Bowlers to Get Shot at Prizes

Play started this week in the new bowling league organized last week by captains of the eight teams entered. J. C. Reeves, manager of the Reeves Alleys where the teams will play, announced Tuesday that prizes will be given at the end of the league season. Prizes will go to the three top teams; to the bowler of the highest score in one game for men, and a similar prize for women; to both men and women second high single-game scores; to the man who has the highest total for the three games of one match, and a similar prize for women; and to the team winning the dub prize for being at the bottom rung of the ladder.

Schedule of play for next week is as follows: Monday, September 18, Greenhaw's vs. Cudd-Combest; Tuesday, September 19, G-Men vs. Durham-Jones; Wednesday, September 20, Memphis Grocery vs. J. C. Woodruff; Thursday, September 21, Democrat vs. First National Bank.

Crop Prospects in Newlin Vicinity

The heat wave of the past three weeks, with extreme high temperatures and hot winds, has been responsible for a decided change in crop estimates in this area. After the heavy rains of August which produced 12 inches of rainfall, a bountiful harvest seemed assured, but at this date unless rain falls within a few days' time, crops will be cut about half. Half-grown bolls are opening and a few farmers are gathering the premature feed stuff and cotton.

P. T. A. to Present Program

The first Parent-Teacher program will be presented Thursday night, September 21, instead of the regular date of the third Friday night, because of plans for the school to attend the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo on Rural School Day, Friday, September 22. The following program has been outlined by the committee: Opening songs by audience. Invocation, local pastor. Business meeting, and secretary's report. "P. T. A. Aims for the Year," by Mrs. Frank Ellis. "How P. T. A. Helps the Community and School," by Lloyd Fowler, secretary of the board. "Plans for Rural School Music Program," by Miss Mary Foreman, county music supervisor. "Visual Education Demonstration," by students. Special music by Kinard orchestra.

With the second week of school starting, Superintendent Cheves states that Newlin school has the second largest enrollment of rural schools in the county with 74 students. For the convenience of the students and teachers, the third, fourth, and fifth grades now occupy the southwest room upstairs—much to the elation of the little pupils, who feel that being "upstairs" is quite a promotion.

This convenience gives all the students above the third grade access to the reading room under the supervision of a teacher at all times. The lunch program will begin again next Monday under the same management as last year. The program will begin at the request of a large percentage of the students and their parents who find the convenience of getting well-balanced lunches with suitable drink for five cents each day far more economical than preparing lunches at home.

Back to College

With vacation days at an end, several boys and girls of this community have left their homes for institutions of higher learning. Miss LaTrice Sims left last Friday for Fort Worth where she will be a senior in Texas Wesleyan College. C. A. Powell Jr. left for Texas Tech at Lubbock where he will be a third-year student in business administration. J. S. Solomon enters McMurry College at Abilene for his second term. Solomon plans to become a commercial air pilot and is studying that line of work. Misses Mary and Frankie Gresham will enter Texas Tech as third year students, having had two years at Texas Wesleyan at Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Newton of Lela are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Frank Solomon, this week. Mrs. Solomon has been ill, but is better at this time. Joe Nelson of San Antonio and Hugh Nelson and children, Hugh Jr. and Marion, spent several days of last week visiting their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Nelson, and their sisters, Mrs. T. K. Wilton and Mrs. G. W. Heim. Mrs. Horace Hardin of Midland spent several days visiting in the home of her uncle, D. C. Mes-

District Has New Deputy Warden

Announcement was received here last week that Bob Barnett, ex-sheriff of Randall County, has been selected as deputy game warden of this district. Mr. Barnett began his duties September 1, and will have charge of the game law enforcement of this and six surrounding counties.

The new game warden will make his home in Clarendon. He will work under Austin O'Neil of Wellington, who was recently elevated to captain in the game department. Mr. Barnett served two terms as sheriff of Randall County, ending his services January 1.

She also visited her uncle, Edd Leary of Estelline. Mrs. Lydia Lawrence of San Jon, N. M., visited here last week. Mrs. Van Crow and daughter Mary visited Saturday with Mrs. Crow's sister in Lefors.

W. E. Burnett returned Sunday from Mena, Ark., where he was called by the death of his sister, Mrs. Fannie Morrow. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hamp Duckett.

Mrs. Moody McCullough and children visited her sister, Mrs. Pat Vardy, here last week. Mrs. McCullough had been at the bedside of her father, W. L. Kellison, who had been ill for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Glover and daughter Sue and Mrs. W. R. Glover of Spade spent the weekend with relatives here.

Nazarene Church To Start 2-Weeks Revival Monday

Wellington Pastor to Hold Two Daily Services; Meeting To Close September 30

Rev. Leo L. Lawrence, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at Wellington, will begin a two-week revival at the Memphis Church of the Nazarene Monday night, September 18. The meeting will close Sunday night, September 30.

Two services will be held each day during the meeting. Time for the morning services has not yet been definitely decided, Rev. O. B. Hoffpauir, pastor, said Wednesday. The night services will begin at 8 o'clock, the pastor stated.

Rev. Lawrence held a revival meeting at Newlin about two years ago, Rev. Hoffpauir said. He has been serving as pastor at Wellington for the past several months.

Rev. Hoffpauir will have charge of the regular services next Sunday. He urged and invited everyone to attend the revival services.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning the pastor will bring a message on the subject, "One Thing," taken from Luke 11:41. We believe that this will be a timely thought for us just at this time. We are busy about many things but there is one thing needed. Sunday evening the message will be on the subject, "Overthrown by Sin," with 1 Cor. 10:5-15 as the scripture lesson. Every person should be on the alert always because many are liable to be overthrown by sin. We need to be concerned, therefore, this message Sunday evening.

The Sunday school and E. T. U. are doing good work, and we wish so much that everybody would find their place in these services. Come Sunday to find your place in both of these services. Sunday school is at 9:45, morning preaching service at 11, B. T. U. at 7 and the evening worship at 8. May we remember the Lord on Wednesday, too, and attend the mid-week prayer service at 8:15.

Rev. J. Wm. Mason, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

This Thursday evening we are looking forward to the coming of Rev. and Mrs. Rayburn, of Newton, Kans., who will conduct a service at the high school building. Even as this paper goes to press we most cordially invite the many former friends of Dr. Rayburn, and people generally of all churches to be present in this service.

We anticipate special music next Sunday morning, and we assure you of our appreciation of your attendance. We often have a feeling that people who rarely attend church miss something that they really need in life.

Your best friends usually attend church service, and if they receive a blessing you probably would also if you made it a rule of life.

Visitors and friends will receive a most cordial welcome. Sympathy to all in sorrow.

E. C. Cargill, Pastor.

NAZARENE CHURCH

We wish to extend to everyone a glad welcome to our revival that begins September 18. The evangelist will be Rev. Leo L. Lawrence. Come hear his earnest messages. We earnestly desire the prayers of the Christians. Bring a friend or neighbor.

O. B. Hoffpauir, pastor.

Cotton a Liability

The McLean News: Cotton is out as a money crop and indications are that it will never be king in the South again. Cotton has always been a liability in this section when it is taken into consideration the harm what clean cultivation required by cotton does to our lighter soils. The sooner the farmer turns to other things, the better off the country will be. Mixed farming with a cow, sow, and hens on each farm, with raising a living at home stressed, will make for prosperity in any country, and we are fortunate here in that such a campaign could be easily entered into. The soil, climate, and market all combine to favor such a plan.

He Is Right

Deskins Wells in the Wellington Leader: What we need is a good rain and no war.

The deadline for accepting applications for 1937 cotton price adjustment payments is October 1, 1939. Applications for 1938 conservation payments must be made before January 1, 1940.

A recent check-up showed that Texas farmers have received more than 34 million dollars in 1937 cotton price adjustment payments, a few more of which are yet to be made; more than 59 million in 1938 (farm and range) conservation checks, which are being paid this year; more than 3 million in 1939 wheat price adjustment payments, and almost 5 and a half million in 1939 cotton price adjustment cash.

If America Goes to War—

More men, improved weapons, increased use of motorized units: that's the U. S. army in 1939.

THERE'S no stopping the European war now. It's on—and Americans only hope that the United States will keep out of it.

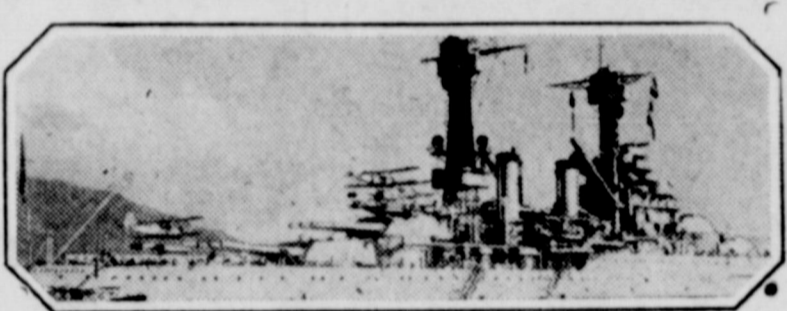

The government is on record for strict neutrality, pledged to do everything possible to prevent the necessity of sending American troops abroad. But, if the U. S. should go in—

The nation is better prepared today than it was in 1917. Because we are no longer a debtor nation and have few securities abroad, there is little danger of a panic. The neutrality act that—at present, at least—prohibits export of war materials precludes possibility of a boom.

The army is stronger. Its 13,000 officers and 180,000 men are ready for immediate overseas duty. The 200,000 enlisted in the National Guard could be prepared for front-line fighting in a short time.

Officers to train and lead recruits would come from the 100,000 men in the reserve corps. Likewise alert are the naval and air forces, increased to a new high of efficiency.

Entry into this war, however, probably would produce the most drastic regimentation of

A strong naval air force would supplement the work of American battleships in the next war.

4 Hall Counties Attend State Highway Hearing

Delegates Make Urgent Plea For Immediate Construction On Turkey-Clarendon Road

An urgent plea for immediate construction of the existing gaps on Highway 18 between Turkey and Clarendon, and between Clarendon and Pampa, was heard by the Texas Highway Commission Friday, September 1, when a delegation from Turkey and Donley County appeared before the commission.

Attending the hearing from Hall County were Roy Russell, Lee Vardy, and Dr. H. Gilmore of Turkey, and Representative Allen Harp of Lakeview.

Sam Braswell, Clarendon publisher, opened the hearing with a resume of the projected route and introduced the speakers assigned to the various phases of the presentation. Judge Sherman White of Gray County headed the county courts group, and Judge R. Y. King of Donley County spoke for the participation of that county in the proposal offered with the string of immediate construction tied to the offer.

Senator Clint Small of Amarillo, appearing with the delegation and closing the argument for them, stressed the fact that in his opinion the North-South Highway 18 project was the "most important highway project in this district."

Brady P. Gentry, chairman of the commission, emphasized that the department is now hard pressed for funds, and asked the indulgence of the counties involved if work on the project was delayed. A decision on the project will be made in the near future, he said.

A meeting of Highway 18 boosters was held in Turkey in July, at which time delegates

Infantile Paralysis Dangerous Disease; But Few Cases Ever Reported Here

Infantile paralysis, like typhoid fever and intestinal disturbances of infants, is largely a summer disease. Although cases may occur during any month of the year, over half of the total number occur during July, August, September, and October. To date, 109 cases of poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) have been reported to the Texas State Department of Health in 1939.

Direct contact between persons is regarded as being the chief factor in the spread of infantile paralysis. Because of the seasonal prevalence of the disease, flies and other insects have been suspected of conveying the virus or germ. Insect transmission has not, however, been scientifically proven. Although animals are subject to paralysis, they are seemingly not susceptible to the human type of this paralytic disease. Carriers are difficult to determine; this fact makes advisable the reduction to a minimum of human contacts during an outbreak.

Early symptoms of infantile paralysis comprise headache, fever, vomiting, intestinal disorder, drowsiness and irritability, followed by neck or back stiffness. Prompt medical care, early recognition and reporting of cases to health authorities make possible the use of valuable preventive and control measures.

After the acute state of the disease has passed and walking is permitted, the patient, under no circumstances, must allow the affected part to become fatigued. It is thus observed that the secret of successful rehabilitation lies in continuance of professional guidance and large doses of patience.

Dr. J. A. Odom, Memphis physician, said Monday that he knew of very few cases of infantile paralysis ever having been reported in Memphis. He further stated that he knew no particular reason for the scarcity of the cases here any more so than at any other place.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the Junior High building Thursday, September 21, at 3:15 o'clock. A program will be given. All mothers of Junior High students are urged to attend.

Mrs. A. W. Guill Made Carnegie Librarian by Board

Urges Return of Overdue Books; Fine of Two Cents Per Day to Be Enforced

Mrs. A. W. Guill was chosen as Carnegie librarian last week to succeed Miss Bird Preslar, who resigned because of ill health, at a meeting of the Carnegie Library board.

The new librarian has been high school librarian for the past one and a half years, and is well-experienced in this type of work. Miss Preslar became ill sometime ago, and since that time Mrs. Cicero Milam has been acting librarian.

Mrs. Guill took charge of the library Wednesday of last week. She said Tuesday that fines on overdue books would be charged in the future. Date due slips are being placed in all books loaned out now, and the borrower will be able to tell when a book is due. Heretofore, there was no way for the borrower to determine the date a book was due unless the date was remembered.

The fine on overdue books will be two cents per day, Mrs. Guill announced. These fines will not be charged, however, on books now loaned without the date due slip in them. She urged borrowers to return all books so that a complete checkup might be made.

Twelve new books for the library arrived this week. Among them is the Pulitzer prize winning novel of 1939, "The Yearlings," by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings. Another prize-winning novel just received is Elizabeth Seifert's "Young Dr. Galahad."

Mrs. Lloyd Hicks was chosen to succeed Mrs. R. E. L. Pattillo, who recently moved to Lubbock as a member of the library board. S. T. Harrison was elected chairman of the board to succeed F. N. Foxhall, who has served as chairman for a number of years. Mrs. Cicero Milam was re-elected secretary of the board.

Mrs. D. C. Freeman returned Tuesday to her home at Temple after a visit here with her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. E. Clark.

MARRIES FORMER MEMPHIAN—Mrs. Cearley Read Kinard, who before her marriage last Saturday morning was Miss Jane Guinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Guinn of Abilene. The couple will live in New York City, where Mr. Kinard is employed. This picture, courtesy of the Abilene Reporter, was received too late to be used on the society page.

Firestone

always leads

Never before in our experience has a tire met with such instant approval as the FIRESTONE CHAMPION TIRE! It's the safety sensation of 1939 and has so met with the approval of our customers that it has become the biggest selling tire we have ever made. Motor car manufacturers are so impressed by its superior performance that they adopted it for their 1939 models!

WHY? Because Firestone has incorporated into it entirely new principals in safety engineering!

STRONGER CORD BODY. A new type of cord has been developed called "Safety Lock" in which the cotton fibers are more closely interwoven to insure cooler running and provide greater strength. Then the cords, each individual cord in each ply is securely interlocked by Firestone's exclusive new process called Gum-Dripping. This greater strength means greater safety.

MORE NON-SKID MILEAGE. The new Safety Lock construction provides the extra strength needed for the use of the new, thicker, tougher, deeper Firestone Gear Grip tread which delivers remarkable longer non-skid mileage. This new tread is called gear-grip because of its unique design—it has more than 3,000 sharp-edge angles which grip the road with sure-footed hold to insure your safety.

Drive in today and equip your car with these fine Firestones—the only tire that has been safety-proven on the speedway for your protection!

Here is very important news for you. News of America's Finest Butane Gas System—a fully Self-Contained "FLASH VAPORIZATION" SYSTEM.

AS MODERN AS TOMORROW

FLASH-O GAS SYSTEM
PATENT APPLIED FOR • STATE APPROVED

OUR GUARANTEE
Each Flash-O-Gas System is thoroughly tested and inspected before leaving the factory and is continuously guaranteed. It is also guaranteed to continuously deliver to the appliances a uniform vapor in true proportion to the liquid gas in the tank.

FLASH-O-GAS SYSTEMS are built in a complete range of sizes to take care of small, medium and large homes, schools, churches, restaurants, tourist camps, etc.

With Flash-O-Gas System
the liquid is fed through a dip pipe from a point near the bottom of the tank to a pressure regulator and this atomized gas is carried thru 75 feet of 3/4 inch copper tubing coiled along the bottom of the tank utilizing the latent heat in the liquid to serve as a heat exchanger to thoroughly vaporize the gas before being fed through the low pressure regulator thence to appliances.

With The Result That

- 1st. There can be no accumulation of dead or low-end fuel; there can be no accumulation of concentrated Butane.
- 2nd. The mixture and boiling point in the fuel remains the same, even when the tank is low on fuel. Greater increased vaporization capacity.
- 3rd. The vapor gas to the appliances is continuously uniform. Continued perfect performance of all appliances.

FLASH VAPORIZATION
Is now being highly recommended by the highest Butane authorities.

IT WILL PAY YOU to carefully investigate this Better Butane Gas System.

F. H. A. TERMS
are available on Flash-O-Gas plants. Full 36 months to pay at a very low rate of interest.
