COTTON HARVEST GETS UNDER WAY

Three Gins Turn Out 83 Bales This Week

Intermittent hum of local gins sounded this week as farmers brought in the advance yield of an abundant crop. A check of the three gins in Schleicher county Thursday showed 83 bales to have been ginned.

However, it will be another week before the fall rush starts. Worms have about ceased their work in the fields, leaving some damage to the crop.

Farmers are still cutting feed and big truck loads can be seen going to barns and silos. The feed was damaged much by the recent heavy rains.

When we went to press Thursday afternoon cotton was selling on the lots at 11 to 11-2 cents per pound.

Posing As Old Age Pension Agents Is Latest Skin Game

It appears from newspaper reports that unscrupulous persons in several sections of the State have been posing as Old Age Pension agents and have been attempting to collect fees for 'assisting' in securing pensions for old people.

"The people of this State are warned against paying money to anyone who offers to help them secure an Old Age Pension or to put their name on the 'rolls' or do anything else in this connection for pay."

"It is suggested that the people watch the newspapers for facts on pension procedure and wait until the proper agency has been designated to which applications may be made. They should remember that at this time no one is authorized to receive applications for Old Age Pensions."

"The Legislature is now working on the problem of enacting legislation to carry out the provisions of the Old Age Pension amendment, but at this time no legislation has been enacted and there is, therefore, at present no agency to whom applications may be made."

Work started today on plans for the Old Ozona road. Other roads will be surveyed as fast as the work can be done.

It is estimated that it will take three weeks to complete the plans, which will be sent to government officials for approval before any appropriation will be made.

Big Circus Comes to San Angelo Oct. 7

The great Hagenbeck-Wallace and Forepaugh-Sells Bros. Combined Circus will present afternoon and night performances in San Angelo on Monday October 7th and circus enthusiasts of this vicinity will be on hand to participate in the gala event.

To commemorate the combination of the famous old Forepaugh-Sells Bros. show with the largest trained wild animal circus in the world, many startling new features have been added for the 1935 program. These include Maria Rasputin, sensational European wild animal trainer and daughter of the famous Russian monk, Grigori Rasputin who ruled the Romanoffs with the power of his hypnotic eyes prior to his demise in 1916; Bert Nelson, youngest of the wild animal subjugators, with more than a score of fighting, jungle-bred lions and tigers; John Helliot, renowned German trainer of savage beasts; Maximo, comedian of the slack wire; the famed Christiani troupe of bareback riders in somersaults from horse to horse; the Flying Condonas, the Hills and a great group of aerialists; Rudynoff, noted equestrian and his educated horses; the Merckels, who walk upside down on lofty mirrors in the dome of the big tent; "Cheerful" Bardiner and twenty performing elephants; scores of clowns led by Earl Shipley, Paul Jerome and the Paul Jung Clown Acrobatic Trio; dozens of pretty equestriennes, a huge oriental spectacle and a big contingent of Indians, Cowboys and Cowgirls from the Pawnee Bill Ranch at Old Town, Oklahoma.

Performances will be presented (See No. 1 Last Page)

San Angelo Kittens Barely Beat Eagles Here Last Saturday

Eagles Show Great Improvement Since First Game Played

The Eldorado Eagles lost by a score of 12-10 to the San Angelo High School Kittens in the game played here Saturday.

The Eagles played a jam-up game, and one that will make the other members of this district set up and take notice. If they show as much improvement for the next week or two as they did last week they are going to be hard to handle in the district chase.

As the game ended the Eagles had the ball on the 1-inch line, but two tries to carry it over failed.

In the fourth quarter the Kittens took the penalties for the coach coming on the field. They had been backed up against their own goal line and everything they tried was blocked. He instructed the Kittens to give a safety (2 points) which placed ball on the Kittens' 20 yard line. However, the Eagles drove them back again forcing them to give another safety.

The first touchdown was scored by San Angelo early in the game, but the Eagles followed closely with a score when Davis took the ball over from the 10 yard line. Cloud missed the extra point.

The second quarter was unimportant with a lot of fumbles on both sides. The Eagles threatened to score as the half ended.

In the third period San Angelo (See No. 2, Last Page)

Presbyterian Church Workers Conference

The regular monthly "Workers' Conference" of the Presbyterian Sunday School was held on last Wednesday night. Plans for the "Rally Day" program for next Sunday were received again, and every detail arranged. Every one present was urged to help make next Sunday a big day in the church.

Suggestions as to the Christmas program were presented to the group, but no definite plans made. In regard to the opening devotional exercises in the adult division, it was decided to follow the same plan in use during the last quarter. The program for the next regular meeting of the group was outlined, and the importance of attending the "Workers' Conference" was emphasized.

MRS. EDENS HOSTESS TO THE WOMAN'S CLUB

Tuesday, October 1st in the business meeting Mrs. D. C. Hill reported that the Park Beautification committee would follow the leadership plans made by last year's committee, and that grass, trees and shrubs will be planted this month.

Mrs. J. Carlton Smith, delegate to the Ft. Concho Federation, gave a report on the Federation luncheon and program, which she attended in San Angelo (See No. 3, Last Page)

Interest Increases in Four-H Club Work

Eighteen to twenty boys will feed lambs in the 4-H Club competitive contests this year. Last year there were only eight boys in the races. More than 225 lambs will be fed this year.

Many of the boys have already bought their lambs and are listed in an article handed in by C. Snell, County Agent.

Those who will pick out their lambs this week are Cecil Moore, who will pick from Forest Runge's flock. Felix Susen, Harold Susen, and Edgar Sauer will select 10 to 15 each out of the John Rae flock. Odel Green is making plans to buy his lambs from Henry Speck. Hollis Nutt Jr., is planning to feed 10 lambs, and so is Henry Bondie, Orvil Edmiston George Williams and Joe Alexander. Some of these select lambs from the J. O. Wiltoughby flock. Banning Wade will get 15 from Dick Lawhon.

The boys will feed on an average of ten lambs each, which will give them some cut backs next spring when they will show in classes of five at the livestock shows at San Angelo and Fort Worth.

Four-H Club Boys Select Their Lambs

Jack and John I. Jones picked out 21 lambs on September 21st to feed out for the Boy's 4-H Club work. These lambs were selected out of their father's flock of sheep.

On September 26th Garland Williamson selected 18 lambs out of Mr. Milton and Aubrey Baugh's flock of sheep to feed for 4-H Club work. Garland lives in the Reynolds Community.

C. W. Yancy selected 18 lambs out of the Baugh flock of sheep for his three boys, Curtis, Forest and Carl. These boys will feed these lambs for 4-H Club work.

Patton Enochs selected 12 lambs out of Tom Wilton's flock of sheep on September 27th. Patton will feed these lambs out for the 4-H Club work. Patton lives in the Vermont Community.

On September 28th Gene Koy selected 34 lambs out of his father's flock of sheep to feed for 4-H Club work. On the same day, Samuel Smith selected 10 lambs out of the Koy flock of sheep. In addition to these 10 lambs Samuel will select 6 lambs out of his father's flock to feed, making a total of 16 head for him.

Up to the present date nine 4-H Club boys have selected and put in the feed pens 119 head of lambs to feed out for the coming year. The other club boys will get their lambs by the 15th of October.

GO-TO-CHURCH SUNDAY IS SPONSORED "FILL THE CHURCHES" IS THE SLOGAN

Churches of Eldorado are Making a Drive to Create More Interest in Church Going—You Are Being Cordially Invited to Church Sunday

The Churches of Eldorado are sponsoring a "Go-To-Church" movement. According to newspaper advertising, circulars, and personal work which is being done, the movement is to begin next Sunday, October 6th., which will be known as 'Go-To-Church Sunday.'

"Fill the Churches" is the slogan seen and heard about town

Federated Societies of Churches Holds Meet

The federated societies of the local churches met at the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening for their regular fifth-Monday meeting. A special invitation had been extended to the men, and a good number were present. The program was in charge of the Methodist ladies, while the Presbyterians were hostesses.

Mrs. Connell led the program, the subject being, "Our Responsibility to the Black Man." A ladies quartett sang several negro spirituals, and Mrs. Reuben Dickens read appropriate selections regarding the subject.

Following the program a social hour was held in the basement, where Mrs. John Williams supervised several games. Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to about forty-five persons.

Teacher Employed To Fill Vacancy

Miss Marshall Elmore, of Sherman, Texas has been employed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Mary Ella Millar.

Miss Millar has accepted a position in McCamey.

Miss Elmore is a graduate of the University of Texas, served as assistant in Physical Education in Austin College, Sherman, and she is highly recommended as a physical education and grade teacher.

Scouts May Meet On Monday Night

At their meeting tonight the scouters will discuss the practicability of changing the regular weekly meeting date from Friday night to Monday night.

The reason for the change is because there is always something to interfere with the attendance on Friday night during the school months.

Ft. McKavett

Following the resignation of the two Ft. McKavett school teachers the trustees elected Miss Alice Brown of Alpine and Mrs. McMulland of Menard who began their work Monday.

The Ft. McKavett P.-T.A. had a general clean-up day and thoroughly cleaned the school house and refinished all the furnishings last Saturday. It was also decided to give a play soon to make other needed improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Arnold are the happy parents of Miss (See No. 4 Last Page)

this week. The preliminary work has been under way for some weeks. The churches are calling upon the citizens to show their endorsement of what the churches mean to the town, by filling these places of worship on next Sunday at both morning and evening services. The churches are seeking a greater cooperation from the citizenship.

According to those that have been here for some years the time was when it was a common occurrence to need ushers to seat those who attended church in Eldorado, and a revival meeting created widespread interest. Of late years however the ushers have gotten somewhat out of practice, and even a revival meeting creates little interest.

The pastors of the town are wondering if the community considers itself better off because of this change in interest. This is certain, no town ever suffered from being known as a good church town and a home of church-going people. These ministers feel that they will be rendering the community a real service if they can lead the citizenship into a larger participation in the churches' activities.

Go to church next Sunday. You will find a welcome.

Clyde Keeney Fills Two Trench Silos

Went out to the Clyde Keeney farm this week with County Agent C. Snell, to see how Clyde was coming along with the cutting and storing of his feed.

He was pulling the binder with a Farmall a young boy acting as conductor on the binder. Two wagons drawn by mule teams were hauling the bundles to the trench silos as fast as the mule was cut.

Keeney believes in the trench silo, as he tried it out in past years. This year he has completed a new silo 100 feet long and 10 feet wide. It will hold around 1200 to 1400 bundles.

When the two trenches are filled he will have more than 2,000 bundles stored in trench silos.

Clyde cultivates around 550 acres, with 200 acres in cotton which he will begin picking next week. He estimates that his cotton will make close to a half bale to the acre.

When the Gal You Left Behind ... Begins to Gain on You ...

Dearest Tillie:

My pants won't be back from the cleaners for an hour yet, so I thought I would write you a line. I got your letter yesterday after and argument with the postman and payment of two cents postage due. Not that I'm gripin' or anything, but be careful about formin' habits. Yeah, guess I should have written sooner, but have been pretty—busy goin' collegiate. Got a haircut the third week of school and everybody says it looks swell on me. Guess these slickers won't be pullin' any wool over my eyes now. The first week of school I got lost in the library. Guess I'd be there now if I hadn't found a map of Texas. Don't know how long I was lost, but the librarian said my book was two days late. Wrenn into some more trouble next day. The Dean called me to his office about some complaints . . . and urged me to better acquaint myself with the floorplan of the Main Building. I didn't like the way he said, "Ignorance, in your case is a good excuse!" Now I won't even so much as go in a hall 'til I've seen several other guys do it first. Had to go down the belt line the other night in an initiation, and were my ears red. Gee, now I'm school girl complexion all over. One convenient thing about these initiations you don't have to paddle your own canoe. Don't worry about me goin' with any other girls. They're kinda hard to humanize. Most of these campus snooties keep their noses in the startisphere and don't level off unless your frat pin is barely hangin' on, or you smell like old football shoes. They even stay in big cabins called dormitories. But I don't give a dorm. I got you and Carbo! Lots of love. I gotta go now, and when you get to . . . well! P. S. Remember don't use Lifebouy . . . it drives away your beau.

Signs of hard winter?

SKIP COLD-WEATHER RISK...MAKE SURE YOUR ENGINE stays oiled

Conoco is not the only oil refined by modern methods. But notice what all the usual processes are said to take out. Then notice what the exclusive Germ Process—fully patented—PUTS IN.

Nothing vague about this process. It tops off everything else known to Refinery Science, by putting in the Hidden Quart which makes your engine stay oiled.

You can park your car for hours in blizzards; stand for days in a cold garage. But you cannot make a dragging, expensive, engine-eating start.

Unlike other oil, no matter how free-flowing, Conoco Germ Processed Oil needn't wait for your starter or oil pump. The Hidden Quart is up on guard in advance. It hasn't drained down because it can't. The Germ Process has let it "marry" into the inner surfaces of your engine for good . . . a strange though natural "affinity" well known to scientists.

Even the new copper-lead, high-lead and cadmium-alloy bearings, as well as conventional babbit bearings, are far better protected by Conoco Germ Processed Oil than by plain mineral oils. Scientific tests have proved this.

But millions whose only laboratory is under the hood, can tell you a lot about the Hidden Quart and Germ Processing. They'll tell you the battery stays up, the oil level stays up, the old winter worry and expense stay away.

All you need to tell your nearest Conocoman is "Change mine right now!" Continental Oil Co., Established 1875.

Free Trips To Centennial Celebration In 1936 Are to be Made Available Here

Motivated by a desire to publicize the Texas Centennial Celebration in 1936 and to enable every Texan to attend these magnified pageants absolutely free, a patriotic group of organizations have banded together for this purpose.

Through the medium of "Centennial Thrift Stamps," which will soon be issued in every cross-road and city of the State, every Texan will be enabled to defray transportation cost to any Centennial center, pay hotel and restaurant expenses, admission charges, and even to purchase gas and oil for the family "Lizzie."

Cooperating in this gigantic Texan plan are such famous names as the Greyhound Bus

Lines, Bowen Air Lines, Western Union and some 250 hotels and restaurants and the Uniform Bodies of the Shrine. Details of the plan may be secured from any of the organizations mentioned in the preceding paragraphs.

Securing these Texas Centennial Thrift Stamps entails no "selling" or "chance taking" on the part of the individual. The Stamps are given out with all purchases and in such quantities that they accumulate rapidly. Numerous families have already saved sufficient amounts to pay ALL of their expenses for trips to San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, Goliad, Dallas, Huntsville, Washington, and other Centennial Celebrations in 1936.

Commenting on this wonderful cooperation Texas plan, an official prominent in the recent Chicago Exposition said: "Had we had such public spirited individuals and corporations in the North, we would have been able to extend the fair for at least another year. Texas and its citizens are to be congratulated in having the Centennial Thrift Stamp Plan."

A FLEA MERITS ALL ATTENTION IT GETS

Less than a dozen of the 500 species of fleas known to exist are of special interest as pests to man and animals, but, say entomologists in the United States Department of Agriculture, "any flea of these few species, when bent upon satisfying its appetite, justifies the attention given it." Fleas, in addition to being an annoyance, often carry disease.

Protection against fleas by use of traps and repellents is important, but secondary to destroying them and their breeding places. Fleas breed in greatest numbers in moist soil or dust containing vegetable and animal matter and protected from wind, rain, and sun.

Animals and poultry should be kept from beneath buildings, infestated areas sprayed with creosote, and ground where immature fleas are developing covered with salt and thoroughly wet down. Houses may be rid of fleas by keeping out pet animals, applying kerosene extract of pyrethrum (fly spray) to the floors after all rugs have been removed and the floors scrubbed with soap water. An even better method is to scatter 5 pounds of flaked naphthalene on the floor of each room and leave it closed for 24 to 48 hours. Fleas on pet animals may be destroyed with derris powder, fresh pyrethrum powder, or with a weak solution of saponified creosote or kerosene emulsion.

FIRST TRANS-ATLANTIC CABLE

The first trans-atlantic cable lost its usefulness in less than a month, due to the use of excessive potentials, it is pointed out by University of Texas scientists. A piece of that cable is now on display in the physics building at the University. This piece came from the American shore end of the cable laid between Duxbury, Mass., and France in 1858, and is the property of Charles Lindsey Clark of Austin, a University student and the son of Dr. D. L. Clark, professor of English.

The first message was sent over the cable August 17, and was as follows, "Europe and America are united by telegraph. Glory to God in the highest; on earth, peace and good-will toward men."

DULL HEADACHES GONE, SIMPLE REMEDY DOES IT
 Headaches caused by constipation are gone after one dose of Adlerika. This cleans poisons out of BOTH upper and lower bowels. Ends bad sleep, nervousness. L. M. Hoover, Druggist.

COULD NOT DO HER HOUSEWORK

WHEN every-thing you attempt is a burden—when you are nervous and irritable—at your wit's end—try this medicine. It may be just what you need for extra energy. Mrs. Charles L. Cadmus of Trenton, New Jersey, says, "After doing just a little work I had to lie down. My mother-in-law recommended the Vegetable Compound. I can see a wonderful change now."

Keep a Good Laxative always in your home

Among the necessities of home is a good, reliable laxative. Don't be without one! Do your best to prevent constipation. Don't neglect it when you feel any of its disagreeable symptoms coming on. "We have used Theford's Black-Draught for 21 years and have found it a very useful medicine that every family ought to have in their home," writes Mrs. Perry Hicks, of Belton, Texas. "I take Black-Draught for biliousness, constipation and other ills where a good laxative or purgative is needed. I have always found Black-Draught gives good results." Sold in 25-cent packages.

PALESTINE, PROSPERITY AND ITS PROPHECY

Business improved so fast in Palestine in 1933-34 that a decline was feared during the next twelve months. But the annual report of the British Government to the League of Nations says that "actually the 'peak' conditions of 1933-34 were far exceeding in 1934-35."

A few years ago, in the early days of Jewish colonization, it took more than sixty acres of land to support a family. Today with irrigation and intensive cultivation, only five acres are needed.

Great stretches of waste and sandy soil along the shores of the Mediterranean, north and south Jaffa, have been transformed into beautiful orange groves. During the past year more than 7,000,000 boxes of oranges were exported from Palestine.

The Dead Sea waters contain abundance of potash and bromine, two mineral salts in great demand in the modern world. The Palestine Potash, Limited, is an international company, consisting of both Jews and Gentiles, organized to extract and market the salts. It is estimated that the potential value of the potash, bromine, and other salts of the Dead Sea water is four times the wealth of the United States.

Palestine contains no natural harbor. Haifa was chosen as the most suitable city for the construction of a harbor, and it was built at a cost of more than $5,000,000. It was opened two years ago, and already Haifa has become one of the important seaports of the Mediterranean.

Haifa is also the western terminus of the great pipe line carrying oil almost a thousand miles from Mesopotamia. Tankers in the harbor receive oil direct from this line. Over 9,000 men were employed for more than eighteen months in laying the twelve-inch steel pipes electrically welded together. 5,500 tons of oil arrive at Haifa in a single day.

One of the greatest enterprises in modern Palestine is the Rutenberg hydro-electric power plant on the Jordan river, to furnish electric light and industrial power throughout the land. The plant, with its three giant turbines, a few miles south of the Sea of Galilee, has a capacity of 25,500 horse power.

Is this amazing prosperity in the little land of Palestine, when the world still staggers under financial depression, simply the result of human effort and enterprise, or has it a deeper significance? Those who believe the Bible are convinced that prophecies recorded centuries ago are rapidly being fulfilled in Palestine today. For example, in the Book of Isaiah, written more than 2,500 years ago, chapter 61, verse 4, are these words: "And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolation, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations." About those lines today.

George T. B. Davis, a world traveler and writer of experience, traveled in Palestine this past summer. He tells of these remarkable developments, and many others, in a clear, concise, and thoroughly interesting style in a series of articles to begin in October in The Sunday School Times (Philadelphia). The articles will be illustrated by photographs made only this summer during Mr. Davis' journey through the Holy Land.

PAROLE BOARDS ARE APPROVED BY ALLRED

Governor James V. Allred has announced that parole boards have been approved in the first eight counties in Texas through the cooperation of district governors and presidents of local service clubs.

These county parole boards are to be charged with the community service responsibility of rehabilitating paroled or pardoned criminals and making periodical reports to the Governor.

In the past, convicts out of the penitentiary on parole or pardon have been "on their own" and the inclination to return to a life of crime has been ever present. Governor Allred believes that with responsible citizens in each community ready to aid these unfortunate men that the constructive and worthwhile purpose of making honest, law-abiding citizens of them can be accomplished.

It is the Governor's hope that service clubs throughout the State of Texas will respond immediately to the call for board nominations.

Governor Allred originated the idea of county parole boards as a means to aid the pardoned or paroled prisoner get a foothold on life again. The idea is completely new and has not been tried out before in the state.
