made a business trip to Amarillo Saturday.

The Voice of the People

(Editor's Note—This space is open to all readers of The Democrat for the purpose of expressing their opinions on any and all subjects. All signed letters will be reprinted here upon request, so long as they carry clean, unbiased material. The following should be considered as the opinion of the writer, in no manner reflecting on the editorial policies of this newspaper.)

(The following article was given out by Dr. C. Z. Stidham, two weeks ago, after being interviewed by a Democrat representative.—Ed. Note.)

The proper disposal of human wastes is a problem faced by every nation and community, and a Works Progress Administration project now available in Hall County makes it possible for those persons who do not live in quarters having sewerage connections to meet this problem. It has been proven that Typhoid, Dysentery, and Hookworm Disease can be spread by flies, contaminated water, and polluted soil. Flies can spread disease only when they are allowed to breed and feed in human excreta; water becomes contaminated only when such wastes gain entrance into the water supply; and soil becomes polluted through direct contact with human wastes. The elimination of surface toilets and cesspools will help eliminate the most important source of some of our communicable diseases.

One method accepted by the Texas State Department of Health for the disposal of human excreta is by the proper construction and maintenance of a sanitary pit-privy. The sanitary privy is one so constructed and maintained that flies, mosquitoes, insects, rats, and small domestic animals cannot gain access to the contents of the pit; that surface water cannot enter the pit, that the location has been so selected to prevent the waste material in the privy from entering a water supply by either underground seepage or surface drainage.

This method is carried out in the WPA project now in operation in Hall County, and communities not served by a sewerage system would do well to take advantage of the work offered to them free. There is a pressing need for the pit-type toilets in parts of Memphis, Estelline, Turkey, Lakeview, and in the smaller communities of the county.
