

Surveying Under Way on New East-West Highway

Surveying for the first 8-mile strip of the east-west highway, following the old Ozona road to the Bailey Ranch intersection, is under way.

In charge of this work are Resident Engineer Stroud of Sonora, and Field Engineer Benny Emerick, assisted by a field crew.

The men will assemble data on this strip, then will go to Sonora on a similar project, returning immediately afterward to survey from the Bailey intersection to the Crockett county line, a distance of another 14 miles.

It will probably require from four to six weeks to assemble field data to be used for plans to submit to contractors.

Money for the 8-mile strip is now available and funds for the 14-mile strip are expected to be ready soon. To avoid delay when actual construction begins, the county will start staking out and clearing the right-of-way and putting up fences as soon as engineers' maps are available. The right-of-way will be 100 feet wide.

Announcement of designation of this route was made by the State Highway Department in mid-July. The work will be done under provisions of Senate Bill 287.

The official designation of the road, as set forth by the Highway Commission, is as follows:

"In Schleicher County a farm-to-market road from end of F. M. 865, 8 miles West of Eldorado, to Crockett County line, a distance of approximately 14.0 miles, is hereby designated subject to the availability of funds under the terms of Senate Bill No. 287 and subject to the condition that Schleicher County will furnish all required right-of-way free of cost to the State.

"Upon acceptance of the provisions of this Order by the proper officials of Schleicher County the State Highway Engineer is directed to proceed with the preparation of plans for construction at an estimated cost of $110,000 and when right-of-way and funds are available to proceed with construction and to assume the road for maintenance upon completion of construction."

The 8-mile strip and the 14-mile strip will carry a total appropriation of $165,000 for this county. The new road will link highway 151 from the Menard Co. line across this county to its final destination at Big Lake.

The new road will start at the Davis Cosden Station and follow the route of the old road about 8 miles.

ELDORADO, SCHLEICHER COUNTY, TEXAS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1949

NUMBER 35

New School Term Opens In Eldorado On Monday

School bells will ring Monday morning to announce the beginning of the 1949-50 school year for Schleicher county. Opening exercises at 9:00 in the high school auditorium will begin the day, and all students, faculty, teachers, parents and others interested are expected to be on hand for the program.

School busses will make regular runs Monday morning, announces Supt. C. A. Reynolds. These runs are the same as they were when school closed this spring.

At 10:00 registration begins. At this time grades 1 through 6 will register in their home rooms in the elementary building, and grades 7 and 8 will register in their rooms in the high school. Freshmen and seniors will register in the study hall.

At 11:00 sophomores and juniors will register in the study hall.

About 11:30 busses will leave to take the children home for the rest of the day. Regular morning and evening runs will be made Tuesday and thereafter.

The daily schedule is as follows: School begins at 8:30 and dismisses at 12 noon, begins at 12:35 and dismisses at 3:45. Busses will leave at 3:50.

Latin Americans

Students of Latin American descent who are in the first and second grades will register next Monday at 8:30 in the Latin American school. Other students will report to the main elementary school for registration.

Negro School

Negroes will report for registration in their school Monday morning at 8:30.

Bus Drivers

The list of bus drivers has been announced as follows: Cliff route, James McDonald; Adams route, Mrs. Paul Haley; Menard highway, Mrs. Clifford Schooley; Fort McKavett, Mrs. Arch Edmiston; Station A & Bailey Ranch, Mrs. Buster Dickens; Reynolds, Farris Nixon; and Mertzson, Joe Wagley.

Bus drivers will meet at the high school at 2:00 Saturday for conference and instruction.

One New Course

While this year is not considered a good time for radical curriculum changes, one new course, biology, will be added, with Gordon Griggs, principal, as teacher. It will be open to sophomores and juniors.

The driver education course, offered last year for the first time, will be taught again this year by Coach Bud Hopkins, and will be open to freshmen and sophomores, as a non-credit subject. The purpose is to teach safe driving and to qualify students to secure drivers' licenses. Tisdale Chevrolet Co. is furnishing a new Chevy for use in teaching the course. Last year's driver's education course was popular and successful, report school authorities, and a number of students secured their drivers' licenses at the close of the course.

Lunch Room Open

The school lunchroom will serve the first meal Tuesday. Lunches will cost 25c per meal, and meal tickets may be bought for $1.25. The government will reimburse the school 8 cents or 6 cents (no milk) per lunch, (students only). Mrs. F. D. Schooley and Mrs. E. W. Craig will again be in charge of the cooking and serving of the food.

The school has been receiving some surplus agricultural commodities from the government, which explains why the 33 cents (25c from student and 8 from government) will finance a complete meal. Last year the lunchroom served 23,204 lunches for pay and 228 free ones, which does not count those served to visitors and teachers.

DATES TO REMEMBER FOR SCHOOL OPENING

School opens Monday, Sept. 5th.

Busses make regular runs.

9:00 Opening exercises in high school auditorium.

10:00 to 11:30 Registration of all students.

Around 11:30: Busses leave to take children home.

Faculty List

While last minute changes may be made in teacher assignments, the following list is complete, as nearly as it can be compiled a week in advance:

Herman Hopkins, P. E., driver education, shop
Jewel Shelton, library and English

C. F. Jones, science, band

The faculty turnover is one of the smallest in the history of the school. With all of the old teachers returning except four, school officials predict an easier-than-average opening week. Also, as last year's strong faculty was highly commended for its good work, and the new teachers come to Eldorado well recommended, an unusually successful year is expected.

Janitors Employed
School custodians will be George Fry, head janitor, who will be in charge of the elementary building, and Earl Hicks, high school building.

Teacher Meetings
Friday night, Sept. 2, at 7:30, has been set aside for a general faculty meeting. The following day, teachers will have conferences with their principals.

RALSTONS HAVE DAUGHTER
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ralston of Dallas are the parents of a daughter, born Saturday in a Dallas hospital. Weight at birth was six pounds, and a name has not yet been chosen. Maternal grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. Faust of Sabinal, former Eldorado residents. The couple have one son, Freddy, age 2. Mrs. Faust has gone to Dallas for a two-weeks visit with her daughter and family.

MORE EHS GRADS ATTEND COLLEGE
That a larger percentage of EHS graduates go to college than in prewar years is indicated by figures compiled this week. Whereas only about 20% formerly went to college, nearly 50% attended college during the postwar years.

Charles J. Stevens Passes Away Friday

Charles Jackson Stevens, 19-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stevens, died at the family home Friday morning at 11:00. He had been seriously ill for two weeks.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 4:30 at the Bailey Ranch Baptist Church, with Rev. Baltis Mathews of San Angelo, pastor of the church, officiating. Burial was in the Bailey Ranch cemetery.

The church choir furnished music for the services. Pallbearers were Edgar Spencer, C. N. Shaw, Edward Meador, Glenn Green, Jack Hext and Weatherly Kinser.

The young man was born in Schleicher county on November 26, 1930, and had lived here all of his life. Surviving are the parents, two sisters, Mrs. Peyton Cain of Alpine and Mrs. Coleen Swartzell of Fort Stockton, and one brother, Carl Stevens of Eldorado.

Others from out of town present for the funeral, in addition to his two sisters, were Mr. and Mrs. Eber Spencer and daughter Billie Jean, and Harvey Edwin Knight, all of Kerrville; Mrs. Joe Flint and daughter Eva Jo of Ballinger; Mr. and Mrs. C. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nichols and two children of Amherst are visiting the Andrew Nixons.

8th Year For Supt. Reynolds

C. A. Reynolds

Heading the local school as superintendent is C. A. Reynolds, who begins his eighth year as chief administrator.

Reynolds has a BA from Abilene Christian College (1933) and MA from Sul Ross (1946). He took his master's in administrative education.

He taught school five years before coming to this city, serving as administrator and athletic coach; eleven years ago he came to Eldorado from Bowie to assume his new duties as elementary principal here. He was elected superintendent four years later. He is married and the couple have three children.

In beginning the new year Reynolds states: "I'm pleased with the prospects for the best year the school has ever had. In spite of the fact that problems will arise because of the building program which will be in progress we anticipate a banner year, the best we've had in the history of the school."

Cotton Ginning Gets Under Way

W. E. Bruton was the first customer at the Moore gin this season, bringing in three bales of cotton during the past week.

Mikeska's gin has also ginned several bales, with Edgar Spencer bringing in the first bale.

B. W. Bradley of San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Bradley of Brady, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bradley of Fife were visitors Wednesday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Bradley. The four men are brothers.

School Clothes Needed

The Welfare Board reports urgent need this week for boys' clothing, sizes 7 to 12. They state that the children need especially boys' shoes, sizes 1, 2, 3, 3½ and 4½.

Anyone who has such clothing is requested to call Mrs. Bailey Montgomery by Saturday, phone 23921.

This clothing is badly needed by local Latin-American school children, who otherwise will not be able to start to school.

Wildcat For Schleicher

Frank Meador's land provides the location for another Schleicher county wildcat.

J. S. Abercrombie, Houston operator, has scheduled drilling to begin soon on the 8,500 foot rotary wildcat, 10 miles northwest of Eldorado.

No. 1 E. M. Wahlenmaier and W. F. Meador, a Shell farmout, will be in the center of N. W. quarter of W. half of S. 320 acres, of N. 1200 acres, of W. 1600 acres, league 7, Concho Co. school survey.

CALF CREEK HOMECOMING TO BE HELD SUNDAY

A number of Schleicher county residents are expecting to attend the homecoming at Calf Creek Sunday. The day's events include singing by guest quartets, a barbecue dinner, an old fiddlers' contest and other entertainment.

CASE TO SHOW HEREFORDS AT STATE FAIR OF TEXAS

Entries in the Hereford show October 8-13 have been received from the Case Ranch of Eldorado by the State Fair of Texas, which begins a 16-day run on October 8. The Hereford show will be judged on October 10.

Clovis Taylor and family returned Wednesday from a several-days visit in Ballinger.

Two Principals Return To Posts

Gordon Griggs

Gordon Griggs is high school principal. He received his bachelor's degree from East Texas State College and his Master's degree from Sul Ross. Griggs and his wife who is also teaching in the school system, have one daughter, Maryvonne, a high school student. Mrs. Griggs also has a Master's degree from Sul Ross.

Wyndell Hall

Wyndell Hall, grade school principal, received his bachelor's degree from Abilene Christian College. He expects to finish work on his Master's degree next summer at Sul Ross. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have three children, Kathryn, Sue and Dale. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have been taking college work at Sul Ross this summer.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TO BE REMODELED

The interior will be completely remodeled and improved and wings added for additional classrooms.

It is expected that classroom work can proceed all year in this building, though some moving of the room units may be necessary as the building program proceeds. It is also expected that carpenters' hammers and cement mixers may make some noise through the school day. Above are shown some of the busses which transport students to and from school. Busses are assigned to routes according to the size of load to be carried.

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING TO BE TORN DOWN

Above is shown a recent picture of the Eldorado high school. After this school year it will no longer be a central figure in school opening events, for it will be torn down, and a larger and more modern building will be erected. The front view above shows the original old brick building after cupola and other ornamentation was torn off. The two windows over the porch roof open from the superintendent's office, and Supt. Reynolds must have been in his office when this picture was taken, as one window is open.

present the building is badly in need of repair, and the rooms are inconveniently arranged but this structure will be demolished at the close of the new year, and school officials state that they are glad to have the old building to use during this difficult session.

It will be completely torn down and another building in the school house block will be built.

*Young Eyes Need

SCHOOL age is a wonderful period... when life is an unending voyage of discovery. But a dangerous age, because young eyes must keep up with inquisitive young minds, and three-fourths of all a child learns must come to him through his eyes!

Many children do their lessons reluctantly partly because of the difficulty of trying to study under poor lights. See that your children study under properly placed, glareless, shadowless light... use bulbs of the proper size... ask West Texas Utilities Lighting Advisors for advice on better light for better sight.

We'll be pretty busy too when school opens the first Monday in September.

During the past half-century, the Eldorado school has grown from a one-room, one-teacher school to a modern educational plant, serving an entire county, and staffed by about 25 teachers.

BUT — the Eldorado school has not been alone in making rapid advancement. Your telephone exchange too has made great strides in serving you efficiently, as proved by THIS FACT:

Nearly 575 Families

from Schleicher county are now receiving dial service: a 50 percent increase since installation of the dials, and the switchover last October. As the Eldorado school will continue to serve the county with increasing efficiency through the coming years, we too will grow with the community!

Bob Collins, pastor, read the vows. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin wedding dress and a corsage of white orchids and tuberoses. Mrs. Bill Maxwell attended her sister as matron of honor. She carried an arm bouquet of roses. Bill Oglesby, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Ford Oglesby and Bobby Barber of Eldorado were ushers. JAMES PAGE HOUSE UNDERGOES REMODELING

An extensive remodeling job is nearing completion on the James Page residence. The only exterior changes are the closing-in of part of the front porch, the addition of a car porte and concrete driveway along one side, the enlargement of windows and the addition of a concrete porch at the rear; however, the arrangement of rooms inside has been greatly changed. The new living room has been enlarged and an entry closet has been built. Carpeting will be laid. The new kitchen is located in the old dining room, with new steel built-ins and other equipment installed. The rest of the house has been rearranged to provide three bedrooms, two baths, a hall and numerous closets. A floor furnace is being installed. The entire house is being papered and painted. New linoleum is being laid in kitchen and baths and the bedroom floors are being sanded and varnished.

Vester Hughes Jr. of Mertzton, grandson of Mrs. J. E. Tisdale and cousin of Mrs. Charlie Trigg, has received notice that his application for Harvard University has been accepted, and he will leave soon for Cambridge. He is a graduate of Rice University, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He will enter the Harvard Law School.

Mrs. Oles McMillan is home for two or three weeks after sustaining an ankle operation recently. Her leg is in a cast to the knee, and she will probably wear the cast for about three months.

House guests from Wednesday to Monday in the Forrest Runge home were Miss Mary Alice Compton of Demopolis, Ala., and Midshipman Bryan Compton and Hal W. Hall, of Annapolis.

Rev. Baltis Matthews of San Angelo was an overnight guest in the Laymon Hazelwood home Monday.

Band Instructor Looking Forward to Good Year

One of the most successful years in their history is predicted for the Eldorado school bands by their director, C. F. Jones. Over 125 students will be enrolled in the various band groups.

This year there will be three bands in the local school: a high school band, a junior high band, and a grade school band, due to the large number of students enrolled in band work.

To Play for Football Games
New uniforms will be in evidence for the high school band's appearances at the football games. The uniforms are made of blue-wool, trimmed in the school colors of black and gold.

Band personnel will include Joyce Burk as drum major, and Nelva June Bolt, June and Jane Craig, Laura Clark, and Ruthie Harris as twirlers. The marching band, to play for the football games, will be made up of about thirty players.

A sister organization to the band is the pep squad, which will also have new uniforms, consisting of slacks, battle jacket, and overseas cap in a blue-gray color matching the band uniforms as closely as possible.

During the football season, the band will work on music suitable for performance at the games, and will practice marching drills. They will finish their marching practice by attending the marching festival in Brownwood.

Jones states that since there is much demand for small groups to play for clubs and other social affairs, he is planning to have some ensemble group ready at all times for public performance. After the football season, his bands will be divided into smaller groups for ensemble practice.

In the spring, the bands will concentrate on contest music which they will play in the regional band contest in Abilene in April.

The band this year will work from a complete set of new music, given to them by the local REA.

Jones states that much of the band practice will be held during the school hours, but that some practice will necessarily have to be scheduled after school.

Band Parents to Meet

The Band Parents Club will meet regularly during the school year, according to present plans, and they hope to improve the instrumentation of the band. Particularly needed are a set of kettle drums, a French horn, and cymbals. Organized in 1938.

The Eldorado school band was organized in 1938 by Bertram Geeslin, with fifteen students enrolling. The only instruments owned by the school at that time were twelve drums, left from an earlier drum and bugle corps, and an E-flat bass, bought from Jack Elder for $10. By the end of the year, the school owned two French horns, two bass Sousaphones and a flute.

Geeslin taught here two years, followed by John Carrico who is now band director at Sul Ross, Wilford Carrico who is director at Pecos, and one woman band director. As most schools did, Eldorado's band disbanded during the war.

Jack Gray, who was here six months, tried to reorganize the group, but it was not until the summer of 1946, when C. F. Jones became band director, that reorganization was completed.

A short time previously the school had purchased two snare drums, a bass drum, a flute, an alto horn and a baritone. This group of instruments, along with those already on hand, is the present list of instruments owned by the school.

Membership Grows

Jones recalls that when he came here in 1946, the total list of band students was around sixty. Now there are 54 students in high school alone, 36 in the junior high group, and 36 in the fifth and sixth grades, a total of 126. The peak enrollment was at the beginning of last year, when 137 students were signed up.

The uniform situation has also been radically changed, he recalls. In the 1939-40 season the uniforms which were on hand (gold cotton gabardine trimmed in black) did not fit the band personnel, so they usually appeared in blue jeans and plaid shirts.

Jones, who is beginning his fourth year as band director here, has his bachelor's degree from Washburn University at Topeka, Kansas, and has studied at Sul Ross, Howard Payne, and the Kansas Medical College. During his high school days in Eldorado, he was given a first rating in the Sousaphone in both the state and national contests.

Jones and his wife, Elaine, have two young daughters, Cathy and Shirley.

LUCAS — JONES VOWS REPEATED HERE SATURDAY

Miss Pauline Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Jones of Eldorado, and James Leon Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lucas of Hollydale, Calif., were married Saturday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church here. The double-ring ceremony was repeated before the altar which was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums and illumined with tall candles in graduated holders. Rev. F. E. King, pastor, read the vows.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Jack W. Jones. She wore a wedding gown of ivory satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, full skirt and bustle which extended to form a circular train. The long fitted sleeves were fashioned with rows of covered buttons. A bertha of embroidered marquisette outlined the sheer yoke. She wore a veil of ivory silk tulle caught on a coronet of pearls, and carried a bouquet of white carnations surrounding a single purple orchid.

The bride's attendants wore long satin dresses fashioned with fitted bodice, shawl collar and shirred skirts. Mrs. F. Joe Reynolds of Roswell, N. M., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore green; bridesmaids were Mrs. William Bannister of Fort Worth, in blue, and Miss Lottie Jo Owens of Ozona, in gold. Each wore matching satin headresses and carried bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Shirley F. Anderson of Quanah was best man; Groomsmen were Jo Ed Hill and Wilson Page. Miss Helen Marie Brown of San Angelo sang "Indian Love Call" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Mary Lee Gunstead who also played the wedding music.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Koy. Miss Thelma Knox of Weatherford registered the guests. Mrs. S. F. Anderson of Quanah served the decorated wedding cake, and Miss Brown poured punch, from the refreshment table centered with a bouquet of giant bronze and yellow chrysanthemums, surrounded by fern.

For travelling the bride chose a green Jablow Original suit and fur felt hat topped with a matching feather. She wore the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The couple will be at home in Borger, where the bridegroom is backfield coach at the Borger high school.

The bride, a graduate of Texas Christian University, was a member of the Bryson club and class favorite there. She has been teaching in the physical education and elementary departments in the Schleicher county schools since her graduation. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Texas Christian University, where he was a member of the Horned Frog football team, a three-year letterman, president of the "T" association, a class favorite, and member of the Bryson club.

Members of the Presbyterian Auxiliary were hosts at a gift tea given for the bride at the Bert Page home last Thursday afternoon. An arrangement of white gladioli centered the dining table from which decorated cake, mints and punch were served. Ninety guests registered during the afternoon.

Mrs. Thomas Richard Jones and Mrs. E. C. Peters served cake, and Mrs. Joe Reynolds and Mrs. Gene St. Clair poured punch. Mrs. Ray Hudgens and Mrs. Patton Enochs registered the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jackson entertained members of the wedding party at a rehearsal luncheon Saturday at 12:30. Decorations included bouquets of summer flowers throughout the house and centerpieces of white gladioli and silver bells on the two luncheon tables.

WEDNESDAY IS 50TH ANNIVERSARY FOR JOHNSONS WHO RECEIVE FRIENDS AT THEIR NEW HOME IN ELDORADO

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson were at home to their friends Wednesday afternoon from 5:00 to 8:00, on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. A large number of friends and relatives from this area called on the couple, who have lived in this county for forty-five years.

All of the Johnsons' children were present for the occasion. They include Mrs. W. B. Terpening (Connie) of Eugene, Oregon; Mrs. O. R. Burden (Joyce) of Wichita Falls; and Edwin T. Johnson of Venezuela.

All of the grandchildren, Jack and Tom Burden, Bill and Bob Terpening, Elaine, Tom E. and Denny Johnson, were also present with the exception of Jack and Bill.

Miss Elizabeth Sample, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sample, and T. W. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, were married in 1899 in Pilgrim, in Gonzales county. James Sample and John Johnson were both veterans of the Civil War, fighting in the Confederate Army. The young couple, both of whom were reared in Gonzales county, lived there for three years during which time Mr. Johnson ranched.

In 1904 they came to Schleicher county, and have lived here ever since. Mr. Johnson went into the mercantile business with J. W. Alexander. When the school land was offered for sale, Johnson made a bid and acquired a place four miles northeast of Eldorado which the couple still own.

During the years the couple and their three children lived in town during the school term and on the ranch at other seasons. One daughter, Estelle, died in 1935.

Last year Mr. and Mrs. Johnson leased their land, sold their stock and moved into town where they are at home in a new house which they built.

Mrs. Johnson is a charter member of the First Baptist church here, and has done Sunday school extension work for twenty-seven years. She has also been active in the WMU. Two hobbies in which she became interested relatively late in life—oil painting and china painting—are in evidence throughout her house. Her paintings of West Texas scenes, beautifully framed, are hung in several rooms, and her hand-painted china is displayed in a cabinet in her dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Davidson and baby have gone on a ten-day vacation trip to Longview, to visit Mr. and Mrs. John Dunaway. On their way home they will stop at Temple to visit Bud's cousin, the McEvers.

Dial Mercer and family of Sonora visited Mrs. Henry Mercer Sunday and Sidney remained for the week.

Mrs. Cook (Ernestine Clark) will enroll Saturday as a senior in Sonora High. On Monday Mrs. Cook and Mrs. R. V. Cook and Mrs. Sammy Smith drove up from Sonora for a brief visit.

Rabies Examinations Carried On Steadily By Health Dept.

AUSTIN—The Texas State Department of Health during the first seven months of this year has a record of the examination of 2709 animal heads for rabies and of this number almost one fourth were found positive, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Rabies is transmitted to man through a bite or having a cut exposed to the saliva of a rabid animal. If a person is bitten, the offending animal should be penned if possible, for a period of at least ten days. If the animal is in the infective stage, he will die within this time. This does not mean that he may not be in the noninfectious or incubative stage and develop rabies later. All dogs bitten by a rabid animal should be confined six months. If it is necessary to kill the animal, this should be done in such a manner that the brain is not destroyed.

When sending a head to the State Laboratory it should be put in a container, sealed, and packed in ice to prevent decomposition.

Dr. Cox said that rabies is a hard disease to eradicate, but that it could be done if all owners would have their dogs vaccinated each year and eliminate all stray dogs. If you have a dog, get him vaccinated the same as you would have your children immunized against diphtheria and smallpox.

Rabies is commonly supposed to be a disease of warm weather, but it is more prevalent during the spring and fall because the dogs congregate and move about more, therefore the danger of exposure is greater during this time. It is true that more dogs are killed during the summer months, but the percentage of rabies is low.

Mrs. Minnie Harris of Brady visited last week with Mrs. R. A. King.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jeffrey of Dallas visited relatives here recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Furr have gone to Detroit and will drive back a new Pontiac.

ELDORADO, TEXAS

City's First School House Was School, Dance Hall, Church, Social Center

This was not Schleicher county's first school. A short time before, a school had been established at Verrand, the county's first town. Judd Nicks, one of Schleicher's older residents, was one of the first pupils, and later when the little town disappeared and the school closed, he attended school in Eldorado.

The building shown above was a frame structure located on the lots at the rear of the present Jones Motor company, and Clark's Texaco property. There were few other buildings in the neighborhood, the nearest being the old Hutto place in which the Slack family lived.

In this early school there was only one room, with Miss Goldwire and later E. E. Stricklin among the early teachers. The original building, with the seven first pupils who enrolled, had its share of growing pains during those early years, for new families continued to arrive, until by 1901 organizing of the county gave added stimulus to immigration, and in a short time there were 40 or 50 pupils.

Early School Grows

Scholars in the first school recall their teacher's method of taking care of the over-crowding. When there were no seats left, the teacher improvised seating facilities on the platform ledge, the younger children sitting on the edge of the platform, swinging their legs over the side, and leaning back against a plank supported by arms which a blacksmith had made; when the supports broke later, the children had nothing to lean against.

Among the earlier pupils who still live in the county were Mrs. Essie Hoover, Miss John Alexander, Mrs. A. J. Jones, Carson West, Frank and Claude Meador, Van and Don McCormick, Judd Nicks, Mrs. John Griffin and others.

School is County Center

The little building was more than an educational institution. The shifting population was of varying faiths, and many families wanted to go to church when Sunday came—so the desks became pews, and the platform provided pulpit accommodations for preachers who came for revivals or for regular services. On week nights the desks were stacked in a corner and the building became a dance hall. As the only community center the little city had, the building served for a variety of social and religious affairs until later a larger school house was erected elsewhere and churches and business houses were constructed.

Three R's Are Studied

Pupils spent their study and recitation time on the three R's.

From Bev McCormick's 370-page grammar school arithmetic, we quote from a list of grocer's prices, described as fair averages for a large city and less in smaller places:

The text takes the pupil through everything from fencing problems, bills, and accounts, measurements, fractions, decimals, and percentage, and touches on algebra and geometry, concluding with a page of problems using the vara, the Spanish land measure.

Don McCormick's textbook on mental arithmetic, published in 1903, takes the pupil through 195 pages of problems, some of them quite complicated, to be done without pencil and paper.

A reader of the same period in use in the early 1900's, runs heavily to literary classics. Included are Whittier's Snowbound, many nature and patriotic poems, cuttings from such books as George Elliott's "Mill on the Floss," Swift's "Gulliver's Travels," and Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," several popular tear jerkers such as Hood's "Song of the Shirt," several orations, part of Coleridge's "Ancient Mariner," concluding with Act IV of Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice."

The man or woman whose schooling may have included those years after the turn of the century will realize that the modern lad or Miss would find the arithmetic top-heavy with drill, and the reader too classical to be of general interest today.

Experiences Are Varied

Oldtimers who were children in those early days relate many interesting incidents concerning their school experiences.

Frank and Claude Meador once amused the children by finding two small polecats on their way to school one morning, and bringing them to school. A cruel teacher refused to allow the boys to bring their pets indoors, but they kept them on the playground and played with them during recess and at noon.

Books could never hold the attention of the children when the mail stage arrived. Heralded by a bugle which could be heard all over town, the mail stage stopped here long enough to change horses. Sometimes the mail came and went without undue excitement. Sometimes, though, a horse ran away when it had been whipped for balking and the children could see and hear the excitement from their schoolhouse windows.

Don McCormick recalls the wonder with which he and other small children his age used to look at the town's one telephone, which was located in the old McWhorter building. The telephone line crossed the school yard, and from a pole near the school house could be heard a steady humming.

Don remembers that he used to imagine that he heard people talking, and that on one occasion he told another boy, "They're calling Brice Dabney," and the other boy listened and said "They sure are!"

Games Are Rough

Playground activities were completely unsupervised. The children roamed at will over the playground at recess time, scattering as far as they could and yet remain within sound of the teacher's reassembly bell.

As could be expected, the games were rough—practically all requiring a great deal of running. Town ball and wolf-over-the-river were favorites.

Many of the games were original. One of these, called "Stealin' Sticks," required two sides and two piles of sticks over which the children fought until the wrangling was brought to an abrupt close when the bell rang.

The roughest game of all was "Land Rush," a Schleicher county original game growing out of the land rush in the county in which the elders took a great deal of interest. They might have evolved a game with a clerk and a long line of children filing past for their papers. But this was not their game! They called their contest "ranchers and settlers"—the ranchers did not want their land divided and the settlers did. In one fight which grew out of this realistic contest, Ewell McKnight sustained a broken arm, and the game was banned from the school grounds.

Boys' Apparel is Tough

The boys' wearing apparel was the standard school garb of the country and the good, and it ran heavily to denim and similar materials. The McCormick children's mother, despairing of finding a shirting durable enough for the boys' waists, showed resourcefulness when she not only made the knee-length pants of denim, but also made denim waists. These "matched suits" were guaranteed to stand school wear and could only be outgrown.

Lots of Mud

Old residents who attended Schleicher county's early schools remember the mud vividly. There was no paving and there were no cement walks. The playground surrounding the first schoolhouse was practically kneedeep in mud when it rained, but there was some drainage, and this was nothing to the mud around the newer schoolhouse which was built near the site of the site of the present high school. The land there was flat, and wagons passing the grounds were sometimes axle deep in mud. The rains were hard on the children's shoes and harder still on school-room floors.

Plenty of Discipline

Parents had no cause to complain of lack of discipline. Whipping was common, and with some of the boys was almost an everyday occurrence. One man recalls a group whipping which lasted all of one recess period.

Boys learned to prepare in advance with extra trousers, and a few resourceful youths came to school with trousers well padded with shingles.

Another School

Organizing of the county in 1901 brought a feeling of permanence to settlers, and that year the old school was moved to the present city hall site, and used for a court-house.

A three-room schoolhouse made of planks was put up on a site near the location of the present school.

In 1907 four boys and one girl comprised the first graduating class under Supt. J. B. Smith. A medal Pearl Bailey was to have been awarded was misplaced and she did not receive it until later. Graduation was in the old Baptist church. The next class was two years later, Essie Alexander and Bertha West receiving their diplomas in commencement exercises in a portable tabernacle.

By the time this building was outgrown it had six rooms and was shaped like a cross. It was moved away in three parts; B. K. Cheek moved part to his place, and some of this lumber was used last year in the new Roy Davidson house. Another wing went to the old Eldorado Hardware building which burned in 1923. Uncle Dink Meador moved the third part to his ranch for a barn.

This building was replaced by a larger brick building, in about 1909, and this is part of the present high school building. Later the grade school was added.

The high school building will be razed and a new one built, and the grade school enlarged and modernized this year.

Eagle Prospects Are Favorable for Coming Season

Coaches Kirby and Hopkins state that prospects are bright for a successful ball season, after directing football practice for several weeks. Tremendous improvement was noted in the scrimmages held recently. Despite the loss of several men due to injuries, the team looks good and should play good ball during the season.

In contrast to the start of last year's season, when only five lettermen were on the team, the squad begins this year with twelve lettermen. The larger number of experienced players should be noticeable during the season's play.

The first game of the year will be next week, Sept. 9, in Del Rio with the Del Rio team. Local fans are urged to see the game and back the team.

Ted Kirby

Ted Kirby, football coach, graduated from Howard Payne in 1942. He has done post graduate work in education there, and this summer began work on his master's degree at Sul Ross. CARROLL'S LAUNDRY

Gerald Hicks

Billy Ray Jones

Billy Ray Jones and Gerald Hicks, new captains of the Eldorado Eagles, are well qualified to lead their teammates in the coming football season.

Both boys are two year lettermen. Jones, who plays halfback, is a senior student, and Hicks, who plays fullback, is a junior student.

At the present both boys are recovering from injuries sustained in the scrimmage with Lakeview. Jones' foot is in a cast as the result of a cracked bone, and he will be unable to play for the first two or three games. Hicks, who has a bad sprain in one ankle, will be able to play soon, perhaps for the first game.

Herman "Bud" Hopkins

Herman ("Bud") Hopkins, basketball coach, is a graduate of North Texas State College, and has completed most of the work toward a master's degree there. He has had two years of experience in the Eldorado schools.

Hopkins and his wife, Jeannine, have one daughter, Mary Marsha, age two months. They live in the school duplex.
