

New Packard Now On Display Here

The 1951 Packard "200" business coupe, which only recently left the assembly line of that famed motor car company, can now be seen in the showroom of the Rowe Motor company, 1011 Gregg Street, in Big Spring.

The "200" business coupe is one of nine new Packard models which will be manufactured during 1951.

The new Packards boast the famed Thunderbolt engines, teamed with Packard's exclusive Ultramatic Drive, which serve to deliver the world's most advanced brand of highway and traffic performance, with spectacular new gasoline economy.

The new low-to-the-road styling is another selling point in Packard's favor. The new low bonnet and raised Guide-Line fenders gives the new Packard car the outlook of a custom-built sports car.

One-piece windshields, which are nearly five feet in width, clear the way for close-up visibility in traffic. Rear windows are "windshield wide."

The instrument board of the new Packard is scientifically grouped and lighted for easier day and night reading - with no glare or reflections. New warning lights take the place of old-style oil pressure and ammeter gauges.

Armor-rib body construction evident in the 1951 Packard tells a safety story of solid, double walled construction.

Other selling features include the broad-beam suspension which contributes toward the car's limousine ride, and enlarged luggage compartments, which gives the owner a total of 30 1/2 cubic feet—enough for nine "family-size" pieces of luggage.

Tractor Firm Has Timely Equipment

The Big Spring Tractor Co. located on the Lamesa Highway, is prepared to furnish the Wood Bros. Combine for the harvest season in this area.

In fact, the local Ford Tractor headquarters has several implements that farmers probably will be needing in the near future.

For example, mould board and disc breaking plows will be needed as soon as the 1950 cotton crop is harvested. These plows are ideal for turning under cotton stalks, a procedure that is highly recommended to prevent spreading of pink bollworms. When cotton stalks are turned under, the pink bollworms are robbed of something to feed upon to keep themselves alive during the winter months.

Also on display now at the Big Spring Tractor Co. is the new style Texas Special Farm wagon, something that should prove of particular value during the cotton harvest season. It can easily be converted into a cotton trailer.

In addition to various farm implements, the Big Spring Tractor Co. is distributor here for Kelley Springfield tires and tubes. The firm stocks tires and tubes for passenger cars and trucks, as well as for tractors and farm implements.

It has been estimated that erosion destroys the equivalent of half a million acres of U. S. farm land every year.

WINTER'S COMING This Is Best Time Of Year To Install Heating Units

With cooler weather fast approaching and winter months not too far ahead, W. C. Williams, owner of the Williams Sheet Metal Works, reminds homeowners in the Big Spring area that now is an ideal time to install new central heating equipment.

Williams is dealer in Big Spring for the Comfort line of automatic heating equipment. The Comfort heating units are available in sizes and types suitable for installation in any home or business building.

Homeowners may choose the size and model best suited for their respective homes, thus assuring the maximum in heating efficiency as well as economical operation.

The Williams Sheet Metal Works is also authorized dealer for Comfort and U. S. Alreo air conditioning equipment. Either of these cooling units may be installed centrally and operated in conjunction with heating equipment. The same system of ducts and outlets can be installed to serve as a distributor of either heated or cooled air.

By installing both heating and cooling equipment, either homes or business places can be given the advantages of comfortable cooling for the remainder of the summer and be fitted for proper heating as soon as cold weather begins.

Williams maintains a well-equipped sheet metal shop at 2nd and Benton streets, and his sheet metal workers are proficient at fabricating ducts and outlets for heaters and coolers. He also keeps a crew of installation experts for properly locating and setting up equipment of all kinds.

Both homes and business houses may be modified to accommodate the heating and cooling units, and the distribution system can be concealed in attics with outlets into every room or corridor.

Thermostatically controlled and centrally located, heaters provide the right temperature for the building without the risk often accompanying open flames.

Williams will make a free estimate on installation costs and outline possible plans for setting up both heating and cooling systems. Operation of equipment is backed up by a five-year warranty, he stated.

Amnesties Given Political Prisoners Of Bolivian Regime

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Sept. 12 (UP)—Months of agitation has won congressional authorization for amnesties to Bolivia's political prisoners and persons, at home and abroad, wanted for political offenses.

Congress passed the necessary legislation, demanded by opposition parties, last night. Student demonstrations in support of the amnesty bill culminated in rioting last Friday in which student snipers killed a national police guard and a young boy.

A Bible Thought For Today—

If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.—II Chron. 7:14.

Inflation, With Rising Material Cost, Gets You Coming And Going

The nation's rearmament to achieve peace through strength is going to cost the American people just about all they can rake and scrape, even if inflation is kept under control. If inflation isn't kept in hand, the cost of even a minimum program of defense may well break the back of the nation's economy.

Nobody pretends that the bill signed by the President a few days ago offers a secure basis for control of inflation. That's one Congress will have to thresh out at a later session—and it had better not be too much later. Our Canadian cousins this week re-enacted wartime controls of installment buying, which is a start, but only a start.

Soaring prices affect not only the consumer, but the rearmament program in general. Few days ago Navy Secretary Matthews submitted to the Senate Armed Services "Watchdog Committee" a few samples of high-priced war goods. Navy costs, he said, had soared to "almost unbelievable heights," and in "current regulations many contractors are now requiring escalator clauses rather than fixed-price contracts in order to take care of possible labor and material increases."

Here are some of the price boosts mentioned by Secretary Matthews: Crude rubber, up 300 percent; radiak training sets, 227 percent; fire hose, 61; surgical gloves, 48; fats, oils and glycerine, 40; wire-bound resistors, 25; precision resistors, 20; pork, 19; chicken, 22; ship's parts, 12; aviation gas, 9; medicine cabinets, 12; aluminum, 11.

The consumer who must dip deeper in his pockets to make up for rising cost-of-living items doesn't stop there; he also must dip deeper to pay for the rising cost-of-defense items too.

We have to eat, to wear clothes, to live in houses. We also have to build up our defenses or perish.

Congress owes it to the consumer and taxpayer to see that we get the maximum of defense for our money. Inflation rights on the side of our enemies.

Way Will Be Cleared Quickly For Service Of Gen. George Marshall

Congress may be expected to act expeditiously on the President's request for a change in laws which will permit Gen. George Marshall to serve as defense secretary.

Louis Johnson at long last stepped out when the President finally had to choose between him and Dean Acheson, secretary of state, and when critics were snoring heavily. The President fell back on Gen. Marshall.

And well he might. Gen. Marshall is one of the really great men of our times. He is a staunch defender of due processes under a democratic system. He has been a foe of the philosophy which would permit the military to ride roughshod over civilian rights in time of emergency. He is a master strategist, an effective organizer, a smooth-working executive. His record in the army and as secretary of state will attest to these points.

His appointment will be welcomed by those who hold that the department of defense should be manned always by a military man. The repeal of the law is probably wise in that it will remove the bars from service of the best possible men regardless of civilian or military status.

But as a matter of tradition, we may be embarking on a course from which it will be difficult to deviate. The position of defense secretary does not require military skill—the joint chiefs of staff and a host of experts from different branches supply that. It does require the ability to bring together the competitive and prideful components of the defense system under one effective operation. As a sustained policy, a disinterested civilian might better function in this capacity.

The Nation Today—James Marlow

Will Marshall Have To Bear Criticism On China Policies?

WASHINGTON.—THIS WRITER HAS great respect for Gen. George C. Marshall as a man, as a citizen, as a soldier, and as a public servant.

So what follows here is not meant as a criticism of him. But his selection by President Truman to succeed Louis Johnson as secretary of defense raises one question at once:

Why, in a country of 150 million people, does one man, like General Marshall, have to serve in one critical job after another? Are no other men capable of filling critical jobs well?

Marshall was chief of staff during World War II. He retired in 1945, thinking that after his long Army career and world war duties he could get a well-earned rest.

BUT THE SITUATION IN CHINA—between Chiang Kai-shek and the Communists—was so bad that Mr. Truman called the general out of retirement and sent him to China as the one man capable of mediating the dispute.

Then when Marshall finished that job, Mr. Truman asked him to be secretary of state. A good man was needed, Marshall was a good man. He served until ill health forced him to retire again to private life.

He's 69 years old. And now, with the nation in a ditch over its defenses, Marshall once more is asked to help the country out.

Granted that Marshall is one of the outstanding men of his time, it still is some kind of commentary on the other 150 million people that one man repeatedly has to be called on to bail his country out of trouble.

Then there's another question: How will Marshall make out if Congress approves his appointment as secretary of defense? Elections are coming in November. Few people are sacred in politics. Will he get a political kicking around?

UNTIL NOW THE REPUBLICANS have been blaming Secretary of State Dean Acheson for our China policy. That policy can be stated briefly:

Several years ago the Truman administration decided it was hopeless to keep pouring help into Chiang Kai-shek's government in its fight against the Chinese Communists on these grounds:

That Chiang's government was corrupt, that it wouldn't take the steps at reform necessary to help itself, and that it could not win against the Communists so long as it persisted in not reforming.

As a result, American aid was withdrawn and eventually the Communists drove Chiang out.

Marshall had a big hand in shaming that policy. When Acheson succeeded him as secretary of state, the policy was changed, always, of course, with the approval of Mr. Truman, who was the connecting link between the two men.

But for many months now, with the Communists in control of China, Acheson has been condemned by the Republicans for our China policy. Senator McCarthy Wisconsin Republican, even called him the "Red Dean."

IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT ANYONE would dare try to put any Red labels on Marshall but—Now we'll have to see whether Marshall is going to be criticized along with Acheson for the China policy. The latter until now has had to bear the brunt of the attacks almost alone.

In order for Marshall to take the job as secretary of defense, Congress must change a law which it passed only a couple of years ago. The law says no former regular officer can be secretary of defense unless 10 years have elapsed since he left the service.

Marshall retired from the Army only five years ago. So before he can be secretary of defense, Congress will have to change the law—at least in his case. The purpose behind the present law, of course, was to preserve civilian control of the armed forces.

That's part of the American, Democratic tradition of keeping control of the country in civilian hands and out of the hands of military men.

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF CONGRESS, however, offered strange reasoning in explaining why they'll approve changing the law for Marshall.

"They said they'd be against a military man as head of the armed forces in ordinary times, but—these are unusual times and therefore it's all right to put in a military man."

Like living in a wallet."

Nobody laughed. McDougall tried to inject the line into four scripts, but it was always tossed out. Finally he managed to slip it into "June Bride." "It got a big laugh," he added happily.

Many of his lines are taken from life. One day he returned home from work and was given a hug by his daughter. "You'd better take care of me," he said. Good, daddies are hard to find.

"You weren't so hard to find," answered the girl. You will hear the line said by John Garfield's daughter in "The Breaking Point."

Another MacDougall favorite came in "Mildred Pierce." Eve Arden observed Jack Carson giving her an all-inclusive glance. "Leave something on me," she said. "I'll catch cold."

Share-Worry Mood Grips Senators As They Ponder Adjournment Plan

WASHINGTON.—Reflecting a thoroughly morose view of the immediate future, Senate Democratic leaders are chewing over an adjournment plan that will bring them back to work immediately after election.

For one thing, they are not satisfied that the public will welcome home even the campaigners who are up for election without some prior assurance that one and all will get back on the job as soon as possible. Nor are they particularly happy about the voluntary controls and limited tax legislation with which they are beginning the new year effort.

The White House premise is that it takes time to get the mobilization machinery under way, so present moves are adequate. But the contrast between great plans now being made for the military and the tentative beginnings on the home front impresses experienced Senators. They have been astonished at the calm with which the public has received such news as the contemplated doubling of the defense establishment which seemed so very hefty last January when it was to cost $15,000,000,000. Nor do the new proposals for a substantial increase in U. S. armed strength in Europe together with the arming of West German divisions for an international force seem to create much stir.

One astute and contemplative Senator said it was "giving me the shivers" to think of all the things he had been voting for of late, plans to militarize the country beyond anything ever done in peacetime before, heavier taxes added to levies already high and wide delegations of power to the president in the economic field.

Not only does his mail from home not reflect anxiety over these moves, the general "mor" seems to be that we must be sure we are doing enough. If all this indicates stern resolution on the part of the public, the Senator will naturally be happy. However, he has a latent fear that when the shoe begins to pinch, the story will be different.

In any case he will be glad to get home so he can put both ears to the ground and he'll be just as well pleased if he can say at the same time that of course he will return to Washington to watch Harry Truman immediately after the election.

Speaker Rayburn is less nervous. He wants to adjourn sine die. It is doubtful if the Senators will agree, however.

Nothing they hear about prices and wage rises operates to soothe Senatorial nerves, either. All commodities are up—copper, wool, rubber—and reports emanate from downtown that food rises noted in the next cost-of-living index will be spectacular.

Actually not much more must legislation remain on the Senate calendar but each is a real headache. House advocates of an excess-profits tax are blocking approval of the tax bill. The President has said he would veto the McCarran anti-subversive bill as unworkable and unconstitutional, which poses a rather mean question of overriding his veto. A southern threat to filibuster blocks the statehood bills.

It all adds up to a share-the-worry mood in the Senate.

Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Truman's Off-The-Record Talk About Tolerance In Wartime Was Historical

WASHINGTON.—Sometimes the President's off-the-record remarks that never reach the papers are his best. Those present thought this was the case when Truman addressed the joint session of the AFL-CIO last week.

Speaking without notes and obviously straight from the heart, the President made a plea for tolerance in wartime.

To a considerable extent it was a historical speech. The President reviewed the different periods of hysteria which have gripped the country—the alien and sedition act in the early days of the republic, the Know-nothing party, and Ku Klux Klanism.

He pointed out that the Know-nothing party had been anti-Mason and referred to the fact that he, himself, was a Mason. The Klan, he recalled, was first against the Negro; then when rejected in the 1920's, against the Jew and the Catholic.

These were evidences of intolerance which did not truly represent the American people, he said, and he was absolutely confident that the good judgment of the American people would always win out.

The President did not mention the Mundt-Nixon bill or the McCarran Bill, but it was obvious he had them in mind. For he referred to congressional witch-hunters who wave the American flag while persecuting alien immigrants and trampling on the rights of loyal Americans.

"This is the raw material of totalitarianism," he said.

While fighting the intolerance of totalitarianism, he emphasized, we must not take on the methods of totalitarianism. Recalling that totalitarian regimes had persecuted labor unions, religious groups and fraternal organizations, he pointed out that under the alien and sedition act, naturalized citizens hardly dared say anything in public about the government for fear of being thrown in jail, and this, he insisted, might also happen under the Mundt-Nixon and McCarran bills.

There was at least one senator who, though agreeing with the

Around The Rim—The Herald Staff

Better Let The FBI Judge An Individual's Subversive Tieup

Let's say I called YOU a Communist. Other people heard me accuse you of being a Red, including your employer.

Within a matter of minutes after hearing the "news," your employer tells you you're fired, not because he believes it, he says, but because the accusation makes you "controversial."

Anyway, it's still the same—you're fired.

You think this is a hypothetical case? It is NOT.

A prominent actress recently lost her well-paying job because of the above circumstances.

What in the world is this nation coming to? It seems, now, that all you have to do to get rid of your enemies or to make life not worth living is to call him (or her) a Communist.

Our founding fathers would turn over in their graves if they knew the mass hysteria this country is having about Communists. While they may never have envisioned Communism in their day, they still took note of possible tyrannical rulers when they wrote the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

Among the Rights all Americans have is trial by jury. Senseless and profane accusations should never be tolerated, at least not by a nation as mature and sensible as we are supposed to be.

As one columnist put it about the aforementioned actress:

"Without having her day in court (she) has paid all the penalties—loss of her job, earning power and reputation—which go without conviction."

Surely such "condemnation" or conviction, if you prefer, is unconstitutional and contrary to the basic concepts of a democracy.

When we Americans must convict a person without one iota of proof, simply because of ugly rumors, then we stand ready to admit that the democratic form of government is not best.

A recent article in a national magazine tells how the FBI investigates charges of affiliation with subversive groups, tracking down any and all rumors before okaying a government worker. After reading this article, it is hard to understand why unverified charges are so easily believed by Americans.

The recent accusation by Sen. Schoepel of Kansas against Oscar Chapman, so closely following the irresponsible tactics of Sen. McCarthy point out the hysteria existent in Washington and can be blamed, too, for the rash of brazen accusations of other people.

It is also an admission, I fear, by the Republican party that they have nothing better to offer than the Democrats. Such should be the case, because after all we Americans, by majority vote decided the Democrats had the mostest and the bestest to offer us. Thus, the GOP should seek to assure the carrying out of the people's mandate to the Democratic party—not hinder it and cause us to lose faith in our government.

The charges of Sen. McCarthy and Schoepel have caused many Americans to lose faith.

Too, a check-up on subversive elements should be left to the Federal Bureau of Investigation—not to irresponsible accusers who lack evidence. If any American has reason to believe he or she knows such subversive persons, simply report your findings to the FBI. Let them garner the proof or at least attempt to clear the person.

If such proof is not evident, you're seriously injuring a fellow American.

Think it over, because YOU may be called names, too!

South Africa Deprived Of Her Greatest Son By Smuts' Death

THE DEATH OF THAT GREAT WORLD figure, Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts, removes the main link which has bound a wavering Union of South Africa to the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Thus it should cause no surprise if the union breaks away before long and, like southern Ireland, sets itself up in business as a republic. This is regarded as a distinct possibility by well informed observers. Official circles in London are said to be worried.

Smuts was leader of the United Party, which he founded largely to perpetuate the commonwealth. In fact he WAS the party. Opposed to his program has been the Nationalist Party which now is in power.

THE LEADER OF THE NATIONALISTS is Prime Minister Daniel F. Malan, a former clergyman, who advocates separation from the commonwealth. Dr. Malan is a rather provincial and solid figure who has lacked the colorful leadership of the dynamic Smuts. However, there are a lot of folk in South Africa who subscribe to Malan's policies.

There also have been some in Smuts' own party who, while clinging to him through loyalty and admiration, have had leanings to some of the National Party ideas, including separation. It has been the field marshal himself who has held them in line.

Now this great man, who was one of the originators of the commonwealth idea, is gone and the United Party has lost its main element of cohesion. The way is open for striking developments in the Union of South Africa.

HOWEVER, WHILE THE QUESTION of separation is paramount, this isn't the only great problem hanging over the country. There is the controversial policy of white supremacy and racial segregation maintained by the Malan government.

This racial issue is one of long standing, and its ramifications reach to far away India. The Union of South Africa has a large population of Indians who have fallen under the segregation ban. The result has been the creation of bitterness in India and the lodging of formal complaints by the New Delhi government with the United Nations. Thus far there has been no sign of any change of heart in South Africa on this point.

Whether Smuts' views ultimately prevail in his country, the British Commonwealth has lost one of its greatest figures, and the world one of the outstanding statesmen of generations. His achievements would fill volumes, but here are just a few:

NOT ONLY WAS HE ONE OF THE creators of the British Commonwealth of Nations, but he was known as the father of the Union of South Africa, and was the hero of the South Africa masses.

He was among the founders of the League of Nations, and I saw him at Versailles where he was a signer of the World War I treaty. He was one of the creators of the United Nations.

Throughout his political life he was numbered among the chief counsel of the British Empire and Commonwealth. When Britain faced its greatest crisis in World War I, Smuts was summoned to London to become a member of the Imperial war cabinet, where he rendered invaluable service.

And now his beloved South Africa, as she faces a critical period in her history, is deprived of the guidance of her greatest son.

Don't Trouble GI Joe About His Writing Letters To You

MASSAN FRONT, KOREA—(AP)—This problem isn't a correspondent's business. But so many of the soldiers fighting this war are worried about it that I'm going to put in a word to their wives and mothers:

Don't write Joe or Bill and ask him why he isn't sending you more letters.

He wants to. He tries to. But much of the time he just can't.

Red Cross men up front are getting dozens of letters from you, asking why your man hasn't written.

Probably even Joe himself has had a letter from you beeping because he hasn't written. Not an angry letter, or course. A little hurt.

HERE'S WHY HE DOESN'T WRITE very much, and maybe it won't make much sense by civilian standards.

He thinks about you a lot more than he ever did before. He remembers the way you smile one day, or the way the kids enjoyed going on that picnic.

But he's tired. Not the kind of tiredness that a good night's sleep fixes. Bone tired. Tired deep inside.

And there is always that terrible tension—the waiting.

They're always with him up there in the foxholes, with mines and wire around and pretty safe. But he doesn't want to write home that sudden death is around the corner.

Or maybe, Joe or Bill is back in a regimental command post, or an ordnance or service outfit. He's working, hard. And then falling exhausted on his bed roll under a pup tent.

HE LOVES YOU, BUT HE'LL SLEEP till somebody shakes him awake. Then he'll go to work again.

Actually, he's probably written more letters than you got. He gives them to a guy going back to battalion headquarters, and maybe they get to the mail orderly. Maybe they don't. A lot of letters get lost in a war.

Above all, don't get perturbed and stop writing to HIM. Letters are wonderful to get.

Just remember that Joe or Bill hasn't changed. Don't trouble him by making him wonder if YOU have changed, by worrying him about mail.

Please?

Shorthorns Play Stanton Tonight

First football activity of the 1940-41 season for a Big Spring team will end the Shorthorns of Conn Isaacs and Larry McCallioch in action in Stanton tonight.

The local aggregation has an engagement with the Field's Buffaloes at 8 p.m.

Both teams have had good practice sessions. Field's has a 41-man squad, and he will send seven lettermen into action. Isaacs and McCallioch have been working with a promising group of youngsters including several transfers. Most of the Shorthorns squad probably will be ground for the next two or three years to perform on the "A" team.

The Shorthorns probably will send a starting line up into the conflict that averages around 100 pounds in weight, and they could make it if the game is a hard-fought one.

200-pound tackle, is the heaviest man on the squad. He is a transfer from Sweetwater. Field's can counter with Bob Lindley, a 218-pound center, who holds down a tackle post for the Buffs.

Charlie Rose will perform at quarterback and do most of the passing for the Big Spring eleven. Other probable starters in the Shorthorn backfield are Don Mack, Richardson, J. L. Claxton, a transfer from Fortson, and Joe Miller, who moved here from Mustang Park.

The Buffs will start four lettermen in the backfield. They are Ken Mason, Grant Kosman, Red Gibson and Earl Kosner.

Both teams have been working consistently since the first of the

Russell Deals For Ball Club

DALLAS, Sept. 14 (AP)—Allen Russell, president of the Houston Oilers, has been busy today in negotiating for the purchase of the Dallas franchise in the Texas League.

Dallas owner H. W. Burnett announced yesterday that it was for sale along with his other baseball holdings for $100,000.

Burnett, a wealthy oilman and one of the New York Giants and Boston Braves and also a Dallas syndicate, is president of the Texas club, which is interested in acquiring the Dallas franchise.

Russell came to Dallas with the statement that he was interested in buying the Dallas franchise, and if he can secure the money to buy it, he will acquire the club. He is a member of the Houston Oilers and has been successful in many other business ventures.

Russell said if he was successful he would retain Charlie Grimm as the former big league manager who was brought here by Burnett this year as skipper of the local club. Grimm was given a three-year contract for $100,000.

Livemore No. 1 Jim Hodnett Extends Pool On South

Livemore No. 1 Jim Hodnett has extended the Reinecke pool on the south, and Amcan No. 1 A Branon, south offset to the East Vealmoor south extender, has a picked the reef 30 feet high.

Another deep wildcat in northwestern Borden county has been staked.

Livemore No. 1 Hodnett, 467 from the north and east lines of section 45-25, H&TC, flowed for six hours through 1 1/2-inch casing for a calculated potential of 3,300.96 barrels of 46 gravity oil daily. It had been treated with 3,500 gallons of acid and showed no water. Casing pressure was 1,100 pounds, tubing pressure 240, and the gas-oil ratio 1,323-1. Top of pay was 8,866 where the 5 1/2-inch string was run. Total depth is 6,920.

Fair, and McCann Parker No. 1 T. L. Griffin, 660 from the north and west lines of section 46-25, H&TC, a southwest outpost to the Reinecke area, has been abandoned at 7,879 feet. No shows of any sort had been reported.

Amcan No. 1 Holben, a southeast edger in the Reinecke area and in section 44-25, H&TC, set 10 1/2-inch casing at 422 in red beds and was deepening.

Amcan No. 1-A Branon, in the C NW NW section 19-27, H&TC, one location south of Brown No. 1 Branon, which jumped East Vealmoor pay nearly two miles south, picked top on the reef at 7,280, a datum minus of 4,710 or 49 feet high to the No. 1 Branon. Operators drilled to 7,299 feet in the reef.

Southland and Amcan No. 1-B Branon, C NW SW section 18-27, H&TC, was running production test from 7,338-7,431. Previously it had flowed 138 barrels in three hours on a drillstem test.

Brown No. 1-A Branon, half a mile west of Brown No. 1 Branon, failed to set a second whipstock at 5,680 feet. Another attempt is being made in order to pull off to the westward from that point in search of more reef and less water. It had oil, but with water, at bottom of 7,574.

To the north, Sunray No. 6 Wilson, two locations south of the discovery in the East Vealmoor section and in the southeast corner of section 16-27, H&TC, was at 2,150 in anhydrite.

Amerada No. 2 Morgan Coates, half a mile northeast of the discovery, Sunray No. 1 Wilson, was bottomed at 7,442 and preparing to drill plug. It showed for production on a drillstem test. It is C NE SW section 14-27, H&TC.

Brinkerhoff No. 1 Jones, in the center of the Knox community, C NE NE 18-34-26, T&P, drilled to 7,668. It is in the south and east of 3,450-7,574 returned 90 feet of slightly gas-cut mud. No reports were received on the Stanford No. 1 Burton, 14 miles north-west of Big Spring, which has been testing in the Sprayberry.

H. L. Hunt has announced location for a northwestern Borden wildcat to the Pennsylvania. It is to be the No. 3-B Clayton & Johnson, 660 from the north and east of section 16-27, T&P. The lines of section will be 9,000 feet and it is 12 miles northwest of Big Spring. Canning was at 5,670. Awerda No. 1 Murphy, north offset to the Rutherford No. 1 Gilmer Davis which tapped the reef midway between the Reinecke and Van Roeder pools, was bottomed at 6,785 feet in lime. Operators set 5 1/2-inch string at 6,785. It had oil shows but with water in previous tests.

Statewide hearing is set for Tuesday, Sept. 19, when the commission will hear further evidence on which to base Texas' October allowances.

The commission also reported the big East Texas pool's bottom hole pressure dropped 3.87 pounds per square inch from AUG. 1 to Sept. 1. The latter reading was 1,024.56 pounds.

Auld & Brill No. 1 Grison, a south-central Dawson exploration was bottomed at 5,610 in lime and shale. Operators drilled cement plug from 4,512-5,440 and lost 100 barrels of mud below the cement. Another plug will be set on the bottom section. Location is C NE NE section 17-34-4n, T&P, 3 1/2 miles southwest of the Sprayberry pool.

Dallas Man Out On Bond After Lottery Arrest

WACO, Sept. 14 (UP) - Wilbur Arthur Brian, 41, of Dallas last night was released on $2,500 bond after he was arrested by the FBI and charged with conspiracy to violate the federal law against interstate shipments of lottery tickets.

Brian was arrested at Marlin as the FBI investigated what it called a $2 million international lottery ticket ring.

He was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner J. W. Cooke, Jr., and released on bond for appearance in Miami, Fla., where the charge was filed.

Earlier yesterday, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, said in Washington that a number of persons had been arrested in the investigation. Hoover said an estimated $2 million in sweepstakes tickets based on the running Dec. 26 of the Christmas two-year-old stakes race at Knutsford Park, Kingston, Jamaica, B. W. I., had been printed by a Florida printing concern.

He said the tickets had been shipped to Texas, New York, California, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Maryland and to Canada.

O. Hawkins, special agent in charge of the Dallas FBI office, said last night Brian was accused of receiving in Dallas - by airfreight from Miami - a 510-pound shipment of tickets with a face value of $300,000.

Hawkins said FBI agents seized the tickets in a Dallas home and found 20,000 books of them. He said they arrived by air freight in Dallas Sept. 1.

Brian was arrested in a Marlin hotel by San Antonio FBI agents. Hawkins said agents found Brian had gone to Marlin on a business trip.

"I understand he brought in an oil well down there," Hawkins said.

Big Demand Due Texas Oil

AUSTIN, Sept. 14 (UP) - Bigger demands are being made on Texas oil fields to supply October crude oil needs.

The Railroad Commission reported yesterday it has received notices of increases in both October and November of major purchasers and forecast of October demand by the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

Purchasers asked a flow of 2,628,571 barrels daily, 10,135 barrels more than they asked for September.

Forecast of the bureau of mines placed demand at 2,330,000 barrels daily, 70,000 barrels higher than the September forecast.

Statewide hearing is set for Tuesday, Sept. 19, when the commission will hear further evidence on which to base Texas' October allowances.

Population Rise Forces Baptist Territory Split

The Big Spring Baptist association yielded to the press of population Wednesday and split its territory.

Thus, a new association - possibly to be named the Permian Basin Association - came into being. In the friendly division, Baptists of Midland and Ector counties will comprise the new unit. Howard, Glasscock and Martin counties will continue to make up the Big Spring association.

The division came at the conclusion of the 43rd annual session of the Big Spring association. This development automatically brings to district No. 8 a fifth association. Others are the Mitchell-Scurry the Lamesa, and the Gaitnes-Andrews-Yoakum, which was holding its annual associational meeting today in Seminole.

Approximately a dozen churches with resident membership in excess of 6,000 remain in the Big Spring association. Of the total, 4,300 are in the four Big Spring churches - First, Fourth, Fifth and West Side, North Side and Airport. Other churches include Forsan, Coahoma, Courtney, Bethel, Garden City, Knott, Lee's, Lenora, Prairie View, Salem, Sand Springs, Stanton, and Tarzan.

The Rev. T. M. Harrell, North Side pastor, in Big Spring, was named moderator of the parent association. Temporary moderator of the new association is Rev. Arthur DeLoach, of the First church in Odessa.

Sgt. Moody May Have Returned To Korea Action

The possibility that Sgt. Charles Vernon Moody is back in action in the Korean war was revealed Wednesday when his parents received a letter written since the Big Spring soldier was reported missing in action.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Moody, 1005 Sycamore, received a letter, written Sept. 2, from Sgt. Moody Wednesday about an hour after they received notification that he had been missing since Aug. 31. In his letter, Sgt. Moody acknowledged receipt of a package mailed to him on Aug. 13.

Friends of the family this morning were in contact with Rep. George Mahon in an effort to learn from the Army's adjutant general if the soldier was still missing. They were hopeful that Sgt. Moody may have been missing temporarily, but that he has since rejoined his unit, possibly an element of the 24th division.

Traffic Survey To Be Completed Here Tomorrow

The State Highway department traffic survey underway here is to be completed Friday with a study of traffic signs and markings.

The survey was requested by the city commission several months ago. A report is expected to reach the city from the State Highway department after the survey is completed.

GIS KILLED IN WRECK

Military Honors For Train Dead

WILKES-BARRE, PA., Sept. 14. — Full military honors today awaited the 33 National Guardsmen killed in a troop train wreck shortly after they left for active duty with the Army.

The thirty-three, all members of the 100th Field Artillery Battalion of the federalized 28th Division, met death when their stalled troop train was struck by the Pennsylvania Railroad's "Spirit of St. Louis" at Coshocton, Ohio, in the early fog-shrouded hours of Monday morning.

A train bearing the bodies of the victims and their military escorts is due to arrive at 12:20 o'clock today in this mourning city of 85,000 in eastern Pennsylvania's anti-racite region.

The seven-car train made a 37-minute stopover at Pittsburgh this morning. A 200-man army contingent presented arms as the train pulled into the station and two huge floral wreaths were placed aboard, one from the 28th Division Society and the other bearing the inscription "Pittsburgh's tribute." No civilians were permitted on the platform.

Army Chaplain Norman E. Kelly read the prayers for the dead of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths.

The flag-draped caskets will be loaded on 33 weapons carriers for the half-mile journey from the Wilkes-Barre Station to the Kingston Armory where relatives may claim the bodies.

Maj. Gen. Frank A. Weber, Pennsylvania adjutant general, said 28 of the families have requested full military burial for their soldier dead. The other five are expected to make the same request, he said.

A 33-gun salute, one for each of the victims, will be fired as the train pulls into the station.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14. — The Interstate Commerce Commission today weighed the possibility of punitive action against a 68-year-old engineer who testified he ran his passenger express through a stop signal just before striking the troop train last Monday near Coshocton, Ohio.

Eller also "guessed" his express train was running at about 50 miles per hour at the time of the crash in which 33 members of Pennsylvania's recently-federalized 28th Division were killed.

B. W. Johnson, a road foreman of engines, testified the recorded tape taken from Eller's smashed diesel indicated the train was running about 70 miles an hour shortly before the mishap and about 50 miles an hour "immediately before the crash."

The inquiry was conducted jointly by the ICC, the railroad, the Ohio Public Utility Commission and the Army.

Col. George W. Haley, representing the Department of Army Operations of Railroads, said he also will submit a report.

HIGHLIGHTS IN MARSHALL LIFE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. — Here are the highlights in the career of Gen. George C. Marshall, called out of retirement by President Truman to be secretary of defense:

Born in Unimtown, Pa., Dec. 31, 1880, he attended Virginia Military Institute, graduating in 1901.

He saw service in the Philippines and in the First World War was chief of staff of the 8th Army Corps and chief of operations of the First Army. From 1919 to 1924 he was aide to Gen. John J. Pershing.

After a rise to a field command he became chief of the war plans division of the general staff in 1938.

He was Army chief of staff from 1939 through the Second World War.

Then came a special mission to China for the President in late 1945. He was secretary of state from January, 1947 to January, 1949, when he resigned.

Skips Grades Into College

WACO, Sept. 14. — Joseph Frank Braun, 53, major in the U. S. Air Force retired, has managed something which will make him the envy of thousands of schoolboys.

Braun's formal public school education ended many years ago in the fourth grade of a rural school near Chicago. Since then Braun has married, reared a family of seven boys and spent 30 years with the Air Force. He was in World War II, serving in France and in Italy. He was stationed at Kelly Field, Chanute Field, Brooks Field, Ellington Field and at Blackland Air Base. The airman liked this area, bought a home here and decided to renew his schooling. He took the general educational development admission test, made a good score and was admitted to Baylor University as a freshman.

Now, unworried by the fact that he skipped the final grammar school classes, Braun is a happy freshman at Baylor. He even wears a green and gold cap with the lettering, "Slime Joe Braun."

HAIR OIL GOOD FOR EATING

LONDON, Sept. 14. — Sales of perfumed British hair oil for internal use — are booming in Africa.

The United Africa Co. said today:

"The natives of the gold coast spread the hair dressing on bread and eat it with great relish. The reason for this is unknown."

More "Friendship"

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 14. — Mexico City's municipal government is sending an official representative and its official orchestra to the "friendship week" celebration in San Antonio.

WCTU CALLS FOR A BAN ON BEER FOR SOLDIERS

DENVER, Sept. 14. — There will be no beer for American fighting men in Korea if the Women's Christian Temperance Union has its way.

Mrs. D. Leigh Colvin, head of the WCTU — which opened its 76th annual convention here today — said last night:

"Most Americans see no reason for alcoholic beverages being given our soldiers. There are a great many reasons why any and all drinking in the military services should be outlawed."

She called for congressional action to "protect drafted youngsters against alcoholism."

Combat soldiers in Korea have been offered a can of free beer daily, paid for by the government from public funds. Recently there were protests from the folks back home and now, although the beer distribution continues, it will be paid for from such sources as post exchange profits.

Mrs. Colvin said the question of mixing beer and fighting will rank high on the convention's agenda. She made these specific statements:

1. Congress will be urged to outlaw sale of alcohol to men in uniform anywhere.
2. It's already illegal to sell beer on military reservations under a law passed in 1901 but the law has been "circumvented." Ignored "since the start of World War II."
3. The Army and the United States Brewers' Foundation has formed "a brazen tie-up" to get brew to the fighting men.
4. Drinking in the services during the last war caused "an unprecedented number of alcoholics and drunkards among veterans."

MacArthur Okays Beer For Fighters

TOKYO, Sept. 14. — U. S. doughboys will get a free can of beer every day at the front in Korea.

Gen. MacArthur ordered it today.

Front line troops had been getting a can of beer about every three days.

They set up a howl Tuesday when Washington outlawed all free beer for men at the front.

Beer for combat troops under the new plan will be paid for out of post exchange profits instead of taxpayer's money.

To keep the record straight, Maj. Gen. William A. Belderriden, assistant chief of staff to Gen. MacArthur, said the free beer will be for combat men only.

Rear echelon troops may buy their own at the PX.

Presidential Valet Dies In Jersey City

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 14. — Bash Cruso, who served as attending valet and assistant steward to Presidents McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, and Taft, died last night at 79.

Cruso, a Negro and native of Washington, ran a stove business here. He held patents on several gas heaters. Death was caused by a heart attack.

Aircraft Executive Said Wife Beater

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 14. — Donald W. Douglas, Jr., 32, aircraft executive, is accused of wife-beating in affidavits filed by Mrs. Douglas in answer to his suit for custody of their two children.

He sued last week for custody, charging his wife, Molly, with "continued drunkenness." Yesterday she asked that he be restrained from molesting her and the children, and demanded an increase in support payments.

Personal To Women With Nagging Backache

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, or excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 60 years.
