

MEDITATIONS

By The Editor

It might be that this department is out to launch forth into deep waters this week, but this is one of those times when we are just about to say something that is on our mind.

When we meet some good old boy who has come back from a death-striking, flame spurting hell on earth such as the European and Pacific theatres of battle are bound to be, and who is all smiles, in some cases, after having been through such an ordeal and received—sometimes—as much as $70 a month for his deeds, it makes us wonder just what should be done to a striker who wants a few dollars more per week written on his payroll voucher.

But whenever we see a maimed man who received the same amount of pay and went through all the hectic tragedies of a battlefield—or hear of some fine, splendid young man—the cream of the present generation crop of youths sacrificing his life—it causes us to see red when we read of strikes.

In another article in this issue of the Success Congressman O. C. Fisher refers to a recent strike of 3,300 foremen in Detroit who caused 50,000 other men to quit work and lose production of 250 fighter planes, and in his opinion strikers should be dealt with harshly. The government could impound their union funds and do other such things as could be thought of, he states.

He referred to them as saboteurs. We say they are worse than a saboteur. They should receive a double maximum penalty of a convicted enemy saboteur—this, to a man who willingly would cause a drafted man to lose a limb, much less his life, would be too, too easy on a striker, who is striking for more wages, when they are getting the highest in history, and are being protected from imposed high living conditions by the same democratic government that protects their other innumerable liberties and all conceivable freedoms.

Stringent action should be taken, and taken now, to curb any such selfish scruples of men. If this is all unions can do now at a time of such peril to our sons and kinsmen who are being deprived of civilian privileges—outlaw the unions until such time as peace comes and every man can be back and have equal privileges.

It is possible that we might be just a little over-enthusiastic about rights of men in service, but we would have to be convinced differently, hence we are always making insinuations and even elaborating on the protection of their rights, including personal interests and stand firm in our conviction that we, the American people, should tolerate little if any production shortages on account of the greed of an organized group who call themselves union. If a man can give up his business, his ranch, farm or position to fight to protect said union workers for $2 per day, then, if necessary some of these manpower dictators to be content with their $20 a day and not interfere with the many other thousands of workers they are associated with who are receiving much more than a fair wage scale when compared to the financial remuneration the average service man receives.

Evidently things are looking up overseas. So are the Germans.

Different parties seem to know whom they want for presidential mines, but it will take conveniences to bring out their vices.

Lowake Girl Included In Piano Auditions

As final plans are being completed for holding Piano Auditions of the National Piano Playing Audition to be held Monday of next week in Eldorado, Miss Mollie Turner, local piano instructor, announces she has received word that Elizabeth Ann Barkley of Lowake will enter the 1944 Piano Auditions here along with 18 Eldorado students announced last week. She will enter as a special.

Miss Barkley, a former pupil of Miss Turner, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barkley, who taught school at Bailey Ranch about three years ago.

Following the auditions, Mrs. Katherine Braun Carlos, judge for the renditions, will appear in a recital at 8:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church.

VISITS BROTHER WHO IS ILL AT MILLERSVIEW

MISS RUTH BAKER IS NEW PUBLIC LIBRARIAN

Miss Ruth Baker is employed in the Eldorado Public Library, taking the place of Mrs. Nora Jolly, who resigned recently.

The library, which is sponsored by the Civic Organizations of the town aided by the County and the City, has just completed a very successful year, having added 101 new books and a number of new readers.

First known Schleicher County Service Man to reach the States on the new rotation furlough plan following foreign service, is Pfc. James H. Finley, who arrived in Eldorado Monday. He has served about a year in foreign service with the 45th Division. Having seen service in major participations including Sicilian invasion, Salino and last saw service on the Anzio beachhead in Italy. Pfc. Finley was still greeting friends and new acquaintances with a broad smile here this week.

A most interesting coincidence concerning the soldier is the fact that he returned to Eldorado two years to the day from the time he was last here on leave.

Pfc. Finley, who received his training at Camp Berkeley, will spend as much as possible of a 30-day furlough under the new rotation plan, with his sisters, Mrs. Weatherly Kinser, wife of another service man, W. L. Kinser, CM 3/c who left yesterday after having visited here following seeing of much duty, Misses Fay and Annie Pearl Finley, and his brothers, H. T., Pete and Joe Finley.

Serving In WAVES

Ouita Cheatham Segrest S 2/c, serving in the WAVES has notified her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cheatham, 1313 Martin Street, San Angelo, that she is now stationed at the Naval Supply base, San Diego, Calif. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cheatham of Eldorado.

Woolen Mill Worker Suffers Acid Burns

George McCalla has returned to his home here after being dismissed from a San Angelo hospital where he received treatment for burns about his face and eyes, caused by sulphuric acid at the woolen mills Thursday of last week.

It was reported a jug containing acid slipped from McCalla's hand and splashed into his face. He was rushed to a local physician and treated before being carried to San Angelo. According to attending physicians, no damage to eyesight is anticipated.

BREAKS LEG IN FALL

Mrs. John Harrington of the Rudd Community had the misfortune of breaking one of her limbs when she fell at her home this week. She is reported to be resting as well as could be expected.

Schleicher County Sheep Bring Praise From Buyers At Market

For the past two or three weeks the Fort Worth stock market has been having very large runs of sheep. On Monday, May eighth, there were 36,000 head, which exceeded any former one-days receipts in the history of the stock yards, according to commission brokers and ranchmen.

The next Monday, May 15, they had 46,000 head to again break all previous records. The yards were full to overflowing, and it was necessary to pen part of the sheep in the horse and mule barn; the pens generally used for hogs and any other available space where there could be found room were also utilized. The market held fairly steady on all classes, and particularly the fat stuff.

Despite the unusual number of sheep on the Fort Worth market, Schleicher County had two different shipments of shorn lambs to go up and sell for the extreme top price of $13.25 per hundredweight.

Up to and including last Thursday and out of the last 250,000 head of sheep on that market, these two shipments of lambs were the only ones to bring that. Both shipments were made up of good, smooth, very fat crossbred Corriedale-Rambouillet yearling lambs with an end of Blackface crossbreeds on them.

Packer Buyers Praise Shipments

Buyers for packers said of the Schleicher County sheep that they were far above the usual run of fat sheep and were about as good as any sheep of the same class they had ever purchased on that market. First shipment to be made from here was made by F. B. Gunn. The second was made by S. L. Stanford and Son.

Other sheep from this county have sold for consistently high prices. Others are on this week's market. Most sheep going from this county are reported to be fat. (Continued on Last Page)

Final Commencement, Graduation Exercises For Local School Held

Commencement week for the Eldorado Schools opened Sunday night with the Baccalaureate service which was held at the First Baptist church with the Rev. J. M. Hays delivering the sermon.

The program opened with the professional "Priest's March," followed by the invocation by the Rev. F. B. Faust. After a song, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus," by the congregation, announcements were made by Supt. C. A. Reynolds. The Rev. B. A. Jonas gave the scripture reading and Lavelle Meckel sang a special number. The Rev. Hays pronounced the benediction followed by the recessional, "Grand March" from Aida.

Twenty-seven grade students received their diplomas from the eighth grade into the Eldorado High School at exercises in the high school auditorium Monday evening.

Preceding the presentation of diplomas by E. A. Baptist Training School To Begin Next Monday Afternoon

Hays, pastor of the First Baptist Church, final preparations are being completed for holding of that church's Vacation Bible School which is to start next Monday afternoon. The length of the school has been announced as from May 29 to June 9, conducted five afternoons a week from 3 to 6 p. m.

A good course has been mapped and the pastor is urging all who will to participate in the school.

COMMITTEES, OTHER WORKERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED LATER

As the zero hour approaches for the Western Front invasion of Europe, the nation prepares for the Fifth War Loan Drive with the terse appeal, "Back the attack—buy more than before." The new drive opens June 12, and continues through July 8.

Citizens of Eldorado and Schleicher county certainly won't need a lot of highpressure salesmanship to reach this county's goal this time, is the opinion of those in charge of the county's quota in the Fifth War Loan Drive. C. L. Meador, Jr., will again preside as county chairman and has announced the county's quota has been set at $185,000, a decided increase over the Fourth War Loan Drive quota last winter. At that time, this county went "over the top" in its drive.

The state's quota for the Fifth War Loan Drive has been announced by Chairman Nathan Adams of the War Finance Committee of Texas as $464,000,000. This is the largest sum yet, and the drive will be a "big and vital effort," he said. Of the total, $236,000,000 has been set for individual Texans alone, $125,000,000 of this to be in Series E bonds.

It was announced that of the county's $185,000, over-all quota, $60,000 will be in Series E.

The state Chairman pointed out that "No one is exempt. Our boys are fighting and sacrificing for you and for me. Think of the invasion and you cannot think of not buying War Bonds. It will be a severe homefront test for every person in the state."

Drive chairmen and committees are being named and will be announced at an early date, the local chairman said.

How To Secure Canning Sugar

Attention has been called by J. E. Hill, chairman of the Schleicher County War Price and Rationing Board, to confusion regarding the proper means of making application for canning and preserving sugar.

According to Mr. Hill, applicants are not to attach Sugar Stamp 37 in War Ration Book 4 to their applications for extra sugar for home food processing. Instead, if the application is mailed, Spare Stamp No. 37 in Book 4 should be attached.

This spare stamp has not ration value, but is attached to show that the applicant has War Ration Book 4. If the application is made in person, the applicant should not detach the stamp, but should bring Book 4 to the office of the local board, and permit the clerk to detach the proper stamp.

IS IT ROTTEN?

The "Rising Sun"

On display at the Success this week is an egg with a perfect "rising sun" raised on the shell. The egg was gathered from the W. H. McClatchey poultry yard and brought to this office several days later by Mr. McClatchey who warned: "It may be rotten!" Whereupon the editor decided it would have to be if it was what it reminded us of.

Veterans' G. I. Bill Is Passed By Congress; Carries Many Features

Written By CONGRESSMAN O. C. FISHER

Last week the House passed the bill known as the "G. I. Bill of Rights."

It is a rehabilitation measure and is designed to help veterans of this war go back to where they left off when they left their businesses or jobs to go into military service.

The purpose of the G. I. Bill is to restore veterans as nearly as possible to their programs which were suddenly interrupted by the war.

The bill provides tuition and a reasonable allowance for those who are in need of and who desire to attend an apprentice or trade school for a year.

If their education was interrupted by induction, provision is made for the completion of the school and college work of ex-servicemen and women. The veteran would choose his own school provided it is approved by the State educational authorities and the Veterans Administration.

The bill also provides that the government, under certain conditions, guarantees up to a limited amount, a portion of loans made to veterans by private lending agencies, where such loans are for the purpose of buying, leasing, etc., of homes, farms or small businesses.

Another provision is designed to provide placement and employment service for returning soldiers. Still another section provides for unemployment insurance for as much as 26 weeks out of the first two years. This is applicable only where a showing is made of inability to secure work.

The bill covers a number of other phases of veteran problems, including hospitalization.

Provision has already been made for the wounded and disabled and their families.

It seems to me that our first obligation is, of course, to the widows and orphans of those who give their lives for their country and to those who are wounded and disabled and their wives and children. Then comes the need for the general rehabilitation program for all veterans.

To some the bill may appear to be rather liberal in some particulars, and indeed experience may prove it inadequate in other respects. No one can accurately foretell how long the war may last or what new needs may arise in the future.

But the Veterans Committee of the House spent several weeks in an attempt to work out a bill that could be considered reasonably fair to the returning veterans as an individual and as taxpayers.

Strikes Continue With a million or more of our young men poised for the invasion of Europe, which promises to be one of the biggest battles of history, the country has recently been shocked by several costly strikes in our vital war industries.

THE POCKETBOOK OF KNOWLEDGE

BY TOPPS

Take, for example, the strike of the 3,300 foremen in Detroit. They being key men, their action forced another 50,000 to quit work for several days.

General Arnold says 250 fighter planes were lost as a result of that stoppage. Hitler's Luftwaffe didn't destroy those planes, but the strikers kept them from being built.

It seems to me at this critical hour, when millions of lives hang in the balance, such strikers should be dealt with harshly. The government could impound their union funds and could cut them or suspend them from further benefits of the Wagner Labor

Act. And there are other penalties that could be invoked.

A man who will strike now and thereby help keep planes and supplies away from our fighting forces, is a saboteur and should be dealt with as such.

Mrs. J. W. Lawhon, Jr., left Tuesday for Fort Worth where she will visit a sister, Mrs. Murry Kyger, while her daughters, Worth and Polly, will be guests at a house party in Austin. They will join Mrs. Lawhon later in Fort Worth. Mr. Lawhon is undergoing medical treatment at a San Angelo clinic.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

On May 24, 1919, several hundred men met in the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce—and that was the birth of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, which can now look back on 25 years filled with marvelous achievement for the Texas oil industry.

1919! Woodrow Wilson was President of the United States and was campaigning for the League of Nations. It was Babe Ruth's first year as home run king and he set record by knocking 29 over the fence. Jack Dempsey kayoed huge Jess Willard for the world's heavy weight championship under the broiling Fourth of July sun at Toledo.

Newspaper readers thought "Mutt and Jeff" funny. Irvin Cobb who died just the other day, was writing short stories for the Saturday Evening Post. Alock and Brown flew non-stop from Newfoundland to Ireland. Women had not yet begun to bob their hair and they were about to receive the right to vote.

Radio had not arrived and talkies were years away. Folks were whistling or humming "Dardanella" and "Hindustan." Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Harold Lloyd (with his glasses) and Thea Bara, the "vamp," were stars of the screen. Wartime prohibition was still in effect and the Eighteenth Amendment was at hand. Men were wearing those stiff, detachable collars. (Remember the collar ads in the street cars?)

What changes a quarter of a century has brought—and nothing in all the story is as remarkable as the progress which the Texas oil industry has made.

For in those days, there were only 7,100 wells in 29 counties; now, there are over 100,000 oil and gas wells in 172 counties—and there are drilling or leasing activities in all the other counties in State.

At that time, the deepest production was less than 4,000 feet; now average depth is 5,000 feet and, a well is drilling below 15,000 feet—almost three miles beneath the surface of the earth!

The production of oil in Texas the year before the organization meeting was 39,000,000 barrels; last year, the output was 600,000,000 barrels.

Legend says that the meeting was called by promoters for the furtherance of their own gaudy and irresponsible activities but whether true or not, real oil men took the session over.

Veterans of the petroleum industry will find much to reminisce over—as well as vital war-time problems to grapple with—when the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association holds its 25th Anniversary convention in Houston, Oct. 12 and 13.

JOIN GULF'S "ANTI-BREAKDOWN" CLUB TODAY!

BEFORE THIS WAR IS OVER, there may be only two kinds of people in America...

- 1. those who ride to work, 2. those who walk to work.

If you want to be in the fortunate group who will still be riding to work in automobiles, join Gulf's "Anti-Breakdown" Club today. How do you do it? Just come in for Gulf's Protective Maintenance Plan!

This plan was conceived by experts in car care. Gulf developed it because car maintenance is a most important civilian job. (8 out of 10 war workers use automobiles to get to work.)

Here's Gulf's Protective Maintenance Plan...

1 Protects your car at 39 danger points...

GULF's Protective Maintenance Plan includes Gulflex Registered Lubrication for 39 engine, chassis, body points. Six Gulflex Lubricants reduce wear.

2 Saves those bearings and piston rings...

THE AMERICAN Petroleum Institute recommends changing oil regularly. It's equally important to use a good motor oil like Gulfpride, "The World's Finest Motor Oil," or Gulfube, an extra-quality oil that costs a few cents less.

3 Stretches your gas coupons...

AIR-FILTER and spark-plug cleaning, radiator flushing help give better mileage. A clean filter makes gas burn more economically; clean plugs add power; a clean radiator prevents over-heating.

don herold says:

I think we should be mighty good to the men who are fighting this war.

So I am horrified at the suggestion of Mr. Ickes that the government do something pretty cruel to the war veterans on their return—give them the factories the government has built for war work.

This would be handing the boys something like 16 billion dollars' worth of white elephants.

What would the soldiers make in the buildings? Baskets? Who would run them? Top sergeants?

Mr. Ickes shows a total misconception of industry. He ought to know that an industry is more than a building. The average industry is the result of years, maybe decades, maybe generations of planning, worry, saving, striving, building, growing.

I don't know what to do with the buildings. If they can be sold on some very reasonable basis to going industries, that will give jobs to a lot of soldiers.

Seabee Writes of What Red Cross Is Doing For Service Men In Iceland

Iceland, May 5, 1944
 W. Irl Breedlove
 Eldorado, Texas
 Dear Sir:

Recently my wife was talking to you and she said you wish to know what the Red Cross was doing for the boys in Iceland. Well, Mr. Breedlove, they are the soldiers salvation, furnishing a home away from home for them. The Red Cross has a center near this base which do their best to furnish the boys with dances, pool, movies, club rooms, reading rooms, restaurant for men who want good American food served by Icelandic girls who are pleasing to the eye. The boys can bring girls to the Center every night for card games. Dances are held three times a week with music furnished by the Army band. There are several clubs formed, of which I am a charter member. One hundred members now meet at the Center the first and third Mondays of each month which is purely social and it is open for Masons from any of the Allied Armed Forces.

Our first night, five countries were represented from almost every branch of service. This Club sponsored by a Red Cross worker and she sees that we have the best of refreshments all furnished with out cost to the boys.

All Clubs are handled in the same manner. Twice a year each State in the Union is given a night and I happened to be present at fifth Texas night and met thirty five fellow Texans for some real exchange of thoughts and things at home is the main topic at any meeting. The Navy furnishes it's personel with amusements which are also managed by a Red Cross worker. The girls who are the workers really work at their jobs, treat all alike and at the dances are very popular for all dance well and hold up under the strain of wrestling with the boys three nights a week. I have never seen a girl that was not doing her best to keep the boys amused or entertained. There are "juke boxes" both at the Navy and Red Cross center with the latest records always available and record players to play recorded broadcast from the States ofr nearly all the popula broadcasts. I read every line of the Success for it tells me of the doings of the hometown and the home town people which I never get enough letters telling me about them and I have twenty one on my mailing list not including my wife and daugh-

Mrs. W. C. Wilson of Rochelle and Mrs. Burl White of McGregor visited here last week-end in the W. J. Humphrey home. Mrs. White is the mother of Mrs. Humphrey, and Mrs. Wilson, a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Potter, their daughter, Mrs. Clara Mae Nall, and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Nolen Potter and son Tommie, of San Antonio, visited here this week and attended the graduation exercises of their son and brother, Tom Potter.

Mrs. Eldon Turnbow and children returned Saturday from near Girvin where they visited last week with relatives.

Mrs. Virginia Meacham of Dallas is visiting this week with her aunts, Misses Dora and Emma Riley.

ter in San Angelo. That wil prove to you that the home town people have not forgotten me.

I have me several Texas boys up here but none of them from Schleicher county whom I would like to see most.

Editor, I think the Red Cross is doing a grand job in Iceland and maybe this will tell you where a little part of the Red Cross funds are going. If they are doing as good a job all over the world as they are here, your money is well spent for the purpose it is given. I hope to see the home town folk soon. Would like to hear from any one at home.

Yours Truly,
 Ed DeLong

ELECTRIC POWER-

Magic Wand of America

You, as an American, come under the spell of this magic wand! Nearly everything you do is governed by electricity, a magic power that you have begun to take for granted like the clouds in the sky. In our nation's victory program, perhaps electric power is the most vital force. It is essential in producing bombs, shells, aluminum, and other war materials... essential in producing the elements needed to win the war on land, on and under the sea, and in the air. At the flip of a switch, the world's finest electric service is all yours, war or no war. You are the one who really operates the power plant and its facilities... as you and others like you control how much electricity it makes, and when it makes it. The whole system is there to respond to your touch, to your demand. That is what we really have to sell... Service with courtesy that is not rationed.

But to no avail. Odessa was taken by the Russians who have also moved into northeastern Rumania.

"Jeep" Climbs Tree That Blocks Its Path

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—Capable of pulling a 155 mm howitzer at 42 miles an hour over almost any kind of terrain, the original "Jeep" shown above, is one of the amazing accomplishments of the present war. It performs under conditions previously believed impossible and it is one of the tools that is helping the United Nations' forces to push back the Nazis and Japs on war fronts throughout the world. In a recent test the "Jeep" climbed 70 inches up the side of a 28-inch white oak tree before the tree gave way in a test at Camp Ripley near here. As shown above, after the "Jeep" knocked the tree down it rode rough shod over it. The "Jeep" originated at Camp Ripley in northern Minnesota, and is manufactured by the Minneapolis-Moline Power Implement company.

as some 23 or 24 of our people have agreed to help and we do appreciate so much the splendid and generous attitude on the part of these and others who are doing their best to make our Vacation Bible School a great and helpful one.

Length of our school will be two weeks and will meet five afternoons a week. Date is May 29 to June 9. Time: 3:00 to 6:00 p. m. Starts next Monday afternoon.

We are requesting all who can to come Saturday afternoon to our church from 4:00 to 6:00 in order that they may enroll. By doing this it will facilitate matters a great deal Monday afternoon.

Our services: Sunday—Sunday school and preaching 10:00 and 11:00 a. m. Training Union and Preaching 8:00 and 9:00 p. m. Mid-week service each Wednesday evening 8:30. If you do not have a church home, we cordially invite you to make our church your church home.

Schleicher Sheep—

above the average kind received on the market from over Texas as a whole. Beyond any question of doubt, as good sheep are being produced in Schleicher County as any place, and far above the average of most other places.

This writer by no means fails to recognize the horse breeders, cattle and goat, as well as poultry breeders, but at the same time with sheep making their present record, we point with pride to the sheepmen's record. It is certainly the policy of this publication to endorse, advertise and perhaps "blow" a little in connection with the county's production, and since sheep is the current topic—sheep it is. Too, we would like to emphasize this: Sheep, wool and meats of all kinds—as well as other agricultural products, are the absolute basis our nation is founded on. All other products follow these for there must, of a necessity, be food for everyone first of all. The war effort must have meat, wool and the many other products and by-products that go with sheep raising.

Should producers feel a bit discouraged and let down over the scarcity of labor, high feed and shearing costs; just "buck up" a bit. Think how our boys on the battlefronts everywhere are making sacrifices—giving their time, blood and even lives. To say the very least of it if they can do these things for us as a nation we should certainly consider it our obligation to back them up with our utmost efforts.

As civilians, it is putting it mildly to say, we should try to do a little better job this year and the next and the next if necessary until peace is won and our men can return home and perhaps our world get back to normal again.

POINT-FREE MEAT MAY NOT BE PERMANENT ALL YEAR

While all meats with the exception of beef steaks and beef roasts are now ration-free, people should not feel that is permanent, J. E. Hill, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing Board, pointed out today. It is fully expected that some time later in the year, perhaps in the fall, meat ration points will again be required.

To meet this possibility, W. C. Marshall, OPA food rationing officer in the San Antonio district office, has instructed the local board to advise all dealers to continue keeping records of meat purchases, and of ration points surrendered.

Mr. Hill stated that "although virtually all meat items now have zero point values, meat still is considered on the ration list; the removal of meats from rationing is believed to be only a temporary measure."

OPA's decision to remove meats from rationing is based on the following facts: The 1943 slaughter of beef was approximately 17,700,000 cattle, and it now appears that the 1944 slaughter will be some 20,000,000. While in 1943 the number of hogs killed was 95,000,000. There will be very little letup in the slaughter of hogs, even during the summer months. Due to the critical feed situation and the lack of refrigeration storage space, it is considered wiser to consume more meat for awhile. But rationing is not over—not even meat rationing, Mr. Hill stressed.
