MEDITATIONS

By The Editor

The men and women of our armed forces cannot, by the very nature of things, do much about their future. Individually they have surrendered a onetime free existence to the military, which is as it must be for victory.

In the military service they live for this present day, this present hour, the immediacy of a moment which may be the last.

It is for us, then, left safely here at home, to be thinking of their future (we can do little enough about their present)—for the future belongs to those who prepare for it.

"The Truman Committee of the Senate, a diligent fact-finding body which is demonstrably unbiased, has once again pointed the way toward the most effective solution of postwar production and employment problems. It finds that "even in wartime it was the flow of private initiative that made possible the success of the war program. The flow must be encouraged in the future," says one writer.

With the objective clearly defined, then, it is the obligation of each one of us at home to project this encouragement, to the end that there will be an economic environment which is not hostile to business, prompt liquidation of war contracts, and a reasonable tax program which will encourage individual initiative and incentive.

Let it be remembered that just talking about the future will not bring the results desired. Affirmative and continued active and continued action by our law-makers is of vital importance to safeguard the future.

Seven members of the Cliff Home Demonstration Club recently donated an $18.75 bond to the Red Cross drive.

Heavy Frost; Light Freeze Damages Crops And Fruits

Old Sol made his exit after several days of Spring weather here in which fruit trees had put on their summer dress and grain crops were advancing fast, to let in a stiff, moist norther Tuesday which continued in the form of a fast gale into the night and before dawn Wednesday subsided and a still cold crept in, with a heavy frost.

Opinions of many Wednesday were that majority of the fruit crop was lost and much of the taller grain and a large part of the factory gardens that were far advanced.

Luke M. Stephens related that he believed he had saved most of his small fruit crops and garden by water in the day Tuesday and another splash of it over the frost-covered vegetation of his garden before sun-up Wednesday. How many carried out this same precaution was not learned, but likely were few.

Sheepmen Showed Concern
Sheepmen were showing considerable concern Tuesday afternoon when it appeared that a cold prolonged rain might set in, and make a large toll of lambs and kids. A number of ranchers are reported to have sheared parts of their flocks Monday and had the weather been cold and wet, losses would have been heavy.

Robert Hughes Seeks Term To D. A. Office

Robert G. Hughes, district attorney the last nine months for the five county 51st judicial district, was in Eldorado Monday of this week attending district court, and while here called at the Success office and authorized this publication to announce his candidacy for election to the office subject to action of the 1944 primaries.

Mr. Hughes, San Angelo attorney since 1926, was appointed district attorney by Governor Coke Stevenson last year to fill the vacancy created when District Attorney Ralph Logan resigned to enter the United States Navy. The office was assumed by Hughes July 1, 1943, and for two months Hughes was district attorney pro tem under an appointment by District Judge John F. Sutton.

"If elected to the office I pledge myself to the fair and faithful performance of all duties in connection therewith," Mr. Hughes said in the announcing of his candidacy for a regular term in the office.

"Should Mr. Logan return while I am holding this office, I will do all in my power to restore it to him," said Mr. Hughes, who, himself, served two years in the Navy during World War I.

Immediately following his graduation from the University of Texas in 1926, Hughes moved to San Angelo where he served as city attorney from 1928 until 1936, when he resigned to return to private practice full time.

The 44-year-old district attorney is married and he and Mrs. Hughes and their four children make their home at 703 Washington Drive, San Angelo.

The 51st district is made up of Schleicher Tom Green, Irion, Sterling and Coke Counties. Mr. Hughes needs no introduction in these counties as he is well known in all of them and his abilities are recognized and appreciated by attorneys practicing in the courts of these counties.

Those persons who have eggs to donate will favor the committee if they will leave them at any of the local grocery stores as soon as possible so they may be boiled and tinted.

Named on the committee were: E. B. Keng, chairman, John Hughes and W. R. Bearce.

A NINTH AIR FORCE ADVANCED DEPOT IN ENGLAND.

—Not "birds in gilded cages"—but two U. S. Air Corps technicians putting finishing touches of a repair job on the nose of a Yankee bomber at a Ninth Air Force Service Command advanced depot in England commanded by Colonel J. G. O'Neal. Private Weir Gross, Jr., of Clearwater, Kansas,

PIES BAKED BY LOCAL LADY MAKE LONG TREK TO SON

Paging Robert Ripley in "Believe it or Not", Mrs. Mattie Cozzens reports the following incident which, we believe, would do credit to Mr. Ripley's column. Last January, Mrs. Cozzens mailed some pecan pies to her son, Jerold E. Cozzens, who was at that time stationed at a camp in Louisiana. He had gone when the pies arrived, so they were sent along with his "follow-up" mail and caught up with him in England. Although the pies took quite awhile in reaching him, Jerold states that they only lasted about an hour after the opening of the package, and were in perfect condition upon arrival.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday For Mrs. G. Barrow At Sonora

Funeral services for Mrs. George Barrow, 32, were held from the Methodist church in Sonora Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with interment in a Sonora cemetery.

Mrs. Barrow passed away in a San Angelo hospital Monday afternoon at 7:30 o'clock following injuries sustained when the car, a heavy sedan in which she and her husband were riding overturned near the county line 17 miles from here on the San Angelo highway early Sunday morning.

Condition of Mr. Barrow, 34, Sonora jeweler, remains critical. He is in a San Angelo hospital suffering from severe head injuries.

The accident was discovered and help summoned when E. C. Hill local hardware merchant and Mr. and Mrs. P. K. McIntosh were passing along the highway at five minutes of eight o'clock Sunday morning.

Mrs. Barrow was pinned in the wreckage of the car which had in some manner yet unexplained, left the highway after crossing from the left side to the right and back across to the left side going into the bar-ditch striking rocks and overturning an underdetermined number of times, almost demolishing the car badly. According to some who were among the first to arrive at the scene following discovery of the accident, Barrow had been thrown clear of the car and had lain for some time before going to the car, where he had collapsed.

It has been reported that several cars and trucks are known to have passed the scene before daylight, but failed to notice the accident.

Other than the husband, Mrs. Barrow is survived by two children Darlene Fae and George, Jr., the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Meckel, Sonora; one brother, Lavelle, Eldorado; and two sisters, Mrs. Jimmie West, Eldorado, and Miss Jerry Meckel, Sonora. A sister, Mrs. Phillip Pring, died Feb. 2.

Piano Auditions Judge Announced

Katherine Braun Carlo, widely known pianist, and teacher will serve as judge in the Eldorado Section of the 1944 National Piano Playing Auditions, sponsored by the Eldorado Chapter of the National Guild of Piano Teachers, it was announced by Miss Mollie Turner, local Guild Chairman, this week. The dates for the auditions will be May 29.

Katherine Carlo is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music Institute of Musical Art, where she studied with the eminent pedagogue Carl M. Roeder. At an early age she won many awards in contests for excellence in piano playing. Further study followed at the Yale University Summer School of Music. She was a member of the piano staff at the Juilliard Institute in New York for five years.

The local piano playing affair is a part of a coast to coast event held annually since 1929 in 128 music centers of the country for the purpose of setting up worthy national goals toward which American piano pupils may work. More than 12,000 young American pianists will participate in their various centers.

Bailey Ranch Group Put Good Food In Little Sacks Auctioneer Sell 'Em Fast, High For Red Cross

When members of the Bailey ranch Home Demonstration Club conceived the idea of a "sock" supper to raise funds for the Red Cross in 1943, they made their plans work out to perfection, raising a considerable amount of money for the drive.

Friday night of last week the same club began assembling at the Bailey Ranch School House after having announced a similar event to be held, but this time the "auctionable" material was to be "sacks" for a supper.

Families of the community together with those of other communities and from Eldorado soon assembled and Acting Auctioneer H. T. Finley, who incidentally makes claim he is from the splendid community of Bailey Ranch, soon had sacks of tempting, appetizing food under the hammer for

Did we say bids? First came the children's size—and did they sell? Competitive bids ran up to $6 in some instances on some "sacks" in this group. All Auctioneer Finley had to do was try to keep up with the bids of the youngsters, keeping busy repeating bids and had little time to ask for raises. When the last of the containers came over the block some children were left without an opportunity to purchase one.

Following this, the adult's opportunity came and sacks and boxes went over to bidders at a cost of over $13 in some instances, the average seeming to be around $5 to $7 each.

When Finley put the cakes and pies up, he had trouble retaining one for himself. "Town Preacher" Jim Hays had to bid like fury in order to get a mince pie delivered to him. One cake brought $10 and pies ran up into the money.

Then came the spread of foods and the ladies served hot chocolate and coffee to those present.

The entire event proved to be a fun-fest, a splendid example of sportsmanship, excellent cooks and patriotism. When the proceeds were totaled Schleicher County's Red Cross Quota was found to be $229.00 nearer the goal.

Nineteen dollars of this amount was derived from a picture donated to the Red Cross Drive by Mrs. Robert Milligan. Mrs. Lester Henderson now is owner of the beautiful painting.

To Bailey Ranch residents and to other communities of the county goes the highest appreciation from those who reap the benefits of the Red Cross funds and Red Cross official for their splendid work in helping raise the county's quota.

"Jeep" Helps Save Lives of War Heroes

SOMEWHERE IN THE SOUTH PACIFIC—"We were landing our big bombers after a successful raid on the Japs. Some of the planes were shot up a bit. One had blown a tire and landing with the flat he jammed the runway. There was over half the rest of the squadron still circling and waiting to come in . . . getting dangerously low on gas. Ground crews had to clear the runway . . . delay could easily mean crashes and deaths and injury to gallant U. S. airmen. Two Jeeps rolled out from a revetment, hooked tow bars to the plane. I crossed my fingers. These planes weigh many tons and on other fields I've seen it take an hour to clear the runway of one of them crippled. The Jeeps roared—strained, and I'll be damned if the two of them didn't drag that plane off the runway in less than 10 minutes. All the rest of our boys landed safely."

There's an actual eye-witness account of a lieutenant in charge of a bomber squadron "somewhere in the Pacific" and it graphically tells the part being played on the war fronts by the modernized original "Jeep" shown above. Thousands of these remarkable machines, made by the Minneapolis-Moline Power Implement company, are on the fighting fronts all over the world.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hearne Moore of San Antonio and Sgt. C. E. Moore and wife also of San Antonio were visitors here in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Moore last week-end. Sergeant Moore is stationed at Cadet Center, San Antonio.

He's the "Darling" of the Ladies . . .

Casanova? No . . . Don Juan? No . . . Barrymore? No . . . Sinatra? No, no . . . they're good, it's no denying. But they couldn't compare with that "darling" of the Ladies, Reddy Kilowatt. Now, there is a man for you. He is always there to lighten the toil or heighten the pleasure. The perfect servant—dependable, efficient, quiet, clean, and inexpensive—just flip a switch or plug in at the wall. Reddy will do the job in no time at all.

He is such a mighty little fellow that he turns the wheels in 90 percent of the war factories and still has no trouble working for the Ladies twenty-four hours a day—and no charge for overtime. The more he works the cheaper his wages. Yes, there's no denying, he's the "darling" of the Ladies.

New Steel Beauties on the Santa Fe

There isn't yet the ceremony in taking delivery of a new locomotive that there is in christening a ship.

But, just the same, it's a great occasion on the Santa Fe when we receive those super-powered, high-speed locomotives so badly needed today.

For every new one means "rolling" more and longer freight trains loaded with war matériel, and more trains operated for the increasing troop movements.

The three locomotives shown above are among the first delivered of the big fleet of powerful locomotives ordered by Santa Fe. And more are coming!

★ Locomotives illustrated above—new "4-8-4" steam locomotive, "2900 class"; 5,400-horsepower freight Diesel; "2-10-4" steam locomotive, "5001 class." You can bet your driving wheels they'll pull a lot of freight cars fast!

Hot Suds, Clean Towels, Banish Dishwater Bacteria

The easy way with dishes is the systematic way. Scrape, rinse and stack dishes in an orderly arrangement. Use 2 dishpans or 1 dishpan and drain basket unless you have a divided sink with stoppers. In one pan have hot, sudsy water. Keep boiling water at hand for rinsing.

Wash glasses first; a dish mop is handy for cleansing inside them.

Silver should be thoroughly washed, rinsed and placed on a folded towel, or pad to avoid scratching. Kitchen silver may be placed in the drain basket or rinse pan.

"YOU can't do business with dishwater bacteria. They don't understand polite hints. Banish them!" That's the advice to housewives given by Marjorie Griffin, Home Editor of Capper's Farmer, a publication of national circulation. "Sparkling china and gleaming silver may be beautiful homes to many families, even unto the millionth generation—of bad little bacteria," writes Miss Griffin. "The gentle hints of half-way dishwashing just encourage the squatters. They thrive and multiply in lukewarm water, on dishcloths and dish towels. "They'll go on making themselves at home, spreading colds and other contagious diseases until their unwilling hostess puts an end to them. "If she's wise, she'll use plenty of hot, sudsy water, the cleanest of clean dishcloths and towels and scalding water. She will change the water before it gets cold and gray." Students at Washburn University who studied supposedly clean dishes under a microscope found colonies of bacteria—all descendants from early settlers left living on a cup washed by ordinary methods.

300,000 PASSENGER CARS IN RATION POOL

WASHINGTON, March 30—Only about 30,000 new passenger automobiles are left in the ration pool, the OPA said Thursday in announcing the quota available for eligible motorists in April will be 10,000 cars, the same number provided this month.

Of the cars remaining, reduced from a total of 520,000 at the start of rationing in February, 1942, OUA expects to release all but 10,000 between now and July. That number will be held in reserve for rationing under a highly selective program.

The agency announced that to meet seasonal demands 12,000 new bicycles for adults will be rationed to certificate holders in April, an increase of 60 per cent over last March.

Homemakers May Expect Some Relief For Securing Some Items

Parent-Teacher Group Met

The High School Girl's Chorus under the direction of Miss Bernice Alexander, presented a St. Patrick's Day program featuring popular Irish songs, when the Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium. Miss Frankie Thompson was pianist.

The program opened with the Flag Salute, honoring the new flag which was presented to the organization by Mrs. D. C. Hill, a life and also a charter member of the association. A letter was read from Mrs. Hill regarding its presentation.

In the business session the nominating committee presented its report with the same group of officers being presented for reelection. Officers for the coming year include Mrs. S. D. Harper, president; Mrs. Kenneth Cheek, first vice-president; Mrs. W. J. Humphrey, second vice-president; Mrs. Reuben Dickens, third vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Mund, secretary; Mrs. Edwin Jackson, treasurer; Mrs. Carrol Ratliff, parliamentarian; Mrs. W. Irl Breedlove, publicity chairman; Miss Oma Ford, historian; and Mrs. L. D. Ochsner, goal chairman.

Mrs. Harper was elected delegate to the District convention at Odessa. The group voted to donate $5.00 to the Eldorado Public Library and also made a donation of $5.00 to the Red Cross Fund. Mrs. John Williams read the message from the state president.

The successful man does as he pleases, but he is careful of what pleases him.

Home-makers, who got caught short on sheets and other household cottons when the war production curtailed supplies for civilians, have a little relief in sight.

The Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics has notified the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service that manufacturer's ceiling prices on bed linens have been raised to stimulate production of sheets, pillowcases, and sheetings. The Bureau says the price increase will be absorbed by the retailer. So the price to consumers, if and when bedding is available, will remain at the March, 1942 level.

Here are a few other forecasts on war-time family living during 1944:

Brooms may become short because of the scarcity of broom corn and handles.

A few electric irons may be produced by manufacturers if this does not interfere with their war output. The WPB, however, has turned thumbs down on an increase in the number of alarm clocks available.

Homemakers will be able to obtain only about 80 per cent of the paper towels they used in 1942 and the outlook for handy facial tissues is pretty dark.

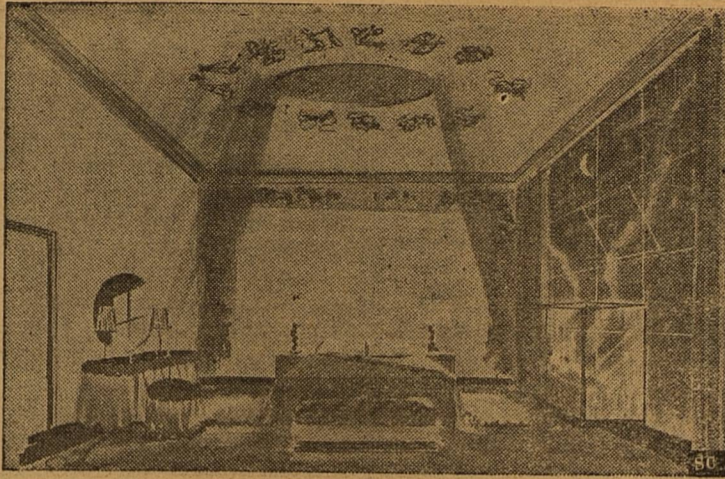

Restrictions on the sale of cutlery in boxed sets have been removed, but homemakers can expect better quality in paring knives than in the earlier war models.

Women who have been hoping for more and better elastic or elastic substitutes in girdles, brassiers, and the like are headed for disappointment. A new synthetic, neoprene, was to be available for these worthy uses this spring, but the Army has requisitioned the entire supply for making gas masks. The reliable two-way stretch is just as remote as ever.

Post-War Furniture Ideas - - The Master Bedroom

GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN—Beauty, health, and convenience are the keynotes for homes to be furnished after the war. A wall of glass, a sound proof, air-conditioned baby crib of unbreakable, transparent plastic and metal are two of the dramatic features of this master bedroom displayed at the Grand Rapids Industries' exhibit of "Furniture Ideas for Post-War Homes." Colorful fabrics dramatize the bed, linen chest, and vanity, which latter has opaque, onyx-colored plastic top. Twin wooden night tables are in a beige lacquer finish.

Eisenhower In London

LONDON, ENGLAND—General Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Allied Forces destined to invade Western Europe, places his hand on a European wall map during a press conference in London. He disclosed in his first news conference since his arrival in Britain, that Lt. Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley now is the senior ground commander of all American troops in the European theatre of operations.

State Health Officer Issues Warning

The thousands of children and a like amount of adults die each year from fly-borne diseases. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, and intestinal disease frequently resulting in death follow closely in the trail of the common housefly.

"The control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and community in the State," said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "The most effective measures for control is to prevent breeding, and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her lifetime of several months, one housefly lays from 600 to 1,000 eggs. Thus, it can easily be seen that in a season which usually begins in the spring of the year, the descendants from one fly number countless of thousands."

To eliminate flies, Dr. Cox said the breeding places must be destroyed. As flies breed in filth, manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture, and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food or drink are prepared and served. Likewise they should be kept from privy vaults where they pick up the infections, which they later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink, and by unwashed hands and utensils.

"See that your windows, doors, and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor will not endanger your family. See that your grocer keeps meat, vegetables, and fruit screened from flies."

Mrs. G. R. Marshall returned to her home here Sunday from San Antonio where she underwent a minor throat operation there a few days previously. She is recovering very nicely.

Maybe the one-track mind would not be so bad if it didn't get off the track so often.

Reclaim That Brush

Good paint brushes being scarce these days, it behooves the housewife to clean up old ones and give them better care, declares the Home Editor of Capper's Farmer, Topeka, Kan., whose advice on household matters is read by 1,250,000 farm families. Fortunately commercial preparations are available. The powder forms are perhaps easiest to use, since they are mixed with hot water in needed quantities.

Slick Chicks Find Key to Smoothness

THE time for coaching on this business of etiquette is beforehand, like right now, according to Holly Miller, whose column "Some Coaching Please" in Capper's Farmer is a popular feature among teen age boys and girls and their parents as well.

"Observe any slick chick or Beau Brummel and you'll notice the smoothness isn't done with mirrors," she writes. "It's a safe bet they've been beating the etiquette books."

Take that oft-puzzling question of "Who Goes First" when youngsters step out for a snack.

"When entering a restaurant, the girl follows the waiter to the table and is seated by him," advises this Capper's Farmer authority. "If all the waiters are hiding—that gives Joe a chance to lead the procession and to seat the damsel."

"Of course a smooth pigeon never tears into a room a good 20 feet in front of her striving-hard-to-keep-up escort. He pulls the chair and she sits down from the left on the front half. Then she ups-a-daisies slightly and good old Joe slides the chair under her."

TELEVISION DUE SOON AFTER PEACE

Tom Joyce of RCA, who has been making quite a few speeches directing attention to postwar television, says it shouldn't take too long for picture sets to get on the market when peace comes.

"At best it will require several months or a year after the war for the industry to hit its stride," he said. "As far as a nationwide television system is concerned, that should come into being before the first postwar blush of prosperity begins to fade."

"If television is to step into the breach at that time, its expansion must begin immediately after the war. Any substantial delay will prove a disservice to American industry, to labor, to agriculture and to the public."

Stick-to-Your-Ribs Dish Is Appetizing

Frankfurter farina dumplings with sauerkraut, pictured above, is a good down-to-earth, stick-to-your-ribs main dish, says the Country Cooking editor of Capper's Farmer, a publication of national circulation.

This dish has lots of what it takes, including vitamins in the fortified margarine and enriched farina. When buying cereals, margarine and other foods which are available with vitamins added, be sure to check that those you get are the enriched ones, advises the Capper's Farmer expert.

Dumplings with Sauerkraut
 1 1/2 cups self-rising cake flour
 1/2 cup enriched farina
 2 tablespoons fortified margarine
 3/4 cup milk

Sift and measure flour. Stir in farina. Cut in margarine and add milk. Mix lightly with a fork. Slice frankfurters in 1/2-inch slices. Add to dumplings, saving a few pieces to garnish top. Place sauerkraut in a large skillet with cover to fit. Add water and onion in which cloves have been stuck. Bring to a boil. Drop dumplings by tablespoonfuls on sauerkraut. Garnish with pieces of frankfurter. Cover closely. Steam without removing cover 20 to 25 minutes. Serves 6 to 8.

New Plastic Paints Make Decorating Easy

Amateur with brush or applicator can do professional job.

The new war-born plastic wall finishes make redecorating these days a far cry from old-style painting, when rooms were unusable for days while 2 or 3 coats of slow-drying paint were applied. Dora May Talcott writes in the Rural Home section of Capper's Farmer, a magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families.

With these new paints that can be applied by an amateur and that dry in an hour, rooms can be lived in the same day. There's no paint odor. "You can paint right over the wallpaper with these new flat paints," Miss Talcott writes. "One coat covers most any wall and ceiling surface, including painted walls, plywood, wallboard, brick and basement walls."

"Employing a plastic base that makes it extremely durable and washable, this paint comes in paste form and is thinned with water—1 gallon of paste makes 1 1/2 gallons of paint. It dries to a perfectly flat finish without lap marks or streaks, yet it can be washed with soap and water to remove finger marks and smudges."

ELDORADO, TEXAS

Eldorado Young Lady Reports Upton Close TSCW Lecture

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is a reproduction of a story delivered by Upton Close, well-known radio commentator to the assembly of TSCW, Denton, recently. The story was covered and written by Miss Mary Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Hoover, Eldorado.)

Denton, Texas.—The knowledge of the war and what's to follow, was the impression left with his thoughtful audience after an enlightening discussion on "Where We Stand In The World Today" delivered by Upton Close, worlds famous NBC news commentator, in the Main Auditorium at Texas State College for Women last night.

Mr. Close began his "straight from the shoulder talk" by reminding his audience that we as Americans were not building a Utopia, that contrary to talk we were not doing the world at large any good.

"Because we insisted on calling the Atlantic our front when it was our rear we were kicked from behind, and our destiny lies in that costly error. Based on the concept of fighting for something larger than America, the United States now finds itself in the military position of having pushed the enemy back on both sides into their errors of density, that area between the outer-most ramparts and the home base, and now waiting to see if our striking power is strong enough to pierce those areas.

In the European theatre, Mrs. Close told of the great concentration which now exists on the British Isles in preparation for the extreme attack on Germany's density from across the Channel. Whether we can go on are not is the question, and so far as we know the date is unfixed.

"We can only judge what is to happen by the action of those in charge and by the orders that are from Churchill's last speech, we gathered that an attempt is being made to crack Germany's area of density by air-force before the run-over by foot soldiers.

The test of Germany is on, and in a few days we should know. This kind of attack, costing the lives of highly trained British and American aviators every day, can't go on indefinitely," the commentator told his audience.

The appearance in the Japanese theatre seems to be that of breaking through or going around the Jap outpost and outside ramparts. They too are back to their area of density. There seems to be a soft spot there as the Japs were not planning stiff resistance in this part, but instead had planned to jump all the way back when they had to jump.

It is believed by all who know anything at all about Japan's war with Russia in 1894, that Japan is holding her navy and air power in reserve, waiting to catch our navy off guard, to pounce upon it and destroy everything in a few hours, like they did the Russian fleet. Tojo likes to use plans that have worked so well before.

"The United States realizes this," stated Mr. Close, "and although we have everything with our navy now except fuel supplies, we know as we get beyond Turk we will still have to depend upon convoys of oil tankers to supply our ships while Japan has her supplies right there. The enemy could disrupt that constant line of tankers for even one day and our fleet would become almost inert. Our plan is to guard this steady stream of tankers by air-force; that is why all three islands we capture are so important, to set up more bases for our air patrol."

"Now in the valley of decision, we are on the point of finding out whether things will balance themselves for awhile or whether political matters will change the entire picture," Upton Close told his listeners. "There are two decisive fronts, the British concentration for invasion and the situation of our fleet in the Pacific and all we can do is to wait."

"The dominating thing controlling the reshaping of the world on the European front is where the line is to be drawn and how it is to be drawn is to be drawn between Russian and English influence in Europe. Now the cards look bad for England, but everything depends upon the part Germany is to play between the two.

Russia has on our side the feeling of fatalism that some country has to be given complete and dominating control, that Europe can't go on being split. England doesn't have this fatalistic spirit nor does she have the strong labor unions which have a death grip on education and industry in Russia, which has spread over Europe.

"The reshaping of Asia rests on Russia and her asiatic policy of Asia for Asiatics. Russia can't be bothered with boundary lines until she is through in Europe. The outcome may be quite a shock to us", hinted Mr. Close.

"Where we in the matter of preserving America. We can't keep up the fighting morale of our troops indefinitely; it is time we discovered what to tell them if we can't tell them the truth. It is time we were making the truth that we are saving America."

Mr. Close was very positive on one subject; he said we should decide what the boys are coming back to, tend America, defend it and govern it ourselves. We should have a president who sees the world realistically and who doesn't cover up.

The speaker closed with the statement that with a navy four times greater than the next in size, the greatest air-force in the world, and over a million people, able to take care of America and ourselves.
