Commissioners Put West Road At Top of List

The Commissioners Court of Schleicher County meeting in Eldorado Monday was in favor of getting all the State highway funds it could for extending the new Menard road from Eldorado "as far as it would go."

In line with a new state road building program recently announced, Dist. Highway Engineer Morisund of San Angelo, met with the commissioners here Monday to ascertain from them the principal road needs of their people. When this has been done the Highway Commission will formulate a two-year program. In a formal order the local court went on record for a new highway from Eldorado west, following the route of the old Ozona road for a distance of 8 or 10 miles. It seems that this much of the West road will be Schleicher County's "Project No. 1" and will be submitted to Austin for approval and will probably be built next spring. By the time this much new highway has been completed, additional appropriations of state and federal funds may make it possible to extend the road on west to the county line. Tentative plans are that after the road has gone on west about ten miles it will veer somewhat northwest and hit the Ozona-Barnhart road some distance south of Barnhart.

Whitten Children Divide Estate; Make Improvements

The children of the late J. A. Whitten drew for the five parts of the ranch into which they had divided the land and improvements—and each is well satisfied with the part he drew!

When Whitten and Noelke give up their lease in October, each will have his plans made.

Chan Whitten's land includes the old Whitten ranchhouse, which he has remodeled and to which he and his family recently moved. The Whittens and their five children had been staying with the Bill Munds until the house was ready for occupancy. Mr. Whitten will keep his job with Shell while he works the ranch.

B. A. Whitten moved a barracks to his land and he and his family are living in this remodeled residence. He formerly lived in Eldorado where he was employed.

Mrs. D. C. Royster expects to build barns and make other improvements on her place. It is understood that her son Donald J. will operate the place.

Willie drew the part adjoining his home place, so few changes will be required. His son, Morris, lives on the ranch, while he lives in town.

Louis Whitten moved his residence from Eldorado and made numerous improvements in the house, to which he moved recently.

YARDLEY DISCHARGED

J. D. Yardley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freman Yardley, has received his discharge from the Marines and he and his wife, the former Sue Metcalf of Omaha, Neb., are making their home in San Angelo. Mr. and Mrs. Yardley were married on March 20, in California and made their home near Camp Pendleton where he was stationed. He received his discharge on August 12 and the couple visited with Mrs. Yardley's parents in Omaha, before coming to San Angelo where he is employed in the Box Planing Mill.

TRUCK ACCIDENT INJURES MAN FROM McCAMEY

A McCamey truck driver named Hendrickson has been hospitalized as the result of an accident in which the trailer of his acid truck overturned at the Virge Tisdale corner east of town.

Hendrickson was driving a Dowell, Inc., acid truck, the first of a convoy of 3, en route for the oil field to acidize a well. He was brought to Eldorado by Wilson Page, then taken to San Angelo where he is undergoing treatment for a back injury. He is reported to be improving slowly, but doctors express the opinion that he will recover completely.

TRIGG MOTORS GETS DELIVERY ON SIX CARS

Of six Fords delivered recently to Charlie Trigg Motors, the Triggs retained a sedan coupe for their own use, sold pickups to Ernest Hill and Edwin Jackson, a Tudor to Roy Martin and a Fordor to Billy Oglesby, and have a driver's training unit on the floor for later delivery to the school.

In Car Accident

Mrs. A. T. Wright, who was injured last week in a car accident, is doing fine at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. T. Barber in San Angelo, following her release from the hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Wright suffered severe lacerations on her face, bruises and shock when the Oldsmobile sedan in which she and her husband were returning from San Angelo late last Thursday, overturned six miles south of Christoval.

The accident happened when Mrs. Wright, who was driving, attempted to pass a truck, when her car struck a shoulder of dirt softened the night before from rain, and after zigzagging across the road overturned.

Mrs. Wright was thrown from the car and was severely lacerated by broken glass, Mr. Wright, who was thrown into the back seat, was not injured but the car was completely wrecked. The driver of the truck stopped and rendered aid and an Eldorado ambulance took the couple to the hospital where about 40 stitches were required to close the wounds on Mrs. Wright's face.

Wet-Dry Vote To Come Up

A petition bearing the signatures of 110 voters was presented to the Commissioners' Court at their regular meeting here Monday, asking the Court to order an election on the legalized sale of beer and wine.

The election, which will be county-wide, will be held Oct. 9th, and will decide whether Schleicher County, which has been in the dry column for many years, will change its traditional status.

Formal election notices are being prepared and will be posted in each of the nine county voting boxes where the election will be conducted. The proposition will be: "For (or against) legalizing the sale of malt and vinous beverages that do not contain alcohol in excess of 14% by volume."

First Home Game To Be Held Friday Night

MRS. BROWN, ENROUTE HERE, FATALLY INJURED

Funeral services for Mrs. Grady T. Brown of Houston, the former Lizbeth Hinyard, were held at 10 o'clock Monday morning at the Robert Massie Funeral Home in San Angelo, with interment in Fairmount Cemetery. The Rev. Ray N. Johnson, First Methodist pastor, officiated. Pallbearers were John Skeete, Marvin Hall and L. J. Alexander of San Angelo; S. D. Harper of Eldorado; O. M. Nix of Fort Stockton and A. L. Baugh of Marfa.

Mrs. Brown, 42 years old, was fatally injured in an automobile collision near Seguin late last Thursday afternoon as she was enroute to visit relatives and friends in San Antonio, Eldorado, San Angelo and Pecos. Her two young daughters were seriously but not critically injured. May Jane, 3, sustained breaks in both legs, and Marilyn was released from a Seguin hospital Saturday while her sister remained in the hospital. Two men occupying the second car, were also hospitalized at Seguin. The two cars collided on a hill in a rain.

Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hinyard, who owned ranches in Schleicher and Pecos counties, Mrs. Brown was reared in Eldorado, where she graduated from the high school. She was well known and loved by all her friends who knew her here. She had only recently notified Mrs. S. D. Harper, a former school mate, that she was planning a visit in Eldorado and wanted to have a reunion with all her former school friends who were still here, and that she was looking forward to attending services at the Methodist Church of which she was a member while living here.

Her husband, Grady T. Brown, is a Houston oil company distributor and truck line operator.

Surviving in addition to the husband and two daughters, are two brothers, Paul B. Hinyard, Shell Oil Co. geologist at San Antonio, and James N. Hinyard, Scotch Plains, N. J., a colonel in the chemical warfare branch of the War Department during the war; and two sisters, Mrs. Ray B. Newton of Pecos, and Mrs. Howard C. Renken of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Brown and the two children were to have visited her brother's family in San Antonio, then Mrs. Harper and others in Eldorado, and Mrs. John Skeete and Mrs. J. E. Batchler in San Angelo, and finally were to have gone to Pecos to visit the sister there.

Dates Set For Fall Revival At First Baptist Church

Sunday, Oct. 24 through the 31st has been set as the dates for the annual fall revival at the First Baptist Church, according to an announcement made this week by the Rev. J. M. Hays, pastor.

The Rev. Clifton R. Tennyson of Memphis, Texas has been engaged to do the preaching for the week's services. A graduate of Baylor University and of Southwestern Seminary, Rev. Tennyson has also finished his graduate work for his ThD at the same institution. He was a former pastor of the First Baptist Church at Ozona before going to Memphis to assume his duties at the First Baptist Church there.

Further announcement concerning the time of services and arrangement for music will be made at a later date.

O. B. Bradshaw has bought a new 4-door Buick.

Robert Lee and Eldorado will be the opposing teams when Eldorado fans see their first home game of the season at the lighted football field at 8:00 tomorrow (Friday) night. Coaches Ted Kirby and Bud Hopkins, who have been supervising the boys at their daily afternoon workouts, state that the boys expect this to be a hard-fought and probably close game.

Probable starting line-up is:

Chester Biggs lb
Harlan McAlpine lg
David Allen c
Kumler Mund rg
Glenn Biggs rt
Dean Clark re
James Alexander qb
Bill Jones lh
Gordon Hamm rh
Gerald Hicks fb

Reserves will include: John Phillips, Durward Rutland and Derl Griffin, tackles; Edwin Jackson, Bobby Galbreath, Sammie Whitten, and Philip Brooks, backs; Buddy Baker and Joe Ed Spencer, centers; Roger Sofge and Junior Woodward, ends; Truman Biggs, James Dacy and Orville Connex, guards.

Maurice Christian and Wayne McGill are managers for the team.

The Eldorado players know little about the Robert Lee team, except that they were defeated by Baird 7-6 last Friday night. It is believed that they have several players who are back this year and thus may be more experienced than the Eldorado team.

The Eldorado Eagles were defeated by Iraan last Friday night, 20-6, at the football field in Iraan. The Eagles, who were playing against a larger and more experienced team, were cheered by a number of Eldorado fans who drove to Iraan for Eldorado's first game of the season.

Bill Jones made Eldorado's touchdown on an intercepted pass, and ran about 55 yards on the play. The team looked better in some spots than in others, state the coaches, who cite especially Gerald Hicks and Gordon Hamm, who made good gains carrying the ball; James Alexander, for faking and ball handling; Earl Dean Clark, for good playing at end position; Wayne Davis, at tackle; and David Allen, at center. Three freshmen who played during the game were Truman Biggs, Sammie Whitten and John Phillips, all of whom show promise.

Harlan McAlpine, who is listed in the starting line-up for the coming game, may not be able to play because of a bruised leg muscle; Truman Biggs will probably replace him if he is unable to play.

Coach Kirby states that the boys need work particularly in ball handling and timing in the backfield, offensive blocking, and defensive tackling for ends and secondary players, and he is giving special attention to these in daily practices.

A Crop to Cultivate

America is famous for good crops. But finest of all is the bumper "crop" of 11,000,000 boys and girls growing up on our farms and ranches.

Trained teachers and leaders are helping cultivate this bumper crop. Vocational agricultural teachers in over 7,000 high schools do their part. Most of these schools have Future Farmers of America chapters. Membership of F. F. A. is 250,000. In their "outside classroom" work they receive additional on-the-job training from their vocational agricultural teachers. They learn to accept leadership responsibility. On graduation, many go directly into farm or ranch management. Others go on to agricultural college.

County agents and over 180,000 unselfish volunteer leaders do another great job through the 4-H Clubs. Through 85,000 local 4-H Clubs, more than 1,750,000 boys and girls get invaluable training. Advice, encouragement, know-how from practical experts. Their projects keep them abreast of what is new in agriculture. They learn through doing. Achievement and leadership become habits.

It is well that American agriculture has these leaders and teachers. By teaching the business and science of farming, they are helping make life on farm and ranch rich and profitable for a new generation of Americans. They are showing them the way to economic security and a good way of life. Better farm planning; power machinery; scientific modern methods; control of weeds and plant and animal pests . . . All these our farm and ranch youth are learning. In many ways they are qualifying themselves to be better managers of land and better businessmen. They are increasing their knowledge of science and selling—of machinery and markets—of costs and conservation.

Swift & Company has always been proud to encourage farm youth activities. We shall continue to do so. We have no doubt or fear for the future of America. For, properly cultivated, this crop will ripen surely into our nation's richest harvest.

A HUNDRED CENTS MAKE A DOLLAR

Have you sometimes wished to know Where meat dollars really go?

Of each wholesale dollar spent,
You get seventy-nine per cent

For your livestock, wool and hides,
And all by-products besides.

Wages, operating cost a-plenty . . .
Take another even twenty.

After all the rest is spent
The packer profits just one cent.

Livestock and Meat Prices

Livestock is marketed when it is ready. The supply of animals coming to market at any one time is controlled by your decisions as producers. These decisions may have been made months previously, depending on your breeding and feeding program. The weather—blizzards, storms and droughts—also have a bearing on when you market your animals.

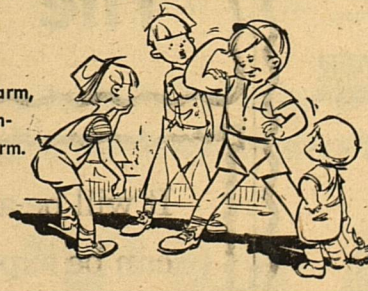

Meat packers have no control over the supply of livestock.

The meat packer must sell meat and by-products for what they will bring. When people have to economize, they spend less money for meat. Consumers, retailers and meat packers reduce their bids. The prices of both meat and livestock fall accordingly. But when people make more money, they are eager to buy meat. Then buyers all along the line increase their bids. And the prices of both meat and livestock rise accordingly. For each meat packer and each retail meat dealer knows that if he does not pay a little higher for the livestock or meat he wants, somebody else will—and get the business.

Thus the old law of supply and demand—plus competition in buying livestock and selling meat—forces price changes in meat to be reflected quickly all the way back to the livestock on the hoof. At all times the market price is a balance between the supply of livestock and the demand for meat.

OUR CITY COUSIN

Wow! Look at City Cousin's arm. He spent the summer on the farm.

It's a Two-Way Road

In my work with farmers and ranchers I have visited just about every part of this country. I can't begin to count the number of times I have traveled out of Chicago and back to the range country of the West . . . through the Corn Belt states . . . the wheatlands . . . the cotton country—Florida, Maine, Washington, California and all the other states in between.

I do not know how anyone who travels much can help being impressed with the need for team play in America. As farmers or ranchers, your prosperity depends to a large degree on the ability of workers in industry to purchase the food and fiber you produce. Likewise, city businessmen know that your power to purchase their products is equally important to them. And all of us depend on the men in the mines, in the forests, in the steel mills, and oil fields.

But what we are apt to overlook is the fact that it is the earning of a reasonable profit which keeps all these businesses going, and all of us at work. Of course, profit rates vary. That depends on many things, including volume of business done. For example, here at Swift & Company we process millions of pounds of agricultural raw materials each year. On each pound handled, we earn an average profit of a fraction of a cent. Few could stay in business on the margin we meat packers earn. But whether one's business volume is large or small, some profit is essential to any individual or any enterprise.

And here's another thing. Often I hear someone say—"Those farmers are the lucky ones—completely independent!" I can't agree with them. I know, and you know, that you on the land are independent—but only to a certain degree! Of course, cities couldn't exist without the products of farm and ranch. Maybe you could produce your own food, clothing, shelter and fuel. But country living would be pretty grim without cars, telephones, radios, fences, tractors, windmills and modern labor-saving, comfort-giving equipment. It is a two-way road! Our standard of living in America is something we are all proud of. It is the result of the profit system and of good team play.

New Idea in Junior Feeding Projects

by T. W. Thompson
State 4-H Club Leader, Montana

Boys and girls are trying out a new kind of livestock feeding project. In several states—including Montana, Nebraska, Colorado and Indiana—people are enthusiastic about it. Here is how it works. The boy or girl buys an average lot of feeder steers or lambs, from a uniform herd or band. The number bought is usually 3 or more steers, 15 or more lambs. That depends on finances, feed supplies and equipment available.

These lots of animals are bought at a central market. They are taken home and fattened. Careful records are kept of feed costs and rates of gain. At the end of the feeding period, they are shipped back to market. They are sold on Junior Marketing Day.

Boys and girls consign their animals to commission firms of their own choice. Upon arrival the animals are penned separately, according to ownership. Each lot is graded and weighed separately. Then all animals are assembled in pens according to grade. They are sold for slaughter in the usual manner used on that market. The boys and girls profit according to the market value of their animals.

Sponsors claim the following benefits: (1) It is practical. (2) It promotes better farm feeding methods. (3) Boys and girls learn about market grades of livestock. (4) They learn about central markets and their operation. This new idea in junior feeding is not intended to take the place of feeding for show. It is a separate project, to give youngsters practical experience in feeding for market.

"Farming" Versus "Ranching"

Talked to some editors who run my column in their papers—in states where there's mostly cattle and sheep raising—about the differences there might be between farming and ranching.

And they told me: "Joe, there's no real difference between cattlemen and farmers. We make our living from the land like your folks do; we have the same 4-H Clubs and Granges; the same problems of prices and marketing.

"When it comes to recreation, we have the same liking to get together now and then for a barbecue and a friendly glass of beer."

And from where I sit, that about sums it up. Ranchers may have different names for things or grow different crops. But all over America folks who work the land share those common traits of hard work, sober moderation, and good fellowship, whether they're growing cattle for beef, or barley for good American beer and ale.

Second Week Finds School Routine Well Established

School routine at the Eldorado public schools is being established this week, the second week of the 1948-49 school year, with students and teachers almost through with the task of shifting schedules.

Highlights of the first week's activities include:

Driver Education Course

Two classes in driver education have been organized with Bud Hopkins as instructor, the freshman class containing 12 students and the sophomore class 20. The classes are learning the rules and regulations as set out by the Texas Highway Department before doing any behind-the-wheel driving. A new '49 2-door Ford has arrived and is being furnished the school for the course by Charlie Trigg Motors. Hopkins is stressing proper attitudes and consideration of others for all these prospective drivers, in addition to the technical side of the course.

Band Is Reorganizing

Seventy-three students are eligible for high school band, states C. F. Jones, band instructor, who is in the process of reorganizing for the new year and outlining rehearsal periods. He plans to maintain 40 students at all times in the 40 band uniforms, changing the personnel of this group according to the ability of the players and the free time they have to rehearse.

The band this year will be the nucleus of the cheering section. In addition to the band personnel, the organization will include a drum major, Pat Humphrey; three flag bearers, Frances Williams, Gretchen Mund and Iretta Faye Mace; five twirlers, Joyce Ann Van Horn, Joyce Burk, Nelva June Bolt, Patsy Taylor, and Mary Sproul; and four cheer leaders, Ebba Ann Finley, Betty Sue Williams, Irene Childers, and Mary Thompson, with an other to be elected by the student body. This entire organization is larger than the band and pep squad combined was last year.

The grade school will soon have a band of its own, since there are 25 students in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades who are forming a separate organization. These students rehearse together three times a week.

Lunchroom

Improvements at the lunchroom include a new linoleum floor and the painting of cabinets. An average of 130 students are eating each day at the lunchroom, state Mrs. F. D. Schooley and Mrs. E. W. Craig, workers.

"Any mothers who want to see how the lunchroom operates and how the food tastes is urged to come to school one day at noon and eat with us," said Mrs. Schooley.

"We are anxious for every mother to know what we are doing here, and hope that each mother can visit us at least once during the year. It is important that the parents get a first-hand report of our food and not trust what they may hear from their children. We hope all the mothers can come to see our lunchroom, and we welcome suggestions from them," she concluded.

School Paper

The school newspaper this year is being printed at San Angelo by News-Foto, states C. F. Jones sponsor for the paper this year. It is planned that the paper, which will contain four pages, will be printed every two weeks. Each page will be 16 inches long and will have 5 columns. All the work will be done at the school except the actual printing, and students will learn how to gather and write the news and advertisements, make up the pages and edit the news.

Enrollment Is 475

Following the completion of registration the addition of several new students and a final check-up Supt. C. A. Reynolds announces the enrollment in the Eldorado schools as follows: Elementary, grades one through six, 233; junior high school, grades 7 and 8, 83; high school, grades 9 through 12, 96 Latin-American school, grades one through five, 43; Negro school, 20—making a total enrollment of 475 students.

Latin American students in the sixth and seventh grades have been transferred to the Elementary school with a total of nine enrolled in these grades. These students are: 6th: Pabla Burrola, Lupe Garcia, Lydia Minor, Lupe Morales and Clara Munoz; 7th: Mary Santos, Hortensia Juarez, Ramiro Minor and Antonio Flores. Especially the strangers (employees of Shell Pipe Line) who were passing in our midst, Wallis Cozzens and Aris Carr and the truck man who was first on the scene. Then for the kindness of Carroll Ratliff, who assisted so promptly in carrying us to the hospital; a friend in need is a friend indeed.

Then came the numerous flowers, cards, letters and calls in person, which bespeaks for the God saving people of a christian community.

Your kindness makes us know all the more that life is worth living. May your troubles be few when they do come, may you be blessed with the same fellowship.—Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Wright and family.

NOTICE TO HUNTERS

Dove hunters are shooting the wires on REA lines, and this causes the aluminum wires to unravel. To repair these breaks, lines will have to be killed and in some places people will have to be deprived of electricity for a time while the repairs are being made.

The REA members and personnel will greatly appreciate the cooperation of all hunters in this respect.

Price shown is for one place-setting and includes Fed. Tax.
