A successful candidate in the same race in 1946, Mr. Joiner discharged the duties of Sheriff here for one term—the year of 1947-48.

In making his announcement Mr. Joiner has the following to say: "Having been urged by a large number of my friends to make the race, I hereby announce that I will be a candidate for Sheriff of Schleicher County.

"I have been practically a life-long resident of this county and I feel that everyone knows my history without publishing it here.

"I intend to make an aggressive campaign, calling on every voter in the county, and if elected I pledge to give my full time to the duties of the office.

"Your vote and influence are hereby solicited."

Irrigation Of Crops and Pastures Continues To Expand In Texas

College Station.—An estimated 6,200,000 acres of Texas crop and pasture lands were under irrigation last year. The figures were obtained by R. V. Thurmond, irrigation specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, from the county agents of the state and was completed in September 1955. Thurmond received reports from 238 counties which showed that 5,867,000 acres were irrigated by gravity and just over 350,000 acres by sprinkler systems. Total farms using supplemental irrigation numbered 39,213. Wells, 42,674 of them—supplied the water for 4,940,000 acres.

As to crops and pastures receiving the water, Thurmond said almost two million acres of grain sorghums and only a slightly less acreage of cotton were irrigated to lead all other crops by a wide margin. More than half a million acres of vegetables and just under a half million acres of rice were also irrigated. Pastures, temporary and perennial, totaling more than 250,000 acres were followed by alfalfa, orchards, mostly citrus and a long listing of other crops.

The total estimated cropland harvested in Texas was 24.9 million acres. A comparison of the total harvested acreage and that receiving supplemental irrigation brings into sharp focus the importance that water is playing in the agricultural production of the state, said Thurmond. The continuing widespread drought over the state has played a major role in expanding irrigation along with the efforts of producers to boost yields to beat the squeeze of the cost-price situation.

EASTSIDE BAPTIST CHURCH ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR REVIVAL

On page 5 of this paper, the Eastside Baptists announce plans for their coming revival which will start with the 11:00 a.m. services Sunday, March 18, and continue through Sunday, March 25th.

The preaching will be by members of the Howard Payne College athletes, known as "Jackets for Jesus." The singing will be led by the same group of young men.

Unless there is a definite demand there will be no week-day morning services. Services will start daily at 7:30, with a 30-minute prayer period preceding.

Pastor J. F. Dossett announces that the nursery will be open each night. Also a new transportation service is to be provided—phone 23711—early—if you need someone to come after you.

There will be an old time Schleicher County "dinner on the ground" Sunday, March 18, only it will not be on the ground but in the Memorial Building. All are invited to come and join with this church in its revival effort.

The Eastside Baptist congregation moved into its new building on Easter Sunday last year. Formerly it was a mission of the First Baptist church. The growth of the new church has been remarkable for so short a time.

School News

The administration and faculty are grateful for the number of parents and friends who visited school during Public School week. The number of visitors in the elementary school was 230 while high school had 97 visitors. Although the turnout was not as good as we had hoped for, it was gratifying to see the citizens visiting their schools and getting first hand information on the job being done.

The school is molding the character and future of our child. Educating today's youth for tomorrow's job is a big challenge for our schools, but with your interest, confidence, co-operation and understanding, we accept the challenge.

Mrs. Evelyn Pennington has been employed as school secretary during the illness of Mrs. Frances Peters.

The teachers will attend the district meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association in San Angelo, Friday, March 16. School will be closed on Friday.

Easter holidays will begin Friday, March 30, and continue through April 2. Classes will resume April 3.

Mrs. Emma Bradshaw won the prize given by the Industrial Arts class. Visitors registered for the prize and Mrs. Bradshaw's name was drawn to receive the fruit bowl.

Anglo-American first grade visitation will be on April 16. Please bring all children who will begin school next year to the school at 11:00 and leave them with the first grade. The children will visit the rooms and eat lunch in the lunch room. The home making girls will take the children out to play at 2:00 while all the parents are having their meeting. We would like to have as many parents as possible present for this meeting. Medical record forms, for the pre-school clinic, will be given out at that time. Also, during this meeting the children will draw for sections of the first grade.

Latin-American first grade visitation will be held on April 17. The same procedure will be conducted as on April 16.

The pre-school clinic will be held on April 19 in the high school homemaking rooms.

Class picnics, for the Elementary school, will be held during the week of April 30 to May 4. The children may leave the school at 11:30 and must return by 3:55. The picnics must be held inside the Schleicher county line.

In anticipation of rapid growth in this new area, Shugart has already laid the foundation for another large residence in the Benton tract.

Farmers and ranchers of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation district are continuing to prepare their land for the coming planting season. Most realize that having their land prepared to hold what moisture they may receive will provide them with a better underground supply.

W. O. "Whip" Faulk has completed terracing the Pat Enoch-Tiny Godwin farm. A. P. Thigpen and C. O. Bruton are building their own terraces on their farms.

Terraces provide a farmer with one of the best means of controlling erosion and conserving moisture. They provide a way of holding that rainfall on the land where it can be used to grow crops. It has been very apparent during the past few years that land which has been terraced and farmed on the contour produced the best crops.

Contour lines have been run for Grate Edmiston and also on the fields belonging to G. C. Crosby. Grate plans on farming these fields on the contour from now on.

Victor Sauer has purchased a disc terracing attachment for his tractor and is now building terraces on his farm. He plans on trying to complete all of his terraces this year.

Bob and Jim Martin are now pitting an old field of theirs. This field has been lying out for years and has produced nothing but a few weeds. This field has little or no grass on it and the soil is very low in organic matter. As a result what rainfall it has received in the past has been largely lost from a soil that seals over when the first moisture hits it. Pitting this field will mean breaking up the sealing action of the soil and holding the moisture until it can soak into the ground. Bob and Jimmy plan to follow this pitting with a reseeded of grass. One of the difficulties of getting grass seedlings established in the past has been the lack of timely rains. The seed would germinate then die back from the lack of sufficient moisture. Pitting this land will provide any grass seedlings a better supply of moisture to become established. On pitted land a two inch rain will wet the soil three and four times the depth of unpitted. This additional reservoir of moisture will provide the grass seed with a little extra insurance.

Pitting is designed to hold that runoff moisture and get that additional water into the soil. What a rancher loses to runoff can be the difference between getting a stand of grass established or losing it. Any rancher with sizable bare areas on his place would do well to check the possibilities of pitting and reseeded. This is just an effort to help speed nature up. If left alone it takes many years for nature to get a good stand of grass back on the land.

CUB SCOUTS MEET TONIGHT

The pack meeting of the Cub Scouts for this month will be held tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 in the Memorial Building, a n ounces Cubmaster Dick Preston.

A guest in the home of her daughter Mrs. Bobby Jenkins and her sister Mrs. L. W. Chrestman is Mrs. Frances Wooster of Holiday.

Post Script

Again W. P. McConnell is holding down Humble McKavett Station alone. The station was shut down on the third of the month, for an indefinite time, and men on the job on a temporary basis have gone to their regular jobs. The station had been in operation a month since its previous shut down.

Barring a write-in campaign, the two new aldermen in April will be Buster Hale and Paris Burnham, since these two will be opposed on the city election ballot for Tuesday, April 3.

Three have filed for the two vacancies which develop on the school board, the terms of Gene Edmiston and W. V. Lux having expired. Edmiston filed yesterday for re-election, and two new candidates are Joe Muller Christian and Bill Lester.

"A check on the 1955 Texas Tourist Industry" was released today in Austin by the Texas Highway Department. The survey shows that 9.9 million out-of-state tourists visited Texas last year, an increase of 1.2 million persons over 1954.

In cash value the tourist industry ranks next to the state's annual cotton crop, with cotton listed at $700 million and tourists at $412 million for the year just past.

Ed DeLong has contracted with Foxworth Galbraith Lumber Company for a three-bedroom house on his section ranch, adjoining the Dick Bearce ranch on the west. Ed is also toying with the idea of putting down an irrigation well on the place, but there is nothing definite on that this week.

Phillips Pipe Line Co. is about to put in a booster pump at their Eldorado station and Wm. Cameron & Co., of Eldorado, has received a contract for building a small building to house the pumps. The building will be of concrete blocks and will be located near the site of the old Shell station. The size of the building will be 13½ by 15½ with 10-foot walls. J. P. Boyd of Austin represented Phillips in making the contract with Cameron.

We want to remind you that only a few weeks remain in which to get the inspection stickers for your vehicles. State headquarters report that inspections are falling seriously behind schedule.

As local garages make the checks, and there is no record in the courthouse here, we have no way of checking how Schleicher compares with the average over the state in this matter. Anyway it is safe to assume that quite a few have not attended to this important matter.

At council meeting this week Dr. Jack I. Mowrey was appointed city health officer for another two years. Other business included discussion of several matters that have not passed the talking stage as yet. More on the city news when it is available.

Work is now in the second week on construction of St. Mary's Episcopal church in west Eldorado. Foundations have been laid and materials for the new tile structure are on the site. Contractor Napier of Menard is in charge.

POST OFFICE CUTS ITS WINDOW HOURS: NOW CLOSES 5 P. M.

Due to an economy move by the Post Office department to cut operational expenses, Postmaster Waller states that effective March 19, 1956, window service will be cut by one hour. The present hours are from 8:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Effective on the above date service will be cut from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. It is not believed that this change will present any hardship as all out-going and incoming mail has been processed by 4:30 p.m. each day.

FIRST POLO GAME ENDS IN VICTORY FOR ELDORADO

The Eldorado Polo boys made the usual good showing when they defeated the Tom Green County Sheriff's Posse 10 to 5 during the Stock Show in San Angelo last week.

Players were James Alexander, Horace Linticum, Sam Henderson, Tucker Clark, Bob Skurlock, Hal Whitten and Ollie Phillips.

The Eldorado Riding Club started up its regular spring practice as weather has permitted several weeks ago and hope to be in tip-top shape for the first district game early in April.

Because of their fine showing last year, rooters are watching the team with interest from over a wide area.

Trophies the team won recently are on display in the window of Shaw's Drug.

Senior Class Play Set For Thursday

This week is the last full week of rehearsals for the 1956 Senior play, "Rest Assured," which will be presented next Thursday night, March 22nd, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The seniors have been working very hard to make this play one of the best senior plays to be seen anywhere. Briefly, the plot of the play deals with the efforts of Mr. Phillip Morlock, a rich, selfish man, to prevent his daughter from marrying the son of an Italian meat cutter. His selfish and self-centered attitude almost causes him to lose his wife and two daughters, and the respect of his associates. Then, when matters are at their worst, he falls asleep and dreams that he has died, and in his ghostly state, he sees what he has done to his family and longs desperately to be alive again so that he might make up for his past mistakes. Of course, when he awakens, he amazes his family with his renewed love and understanding for them.

Playing the part of Mr. Morelock is Charles McLaughlin, with Burnell Doyle as his wife and Gaimell Belk and Carolyn Hall as his daughters. Monty Hill and Herman Early are the Italian father and son. Bob Ratliff and Willa Higgins act as Mr. Morlock's lawyer and secretary, and H. L. Turnbow and Kathy Hemphill are the representatives from the lower regions who harass him in his dream. Others in the cast are Barbara Spencer, Bill Gaynor, Ralph Taylor, Frances Parker, Helen Kaye Taylor, and Ila Jean Boyer. Mrs. Dick Wynne is directing the play.

LIONS CLUB MEETS

The Eldorado Lions club held a business session at their meeting yesterday noon in the Memorial Building, with Vice President W. G. Godwin in charge. Guests were Ford Boulware of Christoval and Jack Shugart.

The club voted to sponsor the Red Cross fund drive in Eldorado and Schleicher county, and Lions members will assist Chairman Edwin Jackson in setting up a campaign to be carried out this month.

Ed Meador will be chairman of arrangements for a ladies' night which was re-designated for April 17.

It was announced that the annual broom sale would be held March 30.

Gus Love and E. W. Brooks reported on the executive board meeting of the Boy Scout council that they attended Tuesday night in Sonora. It was pointed out that the Council fund drive is still going on and that the budget is about $14,000 short. The drive was kicked off last fall.

WARNING, AGAIN

The Highway Safety Council of Texas today warned Texas motorists that they face the "longest waiting lines in four years" if they postpone inspection of their automobiles nearer the April 15 dead line.

State law requires every motor vehicle in Texas—passenger car, truck, and bus—to pass an annual check-up on mechanical safety. It is unlawful to operate a vehicle which has not been inspected after the deadline.

Systemic Insecticide Controls Insects

College Station.—Texas entomologists report that cotton grown from seed treated with new systemic insecticide has been protected against thrips, aphids, spider mites and leaf miners for four to six weeks from date of planting.

F. M. Fuller, Jr., and C. E. Garner, entomologists, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, say that the insecticide is compound 3911. A systemic insecticide is one that can be taken up by plants and translocated to all its parts.

Seed treatment such as this will replace the first two early season applications of insecticides, but will not be effective against the overwintered boll weevil. Application of a recommended insecticide should be made before the squares are one-third grown to protect the young fruits from weevils or other insects.

Individuals can not purchase Compound 3911 because of the hazards involved. Severe toxicity to man calls for extreme caution, and all seed containers must be burned. There are two companies in Texas equipped for treating seeds, both are at Waco. Seeds can be treated at a cost of about three dollars an acre.

Advantages of the systemic insecticide are four to six weeks protection against certain insects, and elimination of the first two poison applications by spraying or dusting. Adverse weather conditions cannot destroy the effectiveness of the poison in the plants, report the entomologist. Loss of time for transportation of seed, and three dollars per acre as compared to two dollars when dusting or spraying is employed, offer some disadvantage.

All classes of cattle and calves found trade active and prices fully steady to strong at Fort Worth Monday. Some fed steers, yearlings and heifers were 25 cents or more higher and some stockers were strong to 50 cents higher. Despite the continued dry conditions in many sections of the Southwest, stocker trade has been showing strength right along.

Many out-of-state cattle men were on the yards, and most of them were in town to meet cattlemen attending the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers annual meetings in Fort Worth.

Some fleshy to fat two-way steers and yearlings sold into feeder channels at stronger prices. Some of these in the $15.50 to $16.50 bracket scaling as high as 900 pounds. Lighter yearlings sold upward to $18 and $19, and choice steer calves topped at $20.

Comparative prices: Good to choice fed steers and yearlings $1 to $19.25; common and medium $11 to $15. Fat cows $11.50 to $12.50; canners and cutters $7.50 to $11.50; bulls $10 to $14.75; good and choice slaughter calves $16 to $19; common and medium $13 to $15.50; culled $10 to $13; stocker steer calves $20 down; steer yearlings $19 down; feeder steers at $16.50 down; stocker cows $10 to $13.

Dangers Involved In Kite Flying

College Station.—March winds are a boon to kite flyers and kites are in the air. Now comes this word of caution from a farm safety expert, "don't fly kites near electric power lines."

The safety expert, W. L. Ulich, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and secretary of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, says reports are already coming in from over the state on accidents or near accidents involving kites.

One of the greatest dangers, says Ulich, comes from flying kites near power lines. Should a kite become tangled in a line, don't try to get it down. Leave it there and call the power company for assistance. A damp string will conduct electricity and shock could prove fatal. Above all, he warns against using metal of any kind in the construction of the kite and of using string containing metal, such as Christmas wrapping string, for flying the kite. Should such a combination come in contact with an electric power line, there'll be trouble and it could be very serious.

Ulich says it is fun to fly a properly constructed kite. He suggests taking the kite to an open field or pasture for flying. There the danger from power lines and traffic hazards are no problem and kites can be flown by even the youngest members of the family.

calves on the ground are like MONEY IN THE BANK

It costs a lot of money to keep a cow. A lot of that money is lost if she fails to settle or drops small, weak calves that die or develop into "tail-enders."

BIG CROPS of husky calves are a must, if a fellow is going to make money ranching. This is especially true when the price of cattle is off.

Your range needs help. It takes more than grass alone to give your cows what they need to grow and drop the kind of calves that will bring top prices next fall.

PURINA RANGE CHECKERS have proved their worth in research tests and on thousands of ranches. This favorite range supplement has what it takes. Cattle love Checkers, do well on them. Cows stay up in good shape at calving time, have lots of milk for the calves, too.

GMC brings you the most impressive improvements of all 1956 trucks

Now we can show you these great new GMC's that are further than ever ahead of all others. Their advances not only clinch power supremacy—but reach into fields still unexplored by other truck-makers.

For example, GMC's Road Shock Damper Suspension*—plus a unique new stabilizer—produces in half-ton models a ride comparable to the finest passenger car.

An optional new fast-ratio cruising axle in light-duty GMC's gives you an overdrive's pace and economy without its cost.

Sharply increased engine displacement in both sixes and V8's gives you a power family unsurpassed in the light-duty field. Specifically, we offer 14.4% GREATER displacement on 6-cylinder models, 16.2% on V8's than our nearest competitors. And GMC V8's, mind you, match the shortest stroke ratios in the truck industry.

Styling is well into the future—panoramic windshield to sand-tight tail gate. Tubeless tires, of course. And a 12-volt electrical system is standard. These are some of the strides presented in new 1956 Blue Chip trucks we now have on view. The values are even more notable. Come in and get the facts!

*Standard on Suburban; optional at slight extra cost on other 1/2-ton models

Merry Makers Observe Their 25th Anniversary

The twenty-fifth anniversary of their founding was observed when the Merry Makers 42 club of Eldorado met March 8 in the Memorial Building, which was decorated with Spring flowers and ivy.

Mrs. J. A. Griffin had charge of a short program which included a silent prayer for deceased members, Mrs. H. H. Hooker, Mrs. Ben L. Isaacs, and Mrs. C. L. Meador, Jr. This was followed by a prayer by Miss John Alexander.

The club was organized in 1931 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cobb. The following were charter members: Mrs. Dolly Edmiston, Mrs. A. T. Wright, Mrs. O. E. Conner, Miss Chris Enochs, Miss John Alexander, Mrs. W. B. Cobb, and Mrs. Frank Bradley. The club has met continuously since that time except for a brief period during World War II when they disbanded to do Red Cross and other worthwhile work.

Letters were read from former members now living elsewhere: Mrs. Dolly Edmiston of Imperial; Mrs. Arthur Mund and Mrs. W. B. Cobb of San Angelo; Mrs. Howard Aycock of El Paso, and Mrs. Lewis Yasseen of Florida.

Five tables of players enjoyed playing and recalling memories of other years. Present club members were hostesses, and served refreshments of angel food cake and coffee. The St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out in the refreshments and favors.

Former members from Eldorado were guests: Mrs. R. B. Anderson, Mrs. Buster Gunn, Mrs. Norman Hodges, Mrs. Bailey Montgomery, Mrs. Emma Bradshaw, Mrs. Ernest Finnigan, Mrs. Frank Van Horn, Mrs. E. H. Coulter, Mrs. Lester Henderson, Mrs. L. D. Christian, and Miss John Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Odie Harris had as weekend guests their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Brawley and son Mike of Seminole and her brother Buddy Estes, a student at the State University.

Guests in the R. R. Bounds home during the weekend were Mrs. Bounds' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fowler and sister Mrs. Bill Ramsey and daughter Marjorie, also a nephew, Dennis Fowler, all of Uvalde.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ringle have returned from a fishing trip to Rockport, where winds and cold weather prevailed during their visit there, and their catch was small.

WOMEN RETURN FROM ATTENDING SISTER'S FUNERAL

Mrs. Fourmier, whose occupation was nursing patients in late stages of cancer, sustained a heart attack while on duty in the home of an elderly patient at Houston, and she died en route to the hospital on the evening of March 6.

Florence Vista Jones was born February 22, 1895, at Rock Church, Hood County, the oldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Jones. After the death of her first husband Charles D. From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Information "On The Line"

I was reading the other day how a person can get all sorts of things just by dialing a number on his telephone.

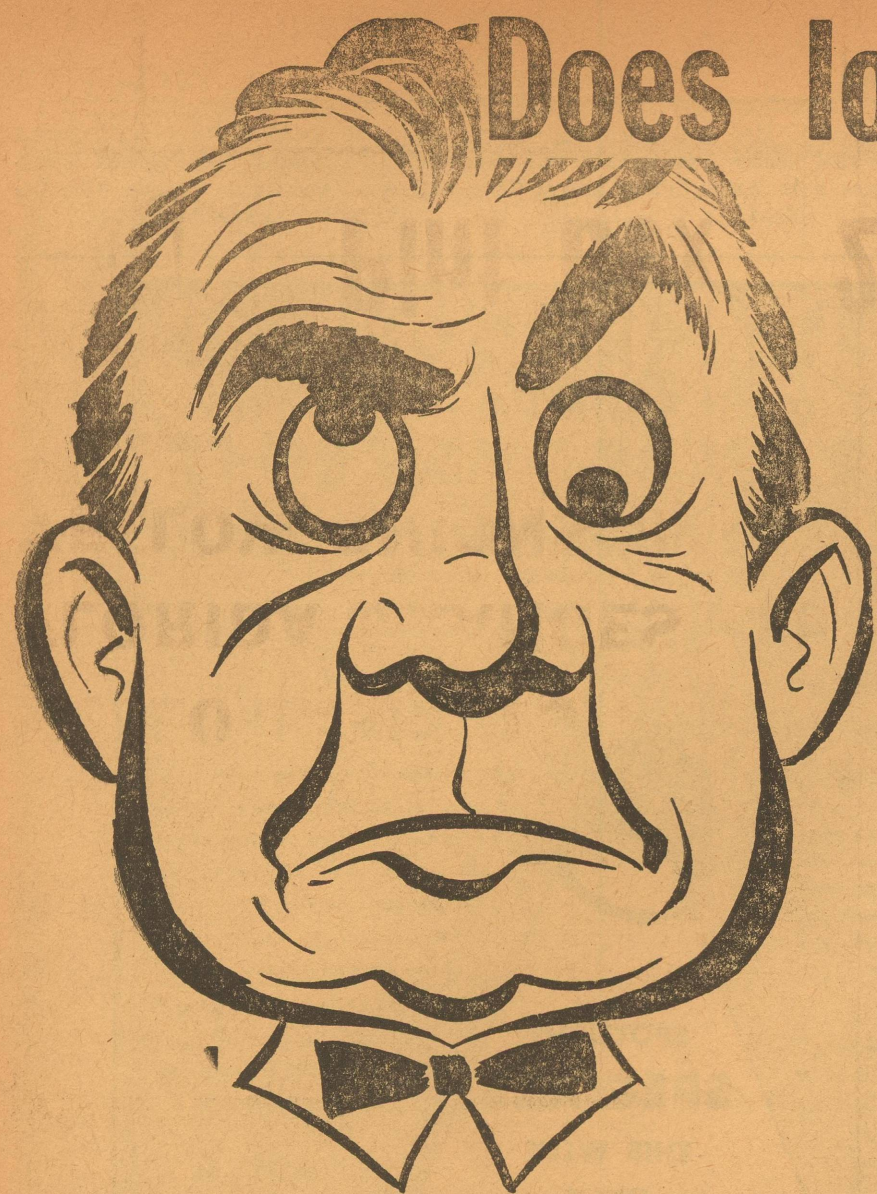

In New York you can get the time, the weather, or a prayer. In Philadelphia it's the stock reports. In Boston a voice tells bird watchers what's to be watched in the park.

Over in Europe, they go further. Vienna offers a five-minute fairy tale for kids. In Switzerland you can get the news in any of three languages. And a couple of places have "talking menus" for desperate housewives.

From where I sit, it doesn't matter if ideas are put out by telephone, through editorials, or in person—as long as we can take them or leave them. I happen to like a glass of beer with my supper. You may prefer coffee, tea or branch water. Well, there's no harm in "listening" to another's opinions... but if he should try to force them on you, it's always an American's privilege to simply "hang up!"
