On The DIVIDE

MI PHILOSOPHY

(By James Whitcomb Riley)
I allus argy that a man
Who does about the best he can,
Is plenty good enough to suit
This lower mundane institute—
No matter if his daily walk
Is subject for his neighbor's talk
And critic-minds of ev'ry whim
Jest all git up and go for him.

My doctrine is to lay aside
Contentions, and be satisfied;
Jest do your best, and praise or balm.

That follers that, counts jest the same.

I've allus noticed grate success
Is mixed with troubles more er less,

And it's the man who does his best

That gits more kicks than all the rest.

POPPIES

By Fenna Downey, Detroit, Mich Tiny red blossoms fragile and sweet

Bloom for a day on highway and street,

In Memory of those who've passed on to rest,

In honor of those who still do their best.

These are the flowers that loving hands make,

Working and toiling for sweet memories sake,

Into the petals of bright crimson hue

Are woven the past and the present, anew.

They are but paper these poppies so red,

Made by a veteran in a narrow white bed;

Someone who's fighting each day of his life,

God grant him courage in his struggle and strife.

Only red paper poppies, yet how much they tell

Of unselfish service and duty done well.

Tiny bright flowers, made by hand, it is true,

That bloom for one day in memory, anew.

Eldorado Moving To Kimble County For "Battle Of Eagles"

Game Called At Two O'Clock Friday

BYNUM REPORTS HIS BOYS IN GOOD PHYSICAL AND MENTAL CONDITION

The Eldorado Eagles will journey to Junction Friday of this week instead of Saturday as previously scheduled, in order that more merchants from both towns may see this important game. This game promises to be a make or break game for the two teams involved.

Eldorado will pit a well balanced, smooth working offense and defense against more weight and tackling of our team is expected to offset the advantages that Junction has in playing at home and having a fast triple threat man in McKay. This boy, McKay is looking good enough for all district and Eldorado will find their biggest job of the day in stopping him. If we are successful in stopping McKay we still have Coffey, a two hundred pound fullback and Baylor a hard driving halfback to keep from crossing that goal.

On defense Junction will try to stop our boys with a 163 pound line and a 154 pound backfield. Whether they can stop Bynum's boys for four quarters is to be determined in Junction at 2 o'clock Friday. Iraan found it impossible. Let's pull for the boys to come through this one in like manner.

Coach Bynum reports his boys in good physical and mental condition, and all of Eldorado is going to move to Kimble county Friday, to see the Eagles in their most crucial test of the year.

Hit them hard and fair for four quarters Eagles and Eldorado will be proud of you and the victory you are sure to bring home.

Garland Williams Wins Free Trio To 4-H Club Congress

Word was received here Wednesday that Garland Williams, Schleicher county 4-H Club boys was one among the 20 boys of Texas to have been awarded a free trip to Chicago.

Garland, whose 4-H project last year was in feeding sheep, was selected as one of the 20 who had kept the most complete records of their work during last year. This recognition is not only an honor to Garland in his work, but comes as a signal honor to Schleicher county and the 4-H Club boys. He is to be congratulated upon his splendid work.

Presbyterian Meeting Will Close Sunday

The revival meeting which has been in progress at the Presbyterian Church for a week will close on Sunday. Rev. B. D. D. Greer of San Antonio has been preaching twice daily during this week. He has spoken at most of the services on the characteristics of the apostles who were chosen by Christ, and what the choice of such men might indicate to men of today. He will continue these discussions at the morning services through Friday, but the evening sermons for the remainder of the meeting will be more definitely evangelistic.

The song service each evening has been in charge of Mrs. Luzelle Hicks. She has chosen old familiar hymns for her solos, with a very pleasing result to those who have heard them, so Mr. Wilkinson reports.

On Sunday there will be services at 11:00 and 7:30, with Dr. Greer preaching at both services. His subjects will be "The Dimensions of God's Love", and "Our All Sufficient Savior." Mrs. Hicks will sing at both services. The public is cordially invited.

TODAY'S TAXOGRAM

If you are a motorist, you paid a gasoline tax bill last year of $35.90, as compared to the same tax bill of $8.22 thirteen years ago (if you were a motorist then). The average gasoline tax last year was more than 5 cents per gallon and the average motorist consumed 671 gallons during the year.

NAME OMITTED

Through an error in compiling the names of Methodist church officials last week, Mrs. J. F. Isaacs' name was omitted from the list.

Mrs. Isaacs is superintendent of the children's division in the Sunday school, and by virtue of this office is also a member of the Board of Christian Education. We're sorry this error was made.

Art Exhibit Will Be On Display Here During Next Week

LOCAL PEOPLE TO EXHIBIT WORK DURING NATIONAL ART WEEK

An exhibit which should be of interest to every person in Schleicher county will be on display here during next week, which has been designated at National Art Week. Members of the Eldorado Art Club will exhibit their own paintings which reveal some unusual talent in this county.

The exhibit will be shown in the office of the Wm. Cameron & Co. lumber yard. Pictures will go on display next Tuesday and will remain on display through November 7th. The art club is opening this exhibit with a "standing tea."

About 60 pictures will be shown, none of which have ever been exhibited here before. The exhibit will feature the work of Hensel Matthews, Jr., 10-year-old boy who will show a group of fourteen pictures which he has completed.

Mrs. W. F. Meador will exhibit paintings of still life, fruit and flower scenes; Mrs. Robert Milligan, bluebonnet scene, Mrs. Claude Meador, ranch scenes.

Others who will also have pictures on display during next week are Mrs. Tom Smith, Jr., Mrs. J. B. Christian, Mrs. Tom Johnson, Mrs. Frank Spencer, P. W. Hazelwood, Mrs. A. J. Roach, Mrs. Ellen Cloud, Mrs. Dick Bearce, Mrs. Elvin Bawcom, Gene Steward, Miss Norene Ellington, Mrs. Ed Hill, Mrs. S. D. Harper and Mrs. Jack Elder.

The Art Club was organized less than a year ago, with eight members. Now the membership has grown to sixteen. The purpose of their semi-annual exhibit is to create more interest in work of these art students and to stimulate a greater appreciation of art. Some work along this line is being done in the local school.

The exhibit next week will be on par with exhibits of much larger towns, and the public is cordially invited to visit the display and enjoy the work of these people who are showing splendid talent in their paintings.

PATROLMAN TO GIVE SAFETY TALK TO ALL SCHOOL STUDENTS

Plans are now under way to have a member of the Texas Highway Patrol to come to Eldorado and make a talk on "Safety Driving" in the near future. The exact date has not been set, but it is believed that this will be an important event.

Present plans are to have all of the rural schools, if possible, represented at the meeting. Mr. Carlisle, a member of the patrol, was here Tuesday to make preliminary arrangements. A 45-minute talk will probably be made on factors of highway safety.

SPEED—THE GREAT KILLER

During recent years a number of states have adopted the "basic rule" speed law—a measure whereby no fixed maximum highway speed is prescribed, but drivers are required to operate their vehicles with due care. Today in many of those states motor vehicles officials are coming to the view that the basic rule has failed, and that a fixed speed law, rigidly enforced, is necessary to the prevention of accidents. The national organization which studied highway legislation and first advocated the basic rule, has now changed its position, and urges fixed speed limits.

So the motorist has failed in his responsibility under a law which gave the individual wide leeway in his driving habits. Speed is still the great highway killer, breeding more violent deaths than any other driving error. It is a harsh commentary on drivers that the bulk of fatal automobile accidents occur on first class, straight highways, under good weather and visibility conditions, and involve cars in passable mechanical condition.

West Texas Lumber Co.
Lumber—Windmills

Sped—the insane instinct to "open her up"—is the answer.

It is apparent that the automobile death and injury rate will continue to climb until all states cooperate to modernize their traffic codes in the light of modern conditions. Appeals to the motorist's instincts of self-preservation and public responsibility, have produced some results—but much more must be done. Speeds must be reduced. And the offending driver must be punished under laws enforced without fear or favoritism.

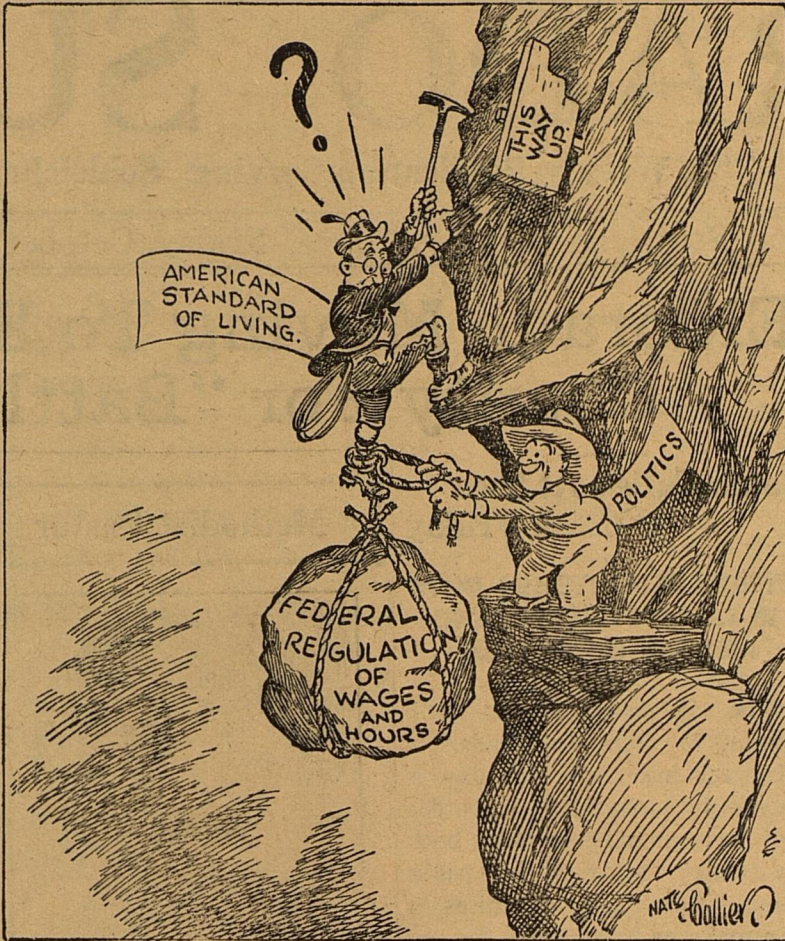

HARDY NEW ANIMALS

There appears to be no limit to the ambitions of scientists, and the amazing thing is that their ambitions are generally fulfilled by actual results. An instance is the development of a superior type of cow, able to withstand the rigors of far northern climates such as that of Alaska.

Concerning this development, Dr. Evans of the Department of Agriculture recently gave an interesting statement. Under the supervision of the department, experimental crossing of Galloway cows with the hardy Asiatic yak has produced an animal capable of subsisting on the scanty vegetation of the far north, while preserving desirable meat and milk producing qualities.

Another venture was the crossing of American cows with the Brahman sebu of the Far East, which produced an animal especially fitted to thrive in the hot, dry climates of the Southwestern states. This animal is also able to resist tick infection which is very detrimental to ordinary cattle in those regions. All this may not be exactly evolution, but it is something closely akin to it.

FARMER FAILURES

One of the leading bankers of the Northwest attributes many of the farm failures in his section to lack of experience, lack of working, capital, or both, on the part of those who have failed.

A check-up of those who had been unsuccessful as farmers in one agricultural community illustrates their contention. Among them were the following:

Two circus musicians, a paper hanger, a sailor, a seagoing engineer, two professional wrestlers, two barbers, a cigarmaker, a race horse man, a bricklayer, an undertaker, a deep sea driver, a professional gambler, a milliner and six old maids.

All of these failed as farmers, of course, as might have been foretold, and their unfavorable experiences illustrate the futility of much of the "back to the farm" propaganda that has been going about.

Even under the stress of unfavorable conditions such as are now being experienced, farmers may be found who have not only held their own but who have made material progress. But they are not the fly-by-night kind who turn to farming after failing in other pursuits.

AN AARON BURR TRICK

In New York is the 17-story building of the Bank of Manhattan company, an institution whose history goes back almost to the foundation of the government. It is recalled by a recent writer that the institution resulted from the shrewd trick of a lawyer, who was none other than the notorious Aaron Burr.

At the time the bank was projected the group behind it were "in bad" politically and hence unable to obtain a bank charter. They organized a water company instead, but in drawing the charter Burr added a clause permitting the company to engage also "in other necessary business."

The other business was construed to include banking and it was been carried on ever since. The structure in Wall street adjoins the lot formerly occupied by Federal Hall, the first national capitol, where Washington took the oath of office as President. That tract is now the site of the sub-treasury.

If Aaron Burr and his associates could look upon the scene today they would marvel at the development which has resulted from their clever scheme for obtaining a bank charter.

State To Reduce Highway Markers On Federal Highways

Motorists traveling United States designated highways in Texas no longer will be puzzled by a multitude of highway markers in thickly populated areas, according to instructions just issued by the Texas Highway Commission through Julian Montgomery, State Highway Engineer, ordering state markers taken down on such routes.

"After an exhaustive study of this whole matter of highway markings we have found that by simply using U. S. route markers it is much easier for the traveling public to follow such highways" said Mr. Montgomery. "With the trend toward simplicity and elimination of confusion caused by duplicate markers some thirty-five states are using U. S. markers exclusively to the satisfaction of all concerned.

According to the present marking, many places in the state, and especially the business districts of cities, require so many markers on each post that the traveler is forced to stop traffic while studying these markings, thus creating a safety hazard."

State highway officials state that the original purpose in assigning U. S. route numbers was to simplify the markings of highways enabling the traveling public to follow the route, to, or through, other states.

These U. S. route numbers are designated by the executive committee of the American Association of State Highway Officials after a careful consideration of the needs for such designation as submitted by the states.

According to Mr. Montgomery, the elimination of state markers from U. S. routes will result in a considerable saving to the department. He further said that state markers would remain in place on state highways which have not been designated as U. S. routes and which do not carry standard U. S. shield markers.

Rev. J. W. Leggett Tells Of His Trip To West Texas Conference, San Antonio

Last Wednesday morning, Rev. F. G. Clark and myself left for San Antonio to attend the annual session of the West Texas conference.

There was a banquet at the Y. M. C. A. at six o'clock for preachers of the San Angelo district and their wives, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Ennis B. Hill of Junction, who were married early in September.

The conference opened at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in Travis Park Methodist church, Bishop

H. A. Boaz presiding.

On Thursday morning, delegates to the General Conference, which meets every four years were elected. Eight were elected. Dr. L. U. Spellman, our presiding elder, headed the list, which means he is one of the most popular ministers in the conference. This is an outstanding honor of which we of this district are very proud.

The vote for uniting the Northern, Southern and Protestant Methodists as one church carried by a vote of 247 for and 5 against.

Speakers representing our work at home and abroad were heard with pleasure and profit to all. The general reports indicated money raised for all interests of the church were greater than in several years. Our district shows the salaries paid and only $419 short on the missionary enterprises of the church. We had over 600 received into the church in our district, a net gain of over 200. There are eight districts in the West Texas Conference, and all show an increase in membership.

Bishop Boaz preached a great sermon to a packed house at eleven o'clock Sunday. Bishop Moore preached a soul stirring sermon to all that could get in the church and to several hundred who filled the basement of the church, who heard him through a loud speaker.

The appointments were read by Bishop Boaz following Bishop Moore's sermon.

As you doubtless know, we were assigned to labor for another year. We are expecting great things from the Lord and we need your hearty cooperation.

One afternoon, we visited the 20 million dollar air port at Randolph Field, the Kelly and Duncan air ports, Fort Sam Houston Fort Travis and Dodd Army Camp at which forts we saw several thousand soldiers and airmen. One man told us the training and movement of soldiers there are similar to 1917—hope it does not mean what it meant then.

J. W. Leggett.
P. S. Bro. Clark "acted" very nice on the trip.

OFFICERS ELECTED FOR REYNOLDS HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Reynolds Home Demonstration Club met on Wednesday Oct. 20, in the home of Mrs. W. E. Bruton. The club enjoyed the interesting program, which was a diversion from the regular routine.

Miss Pat Talbot and Mrs. Palmer West, delegates to the state convention at San Antonio, had charge of the program. Miss Talbot gave a vivid description of their trip and told about the election of state officers. After she had finished, Mrs. West added a few interesting details.

Officers were also elected at this meeting. They are: Mrs. W. E. Bruton, president; Mrs. Fred Matthews, vice-president; Mrs. Roy Glen Gardner, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Elvis Craig, reporter; Mrs. Shaw, parliamentarian, and Mrs. Orville James, council delegate.

Besides those mentioned, Mrs. Otto Sauer and Mrs. Shaw, a new member, were present. Visitors were Miss Pat Talbot, Mrs. Palmer West, Mrs. John Faught, Mrs. Annice Craig, and Bernice Faught.

Mrs. L. Wheeler Conducts Study For Missionary Group

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church last Monday afternoon, with Mrs. W. E. Cloud and Mrs. A. T. Wright as hostesses.

Mrs. L. Wheeler conducted the study for the evening, giving a very interesting talk on the subject of "The Moslem World." Following this enjoyable feature, refreshments of cake and ice cream were served to the following members and guests:

Mesdames L. Wheeler, O. E. Conner, Reuben Dickens, J. F. Isaacs, Betty Tubb, J. W. Leggett, Ueldon Bynum, Dave Williamson, W. H. McClatchey, Ben Hext, Cora Putman, Miss Bessie McClary and Mrs. J. W. Williamson of Amarillo.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. J. F. Isaacs, with Mrs. O. E. Conner and Mrs. W. H. McClatchey as hostesses. Mrs. Dave Williamson will be leader.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS ENJOY WEINER ROAST

SHALL WE GO TO WAR?

As we read the papers these days, our mind goes back to the stirring times of 1917 and 1918, when our American boys crossed the briny deep and fought as only Americans can fight. What for? The big war speakers and the money controlled press said to make the world safe for Democracy, a decent place to live in.

Some of them went so far as to promise that there would be no more war—that we were fighting a war to end all wars. Instead of the world being safe for Democracy, there is less Democracy in the world now than there has been at any time since ancient times.

We can see the promise that we were fighting a war to end all wars was rather a wild promise, too.

They made a lot of wild promises, and spread a lot of propaganda, but of course they had to do something to fool the American people and try to make them believe that they had something to fight for.

They are starting in the same way now, and are preparing to plunge us into a war. Unless the American people rise up and say we are not going into a foreign war, they will be sending American boys to fight on the foreign battle fields. Their bodies will be torn to bits, their blood to redden the ground on a foreign battle field.

Remember, you fathers and mothers who read these lines, it might be your boy—and remember, wives it might be your husband; and, young ladies, it might be your sweetheart.

Oh, but they say it's for humanity's sake! They say the Japs are treating the Chinese badly! No doubt they are. They say the Japs have broken a treaty. Right again, but what nation over there has not been guilty of breaking their solemn agreements? Only little Finland! She meets her obligations with clock-like regularity.

If it's for humanity's sake, they just as well have told the Italians to stay out of Ethiopia. Ethiopia had been an independent nation for more than four thousand years.

No, it's not for humanity's sake. It's the commercial interests the big boys have in China. They have exploited the Chinese until they seem to think it is not only a privilege but a duty to do so.

I don't think I'm unpatriotic when I say that if four hundred million Chinese, with England, France and Russia to furnish them materials, can't whip sixty million Japs, I would not give one bright-eyed American boy for the whole bunch.

Dan Hocker.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

AUSTIN.—The daily newspapers of Texas—by the time this mail dispatch is in type—probably will have chronicled the final passage of a "mild" omnibus tax bill by the Texas legislature second called session, and the session will have gone into the limbo of history. Adoption by the senate, at the weekend, of a tax bill designed to raise about $2,500,000, was regarded as guaranteeing final passage of a tax bill. But only the final hour of the session could reveal exact details of the new tax measure.

IMPORTANT SESSION

Regardless of the details, however, the special session may go down in history as the most important in eight years, for it marked what most observers here regarded as a definite indication of a return to sanity in state government. On the strength of developments brought out at the session, many believed the following distinct trends of sentiment were revealed:

1. An end to the constant expansion of governmental functions, and its accompanying depression emergency, and has hung on ever since.
2. A definite demand by the taxpayers for a reduction in governmental expenditure, elimination of duplication and waste, consolidation and abolition of useless bureaus and commissions, reduction of excessive higher bracket salaries, elimination of hundreds of useless employes who have attached themselves like barnacles to the vicious patronage system of state government, and better control methods for state expenditures.

Of course if it doesn't help you, see your doctor.

3. Restoration of the constitutional allocation of funds for the public schools, by removing the excess allocations and returning the excess to the long-suffering general fund, which was sacrificed during the depression to keep the school going.

Senate Regains Prestige

Another of the more important by-products of the "tax" session has been a tremendous change in public opinion concerning the upper house of the legislature. The senate, originally designed as a deliberative body to act as a "brake" against precipitate and ill-considered action, has been the "goat" during the past few years, when everybody looked to the government to support him—by reason of its conservative refusal to go along with the house on unlimited pensions for everybody, and other exaggerations of the social security program. This time, the senate, meeting the demand for more taxes with a counter attack showing extravagance and waste in government, has found public sentiment swinging in its direction. The governor, who has used the senate as a foil for his own political plans for three years, was probably more amazed than anybody in Austin, to find the old cry of "wolf," directed at the senate, found little public response this time. Even the magic formula of President Roosevelt's name, to which Allred resorted in desperation repeatedly in his message, his press conferences, and even in his own "news" column which he sends out weekly to newspapers, failed to evoke a response from the taxpayers.

No Second Session Now

The outcome so demoralized the governor's plans for a second $150,000 special session at which he planned to jam thru a public utility regulation bill, that he called that off entirely. The unexpected response of the public to the senate's refusal to hike taxes greatly, and the outstanding work of the senate economy committee in pointing out governmental extravagance, have effectively squelched whatever sentiment there may have existed for a unicameral legislature in Texas for the present at least. That situation also thwarted other possible plans of Gov. Allred, who has been flirting with the idea of running for a third term on the unicameral issue. Unless the federal judgeship materializes at the next regular session of congress, political observers here now believe that Gov. Allred will be out of public life with the expiration of his present term.

Farm Relief Prospect

Of greater concern to Texans, perhaps, than any other issue today, is what the special session of congress will do in November about a farm program. The collapse of the cotton market, in the face of a record-breaking crop this fall, has worked severe hardship on Texas farmers and Texas business. The government's emergency loan program has, due to red tape and other difficulties, been of but little practical benefits.

Marvin Jones, of Amarillo, chairman of the house agriculture committee, who probably will have more to do with the writing of the farm relief bill than any other house member, has been touring the state, conferring with farmers about the situation. He has some very definite ideas about what ought to be included in next year's program. These include, (1) continuation of the soil conservation program, with cash benefits; (2) development of the "evernormal" grainery program, insuring against both scarcity and excessive surpluses; (3) provision for graduated benefit payments to large producers, to insure tenants a fair share, and encourage the small farmer; (4) greater administration of local people, and less bureaucratic dictation from Washington.

Cost Is Obstacle

The cost of the program, however, Jones sees as the greatest obstacle. With the declaration of President Roosevelt this week for a balanced budget, and a specific demand by the president that whatever farm relief legislation is enacted must carry with it a tax to finance it 100 per cent the Texas leader is not optimistic.

"It would take a processing tax of at least 8 cents per pound to finance parity payment for domestically consumed cotton alone, he told this writer. "There is but $500,000,000 of federal appropriation available for from relief now, and congress, of course, must consider the corn farmer, the wheat farmers, and those who raise other principal crops, as well as the cotton farmer. But the man in the White House is the best friend the American farmer has had for 100 years, and we shall endeavor to lay the foundation for a long-range program, and improve as valuable experience we have acquired in the past few years."

Baptist W. M. S. Holds Meeting At Church Monday

The ladies of the W. M. S. met at the First Baptist Church last Monday afternoon at 2:30 for the regular monthly business meeting and Bible study.

Mrs. Bailey Montgomery taught the 52nd and 53 chapters of Isaiah. Her ability to teach the Bible is unusual, and those who are interested in the study of the Bible are urged to meet with these ladies every fourth Monday.

The president asked that the W. M. S. meet collectively on November 1st at the church, instead of in the regular circle meetings. The purpose of this meeting is for an outlook on the Golden Jubilee year's work which is to be done next year, and an in gathering of the offering to state missions.

Mrs. R. O. Smith met with seven in her Sunbeam Band. The personal service chairman, Mrs. J. A. Whitten, is stressing visitation for the month of November as her directed personal service work.

Those present were Mesdames L. M. Hoover, Will Lewis, Tom Jacoby, Ray Jones, R. C. Spurgers, Gordie Alexander, Mattie Cozzens, W. T. Whitten, Jess Thompson, Tom Johnson, Clyde Galbreath, L. T. "THE REST OF THE RECORD"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

As this column is written, the Legislature has only three more days of actual work. I don't know whether they will have passed any substantial tax bill for the people's program. At this time the outlook is very doubtful.

In any event, it seems to be conceded that I was right in refusing to submit appropriation bills which some of the Senators said they wanted to revise after they had voted for them during the regular session. On Tuesday of last week one of the leading writers for a big daily said my judgement that the submission of appropriations was impractical had been vindicated by the action of the Legislature itself.

The record shows that after some of the Senators had told through the newspapers about what they would do if I submitted appropriations to them, they suddenly decided that I had done so and accordingly considered economy wide open to them. The Senate passed one bill affecting the state departments without a hearing and sent it over to the House. Then they admitted the bill would have to be worked over BUT they didn't do anything at all with reference to economizing on the education bill which they had voted out last spring with the biggest increase of all the appropriation bills. Furthermore the Senate did nothing on the judiciary bill which had substantially increased the salaries of all the judges.

These bills didn't even get out of committee and Senator Stone, who had been one of the loudest of all in saying that he would economize, voted to put off any hearing on these bills, even in committee.

With only eight days left to work, the House of Representatives passed a resolution asking me to submit appropriations for economy; BUT even the author of the resolution said on the floor that his purpose was to "put the monkey" on the Governor's back.

I knew that if I were to submit appropriations the Legislature couldn't revise them intelligently in so short a time when they had considered appropriations for four months before. I also knew that to get the subject on the calendar would block absolutely the chances of passing any tax bill to finance the old folks, the blind, the dependent children, and our part of the teachers' retirement system.

Of course, not even those who have been talking so loudly about economy claimed for a moment that they could finance by economy the aid to the blind, to dependent children, the old folks and the teachers. All they could hope to do even if they passed economy bills would be to reduce the deficit in the general fund out of which the general operation of the government is paid.

There has been so much talk about how much money the so-called "economists" could save by abolishing the liquor board that I want the people to have the facts.

In the first place, we wouldn't have any enforcement law. In the next place, the present administrator, Bert Ford, collected in his first ten months of service a million dollars more than was collected in the preceding ten months. Thus, he has collected enough additional money in ten months to more than pay the operation of his entire department for over a year and enforced the liquor law in addition.

EMPLOYEES OF THE TEXAS COMPANY SIGN UP FOR INSURANCE

More than 99 and one-half percent of the 22,470 eligible employees of the Texas Corporation and subsidiary companies in the United States and Canada have signed up under the corporation's group life insurance and pension plan, it was announced last week by W. S. S. Rodgers, president of the Texas Corporation.

The plan, which became effective on July 1st, is supported by contributions on the part of individual employees and the company, and provides for death benefits and pensions. To date 113 employees have received pension checks and 26 death claims amounting to $77,719.82 have been paid.

West Texas 4-H Club Boys Are Feeding Sheep For Show And Profit!

In West Texas 4-H club boys are busy selecting, buying and feeding sheep for show and profit, according to reports from county agricultural agents in that section.

H. T. Espy and Jack Shurley of Sutton county, with the assistance of their county agricultural agent, recently selected 25 and 30 ewes respectively for their breeding flock demonstrations. Espy topped out 25 delaine ewes from a flock of 500 and Shurley topped his 30 from a flock of 600 two-year-old rambouillet ewes. Rams for these two demonstrations will be selected soon and the flocks will be run in small pastures.

County agricultural agent H. C. Atchinson, Jr. of Sutton county selected and purchased four registered rambouillet yearling rams from George Williams of Schleicher county for the 4-H club flock of Robert and Dock Simmons, Billy Shurely and Robert Kelley. The rams were carrying 13 1-2 months fleece and sheared from 19 to 24 pounds of good staple wool.

Several 4-H club boys of Reagan county have begun their lamb feeding demonstrations, and they are proud to have a large new 4-H feeding barn for their own use this year. E. J. Martin is feeding two buck lambs and two ewes from the Bob Ferguson flock. J. A. Roach, Jr. has selected 6 lambs from Reginald Atkinson's flock. Dolf Miller also received 5 lambs from the Atkinson flock. John Harold Holt is feeding 10 lambs, 5 of which he chose from his father's flock and the other 5 were from the Gordon Roach flock. The boys all plan to attend the San Angelo spring show and various other shows during the year.

Classes Select Candidates In Race For Talon Queen

On Tuesday afternoon, the high school classes met for the purpose of electing the candidates for queen of the year book. From all indications there are several queens in each class, and the choice was hard to make. The final voting was very close in all classes.

The freshman class chose Ruth Allineen Danford over Kathleen Crosby and Rachel Ford.

The sophomores turned in a class vote between Beatrice Wright and Doll Weatherly, the final ballot favoring Beatrice Wright.

The junior class voted Billie B. Steward as a slight favorite over Thelia Luedecke, last year's candidate for queen honors.

The seniors possibly had the closest vote between Mabel Whitley and Ernestine Finnigan. The final vote gave Ernestine a scant margin over Mabel.

The classes agreed to support the representatives one hundred percent. The contest should be a lively one and at the same time a congenial one.

Community friends are urged to boost your favorite candidate. It costs only one cent or one good wire coat hanger to cast a vote for one of these beautiful girls.

Students, sing the praises of your favorite, and lets make enough money to have a larger and better "Talon" at the same cost to the student buyer.

Vote for your candidate at school or at any business house in Eldorado. Don't buy candy with your pennies, buy votes for your queen.

New Cooling System Installed At Stanford's Dairy

The addition of a new cooling system is the newest improvement at Stanford's Dairy. We made a trip out there Wednesday to inspect the new do-dad.

It is an electrically cooled out fit, over which the milk is allowed to pour slowly immediately after milking. When it runs from the cooling apparatus into a container, ready for bottling, it has been cooled down to just above the freezing point.

Mr. Stanford explained that the addition of this cooler and a 3-compartment container for washing bottles brings his dairy up to a grade A standards. Everything about the dairy emphasizes the fact that utmost care is taken to see that all requirements for cleanliness is adhered to from the time milk is taken from the cow until it is bottled and ready for delivery to customers.

FINE INTEREST

Fine interest is shown in the week of prayer for State Missions at the Baptist church. Information is being received on the different phases of our work in Texas. Texas Baptists have set themselves to the task of raising $100,000 during the month of October for State Missions.

Our people are showing fine interest in this most challenging task. We have in Texas 3,024 churches, with a combined membership of 600,000. Surely with all these doing their part, our goal will be reached.
