Red Sox Champions As Season Closes

The Red Sox became the League champions of the season when they defeated the White Sox in their second straight game Tuesday 14 to 2, thus winning up the season.

Red Sox heavy hitters—Mayo, Pennington and Whitten—seemed to be the element that made the difference as they batted in one run after the other.

Ross Graham pitched for the White Sox and Johnny Mayo did the pitching for the Reds.

The closing game left the Red Sox in first place; the White Sox, second; Tigers, third; and the Christoval Cougars in the bottom spot.

Thursday, July 12

The White Sox smashed the sagging Christoval Cougars 24 to 5 last Thursday night as the White Sox moved into a second place tie with the Tigers.

Ross Graham and James Thacker led the White Sox attack with four and three hits, respectively.

Ross Graham pitched for the White Sox and Bill Repman and Felix Alcalá pitcher for the Cougars.

Friday, July 13

The Red Sox defeated the Tigers 6 to 2 Friday night and thus dropped the Tigers out of a possible play-off position.

Despite 16 strike-outs by Gary Derrick, the Tiger pitcher, the Reds crammed in runs on walks and errors. On two occasions the Tigers had the bases loaded and were in position to tie the score, but their batters were unable to hit in the pinches.

Gary Derrick pitched for the Tigers and James Hight and Buff Whitten pitched for the Red Sox.

Monday, July 16

In the first game of the series the White Sox lost to the Red Sox Monday night by a score of 13 to 6. As the game started off it looked like a pitcher's duel between Buff Whitten, R.S., and Mike Hale for the W. S.

At the end of the first two innings the White Sox were leading 2 to 1, and it looked like a real all-star game, but as the game advanced disaster overtook the White Sox when their infielders began making errors and the Reds began hitting. The scores piled up.

Primitive Baptists Close Association Meeting Here Sunday

The Primitive Baptist Association closed a 3-day session in Eldorado last week with services Sunday morning at the Memorial Building.

There were representatives here from Oklahoma and New Mexico and from all parts of Texas. Average attendance was about 250. The Friday and Sunday services were held in the Memorial Building, while Saturday's meeting was in the court house, when the Memorial Building was in use for the election.

Members of the Eldorado Primitive Baptist church were hosts and provided barbecue twice each day for the session as well as breakfasts.

The Association voted to hold the next annual meeting at Valley Springs in Llano county a year from now.

The local church members wish to thank the county officials for use of the county facilities and also all others who co-operated.

Eldorado Little League Downs Sonora 6 To 5

Three home runs, two of them by Roy Davidson and one by Mike Hale, aided the Eldorado Little League to a 6-5 win over Sonora Saturday night in Sonora.

Sonora jumped off to a 2 run lead in the top of the second. Eldorado scored single runs in the second, third and fourth to go ahead 3-2, but Sonora scored two more in the top of the fifth and one more in the sixth.

Mike Hale sent a long line drive over the center field fence with Buff Whitten on base (Whitten had singled) to tie the game at 5-5. The Sonora pitcher walked Roy Davidson (Davidson had hit two home runs in his two previous times at bat). Roy took second, third on passed balls and scored the winning win on another passed ball.

Mike Hale and Gary Derrick pitched three innings each for the Eagles.

Ruben Arredondo made two fine fielding plays for Eldorado.

Both teams were All-Star teams from their respective leagues.

The Little League season closed here Tuesday night when the Red Sox won the first two of a "best-two-out-of-three" series with the White Sox.

A loyal bunch of fans have been in attendance at each of the games and they are going to miss this enjoyable form of evening entertainment.

The hat was passed Tuesday night for a free will collection and the spectators showed their appreciation by contributing to a pot that came to $75.00. The money will be used for new equipment for next year.

The opening of the new Iraan road sometime this summer is expected to be a big help to the business of Eldorado as more and more traffic gets in the habit of using this route.

Some of the benefits will be of an indirect nature while to some businesses the benefits will be immediate and direct.

We were checking around yesterday and called the office of Haley Transports. They said the new route will definitely be a big help to them as their trucks operate a great deal in that area. It will be a saving of about 30 miles over the old route to Iraan by way of Ozona and Sheffield.

Halliburton is another Eldorado business that is looking forward to the shorter route. Their trucks operate out in there a great deal, and Andy Nixon's oil field construction business is another.

The Southwest Texas Electric Co-Op., operates trucks over a wide area, but their business does not fit into the same picture as these others. Don McCormick explains that their territory does not include Iraan itself, but extends out around it. And the Co-Op maintains sub-offices at Big Lake and Ozona and they work that western territory from there. Their local trucks, therefore, would not likely have any occasion to go from here directly to Iraan.

Hartgraves Livestock and Feeding Company reports that the new route will be an advantage to them. "It's a big sheep country over in there," according to Mr. Hartgraves and it will be a big saving to truckers, since they have bought a lot of lambs from out in that area.

Anybody else?

School Bond Issue Beaten First Time In Ozona History

Ozona Stockman, July 12.—For the first time in Crockett county's 71-year history, a bond issue for school purposes has been defeated by voters of the county.

A $50,000 bond issue, proposed by the school board for the purpose of constructing an administration building and for buying or building a home for the school's superintendent, was defeated 155 to 73 in a light turn out of voters. An estimated 800 or more voters out of the county's total voting strength of approximately 1,300 are property taxpaying voters and thus eligible to vote on bond issues.

The bond election was ordered by the school board upon receipt of a petition signed by 18 qualified voters asking for the election for school building needs.

Bond Vote Canvassed By Commissioners

At a special called meeting Monday, the county Commissioners Court canvassed the vote in Saturday's $75,000 road bond election. They have already drawn up a contractual agreement with the Highway Dept. in regard to procuring right-of-way and working out the subsequent improvements.

At the same session, the Court voted to transfer $12,450 from the county available school fund to the Eldorado Independent School District.

Meeting July 9th, the Court authorized Orval Edmiston to employ Glo Wanda Williams for a temporary period at $200 per month.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Ed Hill and girls returned recently from a trip to the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, Disneyland, and other western points of interest.

Rash Of Grass Fires Keep Firemen Busy

By Tuesday of this week, some scattered showers were dotting the area, giving local firemen a respite from grassfire runs.

Tall cover on rangelands coupled with many days of hot, dry weather have made ranges tinder-dry and ready to burn.

Firemen were called out to a grass fire last Thursday afternoon at Elizabeth Ballew's place, about four miles out on the Bailey Ranch road.

There was a run made Friday to Mary Bruton's in western Eldorado.

Monday, the firemen were called out to Victor Kent's to another grassfire, which was quickly brought under control.

Miss Williams Bride Of Mr. Clair Morris Davis

MRS. CLAIR MORRIS DAVIS

Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas Williams announce the marriage of their daughter, June Margie, to Clair Morris Davis, on June 17, in Houston. The groom is the son of Mrs. Edwin Richardson and the late Mr. Clair Davis of Phoenix, Arizona. The Rev. Lanchester of the First Presbyterian church performed the ceremony in his study. Attendants were the bride's sister, Mrs. Stewart Wiegand, and Robert Davis of Houston.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Eldorado High school and attended the University of Texas where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta social sorority.

The couple are making their home in Houston while Mr. Davis continues his studies in pre-law at Rice University.

The bride graduated from EHS with the class of 1950. She was valedictorian of her class, was a cheer leader, and in the band.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Hill returned Tuesday evening from Fort Worth where Mr. Hill had his check-up.

With the voting by two-thirds majority or road bonds last Saturday the stage is set for the new highway program to get under way.

The route has already been surveyed and field notes gotten up by the Highway engineers and deeds are being prepared at an office in San Angelo. The next step, according to a county commissioner, is for the commissioners court to deal with each and every property owner and agree on prices to be paid for right-of-way and damages. They expected to start negotiating by August.

When deeds have been secured for all of the right-of-way the county will then be in position to let contracts for fencing.

Election Carries

A total of 372 votes were cast in the county-wide bond election last Saturday, and resulted in 109 votes against, and 263 for the bonds. The vote by precincts was:

Schleicher County Gains Discovery Well

A new pay, the Strawn reef "C" zone, has been opened in the Schleicher County portion of the H-J (Strawn) field with completion of Sinclair Oil & Gas Co. No. 5-B Ethel Williams, 14½ miles northeast of Eldorado.

It was finaled for a daily flowing potential of 172.48 barrels of 40.3 gravity oil, plus 51 per cent water, with gas-oil ratio of 630-1. Production was through an 18-64-inch choke and perforations between 5,575-84 feet, which had been acidized with 2,000 gallons.

Tubing pressure was 270 pounds, with packer on casing. Top of pay was picked at 5,575 feet on elevation of 2,117 feet.

Drilled to 5,700 feet and plugged back to 5,655 feet, 5½-inch casing was set at 5,693 feet.

Operator also perforated the Strawn "B" zone from 5,513-20 feet, 5,475-77 feet and 5,447-64 ft. Location is 510 feet from the north and 990 feet from the west lines of F. Kloepper Grantee No. 1892.

It is a south offset to Pan American Petroleum Corp. No. 3 Santa Fe-Boulevard Oil Unit, recent field producer completed from 5,492-5,502 feet.

The field produces from the Strawn at an average depth of 5,502 feet; the 6,100-foot Strawn pay has become depleted.

The CIVIL WAR CENTENNIAL

By Dayton Kelley
Mary Hardin-Baylor College
Belton, Texas

Who were the Confederate heroines of Texas? Who would you vote for as the outstanding women of Texas during the Civil War years?

We hope readers will answer that first question by sending us their nominations in order that we may assist the Texas Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, in choosing Confederate heroines to represent the Lone Star State in the National Civil War Centennial Commission's memorial program calling attention to the important role played by women in the Civil War.

As we have it from Mrs. Jane L. Greenwood of Dallas, who has solicited this department's help, the National Commission will collect and judge biographical sketches of women from both North and South and will select 20 from each side for memorialization. Later the number will be reduced to three from each side and special honors will be paid these.

August is the deadline for submitting the biographical sketches and all facts must be documented so readers who wish to make a nomination should write a card or letter to this department before that date in order that we may pass the information on to the U.D.C. Centennial committee chairman.

Readers may also submit information on their nominees as well as sources from which the information is taken.

We assume that the memorial program mentioned above is the same one which came out of a conference of women leaders from widespread areas of the nation held at the National Civil War Centennial headquarters in Washington, D. C., recently.

One of the decisions reached at the conference concerns the publication next year of a 32-page brochure on the part played by women in the Civil War which will be prepared under the direction of the National Commission. It will be co-authored by Mrs. Sylvia G. L. Dannett of New York and Mrs. Katharine M. Jones of Greenville, S. C., both prominent authors. "American Women of the 1860's" is the title tentatively chosen for the booklet.

The Alabama Civil War Centennial Commission has recently published the story of seven of that state's notable women of the Civil War period in a 72-page booklet entitled "Some Notable Alabama Women During the Civil War." The author, H. E. Sterk, noted that one officer remarked after the war "But for the women of the seceding States . . . the war would have been waged more feebly, been sooner ended, and far more easily forgotten."

This is a unique and valuable contribution to the literature of the Civil War and we agree with the author's observation that the women of that period have not due credit for their services and sacrifices.

Probably the most neglected women of all are those from Texas for there is scarcely any material available which chronicles their contributions to the War effort. However, the women present at the national conference in Washington recently have planned a concentrated effort during the next few months to uncover women's diaries and letters for preservation and perhaps this will bring to light items with a Texas setting.

The women have also requested that a day be set aside in the fall of 1963 as a sort of Women's Centennial Day and that programs on a local level be urged as a means of bringing proper recognition to the Belles of the Confederacy. There will also be an exhibit on women of the War period arranged in some public museum to place proper emphasis upon them and their activities.

Though there is a scarcity of material about Texas women during the War, the women of other states, both North and South, are well represented in several excellent volumes of letters, diaries, and biographical sketches.

Mrs. Katharine M. Jones, who will co-author the booklet which the National Civil War Centennial Commission will publish next year, is the author of "Ladies of Richmond" and "Heroines of the Confederacy," both published by the Bobbs Merrill Company of Indianapolis.

"Ladies of Richmond" is a collection of passages from the letters, diaries, and journals of such noted Southern women as Mary Boykin Chestnut, Varina Howell Davis, and Mary Custis Lee, all residents of the Confederate capital city. "Heroines of Dixie" is broader in scope and included excerpts from material written by the women of almost all the states of the Old South—except Texas, that is.

The women of the North are also eulogized in two volumes with which this department is familiar. These are the very unique and excellent "The Women and the Crisis," published by McDowell, Obolensky Company and "Noble Women of the North," a Thomas Yoseloff release.

"Noble Women of the North" has been compiled and edited by Mrs. Sylvia G. L. Dannett who is the co-author with Mrs. Jones of the booklet to be brought out next year, and is a collection of the personal reminiscences of the women who served the Union as volunteer nurses.

Agatha Young's "The Women and the Crisis" chronicles the activities of the Northern women who organized upon the outbreak of war a national network of societies under the sponsorship of the U. S. Sanitary Commission out of which grew the Red Cross.

Although neither of these four volumes contain information on the contributions of Texas women, they should be required reading for everyone who thinks the Civil War was fought by the men of the North and the South.

So arise, daughters of the South! To arms, men of the Confederacy! Let's nominate some of our own state's Confederate women for national recognition. All cards and letters to this department will be acknowledged.

David Flores of the Presbyterian Home at Itasca visited recently in the T. R. Spence home. He also visited the Caverns of Sonora and was impressed by the deer in the pastures. Another visitor in the Spence home is their 10-year-old grandson from Houston, Carl Spence.

RETIREES FROM SHELL OIL CO.

Word has been received in Eldorado that Joe Dossett, former resident here and former pastor of the Eastside Baptist church, has taken early retirement from Shell Oil Co., with whom he was employed. He has moved from Hobbs, New Mexico, to Knoxville, Arkansas, where he owns a farm and has accepted a church to pastor. He moved to Hobbs from Eldorado about two years ago.

His married daughters, Mrs. Joe D. Cooke and Mrs. Bobby Burton both live in California.

Mr. Dossett was instrumental in getting the Eastside Baptist church established while here. It started as a mission of the First Baptist church.

Mrs. Minnie Coker of Kerrville visited her sister, Mrs. Claude Doyle over the week end. While here she attended the Primitive Baptist meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kinser returned home last week after a two weeks visit with relatives in Fort Worth, Cleburne and Hoppel, near Lake Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sudduth and four children of Dallas were here last week from Tuesday until Saturday visiting their parents, the C. B. Sudduths and the Edwin Childers, and other relatives.

Kathy Kinser and a cousin, Nancy Martin of McCamey, returned home Monday after a visit with Kathy's aunt, Mrs. L. S. Hill, in Fort Worth. Kathy has a guest this week, Bobbie Kathston of Grayford, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Doyle of Lubbock visited the Claude Doyles. Jerry is employed by Galbreath Steel Supply, and Heavia is employed by Philco Finance Co., in Lubbock, where they are at home at 1715 21st street.

Connie Clark of Odessa is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Clark. She has been here two weeks. Another granddaughter Regina Haynes of Sonora spent last week with them also.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery spent the week end in San Angelo visiting her sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hedlund and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Alsup of San Antonio came last Sunday and took Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. Alsup's mother, with them for a visit to Tyler and Houston. In Tyler they are visiting L. A. Kent and family and in Houston with the W. B. Means family. They left Monday and will be gone about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doyle and boys, and Mrs. Ethel Turner of Ozona visited the Claude Doyles Sunday.

'Experiment In Terror' Is On Sunday & Monday

From the Eagle Drive-In Theatre there is an invitation, "Come on in and let us scare you to death." To which a proper response is, "It would be a pleasure."

"Experiment in Terror" is one of the ablest tension-stretchers not to have been made by Alfred Hitchcock. It will have its local showing Sunday and Monday nights at the Eagle. The producer and director is Blake Edwards, a 39-year-old Oklahoman who has given us "Breakfast at Tiffany's." As a television man, he created "Peter Gunn" and "Mr. Lucky."

Now comes "Experiment in Terror" which uses several methods to spread terror and pyramid suspense. This is the story of a vicious criminal, a psychopathic killer, who shrewdly stages a campaign of terror in order to force a pretty young bank teller into embezzling $100,000 for him, under threat of murdering both the teller and her younger sister.

The locale of "Experiment" is San Francisco and although the bizarre threat plot is a police matter, the FBI gets involved in the case. Edwards signed veteran Glenn Ford, who has played just about every role possible from westerns to drawing room romance as the relentless agent who keys the tracking down the terrorist.

Lee Remick, who came to the films via Broadway and television, has the difficult role of the bank teller. Her sister is Stefanie Powers.

The story from which the film came was written by Mildred and Gordon Gordon, old hands at this mystery-suspense business, as "Operation Terror" and it was published first as a serial in the Ladies Home Journal. The Gordons also wrote the screen-play and Edwards has produced and directed the film.

Mr. Edwards knows that the essence of good melodrama is not the quakes but the quaking. He "cheats" manfully and artistically. A girl screams, sending chills down the spectator's spine. She is merely the delectable little sister high-diving into a pool.

There is a popcorn-munching stool-pigeon available but how is he introduced? By the frenetic antics of Keystone Kops on a movie screen—and how did they get into the act at this contemporary date?

The villain, seen by face midway through the footage, is known for a mystifying time only by his brute strength and asthmatic wheeze. Eventually, the miracles of automation in the FBI files produce a police photograph.

Mr. Edwards lets his camera range through idyllic Marin County suburbia, across Golden Gate Bridge, into the palatial spaces of the bank, through garish night clubs, Chinatown restaurants, hospitals and that recent prize of San Francisco, the windy new baseball park.

The FBI leaves us quivering. They permit Miss Remick to take all kinds of chances while they bug telephones and otherwise supply themselves with "evidence." The shooting at the baseball park is not to the throng. Thanks to the scenarists nobody was hurt except the villain.

The story line stays clean and unencumbered. While Miss Remick and Mr. Ford are highly desirable representatives of their sexes, they have no time or inclination for romance.

Ross Martin is 100 per cent repulsive as the terrorizer.

Former Commander Visits Reserve Unit

Tuesday night, 17 July, Major M. J. Netherly of Junction who formerly commanded the Junction-Sonora Army Reserve unit, Troop "B" of the 15th Cavalry, visited the Sonora Armory in his official capacity as a member of the G-3 Section of General Earl Rudder's 90th Division of which area Reservists are members. Major Netherly was accompanied by Mrs. Netherly and their three young sons who visited about the Armory briefly. Interesting fact about Major Netherly is that he is a member of the Board of Trustees of Junction Independent School District.

While in Sonora Armory during the drill period, Major Netherly assisted 1st/Sgt. Al Barnes of Troop "B" who doubles as civilian personnel director in the troop to administer and grade an Armed Forces Qualifications Test to a recruit, William A. McCoy, Jr., who passed the difficult test easily. He is a former graduate of Sonora High School and will return to college after serving a six-month tour of active duty as part of the United States Reserve training program.

Other United States Army Reserve news of interest to Edwards Plateau citizens is that the Army replaced the M-43 40,000-pound tank which was damaged in a practice run just before the Sonora Reservists went on their annual 15-day tour of active duty beginning early in June with a new tank out of the depot at Fort Hood.

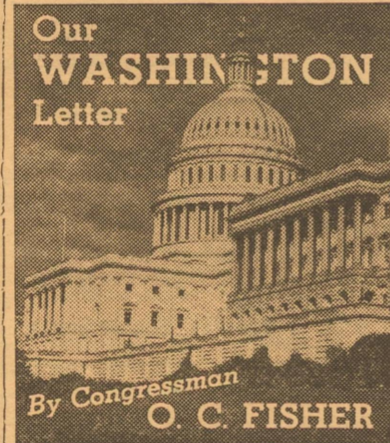

Last item is that Troop "B" and Ozona, and Sonora Reservists are getting ready to launch a recruiting drive to fill a number of organizational vacancies now existing as well as others which may transpire in September.

Sonora Reservists close training for the month of July with an all-day stint this Sunday, 22 July, during which they will follow the schedule prescribed for a standard day of training.

New Babies

Mr. and Mrs. D. Williams, Jr., announce the birth of a baby girl. She was born on Friday, July 13th, in the Sonora hospital, and has been named Lori Dee. She weighed 8 lbs. 1 oz. and has a brother, Jack, who is 10½ years old.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dally Williams, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ross, all of Vernon.

A $5 billion foreign aid bill was approved by the House last week with 10 Texans voting for it and 12 voting against it. This must be followed by an appropriation which may vary a bit from the $5 billion figure. A similar bill was previously approved by the Senate. A conference committee will now iron out the differences.

This runs the total of foreign aid to well over $90 billion.

During debate the House adopted several amendments, including one to forbid use of this money for loans, grants, or purchase of bonds of the UN until all members had paid their share of UN expenses, including UN Congo and Gaza Strip expenses.

Another amendment prohibits any aid to countries that expropriate U. S. property without adequate compensation.

A third amendment deals with aid to Communist countries, restricting the use of aid funds unless the President finds and reports to Congress that such aid is vital to U. S. security, that the recipient is not controlled by the international Communist conspiracy and that the aid would promote the recipient's independence from international Communism.

The bill also includes $600 million for Latin America under the Alliance for Progress program.

This entire program is badly in need of major overhauling. Too much foreign aid money is going down the drain because too often the primary factor in dishing it out has not been American interest and American security. Yet that should be the controlling justification for any outlay of U. S. dollars in the name of foreign aid.

When the President was in Mexico recently he announced a considerable amount of assistance to that country under the Alliance for Progress. Yet, Mexico continues to recognize Castro's government and carried on a vast trade program with the Communist government in power there. Therefore, any American aid to Mexico, under the circumstances, would indirectly benefit Castro by enabling Mexico to use American commodities in an export trade program with American country that recognizes Cuba.

Actually, in order to protect It is proper and right that give American interest and security, no ways should have strings attached should be extended to a Latin

GRIFFINS LIKE TO SWIM

There's no place like the swimming pool on a hot Saturday afternoon in July. At least, that seems to be the way the Griffin family seems to feel.

Tea Honors Bride-Elect Of Ronnie Mittel

Mrs. Archie Mittel entertained with a tea on Saturday from 3:30 to 5:30 at her ranch home to introduce Miss Sharon Vick of Irving, Texas, bride-elect of Mr. Ronnie Mittel of San Angelo. The young couple will be married September 1st in the First Baptist Church of Irving, Texas.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Carl Stevens and Mrs. Jim O'Harrow. In the receiving line were Mrs. Mittel, Miss Vick and her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Vick of Irving.

Alternating at the bride's book were Miss Judy Donham of San Angelo, Mrs. Jerry Johnson of Sonora and Mrs. Billie Sam Hale of San Antonio.

The tea table was covered with a bouffant white net cloth, edged with white satin ribbons. A branched silver candelabra with white tapers based on a white milk glass rose bowl from which cascaded white satin grape leaves with white net grapes topped by maroon daisies and lilies of the valley formed the centerpiece.

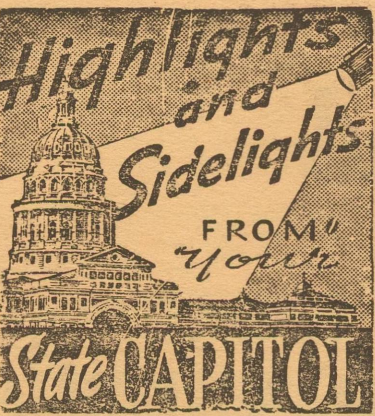

Before the reflected mirror on the buffet stood a footed milk glass bowl with an arrangement of maroon daisies and white carnations with foliage of bridal lace, flanked by tall white tapers.

Those alternating at the silver coffee service and milk glass punch bowl were Mrs. W. C. McManus, Jr., Mrs. Jerry Lyn Pennington and Miss Nancy Rink of San Angelo, Miss Karon Kemble and Miss Deanne Hext of Eldorado.

The bride's chosen colors of white and red were carried out in the flowers arrangements in the party rooms and patio.

Austin.—U. S. Supreme Court's decision that federal courts have power to review acts of state legislatures in reapportioning representation was met with an uproar from many states.

"Reapportionment" is the business of redistricting a state to determine the number of legislators according to an area's population. National and state constitutions both provide for re-examination of representation in legislative assemblies every 10 years.

An area frequently gains or loses representatives to the state house. This happened in Texas recently, when a 1961 redistricting act by the legislature took effect.

Working under a constitutional amendment adopted in 1936, limiting cities to one representative for every 700,000 inhabitants, Texas' representative districts got a pretty thorough going over.

The 31-member senate body was not greatly effected by the reapportionment, however, since the law states that the senate "shall never be increased and no single county shall be entitled to more than one senator."

What the U. S. Supreme Court would hold about such a condition, in view of a congressional provision for two U. S. senators from each state regardless of population, won't be known unless the question is put to its nine justices.

There is some reason to believe, however, that the higher court would look with disfavor on this state's constitutional provision limiting House representation to one member for every 100,000 inhabitants after a county attains a population of more than 700,000.

In the event citizens dissatisfied with the situation in Texas ever go to court for a reshuffling, they will be armed with the information that 11 urban counties have a little more than half of Texas' 9,579,677 inhabitants and more than a third of the 150 members of the House of Representatives.

Permian Basin College Urged

A 'Citizens Relations Committee' of 20 West Texans flew into Austin to ask the Texas Commission on Higher Education to approve plans for converting Odessa Junior College to a state-supported, four year "Permian State College."

According to their spokesman, W. D. Fleck of Odessa, 30 per cent of the Ector county's college enrollment of about 1,600 is composed of out-of-county students. Administrators estimated a 3,686 enrollment by 1970, if it's changed to a state-supported senior college.

C. A. Roberson, business manager of Odessa's $3 million junior college, said the population in the Permian Basin increased from 159,000 to 288,000 between 1950 and 1960 and is expected to reach 500,000 by 1970.

Commission will study the matter further before making a recommendation to the next legislature.

Attempts to get the 57th Legislature to approve full state support and senior college status of San Angelo Junior College, Laredo Junior College and Pan American College at Edinburg failed in the third special session.

T.E.C. Teams To Aid Small Towns

Two teams which form the working force of the Texas Employment Commission's newly-organized Expansion Employment Service for Small Communities recently moved into Brady where they'll survey job seekers and job opportunities for the next six weeks.

Service was set up with funds from the Federal Bureau of Employment Security to assist communities like Brady which have "substantial and persistent unemployment problems," yet are too far from one of the Employment Commission's 91 local offices to get help from a regular staff.

According to Ted Clifford of the commission, the teams will go into economically-distressed areas to try to determine what has caused a long-time employment slump, offer remedies and either find job opportunities elsewhere or assist local civic groups in launching industry recruitment programs.

Limestone and Falls county officials already have asked for the teams' services. Clifford reported that some 25 or 30 counties now are in the "substantial and persistent unemployment" category.

They were enroute home after vacationing in East Texas where they visited his mother, Mrs. W. L. Reed of Cantis and other relatives. He is a bombardier in the Air Force and stated that he flies over Eldorado quite often when out on test flights.

U. S. Govt. Spends More In Texas Than Tax Take

By U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough Dear Fellow Texan:

We hear over and over how federal income tax funds are spent—and some claim that we in Texas get very little back for the income taxes and other taxes collected by the federal government.

Certainly, there is a lot of waste in the vast spending of the federal government; certainly, there is a need for more efficiency in this growing government which serves a growing America.

We not only have a right, we have a grave responsibility to keep a critical eye on where the money goes. But we do not often hear the other side of this important story.

The good services that are performed by your government. And for all of its cumbersome size, the national government does manage to do a creditable job in many areas and you do get something for your money, a whole lot in some fields.

In the year ending June 30th, 1961—the last date for which totals are available, the federal government collected a total of $3,110,000,000 in revenue from the state of Texas. Well, fellow Texan, at least half of that amount—or $1,555,000,000 went for national defense—for military preparedness at home and around the world, on Freedom's Front everywhere.

This means that Texas paid that year around $1,555,000,000 in federal taxes which was not for defense and for which we could expect a return on our money not having anything to do with the cost of national defense. Of course, all of us realize that national defense must be financed. This is the money that safeguards our freedom. I challenge any critic of the federal government to put a price tag on freedom.

I have asked the Library of Congress, which is considered to be one of the nation's most impartial and most reliable sources, to find out the total expenditures of federal monies in Texas for the year ending June 30, 1961. My purpose was to see what Texas gets back for taxes, not designated for defense spending. And I learned that —excluding the money that goes for national defense—Texas comes out ahead.

The Library of Congress showed that on 95 federal aid programs in Texas including federal civilian payrolls, payments to veterans, old age and disability payments, roads, and all other non-defense federal spending programs in Texas, the total of federal monies spent in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1961, was $1,851,000,000. To be more specific, Texas came out over $296 million ahead in one year.

How could we do it? You can't get more out of the meal barrel than you put in it. The whole nation does not, but Texas does.

The reason that Texas got back more than a dollar for each non-defense dollar sent to Uncle Sam in taxes is not one of which we should boast. The reason Texas did not pay more in the federal revenue collections is that our state ranks 32nd among the states in annual per capita income. In 31 other states the average person earns more than the average person earns in Texas.

With better education, we should raise our average earning capacity in Texas. But right now with Texas in the bottom half of the states in average per person yearly income, the richer income states pay more to the federal government than they get back, and Texas gets back more than it pays since we must exclude necessary defense costs in any consideration of return on tax money. These are the true facts, fellow Texans.

SEES SISTER AFTER 10 YEARS

Mrs. W. E. Turnbow and grandson, Harvey Turnbow, were in Rule, Texas, over the week end where Mrs. Turnbow met several of her brothers and sisters at the home of a brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Glover and family. She went to meet a sister from California that she had not seen in ten years. She is Mrs. Joe Herrell, who was there with her husband. Mrs. Turnbow stated that out of ten living children in her family, 8 of them met at her brother's home and with their families there were 31 there.

She returned home Tuesday.

Foster Parents Plan Being Supported By Eldoradoans

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Meador of Eldorado have financially "adopted" Katherine Gagali, an 8-year-old Greek girl, through Foster Parents' Plan, Inc., 352 Park Avenue South, New York City. The Foster Parents have promised to contribute $15 a month toward the child's support for at least one year.

Foster Parents' Plan, which has rehabilitated more than 76,000 children on a personal basis since its founding in 1937, is now helping more than 27,000 youngsters in Greece, Italy, Korea, France, Viet Nam, Hong Kong and the Philippines. Over the past 24 years, more than 600,000 individuals and groups in America have helped needy children overseas through Foster Parents' Plan.

"We are indeed grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Meador for giving Katherine this wonderful gift of hope and help", declared Miss Gloria C. Matthews, Executive Director of Foster Parents' Plan, "and we prayerfully hope that many others who read this will also extend a helping hand to a distressed child. We shall be happy to send full information on how to become a Foster Parent to a child in Europe or the Far East to any individual, school or group writing Foster Parents' Plan, 352 Park Avenue South, New York City," Miss Matthews added. Foster Parents' Plan is a non-sectarian, non-profit, non-propaganda, independent, government-approved relief organization which provides children who are orphaned, distressed, or otherwise made destitute with the care, education, and moral support they need. The "adoption" through Plan is financial, not legal. The Foster Parent promises to contribute $15 monthly for at least one year. Of this sum, the child receives $8 each month as an outright cash grant. The remainder is used for periodic food and new clothing packages, translations of letters, medical services and education. Because each child is treated as an individual, any special needs of the child or his family are taken care of by Plan from its General Fund. This fund is made up of contributions from the public.

To encourage a warm, personal relationship between the Foster Parent and child, the Foster Parent receives a history of the child and a photograph, and correspondence through the Plan office is translated both ways. This exchange bridges the gap between Foster Parent and child and gives the youngster the feeling of security and love he needs.

KATHERINE GAGALI

Katherine is a pretty little girl with a wealth of brown hair and lovely, large brown eyes. She lives with her mother and sister Sotiria (6) in Salonica, in northern Greece. The little girl's father had worked as a laborer but could not earn very much and he joined the Merchant Marine. He worked as a sailor and the work was hard and he was subjected to much exposure to the weather. He contracted tuberculosis and died in May of 1958, when Katherine was only four years old.

The father was not insured and when he died, the family was left destitute and without any pension or income. The mother is now working as a charwoman 4 times a week, in a school for the Blind, and earns $15.00 a month. She has no relatives who are able to help and this is all the income they have for the support of three people including her little girls who must be sent to school so that their futures will not be blighted by a lack of education. The mother is pale and thin—all of them are undernourished because they do not have adequate meals containing the essential body-building food elements.

They are living in a ground-floor house of one room and a kitchen, for which they pay $3.36 a month rent. It is furnished with a bed, table, two chairs, an old divan and few bedding items plus the bare essentials of household and kitchen utensils. The house is neat and clean. Clothing is needed.
