With the final delivery of the last load of sheep Monday of this week, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Jones are retiring from the active ranching business and are turning the management of their place including about 100 head of stock cows over to their sons, Thomas Richard and Jack, who will continue to operate the ranch. Mr. Jones has sold his entire flock of sheep to a Missouri buyer with Amos Womble of San Angelo, handling the sale. Mr. and Mrs. Jones have been in the ranching business in Schleicher County for the past 30 years. They will continue to live in the beautiful ranch home which they built on the San Angelo highway in 1927.

Due to wartime restrictions and other difficulties, this is the first long trip for a senior class here since the outbreak of the war; for the past several years, the senior classes have enjoyed a camping excursion at Christoval.

Mrs. Ohlenburg's Car Stolen In San Angelo

A 1942 light blue Ford business coupe belonging to Mrs. A. L. Ohlenburg of McCamey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Jones of this place, was stolen about 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon in San Angelo near the corner of Harris Ave. and Main St. Mrs. Ohlenburg and her sister, Mrs. Rosalyn Reynolds, were in San Angelo with Johnny five year old son of the Ohlenburgs, who had undergone a tonsillectomy Saturday morning.

The car was recovered at 5:00 o'clock in Ballinger, and Homer Underwood, 35, who gave his home address as Coleman, was placed under arrest. He was charged with driving while intoxicated.

Mrs. Ohlenburg's car was the second of two cars stolen in San Angelo Saturday. The first, a coach belonging to M-Sgt. and Mrs. Blaine Taylor of Goodfellow Field, was stolen at 1:45 o'clock Saturday afternoon while the couple were buying groceries in a Chadbourne street store. Kidnapped with the stolen car was the sleeping two-year old son of Sgt. and Mrs. Taylor. Both the child and the car were recovered later in the vicinity of where the Ohlenburg car was stolen.

Sonora Nine Opens Season With Two Wins Over Eldorado

Sonora high school opened its baseball season at Sonora last Tuesday afternoon with close wins in a double header fray with Eldorado high school. In the first "A" game the Eldoradoans held a one sided edge several innings due to powerful hitting rallies and a fair pitching exhibition by Walter (Peanut) Jones. But by walking in several runs due to green pitchers that followed the boys of the Schleicher County hilltops emerged a run behind in the last play of the game.

In the "B" game that followed, it was another case in which the Eldorado team ripped out bingle after bingle by a 2-1 margin, but still when the final runs were counted the Hilltoppers were again a run or two short. The inexperienced pitching material incessantly walked in Sonora's men with unearned runs.

Considering the playing of both sides many were amazed at the small number of errors on both sides. Occasionally "squeeze" plays were tried to a more or less successful extent on both sides, not to mention a double play or two. It seems from the turn out of people that baseball is back here to stay as a sport.

Uneventful but Busy Days Occupy Time of Schleicherites As Drouth of Spring Continues On Into May

With the opening of the shearing season in Schleicher County, farmers and ranchers are making a heroic attempt to hold down mounting feed costs as the late spring weeks fail as yet to bring those much needed rains.

Sheepmen of Schleicher County report that the drouth has made shearing a harder job—for the wool is dry, and many sheep are producing about a pound less than their normal clip, which is to be expected in a dry season.

Six or eight Mexican shearing crews, five from this county, and many others drifting north with the season, are reported on local ranches. Most of them are already booked up for May. Equipped for speed with the minimum of lost motion they are interesting to watch—and a colorful phase of life in the Southwest. By June they will be drifting on north, following the shearing season.

From Eldorado, five Latin Americans—Lorenzo Frutos, Martin Belman, Domingo Cortes, Mariano Morales, and Monsez Hill—operate shearing machines, and all except one, Cortes, who starts out next week at Baugh's, are already shearing. Martin Garcia, who has been digging pear in Schleicher Co. with a crew of 17 men, lost all except 7 to the shearers—and Frank Bothman has only six left at

The Case ranch recently purchased half interest in the flock of Suffolk sheep owned by Jack Ratliff. P. F. Case reports that he had lots of grass while Jack had lots of Suffolks with nothing but alfalfa hay at $1.60 a throw to eat.

Ratliff is well fixed for feeding and fitting the lambs at weaning time, with modern barns and pens and plenty of small grain fields, while Case has five watered traps in which to handle the registered ewes and seven separate pastures. He will be responsible for raising the lambs until weaning time, at which time Ratliff will take over.

Business Men Beat Latin Americans 7-2

Last Sunday the Eldorado businessmen played a 9 inning baseball game with the fast Latin-American team and won by the score of 7-2.

The Eldorado town men used high school boys, men of World War 1, and a few of World War 2. Several hundred people, whose cars completely surrounded the block north of the court house, watched the game.

Shearing Machine Fire Is Extinguished

The fire department was called out at 12:45 Saturday to put out a fire in a vehicle at Montgomery's Station. The fire occurred when a gas line broke in a sheep shearing machine operated by local Mexicans and was put out before much damage was done.

In spite of shortages, some building continues in Schleicher County.

Bill McWhorter is building a large modern house on the McWhorter place in this county. Framework for the stucco house is up, new floors have been laid, windows are in place, and the new composition roof has been put on. The old ranch house was dismantled and material worked in on the new house, which is located on the same site. The house when completed will be completely modern, with five rooms and bath. It will be occupied by Bill McWhorter and his wife, the former Ludell Wroe. Two other buildings owned by the McWhorters were recently moved to the place also.

Perry Mittel has bought gravel and cement to be used on walks at his ranch, and is making other improvements.

A crew of carpenters has practically completed a month's work on a remodeling project on the Sam Oglesby ranchhouse headquarters. The old house has been completely re-decorated and sheet rocked, and an addition composed of two rooms and bath has been built. New plumbing has been installed, a new tank tower added, and repairs have been made throughout the residence. The Oglesbys live in town and use the country house for ranch headquarters.

The Jean McCallas are working over the E. W. Brooks rent house east of the post office block and will move there.

The J. F. Kinsers have moved to their new residence near Gendale and the Alvin Farris have practically completed their new house and will move there soon.

7 Steps For Cotton Growers To Observe

By Co. Agent Godwin

Increasing production of foreign cotton, rayon and other fiber products brings American grown cotton face to face with a future beset with problems. You will have to work with other farmers and the Government in solving some of these problems. About the others you can do much on your own farm. Maybe you can save that extra labor new and improved machines can do. Maybe you can save that one bale in seven that the insects take. You and your ginner can save the loss in quality that comes from bag ginning. You can protect and improve your soil and get better yields. You can profit by cooperating with other farmers. You can grow uniform cotton on a community basis, the kind of cotton the market will pay more for.

Here are seven steps that will help you. They lead to balanced farming, efficient production, better cotton, and higher profits for you.

1. Fit Cotton Into Balanced Farming.

Plant cotton only on land best suited to cotton, considering the land needed for other crops. Plan a combination of other crops, pasture, feed crops, and livestock that will make fullest use all the year of your soil, labor, stock, and equipment. Plan cotton acreage in line with market demands. One-crop cotton farming robs the soil and does not provide uniform work throughout the year. Growing only cotton for cash is like playing a violin with one string. When the string breaks, the music stops.

2. Take Care of Your Soil:

The soil is the foundation of the farm family's living. How well it yields will depend on how well you treat it. Your soil is like a bank account. Build it up. You can't afford to grow cotton and other row crops on the wrong land or in the wrong way. If you do, you will lose topsoil, the plant food in the soil, and the fertilizer you apply. Put every acre to its best practical use. Treat each area according to its needs. Use crop rotation, cover crops, contour farming, and terraces, and fertilizer and lime where needed.

3. Get Together on Variety. — — —

Plant a variety of cotton that will give high yields, strong fiber, and good staple. Mills require uniform length of cotton. When all farmers in the community grow the same kind of cotton they have more uniform cotton, and that attracts buyers. They get a premium price. They also find it easier to keep seed pure at the gin and get free Government classing. Go to a variety community and see for your self.

4. Make Your Labor Count:

What you do to increase yields usually lowers costs. Labor is one of your biggest costs in growing and picking cotton. Study every job. Use methods and improved machinery that will save labor. Such things as where you place your fertilizer, delinting and treating seed, using power machinery, doing each job at the right time, and many simple labor-saving short cuts may mean the difference between profit and loss.

5. Control Insects and Diseases:

Cotton insects and diseases are profit clippers. Insects such as boll weevils, aphids, bollworms, flea hoppers, plant bugs, and leaf worms destroy one bale for every seven the farmer gets. Cotton diseases take another high toll. You can reduce loss by examining your plants and using the right poison when needed. Get your ginner to destroy insects in gin trash. Treat planting seed. Use wilt-resistant varieties. Use good growing practices that give strong plants.

6. Pick and Gin for High Grade.

Too much of our cotton is low grade. There is not enough high-grade, clean white cotton to meet market demands. You will get a higher price for the higher grades. Pick cotton as dry as possible. Keep trash out. Pick before weather damage. Don't mix low-grade and high grade seed cotton. See that your ginner uses ginning methods and equipment that protect the quality.

7. Sell for Grade, Staple, Variety:

Not all cotton is alike. The longer staple, stronger fiber, better spinning varieties and high grade, clean white lints are worth more. When you've produced that kind, get it classed for grade and staple. Don't overlook your seed. Handle and store it so that it will produce high-grade oil, feed, and linters. Sell seed too when you can, on a grade basis.

The seven steps in this article are things you can do on your own cotton farm. They are important. Our cotton future depends a lot on how efficiently we produce cotton and how good it is. It also depends on how well we face and meet other cotton problems.

We have about a year's crop of cotton on hand. A lot of it is low grade. Our foreign markets are uncertain. Other countries are growing more cotton, some of them growing cotton as good as ours, cheaper than we are. Rayon, paper, and other products are taking the place of cotton in many uses.

Every cotton farmer needs to think seriously about these facts. But the problems of balancing farming, efficient production, and better quality cotton you can tackle right now on your own farm.

"The Last Round Up" was the theme for the annual Junior-Senior banquet which was given last Friday evening in the school gymnasium with Miss Jewel Shelton, junior sponsor, in charge of arrangement and the juniors as hosts.

A western motif was carried out in the decorations with tables placed in night club style and covered with fringed cloths bearing cattle brands. A campfire complete with coffee pot, skillet and a cowboy saddle by it "burned" brightly in the center of the room. Other decorations included an old fashioned wagon, lanterns, cowbells and cattle brands decorated the walls. Programs and place cards were in the shape of sombreros and waitresses were dressed in western regalia. The banquet was prepared and served by J's Cafe.

GENERAL SAVING GRAIN PRODUCTS RELIEVES FAMINE

Schleicher County housewives are urged to practice voluntary conservation of grain products, as their part in the nation's famine relief program. It is expected that voluntary cutting of use of grain will forestall possibility of rationing.

A six-point program for famine relief to be carried out in addition to voluntary conservation efforts has been announced by Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson, according to a report received from the United States Department of Agriculture. "These measures," he said, "are taken after consultation with the governments of Canada and the United Kingdom, in which it was indicated that they would work with this nation toward the two common objectives of increasing total relief shipments of grain promptly and giving priority to areas abroad most urgently in need of special aid."

The six measures follow:

1. Millers are required to reduce their production of flour for domestic consumption to 75 per cent of the quantity distributed in the corresponding months of 1945. In addition to making more wheat available for export, this amendment to War Food Order 144 is designed to bring about more equitable distribution of wheat among millers.

2. Under the same amendment, food manufacturers are required to limit the use of wheat in the manufacture of products for domestic human consumption to 75 per cent of the quantity used in the corresponding months of 1945.

3. Effective May 1, millers and food manufacturers are limited to 21 days inventory of wheat. After that date no miller or food manufacturer may use wheat unless quantities of wheat or flour equivalent in excess of this amount are offered to the Commodity Credit Corporation for export.

4. The U.S.D.A. is offering a bonus of 30 cents a bushel on wheat delivered under the certificate plan by May 25. To be eligible for this bonus a producer must select a date for payment between the date of delivery and June 15, 1946.

5. The U. S. D. A. will buy 50 million bushels of corn from producers for which they will be paid a bonus of 30 cents a bushel above the market price on the date of delivery for corn sold to the C.C.C.

6. The U.S.D.A. is offering to buy an unlimited amount of oatmeal from millers in the U. S. to make available additional food for relief purposes.

Elementary School Conducts Appraisal

The elementary school teachers and principal have just completed a self-appraisal based on a tryout edition of a handbook for self-appraisal and improvement of elementary schools. The handbook was developed by the State Elementary advisory committee in cooperation with twenty thousand school people of Texas.

The first edition of the handbook is a tryout edition, and, after revision, will be used to evaluate all the elementary schools in Texas. The handbook is organized into 7 major headings, namely: 1, The Children; 2, The Teachers; 3, The Program of school life; 4, Instructional equipment; 5, Home-School community relations; 6, The School Campus; 7, Administration.

Each of the major headings is sub-divided into various topics representing significant phases of the area. The content under each topic is arranged in five columns, each column representing a different level or degree of agreement between present practices and the best educational thought of today.

The first column or level contains the minimum legal requirements in Texas or where no specifications are mentioned in law, the very minimum of acceptable practices.

The fifth level, on the other hand, represents features and procedures drawn from the frontier of thought and research in elementary education. In a sense, level five represents the ideal as reflected by the modern literature on elementary education. Level five represents a goal toward which schools may strive. The intervening levels represent the more normal evolutionary stages through which a school system might move in its effort to keep abreast of the changes in education in a changing culture.

The elementary teachers were appointed by the superintendent as a committee with the principal.

Mr. Stewart, as chairman. The committee worked together for a period of some four months trying to present as true a picture as possible, based on the criteria set up, of the Eldorado Elementary School.

The committee found, based on their own evaluation, that the elementary school has a general rating of 3.3 out of a possible ideal of 5 on the 53 items covered under the seven main topics. Breaking the report down by topics the committee rated each topic as follows: The Children 3.2; The Teachers 3.1; The Program of School Life 2.9; Instructional Equipment and Supplies 4.1; Home, School and Community relations 3.1; The School Campus 3.2; Administration 3.6.

The work of the elementary teachers will serve, not only to stimulate personal improvement in teaching, but aid the school board and superintendent in determining what areas of the school need special attention.

Turner Music Pupils In Recital Sunday

To Judge Auditions

On May 18 Miss Wanda Dannheim and 16 other pupils of Miss Mollie Turner will also be presented to Leo Lawless, head of the Music Department at Syracuse University, who will judge the 1946 National Piano Playing auditions. In addition to Miss Dannheim, whose program has been approved by Irl Allison, founder-president of the Guild, the following music students will participate: Lola Beth Ballew, Gayle Childers, Irene Childers, Margaret Edmison, Emily Ann Harper, Dan Kent, Spencer Kent, Tony Kent, Pauline Nixon, Barbara Spencer, Roxa Jean Tinning, Wayne Crawford, Myrta Harper, Ronny Kerr and Carol Frost. Students from Eldorado, San Angelo and Ozona will take part in the auditions at Eldorado. The program will start at 1:00 p. m.

Two additional towns, Junction and Eden, had desired to send their pupils here but Miss Turner did not have facilities to accommodate them.

Austin, Texas, is national headquarters of the largest musical organization in the United States—the National Guild of Piano Teachers. The Guild maintains a New York office, deans in New York and California, and over 200 centers in the larger cities in all states and Hawaii. Eldorado is the only small town center in the state.

The Presbyterian Church was filled to capacity Sunday afternoon when Miss Mollie Turner presented two present pupils, and five former pupils in a recital.

Participating in the program were two of Miss Turner's advanced piano pupils, Emily Ann Harper and Wanda Dannheim; two former violin pupils, Oma Ford of the Eldorado High School teaching staff, and Mrs. A. E. Prugal, who with her husband and baby now lives in Sonora; a visiting pianist, Elizabeth Ann Barkley, pupil of Mrs. Albert A. DeBerry of San Angelo; a former piano pupil, Mrs. F. W. Haver of Oklahoma City, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Steward who formerly lived here but who spent the past several years in San Angelo; and C. F. Jones, who studied with Miss Turner from early childhood and who in 1940 won first place with his horn in a national contest. Another former pupil, Mrs. Steve Perner of Ozona, a member of Miss Turner's first class here, was introduced and paid tribute to Miss Turner's work. The audience was highly appreciative of the entire program which was presented from a flower-banked stage.

The program follows:

Rollin' 'em faster on the Santa Fe

Santa Fe serves the Southwest with two main lines.

The northern route runs across the plains of Kansas, southeastern Colorado, and goes over the mountains at Raton Pass.

The southern route leans south in eastern Kansas, runs through Oklahoma, the Texas Panhandle (where it is joined by other Santa Fe lines serving Texas), crosses central New Mexico, and joins the northern route again near Albuquerque.

Along these main lines Santa Fe has increased its yard facilities, straightened out curves and lengthened sidings to handle more freight trains.

Centralized Traffic Control systems have been installed, virtually adding another "main line" to important parts of the Santa Fe.

A great new double-track steel bridge across the Colorado River removes the "bottleneck" created by the old single track bridge it replaces.

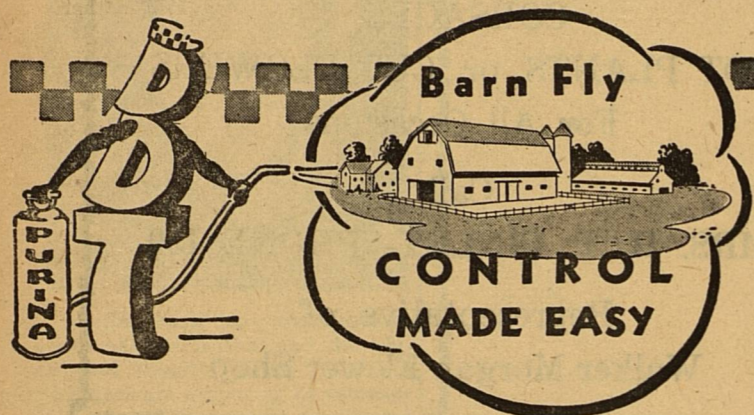

80 giant 5400-horsepower Diesel locomotives—the most powerful freight Diesels in the world—are pulling heavy freights over our steepest mountain grades.

These increased facilities on the Santa Fe are ready to "roll 'em faster" for shippers even more efficiently than before.

FARM NEWS

May 15, 1946 has been set by the State Committee as the final date for reporting performance on the 1946 practice No. 31, "Establishing a satisfactory cover of small grain (except wheat) seeded in the fall of 1945 which is not harvested for grain or hay." Under provisions of the ACP program, it was necessary for the producer to receive prior written approval of the Co. Committee before the seeding of the grain last fall. Those producers not receiving this approval can not qualify their grain.

Mr. Edens, chairman of the Schleicher County Agricultural Conservation Committee, advises that May 31, 1946 is the final date for ranchers operating 1920.0 acres or more of pastureland to execute their "grazing management plan" which must include all practices they desire to carry out under the 1946 ACP program.

NEW MAYTAG FREEZER TO BE DISPLAYED SOON

Announcement of special features and specifications of the new Maytag home freezer have been received by Wm. Cameron & Co., Maytag dealer in Eldorado.

The new product, which is described as "not just another freezer but a complete kitchen unit," has 6 cubic feet net capacity of locker space with an operating temperature of zero Fahrenheit in all climates. It will hold 300 lbs. of meat or 180 lbs. of fruit and vegetables, or an average of 240 lbs. of mixed packages, including meat, fruit and vegetables. Finished in beautiful gleaming white, high baked, synthetic enamel with stainless steel trim, the cabinet of the freezer is 47 1/2 inches long, 29 inches wide and 32 inches tall. It is fitted with an acid-resisting, porcelain enamel table top, with an adjustable drop-leaf which can be used as a breakfast or dinette unit.

A convenient defrosting pan is located on top of the unit so that heat from the compressor speeds defrosting of foods and keeps this operation out of the kitchen sink.

The lid is counter balanced for ease in operation and stays in position when up. The underneath section of the lid is covered with easy-to-clean stainless steel. The inside of the container is smooth with rounded corners providing sanitation and ease of cleaning. A stainless steel, rust proof breaker strip remains frost free.

The freezer weighs approximately 355 lbs. It is of rigid one-piece steel, top and bottom frame construction with all-welded assembly. It has 4 1/2 inches of semi-rigid type, spun glass insulation around the sides of the locker and 4 inches of semi-rigid and board insulation on the bottom. This makes it capable of holding the necessary low temperature. Samples will be on dealers' display floor soon. (adv)

SUNRISE RITES UNITE COUPLE
SUNDAY MORNING

In a sunrise ceremony Sunday morning, April 28, Miss Helen Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Thompson, became the bride of Shelby Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meriwether Burke of Alpine. The Rev. J. M. Hays, pastor of the First Baptist Church, read the double ring ceremony in his home.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a summer weight wool suit of gray with black accessories and her corsage was of white gardenias. For something old, she carried a white Bible belonging to Miss Mary Hoover.

Mary Thompson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an all white eyelet embroidery dress with white accessories. Billy Meriwether of San Antonio attended his cousin as best man. Miss Frankie Thompson, sister of the bride, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Hays who sang, "All For You." Miss Thompson wore a sheer black crepe dress with white accessories.

Mrs. Burke is a graduate of the Eldorado High School and attended Sul Ross College, Alpine. She was employed in Civil Service work at Concho Field, San Angelo, and at the Marfa Army Air Field.

Mr. Burk is a graduate of the Alpine High School, and attended Sul Ross College until entering the armed forces with which he served overseas in the Western theatre almost three years. He will complete work on his B. A. degree this summer.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the dining room with the linen covered table centered with a bowl of white mixed flowers, white candles and the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Jack Whitley, aunt of the bride, presided at the coffee service.

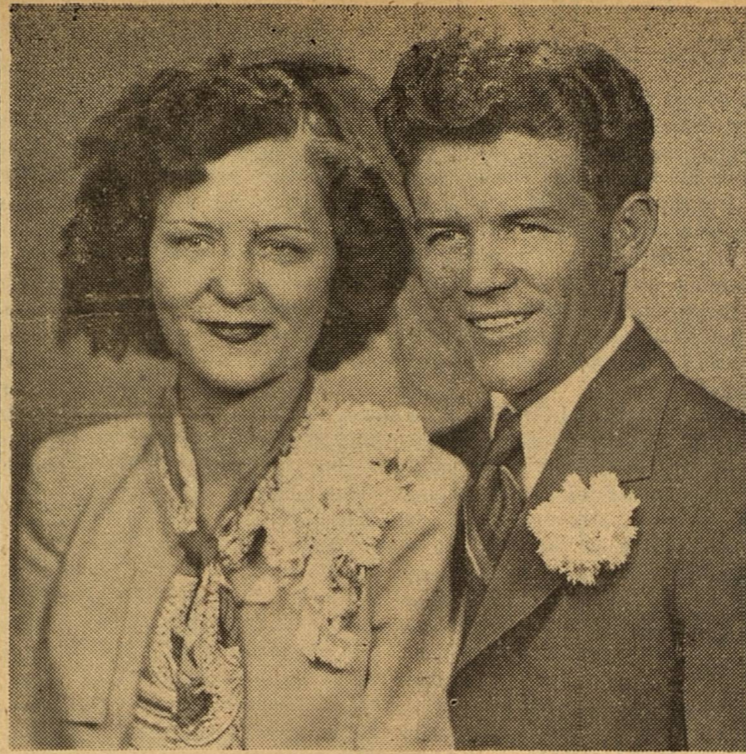

Wedding guests included Mrs. Meriwether Burk and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Holman of Alpine, Mr. and Mrs. Van O'Harrow, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitley and sons, Buddy and Billy, of Eldorado.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Alpine.

FIRST BAPTIST WMU HAS MISSION STUDY

A Mission Study book review was given by Mrs. George Barnett when the WMU met Monday afternoon at the First Baptist Church. Others assisting on the program were Mrs. W. N. Ramsey and Mrs. Ervin Mund. About 25 were present for the meeting.

Mrs. Rex McCormick and Mrs. Bob Anderson left Monday for Temple, where they will go thru the clinic for a check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spurgers

Honored With Shower

A yellow and white color scheme was used in the decorations at the gift tea given last Thursday afternoon in the First Baptist Church honoring Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Spurgers. Mrs. Spurgers is the former Elaine Watson, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Fred Watson.

The tea was sponsored by Mrs. Roy Davidson and Mrs. Buster Gunn, and they were assisted in entertaining by ten other ladies. In the receiving line were Jeanette Markham, Miss Tommie Lee Wilson, Mrs. Joe Wagley and Mrs. Melba McDuff. Mrs. Wilson Baggett was at the guest register and Miss Doris Calcote played piano selections during the tea hour.

Joan Bowman and Tinsy Spurgers dressed in Marine dress uniforms, carried trays filled with corsages of tiny sweetheart roses and sweet peas which they presented to the guests.

Miss Gloria Watson, sister of the bride, presided at the lace covered tea table which was entered with a bowl of yellow roses flanked by lighted yellow tapers in crystal holders. The color motif was repeated on the piano and roses and candles and baskets of calendulas and rosebuds were placed about the room. Crystal service was used in the refreshment plate which also carried out the chosen color scheme with heart shape sandwiches, mints and white cake iced in yellow and decorated with tiny rosebuds. Lace doilies were used and napkins were inscribed with "Elaine and Floyd."

Mrs. Corinne Robinson directed the program which included two songs by Barbara West, "I Love You Truly" and "Always" and a reading "The Bride's First Shopping Trip" by Mrs. Bill McWhorter. Nine first and second grade girls dressed in pep squad uniforms of black and yellow, presented a typical pep squad drill, with yells, a drum corps, and the formation of the letter "E" followed by the presentation of the gifts to the honorees.

There were 135 guests registered and approximately 90 gifts sent in.

Bailey Ranch Women Organize W. M. U.

Ten Baptist women and their guests met recently at the home of Mrs. Archie Mittel, at Bailey Ranch, to organize a W. M. S. Mrs. Archie Mittel was elected president and was instructed to appoint her officers. Assisting with the organization were Mrs. E. E. Bradford and the Association president, Mrs. L. W. Woods and daughter Mrs. Bill Miller, all of San Angelo.

A covered dish luncheon was served to the group. It was planned to meet on each 4th Sunday, the next meeting to be with Mrs. C. N. Shaw. The Bailey Ranch Baptist Church was organized several months ago.

Harvey Dickens of Phoenix, Ariz. left Sunday after a visit of several days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dickens and other relatives. While here, Mr. Dickens, accompanied by his mother, visited at Leaky with his daughter, Mrs. Elsworth Gillum, and in Menard with their brother and son, Jess Dickens and family.

PLUG IN...
I'M REDDY!
© REDDY KILOWATT.

Yes, there's Electricity in your Electric outlets READY to go to work for you the instant you "plug-in" or flip a switch.

A wonderful thing—this Electricity!

You don't have to go out of the house to buy it, or even phone to have it delivered. It's just there—being delivered constantly in whatever quantity you need.

Electricity is made fresh every second and there's plenty on tap all the time.

And as for price—that's been coming down steadily through the years. What's more, it has stayed low, while practically all other living costs went up with the war.

You can depend on Reddy Kilowatt delivering all the low-priced Electricity you'll ever need for all post-war appliances and the service will be kept friendly.

WORLD FOOD CRISIS

President Truman said on February 6, 1946: “For the world as a whole, a food crisis has developed which may prove to be the worst in modern times. More people face starvation and even actual death for want of food today than in any war year, and perhaps in all the war years combined.” You and I, fellow Texans, can contribute our share in averting this condition by growing a Victory garden in 1946. Won't you start your garden today, if you haven't already?

Mrs. Cora Putman has been on the sick list this week.

HIGH EXTRA PAY FOR YOUR DEPENDENTS

Yes—especially if you have dependents—the Regular Army is a worthwhile career for you! Congress has extended the generous war-time dependency benefits—now they cover Regular Army enlistments as well. Nowhere can you gain greater security for your loved ones!

Each month your wife will receive a $50.00 check from the Office of Dependency Benefits—of which $22.00 is allotted from your pay. If you also have a child, the payment is $30.00 . . . and $20.00 more for each additional child (all for the same cost to you of $22.00). Generous payments, too, for dependent parents, brothers or sisters . . . consult the table. BAND TEACHER STARTS WORK WITH BIG CLASS

Interest is running high in the Eldorado School band with 40 grade school students and 21 High school students already taking the band course which opened Monday morning with C. F. Jones as instructor. In expressing his impression of the amount of interest being shown in the band, Mr. Jones feels that it is a significant fact that 40 pupils have definitely signed up for the summer course.

Since the school has had no band for the past year or so, most of the advanced students are out of school, and the others who formerly took lessons, are out of practice, Mr. Jones states; but he is greatly pleased with the amount of interest shown by these students and feels that their progress will be rapid.

There is a need for more instruments, Mr. Jones says, especially for clarinets. Special instruments are furnished by the school but the others must be acquired by the student and there are about 14 who haven't yet been able to secure instruments.

The instructor would appreciate it very much if anyone having instruments or those who know of any not in use, will please get in contact with him. These instruments may be loaned, sold or better yet—donated to the school as they will then remain there for future use. It is practically impossible to buy new instruments, he adds.

At the organization meeting of the Band Mothers Club Tuesday afternoon, 25 mothers were present. Officers were elected, and a discussion of the instrument shortage took place. Plans were outlined for the summer months and for next year. The first Thursday night in each month was set for a meeting date, and it is a goal of the club to make it a Band Parents Club instead of the Band Mothers Club as in previous years.

A finance committee composed of C. F. Jones, chairman, Mmes. Tom Kent, Ray Alexander and Harvey Burk, was appointed to investigate ways and means of raising money.

Officers elected include Mrs. Kenneth Cheek, president; Mrs. E. W. Mund, vice president; and Mrs. Edgar Spencer, sec-treas.

Mr. Jones needs no introduction to the public as he was reared here, is a graduate of the Eldorado High School, was himself a member of the local school band for several years, and won several honors in State contests. He entered the Naval service in January 1943, is a graduate of the Pre-Medical School at Washburn, Kansas, and is now working on his M. D. degree.
