Cheatham Brings In County's First Bale

Hop Cheatham, one of Schleicher County's bigger cotton farmers, and for the first time winner of the first bale premium, came in Monday again with a first bale for which he was awarded a premium of $72.50. The bale weighed out 504 pounds and was ginned free at the Farmers Co-op Gin. The cotton was grown on the Mrs. Dora Boothe Farm, on which Mr. Cheatham has about 150 acres in cotton.

The bale was sold to Payne Robinson at 35c per pound, making a total of $176.40. The gin paid $60 per ton for the seed, for which Mr. Cheatham received $27.

On Tuesday Mr. Cheatham caught in the rain on his way to town with another bale, narrowly escaped injury when the trailer turned over.

Contributing to the first bale premium were:

Mr. Cheatham extends his thanks to the gin and to the public for their generosity.

Among others in Schleicher Co. who have some cotton acreage are A. J. Halbert, about 100 acres; Eck Moore, Hugh McAngus, John West, W. A. Blaylock, G. E. Wood and others.

AT 4-H ENCAMPMENT

Tommy Green and Howard Mittel as delegates from the Boys' 4-H Clubs of Schleicher County, accompanied by County Agent W. G. Godwin and Sponsor A. J. Mund, attended the annual 4-H Club Roundup at Texas A & M College August 28 to 30. The boys and their leaders report a very enjoyable and profitable trip.

Tax Election Coming Up On Saturday

All qualified tax paying voters of Schleicher County are urged to go to the polls Saturday and vote their sentiments at the election, setting the school tax for the new rural high school at not to exceed one dollar per hundred dollar valuation.

All voters in the county will vote at the school house. The election is necessary to authorize the board to set a uniform tax rate for Schleicher County.

Reynolds Attends School Conference

Supt. Reynolds went to San Angelo Wednesday to join with other school executives in this area in receiving instructions on the school lunch program, the equalization set-up (bus transportation aid) and other problems confronting school administrators at the opening of the school year. The conference will be in charge of State Supt. L. A. Wood, assisted by several others. These questions are of special interest to the local school, as the school transportation system is new this year, and the school lunch program has been shifted to the states, which will call for new reports.

Deductible Clause Placed in Texas Windstorm Policies

Unpredictable Texas weather recently brought a sharp revision in windstorm insurance policies.

Effective Sept. 1 all new and renewal policies will carry a $100 deductible clause for city properties and a $50 deductible clause for farm properties, the State Board of Insurance Commissioners announced recently. Policies written before September 1, 1946 are not affected by the ruling.

This plan was adopted in lieu of a 75 to 100% increase in windstorm insurance justified by the past five year record on which insurance rates are based, Fire Commissioner Marvin Hall said.

WHO IS SHE?

A mystery woman took a free ride to San Angelo as a guest of Schleicher County!

Appearing in town Monday, she was brought to the courthouse by county officials when she said she could not find a place to sleep.

She seemed confused when questioned, and stated that a coke which someone bought for her somewhere else must have been doped — yet a local doctor who examined her could find nothing wrong.

She was neat in appearance, about 25 years old, and wore no rings.

Tuesday she was given a bus ticket to San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy and children, Sally Dee and John Keno of Los Angeles, Calif., have been visiting here with Mrs. Kennedy's aunt, Mrs. Keno Ogden, and Mr. Ogden. The Kennedys came to Texas at the death of Mr. Kennedy's father.

SANTA FE OFFICE HANDLES HEAVY LOCAL BUSINESS

The heaviest business in the history of the local office is reported by L. D. Ochsner, Santa Fe depot agent at Eldorado.

With the establishment of the REA a year and a half ago, the business has been steadily increasing as various doodlebuggers, oil crews, street crews and others work on a growing list of Schleicher County projects.

Materials shipped in for the various activities under way constitute the heaviest consignments of freight the Eldorado office has ever handled.

RAINFALL TUESDAY

Rains which averaged about a half inch fell Tuesday in and near Eldorado, but missed much of the remainder of the county.

San Angelo, Christoval, and a part of the county received a rain during the weekend.

The rain was of great benefit to areas in which it fell, but much more is needed. Eldorado's street-work, at a standstill Tuesday, was resumed the following day.

LIONS MEET

Discussion of and further plans for the annual Lamb Sale were made at the regular meeting of the Lions' Club Wednesday. Guests included seven representatives from the PTA. No other business was conducted at the meeting.

Hop's Cotton Hops Out

S. H. (Hop) Cheatham, who brought in the first bale of cotton, Monday, was not so lucky with his second bale. Coming in Tuesday from the farm on Mrs. Dora Boothe's place, he was caught in the shower, and in some manner, his trailer overturned near Lum Davis' field, spilling the cotton, and causing his pick-up to jump about six feet in the air, but it did not overturn.

Considerable damage was done to the trailer, smashing the sideboards and end-gate. Most of the cotton was saved with only a small loss. Mr. Cheatham feels lucky that he was not injured as the tongue of the trailer, in overturning, twisted, possibly causing the pick-up to stay upright. Had this not happened, the accident might have proved more serious.

He salvaged his cotton from the water along the roadside and took it back home to dry out!

P. T. A. SIGNS UP NEW MEMBERS FOR 1946-7 YEAR

The committee for securing new members for the Parent Teachers Association were on the job Tuesday morning at the school opening, starting the year's work off with a "bang." Check-up on the exact number of members joining this week is not ready at present, but from the looks of the number of yellow badges being worn, a good start has already been made. Most of the ladies were securing membership for their husbands also.

The first meeting of the organization will be on Tuesday evening, Sept. 17 at 8:00 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Everyone is urged to be present for the get-together, introduction of teachers, program and social.

Enrollment At New High

A record breaking enrollment was noted in the Eldorado School this week when classes opened Wednesday morning with a total enrollment in the school of 395. The largest increase is in the Grade School with an enrollment of 281, an increase of some 56 over last year's enrollment of 225. The High School enrollment totaled 114 Wednesday.

About 5 to 7 more pupils will enroll in the next few days in the Grade School, stated Wyndall Hall, principal, and there is an acute desk shortage and some congestion at the present time, he said.

Many new pupils have entered the school, even more than expected officials have noted. Many of these are from the country schools, while there are also a number of newcomers to the city and country.

Enrollment by grades follows: First, 40; Second, 40; Third, 34; Fourth, 27; Fifth, 42; Sixth, 34; Seventh, 33; Eighth, 31; Freshmen, 24; Sophomores, 25; Juniors, 36; Seniors, 29.

This enrollment will change from time to time as new busses are secured and children from the other county schools are brought into Eldorado. A possible change in rooms as well as addition of teachers will probably take place at this time.

Bill Green was one of three who tied for second, third, and fourth places in the bull riding events at the Mertz Spring Creek Arena Sunday. Events lasting through Sunday and Monday were well attended.

School Auditorium Packed At Opening

Lamb Sale Committees Now At Work

Plans are being completed for the annual PTA and Lions Club Lamb Sale to be held on Saturday, Sept. 14. Cards were mailed out last week to ranchmen and stockfarmers asking for donations of lambs. They are being asked to please bring in their lambs on Friday or early Saturday morning before the sale. A committee will be ready to take care of these.

A committee from the PTA and Lions Club has been appointed to invite merchants of San Angelo to attend the auction, and letters were mailed this week to them, informing them that the group will be in San Angelo Tuesday, Sept. 10. Mrs. Horace Linticum, finance chairman of the PTA has appointed Mmes. Jimmie West, Carroll White, W. R. Bearce, Lewis Ballew, Buster Gunn and Perry Mitter to work with the Lions Club committee in canvassing the merchants of San Angelo.

Mrs. John Williams has been appointed as chairman of the Food Stand, and Mrs. James Williams will work with the Lions Club committee on the Cake Walk. Mrs. Leslie Baker will assist E. H. Topliffe and others in securing salads for the barbecue. Donations of eggs to be used in the salads will be greatly appreciated by this committee. J. H. Mace is in charge of the barbecue and beans.

DAUGHTER OF RANCHMAN ENTERS STEPHENS COLLEGE

Miss Helen Caroline Case of Eldorado has been accepted for admission at Stephens College for women at Columbia, Mo., and will leave for the opening of the fall term there on September 20. Although registration for the 114th term will start on September 16, regular college activities will begin with the All School Convocation September 20.

Miss Case is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percival F. Case, Eldorado, Schleicher County ranchers.

Brand New School Bus Makes Complete Trial Run on Friday

It was All Aboard last Friday afternoon when the first school bus was received by the School Trustees from Milton Kenley, San Angelo school bus dealer. Some said the school trustees and superintendent were as bad as school children with a new toy as they waited at the school house for the bus to arrive from San Angelo.

Sam Oglesby, Jr., school board president, Horace Linticum and wife and children, Jerry Pennington and sons and Supt. C. A. Reynolds and wife and children and Brownlee Blakeway, driver, piled in to make the first run of a school bus under the new Rural High School setup. The bus left the school at 5:45 p. m. and followed the temporary route established for the bus. Stops were made at various places along the way where the children will be picked up. The elated passengers were much interested in the reaction of people along the way as the bus with Eldorado School Bus written on the side passed. Children and parents were seen to come to windows and doors to see the bus pass. People in cars along the road would turn and watch as the bus passed down the road. The bus arrived at the Reynolds School house exactly 42 minutes after leaving the City and was back in town in one hour and 39 minutes. At 7:15 when the bus stopped in front of one house to simulate a regular stop, a little boy came out and the driver asked him if he wanted to get in and go to school. The boy said he guessed not as he wasn't dressed. The driver assured him he would be by about Wednesday to pick him up. With the trial run, a new and progressive phase in the history of Schleicher County had been made.

The new bus is the first of a group that is being secured to put into operation a transportation system for Schleicher County in line with the recent annexation program adopted by the people to give children of the County better opportunity. The bus is a 48 passenger Ford with a Superior body and is complete with heater, fan, fire extinguisher, and first aid kit.

One of the largest crowds ever before, and sprinkled with many new faces, was present for the opening exercises of the Eldorado School, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The large crowd filled the auditorium and balcony to overflowing with many finding standing room only in the entrances.

Supt. C. A. Reynolds, who is beginning his 8th consecutive year here, had charge of the program which opened with a song by the assembly and the invocation by Rev. F. B. Faust. Several vocal numbers by the Girls' Trio composed of Vera Fay Biggs, Patsy Ballew and Frankie Thompson accompanied by Mrs. James Page, and music by the school band under the direction of C. F. Jones, were included on the program.

Supt. Reynolds made the address of welcome followed by the introduction of new teachers. Peyton Cain, who after an absence of four years in the Army, is back at the job of teaching, spoke on the value of an education, which he realizes more than ever after coming in contact with many men who had very little education. Mr. Cain stressed his willingness to cooperate in any way with students, parents and teachers, and to help further education and improve the quality of our school wherever possible.

Wyndall Hall, Grade School principal, also expressed his willingness to cooperate with students and parents, in any way he could serve them best.

Supt. Reynolds spoke of the annexation of the Schleicher County Schools into the Eldorado Independent District, and made announcements concerning busses, two of which were on the job Wednesday morning. Promises of two more busses have been made, one between the 9 and 15 of September and another about Oct. 1. Reynolds asked the parents to bear with the school until the difficulties of transportation could be worked out suitably, and said that transportation for every child in the county would be provided as soon as possible. "The advantages of the annexation will more than overshadow the disadvantages," he stated.

Supt. Reynolds also announced that the school luncheon which opened Wednesday morning would continue to serve adequate meals and that the price would be increased from 15 cents to 20 cents. "If those in charge feel they can provide the meals at the old rate, the price will be decreased later," he said.

Mrs. Edwin Jackson, president of the PTA, made announcements concerning the organization, and the Lamb Sale scheduled for Sept. 15.

The program concluded with the school song accompanied by the band.

Health and science courses will be stressed this year in the upper grades, including 6th, 7th and 8th.

Mollie Turner Opens Her Piano Studio

Miss Mollie Turner has returned to Eldorado and is re-opening her piano studio on September 16. She is receiving old students back in her class, she states, and will take a few new ones also.

Miss Turner has returned to the city in improved health, after a summer in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Isaacs have returned from Ft. Worth where they visited Willie Isaacs and family.

A group of Schleicher County residents attended the steer roping at Clovis, N. M. and at Midland during the week end. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Whitten, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wheeler, Kenno Ogden, Jack Whitten, Seth Ramsey, Horace Linthicum, Claude Meadors and R. J. Page. They returned home Monday.

First Baptists Okey Improvement Program

At a call meeting at the First Baptist Church Wednesday night, members of the church approved a $5,000 church improvement report submitted by committees, and took steps to raise funds for the project.

Raising of necessary money will be in the hands of a finance committee appointed last night, composed of E. C. Hill, J. W. Alexander, A. J. Halbert, C. W. Mund, Perry Mittel and R. L. McWhorter. The entire project will consist of four definite goals, street paving, installation of a Hammond organ, air conditioning, and choir loft and pulpit renovation.

The paving project will tie in with the city street paving work now under way. The church will pay for the paving from edge of the city paving to the curb, along church property, including 150 feet, 108 feet, and 100 feet stretches along the building grounds and parsonage. Authority to build a curb was voted, but to date no one to do that work has been located.

The Hammond organ is to be bought at a cost of over $2,000, delivery to be made in six or eight months. The third project, air conditioning for the church, will consist of installation of a Frigidaire unit, for which application has been made from an army surplus office, cost to be approximately $900.

Radical changes in the choir loft and pulpit are planned, to include reconditioning and rearranging of choir seats and purchase of new pulpit furniture. The entire improvement project will be carried out at a cost of about $5,000, funds to be raised by the finance committee, and work to start at once.

Derrick Up On Koy 3

Injury of two men in an oil well blaze, erection of a derrick at Cooper-Koy No. 3, and digging of slush pits for No. 4 constitute the week's news from the Eldorado oil field.

Two men from out of town, here to assist with one of the Page wells, which was undergoing acidizing, were taken to San Angelo for treatment for burns, sustained when the gas ignited, as a match was struck.

At dusk Sunday evening, the Parker crew, at work on Cooper Koy No. 3, swung the rotary rig in place over the hole, and drilling is now under way. Upon completion of No. 3, it is planned to start immediately on the fourth well, which Cooper Gas Co., will put down on a Page location, and on which slush pits have been dug.

Sam Garcia, brother of Martin Garcia has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Guisita Garcia, but is returning today to his work in the San Angelo Clinic Hospital.

To those who are awaiting delivery of their New Oldsmobiles

Series "70" Club Sedan. GM Hydra-Matic Drive optional at extra cost.

A Word of Appreciation... and a Suggestion, too!

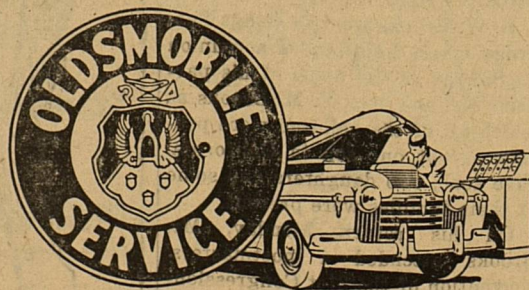

We know how anxious you are to get your new Oldsmobile. And there's nothing we'd like better to do, right now, than to say to every Oldsmobile buyer: "Your car is here. Come get it!"

But frankly, it just isn't possible to do that. There still aren't enough new Oldsmobiles to go around. Due to shortages in materials and unavoidable limitations on production, the output of new cars still is behind schedule. And our allotments are far below the figures that we originally anticipated.

We want to assure you, however, that everything possible is being done, both here and at the factory, to get your car in your hands promptly. And we'd like to take this occasion to thank you sincerely for the patient and considerate way in which you have borne with us during this period of waiting.

Meanwhile, we have an important suggestion: Don't neglect the car you drive today.

The war has taught us all the importance of careful upkeep and regular service. While you're waiting for your new Oldsmobile, therefore, be sure to take advantage of our factory-authorized Oldsmobile service program. We are offering every kind of modern automotive service—from lubrication to major overhauls. Regular servicing of your car will safeguard your investment and assure you of safe, dependable transportation until that great day when your new Oldsmobile is here!

Engagement Is Announced

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Mary Jane Hanna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hanna of Cheraw and Newberry, S. C. to M-Sgt. Robert Sproul Jr. of Eldorado and Brooks Field.

Miss Hanna was graduated from Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C. in June where she was president of Kappa Pi, national honorary art fraternity, and art editor of The Journal, the college literary magazine.

She was also a member of Le Cercle Francais and Die Deutsche Gesellschaft and served as college marshal her junior year. Miss Hanna is descended from General William Jefferson Hanna, Second of York, and William Jefferson Hanna Third of Chesterfield County.

Sgt. Sproul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sproul, Sr. of this city. He served three years as an officer in the Air Transport Command during the war, prior to his enlistment in May. He is now stationed at Brooks Field with the Tenth Air Force.

The wedding will take place this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Humphrey spent Sunday visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ratliff, of San Angelo.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Funeral services for Harold D. Patterson, 22, nephew of Ernest Finnigan, were held at Marshall, Texas, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 3. Mr. Patterson died of injuries received in a car accident near Tesque N. M., Saturday. The car in which he was riding overturned on the highway, rolling over twice. He was hurled 15 feet. Mr. Patterson's wife is from Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Finnigan attended the funeral services.

METHODIST STUDY COURSE OPENS SUNDAY NIGHT

A study on "Alcoholism," conducted by the Rev. F. B. Faust, and sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will begin Sunday evening, Sept. 8 at 8:00 o'clock at the Methodist Church.

The study will continue through four consecutive Sunday evenings, and every one is invited to hear this course which concerns one of the most vital problems facing our nation today.

This is one of the regular studies used by the WSCS this year, and is being conducted at night in order that every one interested might be given an opportunity to hear them.

Gloria Watson and Travis Perry of San Angelo were visitors here Sunday.

Floyd Spurgers is employed for a time at Uvalde.

Annual Encampment County H. D. Clubs

The Schleicher County Home Demonstration Clubs held their annual encampment at Christoval Thursday and Friday, August 30 and 31st. Swimming, dancing, bicycling and other activities were enjoyed. The clubs are holding their meetings as often as possible until an agent may be secured, and anything of interest is being done.

Mrs. Palmer West displayed her picnic table cloth which is very interesting in that she has each guest register on the cloth to be later embroidered in gay colored thread. It is made of white feed sacks and will have colored ric-rac and Mexican motifs for trim. Each group registers around the date of the occasion.

The group enjoyed the afternoon session very much as Mrs. John B. Yancy, State Secretary of San Angelo, was present and made a very interesting report on the state meeting which was held in Amarillo recently. She also gave the Schleicher County group much encouragement in holding their meetings until an agent can be secured. Mrs. Yancy was formerly District 6 vice-president and realizes the interest of the women of Schleicher County in Home Demonstration club work, and the need for another agent.

Also present were two former club members, Mrs. C. E. Corbell, San Angelo; and Mrs. Norman Klink and children, Barbara, Darrell and Norman Thomas of Pecos. Mrs. Klink is active in club and 4-H work at Pecos.

Other guests present included Mrs. R. C. Morgan, Jr., and Helen Marie, formerly of Eldorado, but now of Long Beach, California; Mrs. Reuben Dickens, Neill, Jonnie Lee and Carol Lynn, and Cynthia Reynolds. Members and children present were Mrs. J. H. Mace and Iretta Fay, Mrs. John Williams and Martha Dell, Mrs. Gene McCalla and Genele, Mrs. Buster Gunn and Bobo, Mrs. G. L. Ballew and Bertie, Mrs. L. D. Christian and Maurice, Mrs. Palmer West and Riedale, and Mrs. Tom Smith.

Miss Ellington Reviews New Book

Presenting a beautifully-told story of Bible times, Miss Norene Ellington reviewed J. R. Perkins, "The Emperor's Physician" to an appreciative audience Friday night at the Methodist Church.

Miss Ellington's presentation of the book was so smooth and connected that the audience followed the plot easily as the reviewer presented incident after incident, against a background of superstition and paganism—concluding with the hero's acceptance of the Great Healer.

Preceding the review, Mary Lee Gunstead played "Singing Fountain" by Niemann and "Chopin" Etude Op. 25 No. 1. Refreshments were served by the WSCS.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spurgers have moved into a garage apartment at the Tom Smith home.

Wanda Hunt of McCamey is a new operator at the Eldorado Beauty Shop. Miss Hunt is living at present in the E. W. Brooks home. A former operator in the shop, Mrs. Hazel Bowers, whose husband was with the Atlas Geophysical crew, left with her husband after the crew completed work here.

Methodist W. M. S. Yearbook Program

Mrs. Ben Isaacs was leader for the Yearbook program when the Woman's Society of Christian Service met Monday afternoon at the Methodist Church.

"In Greener Pastures" was the subject of the program which opened with a song, "Savior, Like A Shepherd Lead Me." Others taking part on the program were Mrs. J. E. Tisdale and Mrs. L. Wheeler. Mrs. S. D. Harper and Mrs. Keno Ogden gave reports on the School of Missions which they attended at Kerrville, August 19 to 23.

After the business session Mrs. Reuben Dickens served refreshments to those mentioned above and Mmes. F. B. Faust, Luke Thompson, Ben Hext, J. F. Isaacs and Miss Tom Smith.

FUMIGATION OF STORED GRAIN

Conservation of stored seed and grain is necessary to prevent heavy losses especially where the climate is mild and humid. In Texas the insect pests of stored grain breed with little interruption of the year round. The more important of these are the black weevils or rice weevils, Angoumois grain moth, saw toothed grain beetles, flour beetles, Indian meal moths, and bean and pea weevils.

Bins for storing grain should be thoroughly cleaned of grain and dust to reduce reinfestation before storing the new crop. Sprays are useful in eliminating infestations in cracks and pockets of the bins. Pyrethrum sprays and thiocyanates sold under trade names are good for this purpose. Small quantities of old grain from the previous season should be fumigated, fed out or otherwise disposed of before harvest.

The sides and floors of the bins and cribs should be made as nearly air tight and rat proof as possible. The sides should be at least six inches higher than the grain after leveling off.

Fumigation is the best and most economical method of protecting grain in storage. Temperatures of 65 to 75 degrees F. are best for fumigation.

Where bins are not tightly sealed above, tarpaulin or other gas tight sheets can be used to cover the surface of grain.

An ethylene-carbon tetrachloride mixture is cheap, non-inflammable and effective, and does not harm germination regardless of dosage, exposure or moisture content of the grain. It is made up of three parts by volume of ethylene dichloride and one part by volume of carbon tetrachloride.

The mixture weighs about eleven pounds per gallon and can be purchased in 55 gallon drums for about 6 or 7 cents per pound. It is applied with watering can or sprayer on the surface of the grain at the rate of 6 gallons per 1,000 bushels or 5 gallons per 1,000 cubic feet. If the temperature is a little higher some of the liquid should be poured directly into the grain.

The ethylene dichloride-carbon tetrachloride mixture does not taint the grain which remains palatable and safe for both livestock or human consumption.

Inspect the grain in storage at least once a month and fumigate it if found infested. Accumulation of waste grain and feed around the farm buildings should be removed.

Caution: If signs of dizziness should occur the operator should get into fresh air immediately. When much is to be applied a gas mask should be worn.

BROOKS REUNION

E. W. Brooks went to Bangs Saturday where he attended a reunion on Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brooks at which all of the children were present except one son in California. Five sons, two daughters and some of their families were present.

On his return Monday, Mr. Brooks attended a postmasters' convention of the 21st Congressional District at San Angelo. The meeting will be held next May 30 at Fredericksburg.

Reasons Are Listed For Flood Control

Floods are caused by the quick accumulation in streams of water draining from the uplands. The more eroded a watershed becomes, the faster the water runs from it. And the floods become bigger and more disastrous.

In brief, that explains why flood control must begin in the upper reaches of a river system with practices that hold more of the water in and on the land and retard the run-off of the remainder.

Treatment of the farm and ranch lands for erosion control and water flow retardation is proposed by the Department of Agriculture for the Middle Colorado River watershed as authorized by Congress for operations after the war. To achieve a reduction in flood flows and to conserve soil and water resources, the program includes:

1. Improvement of range cover.
2. Installation of mechanical measures on both range and cultivated lands.
3. Conversion of severely eroded lands to pasture.
4. Improvement of cropping practices on cultivated land.

This program will be applied by farmers and ranchers cooperating voluntarily with their soil conservation districts. Technical assistance will be made available to the districts by the Department of Agriculture through the Soil Conservation Service.

Any program for flood control treatment of the soil should be fitted to the land. For that reason, the first step in establishing practices for erosion control and waterflow retardation is to determine the needs and capabilities of each piece of the land through soil conservation surveys that show soil characteristics, the extent and kind of erosion, the slope and present land use.

Range lands are commonly overstocked and the consequent reduction of perennial grasses and litter results in erosion and increased runoff.

"The major control measure needed to provide the desired improvement in range cover is a temporary reduction in the number of livestock now being grazed on the ranges and pastures of the watershed," the Department of Agriculture report said.

Stocking rates on any pasture should be based on a careful survey and analysis of the forage cover. Utilization should provide for the leaving of approximately 1/4 of the forage for range protection and natural reseeding where necessary.

One method of reducing the amount of grazing on ranges is to make full use of present supplemental feed and to increase the yields of supplemental feed. Treatment applied to cultivated lands will increase the per-acre production of feed crops.

Range management practices include seasonal utilization of certain types of pastures, deferred and rotational grazing, control of grazing during critical periods and proper distribution of salting and watering locations.

Contour furrows are recommended for a small percentage of pasture lands. They may be constructed on overgrazed or bare fields to speed the recovery of grasses. These and other small water-holding structures are suitable for buffalo grass or curly mesquite pastures with deep soil and slopes of less than 5%.

Soil and water holding crop rotations, terracing, contour cultivation, strip cropping, stubble mulching and soil improvement are the principal measures recommended for cultivated land. Always as much vegetation as possible is of primary importance. These and other practices should be used in various combinations as required by the needs of the land. In combination, each practice supports the others to achieve maximum erosion control and waterflow retardation.

Three types of terraces are recommended; Closed and level terraces for absorptive soils where the slope is less than 2%; level, open-end terraces on less absorptive soils where the slope is about 2% or less; graded terraces on slopes of more than 2% in the areas of higher rainfall. Open-end level terraces and graded terraces should empty upon good pasture or into grass-covered outlet channels or into meadow-like waterways.

Contour cultivation is recommended on all cultivated land except on nearly level fields. This practice is most effective when used in connection with terracing and vegetative conservation measures.

Some fields in the watershed now cultivated need to be retired, reseeded to grass and used for pasture. This land includes fields or portions of fields which have been severely eroded because of slope and soil conditions.

All land that needs to be retired will be seeded to grass and protected from heavy grazing until the vegetation has been established.

Many Eldoradoites at Calf Creek Reunion

The old and young generations gathered early Sunday morning, Sept. 1, at the second Homecoming of the Calf Creek Community. From far and near, the friends and neighbors gathered, with 406 registering for the day.

The meeting began with songs and prayer, followed by the introduction of the committee in charge of arrangements who had worked so hard and faithfully in making the occasion a success.

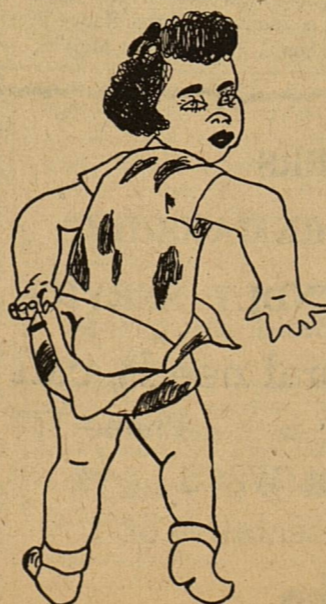

Clarence Bridge of Ft. Worth was toastmaster and gifts were presented to the oldest man and oldest lady present, the oldest and youngest married couples and the couple with the largest family present, and to the oldest single "boy and girl" present.

The oldest man and woman present were Mr. Conner, 97, of Brady, and Mrs. J. W. Attaway of Calf Creek. Mr. Conner is a grandfather of Mrs. Jack Etheredge of this place. The oldest married couple were Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing and the youngest were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sullens.

Rev. Ray from Mason, one of Calf Creek's oldest pastors, was introduced, as were two from Brady and Mason. A song, "Where We'll Never Grow Old" was sung by Mrs. John Bradshaw, Mrs. Archie Bingham, Clarence Bridge and a pastor from Mason, at the request of Mrs. J. W. Attaway.

A barbecue dinner, complete with salads, beans, cakes, pies and many other good eats, was served to more than 400 guests at noon. The meeting adjourned late in the afternoon with the group looking forward to next year's reunion which will be held on the first Sunday in September.

Visitors present from Eldorado were: Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones, Mrs. Bob Anderson, Mrs. R. A. King, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Alexander and family, Ray Alexander, Mrs. O. B. Bradshaw and Monetta, Jackie Ray Wade, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kerr.

The House That Jack Built

This is the house that Jack built.

This is the wife that keeps house in the house that Jack built.

This is the washer that does the wash that helps the wife keep house in the house that Jack built.

This is the iron that irons the wash the washer washed, that helps the wife keep house in the house that Jack built.

This is the wire that carries the power that heats the iron, and turns the washer that does the wash, that helps the wife keep house in the house that Jack built.

THIS is the story of better living—of electric living—in Jack's house. The tale could go on endlessly. For electricity is a servant of many talents, of which washing and ironing are but two.

The electric power that helps Jack's wife is always ready, dependable, available in any quantity at any time. And Jack doesn't need much jack to pay the bill.

This is the company that strings the wires and makes the power that gives the Jacks—and countless families like them—all the comforts and convenience of electric living.

Koering's Daughter Weds David Spence

Miss Jessica Koering, daughter of Ambrose Koering of Vineland, N. J., became the bride of David W. Spence, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Spence of Beverly Estates, College Station, and a grandson of Mrs. George Baugh of Schleicher County, in a ceremony performed in the home of the groom's parents, Wednesday evening, Aug. 28.

The Rev. Norman Anderson read the wedding rites before an improvised altar of greenery and potted palms and lighted by crystal hurricane lamps. Miss Sara Watts gave the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chiffon gown with finger tip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and asters. Her only attendant was Mrs. A. A. Jakkula of College Station who had served with her in the WACs.

George Spence attended his brother as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Spence plan to return to Beverly Estates for a visit before going to Pasadena, California, where they expect to live while he completes his course at California Institute of Technology.

The bride served as first lieutenant in the Woman's Army Corps. Her last station was at Watson Laboratories, Red Bank, N. J. The groom is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin High School and attended California Institute of Technology. He was a first lieutenant in the communications branch of the Army Air Corps and served in the Pacific theatre of war.

Included among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey L. Baugh and Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Baugh, Jr. of Marfa.

JAILED SATURDAY

Two Mexicans were lodged in the Schleicher County jail Saturday night for drunkenness, and were released Sunday upon payment of fines.

School Lunch Room To Operate Again

The school lunchroom is in operation again this year, opening Wednesday, and will continue to serve hot lunches each day to students and teachers at the low cost of 20c per lunch, an increase of only 5c made necessary by the higher cost of foods, etc. Operation of the lunchroom is a big job, for in addition to trying to keep enough food on hand to feed two hundred to three hundred children a hot lunch each day at low cost, paying bills, keeping help and keeping the children moving through the lines, the item of keeping up with the program is almost a full time job.

The school lunchroom this past year cost $5060.77. Of this amount $1982.26 was supplied by the Federal government as a subsidy. The school received 7c for each lunch served to school children and 2c on each half-pint of milk. The cash income to the program amounted to $3872.98, labor amounted to $870.40 and other expenses came to $377.30. A good supply of vegetables was furnished free as surplus items developed. At present, there is a cash balance on hand to buy needed equipment and start the program rolling again.

25,246 lunches were served to children in addition to the lunches served teachers and workers. 10,752 half-pints of milk were served and in addition 571 lunches were served free.

The program is made possible by the cooperation of the Federal Government and it is hoped that it will continue, although it was started as a war measure. Recently the Congress passed a bill appropriating money on a permanent basis to the states to carry the program. The program as set up by the State carries about the same conditions as the one operated by the government. Lunches are to be served at cost, and must conform to the menus suggested by the State. Children not able to pay all or part of the cost are to be served free of charge and any money left over from the preceding year must be used toward improving the lunches, decreasing the price and improving the lunchroom facilities. Much needed equipment has been added in the past and in the future a new nine-foot Frigidaire will be installed along with other items needed. Patrons of the school are invited to visit the lunchroom any day at noon to see the program in operation and to have lunch. Suggestions and criticisms are welcomed by Miss Lucille Rumsey, homemaking teacher and supervisor, and Supt. Reynolds, director.

INSPIRATIONAL MEETING AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

An inspirational program was carried out at the Worker's meeting for all departments of the Sunday School at the First Baptist Church Tuesday evening. Rev. Lee Ramsour, San Angelo Harris Avenue Baptist Church pastor, and Dr. B. R. La Mance, choir leader were guests at the meeting. Refreshments were served to 35.

Jack Hext, manager and part owner of Frozen Foods, was back at work Monday after his recent appendectomy.

LATIN AMERICAN PROGRAM

Tuesday afternoon, an opening of school impromptu program was given by the Latin American Second grade and some members of the high first grade as follows:

Avalino Burrola said, "Be quiet and listen So that you can learn more. And do better each day Than you ever did before." Eloy Hill said, "Work while you work, Play while you play, That is the way To be happy and gay." Oscar Ramon said, "Good Conduct in school Is to keep the rule, To be quiet and good, And do the things one should."

Others who spoke were Felix Ramon, Domingo Pina, and Santiago Garcia. "Oh Jack Frost" was the song choice of the pupils. Thus the primary room in the Latin American School recalled verses and songs learned last term, and not forgotten.

Another pleasant surprise was that of the scissors donated in the spring by the Baptist women, and many pictures that were thought lost in the house moving.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henderson were Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Haddock of Ft. Worth.

Mrs. Harvey Burk is at home from a San Angelo hospital where she spent several days receiving medical treatment. She is reported to be doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cheek and sons, Billy and Jimmie, are spending a ten-day trip in Washington, D. C. where they are visiting with Mrs. Cheek's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Odell of Killen are visiting this week with their niece Mrs. A. J. Halbert and family.

Mrs. Bert Page was leader for the Bible Study from the 28 to 35th chapters of Isaiah when the Auxiliary met Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church. Following the program, an executive board meeting was held. There were seven members present.

Misses Mae and Thelma Ellington, who have been residing in a V. H. Humphrey house, are moving this week to Mrs. F. G. Clark's apartment, recently vacated by the N. E. Brittons. Miss Mae Ellington will teach her piano classes at the school house.

Charles Otis of Kilgore, a nephew of Mrs. Fred Watson, has entered school here as a junior in High School. He has a room at the back of the West Texas Cafe where he is working after school hours.

J. C. Linslie is a new employee at the William Cameron & Co. Mr. Linslie was transferred here from Winters where he was a Cameron employee there. He and his wife are living in the small house back of the R. C. Edmiston place. John S. Williams, formerly employed at Camerons, is working with a doodlebug crew.

CARD OF THANKS

We extend our heartfelt thanks to all of our friends for their kindness to us in the loss of our wife and mother. We are deeply grateful for the floral offerings, messages, food and all other expressions of kindness.
