NATIONAL RADIO AUDITION HAS GOOD START

Mrs. M. McNeely Is Pleased As Several Enter In Contest

Mrs. M. McNeely, local chairman of the Fifth National Radio Audition by the Atwater Kent Foundation of Philadelphia, is optimistic with prospects of having a large amount of interest in the contest locally. She is inaugurating a campaign in Hall county to find some local singer who may qualify to participate in the division of $25,000 in cash and ten musical scholarships that will go to the national finalists.

Several enter contest. According to Mrs. McNeely, several local singers have already entered the contest and others have signified their intentions of doing so. Mrs. McNeely stated further that anyone desiring to enter the audition could do so by getting in touch with her. All county music teachers may submit the names of local singers between the ages of 18 and 25. A committee to assist Mrs. McNeely in preparation of the audition to be held locally around the first of September, will be appointed by next week.

Tractors Must Be Kept Off Bridges, Court Bill Reads

The Hall County Commissioners' Court met in special session last Saturday morning and a resolution which will prohibit tractors from passing over county highway bridges was passed. The resolution ordered further that the commissioner in each precinct will have signs, warning tractor owners, placed in the vicinity of each bridge in his respective precinct. County officers were instructed, in the order, to arrest and prosecute any one guilty of violation.

The court made a joint agreement with Childress and Motley counties to make repairs on the bridge over Pease river on the Childress, Northfield and Matador road just south of the Hall county line. Motley county agreed to furnish the material and Childress and Hall counties will share the cost of the labor. Two 50-foot steel spans will be raised and a new flooring laid on the bridge.

DISTRICT PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE TO CONDUCT CLINICS IN COUNTY

Free public health clinics, under the direction of Miss Violet Jones, district public health nurse, will be held in Estelline, Turkey and Lakeview, August 10, 11, and 12. Monday, August 10, the health unit will work in the basement of the Methodist church at Estelline; Tuesday, August 11, the high school building at Turkey; and Wednesday, August 12, the high school building at Lakeview.

Supply Exhausted. The State Department of Health, in the beginning of the immunization campaign, offered to furnish, to the people of Texas, the biologics absolutely free of charges, but due to the fact that there was such a large demand for the typhoid serums, the supply was exhausted before Hall county was furnished. The health committee then appealed to the Commissioners' Court for an appropriation to purchase the biologics. The money was appropriated as requested.

Appropriation Made. According to Mrs. Roy L. Guthrie, secretary of the County Health Committee, the Commissioners were very lenient in making this appropriation, being in no way obligated to bring the immunization to Hall county citizens, and it is the opinion of the committee that people who are able and willing to pay for their own immunization should do so due to the rather serious financial condition of the court. A charge of ten cents per dose or thirty cents per immunization for typhoid biologics will be charged, for those who wish to pay, but the smallpox and diphtheria serums will be given free.

A full clinic that will be helpful to all parents and citizens will be held and those interested in the examination or health conferences regarding their children or themselves are invited to attend, it was stated. "It is the sincere hope that the people of Hall county will avail themselves of this opportunity of immunizing their families against the three most dreadful and contagious diseases known," Mrs. Guthrie said.

A report comes from Miss Ruby M. Adams that two Hall County club women, Mrs. Dot Webster and Mrs. C. E. Stilwell have been able to standardize their canned wheat. This means that Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Stilwell may sell the wheat with the state's "Better Product" seal on their product.

"It is a real pride for those wishing to sell things to work them up to the point that they are approved by the committee at A. & M. College," Miss Adams said. "Many nice things were said about the wheat sent in by these two women. These are the first to ask for standard products and they were approved with the first attempt. This will assure those buying from these two women that they are buying a clean, well-packed standard product."

Abilities To Recoup Losses Show New Promise As Result Recent Rains

Lawns and walks about a riot of green and promise of beauty. Vegetation is a sort of barometer of life in the country. If it is up and coming and vigorous and bloom of growth, you will find their part in the fields and about the country.

We believe the season we now enjoy will be supplemented with better and will become the favoring tail wind of business, that will assist us out of the valley of depression that has been an unceasing trial for many months. We should now attain the tableland of less taut nerves, better digestions, and the content that comes of material well being.

That monster, the Turk, Ali Bey—Those beasts, the eunuchs—Those hideous days, nights—Can she—could any woman—ever forget?

Hirpsima, or, in American, Rose, was sixteen—in the first blush of womanhood—when wild Kurdish tribesmen swooped down upon her home—murdered her father—drove her mother to death—tore her screaming sister away—and flung her—a slave—into the harem of that merciless wolf, the dread Turkish General, Ali Bey.

professors are hooting him boisterously. He has parleyed around over oil and has shown a disposition to parley over cotton. He had one of these red, white and blue lights that go on and off when a bell rings put up in order that he might cross a street in safety.

And that is not all—not by a long shot. He didn't move into the garage after all. In addition to this constructive legislation, he reiterated a famous battle cry, "They shall not pass," although he probably didn't know it, and sent a flying squadron of the Oklahoma National Guard, a dozen or so officers and three or four privates, to the bridge.

It seems that some old Spanish treaties give the Governor of Oklahoma priority rights over the Governor of Texas and enable him to quash or squash indictments returned in Federal court. Since the old Spanish treaties clear up this point of law, it appears that free bridges not only should remain free, but must remain free. Murray says he will appeal to the Supreme Court if the old Spanish treaties should turn out to be something other than old Spanish treaties. At that, the Governor may be wrong. It could be that the old Spanish treaties are nothing more than old Spanish customs, but I am not qualified to argue this point.

The commander-in-chief, Mr. Murray, took charge of the national guard at the bridge and defied an invasion of the sovereign state of Oklahoma. The injunction was lifted and Oklahoma was saved. Newspapers hailed the savior with "Murray Wins Bridge War." More salutar than bridge, it appears to me. And now the Governor, not content to rest on his laurels, is keeping the national guard at the bridge. In time it may become the bridge of sighs.

Aside from Mr. Murray's career as a statesman, I have often wondered whether or not he drinks coffee from a mustache cup. In our family album are several pictures that are exact replicas of the Oklahoma—that is, the mustache part, and I remember distinctly that these gentlemen made good use of such a cup. I'll never be satisfied until I find out about this personal trait of the Governor, if that it be. At that, he is capable of covering his own bridge work admirably.

For Strictly Amateurs This contest is to be conducted strictly on amateur basis, according to the chairman. Every contestant must swear before a notary public that he or she has not sung in any other contest this year or appeared under contract on the stage, it was said.

Practically all winners of the four previous Radio auditions are now well along the road to success, by virtue of concert engagements, professional broadcasting and, more recently, the sound movies, for which young singers who screen well are in demand, Mrs. McNeely said.

Anxious for Entrants "I am anxious for boys and girls of every town in Hall county to enter in the local audition," Mrs. McNeely said. "The judges will be outstanding musicians from nearby counties, and I feel that everyone participating in the contest will be given an equal chance to win."

"I would like very much to talk with anyone interested in entering the audition. Anyone in the county who cares to enter may secure the necessary entrance blanks from me."

Drivers of sixes never want less

because it takes six cylinders to give the smooth, silent power that makes driving really enjoyable

CHEVROLET Drivers of sixes are spoiled for anything less. Drivers of sixes are sold on multiple cylinders. They would no more think of giving up "six" performance than any other real advancement of motoring. For them, the whole cylinder question has been settled.

Slip behind the wheel of a Chevrolet Six, and you'll know why these drivers feel as they do. Step on the starter, let the motor idle—and notice its silence. Throw in the clutch, shift into "low"—and feel that smoothness. Change into "second," hit a faster and faster clip, slip into "high," sweep along at top speed—then throttle down to barely a crawl. The smoothness and flexibility you always get are six-cylinder smoothness, six-cylinder flexibility. Annoying vibration is gone!

Over two million owners have tested and proved this six-cylinder Chevrolet engine. They have found that it costs less for gas and oil than any other. They have found that it actually reduces upkeep costs, by holding vibration to a minimum. They know a six is better in every way—and they would never be satisfied with less!

Twenty beautiful models, at prices ranging from $475 to $675
 All prices f. o. b. Flint, Michigan, special equipment extra. Low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms.
