SMALL VICTORY IS FORECAST

On the LEVEL

a column by William Russell Clark

The question uppermost in my mind, as I write this, is what person, or persons, what organization, or organizations, will give the staff of The Democrat a mid-night "feed" on election night? During the late unpleasantness of 1928, when Mr. Hoover won by a knockout blow over Al Smith, Wiley Orr fed the force. Turn about is fair play. I am not expecting Wiley to repeat his treat this year.

In order to make the matter a little more definite, the situation is this: On election night, we begin receiving wire reports on the various races as soon as the polls close at seven o'clock. These reports will continue, at about five minute intervals, until 11:30. At 12:30, we will receive our first state totals and 1:30 Sunday morning, our final report for the mediately after the final results received, The Democrat publishes an eight page election extra. This paper will contain much later news than any daily paper reaching Memphis Sunday. The election reports will be resumed at two o'clock Sunday afternoon, and will be continued until ten o'clock Sunday night.

The Democrat is rendering this service absolutely free of charge. All in the world we are asking for is some food along about midnight, or even later. Foods of any kind will be most acceptable, such as sandwiches, coffee, iced tea, ice cream—anything to eat. All of the staff members have enormous appetites, and it will take a considerable amount of food to have stated previously, we expect Wiley Orr to bear the burden again this year. He did nobly by the force in 1928 and has earned a well deserved rest. I might add that anyone who is foolish enough to feed the staff will be given plenty of free publicity in the election extra. If the food is good, we will not hesitate to say so. If it is not so good, that fact will be brought out.

In addition to food, cigars will come in mighty handy in helping to speed up the election reports on the large bulletin board which will be posted just outside the office. Every time I get a fresh cigar, I will do my utmost

The lecture Friday evening will be free to the public. Not even a tree will offering will be taken. Dr. Campbell is very anxious that a large audience be present as she states she speaks better when the benches are filled. Dr. Campbell states that she has traveled through 16 countries abroad, the entire United States, and Mexico. She has spent time in the Holy Land, and is well equipped to tell of the story in which Christ lived and wrought his miracles. Dr. Campbell is a sister of Mrs. L. Dowell of Memphis.

Rotary Program Is Furnished By Lions This Week

Due to the fact that the Lions Club lost to the Rotary Club in a recent golf tournament, the Lions had to furnish the program at the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday at noon. Dr. J. A. Odom had charge of the program, and what a program! Judge A. S. Moss made an interesting talk on the subject of "The Relationship of Service Clubs." He asked that a better understanding be had between the two clubs in Memphis, in order that more effective work might be accomplished. He told what the right kind of fellowship would accomplish, and ended his remarks by stating that he thought the Rotary Club had put something over on the Lions, as the Lions had made the largest score in the golf tournament, and should have been acclaimed as winning the honors in the play.

An interesting musical program was furnished by Mrs. Jeff Watson and Miss Margot Shaw, soloists, accompanied by Miss Doris Shaw.

Vacant Dwelling Is Destroyed By Fire Monday Morning

A vacant house on the corner of Fourteenth and Main was destroyed by fire shortly after two o'clock Monday morning. The dwelling was owned by a Mr. Stovall, of Lubbock, and was said to be fully covered by insurance. The estimated loss was approximately $4,000, according to Fire Chief Ray.

When the fire boys reached the scene of the blaze, the fire was beyond control and the house was doomed. They did good work, however, in keeping the flames from spreading. The origin of the fire is unknown. This is the same house that caught fire about six weeks ago.

The boys, who were distantly related, died within a few minutes of each other last Sunday morning. Noted Artist Pays Tribute To Voice Of Memphis Singer

Miss Ruby McCanne, of Memphis, was signally honored recently when she was granted an audition by Cameron McLean, noted Scotch baritone. Miss McCanne, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCanne, has been on a two weeks vacation trip to Las Vegas, New Mexico, and it was while there, that she was asked to sing for the noted baritone. She was a guest at a cabin party given in honor of Mr. McLean. He sang for the party, and all present joined with him on the chorus of a song, which was an old favorite.

As soon as the song had been finished, he asked Miss McCanne to sing for him. She sang a duet with Earl Gough, voice instructor at John Tarleton College, at Stephenville. When they had finished the duet, Mr. McLean said: "Miss McCanne, you have a wonderful voice and I want you to sing on our artist program Friday." However, Miss McCanne declined the honor.

Field Editor Of Farm Journal Is Visitor In City

H. L. Gantz, field editor for Farm and Ranch, with headquarters in Dallas, was a Memphis visitor Tuesday of this week. Mr. Gantz was en route to a farmers' conference at Stillwater, Oklahoma. He spent the entire day Tuesday in getting information concerning Hall County, which will likely be embodied in a future article for Farm and Ranch. Mr. Gantz stated that this is the first time he has stopped in Memphis and that he is well pleased with this section of the state and expects to return at later date.

The field editor cited the fact that crops in this county were looking better than any he had seen on his way here, with the exception of those in Wilbarger County. He stated that the cotton appeared to be holding up wonderfully well and said that it looked better here than at any place on his trip to the Panhandle from Eastland County. Mr. Gantz visited the Gate City Creameries and the Rotary Club while in the city.

MAN WANTED IN CITY IS TAKEN NEAR TURKEY

Arthur Bird Placed In Jail On Statutory Charge

A man said to be Arthur Bird, who has been wanted in Memphis for the past four months on a statutory charge, was arrested in Turkey Monday morning. Bird and a companion are said to have come into Turkey on a motorcycle and was arrested by officers. The man with Bird escaped and while officers were trying to run him down, Bird also got away.

Posse Is Formed

A posse of some fifty men was formed and a search of the canyons north of Turkey was started. It is said that the automobile in which Bird made his getaway was found in the canyons where Bird had left it. No trace of the escaped prisoner was found until five o'clock Monday afternoon, when the posse was notified that the City Marshal at Quitaque had arrested Bird at the Caprock Piling Station, some fifteen miles from the place where he had abandoned the stolen car. DAVIDSON PICKS SMALL TO LEAD ENTIRE FIELD

Will Get 60 To 70 Percent Of Votes Cast In County

All indications point to the fact that Senator Clint Small, of Wellington, candidate for Governor, will be in the run-off primary. Lee Satterwhite, campaign manager for Mr. Small, issued a statement this week in which he predicted that Small would be one of the two high candidates, with a vote ranging between 130,000 to 145,000. With Small in the run-off, his election is practically assured.

Davidson Telegram

Further bearing out the fact that Small will, in all probability be the next Governor of Texas, is a telegram which The Democrat has received from Lynch Davidson, of Houston, which reads as follows: "Voters are apparently still in confusion and doubt as to a choice of a candidate for Governor. By every modern method known, I have canvassed the state politically the last few days. Because of the big block of votes in West Texas and the Panhandle, Clint Small will undoubtedly be away in the lead over all candidates with the possible exception of Mrs. Miriaki A. Ferguson. Senator Small offers by far the best chance of defeating Mrs. Ferguson in the run-off primary, and I earnestly recommend and advise believers in good government and my own loyal friends to center their vote on Clint Small."

70 Percent Of Votes

J. Claude Wells, chairman of the Small for Governor Club in Memphis, has issued the following statement concerning Small's strength in Hall County: "From all indications, Small will get from 60 to 70 percent of all votes polled in Hall County Saturday. Four Small for Governor Clubs of Hall County, namely, Turkey, Estelline, Plaska and Memphis have been busy for several weeks in getting Small's candidacy before the people.

Capable and Qualified

"It is the first opportunity that the Panhandle and West Texas people have had to vote for a man from West Texas, and in this case, a man fully capable and qualified to fill the Governor's chair. Senator Small is a Panhandle product. He knows West Texas and her needs and is big enough to serve all Texas. To intimate that Small is not gubernatorial timber is to say that the Panhandle of Texas is not capable of (Continued on page 6)

Water Utilities Co. Increases Supply

R. D. Stuart, local manager of the Texas Water Utilities Company, received word Wednesday from the State Board of Health at Austin that the water used in Memphis, in a test just completed, met all the requirements of the State Board. The records of the company show that 74,699,500 gallons of water have been consumed by Memphis people during the fiscal year ending in July. Due to the reduced water rates offered during the summer months, it was stated that over 1,500,000 more gallons of water were used in July than were used during the month of June.

Ten new wells have been added to the source of supply in this city during the past year, bringing the total number of wells to thirty-three, and increasing the daily capacity from the former total of 450,000 gallons by some 200,000 gallons or a daily output at present of 650,000 gallons.

The meeting was opened by singing, "I Am Resolved," after which prayer was led by Mrs. Chas. Oren. Mrs. J. H. With this meeting, she closed two years of successful service as president of the Baptist W. M. S.

Out to stay out—selling like hot cakes in Great Britain and now in America—the pleasant, easy way to get rid of corns—a joyous, refreshing, invigorating foot bath for 3 or 4 nights and then lift out the corn—roots and all.

They call this miracle worker Radox and since it has been working wonders with the bad feet of the tight little Isles—plasters and acids, cutting and skin destroying liquid belong to the dark ages.

It's the modern way—the sensible way to take out corns—to abolish callouses—to dissolve the hard skin from heels and toes and to put your feet in good vigorous condition so that you can walk and run and jump and dance with ease and pleasure.

Just ask for a box of Radox at Tarver Drug Co. or any modern drug store—you'll be delighted.

Elect a Qualified Man

For

SHERIFF

In the interest of good government, the voters of Hall County are asked to cast their ballots Saturday for J. K. Gibson. Mr. Gibson needs no introduction to the people of this county. He has resided in Hall County for more than twenty years. He is experienced as a peace officer and is well qualified to perform the duties of the sheriff's office. Mr. Gibson is not seeking the office on the demerits of his opponents, but on his own particular fitness for the important position of Sheriff of Hall County. If elected, he promises to enforce the laws without fear or favor. A vote for J. K. Gibson is a vote for law enforcement. He has no selfish interests to serve, but as a servant of the people, his only concern will be to see that the affairs of his office are administered in such a way as to bring credit upon Hall County and its people.

Mr. Gibson has made a thorough campaign of the county, but it is possible that he has not seen every voter. Nevertheless, he solicits the vote and influence of those who want to see good government firmly implanted in this county.

SENATOR SMALL ADDRESSES BIG CROWD FRIDAY

Candidate Feels Sure He Will Be In Run-Off Primary

Senator Clint Small of Wellington, candidate for Governor, confident, sure of himself, and feeling just elation over his chances for victory in the gubernatorial race, addressed a crowd of more than 2,000 home folks at a rally held last Friday afternoon at three o'clock on the east steps of the court house. Senator Small arrived in Memphis about 2:30 by airplane from his Fort Worth headquarters, and left immediately following his address for a Small rally at Pampa.

Claude Wells Presides
The meeting was presided over by J. Claude Wells, president of the local Small for Governor Club, who in turn introduced Mayor Harrison, who introduced Mr. Small. The next Governor told of his campaign he had made that has carried him to the top of the state, and made the prediction that with the whole support of West Texas he would unquestionably be in the run-off primary, with victory just around the corner.

Hits Four Candidates
He paid his respects to only four of the candidates for Governor, Sterling, Love, Mayfield and Young, mentioning "Soapy" Moody only in a joking way. The Senator stated that he would not go deeply into the issues of the campaign, but he utilized most of his time in criticizing Ross Sterling and his highway program. He stated that in nearly every political campaign there is always one candidate who is said to be backed by special interests, but he stated this was the only canpaign he knew anything about when "old man special interests" himself was in the race, referring to Sterling. He told what Sterling was alleged to be attempting to do, to feather the nests of the big oil corporations at the expense of the public schools of the state.

Love Is Criticized
Tom Love came in for his share of the fireworks. He was criticized for catering to the section of the state in which he found himself. He was denounced for his tactics and for alleged misstatements of facts. "Why, Tom Love can't even get along with himself," the Wellington Senator declared. He said that if Love were elected to office, the political turmoil and strife would be continued for at least two years more.

Senator Small pleaded with the voters to elect the best qualified man for office. He said that his campaign was gaining impetus every day and refuted the charge that he was not well enough known by saying that some of the candidates in the race were too well known to make a good governor.

Frequent applause interrupted the course of the Senator's speech. Before the speaking got under way, music was furnished by the Turkey band. A delegation of local supporters of Senator Small met him at the landing field and escorted him into the city.

Saturday afternoon at four o'clock Ray C. Johnson, prominent Amarillo attorney, spoke at the court house for Senator Small. He was greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience.

Mrs. Frank Foxhall, Ed Foxhall and Miss Dorrace Powell left Monday for Carlsbad, New Mexico. They went through Carlsbad Caverns Tuesday and returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. Scott Broome and son, James William, of Houston, came Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Broome and Mrs. B. Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Morrison and children went to Newlin Sunday to attend the funeral of Trieva Frances Nelson.

Another Fine Victory Won By New Konjola

Lady Was About To Give Up Hope Of Finding Escape From Stubborn Ills.

MRS. FLORA STANLEY

No wonder Konjola has won a million friends; no wonder seven million bottles were used in two years! Would you not like to know all about the medicine that wins such triumphs? Ask your druggist about it, but right now before you do anything else, read the words of Mrs. Flora Stanley, 315 North McMasters street, Amarillo, Texas. Praising Konjola, Mrs. Stanley says:

"I was in miserable health for five years, the result of stomach kidney and liver disorders. My back ached terribly and my feet and ankles were badly swollen. Gas formed after each meal, and I endured awful pains. Dizzy spells and bilious attacks were other sources of distress. My husband insisted that I try Konjola, and now I have a good appetite, food digests as it should, dizziness and biliousness are gone and my weight is back to normal. We will always recommend Konjola after what it did for us."

Konjola does work swiftly, yet a full treatment of from six to eight bottles is advised for best results.

Konjola is sold in Memphis, Texas, at Leverett-Williams Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

sidering the purchase of an inexpensive haulage unit—in these days, when business men are watching transportation costs.

Many important features of the Chevrolet Six-Cylinder Truck are given below. Study them. Use them as a basis of comparison—to prove quality—modern design—and EXTRA VALUE!

MANAGER IS CONFIDENT SENATOR CLINT SMALL TO BE IN RUN-OFF

FORT WORTH, July 24. (Special.)—"I am as confident as I can be that Clint Small will be one of the two high men of the eleven candidates for governor to be submitted to the democratic voters of Texas on Saturday, the 26 of this month," it was declared here today by Lee Satterwhite, his campaign manager.

"Close observers estimate a total of seven hundred thousand votes for the seven recognized leading candidates, which means one hundred thousand to each candidate if equally distributed.

But summing up the vote as indicated from a close study it is my judgment that the two high candidates in the first primary will range somewhere between one hundred and twenty-five thousand to one hundred and fifty thousand votes. The next three candidates will range somewhere between ninety thousand and one hundred and fifteen thousand; the next two will range somewhere between sixty-five and eighty thousand.

"Senator Clint Small of Wellington will be one of the two high candidates, with a vote ranging between one hundred and thirty thousand to one hundred and forty-five thousand. Sixty thousand of these votes will come to him from the Eighteenth Congressional District; from the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth District he will receive an additional vote sufficient to put him in the run-off.

"The other candidates have been yelling their heads off that Small won't get anything but that little West Texas vote! It begins to look by this time like the West Texas vote won't be so little.

"Take a map of Texas and a ruler. Put that ruler down, and draw a straight line from Denison, on the Red River, right down thru Fort Worth, to Del Rio on the Rio Grande.

"In this split you will be able to see definitely how Small is going to win. North and West of that line is the great West Texas, which admittedly will go almost solid for Small in the first primary.

"But they tell you that West Texas is widely scattered and there are so few poll tax receipts.

"All right do some more figuring. Take a copy of the Texas Almanac published by the DALLAS NEWS. It is but a simple matter to figure that there are nearly 300,000 poll tax receipts in that area, or approximately one fourth of the total of Texas. At the same time politicians estimate that only 57 percent of the poll tax receipts are voted, which will mean that in Texas there will be some 700,000 votes polled, while in West Texas, Small's own territory, there will be some 200,000 votes polled.

"Don't ever get it in your head that just West Texas is going to vote for Small. His program is too intensive. His platform is too solid. It is built to withstand every shock of every test that any other candidate can give it, and East Texans, South Texans are going to join with West Texans in putting him over.

"It will be the one time in history when the east and west will meet, and division will be forgotten.

Brings His Mother Greatest Happiness

"I am so happy since my little boy, Francis, gets out and plays with the children again," says Mrs. G. M. Hays, who lives at 215 Colquhoun avenue, in Bossier City.

"For a long time he didn't seem to have any life about him and was awfully cross. My mother said he acted like he had round or pin worms. He would cry out in his sleep, and grit his teeth. On my mother's advice I began giving him White's Cream Vermifuge and he started picking right up. He sleeps soundly, isn't cross and doesn't grit his teeth any more. Now my boy romps and plays all day long."

"When I began taking Argotane," Mrs. Gholson continued, "my system seemed to be all run-down. My back hurt me so I could hardly stand up. I had no appetite, couldn't eat much. But conditions have changed since I have started taking Argotane. The pains in my sides and back have left me entirely and I am feeling like a different person. Those cramps that used to bother me so much in my stomach are a thing of the past and I have no more belching or gassy pains now. I can eat just anything that I please, and you would be surprised what a pleasure this is to me owing to the fact that for a long time it was impossible for me to eat anything which my appetite craved."

to send out a new report. Several of the other staff members enjoy cigars, but it matters little what brand they are—just so they will smoke.

Regardless of whether any food or smokes will be forthcoming, readers of The Democrat may be assured that they will receive county and state returns as soon as they are tabulated. I hope that hundreds of people will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending our party. Come early and prepare to stay late. The space in front of the office will be roped off, so that everyone can see the bulletin board.

And by the way—about that food. We do not desire anything of a fancy nature. Just so there is enough to go around, we are not concerned with the trimmings, but if there is one thing I have a fondness for, it is potato salad, without the onions. If someone will send down a large bowl of this, I will guarantee to give them more publicity in the election extra than was ever dreamed about.

The staff members can hardly wait until election night. I have told them that there would be a generous soul who would have mercy on us and would see to it that the party we are giving to the public, without cost, is appreciated. I am wondering, and so are they, just how badly we are going to be fooled. I'll venture to say it will be by a wide margin.

Closes At Wichita Falls
"Senator Small will close his campaign at Wichita Falls Friday night in a gigantic rally which will be broadcast over Radio Station KGKO from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock. We would like to have as many Memphis people as possible attend this rally, and those who are unable to attend should hear the address over the radio."

Clerk's office. Of this number, 13 votes have not been listed, as yet. It is believed that the absentee votes will run as high as 150 prior to the primary elections on Saturday. A number of Memphians who are away on vacations have used this method of casting their ballots.

Votes By Precincts
Absentee voting, by precincts, was announced as follows: Precinct No. 1, 38 votes; Precinct No. 2, 5 votes; Precinct No. 3, one vote; Precinct No. 4, no votes; Precinct No. 5, 12 votes; Precinct No. 6, no votes; Precinct No. 7, no votes; Precinct No. 8, 11 votes; Precinct No. 9, five votes; Precinct No. 10, four votes; Precinct No. 11, no votes; Precinct No. 12, no votes; Precinct No. 13, 33 votes; Precinct No. 14, four votes; Precinct No. 15, no votes; Precinct 16, four votes, or a total of 117 votes with 13 additional votes not listed. The two Memphis boxes, Precinct No. 1 and No. 13 polled a total of 71 absentee votes.

erected on top of the awning over the sidewalk in front of The Democrat office, and the results will be posted as soon as they are received. County and state returns will be given at the same time. The Democrat, through special arrangement with the State Telephone Company, and Carl Throop manager, has arranged to have two local phones and one long distance phone for election night. Interested people are asked to call in at any time of the night for results. They will be furnished gladly.

Special Loop Planned
A special loop will be run from the Western Union office into The Democrat office and reports will be obtained from the Texas Election Bureau at Dallas every five minutes from 7:00 until 11:30 o'clock on the state races. The first total will be given at 12:30 and the final total for the night at 1:30 Sunday morning. Immediately after this is received, The Democrat will publish an election extra which will contain the latest news in the state contests—much later, in fact, than that carried by the daily newspapers on Sunday. The election reports will be received again starting at 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and will be continued until 10:00 o'clock Sunday night.

The public is asked to kindly refrain from coming into the office while the returns are being received as this interruption will greatly interfere with the work of getting out the election extra. All reports will be available on the bulletin board, and no purpose will be accomplished by coming into the office. The Democrat will be assisted by fourteen Boy Scouts under the direction of Acting Scout Executive J. Hardin Mallard. The Executive and Scouts will be in uniform and they will facilitate the handling of the large crowd expected, and at the same time will prove of invaluable service in getting the returns.

Scouts To Assist
Dr. Mallard has selected the following Boy Scouts to assist in the work on Saturday night: Bob by Thomas, Lewis Foxhall, Charles Flanery, Floyd Wattenbarger, Roy Forkner, Julius Jones, Wayne Baker, James Johnson, James Travis, Orth Kelly, Jewel Jones, James Perkins, B. Looking Back

*I've traveled far on the trail of years,
And had my measure of bitter tears.
I've felt the sting of a deep distress,
And won the treasure they call 'success';
But, somehow back on the old home farm,
The things of life had a deeper charm,
And memory holds in its warm embrace
The things that time has made commonplace.*

*No stars can seem quite as clear and bright;
No sunsets glow with as warm a light;
No tropical fruit of the world can beat
The hard, green apples we used to eat.
And once again in the early fall
I'd hear the voice of the cattle bawl:
I'd rouse the herd at the break of day
And warm my feet where the gray bull lay.*

THIS AND THAT

With kid tree sitters the rage all over the country, I don't understand why Memphis doesn't have a sitter or two. Surely there are one or two trees in Memphis large enough to accommodate a juvenile endurance record breaker.

Why doesn't some enterprising boy sit in one of our cactus plants? That would be new and novel, to say nothing of sensational—sensational for the sitters.

And some of our political authorities, who start a hot discussion on politics at daybreak in the morning and continue until dusk, start a whittling and spit-marathon. Their pleas for politics while they dirty up sidewalks with tobacco juice have always been amusing to me.

While we're on the subject of politics, how would you like a first class prediction? Here's the way I think the gubernatorial candidates will finish the first primary, in the order named:

- Love
Small
Ferguson
Sterling
Young Mayfield
Miller.

There's been quite a bit said about Sterling because he didn't resign his position when he announced for governor. There's "Soapy" Moody. He didn't resign, either.

I wore my coat for a whole day last week and I thought for a moment there was going to be a No less than a hundred people asked me why I had my coat and made some wise crack about it. The truth of the matter is Sterling was in Memphis that day and I felt like I had to complete my ensemble. Since Ross is such a high-and-mighty millionaire with 22 kitchens and 4 bath tubs (or is it the other way around) I was afraid he wouldn't speak to me if I was in my shirt sleeves. Say, that old boy may have 22 bath tubs, but he was wearing a mighty seedy-looking suit. And the straw hat he was wearing had a great big hole in it. That's the gospel truth. He must still have every nickel of the first million he made.

Small visited Memphis in a dinky airplane that was as much as the auto in which Sterling drove Memphis.

I don't understand why it hasn't rained. Two weeks ago I found a dead snake on the golf course and I promptly hung it, belly up, on a barbed wire fence. That's the surest sign on earth of rain, especially when you string 'em tummy-side up.

Dear L. E. R.: Having lately visited the Valley, I wish to correct a mistake in Dorothy B. Robbins' "Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction." The drink from grape fruit is not Rio Rey, but Rio Rey.

Preserving juice of the grapefruit in the tank that is called "I have figured out" is a misplaced letter. Didn't the writer mean "tang" instead of "tank"?

I feel real sorry for newspaper folks, often, for the changing of one letter sometimes makes a paragraph seem so foolish.

The Memphis Democrat is a welcome visitor. Tell Herschel Montgomery that he has broken his ice for his life ambition and that now is the time for the lunge.

OWLS BACK HOME AGAIN; WILL PLAY THREE GAMES THIS WEEK

The Memphis Owls are back on their native soil after a strenuous 12-day stop at Amarillo in the Globe-News Tournament.

Three games this week have been scheduled for the locals, two here and one away as follows:

FRIDAY—CLARENDON HERE. SATURDAY—AT CLARENDON. SUNDAY—SILVERTON HERE.

These will be the first games the Owls have played at home in three weeks. Owl officials are expecting a packed park for both games here.

"Fans who were unable to attend any of the games at Amarillo have hungered for baseball just about as long as they can stand it," declared Edwin Thompson, president of the club, yesterday. "I hope that all Memphis baseball enthusiasts will turn out for the games Friday and Sunday as a means of giving the boys the glad hand on their return to Owl Park."

Truth Is Stranger Than Fiction

BY DOROTHY B. ROBBINS

Evaders of the law in New Jersey are concocting a drink called "Smoke"; rather two were doing that when apprehended. A combination of denatured alcohol and water to the amount of a quart was reason enough for the turning of the key on the couple who had chosen the City Hall to mix "Smoke" in. Not mere boys were these, but men full grown and veering on to middle age. The strange part is that years had brought them no wisdom. Did you ever see an alcohol drinker? The end of the nose is as red as a rose! Not the denatured kind. Denaturing means the addition of some substance that will render it unwholesome or unpalatable and make it fit only for industrial or domestic purposes.

When a shortage in any kind of food becomes distressing, some expert arises with information as to conservation. The oyster industry is no different from many others. That the crop is decreasing from year to year gives us something to think about. The remedy is to thin them out in the beds thereby making each oyster grow larger and fastening upon the process a term called tillage. The work requires time and the people wishing to undertake such a work do not swell a very long list.

Some of the oyster beds have been leased to men who understand how to cultivate and care for the delicious food but sad to say there are few asking for such positions.

Some fall when the air is crisp, the appetite extra good and the oyster crop extremely short, or none at all, Texans individually and collectively will be sorry for their indifference.

Let us provide the remedy which is said to be this: "Take the state out of the oyster raising business by leasing the public beds to private interests who will have commercial incentive to care for the oyster crop." We want a practical assurance of all the oysters we can pay for all the time.

Don't you remember drinking sassafras tea in the spring?—to thin your blood, it was said. Japanese beetles in one of our states were much exhilarated from eating the leaves of the aromatic tree. Farmers noticing their queer antics investigated to find they acted in such a manner after eating the foliage of the tree noted for its virtues in a popular beverage.

Clary Out With Injury To Guide Owls On Bench

Bobbie Clary, manager of the Memphis Owls, will direct the next few games the Wise Birds play from the bench. He is nursing a severely sprained foot, an injury sustained in the Owls' final game in the Globe-News Tournament.

The Owl Skipper was attempting a slide at second, but instead of sliding his left foot turned and he was carried from the field in writhing pain. After being examined by X-ray in Amarillo Monday, no broken bones were found, but the sprain was declared to be of a serious nature, requiring the "boss" to stay out of the game ten days or two weeks.

Either Red Gaither or Swede Wessels will play short stop position in the games with Clarendon Friday and Saturday.

some day", brought out this rejoinder, "Prove it, child, prove it—go fetch me some'r Mars' Andy's smokin' terbaccer."

So far as known, the beetles are the first of insect life to indulge in the pleasant stimulant. "Must be poor land," we always thought of a farm grown rank in sassafras sprouts.

A Dallas man owns a century plant, a wonderful thing. Tall as a young pine, with huge yellow blossoms, they attract the attention of all. I saw four on my trip to the coast this year. I can't remember the exact location of the first, but the next one I saw was at Beeville, where I remarked upon its beauty and wondered what kind of a strange plant it was. My companion equally as ignorant as I could not enlighten me. We flashed by it for we had lost time, but I planned to see it again when we returned. As we toured the Magic Valley, we saw two in full bloom before a small house. "Look at the century plants," said a lady in our car and I kept my counsel as a great truth dawned. In June, 1930, I had seen as one of the wonders of a southern trip, four century plants in bloom!

Supposed to bloom every hundred years, every one of the tall young saplings was doing a thorough piece of work. Very few of us will know whether this is the exact truth, but some statistician is probably responsible for the statement, and it's quite thrilling to have seen something so unusual!

The unusually tall will hail this bit of information: "A new type of sleeping car which provides a private room for each passenger, with a full-sized bed instead of a berth, will be placed in operation on the Broadway Limited, the Pennsylvania Railroad's crack twenty-four hour flyer between

New York and Chicago, beginning Sunday, it has been announced from the Dallas offices of the railroad."

"Means nothing to me," says Mr. Average Citizen. You are wrong; it means gradual revolution of sleeping facilities. The time is not far distant when tall Texans will retire on a journey and wake up refreshed instead of feeling that they had been tied in knots. Education has caused demand for many things and imitation comes from seeing our neighbors happy from enjoyment of conveniences. If the up and stirring Easterner and the brawny Westerner can have comfort in a sleeping car, then Old Man Texas says he'll take a hand at furnishing the best or trying to see that the Lone Star State gets some of the good things. "Only a matter of time," he says, as he goes about his affairs.

Auction sales make interesting reading; some of the most popular stories having been formed with a background of this character. Here's one that is quite alluring: Antiques at Auction, Town Hall, Farmington, N. H., Thursday, July 17, 1930, 10 a. m. Collection of George H. Goodwin. Furniture, glass, prints, oils and portraits, linen, wrought iron, maps, etc.; 100 to 205 years old; for sale, rain or shine.

Some valuable things are listed that would lend attractiveness to any home. Wouldn't you like to be there?

The funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church there Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Rev. Stapleton, pastor of the Newlin Methodist church, being assisted by Rev. Crawford of Hedley.

Locals Win, Lose In Double-Header

Two games in one afternoon against different teams proved too much for the Owls, and they met their first defeat in the News-Globe Tournament when, in the second game Saturday Skellytown raced around the bases to tally 15 runs while the Owls, in their deadened condition, managed to get two counters on as many hits.

In the first game Knight carried the Owls to victory over the Texaco-Farwell Steers by a score of 6-4. The Owls took the lead in the first inning and held it throughout the game. The Steers scored one run in the first stanza, and then were shut out until the eighth when a wild inning netted them three runs. Knight refused to give them a chance to score in the ninth, however, by striking out the first two men at bat, and the third flew out to center to end the game.

Knight also started the second game, but he had seen too many innings in the box and was forced out in the fifth. The entire club was played out and had no chance against the fresh nine from the oil fields.

The Oilers knocked balls through the Owls for hits that would have been put-outs if the Owls had been in condition to go after them. However, with the loss the Owls placed themselves in the finals with third money in their pockets.

Not only have you patronized local games very generously, but you have driven 180 miles several times within the past two weeks to watch us play in the Globe-News Tournament. We want you to know that your cheering presence in the grandstand at Amarillo contributed greatly to our progress in the tournament.

Tacts Eliminate Locals On Sunday

The Memphis Owls fell before the fire of the Amarillo Tactless Texans Sunday in a 10-4 game to be eliminated from the News-Globe Tournament. The defeat came as a surprise to Owl fans as the Owls had defeated the Tacts once before and had knocked "Lefty" Middleton out of the box in three innings on two previous occasions. The defeat gave the Owls third place in the tournament.

Burleson stood in the mound for the Owls, but he was unable to stop the slugging Tacts, who started a hitting spree in the seventh inning that lasted through the eighth, netting eight runs. Middleton, Tact toaser, pitched his best game of the tournament and one of his best for the year.

The Tacts started the game with two runs in the first stanza, while the Owls received one tally in the same inning. The game stood thus until the sixth when the Birds took three runs without a hit. There were two men on bases due to an error and a walk, when Middleton threw the ball high over first base when Wessels hit to him. The ball rolled to the fence beyond the bleachers and jumped through a hole. On the umpires ruling that the ball was in play, three men scored.

The Owls were not to lead long, however, as the Tacts came back in the next two innings for eight runs.

Here and There IN SPORTS

BY ADRIAN ODOM

Baseball! There has been plenty of it at the Amarillo News-Globe tournament. The Owls took third place as the result of a so-called "double-header" Saturday. They are making no excuses for their defeats however, as the reason is obvious to everyone concerned. To win they would have had to accomplish the near-impossible.

After getting off in the lead with three victories without a defeat, and when winners should play winners, the Owls were matched to play two games Saturday with two losing teams in the hope of eliminating both from the tournament. After winning the first, there was no chance to win the second. As a result of this double-header the Owls were in no condition to win Sunday.

It is the desire of all Owl fans to know just what kind of a double-header those games were. No big league team could stand such punishment. Had the games been with the same team, each would have had an equal chance of winning, but as it was, the Owls had lost the second game before they went into it.

Although many of the Owl fans claim that the purpose of this treatment was to eliminate the Owls and to put the favored Amarillo team into a winning position, that may or may not be the case, but if it cannot be called open cheating, it is, at least, very poor management. For this the tournament manager may or may not be responsible; he had much more than he could handle.

The Pampa Gulf Guns won the tournament for the third time. They are deserving of honors. A better developed and organized team could not be found at the tournament; however, it is impossible to compare the Guns with the Owls in a very satisfactory manner as their paths did not cross during the tournament.

Memphis will continue to have good baseball as a means of entertainment. At a meeting of the directors, supporters and fans of the Owls, it was voted to keep the local club in action, and money to take care of the expenses of the club at Amarillo was quickly and willingly given. Such enthusiasm for sports in Memphis is indeed creditable to the city.

The Owls have made a good name for themselves and those they represent, and now it will be possible for Memphis to see some of the best games that have ever been played here. Teams that were in the tournament and others that have kept up with the record made by the Owls recognize their ability, and will probably be wanting game in the near future.

The greatest drawback for the Owls at present is the absence of Bobby Clary from the line-up. Bobby was injured Sunday and will be out of the line-up for some time; however, he will continue to manage the club from the bench, and will still be the Owls' most valuable man. He had much to do with the Owls victories at Amarillo.

To pick the valuable men in the Owl line-up, it would be necessary to start at the first of the line-up and continue to the last man. Each player stood at the top of the tournament list in both individual play and in cooperation.

Miss Loree Duke went to Turkey Monday for a visit with Miss Rosemary Price. Miss Duke and Miss Price were roommates at T. W. C. this past term.

Mrs. Ben Kinbrough and Miss Lena Melear spent Monday in Clarendon with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Moss, and son, W. D. Jr., returned to their home at Cooper, Texas, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wood visited Mr. Wood's brother, J. C. Wood here Sunday and Monday. They were en route to their home at Sudan from a tour of the Southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baldwin and sons, Jack and Byron, Jr., returned Friday from a visit with Mrs. Baldwin's sisters at Vernon and Mineral Wells.

HOW BIG MUST A GOVERNOR BE?

Opponents of Senator Small say he isn't "big" enough to be Governor. Let's see if this assertion is true from a common sense standpoint

Just how "big" should a man who aspires to the governorship of Texas be? Common sense would tell us, first: that he should have an unimpeachable record for honesty and fair dealing; and, second: that he should have a successful record as a servant of the people. Clint C. Small thoroughly meets these requirements. As his home folks, we know that Senator Small cannot be justly accused of dishonesty in any degree, and that he cannot be truthfully charged with unfair treatment or biased judicial decisions. His enviable record in public office attests the fact that he is capable, by reason of experience, to direct the affairs of Texas. Gauge his ability by his rapid rise, step by step, in the public trust. First, as mayor of his home town, Wellington; second, as county judge of his home county, Collingsworth; later as judge of this district, and finally, as state Senator from this section--that list of constant advances should prove to the most skeptical that Senator Small is ready to step a notch higher, into the Governor's chair. In every instance he has filled his office to the thorough satisfaction of the people he has served. He can give Texas the most satisfactory administration it has ever had. There is nothing "small" about Small. He is big enough to be governor.

"Let's Adjourn
Politics and Develop Texas"

CLINT SMALL—A BIG MAN FOR A BIG JOB

IT is now practically over—all except the shouting. And when the shouting dies down, when the political-minded sons and daughters of Hall and other counties go to sleep next Saturday night, it will be with the knowledge that a West Texan—Hon. Clinton C. Small of Wellington, is in the run-off primary in the race to obtain the Democratic nomination as Governor of Texas. This will be the state of affairs if West Texans are loyal to the cause and will rally to the Small banner in sufficient numbers to offset any inroads made in his vote by the down-staters.

Lynch Davidson, one of the best informed men in the state on political affairs, says there is not a chance but that Small will be in the run-off. We would amplify his statement by adding that the Wellington Senator will unquestionably get in the second primary, provided his West Texas supporters stay on the job and give him their full strength. Much has been said in the early stages of the campaign about the West Texas vote being negligible. As the campaign has advanced, this vote is being more and more respected by the other candidates. If Small gets ninety percent of the West Texas vote, he is sure to be the next Governor of Texas.

The swing to Small has been a gradual process. Three weeks ago, his chances did not look nearly so bright as they do today. He has a speech that is a vote getter. From all sections of the state, from the home counties of many of the gubernatorial aspirants, reports come to the effect that Small is gaining. This report is being reflected in the campaign addresses of many of the candidates. At first, they were inclined to disregard the West Texan entirely—as not being worthy of particular notice or attention, but this attitude has changed mightily. If Small is not generally conceded to be the leading candidate at the present time, he should certainly be classified as being among the leaders.

Small has waged a good fight. He has taken his candidacy into every nook and cranny in the state, and that is quite an accomplishment of itself. He has not spared himself or his organization. Many days, he has worked eighteen and twenty hours. He has developed into a good campaigner. His sallies, his satire, his inherent wit and good humor have been received well wherever he has spoken, but it is not enough to figure that his strength outside West Texas is growing daily. West Texas has the chance of electing a governor—the only real chance she has ever had, and the eyes of Texas are upon this section. What are we going to do about it? Are we satisfied to let the vote out here become split up, or are we going to back Senator Small to a man and put him in the seat of government at Austin? The answer to this question will be made at the polls next Saturday—an answer that we believe will be typically West Texan.

The only thing small about Small is his name. He is a big man—big in the vital things that count. He has ability, experience, preparation; he knows thoroughly the condition that faces Texas at the present time. He wants to clean the state of political "has-beens," of "moss-backs" who are in the habit of announcing for office as regularly as a primary election draws around. It is his idea to develop the resources of the state—to make Texas take her rightful place among the states of the union as an industrial center. He would stamp out the strife that has torn the state asunder, and in its place set up a government of which every citizen would have a right to feel proud.

The statement has been made repeatedly that Small is not big enough to be Governor. Nothing is more removed from the truth. He has had experience as a city, county, district and state official. In every task imposed upon him, he has shown himself to be equal to the opportunity. He has rendered real and genuine service. If Small is elected Governor, no more would West Texas be "high hatted" as being of no importance. Instead, this part of the state would come into its own for the first time in history. And it is about time. West Texas has been ignored at Austin by practically every administration. We have had our champions, but their voices have been lost in those of the crowd. Let Small take the Governor's seat and a marked change will take place—a change that will make for a better government.

If Small is the candidate of West Texas, what about it? East Texas, South Texas, and North Texas have had their candidates since Texas became a state. Why should not West Texas be represented? Is there any crime about Small being from the Panhandle? We want to state here, however, that the Wellington Senator is too big a man to be sectional in his dealings with the people. He will not only be the Governor of this section, if elected, but of every section. His elevation to office will do more than any other one thing to stamp out sectionalism for good. At best, Texas is a composite whole; the lines of demarcation are not tightly drawn. We are all Texans, regardless of the section in which we reside.

With Senator Small in the run-off primary, only a miracle could keep him from being elected Governor. We believe there is no man in the field who could defeat him. The all important thing, however, is being sure that Small gets into the run-off. We call upon the people of Hall and adjoining counties to rally to the cause; to go to the polls Saturday imbued with the idea of electing the next Governor of Texas—a man who has been tried and who has stood the test—a man who would "adjourn politics and develop Texas." That is the kind of a candidate the Wellington man is; that is the kind of a candidate we will help elect when we vote for him. Texas is a big state; the governorship is a big job; Clint Small is a big man. The combination is a workable one. A vote for Clint Small next Saturday is a vote for progress. Let's put the Wellington man on top in the first primary and thereby make certain that he will be in a position to render an even more worth while service to the state than he has in the past.

50 Years' Use of Black-Draught

"About fifty years ago," says Mr. Lewis G. O'Shields, of Porterville, Ala., "my mother gave me the first dose of Black-Draught, and I have taken it ever since, when I needed a medicine for constipation. I have used this remedy all my married life, in raising my children. I have used Black-Draught for heartburn, as I have had spells of this kind, off and on, for years. This follows indigestion, and indigestion comes close on constipation. I have found that the best way to head off trouble is to begin taking Black-Draught in time. It relieves me of dizziness, tightness in the chest and backache. "By getting rid of impurities, Black-Draught helps to keep the system in good order. I always keep it in the home, and have recommended it to many people, in my time."

Graves Talks Here For Jim Young On Last Friday Night

An attentive audience greeted Hon. Harry N. Graves Friday night on the north steps of the court house, when he spoke in the interests of the candidacy of former Congressman Jim Young for the Democratic nomination of Governor of Texas. The speaking was presided over by Judge A. S. Moss, who introduced Col. C. T. Matkin. Col. Matkin introduced the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Graves told of the legislative career of Mr. Young and what he had accomplished. He spoke of him as a typical Texan, having only one desire and that to serve the best interests of the state. During his speech, Mr. Graves brought out the fact that he had battled for the Small land bill in the House of Representatives of the Texas Legislature just as Clint Small fought for it in the Senate.

Elect a Man For Sheriff Who Has Grown Up With Hall County

The voters of Hall County are asked to elect as their Sheriff a man who has resided in this county for a period of 39 years—a man who has been a good citizen, who has helped in the upbuilding of his community and the county in general—J. H. (John) Alexander.

Mr Alexander needs no introduction to the voters of the county. They know him for what he is—an honest, upright citizen who respects the law in private life and who will enforce the law in public life as Sheriff.

Mr. Alexander is qualified for the office he seeks. He stands first, last and all the time for law enforcement. He promises, if elected, to give the County an administration of law and order in keeping with his talents. He will treat every citizen in the county equal before the law. He has no grudges to overcome or prejudices to bury. He stands four-square before the people capable, competent, courageous. A vote for him is a vote for better government and stricter law enforcement.
