Sonora Wins Rangelands Championship

Sonora won the championship, and Eldorado the consolation, when the tenth annual Rangelands Basketball Tournament ended here Saturday night. The tournament was held Friday night and all day Saturday, with the two final games Saturday night.

First round games included Del Rio winning over the San Angelo Kittens, Ozona winning against Menard, Sonora winning over Eldorado, and Lakeview winning against Rocksprings.

Championship semi-finals included Ozona 40, Del Rio 26, and Sonora 45 against Lakeview 37. Consolation semi-finals were Eldorado winning over Rocksprings and Menard playing against the Kittens.

In the finals, Sonora defeated Ozona 35-23 to win the championship. Eldorado defeated the Kittens 30-23 to win the consolation.

The all-tournament team chosen was Jose Espinosa, Del Rio; Bud Hoover, Ozona; William Dyer, Lakeview; Johnny Smith, Sonora; and Bill Jones, Eldorado.

Ninety-six players were on hand for the tournament, and the gym was full at all times. On Friday and Saturday nights an overflow crowd was on hand for the deciding games.

Ten boys, one team and substitutes, will leave Friday for Big Lake where they will compete in a tournament during the week end. Coaches Hopkins and Kirby will accompany them.

The team will play Crane at 7:00 Friday night. If they lose, they will return home that night. If they win, they will stay overnight in Crane and will play the winner of the Sonora-Iraan game Saturday morning.

BAND PARENTS TO MEET

Band Parents will meet Monday night at 7:30 in the Band Hall.

This trophy, known as the Texas Livestock Marketing Association Trophy, will be one of the highly valued prizes won by the boy who shows the champion steer in the Boys' Steer Class at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth January 28th through February 6th. The Trophy will be presented by the Texas Livestock Marketing Association and all boys who have livestock entries in the show will be guests of the Association at a barbecue dinner Friday night, January 28th, at the Pioneer Palace on the Stock-show grounds at 6 p. m.

Infant Is Buried

Graveside funeral services for Rita O'Harrow, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. O'Harrow were held Monday morning at the Eldorado Cemetery with the Cox Funeral Home of San Angelo in charge.

The infant died at birth Sunday morning in a San Angelo hospital. Surviving besides the parents are a brother, Ronnie, the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. O'Harrow of Eldorado, and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Seal of Seminole.

Lions Club Hears Recorded Program

A feature of the program for the Eldorado Lions Club Wednesday included a wire recording of one of Ted Malone's recent programs dealing with the Lions Club, its meaning, origin, and other interesting phases of the organization. Recording of the program, which was presented in Malone's usual clever manner, was made by Station KCKL in San Angelo especially for this program, and the instrument was furnished by Harms Hardware.

Discussion of the organization of the Welfare Board was made and the central committee consisting of Jim Hays, Roy Shilling and W. M. Patterson were directed to continue with plans and to contact the various civic organizations of the community. These will be invited to elect or appoint a delegate to act as a director from their group and in turn the directors will meet for election of officers and work of the Welfare Board, as an independent organization, will get under way.

New members introduced included H. W. Scott and Albert (Spud) Smith, and those reinstated were C. N. Shaw and Arthur Mund. Visitors at the meeting were J. E. Young of San Angelo and Jack Moore of Eldorado.

REV. SHILLING LEADS PROGRAM AT PTA MEETING

Rev. Roy Shilling led a round table discussion on the importance of the home, when the Parent-Teachers Association met Tuesday afternoon at the school.

Using as his subject "The Home, A Pattern for Building Sound Character and Moral Values", he stressed the importance of healthy family relationships as a necessity in rearing of children for a normal adult life.

To make a family "click", he stated that there are three "musts"—functioning of the family as a unit, family recreation and family council.

Assisting with the discussion were Mrs. Bert Page, Mrs. Archie Mittel, Gordon Griggs, Mrs. E. H. Topliffe and Wyndell Hall. The leader then closed the program by listing the don'ts which will make a child delinquent: don't give religious training, or look for causes of untruthfulness, or open the home to his friends; or be concerned about his leisure time, or teach tolerance, or keep calm when he disobeys, or provide happy home life, or make a pal of him, or give him praise and affection, or be a good example yourself.

The next meeting will be Feb. 15, at 3:15.

A & M To Train Rural Line Crews

Rural electric line construction and maintenance crews in 20 Texas communities, including Eldorado, will start their 1949 training programs during the remaining weeks of January under the direction of Q. L. Bridges, line crew instructor in the Industrial Extension Service of Texas A&M College.

This was announced by E. L. Williams, IES director, whose department conducts REA training program in Texas in cooperation with the State Board for Vocational Education.

Covering a regular circuit, Bridges will instruct crews in the following communities during 1949: Coleman, Ballinger, San Angelo, Eldorado, Brady, Comanche, Hamilton, McGregor, Mart, Itasca, Cleburne, Denton, Muenster, Decatur, Granbury, Eastland, Seymour, Olney, Blue Grove and Stephenville.

Crews At Work On Ice Damage

Schleicher County is recovering from last week's severe and destructive ice storm, and with the exception of the telephone service the county is nearly back to normal.

Most of Eldorado's telephones are in working condition but practically all rural phones are out of order, and service may not be restored for weeks. Delays may be caused by the fact that the entire county will require repair work, and the crews are in demand over a large area.

Ten or twelve poles have been out of service in town, due to loss of ten or twelve poles.

The third numeral is "0" in the rural phones.

The REA lost 22 poles. Several cross arms broke causing the wires to break, but the Co-Op lost only a small amount of wire. The top of one pole broke on the main line from sub-station to the east side of the stock pens, causing three of the four wires to break, thereby putting the entire system out of service.

The breaks on the line between town and Ross McAngus' house caused 88 members to be out of service 72 to 76 hours. Service was restored to all except 9 members by Sunday noon when bad weather forced the crew to stop repair work. With favorable working conditions eight of the nine members will receive service by Thursday night, and by Saturday night, weather permitting, all small repairs will be made.

Eleven poles, or half of those lost, were on the tap servicing Victor Sauer, E. T. Williams, Joe Kerkow, Dee Love and Buck Davis. There was more ice at Reynolds than at Eldorado, and poles on the tap were too small to withstand the ice load.

Because of the ice, several vehicles turned over—among them the REA jeep, a telephone crew's pick-up, a driller's car, and a Mexican's pickup.

Firemen's Auxiliary Has Meeting, Social

Members of the Firemen's Auxiliary met Tuesday evening at the fire station for their regular monthly business meeting and social. The group decided to attend the Hill Country Firemen's Convention which meets at Mason on February 8.

Plans were also made for a dance which will be held Friday evening in the Boathouse at Warrens Christ-Concho Park in Christoval. Harrison's Texans will furnish the music for the dance which will include the firemen, their wives and guests.

A social hour, refreshments of hot chocolate and cookies were served.

OIL NEWS

Another Koy offset, east of No 1-D Koy, a producer is undergoing testing at this time. Morgan Aikman and Co. No. 2-D made a Schulerberger survey before running 5 1/2 inch casing to 3620 feet in line for cementing and perforating.

Another location has been made in the Jackson field, two locations southwest of the Jackson producer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Moore attended the funeral of her brother-in-law at El Paso last week.

Oglesbys Entertain Square Dance Group

Twenty-four guests were included when Mr. and Mrs. Sam Oglesby and Billy entertained with a fish supper Tuesday evening at the West Texas Cafe.

A red and white color scheme was used on the table with a centerpiece of red carnations, white mums, fern and other greenery, flanked by red candleabra bearing graduated tapers. The women were presented with white carnation corsages and the men with matching boutonnières.

The four-course meal included tomato cocktail, salad, meat and dessert. Salted nuts and red and white candies completed the menu. Following supper, the group spent the evening dancing at the City Hall.

Mrs Wagley's Brother Passes Away Saturday

G. G. Dodd, brother of Mrs. J. H. Wagley of Eldorado, passed away Saturday morning in a hospital in Big Springs, from burns received last week in an oil field accident near there. Funeral services were held Sunday at 3:00 in Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Wagley were among those attending the services.

Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District News

H. H. Bennett, chief of the Soil Conservation Service, said in his 1948 fiscal year report today that the margin between land deterioration and land conservation in the U. S. has been so narrowed that the goal of a permanent agriculture is in sight "if we but speed up our efforts."

Contributing to this progress was still another record year of farm and range land conservation treatment in farmers' soil conservation districts. Soil conservation measures were applied to 21 1/2 million acres.

The report pointed out that during each of the 15 years of the life of the Soil Conservation Service, more conservation work was done per employee than during the preceding year.

"Moreover," the soil conservation chief observed, "increased experience on the part of service technicians, together with increased experience and efficiency of the soil conservation districts and cooperating farmers... collectively have made it possible for the Service to increase the work load per man each year without sacrificing quality or thoroughness of the conservation work done."

By sharply increasing present conservation operations on the land the U. S. can overcome and control erosion within 20 to 30 years. To this end, the chief advanced seven recommendations for getting the conservation job done on time:

1. Set up a timetable for the establishment of those basic measures needed for the conservation of our soil and water resources, according to capability of the land and availability and need of water.
2. Adjust research in conservation to specific problems encountered in field work and intensify research on those problems.
3. Encourage and promote a comprehensive program of conservation education through all available educational agencies and institutions.
4. Complete land capability surveys of the country and analyze the information to provide land facts needed for future farm planning and action.
5. Recognize and use land capabilities in making production adjustments and in developing other agricultural programs.
6. Encourage continued organization of soil conservation districts, in order to develop conservation programs with local leadership and direction.
7. Improve the conservation credit structure.

One Proposal Out of Three Carries County

With many citizens not taking the trouble to vote, a total of about 350 went to the polls in Schleicher County Saturday and voted down two of the propositions which were up for consideration. They turned thumbs down on a $25,000 bond issue which would have provided funds for the construction of a swimming pool, and also frowned upon a proposed "maintenance tax" for the care and upkeep of the county's memorial building. Passed by a small majority was a $15,000 bond issue for repair and improvement of the court house.

The vote by boxes on each of the three propositions was as follows:

Charles Jackson's Calf Wins First Prize At 4-H Show

Charles Jackson's 780-pound Aberdeen-Angus calf won the championship of the Schleicher County 4-H Club Show last Saturday. Jim Martin won the reserve championship with an 810-pound Hereford steer.

The show was held in the usual place near the Foxworth-Galbraith building, County Agent W. G. Godwin was in charge.

Truett Kent Stanford exhibited the first place Corriedale ewe lamb, with Jack Stanford exhibiting the second place ewe lamb. Jack Stanford won first place in the Corriedale buck lamb division, with Truett Kent Stanford placing second.

In spite of a week of bad weather, the show was well attended. $164 was offered in prize money. There were not as many animals shown this year as in previous years, due to the continued drought.

Charles Jackson and Jim Martin will exhibit calves in the Houston Fat Stock Show February 2.

Health Officer Urges Mumps Prevention

Commenting on the necessity for individual cooperation in effecting the control of mumps, now widespread throughout the State Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, emphasizes the fact that the contagion factor is present before any symptoms appear, and strict isolation of all patients is the surest means of controlling the spread of this disease.

Mumps is transmitted by direct contact with an infected person or article freshly contaminated by the secretions of the mouth or nose of persons having the disease. It takes from 12 to 26 days for mumps to manifest itself after the infection occurs. The disease can be easily transmitted, but one attack usually establishes permanent immunity and second attacks very rarely occur.

The most easily recognizable characteristic symptom of mumps is a painful swelling of the salivary glands. Sometimes there is an involvement of other portions of the body, causing disturbances in the digestive, nervous, circulatory, and genito-urinary systems. The disease is usually accompanied by a temperature rise which more often than not is mild.

"Patients suffering from this disease should be isolated from other members of the family immediately upon the suspicion that mumps exists, and the family physician should be called in promptly," Dr. Cox said. "In the meantime, complete rest in bed is indicated. The doctor's orders should be followed strictly. Violating his instructions can lead to serious injury, which may permanently affect the patient's health."

P. R. Robbins, co-owner of the H & R Grocery, has been undergoing treatment at Shannon Hospital in San Angelo for the past two weeks. He is improving and is expected to return home soon.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

With many new faces and many new solutions for the ills of the day in the offing, the wheels of the 81st Congress began to grind last week.

In the House there are now 263 Democrats, 171 Republicans and one American Laborite.

The old bromide about "moss-backs" running Congress is still true, the average age of the new membership being one year older than the old Congress. The average age jumped from 51 to 52 years. Seven of the members are over 75, while 13 have not yet reached their 35th birthday.

Speaking of ages, one of Texas' two new members shares honors with one other member in being the youngest in the House. He is Lloyd Bensten of McAllen, successor to the late and lamented Milton West. Bensten is 27, has been serving as a County Judge, and indications are he will be a sound and valuable Congressman.

New Look

There's a new look in alignments and in committee make-ups. It's quite different from what it was in the 80th Congress, which the Republicans controlled, and also different from the 78th and 79th, both under Democratic direction. The main difference stems from expected increased influence of Labor on legislation.

Capital dopesters are saying Labor leaders will throw a lot of weight around in this Congress. That is, they're saying Labor will control more individual members in the past. Phil Murray, CIO president, called on House leaders a few days before Congress met and was reported to have demanded that no new member who voted for the Taft-Hartley labor law be added to the Ways and Means Committee.

Murray's wishes were respected; only one of six new Democrats added to the Committee voted for the labor law.

The Ways and Means Committee assigns new members to other committees, and labor leaders naturally want to be able to have a direct voice in the make-up of other committees where legislation must originate. An attempt to put Rep. Stanley of Virginia, a farmer, on the Committee, failed in the Democratic caucus, evidently largely because he did not have the blessing of Labor.

The President Speaks

President Truman in his State of the Union message appealed for harmony and cooperation. His report was generally well received, much more so than a similar occasion a year ago. Along with many constructive proposals, the President set the stage for some hot battles by urging some measures sure to be controversial.

Among these was his demand that Texas and other coastal states be stripped of any claim to the minerals under the adjacent tidelands. All of this oil along the Texas gulf goes to our State school fund, and was expressly reserved to our State when we were admitted to the Union. Last year the House passed a bill expressly quitclaiming any federal claim to such minerals, but it died in the Senate. Prospects for such legislation being enacted this year are not good.

Among other measures for which the President plugged, which are not acceptable to many of us, included socialized medicine, socialized housing; Federal control over lynching, poll taxes, racial segregation, and alleged employment discrimination because of race or religion. Opponents insist these matters are for the States to handle.

Mr. Truman called for $4 billion in new taxes, and for repeal of the Taft-Hartley law. He asked that the old Wagner Act be revived, with a few amendments.

On the brighter side, the President favored a strong national security program, a balanced budget a vigorous foreign policy in the struggle for peace, sound farm legislation, REA expansion, water and soil conservation and development of our water power and other natural resources for the common good.

Roy McDaniels, who is employed with the Hughes Tool Co. at Andrews, came to Eldorado Saturday and was accompanied back by his wife and infant daughter who will make their home at Andrews. The family have been living in their trailer house at the Delbert Edmiston place.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Hays and Mrs. Clyde Galbreath attended a meeting of the Concho Valley Baptist Association in San Angelo Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Perkins and son, Ronnie of Sonora spent the week end with her aunt, Mrs. Will Doyle and family.

Paul Page of Eldorado, SMU football star, is among those who will go to Mexico City January 28th to 31st as guests of the Southwest Conference. The Conference is sending the team on the vacation trip because they have appeared in the Cotton Bowl for the last two years and have thus not been away from Dallas. The trip marks the conclusion of a very successful season for the football team.

Mrs. Richard Cheatham, who entered the Shannon hospital Wednesday, will probably undergo major surgery today (Thursday).

Mrs. H. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Davis and Edward and Cynthia Ann of Rocksprings were Sunday dinner guests in the A. J. Roach home.

Mrs. Marie Windom of Abilene spent the week end with her brother, H. F. Scott and family.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

We Both Won This One

Blew my top the other morning when I discovered a shirt I'd put on had two buttons missing.

"Joe," the missus says, "do you ever read what you write? For a man who writes newspaper pieces all about tolerance, you sometimes show a lot of race prejudice."

"Race prejudice!" I hollers. "No one can accuse me of that." "I mean prejudice against the entire human race," she interrupts with a smile. "Why get mad at the world over two little buttons?" That took the wind out of me.

From where I sit (as I told the missus that evening), a lot of us sometimes get too worked up over little things... little differences of opinion or taste. One person prefers beer or ale, another prefers cider or lemonade. But why criticize the other fellow just because his tastes aren't the same as ours? "That sounds more like you, Joe," she laughs, snipping off a thread. (It so happens she was sewing on buttons.)

BOY!... Old Mother Nature certainly gave men a terrific beating. The ice storm broke stout wires as though they were strings and snapped sturdy poles as easily as match sticks. We had built strongly, but the excessive weight of ice was too much for even the best constructed lines.

Emergency crews of linemen hopped onto the job, and electric service was restored as rapidly as humanly possible.

Those linemen are great fellows. They don't like these storms any more than you do—but when needed, they pitch in and work day and night to get your service going again.

They, and all the rest of us at your service company, are sorry for interruptions of your electric service. We appreciate your patience and friendly understanding of our difficulties during the storm. Thanks and Thanks again.

GILMER - AIKEN PROPOSALS ARE STUDIED

Much attention will be given to Gilmer-Aiken Education committee recommendations by the Texas State Legislature. The proposals made by the committee are the result of years of study by Texas educators, and a year and a half of intensive state wide study by hundreds of people, who collected data in the school districts of the entire state.

- Their recommendations are:
1. To guarantee 12 years of schooling, in 9-month terms, in all school districts in Texas. Classes not exceeding 25 pupils in average daily attendance, with one teacher for each 25 pupils, and a special teacher for each 20 exceptional children. Also counsellor for each 500 pupils, a full-time librarian for each 500, and a graduate nurse for each 1,500 to 2,000 pupils.
 2. Funds derived from local tax for support of the program outlined in Proposal No. 1 should not exhaust local taxing power for education.
 3. State should guarantee financing of minimum foundation program of education.
 4. Legislature shall detail total amount to be raised by local school systems for support of minimum foundation program.
 5. Total amount to be raised locally shall be figured on an economic index to be established by legislative action (said index to be based on the county's natural resources and ability to pay).
 6. Cost of minimum foundation program of education in each district shall be determined by average daily attendance of pupils in the school, i. e., number of teachers in each school, operating expense of school, etc.
 7. State should participate in providing adequate school buildings and equipment.
 8. In the 1949-51 biennium there shall be an "adjustment fund" of 2 million dollars annually to relieve distress occasioned by transfer to the new financial plan proposed.
 9. Any county in the state shall have privilege of becoming a county-wide independent school district.
 10. Two or more contiguous counties or parts of two or more contiguous counties shall be allowed to form one administrative unit.
 11. Redistricting Delayed. Deleted from the report, to be submitted later, this proposal ordered a state-wide program of school district reorganization to go into effect at once.
 12. County school boards shall be ordered to place all real property in the county in an active school district in six months.
 13. Each administrative unit in the state should have the status of the present independent school district.
 14. Pertains to the number of trustees for each school, and embodies very little change from our present set-up.
 15. The Legislature should delegate the state management functions for public common school education to a central educational agency.
 16. The central authority should be composed of a State Board of Education, a professional Commissioner of Education (same as State Superintendent) and a professional State Department of Education, State Board of Education composed of nine members, serving a term of three years with re-election privileges, with power to appoint the Commissioner of Education.
 17. The operation of all strictly educational concerns of the state should be concentrated in the Central Educational Agency. Very little change in duties exercised by the present Board of Education except that functions of the State Board for Vocational Education would be performed by the State Board of Education.
 18. The State Board of Education should be a policy-forming, reviewing, and planning body, without executive responsibilities.
 19. The Commissioner of Eduation (State Superintendent) should be recognized as the professional head of the state school system, and as the executive agent of the State Board of Education.

20. Statute should establish the State Department of Education as the professional and clerical staff of the Commissioner of Education (State Superintendent); and the State Board of Education.

21. The Central Educational Agency should submit its budget for the cost of education through the Board of Control. Reductions in proposed expenditures could be recommended by the Board of Control and when the budget is submitted to the Legislature, the recommendations of the Board of Control will be a part of budget.

Elect State Board

22. The safekeeping and management of the Permanent School Fund of Texas should be placed in the hands of a State School Investment Commission of five members. This work is now done by the present State Board of Education.

23. Members of the State Board of Education should be elected by popular vote, one from each of nine geographical districts established by the Legislature. Elections to be held at the same time and with the same machinery as used for election of local trustees. Schleicher County would be part of geographical district no. 4 comprising some 43 counties, bounded by Callahan County on the north, Maverick County on the south, and El Paso County on the west.

24. A state-wide minimum salary schedule should be provided which will pay a four-year college graduate with specific professional preparation a beginning annual salary of $2,400.

25. The state salary schedule should provide for steady increases based on increased competence.

26. The certification of teachers should be used by the Central Educational Agency as an instrument to assure higher professional standards. (I. e., requirements for teachers' certificates and professional training.)

27. Provide a full-time, especially trained instrumental supervisor for a certain number of teachers (to be determined).

New Attendance Law

28. The Legislature should authorize a two-year co-operative and development study of teacher education in the state, and appropriate an adequate sum for financing it.

29. Enact a new compulsory attendance law which will make parents or guardians guilty of a misdemeanor if school age children do not enroll in, and attend, school regularly.

Washington News Letter

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

As this is written, Washington is in a dither over the approaching inauguration. At a cost of a half million dollars, stands have been built and thousands of seats erected for cash customers to view the mile-long parade. These seats cost from $10 down.

It will be a big day for souvenir hunters. Commemorative coins programs and what have you are on sale.

Even the lowly hot-dogs will ride the wave of lush money that day and for the first time in history around here will sell for 20c each puppy size.

Everybody's worried about the weather. A taxi driver guessed the "Truman luck" will hold out and that fair weather will be with us.

When the President rides down historic Pennsylvania Avenue on Inauguration Day he will travel over ground steeped in inaugural drama. That ride is one of our deepest traditions.

When Abe Lincoln came to Washington for his first inauguration seven states had left the Union and the newly-elected President came into an unfriendly city. Washington, after all, is South of the Mason-Dixon line. They say three-fourths of the capitol residents regarded Lincoln as an enemy.

En route to Washington from Illinois, he was induced to change his schedule in order to avoid assassination. He slipped into town at 6 a. m.

In this Inaugural atmosphere he rode up Pennsylvania Avenue in a carriage surrounded by soldiers. Sharpshooters on housetops trained their rifles on the main street below.

It was thus that the "backwoodsman" rode to the Capitol to swear to preserve the Union.

Rough weather has played havoc with many inaugural pageants and imperiled the health of many Presidents. Indeed, one President lost his life as a result of exposure during the inauguration. William Henry Harrison, oldest man ever to become President, died of pneumonia attributed in large part to the rigors of the swearing-in ceremonies.

Harrison, the 68 year old warrior of Tippecanoe, hatless and without an overcoat, mounted a white horse and rode triumphantly from the White House to the Capitol on a wintry day. He spoke for an hour facing a raw wind, then stood in a receiving line all afternoon and polished off the day by attending three inauguration balls. He died exactly one month later.

But the worst inaugural weather in history greeted William H. Taft. An elderly taxi driver recalled it to me the other day.

It was a whirling blizzard, he recalled, featured by flashes of lightning, rain, sleet, heavy snowfall and a whirling wind. Telephone and telegraph lines were down, and Washington was isolated for hours

It was the first time in 76 years a President-elect took the oath indoors, the ceremony taking place in the Senate chamber, which at that time seated only a handful

Four years ago, I witnessed the fourth inauguration of the late President Roosevelt. It was wartime and the President was ailing. The ceremony was quiet and simple. There was no parade, no fireworks. The scene was in the upstairs White House back porch, since remodeled with the famous Truman balcony. And the weather was good. Everyone stood in the lawn and observed an abbreviated ceremony.
