

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY ELDORADO LIONS

The Eldorado Lions Club held their annual banquet, ladies' night and installation of officers for the ensuing year last night at the West Texas Cafe.

The program was arranged by Rev. A. J. Quinn, who installed the officers for the new year beginning on July 1. A feature of the occasion was the presentation of badges to the past presidents of the local club.

The principal address of the occasion was delivered by District Governor Stokes, of Sonora. Another out of town guest was John Eaton, president-elect of the Sonora Lions Club.

The excellent three course dinner and other features of the evening were enjoyed by a large number of Lions and their guests, both local and from neighboring towns.

Officers installed by Rev. Quinn were as follows:

Sid Stapp Receives Painful Burns

Sid Stapp, who resides on the Vernon Porter Ranch, in the Adams community, was the victim of painful burns late Monday evening, his hands and arms being severely burned.

Mr. Stapp was filling the burners of an Electrolux ice box with what he supposed to be kerosene. By mistake, however, he picked up a container of gasoline, which caught fire, throwing the blazing liquid over his hands and arms.

He was rushed to San Angelo for treatment. Although painfully burned, he was reported Thursday to be doing nicely.

SECRETARY OF STATE WARNS OF BAD STOCKS

Gerald C. Mann, secretary of state, advises that every citizen should be very careful and have all questions as to registration answered to their complete satisfaction before buying any stocks, bonds, oil leases, royalty, or any other form of investment securities from a salesman, and particularly so when the salesman is a stranger.

Designed to curb the fraudulent and crooked seller of securities, Texas' new Securities Act requires every securities dealer, agent and salesman to be registered with the state. Any citizen may determine for himself if the salesman is registered by writing to the secretary of state. The records are open to the public.

The state does not propose to guarantee or endorse any stock, bond or other security. However, salesmen may be held strictly accountable for statements made in the sale of securities.

The important thing, according to Secretary Mann, is to be sure the salesman is registered.

J. W. Doak, cotton adjustment assistant for Schleicher, Sterling, Tom Green and Irion counties, was in Eldorado Wednesday to check cotton records in the office of County Agent C. Snell.

Local Projects Wanted By Relief Commission

Austin, June 12.— County relief administrators have been advised by J. B. Keely, chief engineer of the Texas Relief Commission; to develop projects in co-operation with local governmental agencies to be carried on under the new Works Progress Administration.

While no definite instructions have been received with reference to submission of new works projects, administrators were advised that the engineering department of the Texas Relief Commission will receive applications, in the form of briefs, and pass them thru the proper channels for consideration.

Briefs will include accurate estimates of costs for the various types of labor, for materials, for equipment, and other items. The governmental agencies co-operating in the projects will be expected to assist in financing them insofar as possible. Actual submission of projects will be delayed until new forms and regulations have been received. From all indications, projects will be considered proper if they satisfy the following conditions:

Projects must be useful and constructive in nature.

Projects shall be of such nature that a considerable portion of the money spent will go into wages for labor.

Projects which promise ultimate return of the money to the treasury are desired.

Projects should be so designed that activities may be carried to a successful conclusion within a reasonable period of time, and not be carried over into succeeding years.

In all cases, projects must be of a character to give employment to those on relief rolls.

Projects will be allotted to localities or relief areas in relation to the number of workers on the relief rolls in those areas.

Projects must be designed to move persons from relief rolls to work on such projects that will force a maximum number of persons from relief rolls into private industry in the shortest time possible.

It will be necessary that careful plans and specifications be developed with each project.

HISTORIAN SEEKS DATA ON SCHLEICHER COUNTY

Tom A. Keene, of San Antonio, historian for Naylor's Epic-Century Magazine, is in the city, securing data for a general historical and industrial write-up of Schleicher county, which will appear in a forthcoming issue of his publication.

Mr. Keene is an old newspaper man and has been associated with various publications in Texas and elsewhere for more than thirty years. During this time he has devoted a great deal of his time to the compilation of data on various historic events in Texas and the Southwest.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses have been issued during the past week by County Clerk J. P. Isaacs:

Aaron Steward and Miss Zadia McAngus;

B. A. Whitten and Miss Zella Mercer.

CATTLE OF COUNTY TO GET FEDERAL TB TEST

Beginning next Monday, and continuing thru the next two weeks, or possibly longer, cattle of Schleicher county will be given the official government TB tests by representatives of the federal bureau of animal industry.

Included in the test will be all dairy animals, all bulls, all registered stock of all kinds, and ten per cent of the grade range stock in the county.

On Thursday of this week I. E. Barr, supervisor, and L. A. Brunson, assistant, representing the bureau, were in Eldorado to make arrangements for the tests, and will be joined next Monday by six veterinarians of the federal Department of Agriculture.

Owners of livestock to be given the tests will be notified of the time when the inspectors will be ready to inspect their stock. No charge is made for this service, and full co-operation of all livestock owners is asked, in order that the work in this county may be expedited as much as possible.

The inspectors estimate that at least two weeks will be required to make the tests in this county, and in case of bad weather or other delays, more time may be required.

This is a valuable service to all owners of livestock and to the county as a whole, and the full co-operation of all concerned is earnestly solicited.

Second Notice Given On Cotton Certificates

Due to the fact that the former request to bring in 1934 cotton tax exemption certificates was overlooked by some holders of these certificates, C. Snell, county agent, again urges all such certificate holders to bring their papers to his office immediately.

Mr. Snell emphasizes that these certificates are worthless unless they are sent in and the color is changed. J. W. Doak, of the San Angelo office, will be here next week to take up the certificates, and it is necessary that they be turned in to Mr. Snell at once.

Bankhead Applications Go To College Station

A total of 184 Bankhead applications for cotton exemption certificates for 1935 were sent to the state review board at College Station this week, according to C. Snell, county agent. Of these applications, 179 were from farmers of Schleicher county, and five were from Sutton county.

RATLIFF STORE PRESENTS GREAT BARGAIN EVENT

Beginning tomorrow and continuing thru the next two weeks, the Ratliff Store presents to the shopping public of Eldorado and surrounding territory one of the biggest bargain events ever put on in this county.

Practically all lines of merchandise carried in this progressive store are included in this sale. Your attention is invited to their ad appearing in this issue of The Success.

Bus Service Doubled On Kerrville Route

Effective Monday, June 10, the Kerrville Bus Company has increased its service between San Angelo and San Antonio to two trips daily in each direction, instead of the one trip which had formerly been made.

According to the new schedule a bus leaves San Antonio at 7:15 a. m., arriving at Eldorado at 12:55 p. m. and San Angelo at 2:00 p. m. The second north-bound bus leaves San Antonio at 2:00 p. m., arriving here at 7:45 and San Angelo at 8:45 p. m.

The first south bound bus now leaves San Angelo at 9:40 a. m., arriving here at 10:30 a. m. and San Antonio at 4:35 p. m.

The second south-bound bus leaves San Angelo at 1:45 p. m., arriving here at 2:35 and San Antonio at 8:15 p. m.

Nice Peaches Grown At Tom Jones Home

As evidence that Schleicher county is not to be counted out when considering fruit-growing sections of Texas, three peaches were exhibited downtown Monday afternoon that appeared to be the equal of anything in the peach line that we've seen grown in the state.

They were grown at the Tom Jones home north of town, and they had the size, shape and color of mighty good peaches. We didn't get to sample one, and so can't vouch for the flavor, but we'd gamble that they were all right in that detail, too.

Million Dollars Spent On Repair of Schools

Austin, June 12.— The Texas Relief Commission has put approximately $1,000,000 into the construction and repair of some 800 school buildings in the state during the past year, it was announced this week by Adam R. Johnson, state relief director.

Emphasizing physical improvements to many of the school structures of the state as one of the most important contributions made by the labor of persons receiving relief, Johnson said some idea of the scope of the work done may be gained from the following summary:

Schools repaired 755, new additions 48, general new construction and repair 126, college buildings repaired 4, new college construction 4.

These figures do not include stadiums, athletic fields, improved water supplies or new and improved sanitary facilities separate from school buildings, nor do various other projects, such as the grading and landscaping of the grounds, appear in the above summary.

Repair and rehabilitation work embraced roofing, strengthening and replacement of foundations, new flues to remove fire hazards, painting, cleaning of buildings and grounds, as well as major overhaul of structures.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Alexander and Mrs. Angie Huey left Thursday morning for Temple, where Mr. Alexander goes for another examination and treatment of his eye. It is now thought that the eye can be saved.

INTEREST RATE CUT ON LANDBANK LOANS

The interest rate on all Federal Land Bank loans made thru National Farm Loan Associations will be reduced to 3½ per cent for all interest payable in the one year period commencing July 1, 1935, and to 4 per cent for all interest payable in the two-year period commencing July 1, 1936 according to W. F. Meador, secretary and treasurer of the Eldorado National Farm Loan Association. This announcement was made on June 6, when Mr. Meador was notified of the new loan rate by A. C. Williams, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston and general agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston.

This temporary reduction of interest on Federal Land Bank loans having installments due prior to July 1, 1938, is the result of new legislation, the Farm Credit Act of 1935, which was signed by President Roosevelt on June 3. Interest payable on installment dates occurring after July 30, 1938, will be at the original contract rate, which is 4-4 per cent on loans now being made thru National Farm Loan Associations, and varies from 5 to 6 per cent on loans made prior to April 1, 1935.

The Farm Credit Act of 1935 also provides for another important innovation. Under its terms, the Land Bank Commissioner may now make loans to finance the purchase of farms by deserving tenant farmers. Formerly, commissioner loans could be secured only for the purpose of refinancing debts, for repurchasing farms lost thru foreclosure, and for working capital. The Act extends to January 1, 1940, the time in which the Land Bank Commissioner may make direct loans to farmers on first and second mortgages. The commissioner loan plus any prior encumbrances on the property may not exceed 75 per cent of the appraised normal value.

Commenting on the new provisions, Mr. Meador said: "The new provision enabling the Land Bank Commissioner to make loans for the purpose of purchasing farms provides a new opportunity for young farmers and deserving tenants to become farm owners and home owners in their own right. We shall be glad to talk things over with worthy tenants who wish to buy farms of their own."

Since May 12, 1933, when the Farm Credit Administration was established, the Federal Land Bank of Houston, acting for itself and as agent for the Land Bank Commissioner, has made 42,738 loans aggregating $129,192,350.00. This is almost as large as the amount of business carried on the books of the bank on May 1, 1933, after 17 years of operation. The interest rate reduction provided by the Act will affect only Federal Land Bank loans, all of which are first mortgage loans. The interest rate on Land Bank Commissioner loans, which are made on either first or second mortgages on farm property, will remain unchanged at 5 per cent.

Rev. and Mrs. P. S. Connell and son returned Thursday afternoon from a visit of several days with friends in South Texas.

Williams Resigns As Commissioner No. 1

The commissioners' court of Schleicher county met in regular monthly session at the court house Monday.

The resignation of John Williams as commissioner of Precinct No. One was tendered and was accepted by the court. Hugh McAngus was appointed by H. W. Finley, county judge, to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Williams, and was qualified as commissioner.

The remainder of the session was taken up with routine business.

Sheriff's Office Gets New Typewriter

At the meeting of the county commissioners on Monday, the county purchased for the office of the sheriff and tax assessor a new Remington ledger typewriter with 27-inch carriage. The new machine is one of the largest models made.

The sale was made by The Eldorado Success, local Remington agents, and the typewriter was immediately delivered to Sheriff O. E. Conner.

Revival At Christoval Church of Christ

Evangelist Frank Traylor of Roscoe will begin a revival meeting at the Church of Christ, at Christoval, on June 21, to continue thru June 30. Mr. Gray, of Carrizo Springs, will have charge of the singing.

CONGRESSMAN TO SPEAK ON IMMIGRATION FRIDAY

Congressman Martin Dies of Texas will speak under the auspices of more than 100 patriotic societies on the night of June 21, from 9:30 to 10 p. m., over the National Broadcasting System. Mr. Dies will plead for immediate passage of his bill to stop all immigration permanently, from every country, deport the 3,500,000 aliens which he says are unlawfully in this country, and give to Americans all jobs from which Mr. Dies claims that 6,000,000 aliens are deriving their livelihood in this country.

In recognition of June 15 being National Housing Day, the farmers' short course committee of A. & M. College and the Federal Housing Administration will on that date start the farm improvement exhibits to be shown in connection with the Short Course, according to W. A. Orth, farm representative who is working in co-operation with the committee.

Sheriff O. E. Conner returned the first of the week after attending the convention of the State Sheriffs' Association in Edinburg last week. Sheriff Love Kimbrough of Brady was elected as president of the officers for the ensuing year.

A. J. Burk on last Monday hauled two truck loads of sheep from Brady to Ozona. Mr. Burk states that these were the best sheep that he has handled in some time, all being fat and in excellent condition.

FARM LOAN RATE

Reduction of interest rates on farm loans, as announced this week by the Federal Land Banks, is a gesture in the right direction. Whether it is as much as a step in the right direction remains to be proven. Interest rates on both urban and farm real estate have been too high and have discouraged home ownership. The present lowering of the interest rate will increase farm ownership during the period of the temporary reduction. In the light of future developments it may turn out to be a constructive movement, or it may have no effect in the end other than granting a special privilege to those now able to grasp the opportunity.

No one will begrudge a few thousand tenants the privilege of buying farms at an especially low government subsidized rate. The tenants have had privileges in this day of dispensation of government bounty, and no dispensation of this kind will be more constructive than one that encourages home buying. But the point is this: If the government is going to lead the way toward the lower interest rates on home mortgages, it must do more than merely enter the field with low-interest-rate loans. Interest rates have been high because private lenders could not afford to lend for less.

The mortgage holder has few friends and defense of him is not popular. But the mere fact that the terrific contraction of values in the last few years has carried value of collateral property far below the face value of notes in many instances is proof that the lender was right in assuming that the loans made in the boom period were risky, and properly called for a high interest rate. At present a loan of low interest rate on a high percentage of appraised value of property ought to be good business, because values are contracted to the irreducible minimum. Yet if the government is going to support a program of lending directly, or even if it hopes to initiate a period of low rates from private sources, the government program for economic security must be extended to cover the lenders. Otherwise lending will be unprofitable, whether backed by the government or not.—Dallas News.

THE END OF THE NRA

It is doubtful if any law ever passed in this country stirred up so much discussion and dissent as the act creating the NRA.

Now, a year and a half after its birth, the argument has finally ended, and all the voices which fought about its legality are still.

The Supreme Court has decided that the NRA violates the Constitution. The decision is unanimous, all nine justices concurring in the opinion read by Mr. Hughes.

Briefly, the court has ruled that Congress exceeded its authority when it delegated to the president the power to promulgate codes of fair competition; that the federal government has not the power to regulate hours and wages in transactions affecting intrastate commerce; that the NRA is therefore invalid.

It is possible that elimination of NRA will cause a certain amount of hardship in some industries, but without criticizing the splendid intentions of those responsible for the act, the decision of the court will be of great benefit to the country. It shows that the Constitution is not dead, and that constitutional freedom still exists and cannot be negated by legislative fiat.

The NRA failed to set up the government as a dictator over all business, and it is not difficult to believe that the founders of the country would be the first to approve of the Supreme Court's history-making decision.

WHAT IS LEFT OF AAA?

Speculation has been plentiful as to just what bearing the anti-NRA decision by the United States Supreme Court has upon the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. A partial answer, but perhaps only partial, is given by the action of the House of Representatives committee on agriculture in redrafting the administrations set of proposed amendments to the AAA act.

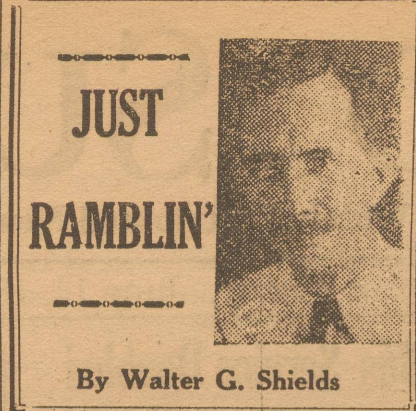

To understand this situation clearly it is essential to recognize the difference between the two principal activities or methods employed by the AAA. These were:

1. The domestic allotment plan based on processing taxes. This involves crop reduction contracts by producers, who in turn receive cash benefits. This is in operation in various basic commodities including cotton, wheat, corn and hogs. This crop control, with its processing taxes, is not directly affected by the Supreme Court decision, and remains in force.

2. The marketing agreement and licensing plan, which corresponded almost exactly with NRA codes. This was used chiefly in the case of milk and dairy products, fruits and vegetables, unsuccessfully attempted in meat. The method involved contract among dealers and with the secretary of agriculture to pay stipulated prices to producers. Enforcement depended upon the licensing of these dealers. This whole method is plainly illegal under the Schechter case decision.

The revision of the proposed AAA amendments necessarily will abandon the whole provision for marketing agreements and licensing, but would still attempt to accomplish the same purpose by authorizing the secretary to issue "orders" to apply to handlers of farm products. This mere substitution of words is utterly futile. The secretary certainly has not constitutional authority, and cannot be given any, to "order" things which could not validly be accomplished by agreement. And even if he could, do so, enforcement would be still less effective. Such agreements have not worked out altogether satisfactorily either, particularly from the consumers' point of view, and the administration may as well bow to the court's ruling.

Another portion of the proposed amendments would under take to specify more definite standards for the processing taxes. This may be worth while by way of conforming as closely as possible to the court's statement on delegation of powers, but in the opinion of some, the worst threat to the constitutionality of processing taxes lies in the way they have been administered—failing to adjust them to changes in prices. At any rate, these remain in effect until a test directly on them may reach the Supreme Court, and in the meantime they may as well be given as sound a legal basis as possible—Christian Science Monitor.

JUST RAMBLIN'

There hasn't been much chance for ramblin' during the past week with the amount of rain that has been coming our way. Unfortunately we have to ramble a couple of blocks off the highway to get home, and that couple of blocks is a pretty hard day's work right after a rain. We're pretty sure that the fellow who invented fly-paper must have been a resident of this section, or at least must have tried to walk thru here pretty soon after a rain.

And speaking of rain (as most everybody is, these days) we've decided that this is the wettest "dry" country we ever found. It was our understanding that this was a high and dry country. It's probably high enough, but we've just about decided to get down off the top of this mountain before we drown.

The present spell of weather appears to bring on considerable of an argument between the farmers and the stockmen. The former say we've had enough rain, and they want the ground to have a chance to get dry, so they can get some plowing done. And the latter claim that there never was such a thing as too much rain, and they're plumb willing to see every bit that can fall.

All of which makes us reflect on what a beautiful mess would result if folks could order weather just to suit their own convenience. For instance if some neighbors whose tanks were dry should put in an order for a good general soaking rain just when some other neighbor was harvesting grain, or picking cotton, or even going on a fishing trip, just think what a row there would be! Very likely we'd have a dozen civil wars started up inside of a month all because of our needs, real or imagined, for different kinds of weather.

So after considerable deliberation we believe we'll just let the weather alone, much as we sometimes wish we could regulate it just a little more according to our wishes.

Last Sunday Joe Chitty and this column held a mourners' convention to lament the fact that our town was located so far from any good fishing streams. We agreed that this fact constituted the most serious drawback to this section, and that it was about the only reason that made us wish to live elsewhere. Since then it looks like the elements are trying to remove our objection and bring all the available water right thru Eldorado. However, plenty of water doesn't mean plenty of fish, so the objection still stands.

Guess the convenience of a good place to fish in Brady sort of spoiled us. While living there we only had to go about twenty feet to Brady Creek, and while we didn't drag out any fifty-pounders, still we always felt that we had a chance of doing so most any afternoon. And that's half the fun of fishing, anyway.

But thinking about fishing makes us too homesick for a chance to hook a few perch and cats and such like critters. We'd better stop before we start shedding tears all down this column.

"Knee deep in June" is all right for the poet, but apparently not for the dairyman if he is knee deep in Sudan grass gone to seed.

WHOSE WORD WILL YOU TAKE FOR BLOWOUT PROTECTION?

Low wheels, larger tires, and the high speeds of today make blowout protection in your tires vital to your safety as never before. Are you accepting exaggerated and unsupported advertising and sales claims—or are you accepting the judgment of men who risk their lives on their tires and know from experience the tire that gives them the greatest blowout protection?

Thirty-three race drivers and their mechanics lined up for the dangerous, grueling grind of the 500-Mile Race at the Indianapolis Speedway May 30th. Firestone Tires were purchased and used on every one of the thirty-three cars. Not one of the drivers had tire trouble of any kind.

Gum-Dipping is one of the outstanding reasons why Firestone Tires give such amazing performance. By this process every cotton cord is soaked and every strand is insulated with pure liquid rubber, preventing internal friction and heat, the main cause of blowouts. Gum-Dipping is a patented extra process not used in any other make of tire.

Protect your life and the lives of others by equipping your car with Firestone Gum-Dipped High Speed Tires—the safest tires built. It will be worth your time to read these three questions and their answers:

QUESTION 1—"Will the tread give me the greatest traction and protection against skidding?"

ANSWER—Leading university tests show Firestone High Speed Tires stop your car 15% quicker than the best of other popular makes of tires.

QUESTION 2—"Are they built to give me the greatest blowout protection?"

ANSWER—Unequaled performance records for sixteen consecutive years prove that Gum-Dipping gives you the greatest blowout protection ever known.

QUESTION 3—"Without sacrificing these two important safety features will they give me longer mileage, thus making them the most economical tires I can buy?"

ANSWER—Thousands of car owners report unequaled mileage records—evidence of the longer wear and greater economy of Firestone High Speed Tires.

A Joint Resolution

proposing an Amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas by striking out Section 20a to Section 20e, both inclusive; prohibiting the open saloon and vesting in the Legislature the power to define and enact laws against such; vesting in the Legislature the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, transportation and possession of intoxicating liquors, including the power to provide for a State monopoly on the sale of distilled liquors; providing that intoxicating liquors shall not be manufactured, sold, bartered or exchanged in any county, justice's precinct or incorporated city or town wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option election held under the law in force at the date of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XV, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, until a majority of the qualified voters of such county, or political subdivision shall determine such to be lawful at an election held for that purpose; providing that such shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing less than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature; providing for an election on the question of the adoption or rejection of such Amendment; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication of such by the Governor and making an appropriation therefor.

"(c) In all counties, justice's precincts or incorporated towns or cities wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws of the State of Texas and in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, it shall continue to be unlawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in any such county, justice's precinct or incorporated town or city, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication or any other intoxicants whatsoever, for beverage purposes, unless and until a majority of the qualified voters in such county or political subdivision thereof voting in an election held for such purpose shall determine such to be lawful; provided that this subsection shall not prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages containing not more than 3.2 per cent alcohol by weight in cities, counties or political subdivisions thereof in which the qualified voters have voted to legalize such sale under the provisions of Chapter 116, Acts of the Regular Session of the 43rd Legislature."

A Joint Resolution

proposing to amend Sections 3 and 5 of Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas so as to permit the furnishing of State official text books free to every child of scholastic age, attending any school within the State.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article 7 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that hereafter it shall read as follows:

"Section 3. One-fourth of the revenue derived from the State occupation taxes and poll tax of One ($1.00) Dollar on every inhabitant of the State, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, shall be set apart annually, for the benefit of the public free schools; and in addition thereto there shall be levied and collected an annual ad valorem State tax of such an amount not to exceed Thirty-five Cents on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation, as with the available school fund arising from all other sources will be sufficient to maintain and support the public schools of the state for a period of not less than six months in each year, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Education to set aside, under such regulations and in such manner as may be provided by law, a sufficient amount out of the said tax to provide free text books for the use of children within the scholastic age attending any school in this state; provided, however, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the General Funds of the State and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by General Laws; and all such school districts may embrace parts of two or more counties, and the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the management and control of the public school or schools of such districts, whether such districts are composed of territory wholly within a county or in parts of two or more counties, and the Legislature may authorize an additional ad valorem tax to be levied and collected within all school districts heretofore formed or hereafter formed, for the further maintenance of public free schools, and for the erection and equipment of school buildings therein; provided that a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year One ($1.00) Dollar on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized shall not apply to incorporated cities or towns constituting separate and independent school districts, nor to independent or common school districts created by General or Special Law."

Sec. 2. That Section 5, Article 7, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so that hereafter it shall read as follows:

"Section 5. The principal of all bonds and other funds, and the principal arising from the sale of the lands hereinbefore set apart to said school fund, shall be the permanent school fund, and all the interest derivable therefrom and the taxes herein authorized and levied shall be the available school fund, to which the Legislature may add, not exceeding one per cent annually, of the total value of the permanent school fund, such value to be ascertained by the Board of Education until otherwise provided by law, and the available school fund shall be applied annually to the support of the public free schools. And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever; nor shall the same, or any part thereof ever be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school, provided that the State Board of Education may furnish State Adopted text books free to every child of scholastic age, attending any school within the State; and the available school fund herein provided shall be distributed to the several counties, as may be provided by law and applied in such manner as may be provided by law."

Sec. 3. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on Constitutional Amendments at the election to be held on the Fourth Saturday in August, 1935, at which election there shall be printed on each ballot the following:

"FOR THE AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS PERMITTING THE FURNISHING OF FREE TEXT BOOKS TO EVERY CHILD OF SCHOLASTIC AGE ATTENDING ANY SCHOOL WITHIN THIS STATE," and "AGAINST THE AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS PERMITTING THE FURNISHING OF FREE TEXT BOOKS TO EVERY CHILD OF SCHOLASTIC AGE ATTENDING ANY SCHOOL WITHIN THIS STATE," and every voter shall mark out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against, or the word "FOR" or the word "AGAINST," at the beginning of such clause, so as to indicate his vote for or against each of said proposed amendments.

Sec. 4. The Governor is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State, and said election shall be held under the Constitution and laws of this State.

Sec. 5. The sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars or so much thereof as shall be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay the expenses of the publications and elections provided for in this Resolution.

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

WILLIAMSON—FORD

On Saturday, June 8, at 7:30 a. m., Miss Marvel Ford of Lometa became the bride of Mr. Dave Williamson of San Angelo. The wedding occurred at the ranch home of the bride's mother, Mrs. W. J. Ford, of Lometa. Miss Ford received her degree from the University of Texas in June, 1934, and for the past year was head of the home economics department of the Eldorado high school.

Miss Ford wore a white sheer crepe sport dress with white accessories for the wedding. Her traveling suit was of navy crepe with red accessories.

Mr. Williamson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williamson of San Angelo. He received his degree at A. & M. College, and for the past six years has been football coach of the athletic department of the Eldorado high school.

The wedding attendants were the bride's cousin, Mrs. Walter Richter, of Austin, and the bride's brother, Mr. Walter Ford, of Lometa. Rev. L. C. Mathis, pastor of the Lometa Methodist church, performed the wedding, using the ring ceremony. Only relatives and close friends were guests at the wedding.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Williamson left for an extended honeymoon trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico, and Denver, Colorado. Next year Mr. Williamson will be football coach of the athletic department of the Menard high school, and the young couple will make their home in that city.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Walter Richter and Mrs. A. D. King of Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mathews enjoyed an outing at Christoval last Sunday.

MAYER H. D. CLUB

"It takes ten yards of 32-inch ticking or similar material to make a spring cover which is adjustable to different size springs," said Miss Lora Farnsworth, the Schleicher county home demonstration agent, to the Mayer home demonstration club Thursday afternoon, June 6, at the home of Mrs. Gerald Mitchell.

A report of the county council was given by the council delegate.

Mrs. R. C. Edmiston was elected as club delegate to go to the Short Course.

After a short business session the meeting was turned over to Miss Farnsworth, who gave a demonstration on "Dressing up the bed."

Refreshments were served to the following club members:

Mrs. R. A. King, Mrs. R. C. Edmiston, Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. E. E. Megnes, Mrs. T. E. Dobbs, Mrs. N. G. Hodges, Mrs. Dollie Edmiston.

Mrs. Warren will be hostess to the club on June 20.

According to E. R. Eudaly, dairyman in the Extension Service, the value of Sudan grass is reduced about half if it is allowed to form seed.

Cows need dry feed, too, Eudaly says, and roughages are far cheaper than grain. So plan for one ton of hay or bundled feed for each cow.

Three cones of 3-ply wrapping twine are sufficient and strong enough thread to crochet a large bedspread, said Mrs. T. B. Low, wardrobe co-operator to the Riverside home demonstration club at the home of Mrs. Wren Caruthers on June 4.

The retail price of this twine is usually one dollar per cone.

Due to unsettled weather Miss Lora Farnsworth, county home demonstration agent, was unable to meet with the club. Miss Nell Estes submitted her name to the club roll at the last meeting, on May 21.

Those present were Mesdames T. B. Low, Dameron White, Wren Caruthers, C. J. Murr, Pat Talbot and Mrs. Marvin Baker as guest.

For a More Abundant Life

"WE HAVE IT" . . . for homes, for farms, for towns and cities, for industries.

ELECTRIC POWER!

West Texas is abundantly supplied with power resources. The West Texas Utilities Company's 2,600 miles of transmission lines are linked with modern, strategically located generating stations, bringing power to you wherever it is needed.

"Let's Have Cheap Power!" We Have That, Too.

Power is a commodity which grows cheaper the more it is used. The power from this company's lines, available every hour in the day or night for a variety of uses, can be purchased cheaper than it can be manufactured by the individual city, or the individual industry, farm or homes.

"Let's Have Abundant Power, for a More Abundant Life." We Have That in West Texas, Too.

You may recall, many years ago, when some neighbor was able to boast of his electric lights through cords hanging from the ceiling. Light was expensive then, only the well-to-do could buy this service. Today, everybody uses electric service, for the electric dollar buys now an abundant amount, about three times as much electric service as it did before the World War. Electric service is delivered to you now so cheap that its daily cost can be counted in pennies.

The area served by the West Texas Utilities Company has ample power facilities to meet the demands of this growing and progressive "Land of Opportunity," West Texas.

No matter what foods you buy, you shan't find better combinations of easily assimilated food values than in dairy products. Despite the fact that there are many coal deposits in Texas and that many of them have been mined profitably, natural gas in the state has practically ended the coal mine business. Texas is noted throught the nation as a state with clean cities, due to the use of natural gas.

Col. Jas. W. Fannin, a Georgian, who was a graduate of the United States Military Academy, resigned his commission in the United States Army to lead a life of adventure.

Texas sold portions of five states, Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico, covering 160,000 square miles, to the United States government for $10,000,000.

Mexico offered in 1844 to recognize the independence of Texas, provided it would not seek annexation to the United States of America. A few months following this offer of recognition, the Republic of Texas was admitted as a state into the Union.

Moses Austin was a Spanish subject before he ever had his dream of colonizing Texas. He swore allegiance to the flag of Spain when he moved from Virginia to Missouri to go into the lead mining business. What later became the Louisiana Purchase was at that time under Spanish control due to a treaty existing between Spain and France. Later Spain ceded the territory back to France, and the latter nation sold it to the United States.

HAM FOR OTHER MEALS

The smoky twang and full flavor of cured ham gives it no end of versatility when food combinations are being sought, and whether the combination be one fruits of decidedly characteristic flavor, ham may be used with equal advantage.

Cooking meat with vegetables is good from the standpoint of flavor. Besides, it is a great help to the housewife who has to find time for outside activities and so cannot afford to spend her entire time in the kitchen cooking and washing dishes. And very often the combination dish may be cooked in the oven and need but very little attention.

Ham and Potatoes en Casserole

Meat and potatoes are usually regarded as the mainstays of every meal, and these make an excellent combination for the baking dish. Place a thick ham slice in the baking dish, and over it slice the potatoes. Pour milk over it, cover, and bake until both potatoes and ham are done.

Ham and Noodles

As an interesting substitute for ham and potatoes, try ham and noodles in casserole.

Place a layer of broad cooked noodles in a baking dish. Over it place a layer of chopped cooked ham, then another layer of noodles, and repeat until the dish is nearly full. Pour over this 2 eggs beaten with 1½ cups milk. Dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven for about 40 minutes. Serve with a well seasoned tomato sauce.

A crisp vegetable salad and a dish of fresh fruit might well complete this easily prepared and deliciously appetizing meal.

Peas and carrots are always good with ham. These may be added to a potato and ham casserole, or they may make up the vegetable part of the meal. They are especially good for ham pie.

Ham Pie

Place an inch layer of well whipped mashed potatoes in a buttered glass baking dish, then a half inch layer of chopped cooked ham. Cover with a layer of drained peas, or peas and carrots. Cover with another layer of ham and repeat until the dish is filled. Pipe a layer of mashed potatoes over the top and set in the oven to brown the potatoes and heat meat and vegetables.

Mow the permanent pasture, too. Mowing twice a year will kill the weeds, Eudaly says. Cut high the first time, three or four inches off the ground, and low the next time to get the suckers and new branches.

Plant now for trench silo filling. Three tons per cow is what will be needed. Cane or grain sorghum can be planted on the oat stubble if there is enough moisture.

When Sam Houston first took charge of the Texas forces as their commander in chief, he sent orders to Col. Wm. B. Travis to dynamite the Alamo, which he termed a death-trap, and told Col. Travis to retreat. Both of these orders were disobeyed.

The South Llano River which forms in Edwards county is water flowing from 700 springs on the side of a hill.

HAM FOR BREAKFAST

Lately the leisurely Sunday morning breakfast has become an extremely popular form of entertaining. Perhaps the reason is the delightful informality that may reign, or perhaps it is because the breakfast starts the day right for any other events to be chosen. But whatever the reason, the fact remains that breakfast is an ideal time to greet your friends.

As might be expected, there are no set rules concerning the food served at the company breakfast. The only requirement is that it be good. With this in mind, ham is suggested. Either broiled or fried, it is a great favorite, or it may be served in combination with other foods.

Here are ways which are especially suited to breakfast entertaining.

Ham Souffle

Add 1 cup of finely chopped ham to 1 cup of cream sauce, made by combining 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, and 1 cup of milk, and cooking together in a double boiler. Add the beaten yolks of two eggs and cook a minute or two longer. Chill, then add the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, and transfer to a buttered baking dish and bake in a slow oven until puffed and set, about 20 minutes. Serve at once.

Ham Toast

Toast is always good for a breakfast, but ham toast is something you can count on for a lasting impression.

To prepare ham toast, moisten finely minced ham with thick cream sauce, reserving part of the sauce and keeping hot. Cut bread into rounds of two sizes and toast and butter them. Arrange the larger ones on a hot serving dish or on the hot individual plates. Heap with creamed ham. Place a smaller toast round on top of these. Press down lightly so that a ring of the pink meat will show. Pour the remaining sauce around, garnish with slices of hard cooked egg and bits of parsley.

ACCUMULATED DEMAND

Good news for companies serving the farmer. Throught the depression the agricultural gentry have been doing without many virtual necessities in what now appears to be a successful effort to maintain solvency.

This pent-up demand has been a nebulous bull factor touted by farm equipment specialists for many years. With farmer returns from livestock marketings thus far this year yielding about $200,000,000 more than received on shipments during the same period last year, and other products bringing similarly increased values, the farmer is starting to spend money. It is indicated he will spend more before the end of the year to catch up on what he has been doing without.

The Corn Belt farm dailies, calling this the greatest consuming market in America, declare that accumulated farm needs, outside of current requirements, include no less than $2,500,000,000. They list partial needs as follows:

Paint $250,000,000; building repairs $300,000,000; fencing $225,000,000; small machinery $100,000,000; tractors $100,000,000; automobiles $700,000,000; fertilizer $100,000,000; furniture $300,000,000; water systems $75,000,000; electricity $100,000,000; clothing $250,000,000.—Wall Street Journal.

He says it should be cut for hay just as it heads. If it is being grazed, but not kept down, mow half of it and two weeks later the other half. In that way grazing will not be interfered with.
