Herbert Hoover Jr. Is Recuperating At Camp

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. 1.Pt-Herbert Hoover, Jr., temporarily disabled by a slight illness, is recuperating at the President's camp on the Ropidan River in Virginia, on leave of absence from the Western Air Express

The President's son plans to absent himself from his duties as radio technical advisor for the aviation company for two or three months but he expects to spend only a few days at the Rapidan camp now. He will return to the White House to spend some time with his parents.

The illness of young Hoover, who has made a place for himself among the leading experts of the aviation world in a remarkably short time, was said at the White House to have been a minor affair, of no serious consequences.

CALL this "Matty's Lemon Pie" because a man I from Missouri told me it was as good as that made by an old colored cook named Matty-and he once rode 10 miles on horseback and rowed a mile across the Missouri River just to eat her

'Matty's Pie" is just sweet enough-with an overtone of fresh, piquant fruit, crowned with a pert meringue, browned to a golden glow and served in a Crisco pastry shell, as crisp on the bottom as it is around the edge—as only Crisco pastry can be.

MATTY'S LEMON PIE

1 lemon, juice and grated rind 1 orange, juice and pulp 2 egg yolks, beaten light 3 tablespoons cornstarch lemon pie.

1 cup granulated sugar ½ tenspoon salt 2 tablespoons Crisco 1½ cups water

Bent egg volks light and stir in mixed dry ingredients. Add liquids, lemon rind and Crisco. Cook in double boiler until thick. Cook. Pour into baked shell. Cover with meringue (2 egg white beaten stiff blended with 4 tablespoons granulated sugar and 1 tenspoon lemon purch. Brown in moderate oven (350° F.) for 15 minutes.

FLAKIER PIE-CRUST

(and a short cut) If you haven't made preserust with Crisco, you've yet to dis enver how really tender and flaky pre-crust can be! Sweet-tasting, too, because Urisin fastes sweet and pure all by itself - and comes to you to shi in an art-light can.

To save time in preliaking you can keep this pastry dough, already ration, in the assessment bake a crust just when you need it. It will stay sweet, because Crisco itself stays sweet. The many pictures of candidates have made it hard to tell whether the newspapers are comic supplements or collections of patent medicine testimonials.

While each vote grabber claims to have the cure for all of our civic ills in a bottle which will uncork if the inxpayers sup-ply the corkscrew in the form of a salary, yet there is no grar-antee to get your money back if not as represented.

We do not guarantee that the taste of Cunningham & Philips Drug Stores' medicine will delight you, but the results will sure-ly give you your money's worth.
