Eagles Take Homecoming Game From Ozona 20-13

(By C. W. Biggs)

The Eldorado Eagles won their second district game of four last Friday night on the local gridiron, from the Ozona Lions, 20-13, in a well played fracas, regardless of the cool weather, to an estimated attendance of 2,000 spectators. This means we now have a win-loss percentage of fifty percent in district games to date, with one more game to play, and that the big one of the season with Sonora, which comes up on our own field on November 12.

In District 6-A, other games Friday night showed that Junction defeated Eden 32-18; Menard against Schreiner 40-6 (non-conf.); Sonora versus Rankin 52-6 in favor of the Sonora aggregation.

When game time rolled around the Eldorado Band rendered The Star Spangled Banner, which was followed by the invocation by Rev. J. C. Hancock of the Eldorado First Baptist church, and afterwards the school songs by each of the bands, and the game is underway.

"BEEF WEEK" SPEAKER

John Ben Shepperd

Atty. General Speaks At Cattlemen's Meet

John Ben Shepperd, Texas' aggressive young Attorney General, today will address the Texas Beef Council's giant barbecue in Fort Worth, kicking off Beef Week in Texas.

Plans have been made to serve up to 1,000 Texas cattlemen and their guests, converging on "Cowtown" from all parts of the state.

Roy Parks, Midland rancher and Texas Beef Council president, will preside as host for the occasion, with Billy Bob Watts, general manager of the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show serving as chairman for the event.

Jay Taylor of Amarillo, president of the American National Cattlemen's Association, will introduce Mr. Shepperd.

According to an aide, Mr. Shepperd plans to trace the history of the cattle industry in Texas, and pay tribute to cattlemen's independence and refusal of Federal price supports of beef. A beef-eater himself, the Attorney General said he agrees with Governor Shivers that Texans should eat beef at least once every day.

"London Crusade," an hour-long documentary of the three-month campaign held by Evangelist Billy Graham, will be shown here November 9 in the First Baptist Church at 7:00 p.m.

Filmed entirely in England, "London Crusade" is Britain's own story of the three-month Billy Graham campaign. Narrated by the Bishop of Barking, one of the most respected leaders of the Anglican Church, the saga is a complete, gripping portrayal of the events as they transpired.

Beginning with scenes of the Grahams' arrival at Waterloo Station, the film moves on to the opening night at Harrington Arena. It covers the entire series of history-making services, concluding with the great White City and Wembley Stadium meetings, where a total of 200,000 gathered for the closing rallies of the Crusade.

The doors to First Baptist Church will be opened at 6:30 p.m. with the service beginning at 7:00 p.m. All seats are on a "first-come basis," with no admission charge.

Post Script

With Halloween carnival, Stigler's opening and Cameron's Open House all occupying the Spotlight Saturday and Sunday, Schleicherites feel that they have had a busy weekend.

The Halloween crowd put on a good parade, crowned their queen, provided an afternoon and evening of fun for all, and in addition took in a nice amount for the PTA treasury.

Stiglers registered over 400 at their Opening, and John and his family seem to be more than gratified at the interest people showed in the event. Callers started to come in at opening time Saturday morning, and kept it up all day long. Mrs. D. E. DeLong was presented with the watch for which people registered.

Cameron's had over 100 interested callers in their parade of new homes Sunday afternoon, and members of the office crew and their assistants spent a busy afternoon showing people through the five houses. Becoming "new home minded," some cars of visitors kept right on visiting, and went through some of the partially completed residences in the city!

With the autumn season advancing into the first week of November, we find quite a few merchants and quite a few shoppers talking about Christmas. The lay-away plan is already being used by many and some folks report that they have a good part of their Christmas shopping done.

In case anyone wants to know—there are 41 shopping days till Christmas.

The firemen's turkey shoot received some nice publicity in the Big Spring Daily Herald's issue of October 26, in which Franklin Reynolds' column Riding the Grub Line carried a first hand account of the event.

The story commended the fire boys for their initiative, had a good word for the high quality of the marksmanship, cited various good contestants, and mentioned fact that both Sonora and Eldorado were well known for their fine barbecues. Reynolds concluded the story with a bit of history.

The Lone Star Theater has started the policy of running their show program each week in the Success. This program appears on page four of this week's issue and will be found there regularly.

The city has been at work on the nightwatchman problem, and has been signing up business houses for donations toward a proposed total of $250 to employ a new man for the job. One new applicant tried out the job last month but did not keep it, and the city is now working on the problem of raising funds in some way, and finding a man for the place.

The City of Eldorado is extending the city sewer system an additional 400 feet, starting at Shorty Henderson's business and continuing on through Block F to Mrs. Spencer's residence. The six potential users in this block have all agreed to start paying the sewer charge, when the city has completed its work.

Since Mrs. Arthur Mund moved with her husband to San Angelo last week, the job as society news reporter, mainly on the phone, is now open. It is for three days a week—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Ability to spell, report names correctly and write reasonably presentable sentences are requirements of the job.

Something new may be seen at H. W. Scott's! A family of kittens developed the habit of crawling under the Scott's aged cocker for warmth—now they're regularly nursing the dog, which hasn't had pups for years!

A nice arrangement—it works like a pacifier for the kittens, and the dog can feel that she's needed in her old age!

GIN REPORT

A total of 1799 bales of cotton had been ginned in Eldorado up to 3:00 p.m. yesterday. This was an increase of 146 over the week before.

Although the total number of votes polled in the general election here Tuesday was less than half the number chalked up in the primary, the voters pulled a number of surprises, and one Democratic nominee was defeated by the write-in method.

Exactly 500 votes were polled in the county Tuesday as compared with over 1100 in the Democratic primary.

Robert Martin, Democratic nominee for commissioner of Precinct No. 3, received 21 votes in Tuesday's election, and was defeated by Incumbent Carrol White who received 24 write-in votes. In the first primary Martin defeated White 23 to 21.

In Precinct No. 2 Hal Whitten received 20 write-in votes for commissioner, but it was not enough to upset Walter Pope, the Democratic nominee who again polled his loyal 31.

In the first primary the figures in the commissioners race were: Pope 31, Edmiston 20, and Childers 11. In the second primary it was: Pope 33 and Edmiston 29.

In the county-wide balloting a write-in campaign also developed in the Sheriff's race where Orval Edmiston received 98 votes. Incumbent and Democratic nominee E. H. Sweatt was not in trouble however, polling 362 votes.

Except for the above extra-activities the voting in Schleicher was in the traditional straight Democratic manner.

There were 11 state constitutional amendments, and the votes for and against in this county were as follows:-

Highway Dept. Plans New Highway Signs

A new "sign of life" will appear on many of the highways of Texas this month. It's a new highway traffic sign and, like most of the others which are familiar roadside markers to motorists, it is designed to prevent costly motor vehicle accidents and save human lives.

These new signs will read "Speed Limits Radar Enforced" and the Texas Highway Department has slated their early construction in order that they will be in place by mid-November when the Texas Department of Public Safety is expected to begin the operation of Radar equipped patrol cars on the principal traffic arteries throughout the State.

Texas will thus join 31 other states and 50 cities which are currently employing Radar as a device for lowering the traffic accident rate due to excessive speed.

During the past several months the Texas Department of Public Safety has conducted an educational demonstration program of the Radar units in each of the 16 Texas Highway Patrol Districts within the State. Colonel Homer T. Garrison, Jr., Director of the DPS, says that these demonstrations have been staged for the benefit of members of the press, radio and TV as well as for public officials, including judges and prosecutors, in order to acquaint them with the operation and the accuracy of the devices.

"We know of no instance," said Garrison, "in which those who have witnessed these demonstrations have failed to acknowledge the accuracy and the fairness of this method of coping with fast drivers."

The Public Safety Director also pointed out that speed continues to be the principal contributing factor in the State's fatal traffic accident picture. He emphasized that Radar is no "cure-all" for the traffic problem, and in no way, replaces manpower in the enforcement of the speed laws.

"Rather," Garrison added, "we consider it only as another tool to be utilized in protecting the public against the consequences of the acts of the thoughtless, the careless and the indifferent drivers who constitute a menace to the public safety by driving too fast for conditions."

According to Garrison the "Speed Limits Radar Enforced" signs will be erected immediately outside the city limits of towns on the approach to stretches of highway where the mobile Radar units will be employed and just inside the state lines on those roadways where they will be in use. Additional signs will be placed, also, between the cities where it is deemed necessary to inform the public of the enforcement procedure being employed.

Farmers Asked To Fill Out Census Form

Progress of the 1954 Census of Agriculture is being delayed because farmers have not completed the forms which were sent to them by mail. This word comes from the director of the census to Ralph Fowler.

Failure to complete the census questionnaire slows down the enumerators and greatly reduces the number of farms which can be visited each day, explained Fowler. This makes the work of the enumerators more difficult and materially increases the cost of the undertaking.

The information which farmers are being asked to supply is not only valuable to them in planning future operations but to business men who supply the farm market's needs; agricultural leaders to whom farmers look for guidance and the agencies and organizations which service agriculture. Too, says Fowler, the census information on the nation's agricultural resources is of vital importance to the 163 million citizens of the country.

The nation's taxpayers are footing the bill for the census taking job and Fowler points out that anything which a farmer can do to speed up the work will reduce the cost. All farmers who have not completed the census questionnaire should give it immediate attention so it will be ready for the census taker when he visits the farm.

Control Of Flies In Laying Cage Houses

College Station — Sprays, poison baits and management holds the key to successful control of flies in laying cage houses of poultry.

Flies are a definite problem in cage houses and contribute to dirty eggs, says a new bulletin by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The publication says control of flies begins with the elimination of moisture needed for their development. Watering devices should be constructed so as not to leak.

Let the droppings underneath the cages build up into cones. The circulation of air will dry the droppings, eliminating moisture.

Clean the house and remove droppings only once or twice a year the publication suggests. Winter is the most ideal time.

Sprays of DDT and malathion and poison baits of malathion, sugar and dried whey are recommended for use in the houses.

Copies of the bulletin, L-207, Fly Control in Laying Cage Houses, are available from county agent's offices or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

SCHLEICHER COUNTY ONE OF FIVE SAMPLE COUNTIES IN SCHOOL SURVEY; PUBLICATION BEING DISTRIBUTED NOW

The results of a five-county study of rural education, with Schleicher as one of the participating counties, have been assembled into a printed report which is now being distributed throughout the state.

The other counties included in the survey, which was taken a few years ago, are Castro, Lynn, Burleson and Tyler.

Data for the report was at first assembled into two parts, a four-year period ending in 1949, preceding Gilmer Aiken, and a second four-year period ending in 1953.

The Eldorado Success has been informed that any Texan interested in the results of the study may obtain free copies in the amount needed by addressing a letter or post card to this address: Texas Ag. Experiment Sta. Editor College Station, Texas.

Ask for Bulletin No. 783, entitled "Rural Education in Transition."

Part of the study made in this county was based on records in the office of the county judge.

Here is a digest of the report as it appears inside the cover page of the bulletin:

"Progressively more attention is being given to public school education in Texas. Particularly since the Gilmer-Aikin Act was passed in the summer of 1949, far-reaching changes have resulted in considerable improvement in the rural educational system. With 43.4 percent of all Texas youth in the compulsory school ages residing in rural areas, these changes will play an important part in the future progress of the State.

"Through consolidation the number of rural schools declined by 66 percent since 1949. Some open-country residents, however, do not approve of school consolidations. Since one of the most common arguments against school consolidations is that some children spend too much time riding a bus to and from school and are unable to take the fullest advantage of existing educational facilities, the validity of this assumption was tested. Although nontransported students had better attendance records and made slightly higher grades than transported students, no relationship was found between distance students were transported and their performances.

"Since the adoption of the Gilmer-Aikin Act, school administrators have increased their efforts to enroll more students and to improve attendance records. Partly as a result of these efforts, enrollments in rural areas have remained relatively stationary despite population losses. The percentage attendance record of 92.2 achieved in 1952-53 will be difficult to improve in the future.

"Curricula have been broadened and 'special service' personnel such as school nurses, librarians and counselors, are now employed in schools serving rural areas.

"Improvements in the quality of rural education are being obtained through several other media. Since the Gilmer-Aikin Act was passed, the average length of school term has increased, no rural school being operated less than 175 days in 1952-53. Pupil-teacher ratios have been reduced in rural areas to less than 25 students per teacher. Classroom teachers are better qualified, having more teaching experience and academic preparation. The average rural classroom teacher has 12 years of teaching experience. More than 20 percent have master degrees and an additional 72 percent have bachelor degrees. The Texas Legislature in 1954 raised average salaries of rural classroom teachers to well above $3,000, based on a 9-month period.

"The cost of rural education has increased in recent years. The State furnishes 61 percent of the total funds needed for rural education while the local school districts furnish 36 percent. The proportionate shares of the cost borne by the federal and county governments have remained relatively unchanged since the Gilmer-Aikin Act was passed. The State's proportionate share of the cost has become slightly less, while the school districts have assumed an increasingly greater share. Average expenditures per pupil in 1952-53 were slightly higher in rural areas than in the State as a whole, being $242 and $217, respectively."

Thought For The Week Ministerial Alliance

"ITS IN THE BOOK"
J. Clifton Hancock, Pastor
First Baptist Church

Someone in recent times has given out the philosophy that we should "Do just what comes natural". Many Young People accepted the idea without question. The result has been seen and felt by everyone. The latest reports given show that crime is on the increase, and that Young People are turning to crime in ever increasing numbers.

What must we do about the situation? The answer is found in the Book. Matt. 5:6 "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled." Blessed carries with it the same meaning as Happy. We might well say "Happy are" To hunger and thirst is to have a desire for something that will bring satisfaction. The key to happiness then is to seek the righteousness of God. People engaged in wrong doing soon find that happiness is only a dream not to be realized.

What is the philosophy of your life? Is it guided by The Book? Make a statement of your philosophy and then test it by laying it side by side with the principles of God's Word. You'll find it in The Book.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Our Town Makes Good in New York City

Couldn't place a new subscriber named Clark, but I found out who they were last week when they dropped in The Clarion's office.

"We're native New Yorkers," Mrs. Clark said, "and all our friends there are originally from other places. We always felt left out when they talked about things 'back home.'"

"That's why we 'adopted' your town and to get all the news we subscribed to The Clarion. Now we have a 'back home' to talk about—and we think it's the most wonderful town there is!"

From where I sit, just about everyone thinks his own home town is best. Picking your town comes natural. The right to do this "picking," though, is what really counts. Whether it's a favorite town, a favorite cut of meat, or even a choice of a beverage — say between beer and buttermilk, it's respecting the right to this freedom of choice that makes a good neighbor. I hope you subscribe to that!

FOOTBALL

out-of-bounds on 27. Kerr pass incomplete, Kerr pass intercepted by Hale, intended for Pennington.

First and 10 Ozona on 37. Martinez hand-off to McMullan to 13 where he was down by Sofge and Kerr. . . and the halftime.

Halftime Activities
The Ozona Band, 75-pieces, under the direction of Byron Gray, came on the field playing Oh, Oh, Oh, and in perfect formation after the school alma mater, and routine drills, they played Good night Ladies. The drum major: Ann Ratliff with majorettes Carolyn Stewart, Jan Jones, Sandra Brewer and Elizabeth Pearson were full of pep and put on a very nice demonstration for the entire attendance.

And then for the feature attraction of the Eldorado Homecoming, the crowing of the football sweetheart, Miss Jana Walker, was begun. The band came on the field with drum major Charles McLoughlin really doing his leading in style, followed by Coleen Hicks, Donna McCormick and Bessie Thigpen as flagbearers; Ann Ballew, Monetta Bradshaw, Mary Tisdale, Yvonne Logan and Jimmie Dell Williams as twirlers; Dale West, Gainell Belk, Burnell Doyle and Jerry Caldwell as cheerleaders. Flag twirlers were Becky Mund, D'Aun Hallmark, Barbara Faught, Joy Dodd and Pat Perry.

On forming a large heart in the center of the field an arch was made and the sweetheart entered with Domingo Pina and Dick Runge, they were met in the center of the heart by Curtis Stockton, who crowned Jana, and Cecil Watson. Much ado was shown by the elation of the entire Eldorado aggregation in this colorful coronation, as the band left the field, to resume their places in the stands, to cheer the team on in their best manner for victory in this district classic.

Third Quarter

Eldorado will receive, defending west goal.

Jones kick to Pennington on 10 and was returned to 42. Kerr to Harris to 47 (Longoria was injured on tackle and was taken out of the game), Kerr to Pennington on 50, 4th and 2 needed. Hale in Safety slot, Stockton kick dead on 36. Martinez to McMullan 2, Martinez to Martinez no gain, Martinez pass intercepted by Robledo and returned to Ozona 44.

Ozona was penalized 5 for delay of game, first down and 5 to go. Kerr to Harris on 30. Pennington 4, Stockton 3, Harris 1, and Kerr on a quarterback sneak made first down on 17, Pennington 8, Harris (measure), Pennington over for TD. Stockton kick no good, 13-7.

After several exchanges, with both teams playing hard this period was ended with no further scoring.

Fourth Quarter

At this point, it was 4d with 5 needed by the Lions and they failed, thus the ball went over to the Eagles. Kerr to Pennington to 22, Kerr to Harris 2, Kerr to Pennington to Ozona 45, down by Martinez after 20-yds. Kerr to Stockton no gain, Kerr to Harris 1, on a hand-off to Pennington, no gain, 4th and 8. (McMullan was injured on this play but remained in the game). Pennington kick to 1-yd line to Hale who returned to the 18. Hale to 23, Hale to 30 to 35, down by Sofge and Kerr. 1 and 10 on 35. McMullan to 38 (McMullan off the field from injury), Martinez attempted pass, was tackled for 2-yd loss, another incomplete pass - - flag - - 4th and 14 to go, slow kick, Pennington recovers on Ozona 33. Stockton 8, Stockton to first down, Kerr to Stockton 5. Kerr to Stockton down on 5. And Stockton over for TD. Kick was good, 20-7.

Stockton kicked to Martinez on 30 to 40, 5-yd penalty, delay of game. Fumble - - recovered by Ozona. 1 and 10 on 40. Martinez down, on attempted pass for 12-yd loss. 2d, 22 needed.

Martinez to McMullan, down by Phillips on 20, Martinez pass incomplete, 4th, 20 to go. Hale kick to Sofge on 37, dead, and here come the Eagles.

Ronnie Kerr, 2 on quarterback sneak - - fumble - - Ozona recovers, and the regulars return. McMullan to Martinez to 30 - - 20 - - out-of-bounds on 15 by Hill. Martinez to 9 and Martinez over for TD. 20-13. Kick was no good.

Jones kick to 48 only. Harris to 46, and thus ended the tilt.

Soil Conservation District News

Ranchers attending the Range Field Tour Wednesday, October 27, saw grass aplenty on the Martin Brothers Ranch, thirty miles Northeast of Eldorado.

Attendance was cut down by the cold, rainy weather, but those attending found it well worth their time.

The tour was sponsored by Robert and James Martin in cooperation with the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District.

Those attending observed pastures which have improved each year right through the drought. They heard Robert Martin tell why he had started on his range improvement program in 1949. He stated that in 1948 their grass was grazed right to the ground and that it was much easier to treat grass properly than to pay huge feed bills each year.

Although each year since 1949 has shown a decline in rainfall, their feeding program has declined with it. The past five years they have averaged just 12 inches of rainfall each year and were running 20 animal units to the section. Last year his feed bill was $6.00 per animal unit and expects it to be the same this year; even though he plans to run 30 animal units through the fall and winter.

Bob and Jim have followed a policy of range deferments and proper stocking. They have left enough each year to insure a good future crop of grass. The cover and quality of their grasses is such that there is very little runoff. They are going into the winter with plenty of feed on the ground for their 30 animal units per section of stock. To them—this grass on the ground is like money in the bank. They'll have enough reserve left next spring to hold their spring rains and get them off to a good quick start.

Bill Rountree and Max Schrader, SCS technicians, discussed the values of proper stocking and deferments, and demonstrated the values received from leaving a little grass each year for soil cover. It is planned to have another Field Tour next spring.

First Baptist News

The Sunday School attendance was down from previous Sunday's attendance. There is some speculation that the spooks must have been more active than usual. The average attendance for the five Sundays in October for the main school was 245. We will try to do better than that during November.

Monday night was deacons meeting and Wednesday was monthly business meeting. Reports were read and approved and other business transacted.

The film "London Crusade" will be shown in our church Tuesday night November 9, at 7:00 p.m. This film is a record of the three-month campaign of Billy Graham in England. See the news release and ad in this week's Success.

The Quartet representing Hardin-Simmons University, with our own Associate Pastor as baritone, presented a program for us last Wednesday evening. All reports that have been received have given high praise for the performance.

The Training Union attendance was down this past Sunday. If you are not attending the General Assembly each Sunday evening you are missing a good program. Come and see what our own people can do in planning and presenting a program.

Go to church somewhere next Sunday, it makes a big difference.
