Cold Weather Brings Cotton Crop To Head

Eldorado motorists had to scrape ice from the windshields of their cars Wednesday morning, where the vehicles had remained out in the open during the night.

The day dawned bright and clear yesterday, thus ending several days of wet, cold weather in this area. There were reports of snow up on the plains and snow in the El Paso area, but this county had been treated to a long week end of cold, drizzling north winds.

The moisture as usual was welcomed by the ranchers, but a setback for cotton farmers who are in the midst of their harvest.

The Mikeska Gin Monday turned out about 62 bales, most of which had been gathered the week before. The establishment was closed Tuesday and Wednesday, but operations will probably be under way again today if favorable weather continues.

The gin total Monday night was 3045 bales. At this period last year the total was 3735.

It seems that most of the farmers have been wanting a good frost so that late cotton will open up and they can go to work with stripper machines.

Funeral Saturday For Mrs. Frank Webb, 82

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in the First Baptist church here in Eldorado for Mrs. Frank Webb, 82. Mrs. Webb died Thursday in the Crockett County Memorial Hospital in Ozona.

The pastor, D. C. DuBose, officiated at the service and interment was made in the Eldorado cemetery under direction of Ratliff-Kerbow Funeral Home.

Bro. Trulove of Ozona gave the scripture and prayer. Pall bearers requested were the deacons of the Baptist church and the six selected were Carroll Ratliff, Arch Mittel, T. P. Robinson Jr., Perry Mittel, Henry Moore and Buster Gunn.

Mrs. Webb was a resident of Eldorado since 1924. She was born Jan. 25, 1879, near Menard and was married in Kerrville to the late Mr. Webb on Nov. 13, 1898. He died about 20 years ago.

Survivors include a son, Oran C. Webb of Ozona; two sisters, Mrs. E. F. Gibson of San Marcos and Mrs. H. L. McDonald of Menard; and three brothers, R. G. Bierschwale of Harper, Garrett Bierschwale of Center Point, and Mose Bierschwale of Mountain Home.

Mrs. Webb is well remembered by local people for the well-preserved antique Chevrolet automobile she drove.

PEACE CORPS EXAMS SET

The Peace Corps examinations will be held in San Angelo at 8:30 A. M. promptly, November 28-29, for those in this area who wish to apply. Postmaster Carr was informed recently.

Peace Corps posters, giving this information, will be displayed in the local post office on the bulletin boards.

CUBS MEETING TONIGHT

Cubmaster Dan Sebasta reminds all Cub Scouts and their parents that tonight, Thursday, is meeting night for the Cub Scout Pack.

Meeting time is 7:30 in the Memorial Building and all Cubs and their parents are urged to attend.

Oil News

A work-over rig has been placed over the Roach well and prospects for a producer are said to be good.

The Henry Moore re-entry test 12 miles west of town was abandoned about a week ago.

The second TXL-Henderson well is said to look good, but operators are going on down to contract depth.

Delhi-Taylor Oil Corp., have made location for a wildcat test 7 miles north of Eldorado, and 2½ miles west of Huldale. It will be their No. 1 C. T. Meador, 467 ft. from north line and 2173 ft. from east line of Sec. 59-LL.

Post Script

With this coming Thursday being Thanksgiving Day, the publication day of the Success, we plan to have papers in the post office as usual that morning. We ask all contributors of columns, etc., to have copy in as early as possible. Our office will close Thursday morning after the papers have been mailed.

Most businesses in Eldorado will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, and both Thursday and Friday will be school holidays.

Jesse Ashmore closed his barber shop Saturday night and declared that "this is all she wrote." He is retiring from the barbering business and has sold his equipment to Johnny Griffith.

He said that he might help out one of the other barbers on busy days, but aside from that he just expects to "take it easy."

Jesse moved to Eldorado from Fort Worth just after the close of the war in 1945. He and his wife own a comfortable home and draw Social Security, and no doubt he has earned the right to have some leisure, while they still can enjoy it.

The Ashmores celebrated their Golden Wedding about a year ago.

Monday, Johnny Griffith was supervising the removal of the equipment from Mr. Ashmore's shop. He has announced plans to store it for the present, and to make effort to find a Latin American barber who might be interested in setting up shop in our local L. A. community.

Last week the Success dropped a zero out of a number in a real estate ad, and when the paper reached the readers it got Real Estate man James Williams in a hot spot sure enough.

The ad concerned a 320-acre farm with improvements for $100 an acre, but when it came out in the paper it read: "32-acre farm!"

It wasn't any time before Williams' phone was ringing with people wanting to know more about this small farm. It seems that it was just what a number of them really wanted. Others dropped in at his office, and several were a little bit indignant when they learned that there was no such place. "Well, you ought to get it right," one disappointed prospect retorted, and Williams again patiently explained that it wasn't his fault, but the fault of that darn printer.

So, we hereby take the blame and we're sorry we caused our neighbor businessman so much inconvenience.

But it does bring up a second thought: Evidently there is a goodly number of people here who would like to own a small place of their own. Has anybody considered sub-dividing a farm into 30- or 40-acre tracts to fill the demand?

With our subscribers: George Cales reports a change of address from Odessa, Texas, to % Shell Pipe Line Corp., Buras, Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Faulk have purchased the house where they have been living east of the Co-Op., from Calvin Bounds. Williams Real Estate handled the deal.

Major Adrian Webb, who is connected with the Air Force train parked near the depot for the simulated Strategic Air Command bombing missions, reported this week that the train and its personnel will hold an open house for the public about a week after Thanksgiving. Date will be announced later.

The train is to be in operation here in Eldorado until shortly before Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kinser have the congratulations and best wishes of all their many friends here in Schleicher county upon reaching their 60th anniversary Tuesday.

Other known couples in the county who have celebrated their 60th anniversaries in recent years, and who are still together, are Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Jones Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whiteley.

The West Texas Cafe was reopened yesterday by Mrs. Lester Henderson, who formerly operated the popular eating place. This cafe has been closed for a number of months.

The Eagle Drive-In Theatre will have a full program next week, Thanksgiving Week. Full details in their ad on page 4.

HOME TALENT PLAY DRAWS TWO LARGE CROWDS LAST WEEK

The home talent play, "You Can't Take It With You," put on as a benefit performance for the Parent-Teacher Association, showed to two large crowds at the high school auditorium last week, on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Most of the viewers were inclined to agree that Leslie Woulard "stole the show," with Hedy Bowen a close second, but all the parts were well done and greatly enjoyed by the audience.

The P-TA netted about $700 from the play, which was staged this year instead of the usual P-TA Halloween carnival.

The organization wishes to express their appreciation to the business men and all others for their support. Bill Bowen directed the 3-act comedy.

Commissioners Consider New Mail Route Road

At their regular meeting Monday, Schleicher county commissioners heard a delegation of residents of the Bailey Ranch area present a proposition for putting a paved road link from the corner of Bob Faught's place north two miles to the Big Lake highway.

The Commissioners Court put the matter on their minutes to begin negotiating for the land, which is owned by Marvin Logan of Sonora and Luke Thompson Jr. of Brady.

If the land can be purchased, the way will be cleared for eventually extending the rural mail route to include a number of people living in the Bailey Ranch area.

Several miles of road in Bailey Ranch are already paved and that road is being extended as part of a three-fold job in the county, with Ford Allen of Sonora as contractor.

Other county road news: The new road past Captain Thomson's is about all graded and caliche.

Grade and caliche rae in place on the 6-mile Reynolds road link.

Topping on these roads will not be done until Spring. A culvert is being installed near Congregational Methodist church in west Eldorado for the new roadway to be built there soon.

Mrs. Ruby Dickens and daughter, Mrs. Mignonne Meeker, of Cloverdale, Cal., visited here this week and looked after property. They also visited in Odessa, San Angelo, and San Antonio with relatives. Mrs. Dickens reports that she recently sold her house south of the new school gym to the Rileys, and the structure was being dismantled this week.

The Delbert Taylor family spent the week end at Buchanan Lake.

Eagles Roundly Defeated 28-0 By Ozona Here Last Friday Nite

The Ozona Lions trampled the Eldorado Eagles on Eagle Field last Friday night, 28-0, in the season's finale. It was a very bad night for "thrashing cats."

The Eagles dedicated the game to their Dads in what is always a beautiful and enduring ceremony. Noticeable fact was that in almost every instance the Eagles towered above their Dads, this being an illusion in some instances caused by shoulder pads and helmets which are integral parts of a football uniform.

The Eagles kicked and quickly stopped the Lions on downs. But the Eagles' early offensive efforts were shattered by a mid-field fumble which the Lions recovered.

The Lions then uncorked a series of plays which carried to the Eagle five-yard line at which point Ozona Quarterback Phillip Carnes hit his own left end, Hal Long, for the opening touchdown. Then Carl Montgomery passed to Gary Stoddard for the two points after the touchdown and the Lions were off in a relentless rush.

But the Eagles made a game of it in the second quarter and stymied the Lions strong efforts at further scoring. While the Eagles were containing the Lion offense in the second quarter, the Lions were doing a masterful job of stopping the Eagles.

The half ended with the Lions out front 8-0.

Early in the third quarter, the Eagles fumbled again and Ozona recovered and drove back down the field over somewhat weakened Eagle resistance. Then Lion Quarterback Phil Carnes flipped a 19-yard pass to Lion Fullback Brent Moore. Carnes passed again to end Hal Long for another two points and Ozona went further out front 16-0. The third quarter ended with this score on the board and it was the straw that crushed Eagle morale.

The fourth quarter saw the Eagles making desperate efforts to score and the Lions drew fresh strength from their comfortable lead and set about giving the Eagles more discomfort.

Early in the last quarter, Lion Fullback Carl Montgomery blasted up the middle from 20-yards out to score standing up. The Eagles threw up desperate resistance and stopped the conversion try but the Lions had reached out front 22-0.

And they weren't satisfied. They raked the Eagles back up field to the three-yard line from which point the Ozona line blasted a hole for 140-pound Lion Halfback Rich ard Vargas who drove over standing up for the Lions fourth touchdown. Again the Eagles resisted strenuously and stopped the try for extra points.

But the damage was done and seconds later the horn ended the contest with the Lions out front by 28-0.

Statistics

Statistics give Ozona 11 first downs to eight for Eldorado and 110 yards by land to the Eagles 86.

The Lions threw 11 passes and completed four for 41 yards and total yardage of 151. The Eagles threw 12 times and completed four for 41 yards and total yardage of 127.

The Lions intercepted three to none for the Eagles.

The Eagles fumbled four times and recovered none while the Lions didn't fumble and recovered every ball that got away from the Eagles.

The Eagles drew three penalties for 35 yards to one for five yards against the Lions.

Ozona took the honors in the kicking department with four for an average of 39 yards. Eldorado kicked twice for 34 yards.

Tie For Second

It was the end of the road for both teams and left the District scramble for second place behind the Sonora Broncos in a sad state. The Broncos defeated Big Lake and the season ended with Sonora undisputed champs while Eldorado, Ozona, and Big Lake tied for second place. Junction languished in the District cellar.

Impressive pre-game ceremonies saw Eldorado High school put its new 60-foot flagpole into fine use by raising a garrison-type United States flag.

Half-Time Events

Half-time ceremonies saw both bands staging shows with Eldorado providing musical accompaniment for honors shown Big League Bunting Champion Norman Cash and his wife, Eldorado High graduate Myrta Bob Cash.

The game ended playing careers for six Eagles. They are H. A. Belk, who overcame an early season injury to return to the Eagle line up; diminutive scabbard Denzel Fisher; Big Donnie Holden, who was among the most scouted and defended against backs in area football; Jolting Jim Cheek, the Eagles' fine quarterback, and a tower of strength on defenses all season; Pete Logan, the receiving end of the Cheek Logan Air Transportation Company; and lastly, Powerful Mikel Jurecek, target for the attentions of always two and usually three enemy blockers.

It was a fine year for the Eagles in a game where somebody loses every time. With a most respectable season record of one tie, two losses, and seven victories, the Eagles have every right for self-respect.

Their outlook on the new District 7A is good. The district is composed of the following schools: Ozona, 870 students, $31,500,000; Reagan County (Big Lake), 900 students, $27,000,000; Sheffield Independent School District (Iran), 537 students, $33,500,000; Rankin, 527 students, $29,506,000; and Sanderson, 607 students, $6,700,000.

Three-Year Pen Term Given In Forgery Case

A jury of 11 men and one woman found Carl Emory Sides of San Antonio guilty of passing a forged instrument and assessed three years in the penitentiary, in 51st District Court held here Monday.

The jury was impaneled Monday morning and the trial got under way at about 11 o'clock with Joe L. Mays presiding.

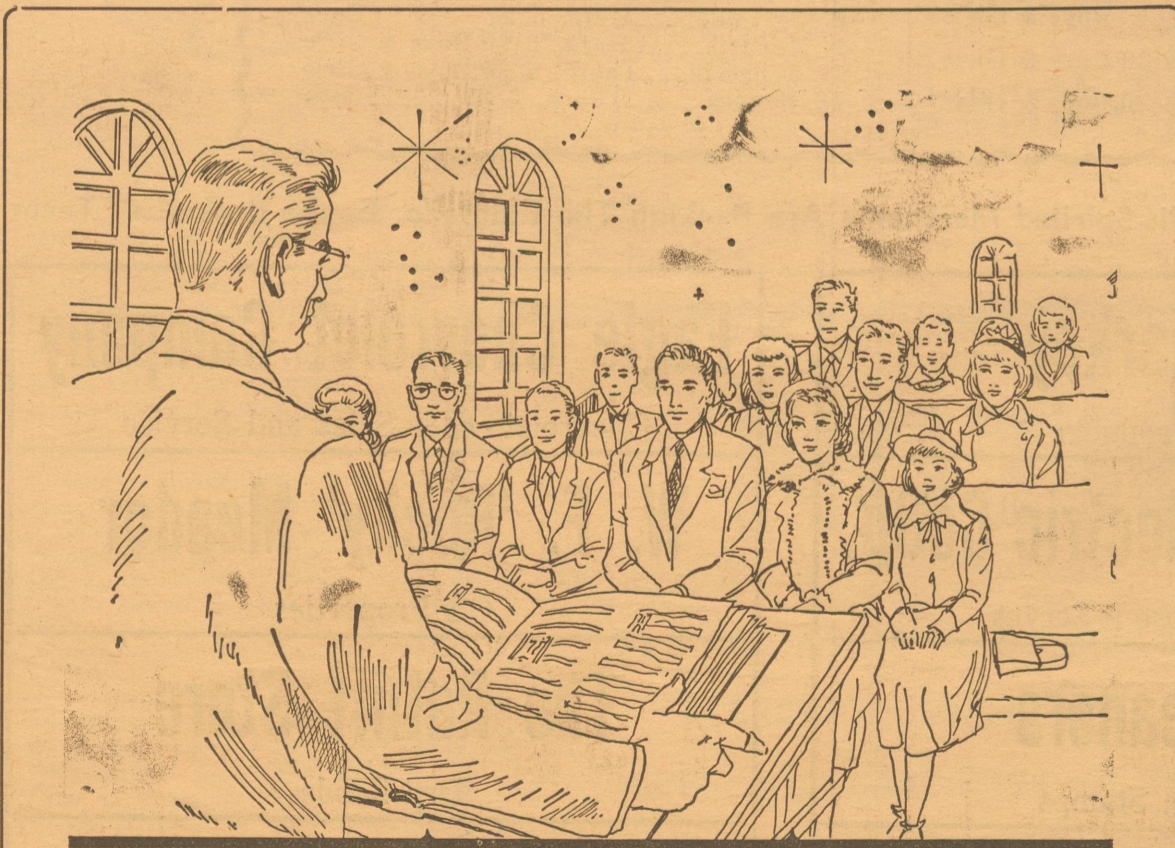

Justin A. Kever presented the state's case, and Sides was defended by James E. Barlow of San Antonio.

Sides was charged with cashing a forged check in the amount of $2690 on October 26, 1960, at the local bank.

The case went to the jury at 5:20, and less than an hour later the verdict of guilty was returned. Paul Page was foreman of the jury.

Mr. Barlow stated that he would appeal, and the defendant remains at liberty under bond.

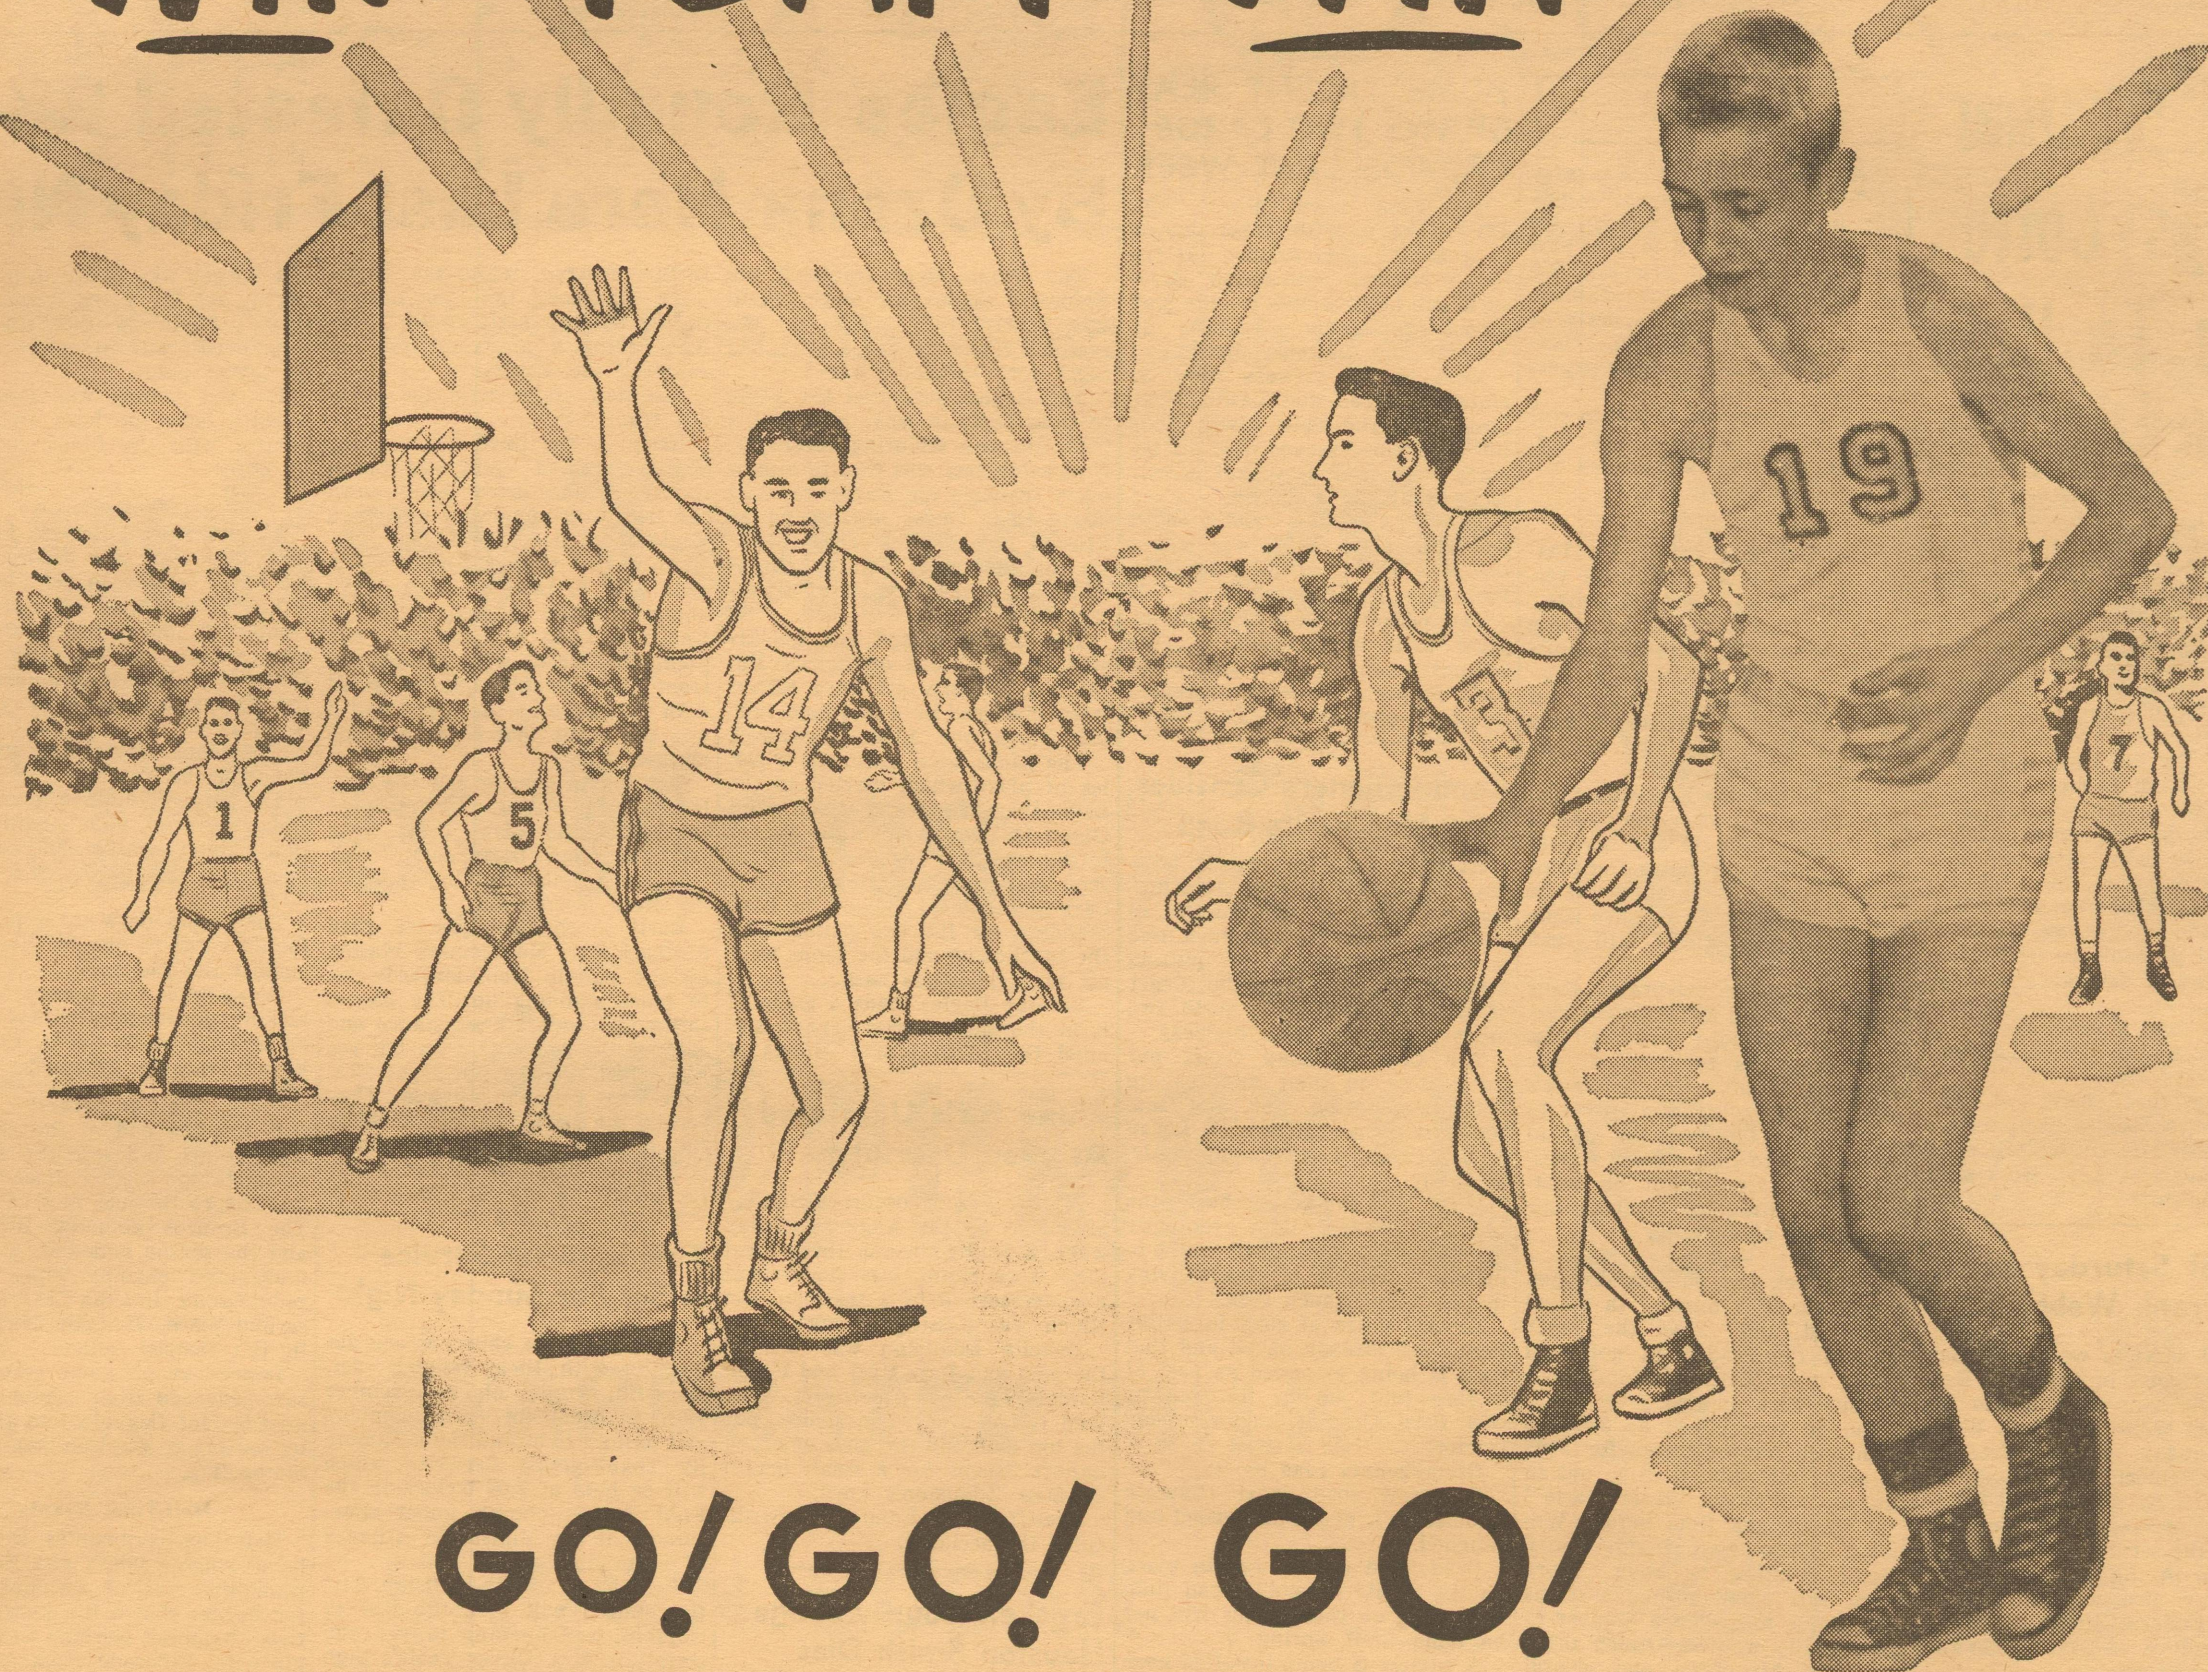

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Woodward are re-doing the exterior of their house with brick stone.

Farmers of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District will soon know what their net profit will be from this year's crops. The yield per acre from the various crops will be known when harvest is completed and each farmer can determine the profit or loss from each crop.

Even though farmers do not know what a crop will yield before it is harvested, experienced farmers know from the time the crop is up whether prospects are good for good yields. Good moisture condition from the time the crop is planted until the crop is matured is one of the essentials in good crop yields. When, and the amount of rain received can not be controlled by man. However, the amount of each rain received that is held on the land for crop use can be controlled. By constructing and maintaining the needed level closed end terraces on the land, and applying the needed agronomic practices, the maximum amount of water will be held on the land.

Following each of the good rains this year, farmers have had a good opportunity to determine if excessive water was lost from their fields. Water that was lost from fields not terraced or fields with inadequate terraces, could have helped this year's crops. Steps can be taken as soon as the present crops are harvested to hold the maximum amount of rain received. By constructing level closed end terraces and by maintaining old terraces, the chances for a good crop yield next year, as well as for years to come will be improved.

Water and soil lost from a field decreases the chances of good crop yield on the field and can damage or destroy crops in lake fields. By applying the needed agronomic practices and holding the excess water out of the lake fields, the potential crop yield on these fields is probably higher than other cropland in the area.

Crops saved on these fields by holding the water out of the lake with level closed end terraces and diversion terraces, can pay for the cost of constructing the needed terraces in a short period of time.

Several district cooperators have already made the necessary arrangements to construct terraces and diversion terraces on their land. The construction of level closed end terraces began on Peyton Cain's farmland, Tuesday of last week. A. B. Thomerson is the contractor doing the work. The terraces are being constructed with a bulldozer by moving the dirt from the down hill side of the terrace. The terrace lines were run by technicians of the Soil Conservation Service. Cost share assistance in constructing the terraces will be received through the Schleicher County A.S.C. office.

Regardless of how good crop yields are this year, most farmers will not be satisfied with them if they feel there are ways to improve them. The yield from cropland is effected by the way it is managed. The yields received is the pay-off, and the decisions made by farmers is one of the biggest factors that effect yield differences.

To attain the best yields from cropland all the needed management practices must be applied and maintained. The adapted crops planting and tillage operations, insect control, proper irrigation water use on irrigated land, maintenance of soil fertility, with all the needed soil and water conservation practices, are needed in a combination for continued good yields.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM YOUR State CAPITOL

Austin.—With filing deadline for state offices still more than two months away, the State Capital already is taking on a political campaign atmosphere.

Announcements for office, statewide speaking tours, and fund raising dinner plans are setting the stage for the upcoming campaigns.

Only announced candidate for governor, thus far, has been Jack Cox of Breckenridge. Cox will be running in the Republican primary.

As yet, no formal announcement has been made by any Democrat. But the field of probable candidates is growing daily.

Formal announcements by three senators for the lieutenant governor's race assures warm competition for the place left open when Ben Ramsey moved to the Railroad Commission.

Sen. Jarrard Secret of Temple, Sen. Bob Baker of Houston, and Sen. Preston Smith of Lubbock are the announced candidates. There is likely to be GOP opposition for this post as well as at least one other Democrat.

Only thing certain now is that there will be stiff competition for those primary votes next May 5.

Capitol Value

For years, the huge red granite State Capitol, which was paid for with 3,000,000 acres of West Texas land, has been carried on the state's books at a value of $131.50.

Board of Control has appraised the Capitol at $9,948,391. They valued the land on which it is located at $5,143,623. It's not for sale for the total of $15,092,014. But at least it's on the books right, now.

Incidentally, the old Capitol is getting a refurbishing. Workmen are replacing cracked and splintered panels in the hallways, and removing the old varnish. It will come out lighter and brighter.

New Laws

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson quickly plugged one possible loophole in the "Blue Law."

He advised Dist. Atty. Henry Wade of Dallas that a corporation owning two or more stores must close them the same day. One can't open Saturday and the other Sunday. Nor can a store accept orders by phone in advance to be delivered on Sundays.

Wilson also is busy interpreting other new laws, among them the one requiring holders of property for others, except banks, to report it to the state when the owner hasn't been around for seven years.

He advised Treasurer Jesse James that an oil company which holds royalties outside Texas on oil produced in Texas does not have to report it to the State of Texas except that amount held for persons whose last known address was in Texas.

The attorney general expects so much work out of this new law that he set up a special division to handle it.

In another opinion, Wilson held that wiretapping to record phone conversations is not illegal in Texas.

Short Snorts

Starting January 1, the State Welfare Department will begin paying medical, hospital and nursing home bills for the 225,000 needy aged who are on the old-age assistance rolls. Program will cost about $12 million in state money in the coming 20 months. Federal dollars match the state's.

Governor Daniel has reactivated the Governor's Committee for the White House Conference on the Aging, to resume its study of the problems of the aging. Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillsboro was re-named chairman.

The first month's payments under the new natural gas tax totaled $356,481, but $306,532 of it was paid under protest. Gas pipelines have brought the suit to kill the new tax.

Income from the first 90,780 reports received by Comptroller Robert S. Calvert was $7,206,727. Calvert thinks it will be February, when the first full quarter's sales tax is collected, before he can tell whether it will yield the estimated $319 million in two years.

The Kimble Menard Co. singing convention will meet Sunday, Nov. 19th, at 2:00 p.m. in the London community hall, announces Nona Montgomery, secretary.

Lions Have Program On Aircraft 'Booms'

Majors Adrian Webb and MacIeso were guests at yesterday's meeting of the Eldorado Lions club and they showed a film on the Strategic Air Command, that explained why the supersonic "booms" are necessary as simulated bombing missions are carried out over the country.

The Air Force train near the depot is presently involved in the simulated missions in this area. Plans are for an open house to be held at the train for the public about a week after Thanksgiving.

In the business session, at which Buster Hale presided, it was announced that the club will not meet next week, the day before Thanksgiving. On November 29, District Governor J. T. Jones will address the club.

Brownie Troop 7

Brownie Troop 7 met last Wednesday with 13 present. For fun we upset the fruit basket and for a project we invested new members. A song was led by Vicki and Marsha. Our Sunshine reporter for the week was Carolyn.

Kinsers Quietly Observe Their 60th Anniversary

On Tuesday of this week, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kinser quietly observed their 60th wedding anniversary at their home here. It was a much quieter event than their Golden Wedding open house 10 years ago when 85 relatives and friends called to help them celebrate.

J. F. Kinser and Kate Weatherly were married at Cleburne, Texas, on November 14, 1901, and the first years of their married life were spent in that section of the state.

They moved here in 1926 and have lived here continuously since that time. Mr. Kinser farmed and ranched until 15 years ago when he moved to Eldorado after selling his interests to his son.

Five children were born to the couple, with one son and an only daughter deceased. Three sons, all living here, are L. Kinser, L. L. Kinser, and W. L. Kinser.

Their Diamond Anniversary found the Kinsers both active and well able to be about for people of their age.

BASKETBALL SEASON IS ON FOR LOCAL GIRLS' TEAM

The Eldorado girls defending District 8-A champs have begun basketball workouts as of last week. The team which last year beat Sanderson in Bi-District and then advanced to Regional lost three starting players in Judy McGregor, Mary Ann Nixon, and Gayle Woodward. Returning lettermen include Jan Davis, the team's top scorer last year; Verna Lux, Kathy Sauer, and Susie Scott at forward. At guard the returnees include Linda Nixon, an all-district guard; Tissie Enochs, and Joan Griffin. Also rounding out the team will be Christy Moore, Frankie Blaylock, Barbara Johnson, Phyllis Parker, Enedina Garza, Carolyn Calcote and Paula Mace. The first game is scheduled for November 21 with Mertzon, there.

Tax Change Looms

Texans seem to be heading for a change in the sales tax law. The present hodge-podge two per cent sales tax—as was predicted by many—has caused more headaches than a sailor on his first leave ashore in six months.

The state comptroller has issued ruling upon ruling as to what is taxable and what isn't. Small merchants throughout the state have been plagued with paper work and the need, in some cases, to hire additional personnel to take care of collecting taxes for the state. As long as the present tax law stands, there will be need for additional rulings by the comptroller. California, which passed a somewhat similar sales tax more than 20 years ago, still is busy issuing official rulings.

But the latest bugaboo to arise from the smoke and fire is a statement from James McGrew, research director of the Texas Research League.

McGrew declared that there seems to be some doubt whether the new sales tax will produce enough revenue to keep the state's ledger balanced. He cited the reason as the heavy growth of public schools and colleges.

More and more, businessmen and everyday citizens who pay the sales tax, are reaching the conclusion that a one per cent sales tax across the board—exempting only such items as food, medicines and a few professional services—would be the best solution to an unhappy situation.

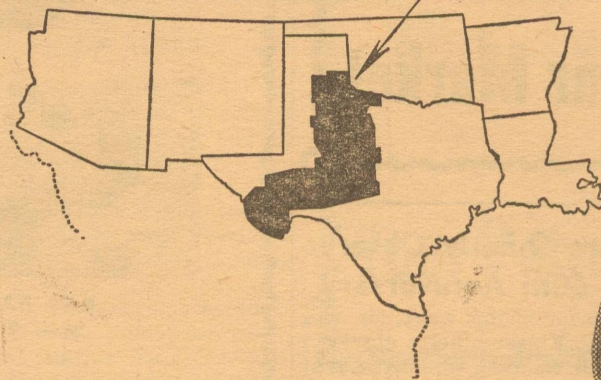

There is no doubt that many legislators in the state are quaking in their boots when they consider facing the electorate during the next campaign. Most of the conservative solons voted for the sales tax in its present form. These conservative legislators have good reason to fear attacks from the more liberal law makers because of the widespread dissatisfaction with the present tax.

So, all in all, Texans appear likely to have a change in the sales tax—for better or worse.—Fort Stockton Pioneer.

Sonora-Eldorado-Ozona Junction and San Angelo United States Army Reservists met Sunday, 12 November, in all-day drill at Sonora Armory, 1st Lt. Arlan K. Fenner, San Angelo, and his Executive Officer, 2nd Lt. James G. Kimrey, devoted the day's training to qualifying members of the unit with the M-1 rifle and Caliber .45 pistol.

Lt. Kimrey, who conducted the range firing, said that the Reservists left Sonora for Mayfield Range about 15 miles southwest of Sonora where they utilized range facilities for the firing. He continued that the reservists fired from 10:00 o'clock in the morning until 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon and that the results were very gratifying.

Lt. Kimrey said that of 10 men who fired the M-1 rifle, nine scored as expert riflemen, and one as a sharpshooter. The sharpshooter was Sp 4 James Doyle, Eldorado, with a score only one point below the Expert rating.

Men qualifying as Expert Riflemen were Sp 4 Encarnen Fierro, Ozona; Sp 4 Francisco Galindo, Ozona; Sgt Jackie Heffernan, Eldorado; Sgt Huereca, Ozona; Sp 4 Rosalio Langoria, Sonora; Sp 4 Gail Mittel, Eldorado; Sp 4 Domingo Pina, Eldorado; Pvt. Ronald Sauer, Eldorado; and Sp 4 Gary McShann, San Angelo.

Lt. Kimrey concluded that 13 of 15 men qualified with the more difficult weapon, the .45 caliber pistol. These men are Pvt Jim Mackey, Eldorado; Sgt. Daniel Rios, Ozona; Pfc Curt Schwiening, Sonora; Pvt Donald G. Copeland, Iraan; Sp4 Kenneth Love, Eldorado; Sp5 Henri Berlanga, Sonora; and Sgt Jackie Heffernan, Eldorado. Lt. Fenner said that both he and Lt Kimrey also qualified with the pistol. He concluded that this was exceptionally good shooting and would save training time this coming June in Fort Hood. —Major Bedford P. Cain, Public Information Officer.

the car that's just right for just about everybody

You've never seen anything like it, because there's never been anything like it . . . until today. On the outside the new Ford Fairlane 500 measures a quick 197 inches from stem to stern. A good foot shorter than the cars from which it borrowed its name, it calls the snuggest parking places home. At the same time, on the inside the new Fairlane 500 is every inch as big as some of the biggest Fords ever built.

The new Fairlane 500 is priced way under previous Fairlanes, well under many compacts. But Fairlane economy doesn't stop with a pretty price tag. It runs to amazing gas savings—with the world's first economy V-8 or the nickel-nursing Fairlane Six. Routine service is reduced to a minimum—30,000 miles on many items, only twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest. And it adjusts its own brakes.

East Side Baptist

In the business meeting at East-side Baptist church Wednesday night the church body voted to change the time of the Sunday Evening worship service. Beginning this Sunday, November 19, the evening worship service will begin at 5 o'clock with Training Union following at 6 o'clock. We have made this change to see if we can improve our evening worship attendance. We feel that more of our elderly people will be able to attend our night service since some of them can't drive at night. People who have small children will feel free to come since they will be able to get their children home early. We feel this is a step forward for our church and if we will each one co-operate and advertise this change, I am sure we will see our attendance climb up in our church. May God bless each of you as we work together to honor Christ in our Church. We would like to extend a cordial invitation to anyone who would visit our church. You are always welcome. Bro. Joe K. Bissett is our pastor and is a wonderful pastor and leader. I am sure you will enjoy the messages he brings from the word of God.

The very first Thanksgiving Day was celebrated in Plymouth Colony for quite a simple reason. Colonists and friendly Indians shared that first feast in gratitude for a bountiful harvest after a winter of great hardship.

Now, three centuries and forty years later, we are thankful for the growth of our Nation. We are thankful for its great strength which stands as a fortress of protection for free people in a world filled with tyranny and oppression.

Let us, as good Americans, express these thanks and rededicate ourselves to preserve and maintain this spirit of freedom.

The CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL

By Dayton Kelley
Mary Hardin-Baylor College
Belton, Texas

Texas paid a debt of long standing Saturday, November 4, when the cornerstone for a $100,000 monument was laid in the Vicksburg National Military Park at Vicksburg, Mississippi.

The monument, constructed of Texas pink granite, is to be dedicated to Texans who participated in the 1863 siege of Vicksburg and will fulfill plans that were first talked about in the early 1900's. Many of the other states, both Union and Confederate, have already erected monuments to troops from their locality who participated in the siege.

The dedication program was sponsored by the Texas Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the State Building Commission, and the Texas State Historical Survey Committee. In addition to representatives from these groups there were also representatives on hand from the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Children of the Confederacy, and even descendants to Texans who participated in the siege.

The dedicatory address was given by Governor Price Daniel and the monument was accepted by Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of the Interior. The Department of Interior has charge of all National Military Parks and Battlefields, including the one at Vicksburg.

Readers write occasionally to ask how we keep up with the many Civil War events being commemorated in the various states and also inquire as to how we keep up with the dates that events and battles occurred.

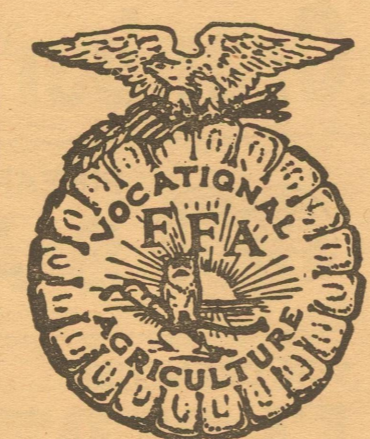

Most of the state Civil War Centennial Commissions have placed the name of this department on their mailing list and we receive their newsletters and other material that proves quite useful in preparing these articles.

We have also found the Civil War Calendars published by the MuNi Corporation of St. Louis and the Civil War Calendar Company of Sherman Oaks, California, to be almost invaluable. The Centennial Calendar published by the former is quite detailed and has add bits of information about the War that is not readily found in references of other types.

The calendar published by the Sherman Oaks firm is in color and is illustrated with impressive drawings of some of the more famous battles and skirmishes.

Both of these are kept handy for reference when planning articles for this space.

Other readers have written to ask if we plan to put these articles together in booklet form sometime soon. No plans have been made as yet, but we'd like to hear from our readers who are interested in such a prospect. The number of letters might determine if a collection of the articles in printed form would be worthwhile.
