Summer Plans For Swimming Pool

Jack Montgomery, who will be manager of the county swimming pool again this coming summer, has announced plans concerning the pool for the season.

Swimming classes for beginners are already being lined up. Mrs. Catherine Niblett, who moved here about a month ago with her husband, will be instructor. Mr. Niblett is with Halliburton.

Ten lessons will cost $5. Parents interested in enrolling their children in beginning swimming classes may call Mrs. Niblett at 22391 (she is not in the directory yet) or Jack Montgomery at 23881 for further information.

Swimming pupils will meet at the pool on June 3rd to be organized into classes.

Mr. Montgomery announces that the pool will open about May 27 or 28th.

A Red Cross Senior Life Saving class may also be conducted at the pool sometime late in May. All interested persons 16 or older, see Mr. Montgomery.

Season tickets will be on sale as follows:

Child	$11
Couple	$20
Couple & 1 or 2 children	$25
Family of 5 or more	$30

The wading pool for tiny tots will be free.

Mr. Montgomery was supervising the draining of the pool this week and has been getting it ready for summer. Halliburton men came with their truck and pumped out the pool.

NEW PRINTER COMES INTO THE WORLD

The Eldorado Success can now look forward—in about 15 years—to having a new printer's devil. Here are the facts:

A son was born Saturday morning, May 4, in the Clinic-Hospital in San Angelo to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gunstead. The baby weighed 7 lbs. 2½ oz. and has been named William Charles. He has a sister, Gwendolyn Rae, who is 16 months old.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wimer and Fred Gunstead all of Eldorado. P. M. Church of South Haven, Kansas, is a great-grandfather.

Mrs. Gunstead and new son have remained in the hospital through this week, and expect to come home Saturday.

Somebody remarked not long ago that as far as fruit was concerned this was the most favorable spring in years.

Now comes Mrs. Mattie Cozzens claiming she has the grand champion of all crops. Four plum trees, two apricot and a peach and an apple tree. The plum crop especially is one that has to be seen to be believed. She says plums are so thick they look like grapes. Those interested are invited to go by and see.

Perhaps it would be timely for the Success to say a word about "deadlines."

A "deadline" is supposed to be the last hour in which we can accept things for publication. The deadline is supposed to give us time to set the type and assemble the pages.

Things for publication fall in two groups: — things we get paid for (ads) and things we print free.

We have to make our living out of ads, so naturally we will stretch a point and accept a $5.00 paid ad at the last minute if we can. That might be as late as 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday. That's when our type pages are put together for printing.

The things we print free also fall into two groups: — flash news and ordinary news.

If a store burned down . . . if there were a fatal car wreck . . . if the sheriff shot somebody . . . that would be flash news, and if it happened after supper on Wednesday we'd stay up most of the night—work over the pages to get it in the paper by Thursday morning if we could.

But those things don't happen once in a blue moon. Most of our news items are routine nature: club news, church news, school news, athletic events and contests of all kinds.

We don't have an iron-clad rule about it, but we'd appreciate it if you'd consider the deadline news to be not later than Tuesday (Monday preferred).

If your daughter wins first place in a regional contest on Friday, it's certainly not necessary to wait until late Wednesday to turn it in. You can do it just as well on Monday when it is fresh on your mind.

Deadlines, then, can mean different things according to the circumstances. Did someone shoot the mayor or was he just shootin' the breeze—there is a difference, when it comes to deadlines.

Also when mama wants to put in an announcement of daughter's engagement and approaching marriage, we sure like to get the dope early. That's always a big event for mother and we always try to be as helpful as we can. Usually there is a picture involved.

The Success office does NOT have an engraving department. It costs us $1.50 to have a single-column engraving made, and $3.00 for a double-column. While we publish the announcements in the paper free, we do ask the family to pay for the engraving. (Note: The Standard-Times runs the pictures free, because they have their own engraving department.) We don't, and it's simply cash out of our pocket.

So please note this rule: The customer is asked to pay the engraving costs of all unsolicited pictures.

Lions Convention Held In Midland

A group of Eldorado Lions and their wives were in Midland last week end for the annual convention of District 2A-1.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bearce, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyer, Bill Rountree, and Mr. and Mrs. Granvil Hext and their daughter, Deanne, who was nominee in the queen's contest.

WINS SINGLES AT MEET

Danny Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Byrl Clayton, former Eldorado citizens and teachers in the local schools, won the AAA singles crown at the Interscholastic League state meet in Austin last week end when he defeated Burt Rhodes of Monahans 6-1, 6-4, 6-3.

A foursome from Big Lake captured the Class A golf championship at the meet and Mike Holmes of Big Lake retained his crown as Class A 100-yard dash champion in 9.8. He was running third at the 50-yard mark but suddenly surged to the front and won by two yards.

OIL NEWS

Meadco Properties, Midland, was drilling at 3,000 feet yesterday in their No. 2 T. C. Meador in the Velrex field. It is located ¼ mile northwest of the same firm's no. 1 producer.

As reported last week, Brooks Gas Corporation of Houston is scheduled to build a gathering system for the Velrex field, plus a pipeline to Merton processing plant. Construction is not yet under way, but is due to start any day.

The Dyer well which is being dug with cable tools by O. C. Proffitt, was at a depth of 615 feet yesterday. They were running casing to seal off the water zones. Drilling probably will have been resumed by the time this paper reaches its readers.

Delta No. 1 T. K. Jones was drilling at 6135 feet yesterday morning. If they are correct in their calculations, they were due to encounter the gas zone in another 50 feet.

Chambers & Kennedy No. 1 Blaylock were drilling below 3400 feet early this week in lime and shale.

Mrs. Shorty Henderson of Tow is visiting her laughters, Mrs. Bill Oglesby and Mrs. Roy Phelps and families this week. She came up for the recital Tuesday night and to stay with the Phelps children while Mr. and Mrs. Phelps are gone on the Senior trip.

Miss Deanne Hext, nominee from the local club in the queen's race, was on hand to tell of her experiences. She was second highest in the group of over 30 girls who participated in the contest.

Other guests included Reese Spencer, Phil McCormick and Tom Cook.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Banion and baby attended the funeral of Mrs. O'Banion's grandmother, Mrs. Edna Sanders, at Cameron, Texas, at 2:00 p.m. last Saturday.

She passed away at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Applin (Edna's parents) at Cross Plains last Thursday May 2, after a long illness.

Mr. O'Banion had gone to Lake Brownwood to attend the Pastor's Retreat and Mrs. O'Banion had gone to her parents' home for a visit and were there when death came to Mrs. Sanders. Frank came home after the funeral but Edna and baby stayed at Cross Plains to visit her parents this week.

SMALL RAIN

County Escapes Storm Damage

Late Sunday afternoon Eldorado and Schleicher county caught the lesser part of a severe dust and wind storm, which did heavy damage in Angelo and in Runnels county.

Radio and television reports of 65- to 100-mile-an-hour winds in San Angelo had Schleicher residents apprehensive but the destructive winds had spent most of their force by the time they hit here—around 5:00 p.m.

Southwest Texas Electric CoOp had some lines out in this county and also over near Ozona. They had a crew out late Sunday restoring service in the area occupied by W. V. Lux and Milton Faught.

But generally speaking all the effects of the storm were beneficial since the rain that followed measured from one-half to a full inch. Maybe a little fruit was blown off here and there, but not much.

Telephone lines were full of static for a while and it was difficult to get a call through.

The last good rain here was on April 4, when a generous two inches fell over practically the whole county. All kinds of crops were planted immediately following and by last week had reached the point where more rains were desperately needed. So, Sunday night's showers came as a god-send.

Some totals:

City of Eldorado.....	6.00
Fay Baugh Spence ranch.....	1.50
Capt. Thad A. Thomson.....	1.75
J. C. Wells Ranch (Bailey Rch).....	.65
Wilbert Faull ranch.....	.65

LARGE CATFISH CAUGHT ON DEVIL'S LAKE

A fishing party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Young and Miss Maudie Mitchell of Eldorado, Mrs. Ila Mae Young of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Les Malstrom of Sonora, returned home last Sunday tired, but happy after a week's fishing at the Amistad fishing camp on Devil's Lake. This is the former Dennis camp. They reported catching a large yellow catfish on a trotline using liver bait. The cat measured 40 inches and weighed 36 pounds. They also caught about 25 smaller fish ranging from 1½ pounds to 3 pounds. They said some of the ladies were so excited they almost jumped out of the boat when they were pulling the large cat in; that it looked like a whale to them.

In case anyone has doubts, they have proof as someone had a Polaroid camera handy.

News of the Sick

Bob McWhorter underwent an emergency appendectomy at the Sonora hospital Monday night. He is recovering nicely.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery went to Waco last week end when she learned that her nephew had had a heart attack. His condition is reported as serious.

Ernest C. Hill is steadily improving at home since being released from the Sonora hospital last Thursday.

Mrs. Vernon Carroll underwent surgery Tuesday morning at the Clinic-Hospital in San Angelo and is resting satisfactorily. She is in room 202.

Mrs. B. K. Cheek is much improved and will probably be home in a few days.

Mrs. M. M. Reynolds is still in the Clinic-Hospital.

New Babies

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lloyd of Batesville are the proud parents of a son, Rodney Glenn Lloyd, who was born April 23 in a Uvalde hospital. This is the couple's first child. He weighed 8 lbs. 3/4 oz.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lloyd of Eldorado and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry of Camp Wood. Great grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Berry of Uvalde, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hoffman of Paint Rock and Mrs. Rex Morton of Big Spring.

The mother is the former Helen Berry of Camp Wood.

Mrs. Leonard Lloyd spent last week in Batesville visiting her son and family and taking care of the new grandson, returning home Sunday night.

Memorial Markers Include Schleicher

Senator Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo announced plans for the erection of Confederate Memorial Information Markers in Eldorado, Big Lake, Sonora & Crockett.

The markers are to be placed on the courthouse lawns and will honor prominent Confederates Captain Gustav Schleicher, John H. Reagan, and Colonel John S. Sutton for whom the counties are named. Fort Lancaster's role in the Civil War will be described.

"The State of Texas is erecting these Confederate Memorial Information markers," said Senator Hardeman. "The courthouse lawns are logical sites for these markers because of their accessibility to the interested public, school children, and tourists who all want to learn more about the history of the counties."

Captain Schleicher was the chief purchasing agent for the Southern armies west of the Mississippi and bought the desperately needed iron-trenching tools, iron, steel, lead and turpentine. He also imported much material from Europe by using the exchange of cotton which was the "life blood" of the Confederacy. Other tools were gained from the surrendered U. S. Frontier Forts.

John H. Reagan was a member of the first Confederate Congress and was made Postmaster General of the Confederacy in 1861. In later years he was a United States Senator and first chairman of the Railroad Commission.

Colonel John S. Sutton led five companies in the Arizona-New Mexico Campaign, the campaign designed to make the Confederacy an ocean to ocean nation. Although he was mortally wounded while leading a rifle assault against enemy cannons in the Battle of Val Verde, he refused aid and motioned on his battalions which captured the enemy cannons.

Fort Lancaster, located 33 miles west of Ozona on U. S. Highway 90, was part of the Confederate far western frontier line following the U. S. surrender of the fort. During the Civil War, this fort was occupied by the 2nd Texas Cavalry.

The Texas State Historical Survey Committee, state agency for historical preservation, has charge of research and inscriptions for the markers. The State Building Commission is responsible for their erection.

The marker is made of Texas pink granite, stands five feet high, and has the Texas star and wreath incised at the top.

The marker is part of a three-year program to mark Civil War sites, graves, and landmarks in Texas, adopted by the TSHSC. Funds, set aside for the erection of markers and memorials, will expire in 1965 as directed by a Constitutional Amendment.

In order to cover as many phases of Texas Confederate History as possible, the program has been broken into the following divisions: markers at the graves of prominent Confederates, State Cemetery grave markers, Confederate Memorial Information Markers for marking important Civil War locations in Texas, distinguished Confederate units, markers in the Counties named after men who had Confederate service, and Travel Information Markers. More than 290 such markers are planned. County Historical Survey Committees, cooperating in the program, are engaged in marking the graves of all Civil War veterans.

Associational Brotherhood Meets
Twenty-eight men of the Brotherhood and Royal Ambassador boys from the First Baptist church of Eldorado attended the Associational Brotherhood meeting at the Sonora Caverns last Monday night. The barbecue was provided by the First Baptist church of Sonora and was served in the picnic area of the caverns.

The story of Royal Ambassador progress was presented by posters drawn by David Norvell of San Angelo and Rev. Kenneth Sellers of Immanuel Baptist church in San Angelo brought the message. After the program, nine groups consisting of about 25 to the group toured the Caverns. Rev. Bob Brackney of San Angelo read a scripture and gave a brief devotion to each group in the auditorium of the Caverns as they came in. Churches represented included six from San Angelo, and Grape Creek, Rocksprings, Junction, Ozona, Sonora and Eldorado.

Circles Meet

The Kuykendall circle met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. Brooks with Mrs. Allan Kuykendall presiding over the business meeting. The program was from Royal Service Magazine on Educating Youth in Missions. They had 7 members and 3 guests present. The guests were Mrs. Kenneth Vaughan, Mrs. Ruth Davis, and Mrs. George Cales of Odessa.

The Van Dusen circle met with Mrs. J. F. Kinser Monday afternoon and presented the same program with 7 members present. Mrs. J. L. Ratliff presented a list of things the Latin American pastor needs and the circle agreed to help him secure them.

The Montgomery circle met at the home of Mrs. L. M. Hoover with Miss John Alexander acting as hostess and serving a chicken salad plate to the 9 members present. Mrs. Truett Stanford was leader of the program.

Austin.—Gov. John B. Connally signed 27 bills into law; then he and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith left the state.

Their departure was to permit Sen. Martin Dies, Jr., of Lufkin to take over as "Governor for a Day."

Each bill applied to a special area of interest. For example:

1. House Bill 16 by Rep. Olen R. Petty of Levelland interests State banks. It exempts them from the state sales tax and franchise tax so long as federal banks are exempt. Saves them $1 million a year.

2. House Bill 583 by Houston Rep. Tom Bass interests firemen and policemen. It enables them to credit toward "job seniority" time taken off for military service and guard duty. This speeds up their promotions.

3. House Bill 614 by Rep. Amanda Canales of San Diego and Rep. Jerry Butler of Kenedy interests hunters. It puts a "No-Hunting" sign on Duval County for the next five years.

These laws will go into effect late in August.

Loophole In The Loop
Municipal annexation bill, which has passed both houses, is ready for Governor Connally's signature. It gives every city an "extra territorial jurisdiction"—from five miles for cities of more than 100,000 population to one-half mile around cities of 5,000 or less population.

It sets up an extra-territorial area of one mile around cities of 5,000 to 25,000; two miles around cities, 21,000-50,000; and three and a half miles around those with populations ranging from 50,000 to 100,000.

Under this proposed law a city could annex in a year no more than an acreage equal to 10 per cent of its size on the first day of that year. In computing this, many have drawn concentric circles around sample cities.

But this is not the limitation it would appear to be. Actually, instead of extending its whole perimeter, a large city could annex a five mile strip along major highways without approaching the 10 per cent limit.

Voters Reistration
A registration system to take the poll tax's place is all but decided by the Legislature.

Senate-passed bill by Sen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells calls for a 25-cent registration fee in lieu of the $1.50, or $1.75, poll tax. It retains the present system

New Lieutenant

Austin.—An Eldorado Guardsman was among the 58 candidates who graduated from the May 4 Texas National Guard Officers Candidate School in formal ceremonies here Saturday. He is Myrl G. Sudduth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernal G. Sudduth of Route 1, Eldorado.

Graduates of the year-long course become eligible to accept a commission as a second lieutenant in the Texas National Guard.

Major General Harry Crutcher Jr., Air National Guardsman, was the main speaker at the graduation ceremonies.

Sudduth, who is an engineer for West Texas Utilities Company, is a member of Headquarters, 3rd Battalion, 132d Artillery. He is a 1954 graduate of Eldorado High school and a 1959 graduate of Texas Technological College.

The National Guard's OCS is conducted at Camp Mabry in Austin. It is a one-year course supervised by the U. S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Georgia.

of registering voters each year.

El Paso Rep. Malcolm McGregor tried to include the Texas League of Women Voters' plan for permanent registration, but it was turned down.

House took the 25-cent fee provision out of the bill. So a House-Senate conference committee will have to settle this dispute. Another House amendment would require rural people and those residing in small towns to register every year, if they are over 60 years of age.

At present, these people are allowed to vote without registering at all.

Entire registration revision hinges on a constitutional amendment to repeal the poll tax. This bill, by Rep. Abraham Kazen of Laredo, passed the Senate, but is tied up in a House committee.

Governor For A Day
Sen. Martin Dies, Jr., wanted only a simple ceremony when his time came to be Governor for a Day. So he managed to hold the celebration down to a day of greetings in the governor's reception room in the Capitol.

But the simplicity of the event didn't keep the folks from coming to shake his hand and pay their respects. Among nearly 1,000 visitors were many relatives including the senator's well known father and mother from Lufkin.

More than 400 friends came all the way from East Texas in private planes and cars. Only side celebration was the traditional luncheon in the Governor's Mansion. It was attended by kinfolk of both Senator and Mrs. Dies.

Criminal Code Revision
The much-opposed revision of the State Criminal Code now has the approval of the District and County Attorney's Association, an endorsement by its president, Alton Griffin of Lubbock.

Endorsement applies to the House Criminal Jurisprudence committee's version of the State Bar Association's plan for streamlining the code. House version is so different from San Angelo Sen. Dorsey Hardeman's bill which passed the Senate, that it may be a long, hard fight for approval. And there's less than three weeks left in this session. It must end by May 27.

Mission For Migrants
Laredo Rep. Honore Ligarde told the House Appropriations committee that a program of basic education—grade school level reading, writing and arithmetic would be:

"One of the greatest bargains available to you today—the renovation of human beings in such a way that they cease to be a burden to the state and assume the dignified role of contributing taxpayers."

Libarde has introduced alternate bills to set up an educational program under the Texas Education Agency, through the urging of the Texas Committee on Migrant Farm Workers.

There are about 127,000 illiterate migrant farm workers in the state. In addition there are 800,000 other adults who rate as illiterates and who would also be eligible for courses if a plan is adopted.

For Men Only
Decision by Texas A&M's board of directors, to make the college coeducational provoked introduction of a House resolution against the board's decision. Also a bill designed to prevent entrance of females.

Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont introduced both measures.

1962 Voters' Registration
State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported a total of 2,020,183 voter registrations issued through January 31, 1963.

This included 1,654,805 poll tax payments and 365,378 exemption certificates, to be used in any elections held through January 31, '64.

Loving county issued the least poll tax receipts—90. Harris county the most—282,768

Teamwork Too Good?
Sen Murray Watson of Mart said the 58th Legislature is by-passing many major issues in its "mad rush" to adjourn by May 27.

He praised the teamwork of House and Senate, but said, "All this good teamwork and this great speed is fine and good, but in our mad rush to set records—to avoid controversial issues—and to adjourn within the 140-day period, we are overlooking many vital problems."

Sen. Watson said the Legislature "seemingly is avoiding any positive approach to the growing water pollution problem—to traffic safety, crime, delinquency, divorce and other problems relating to our society's health and welfare."

Business Activity Down Again
The seasonally-adjusted index of Texas business activity went down in March for the second month in a row, according to the Bureau of Business Research, which bases its index on the 1957-59 average.

Business in general in March was seven per cent below February's level and four per cent below that of March, 1962.

Only three cities—Beaumont, Tyler and Texarkana—showed increases. El Paso and Lubbock remained at their February levels, while other cities showed declines from two to 16 per cent.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Luck is still holding for livestock producers. Cases of worms being turned in to screwworm headquarters at Mission, Texas are not screwworm cases. This was true up until noon Tuesday, May 7th.

"Hot spotting" screwworm cases should continue with a good spray schedule out of the shearing pens. "Hot spotting" should continue with vigilance by all producers. This gives eradication officials time to get on top of the cases before more develop. Then too, herds or flocks can be sprayed where the case develops provided this has not already been done as well as herds or flocks in the immediate or surrounding territory.

I remember a prayer which impresses very much. God grant that I may live to fish until my dying day. And when it comes to my last cast I then most humbly pray When in the Lord's safe landing net—I'm peacefully asleep That in His mercy I be judged good enough to keep.

Twenty-seven Schleicher county wheat producers with less than 15-acre allotments, for the first time, may elect to participate or not participate in a national wheat program.

Among the provisions of the proposed 1964 wheat program were those covering the less than 15-acre allotments. Such a producer, if he desires to vote in the May 21 referendum and be eligible for price support and land diversion payment, must declare his intentions at least seven days prior to the referendum.

If the small producer files a written intention to participate in the program, thus becoming eligible to vote in the referendum, he obligates himself to participate if two-thirds or more of the nation's growers vote "yes." (All wheat producers, including the 15-acre man, will be under acreage allotment provisions.)

It should be pointed out if the less than 15-acre producer does not desire to participate in the program, he files no intention and will not be eligible to vote in the referendum. He will not receive certificates, price support or land diversion payments. However, such a producer still will be required to plant within his acreage allotment and his wheat must find a sale on the open market.

And finally, small growers of the county should not fail to file an intention at least seven days before May 21 if they would like to have the privilege of voting in the referendum.

The way some old folks are looking to others for guidance and help, you'd think they wanted their golden years to be lead ones.

Receiving a lot of mail lately from insurance companies on pension plans, policies of all sorts, accident, disabled while on the job, etc.? Here is the reason why: Tax-protected pension plan of the Internal Revenue seems to have opened up the insurance field. Before going overboard you may want to set up your own tax-protected pension plan, and invest while saving tax dollars.

To start a tax-protected pension plan, you will have to put it in writing in a formal document. You can't buy insurance or invest in the stock market and then claim all the tax advantages. Eventually, the Internal Revenue must okay the plan.

The limit to this plan is 10% of your earned income each year, but no more than $2,500.

The self pension plan should be studied. The safest way, consult a lawyer.

What you need in gardening is a cast-iron back, with a hinge in it.

Producers will be receiving from the Internal Revenue, form no. 2240 for 1963. This is your claim form for refund of federal tax on gasoline used on a farm or ranch. The refund rate is four cents per gallon. This claim will be allowed only if filed on or before September 30, 1963. Only one claim per year may be filed.

The period covered by this claim is from July 1, 1962 through June 30, 1963.

Should you not receive or overlook form 2240, call 22591 and a form and instructions will be mailed to you.

Poison Lurks In Flowers And Shrubs

On your next backyard cook-out, don't make your weenie skewer from an oleander branch. Even if your host offers you one peeled and sharpened, tell him politely but firmly: "Thanks, but no thanks."

The things are poisonous — leaves, limbs, flowers, bark and roots.

When a group of hunters suddenly sickened after broiling some steaks over an open fire, a doctor detected symptoms of digitalis poisoning. All disclaimed any connection with digitalis, a powerful heart stimulant.

But when the medico learned that oleander limbs had been used to skewer the steaks, he had his answer: oleander branches contain a poison which acts like an overdose of digitalis.

Chances are many of your backyard shrubs and flowers actually are masking powerful poisons behind a facade of beauty.

Of all plants grown in the average American home garden, an expert on plant poisons counted more than 100 which contained poison, some lethal. The same authority counted 54 harmful plants in a single issue of a seed catalog.

A dime package of castor bean seeds, for example, packs a poisonous punch sufficient to kill five children.

One tulip bulb contains enough poison to kill a man. And sweet peas, although seldom fatal, are poisonous enough to keep a victim bedridden for weeks with a form of paralysis.

A poison in elephant ears, so plentiful in Texas, causes a painful swelling and itching of the mouth, tongue and throat when chewed. A growth called "dumb cane" gets its name from the fact that when chewed it causes tongue swelling to the point that speech is impossible.

Admittedly there are few actual deaths attributed to eating poisonous plants. But the potential is always there. And your guess is as good as anyone's as to how much disabling illness is caused by backyard foliage.

Besides the ones mentioned, here's a partial list of the most common poisonous plants. Poisonous parts are indicated in brackets: Monks hood (all parts), water hemlock or poison hemlock (all parts), larkspur (foliage), fox glove (foliage), Christmas rose (roots), mountain laurel (all parts), golden chain (seeds), all species of rhododendron (foliage), wild black cherry (dried foliage).

Free Rodeo To Highlight Boys Ranch Field Day

Visitors to the 5th annual West Texas Boys Ranch Field Day set for Saturday, May 11, will be in for something all new in the way of entertainment.

Plans are now being completed by the young ranch hands to put on one of the wildest junior rodeos ever staged at the ranch. The show will be free.

Freddie (Pancho) Granado, Fort Stockton boy who has been at the ranch eight years and Marfa boy Lawrence Scott are co-chairmen of the boy's rodeo.

Both youths, experienced steer and bull riders, say they have a fine show all lined up. "It's the boys' show," said ranch resident superintendent K. W. Howell.

"They are working really hard on lining up their events. It will be a real crowd pleaser I think," added Howell.

Howell said a number of the boy ranchers have competed in junior rodeos around West Texas. "They are experienced and know what crowds like. I know I'm not going to miss it." Scott was named outstanding sportsman at last year's junior rodeo at Fort Stockton.

The rodeo will begin at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, May 11. It will climax the annual field day activities. Featured speaker of the day will be Maj. Gen. J. Earl Rudder, president of Texas A&M College, a distinguished Texas citizen-soldier.

Rudder, a native West Texan, was one of World War II's most decorated Army officers. He led a U. S. Ranger detachment up steep cliffs overlooking one of the invasion beaches in France when American and British troops first assaulted Europe from landing craft which had crossed the English channel. His detachment, sustaining heavy casualties, wiped out German coastal artillery. Rudder also was wounded in the action.

The field day, one of the year's major events at Boys' Ranch, located 17 miles west of San Angelo at Tankersley, will begin at 10 a. m. and continue until 4 p.m.

Rudder will address the field day visitors at 12:30 p.m. A barbecue dinner will be served at 1 p.m. Tickets to the barbecue are $1 per person.

The field day was started five years ago when San Angelo implement dealers and others all pitched in with equipment to help the ranch with farming and brush clearing projects. It quickly grew into an annual event.

Projects planned this year include digging a trash pit, raking root plowed brush, digging a septic tank for a new ranch sewer project and dozing trees.

Ranch board president Roy Minner of Midland said more than 1,000 persons are expected to attend the field day.

The local West Texas Boys' Ranch directors are J. C. Ratliff and Charlie Trigg, both of Eldorado.

Miss Ila Mae Young of San Angelo is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Doyle and family are moving back to Eldorado from Ozona and will be at home in the Gannaway house vacated about the first of February by the Bailey Rogers family.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

Tea syrup will be new to most of you. It was to me and I was glad to know about it. It is what the name says, a concentrated tea which has been sweetened. It is handy, always ready to use, never clouds and keeps in the refrigerator for a week or two.

Make up a recipe, try it and I think that you will be so glad not to have to worry with tea leaves at every meal that you will keep a jar on hand all summer.

Tea Syrup

2 quarts water
2/3 cup tea
Bring water to boil, remove from heat and add tea. Let tea steep about 5 minutes. Strain. Add 4 cups sugar to tea concentrate while hot. Dissolve thoroughly. Makes 2 quarts. Leave out of refrigerator for 24 hours.

When ready to serve iced tea, fill glasses with ice and some water. Add tea syrup in the amount which suits your taste in tea. Too—you may want more or less sugar. But some sugar is needed, or else there is no syrup to it. This recipe is for those who drink sweetened tea; sorry about you others.

I am indebted to Mrs. Bill Moore for the recipe—by way of a mutual friend. The Moores have moved recently from Kerr county and we welcome them to Schleicher county.

The fried chicken camp is pretty well divided on the batter or non-batter method of frying. But nearly everybody agrees on batter for chicken fried steak. There has been a difficulty in getting good results consistently in batter fried meats; the batter sometimes has a tendency to stick to the pan, slip off or otherwise be hard to manage.

The U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has just released information on the subject of batters and even if you are of the non-batter school, it is good to know.

To Make Batter Stick Better

Does your fried chicken have a nice crispy crust or does the coating come off during frying?

Food scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture say there's a trick to making the batter stick. Instead of rolling the uncooked chicken in the batter, cook it first. Then dip the fried pieces in batter and fry them in deep fat just long enough to brown and cook the coating.

Helen Hanson and Lorraine Elliott of USDA's Western utilization research laboratory at Albany Calif., found this method worked well with commercial frozen fried chicken.

Although the Agricultural Research Service tests were made with commercial frozen products, the method should work equally well with meats cooked in the home and served immediately.

In case you wondered, here's why the batter tends to come off when it's applied before the chicken is cooked: Chicken parts lose about one-fourth of their weight during frying—from evaporation of moisture. When raw pieces dipped in batter are cooked, the batter coagulates before the meat shrinks. Then the shrinkage and pressure from steam cause a loose-fitting coating that peels readily.

The scientists also found that dredging the meat in flour or some other thickener before dipping it in batter does not reduce this peeling. The thicker the coatings are, the more readily they peel.

Starchy thickening ingredients have only a slight effect on the color of the coating, and they make little difference in how well the coating sticks to the meat. Egg content also had little effect on adhesion, but it did add color to the batters.

Home Demonstration club women of Schleicher county were well represented at Fredericksburg on May 1 on the occasion of the annual district meeting. Twenty-one counties were represented by more than 250 women and 11 were from Schleicher.

Mrs. Bascom Hartgraves, THDA chairman for the county, and Mrs. Roy Boynton, council chairman, went, and Mrs. Ruth Williams, Mrs. Billy Jack Reynolds, and Mrs. Hollis McCormick attended as elected delegates. Miss Connie Spence, Mrs. Leo Prater, Mrs. L. Moore and Mrs. Bethel Jeffrey were convention guests.

Fredericksburg is by nature a friendly town but on the meeting day they were overflowing in hospitality. And as they used to say in the olden days, "a tired but happy group" got home at about sundown.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Spence of Bryan, Texas, have moved to their ranch in Schleicher county and will be citizens here until October first when they will return to Bryan.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Granberry and daughter Cindy of San Antonio were here from Sunday until Wednesday to be with her mother, Mrs. Vernon Carroll, when she underwent surgery Tuesday morning.

Mrs. George Cales of Odessa spent Monday and Tuesday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson and other friends in Eldorado, but was called to Lubbock Tuesday night by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Jas. Morris, and could not stay the rest of the week as she had planned.

Workers Conference

The Concho Valley Workers Conference will be held at the Fort Concho Baptist church in San Angelo next Tuesday night, May 14, with WMU and Board meetings being held at 5:45.

The emphasis this month will be on music. After the supper, which will be served at 6:45, conferences for the music departments will be held starting at 7:30. Afterwards a general conference entitled What Music Means to the Church will be held and a sermon in song will be presented.

Announcement by Albert Thomas of Houston that he plans to retire next year, has given rise to a new look at the line-up of Texans in Congress. Thomas, a veteran of 26 years in the House, ranks third (along with Bob Poage) in delegation seniority, and fourth in seniority on the powerful Appropriations Committee. George Mahon of Lubbock ranks second on Appropriations.

Because of committee seniority both Mahon and Thomas are ranked among the most influential members of the House. Thomas, chairman of the Sub-Committee on Independent Offices, handles appropriations amounting to some $4 billion per year. He is known here as a hard taskmaster who insists upon the agencies justifying every dime they spend, although in general he likes to line up with the party leadership on partisan issues. By and large, he is rated a valuable member from the standpoint of the taxpayers.

With Albert's retirement, I will then be fourth in our 23-member delegation seniority rating. Wright Patman of Texarkana is first, with 35 years of continuous service. George Mahon will be second, with 30 years, and Bob Poage of Waco will be third with 28 years.

There has been quite a turnover in the Texas delegation during my 21 years here. When I was first elected in 1942, the delegation had reached its peak of influence, sparked by an impressive array of members who were widely recognized for seniority and statesmanship. Looking back, there were such powerful figures as Hatton Sumners of Dallas, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, an independent who wielded tremendous influence in behalf of Constitutional law and good government. Fritz Lanham of Fort Worth, also a committee chairman, belonged to the old school of southern gentlemen. He voted independently and was highly respected. Joseph Mansfield of Columbus, chairman of the committee on Rivers and Harbors, was likewise one of the most respected and influential members in the House. Then, there was Ewing Thomason of El Paso, a ranking member on military Affairs and likewise highly regarded. Luther Johnson of Corsicana was a tower of strength, serving on the Foreign Affairs Committee. Paul Kilday of San Antonio was just beginning to develop stature which later made him one of the most effective members of the House.

Milton West of Brownsville was one of the real solid pillars in the conservative cause, along with Dick Kleburg, El Gossett, Sam Russell and Martin Dies. Dies at that time Chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee was an orator and a thorn in the side of the communists and the liberals.

Sam Rayburn, the Speaker, busied himself with the promotion of the party, although at that time his influence with the members of the Texas Delegation was not felt as much as later in his career. In general, Texans in those days were much more independent than were many of their replacements who succeeded them.

LEE'S DRIVE-IN

Lee Halbert

By Dayton Kelley
Mary Hardin-Baylor College
Belton, Texas

Just 100 years ago on May 19th, the name of Waul's Texas Legion went down in history as one of the finest fighting units of the Confederacy. On that date, General U. S. Grant's Union forces surrounding the besieged city of Vicksburg managed a breach in the Confederate line guarding the approaches to the strategic river port and were hurled back by several men of General (then Col.) Thomas N. Waul's Texas Legion.

On May 19 in Greenville, that feat will be commemorated when a state marker is unveiled at the site of the last home of General Waul, "Cherry Hill," where the general died in 1903.

The official report of the general commanding the defenses of Vicksburg, General Stephen D. Lee, lauds the Texas Legion and its commander for their determined attack upon the Union breach which repulsed the invaders and took a number of prisoners:

"At about 10 a.m. . . . a gallant assault was made upon our works from the right of my position to the extreme left of our line on the river. The assault upon my front was a determined one, but was handsomely repulsed with considerable loss to the enemy. They succeeded, however, in carrying an angle of the work immediately to the right of the railroad, and in planting two colors upon the parapet which remained there several hours. The angle was finally assaulted and carried by a gallant band of Waul's Texas Legion under the command of the intrepid Lieut. Col. E. St. Pettus, 20th Alabama Regiment. This brave officer assisted by Major O. Steele and Captain L. D. Bradley of the Legion, and the heroic Texans, captured the colors of the enemy and about fifty prisoners including a lieutenant colonel. A more daring feat has never been performed during the war. All the troops under my command behaved well during the assault and inflicted severe loss upon the enemy. Waul's Texas Legion particularly distinguished itself under its brave Colonel. Col. T. N. Waul commanding Texas Legion, by his dashing gallantry and coolness, inspired everyone around him with confidence and handled his Legion with skill."

W. Walworth Harrison, curator of the Hunt County Historical Society who is mainly responsible for planning the ceremonies dedicating the marker at the Waul home, has brought together a distinguished collection of materials relating to Gen. Waul. Much of the material came from a niece of Gen. and Mrs. Waul whom Harrison found living in Fort Worth. Among the papers is a letter which Waul wrote to his wife in 1862 from Camp Waul, the training camp where his Legion was encamped and preparing itself to go to the battlefield.

In his letter, Waul calls his Legion one of the finest units he has ever seen and gives an insight into the life of Confederate soldiers preparing for battle. Later they were sent to Mississippi and participated in the battle of Vicksburg. They were captured when the city fell on July 4, 1863, paroled and returned to Texas to participate in the Red River Campaign in Louisiana in 1864.

We plan to be on hand in Greenville on May 19 for the marker ceremony at the Waul home and will give readers a report on the activities there.

The hero of Vicksburg, at least as far as the Union was concerned, was Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, the commander of the Federal armies. With the capture of the Confederate city, Grant's fame was assured and the fate of the Confederacy sealed. One of the most penetrating biographies of General Grant, (and there are dozens of such biographies) is W. E. Woodward's "Meet General Grant" published by the Liveright Publishing Corporation in its Black and Gold series of reprints.

Miss Deanne Hext, a junior in Eldorado High school and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granvil Hext, was First Alternate when Jo Ann McKenzie from Buchanan Dam was named queen of the District 2-A1, Lions International, Saturday night in a contest featuring 33 pretty girls representing Lions clubs from throughout West Texas.

The Queen's Contest was the highlight of the annual 2-A1 convention which was held at Midland last week end.

The judges' identity was kept secret during the day-long judging and while the girls were presented at a noon luncheon at the Scharbauer hotel, a tour of a Midland home, the Midland Country club and the Robert Lee High school was taken by others, and the governor's reception was held at the Ranchland Hill Country Club before the actual contest which was held in the Midland High School auditorium. The girls were coached by Mrs. Charles Caldwell, a charm school director at Midland.

Mrs. Caldwell also reviewed the book, "Forty-Odd" at a tea held for the women in the First National Bank Room on Sunday at 3:00 p.m. which the women and contestants thoroughly enjoyed.

The governor's banquet was held at 7:00 p.m. Sunday at the Scharbauer hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Granvil Hext and Deanne and Bill Rountree attended service at the First Baptist church in Midland Sunday morning while attending the Lions convention.
