Ministerial Alliance Sponsors Union Thanksgiving Service

Rev. J. C. Hancock, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Eldorado, will bring the Thanksgiving message to assembled worshippers at 8:00 Thanksgiving morning, next Thursday, in the high school auditorium. This Thanksgiving service will be the third presented under auspices of the Ministerial Alliance.

Plans for this service have been under way for several weeks, with Alliance ministers lining up the program: Rev. Doyle Morton, First Methodist; Rev. Cliff McDougal, Fundamental Baptist; Rev. J. C. Hancock, First Baptist; Rev. Charles Bruce, Presbyterian; and Minister Quentin Dunn, Church of Christ.

A freewill offering will be taken at this Thanksgiving worship service—one fourth of which will be used to defray expenses of the Alliance, and the remaining three-quarters to go to Boys' Ranch at Tankersley.

Placards distributed throughout the business district, announce the event to those who have not otherwise been informed.

Lewis Jordan, director of the High School chorus, has been training the chorus to take their places as members of the choir, bringing special numbers and leading in congregational singing.

The entire community is invited and urged to attend this service. The hour has been set early, to enable families expecting guests or planning to drive elsewhere to attend church first and then carry out other plans.

The pastors of the city urge their members and the general public to attend this service.

Cub Scouts Getting Ready For Harvest Fair Tonight

The Eldorado Cub Scouts and their parents are making plans for a Harvest Fair with an evening of inexpensive fun for every family in Schleicher County. The Fair will be held in the main auditorium of the Memorial building from 7:30 until 9:00, Nov. 19—tonight.

The Fair will consist of contests and games, with cold drinks being sold. There will be contests in the following divisions with ribbons for first, second and third winners:

Best home-made cakes, pies, and canning (including preserves, jellies, and pickles); cut flower arrangements, home-made candy & cookies. Fruit arrangements, and pot plants.

A novelty contest will be held with ribbons for the most unusual animal made out of any article—vegetables, pipe cleaners, toothpicks, or other things.

There will also be two contests for snapshots, one of children under three years of age, and one of pets, such as dogs, cats, horses, etc. Only snapshots will be accepted. Ribbons will be awarded for each of these.

Games will include bean guessing, nail driving, golf putting, ring-the-bottle, and numerous other games which will be inexpensive for all—no game will cost over 5c.

The following people will be in charge of the contests and can be contacted for registration and information on their divisions:

Cakes: Mrs. Jim O'Harrow
Pies: Mrs. James McDonald
Canning: Mrs. Jess Blaylock
Cut flower, fruit or vegetable arrangements: Mrs. Walter McGregor.

Curio show: Mrs. Forrest Runge
Home made candy: Mrs. Jerome Mitchell.

Cookies: Mrs. Jack Griffin.

Pet photo contest: Mrs. Victoria Ohlenburg.
Novelty animal contest: Mrs. Hollis McCormick.

No entrance fee will be charged for any contest and everyone is urged to contact the division chairman on entries. All entries must be in by 7:15 tonight.

San Angelo Scout executives will be the judges.

The Cubs and their leaders tell the public, "Come to the Fair and Have Fun."

THREE PRIZES IN XMAS DECORATIONS TO BE OFFERED

There will be three first prizes this year in decorations for Christmas in residential areas, state officials of the sponsoring organizations, the Lions Club and the Junior Womans Club.

The prizes will be offered in three categories: one first for picture windows or garages, one first for roof tops or lawns, and a first for door or archway.

The business district will not be included in the competition this year, but everyone is urged to do as much decorating as possible.

Judges will be appointed and announcement of the results will be made one week before Christmas. This will give all competing residents an opportunity to get the decorating finished early, and will also provide a week's Christmas fighting before Christmas Day, for the enjoyment of the motoring public.

Capt. Thad Thomson has been quite ill recently.

MYSTERY SHIP IN DRY ELDORADO IS UNWANTED AND A NUISANCE—COUNTY LACKING IN WATER TO MOVE IT AWAY

A mystery ship in dry Eldorado has chosen his particular time to become the center of attention!

The ship is currently in dry dock at the Memorial building—where the two-foot model has been handled many a time by various groups, none of which wanted to take the responsibility of throwing it away.

Right now a project is under way to get a kitchen built on the main floor of the building (more about this later when there is more definite news)—and the ship model is again in the way.

A member of the "kitchen committee" issues this general appeal:

Wanted: Information!
Who knows anything about the history and background of the old ship model that has been hanging around the Memorial building ever since

SCHOOL HOLIDAY

According to the school calendar for the current school year, school will be out for the Thanksgiving holidays on Wednesday afternoon of next week, and work will be resumed the following Monday morning.

Many of the teachers are planning to visit in their homes or other places out of the city, and some of the students will take short trips with their parents during the long weekend.

Basketball Starts With Junior Game

The first basketball game of the season will be played in Eldorado Tuesday night of next week, when Christoval Junior High boys meet the Eldorado Junior High team in a game starting at 7:00 at the local high school gym. The girls will play at 8:00.

School officials announce that admission will be 25 cents and 50 cents.

FIRST BAPTISTS OPEN DOWN-TOWN MISSION BRANCH

The First Baptist Church of Eldorado announces the opening of its Anglo Mission Sunday, Nov. 22, in down-town Eldorado. The mission is temporarily located in the former Tisdale Chevrolet building, owned by Carroll Ratliff, adjoining the Eldorado Success.

First services will be Sunday School at 10:00 and preaching at 11:00 Sunday morning. It is understood that no night service is planned for next Sunday, but will be held thereafter.

Rev. J. C. Hancock explains the purpose of the Mission: to enlist people who would prefer, for various reasons, to associate themselves with this type of work, and to give more people an opportunity to be of service to the First Baptist Church and the community.

He also points out that this is an arm, or extension, of the work of First Baptist Church, similar to a Sunday School class of the church. It is designed, he explains, to accommodate those who might prefer the location and service of mission work, and enlist more people in church services.

The Rev. J. F. Dossett, ordained Baptist minister, member of the First Baptist Church, and a Shell Oil Co. employee, will be mission pastor and superintendent. He has served his church as minister in other places and has done a great deal of work toward establishing the mission here.

In sneaking of the Mission, he says, "I have felt for a long time the need for a work of this kind and have been given expressions from others that my conviction was well founded. I want everyone to know that this movement is not mine, but stems from my church. I am only working in a different capacity and location."

The work will be under the supervision of a Mission Committee of the First Baptist Church. This committee is composed of Rev. Hancock, the pastor, Jack Halbert Sr., Archie Mittel, and Henry Moore. This committee will set policy and give direction to this work under the supervision of the church.

"It is hoped that this action will be a credit to our community and a help to many people," state the officers and organizers.

Eagles Lose 62-0 to Sonora; Final Game Here Tomorrow

Schleicher County Oil News

The Atlantic Refining Company No. 1 Roberts, wildcat 10 miles southwest of Eldorado has indicated as a gas discovery from the Cambrian sand.

Operator perforated casing from 7150 to 7254 feet and the well kicked off and flowed dry gas through a ¼ inch choke at the rate of 2½ million cubic feet per day. Tubing pressure was 1,750 pounds. The project then flowed at the rate of 1,970,000 cubic feet of gas per day plus 23.7 barrels of distillate and 71 barrels of water per day.

Operator has killed well, preparing to set bridging plug and perforate opposite Ellenburger.

L. E. Scherck has spotted his No. 2A D. C. O. Wilson as a 1600-foot cable tool wildcat in southeast Schleicher, 20 miles southeast of Eldorado. It is 660 feet from south and 710 feet from east lines of the SW¼ of section 10, block V-14. It is 50 feet west of Scherck's No. 1A Wilson, dry hole at 5410 feet. Hugh Hess of Christoval has the drilling contract.

The Huldale (Pennsylvanian) field of north central Schleicher gained a new oiler with the completion of No. 6 Annie May Brooks for a daily flow of 255.07 barrels of 39.8-gravity oil through a 16/64 inch choke and perforations at 5700-735 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 587-1. The new well is in section 83, block LL.

One and one-half miles south of production in the North Branch (Strawn) gas field of northeast Sutton County, Humble spotted location for a 5500-foot wildcat. It will be drilled as No. 2-1 North Branch Gas Unit, 660 feet from north and west lines of section 34, Williamson County school land survey and 16 miles northeast of Sonora. The project is 1¼ miles south and slightly west of Humble No. 1 North Branch Gas Unit, active project.

At last report, No. 1 North Branch was drillstem tested in the Ellenburger from 6270 to 6430 ft. Tool was open 45 minutes. Recovery was 120 feet of drilling mud with no shows. More hole was being made below 6571 feet.

The Superior Oil Company has abandoned No. 1-64B Thomerson in the Toenail (Strawn) area. It was drilled to 5322 feet. Location was 669 feet from north and west lines of section 64, block H, GH&SA survey and 13 miles northeast of Huldale.

Honolulu Oil Corporation No. 1 Milligan, project in the south Huldale field was quit on total depth of 5,800 feet in lime. It was in section 85, block LL, GC&SF survey and four miles south of Huldale, and one location east of an active producer.

Carter & Carter of San Antonio have filed application to drill a 6,000 foot rotary wildcat in this county, 27 miles east of Eldorado. It will be named No. 2 John D. Sheen. Drilling is scheduled to begin this week on this 80-acre tract. Location is 682.6 feet from north and 681.3 feet from west lines of 6—BS&F.

It is two miles NE of Carter & Carter No. 2 J. F. Webster, a shut-in Ellenburger gas-distillate discovery, completed for potential of 9½ million cubic feet of gas a day, with estimated distillate of 76 barrels per day. It is 2 miles north of Carter & Carter No. 1 Sheen wildcat failure abandoned July 1, 1953 at 6400 feet.

North Schleicher's Cox-Brown field has a 4th producer and a one-location west extension with completion of American Republics

Starting out strong, the Eagles stopped the first offensive thrust by Sonora in their game there last Friday night.

It even looked for a few minutes as though the Eagles were really going to make a game of it, until Sonora started on their rampage. George Wright, big Sonora tailback, was practically the whole show as he ran for five touchdowns, passed for one, and kicked three extra points. Shannon Ratliff made two TD's on passes while the other scores were made by Cries and Minnie. Although losing by a very lop-sided score, the Eagles looked much better than they did the week before when they lost to the Kittens.

Looking good at times on the offense were Billy Jack Etheredge and Romero Minor.

The Eagles play their final game of the season here tomorrow night when they meet the Eden eleven. The game will be called at 7:30.

Tomorrow night will be dad's night at the football game. As special guests of the team and the school, all dads will sit on the benches, wearing the numbers of their sons.

Supt. Holcomb and other school officials express the appreciation of the school for the loyalty of football fans who have stayed with the team throughout the season.

Another game for tomorrow night will be that of Sonora playing against Ozona at Ozona, when Sonora will defend its position as top team in the district up to this time.

Visiting S. A. Officer Talks On Delinquency Of Juveniles In Area

Bob McHugh and Jerry Starkey of San Angelo were guests at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday noon. Maynard Welch, Trigg salesman, was enrolled as a new member.

Ray Boyer was in charge of the program. Jerry Starkey introduced Captain Breedlove of San Angelo Police Department, who presented facts on juvenile delinquency. In his talk he told of a number of instances of delinquency among teen agers and children as young as six years old. He reminded Eldoradoans that they were in the midst of it, and warned against the "it couldn't happen here" philosophy.

The definite figures for arrests of delinquents under his jurisdiction were surprising to his listeners, some of whom had thought that lawbreaking was confined to the youth of large cities.

Lions were reminded by club officials to patronize the Cub Harvest Festival tonight, as the entire Scout program is under sponsorship of the club.

At a directors meeting preceding the regular meeting it was decided to cooperate with the Junior Woman's Club in offering prizes for Christmas decorations.

No. 1 F. M. Thomson. Daily flowing potential 285.52 barrels of 43.6 gravity oil and eight tenths of a percent water.

Perforations were between 5492-5502 feet in 5¼ inch casing, cemented at 5565 feet. Top of pay was nicked up at 5450 feet. Location is in 80-M-GH&SH survey (13 miles NE of Eldorado).

American Republics filed application to change location of 2 F. M. Thomson, unit 1, a location west and 3/8 mile south step-out to production in Cox-Brown field. Rotary will drill to 6,000. Location is 1986 feet from north and 330 feet from east line of 80-M-GH&SA survey.

Fruit of Good Will

JOHNNY APPLESEED made the apple the universal American fruit when, around 1800, he wandered throughout the midwest, sowing the seeds that became great apple orchards. All Americans, including this pretty young miss picking apples at Wenatchee, Wash., share the heritage.

APPLE BUTTER spread on bread, and sometimes the face, left, is a popular treat. It's part of Johnny Applesseed's legacy of good will.

BIG BUSINESS now, apple products are eaten in all 48 states. U.S. inspector, right, checks sample at J. M. Smucker Co., in Ohio.

CARGO OF APPLE butter and other fruit products rolls along Ohio road past blossoming apple tree, en route to Southwest. International truck is pulling enough fruit products to spread 750,000 slices of bread. Johnny Applesseed's dream came true!

The Echo was informed Monday that the people of the area had made up enough money to hire another school teacher to assist in the first four grades. Miss Amelia Pedroza was selected for the position. The increased enrollment there was said due mainly to the many people coming to the area to help harvest the cotton crop. — Eden Echo.

Cemetery Ass'n Formed

A long-felt need was realized Thursday night of last week when The Big Lake Cemetery Association was formed. The purpose of such an organization is to provide means by which title to lots in the Glenrest Cemetery may be procured, permanent record of interments kept, and to assist in the beautification of the grounds. Inasmuch as the cemetery is located on county-owned land, it was a recognized fact that it would be necessary for the county commissioners court to work in conjunction with the association in issuing deeds to the lots. — Big Lake Wildcat.

However, showing increases during the first nine months of 1953 were oats, up 47 per cent (from $6,357,000 to $9,343,000); and rice, up 44 per cent (from $31,072,000 to $44,803,000.) Flaxseed rose 24 per cent, an increase of $756,000.

Only Ford in the low-price field offers you a V-8. Or, choose Ford's Six, America's most modern economical six.* Ford offers power steering, too. Makes all parking and handling easier... safer.

Grass Losses During Drought
Have you looked your range over recently? Do you see as many good grasses now as five years ago, or ten or fifteen years ago? How about the flats that are devoid of grass? What did these areas look like years ago? Just driving through a pasture or along the road is very deceiving. Except in area completely lacking grasses and weeds, the countryside is looking nice and green following our rains.

Don't let the color deceive you. The grasses that were there years ago are not there now. Most of the green appearance is caused by weeds; nearly all of which are useless and some of which are downright harmful and poisonous. A large percentage of the grasses now growing on the rangeland are the least palatable and productive of our native grasses. Nature constantly is trying to keep her soil covered. The fact that much of the better grasses are gone cannot be blamed upon the lack of rainfall alone. Recent checks on the death loss of different grasses during the drought show that the better grasses, though in minority, had a much higher survival rate than the poorer ones. This would indicate that they are much better adapted to withstand our droughts than the poorer but more numerous species. Grasses such as green sprangletop, sidecoats grama, vine mesquite, and the bluestems all showed remarkable survival and recovery. These are the real producers of forage. The grasses and weeds growing on the range today are there simply because the cattle chose to eat the better ones. Nature tries to keep her soil covered. If she can't keep good grass on the land because of overgrazing, she'll replace it with weeds and inferior grasses that the cattle don't eat.

You hear statements to the effect that droughts hurt more now than they used to or it is felt that they are more prolonged. Certainly they hurt a great deal more and also appear to last longer. Land that has lost its cover can no longer retain what little moisture it does receive. Many of the rains during periods of droughts do more harm than good by loss of soil to runoff. The fair and poor species of grass remaining have high death losses. The remaining Honorable Eldon Calk, mayor of the City of Eldorado, missed a chance to see real royalty Wednesday when the King and Queen of Greece were making their only stop in Texas at Houston, where a rodeo, public parade, reception and other events, were held in their honor. Mayor Calk has a telegram to show that he had been duly invited (along with others who would like to go) but he was too busy to attend!

An employee change in the business district: Maynard Welch, former local manager of Reed Oil Company, is now employed as salesman for Charlie Trigg Motors. His place has been taken at Reed's by Virgil Chadwick, formerly employed on C. C. McBurnett's ranch about three years. He and his family have moved to the small rent house at the rear of the Eaton apartments.

Practically all of Eldorado's business houses will close for Thanksgiving Day as usual as nearly as we can learn today. School will be out and quite a lot of visiting and entertaining of company in the traditional Thanksgiving manner is expected.

The Eldorado Success crew will do their best to get next week's issue out a little early. Phone in your holiday news, of course.

Alvah Pearl, who was employed by the Commissioners' Court last August to fill the newly created position of county road supervisor, has resigned from his position, and has moved back to his old home at London. He submitted his resignation at a call meeting of the Court last week and the resignation was accepted.

On Saturday morning the household goods of the Pearls was being moved from the McGill house here to London, when a mattress was lost from the truck somewhere between Eldorado and Menard. He is advertising in this issue of the Success, hoping to find the man who picked it up. He says that it was made by Mr. Clark, and that it has his name on it.

"Can I Touch It Now?" While engaged in a job of running concrete for a small sidewalk and porch steps the other day in the east part of town, Pete Bryant reported dryly that he had the "help" of six small children and four dogs!

The Utilities Company has been going around turning off the air conditioners in the business district—always a sign of a changing season.

Roy Phelps of the Western Auto Associate Store, reports that folks are still coming in on their special Santa Claus letter deal—pick out a letter in the store and mail it in their special box, and the store will see that the letter goes to the Santa Claus post office at Santa Claus, Indiana—and the child will receive the letter later with the Santa Claus post mark. Not too much time remains, he says to get in on this nice deal.

The fall frosts have nipped the weeds and grass along the roads and the city maintainer is now able to get around and do a good job of leveling off the shoulders of the city's streets. Weather is good for that type of work, and the city is already looking neater.

Ray Drilling Co., and others have been moving families to Eldorado. Among newcomers are: J. M. Winston, Riley rent house; E. D. Adkins, Marvin McDonald rent house; A. G. Lackey, McGinnes duplex; Roy Adams, Love's Holland rent house; LeRoy Hanusch, to their own new residence; Earl Hicks to their new house in the west part of town; Bud Davidson to L. L. Harris house; Howard Varnadore, Calvin Henderson house; Forest Pounds, Eaton apt. Emmitt Mikeska, Graves house; D. J. Walker Jr., Earl Parker house; Paul Burns, Rodgers house; Vernon Buchanan, Humphrey apartment; Curtis Blair, Galbraith house. Most of those moving here with drilling crews are asking for furnished apartments and houses which are scarce.

Among the new families arriving here recently are the W. D. Peppers, who are occupying the new McGinnes rent house. Mr. Pepper is engaged in oil field painting, according to his ad in this issue of the Success. He has a wife and five children, two of whom have been enrolled in the school system. The family comes here from Odessa.

In case anyone feels bad about being beaten by Sonora 62 to 0 last Friday night, it may provide a little solace for our ego to remember a few games of other years. In 1944 Eldorado beat Sonora 63 to 0, in 1943, 70 to 6, in 1938, 66 to 0, and 1934, 40 to 0. Of course, there were other years—

Two Organizations Urge That Refrigerators Be Safe For Children

Two influential organizations of Eldorado, the Volunteer Fire Department and the Lions Club, have brought up the question of old refrigerators and ice boxes which could be death traps to children.

Meeting in regular sessions this week, the two groups brought to the attention of their listeners the fact that 28 youngsters in United States have suffocated in abandoned or unused refrigerators this year. As suggested by the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies, Eldoradoans are urged to check their premises in regard to this matter. Owners of such boxes are asked to remove door hinges or render locks unworkable.

It is announced that members of these organizations will make a check in Eldorado to see if there are any such hazards to life in the city. They hope to find the town 100 percent safe when they make their rounds—and suggest that it should be kept that way.

The fire boys discussed the matter at fire drill Tuesday night and it was brought before the Lions Club at their regular meeting yesterday.

Rev. J. C. Hancock closed a successful ten-day revival at the new Lindell Avenue Baptist Church in San Angelo Wednesday night.

Attending an Eastern Star initiatory meeting at Sonora were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ashmore, Mrs. Rex McCormick, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. W. G. Godwin, and Mrs. Edgar Spencer.

W. E. Anderson

W. E. Anderson of Grandfalls, Texas, died Thursday, Nov. 12 at Fabens, Texas. He suffered a heart attack while returning home from the funeral of a friend in El Paso and was hospitalized at Fabens, where he died.

He was buried at Eola Sunday at 3:00 p. m.

Mr. Anderson was a brother-in-law of Mrs. A. R. Parker, and was well known to a number of people in Eldorado. Attending the funeral from this place were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Parker, Billy and Frances, Cramer Sofge, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Peel, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Johnson, Mrs. E. W. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McAlpine, B. A. Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. Muncie Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Davis Murr. The Peels and Murrs sang as a quartet at the funeral.

Mrs. Lum Davis and Rance McDonald were called to LaFeria Monday, because of the critical illness of their mother who had had a stroke. The Davises' daughter Jan is staying with her aunt and uncle.

Wallis Cozzens, who is logging a well in Crockett County, was an overnight visitor in the home of his mother Mrs. Mattie Cozzens.

Vacancies Filled At PTA Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association, in session Tuesday night, elected Mrs. Jess Walston as secretary, to succeed Mrs. Ethel Etheredge, who resigned, and Mrs. Walston's place as parliamentarian will be filled by appointment of Mrs. Edwin Jackson.

Mrs. Horace Lithicum, finance chairman, reported that $490 had been cleared at the Halloween carnival. Room count was won by Mrs. Jordan's eighth grade, Mr. Woollard's 9th, Mrs. Holcomb's 3rd and Mrs. Love's 5th.

Mrs. Joe Muller Christian was program chairman. Rev. Charles Bruce led the devotionals, and Mrs. T. E. Holcomb's third grade presented a Thanksgiving program.

The principal speaker was Truett McClung of San Angelo, who illustrated his talk with tricks of magic.

The Christmas program will be in charge of Mrs. Lewis Jordan, beginning at 7:30 on the night of December 15.

Howard Faulk had surgery recently in the Eldorado Clinic hospital.

H. W. Hunt is improving after several days' hospitalization in the Eldorado Clinic Hospital.

Molasses Recommended For Cheap Drouth Feed

Molasses and cotton burs are recommended to stockmen in the article "Cheap Winter Range Feed" in the December issue of the Progressive Farmer magazine. Several ranchers fed the mixture with success last year when the drouth forced them to hunt for cheap, adequate feeds for their stock.

Bill and John Fields, Sonora, found a mixture of 60 per cent burs, 40 per cent molasses and concentrates to be a useful range feed. Last winter they put about 12,000 breedings ewes through a dry season on short or bare range with cotton burs. They used about 900 tons of the burs.

They found feed value of cotton burs similar to that of good Johnson grass hay. The commercial formula added to the ration was figured for the brothers by a Fort Worth feed company. It contained cottonseed meal, alfalfa meal, meat scraps, cane molasses, Urea, vitamin fortifier, calcium carbonate, salt, and dry Vitamin A.

Del Rio stockmen fed blackstrap molasses in liquid form last year. It was put in watertight troughs. Some felt it trimmed feed bills 50 per cent or more. The sheep stayed in good flesh and death loss was extremely light.

Although the molasses was found to be a good conditioner, it was not a complete feed. It has almost no protein. Therefore, ranchmen had to feed ewes protein before lambing time. Too, the sheep had to have roughage to go along with the molasses if brush and old grass were not available.

As long as prices favor them, burs and molasses will be used. However, stockmen are advised to talk to livestock nutritionists or agricultural workers around them if planning to feed either burs or molasses extensively.

HE'S AVERAGE AND HE'S FREE

The U. S. Census Bureau, after studying the statistics on all 160,000,000 of us, comes up with a composite of the "average American." He is a semi-skilled worker, married, two children. He has a home on which he is making regular payments; an electric refrigerator, radio, and telephone, among lots of other modern conveniences — and the privilege of living as a free man in a free country.

"SHARE THE WEALTH" PLAN IS ALREADY HERE

In addition to being the most richly productive, America's economic system does a better job of "sharing the wealth" produced than any other system the world has ever tried.

Where else do so many people own homes and automobiles, have bank accounts and insurance policies, enjoy television sets, automatic washers, refrigerators, home freezers?

What's more, our system is getting better all the time in distributing the good things produced, to those who produce them, through higher wages.

The Holiday Turkey

College Station. — There will be plenty of turkey for holiday dinners this year. According to F. Z. Beanblossom, poultry marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the supply is adequate to furnish turkey on every table at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Although not as many as last year, the number of turkeys on the market will be sufficient to meet the needs of Texas families.

The specialist says with the plentiful supply, families can afford to be selective when shopping for the turkey of their choice. He suggests the shopper look for quality birds, well fleshed and finished, and processed to provide meat of good flavor. "Don't waste your money buying a bird with too much fat," he advises. "Get a large bird with enough fat to insure good flavor."

If the turkey has been killed, bled and dressed right, the meat will look white instead of reddish in color, and there will not be pin feathers and bruised marks on the flesh. "Ask to see the dressed turkey to check for these signs," Beanblossom says. "Notice if the lungs, kidneys and oil sack have been removed from the body cavity. These only add weight and are not desirable for eating."

"The larger bird you buy the less cost per pound," the specialist comments. "It is wiser to buy a 15 pound tom rather than a 10 pound. If you have access to a home freezer or some other storage for the extra meat, the turkey will come in handy for later meals. If not, then buy half a turkey."

Shopping for quality in the turkey you select is not only efficient consumer buying, but helpful to the poultry market in providing the kind of turkeys most in demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Love and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jordan were among those from here attending Homecoming last week end at North Texas, Denton. The Loves visited a sick relative.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Moore this week are Mr. and Mrs. John Michalski and baby Michael of San Antonio.

Recipe of the Week

ROAST WHOLE TURKEY

Start with a ready-to-cook turkey. Salt inside of turkey. Fill body and neck cavities loosely with stuffing. Stuffing swells as it cooks, thus needs room to expand. Fold neck skin toward back and fasten with skewer or a few stitches. For stitching use clean white wrapping cord and large needle. Tuck legs under band of skin at tail or tie down. To do this wrap cord around legs and under tail. This will hold legs close to the body. Fold the wing tips back on the wings. This will help to hold the neck skin in place. Grease skin of turkey with melted or softened fat. Place breast down on rack in shallow pan. Do not add water, and do not cover. Place preheated oven set at proper temperature indicated on time table. Baste with fat from bottom of pan during baking, and turn from one side of the breast to the other, then breast up. Or cover the top and side of the bird with a loosely woven cloth which has been moistened in fat. Moisten cloth with fat from bottom of pan if cloth dries during cooking.

Time table for roasting whole birds:

Pounds	Temp.	Hours
5-7	325	2 1/2-3
8-11	300	3 1/2-4 1/2
12-15	275	5-6
16-20	250	6 1/2-7 1/2
21-25	250	8-9

BREAD STUFFING

1 cup fat
1 cup chopped onion
4 cups chopped celery
9 cups cornbread crumbs
7 cups bread cubes
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tsp poultry seasoning
1 1/2 to 2 cups broth, milk or water.
4 eggs, raw or hard cooked

Use two to four day-old light bread cubes, or dry out bread in the oven. Cut into cubes. Cook onion and celery in fat over low heat until onion is soft but not browned, stirring occasionally. Meanwhile, blend seasonings with bread cubes. Add the onion, celery and fat. Pour liquid and beaten egg (if used raw) gradually over the surface, stirring lightly. Add more seasonings as desired. Stuffing for a 14-18 pound turkey.

Variations:

1. The proportion of cornbread and light bread may be varied to suit taste. Light bread and biscuit or cornbread and biscuit may be combined.
2. Giblet stuffing: Simmer giblets until tender. Chop and brown in the fat before adding onion and celery.
3. Parsley stuffing: Add 1/2 cup finely chopped parsley to bread with seasonings.
4. Oyster stuffing: Cook 1 to 2 pints of oysters in the oyster liquid until edges curl. Add to bread with seasonings. Include oyster liquid as part of liquid in stuffing. Chop oysters if they are large.
5. Pecan stuffing: Add 2 cups pecans to bread and seasoning.

GIBLET GRAVY

3 tbs pan drippings.
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups water, broth or milk
Salt and pepper
Chopped giblets
Sliced hard cooked eggs, if desired.

Cover giblets with water and simmer in a covered caucepan until tender. Drain the giblets and chop. Pour the pan drippings into a bowl leaving the brown residue in the roasting pan. Let the fat rise to the top and skim off. The meat juice under the fat should be used as part of the liquid. Place 3 tablespoons of the fat back in the roasting pan. Add flour and blend well. If desired, brown the fat and flour slightly to give additional color and flavor. Add liquid all at once. Cook stirring constantly until uniformly thickened. Season to taste. Add chopped giblets and sliced hard cooked eggs.
