Stores To Be Open Some Offices To Close Mem. Day

Monday, May 30th, is designated nationally as Memorial Day, and as such is a holiday for all federal offices. This means that the post office will be closed all day along with other offices such as the A.S.C. and Soil Conservation.

Mail will be put up in boxes and the outgoing mail run will be made about 10:00 a.m., as on a Sunday. Court house offices will be closed that day.

Eldorado stores, however, will in general be open to serve the public on Monday. Since the parachute meet will be going on, cafes, grocery stores, and service stations will be serving more people than usual.

Business houses and residences should fly the Flag on Memorial Day and it should be at half-mast until noon.

Little League Season To Open June 7th

Coach Ray Morgan, who will be in charge of the Little League program, has completed rosters of the three Eldorado teams, the White Sox, Tigers and Red Sox, and is expecting a roster from the Christoval Cougars. All will appear in these columns next week.

Wayne Black and Fred Case will be manager of the White Sox; Pete Peters will manage the Tigers, and John Murr and H. Nixon will be in charge of the Red Sox.

The season opens on Tuesday, June 7 with a double-header, with White Sox and Tigers in the first game, and Red Sox and Cougars in the second.

Morgan reports that an attempt again will be made to organize a Pony League for boys from 13 to 16 years of age. Jack Halbert, Jr., has volunteered to work with the group provided another will volunteer to help. Boys wishing to join this league may contact the coach at school.

Farm League

All boys 8 to 9 years of age who are in the Farm League program are asked to report to the school tennis courts on Monday, June 6 at 10:00 a.m., for organization into teams. These games are on Friday nights at 6:00 o'clock before the Little League games. Two managers are needed for this league.

Road Job Is On

The Texas Highway Department has commenced a new construction project on R. M. Highway 2596 in Schleicher county, from 11.4 miles southeast of Eldorado, southeast 6.4 miles. The construction consists of grading, structures, base and surfacing. It will be completed by October 1966.

R. A. McCulloch, Supervising Resident Engineer, of Sonora, in charge of construction on this project, stated that traffic will be routed through construction for only 1/4 mile. Although adequate barricades and warning signs will be prominently displayed, motorists should use extreme caution while passing through the area as it will be heavily traveled by large construction equipment. Cooperation of the public is requested in obeying all warning signs.

Absentee Voting Is On

Absentee voting for the Second Democratic Primary which comes up June 4th, started Wednesday morning in the office of J. P. Enochs, county and district clerk. Sixteen voters started off the morning.

Persons who plan to vote absentee, must do so either this week or on Tuesday, the deadline day. On Monday, the court house offices will be closed for Memorial Day.

SUMMER READING CLUB

From Wednesday, June 1, any child may begin his reading for the book club at the county library. Each reader will read 12 books on his level and thus earn a reading certificate from the State Library. Books of travel, novels, adventure, biography and mystery are included on this list.

We hope every child in Schleicher county will do some reading during the summer. The reading club dates are June 1 to August 31. —Ruth Baker, librarian.

Hundreds Expected Here For Sky Diving Event

Post Script

Again this week, the Success is saluting the Eldorado High grads with more photos and write-ups, and historical highlights concerning the class. This issue is a companion to the one for last week and we urge all classmates and their friends to save the copies to refer to in years ahead.

Just looking them over will bring back many memories of your years in the local schools, and you will be proud of the years you spent here. Also, you will be reminded of the noteworthy news events that were going on in Eldorado when you graduated.

The Class Prophecy and the Class Will are included.

The grads received diplomas in the Commencement Exercises Tuesday night; parties were held in the Memorial Building and other places, so the classmen by now are "on their own."

Some of them will start right into summer school at the colleges of their choice, while others will work this summer and begin their courses in the fall.

Now, we can look forward to the parachute meet coming up this week end.

No Vacation From Voting

"Summer soldiers" and "sunshine patriots" threaten to dictate the election results June 4 by their conspicuous absence from the polls over Texas. That's that day of the Second Democratic Primary or run-off, over the state.

A poor voter turnout could mean that a very small minority of Texas citizens choose the candidates who will be governing all the citizens.

The June primary falls in vacation season and lots of voters may take a vacation from their duty as citizens as well as from their work.

Absentee voting for the second primary began May 25th, and continues through this coming Tuesday, May 31st.

An exhortation to vote merely for the sake of voting is inadequate. It needs to be amplified with the reminder that voters should thoughtfully consider the candidates and the issues and cast an INFORMED vote.

With one major state office—

Attorney General—at stake and local races, Texans cannot afford to take a vacation from voting without paying a price in loss of freedom for which no installment re-payment plan can be devised.

Here in Schleicher county, we have two races in the run-off: County Judge, and Commissioner of Precinct 4.

The McEwens have a sale under way in their Used Furniture Store on South Main. Details are in their ad elsewhere in this issue.

El Dorado Woolens here is rapidly becoming a tourist and educational attraction for delegations on travels around Texas.

Last Friday, 42 members of a Home Demonstration Club from San Saba spent the larger part of the morning going through the plant and watching its many operations.

According to Joe Ed Spencer, a number of other groups have made appointments for conducted tours through the mill.

Dean Browning arrived here from Lubbock about three weeks ago to operate Johnny's Barber Shop. Last Thursday he called at our shop and asked for his advertising bill, paid it and announced he was closing up and moving back to Lubbock.

We make mention of this as a compliment to Mr. Browning. All of us long-time businessmen are familiar with the person who moves in, stays a short time, and quietly moves away, leaving his bills behind.

Too bad there wasn't enough business to keep Dean here. He should make a good citizen in some city.

Bennie Patton and David Cavness moved to the Johnny's Barber Shop location where they are now operating. The establishment will now be known as "Bennie's Barber Shop."

If you are one of the many people who gets this paper late Wednesday, you are reminded to tune in on Channel 8 television at 7:00 a. m. Thursday morning. Ben Keel has been given a spot on the Farm & Ranch program to publicize Eldorado's Sky Diving Event.

Mr. Keel also told me to put this information in the paper:—"There will be a mobil control tower in operation from Albuquerque FAA controlling air traffic on Sunday and Monday on 118.3 MC, Eldorado unicom 122.8 MC."

It's all Greek to me, but that is what he said.

Trophies which will be awarded in the Sky Diving Event arrived this week and Ben Keel has placed them on display in four business houses— Hext Foods, the Drug Store, the Bank, and Ratliff dry goods.

Suppose it happened like this: Fred Gunstead found a ten-dollar bill in an alley on his way back from the post office.

He paid it to Skeet Mace at the lumber yard for sheet rock; Skeet paid the ten dollars to Calk's drug store for a prescription;

Calk's wife paid it to a beauty shop for a permanent; and she paid it to Roy Phelps for merchandise at Western Auto.

Roy paid the ten dollars to James Williams for seat covers. James paid it to Fred Gunstead for office supplies.

Gunstead presented the bill at the bank for deposit. Raymond Hall looked at it critically and pushed it back, declaring it counterfeit.

Who lost? Today, May 26th, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whiteley have been married for 65 years.

It was on May 26, 1901, that Ida Clevenger became the bride of J. C. Whiteley in Mason county. They have lived here since 1940 and he is a retired blacksmith.

Their family will have a get-together on Sunday, June 5th, to honor the Whiteleys on their anniversary, although the actual date is today.

We will have further details next week. In the meantime, all Schleicher county people extend congratulations to the couple on this significant occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Etheredge returned Tuesday night from a trip to Virginia. They also visited several points of interest between here and there.

Eldorado is making plans for a large influx of visitors Sunday and Monday for the Invitational Sky Diving meet being sponsored by the local Legion Post, and directed by Ben Keel, who has ram-rodged the show.

Invitations were recently sent to all of the 26 parachute clubs in Texas and some adjoining states and between 50 and 75 jumpers are expected.

This meet, the only one of its kind in West Texas, has been extensively advertised with posters displayed in cities within a 200-mile radius, and has been given publicity on radio stations and on TV.

Contests

The individual events will have contestants executing two jumps, leaving the plane at 3,500 feet above the ground with 10-second delay after leaving the plane before opening their chutes.

They'll be aiming at a cross placed within a 100-foot circle, said Keel, with both jumps counted toward championships.

NoVICE class is for contestants with 30 or less jumps, intermediate for persons between 31 and 80 jumps and advanced for more than 80 jumps.

The three-man team class involves jumps from 4,000 feet above the ground, each man opening his chute immediately after leaving the plane. Composite scores will be counted.

Trophies and merchandise prizes will be given for first, second and third places in each category.

In addition to actual competition, Keel said some demonstration veteran chutists. Also at least four jumps will be executed by aircraft manufacturers will have planes on display at the airport.

The Little League diamond will be used by jumpers for packing their parachutes, and the park area will be location for concession stand. There will also be a concession stand near the target area.

The target area has been definitely located on a Ruth Williams field directly south of the football field where parking will be available for a large number of cars.

Officials

According to Ben Keel, the program calls for registration of contestants and practice jumps on Saturday, May 28; followed by competition on May 29th and 30th.

Meet director will be R. G. Fitzgerald of Odessa; chief judge will be Bob Haulsey of Amarillo; associate judge, John Christoff of Wichita Falls.

On Monday, from 11:45 to 12 noon a Memorial service will be held at the park which will be concluded with the sounding of Taps.

Stores To Be Open

Restaurants and food stores in Eldorado are laying in extra supplies in preparation for hundreds of visitors expected here for the two-day Sky-Diving event, Sunday and Monday.

While Monday is Memorial Day, and designated as a holiday, it will be observed as such only by local Federal offices. The post office, the A.S.C. and Soil Conservation offices will be closed, but practically all retail stores will be open. A quick check yesterday with proprietors of Hext Foods, Parker Foods, Drug Store and variety store, assured us that all of these establishments will be open for business on Monday. Others are expected to follow suit.

Swimming Pool To Be Open The swimming pool, located in the park area, will be open on Monday afternoon, to provide amusement for children.

El Dorado Golf Club To Elect Officers The El Dorado Golf Club has set a meeting for Monday, June 6th, for the purpose of electing a president and a board of directors. It is scheduled to take place on the putting green at the golf course at 7:30 p.m.

It is requested that all members be present at this time in order that an official organization may be established. All prospective new members are also invited to this meeting. Membership at the present time totals about 35 and is expected to reach 50 in the near future. The membership fee is $40 per year, which includes an adult and his family.

Fees for non-members using the course beginning June 1st will be 50c on week days and 75c on week ends. These charges will be collected by Farris Nixon who has been employed as custodian.

Fred and Flora Riley are in charge of swimming pool which is opening for the new season today.

Building Planned As Additional Facilities For County Park

Among the legal notices on page 4 in this issue appears a Notice to Bidders from the Commissioners Court asking for bids on construction of a new building for the county park.

The notice specifies a "concrete block building approximately 22x42 feet, to house concession and storage rooms to be located on the County Park property."

Additional information received from the County Judge reveals that the building will be located at the east end of the concrete slab which is located across the road from Little League park. He said the building will include two rest rooms, in addition to other facilities.

Included in the county park system at present are well kept lawns, picnic tables, swimming pool, Little League baseball and new golf course. The new building will fill a growing need for all of these activities.

Also, since it will be a public building it could be used as an official voting place in future elections if the need should arise.

Bids will be taken on June 13 and it is likely that local contractors will bid on the job.

S.C.S. Field Day Set Monday at Powell's

The local Soil Conservation District will be host to the Hill County Association of Soil and Water Conservation District Supervisors, Monday, May 30, at 9:45 a.m. on the James L. Powell Ranch, 24 miles east of Eldorado on Highway No. 29.

The program will start at 9:45 a.m. at the Powell Ranch, with coffee and registration followed by a short business meeting. Rudy Pederson will discuss Range Management, with emphasis on management in connection with brush control.

Prior to the noon hour, Norman H. Sachnik, with the Range Engineering Development Corporation, will explain to the group the work that has been done on brush control with various chemicals and new application techniques.

James L. Powell will provide a barbecue lunch for the group.

In the afternoon, the group will tour pastures and observe brush work that has been done and check results of the use of foamide method of chemical control.

Loan Approved For Housing Here

The two telegrams with this article reveal the latest in the series of steps and actions to provide Eldorado with some low-rental public housing units; promotion on the project has been under way for some time and approval of the $324,000 loan to the Housing Authority of the City of Eldorado paves the way for contract to be let in the future for the 24 units.

John Hodges, chairman of the Housing Authority, points out that negotiations have been under way for several months to purchase the half block of land just north of the First Christian church and an area north of the Boy Scout hall, to be the sites for the housing units.

A man from the Fort Worth office of Public Housing has inspected the locations and tentatively approved them.

Hodges also stated that no one is living on the sites at the present time, and that titles to them are up-to-date and clear, so there should be no delay in conveying title to the Housing Authority here as soon as the all clear is given from higher up.

The 24 housing units will all be built at the same time by a contractor, and 10 of them will be especially designed for the elderly.

Upon completion, the units will be rented to low-income people.

In addition to Mr. Hodges who is chairman of the Housing Authority, other members are: Kenneth Vaughan, vice chairman; and Clay Porter, Mrs. Domingo Pina and Carolyn Spencer, members. Mrs. Max D. Wilkins is executive director.

The Housing Authority was set up a number of months ago to promote public housing here. Many towns take about 2 1/2 years from the time the Authority is established until they have housing units ready for rental, but spokesmen for the local group stated that they expect to have work under way faster here on the units.

If all goes as planned, contract may be let and work may be under way by this coming Fall, or sometime after the first of the year.

The grads of Eldorado High who received their diplomas this week have had a lifetime which has spanned the immediate post-war years, through the Korean War, times of inflation, to our present day of the Vietnam War and the astronauts' beginning exploration of space.

In The Beginning

Back in 1947-48, when the class members were born, World War II had been over for two years and the fathers of many of them served in it. When The Class Gave The Jr-Sr. Banquet

The Junior Class of '65 honored the Senior class of '65 with the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom this past Saturday evening in the Memorial Building. The Juniors selected "Gone With the Wind" as their theme and set the main room as a Southern garden. The guests entered through a flower laden 14-foot canopy into the garden which was complete with wishing well, fountain, wrought iron furniture, bird bath and lighted flower boxes which extended completely around the walls and contained some 1100 flowers. At one end of the room was a mural of the plantation home and at the other a Mississippi River scene. The theme was carried out further in silver star streamers hung from the ceiling.

The Banquet featured ham, smoked turkey, and southern fried chicken. There were potatoes and green beans along with combination and congealed salads. Hot bread, tea and coconut ice cream balls completed the meal. The food was prepared by the Junior class mothers and was served buffet style. Guests were served by freshman girls dressed as negro servants. They included Misses Stella and Shirley Hubble, Sherry Yates, Chris Edmiston, Maggie Stockton, Libby Preston, Susan Mobley, Carol Casbeer, Maureen McCravey, and Billie Gayl Blaylock. Rusty "Rastus" Meador assisted the 104 guests as they entered and as they found their tables.

Miss Jackie Canada from Balinger provided organ music during the dinner hour and then provided two special numbers. Miss Canada is 13 years old and a recording artist. Mrs. Canada was also introduced.

Steve Blaylock gave the invocation. Sam Henderson, the junior class president, welcomed the guests and Richard Preston responded on behalf of the Seniors. Larry McGinnes introduced Miss Canada. Coaches Jack Bell and Jack Wilson are sponsors and room mothers include Mrs. L. D. Mund, Mrs. Sam Henderson, Mrs. Orval Edmiston, and Mrs. Billy Frank Blaylock. The student committee who planned the decorations were Kaye Harkey, Scott McGregor, Joan Doyle, Larry McGinnes and Marsha Mund.

Frank Trevino and his combo played for the prom which extended from 8:00 to 12:00.

The seven board members and their wives were present along with 17 faculty members and their husbands or wives. —May 6, 1965.

The Chamber of Commerce has put on the "Operation Sparkle" project of beautification.

'An Evening In Paris' Was Theme of Banquet

The Junior class members spent several days decorating the main room of the Memorial Building in a Parisian theme. A replica of the Eiffel tower, about 18 feet tall and made of wood, was at one end of the room, and paper awnings down both sides with quartet tables underneath carried out the "sidewalk cafe" effect.

After the banquet Frank Trevino and his Combo played for the dance. —April 28, 1966.

NOTEBOOK-PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

... its benefit to you

Economic development means developing all of the basic economic resources of a community or area to their fullest potentials, creating new wealth in the area and attracting wealth from outside the area. It CAUSES a higher standard of living for all of the people, making the community a better place to live, work and play. It PROVIDES improved community facilities, increases job opportunities, especially for the young people, and attracts new people to the town.

FIVE BASIC SOURCES FOR ECONOMIC IMPROVEMENT

—INDUSTRY—creates new jobs, utilizing and increasing the labor force's value to the community plus helping to share the tax burden for improved community facilities.

—TOURISM—adds wealth to the community that was created outside of the area, and makes a favorable impression on tourists as a good place to live. Tourists' dollars circulate many times within a community.

—AGRICULTURE—improvement of product yields and quality of products produced plus further processing of the products can add greatly to the economy of an area.

—NATURAL RESOURCES—developed in an area change and increase the wealth as well as providing job opportunities. Depletion of the natural resources can cause adverse effects on the economy.

—GOVERNMENT—local, state and federal institutions and agencies keep tax money in the area and in some cases, bring in additional wealth from the outside.

An object of a sound economic development program is to balance the economy of a community or area from all five sources. ATTENTION and EFFORT should be given to the ones which present the best possible chances for economic development and improvement. Attracting new industries, or the expansion of existing industries, usually provide an excellent opportunity for economic development.

Ask your WTU local manager for additional information and services available.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN
 by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

A well-kept lawn adds to the material value of a home and is a basic requirement for an attractive yard.

Care during the growing season will largely determine how well the lawn does. Important considerations for lawn care include fertilization, watering, mowing and weed control.

Two applications of a complete fertilizer, one in spring and the other 30 days before frost in the fall, are essential. The fertilizer should be applied at rates heavy enough to give two pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of lawn area. Nitrogen should be applied, one pound per 1,000 square feet, every 30 to 40 days during the summer. Lawn grasses require frequent feedings to remain green and vigorous throughout the growing season.

Water only when the grass needs
 it as indicated by slight wilting.
 Then soak the soil to a depth of six inches or more. This encourages a deep root system. It is best to water in the morning so the grass can dry before night. Less disease trouble will occur under this system.

Proper mowing makes for a thicker, healthier turf. Undesirable mowing can damage a lawn.
 Important factors in good mowing are height of the cut, frequency of mowing and mower adjustment. Mowing should be done on a regular basis and no more than one inch of grass should be removed at a time.

Bermuda lawns should be cut at one to 1 1/2 inches; San Augustine and bluegrass at a height of 1 1/2 inches. Keep the blade sharp so it will not bruise and shred the leaves and give the lawn an unattractive appearance.

The best defense against weeds in the lawn is fertilizer, proper watering and mowing so as to maintain a thick, vigorous growth of grass. Most weeds cannot compete with well managed lawn grasses. If weed problems are encountered, come by the office for a copy of B-203, "Home Lawns" and for other information on lawn care.

The trouble with success is that the formula is much the same as the one for a nervous breakdown.

Many ranchers consider the calf or lamb crop as the only crop produced on a ranch; by the time the calf or lamb crop or wool is ready to sell ranchers have already harvested a crop of grass.

This forage crop has some of the same characteristics of a wheat, milo, or cotton crop. It may be extremely good, an average or almost a failure. It could vary from an 8-year average of 1,053 pounds per acre to 1,488 pounds as high or to as low as 557 pounds per acre.

A rancher with stock must have a year round fed supply. In the county native pastures have a seasonal growing period of 180-220 days with rainfall averages 19.62" annually. Here, grass starts to grow with the first warm weather in spring and continues to grow until frost except set-backs by dry weather. There will be little or no production of forage during the winter season.

Since there is a direct relationship between the amount of forage left above the ground and the vigor of the root system in native grasses, and since old grass left on a pasture increases intake into the soil and decreases erosion, a part of the forage, production must be left on the pasture at the end of the season. This should amount to as much as 20% on improved watered pastures to 40-50% in a semi-arid climate and rainfall like Schleicher county.

Here is what happens, however:
 40-60% taken by cattle, sheep, goats, wildlife, 20-30% left at end of winter season and 20-30% lost to unknown causes. Some of the latter causes, hail, rains, rodents, insects, decay and other unknown causes.

The West, with its natural beauty, was won by men on horseback.
 Now it's being lost to men on bulldozers.

Cotton insect survey teams will begin work the second week in June and continue until the cotton crop is harvested. Both supplemental irrigation farmers and dry land farmers will be selected for insect surveys.

All producers will be served whether they paid into the Rolling Plains Cotton Association or not. The fee was .15 cents per bale; 57% of the money was collected by the association.

Reports of the insect situation will be immediately sent to producers weekly from the agent's office.

Money isn't everything, but it's the best substitute for credit.

On The Screen... Hold On, I Believe I've Seen This Divorce Before

Surely, somewhere back in the 1930's or 1940's we must have had a movie about the husband and wife who become divorced through a legal mixup, and the wife suddenly found herself joined in matrimony to the husband's best friend through another clerical fumble.

It sounds tailor-made for Roz Russell and Melvyn Douglas. It must have been called "Our Favorite Wife" or "His Wife Tuesday."

No matter. The important thing is that Warner Bros. has taken this premise in "Marriage On the Rocks" and come up with one of the year's freshest, no-problems comedies. It stars Frank Sinatra, in color, and comes Sunday and Monday nights to the screen of the Eagle Drive-In.

In "Marriage On the Rocks" there's an off-beat switch. Frank Sinatra, the swinger of all swingers as he is now past age 50, this time portrays the square—the advertising man so wrapped up in his business he has no time to romance his love-starved wife of 19 years, Deborah Kerr.

Dean Martin is the family friend, the bachelor with the girl-filled pad who lost Miss Kerr to Sinatra nearly two decades ago.

Cesar Romero scores heavily as an ambulance-chasing Mexican lawyer who arranges the hasty divorce, and the mistaken remarriage before a non-English-speaking preacher when Martin arrives in Mexico ahead of Sinatra.

Sinatra's newest discovery, Trini Lopez, is inserted for a go-go number, and The Leader's real life daughter, Nancy, plays Sinatra's screen daughter. It's a fun picture, worth seeing.

SUPPER HONORS MCGINNESSES

A covered dish supper Wednesday evening honored Mr. and Mrs. Albert McGinnes and family, as they are preparing to make their home at Sterling City where he is West Texas Utilities manager.

Albert has been on the job at Sterling City for a number of weeks. Mrs. McGinnes will join him there soon. Their son, Larry, was among the grads who received diplomas Tuesday night in the school auditorium.

Dr. Cavness Addresses This Year's Grads

Dr. Raymond Cavness, president of Angelo State College, was the speaker at commencement exercises Tuesday of this week, when the grads received their diplomas.

His topic was "Quality In Education". Dr. Cavness pointed out that these are times of "galloping change" and that the seeds of the future have been sown as the current grads reached this significant milestone in their educational careers.

High School Principal Guy Whitaker gave special awards, which included the salutatory award and American Legion award and the Bausch & Lomb science award, to Scott McGregor; also the Readers Digest and vaudeolectary award to Kaye Harkey.

Woman's Club Installs New Officers

Mrs. Arch Mittel, outgoing president of the Eldorado Woman's Club, served as installation officer at a luncheon held at the West Texas Cafe at noon on Tuesday.

Mrs. Mittel used a wheel to symbolize the club, with the president as the hub and the other officers as spokes of the wheel.

Mrs. Bascomb Hartgraves was installed as president to serve the year 1966-67. Mrs. R. D. Johnson will serve as 1st vice-pres.; Mrs. Vernon Rogers as 2nd vice-pres.; Mrs. W. A. Van Dusen as secretary; Mrs. C. N. Clark as treasurer; Mrs. Edwin Jackson, club counselor; Mrs. Arch Mittel, parliamentarian; and Mrs. W. N. Ramsay, historian.

The club's two jewels, Mrs. W. N. Ramsay and Mrs. Edwin Jackson, were honored at the luncheon. The club presented a book, Tell No Man, by Adela Rogers St. John, to the Schleicher County library in their honor.

Mrs. W. A. Van Dusen served as leader and brought the inspirational thought with a quotation from Emerson and by reading a poem.

A report of the work done during the year was given by each outgoing officer.

During the business meeting which was held before the luncheon, Mrs. M. H. Woodward was elected to active membership in the club. Mrs. V. G. Tisdale asked to change her membership from associate to active.

The newly-installed president, Mrs. Hartgraves, named the Calendar committee.

Sixteen members were present, including the new member, Mrs. Woodward. There was one guest, Mrs. R. L. Ballew.

Fly The Flag Right On Memorial Day

This coming Monday is designated as Memorial Day. It is an appropriate day for flying the Flag.

The Flag should be flown at half-mast until noon on Monday, Memorial Day. At noon, it is raised to full-mast by business houses and individuals.

Here are other regulations in regard to flying of our nation's Flag:

The following notice was submitted by request, from a Legion member, in regards to Memorial Ceremonies sponsored by the Bev McCormick Post of the American Legion.

If you fly your Flag, you should observe the following:

The National Flag should be raised and lowered by hand. It should be displayed only from sunrise to sunset, or between such hours as may be designated by proper authority.

Unfurl the flag, hoist quickly to the top of the staff. Lower it slowly and with dignity.

When it is to be flown at half-mast, the Flag should be hoisted to the peak for an instant and then lowered to the half-mast position; but before lowering the Flag for the day it should again be raised to the peak. On Memorial Day display at half-mast until noon only; then hoist to top of staff.

The Flag should never touch anything beneath it, such as the ground, the floor, water or merchandise.

Miss John Alexander, Flag chairwoman of the DAR El Dorado Chapter, is cooperating with the Legion in any way possible.

Democratic Delegates

At the recent County Democratic Convention held here, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Preston and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hartgraves were elected delegates to the State Democratic Convention which comes up later in the year.

Schleicher county is now allowed two votes at the State Convention, and the four delegates will have half a vote each.

Mary Lee Davis of Dallas spent last week end here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Davis.

Rites For Dennis Kellogg Held At Hamilton

Funeral services were held Monday in Hamilton for Dennis Lee Kellogg, father-in-law of Mrs. Charles Kellogg of Big Lake, who is the former Patsy Taylor of this place.

Bill Rountree had charge of a Soil Conservation program. He presented a plaque to George Humphrey as outstanding conservationist, and George Skeet of Water Valley gave a slide show and read a paper on, "Can Ranchers Adjust To Fluctuating Production?"

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

In April, Mrs. Jane Berry, Texas A&M University housing and home furnishings specialist, conducted a workshop for 16 Home Demonstration Agents of this district in San Angelo.

Mrs. Berry had many things to talk about and the most regrettable feature of the classes was that there was not enough time.

These were some points which were emphasized. You may get some new ideas, or be supported on some ideas of your own, on arranging furniture. These suggestions are as true when implemented in a room which already exists as in a new home which may be no more than a dream. They will work in either situation.

ETHEREDGE TEXACO Mr. and Mrs. Jack Etheredge

Before you rearrange your furniture, be sure you will not be sacrificing convenience or use of space.

There may be only one way to arrange the furniture in a room for the best use of the space you have.

Furniture arrangement need not follow a set pattern. Livability is the first and final rule. Think of the needs of different members of your family in each room as you plan a workable arrangement of your furniture.

Arrange the living room furniture so that comfortable seating and adequate lighting are provided for each member. Think in terms of groups that are usable and convenient, and not in terms of individual pieces.

Mrs. Berry suggests these guides for good furniture arrangement:

- 1. Keep traffic lanes open.
2. Place large pieces first, parallel to the lines of the room.
3. Balance the pieces in a group and each group on each side of the room.
4. Accent a center of interest.
5. Locate a good light in the proper place for each conversation group.
6. Plan an interesting and attractive group at the spot first seen as you enter the room.

Cheese is just about one of the finest foods we have available today. Rich in vitamins A, B, and B2, cheese is a protein rich food and is an excellent substitute for meat, eggs, poultry and fish.

In case you have forgotten, protein is one of the three classifications in which all food falls. The other two are fats and carbohydrates.

Meats of all kinds, cheese, dried peas and beans and eggs are our best sources of protein.

Protein is important too. Of course all food is important and don't ever think that a well nourished person can get along without the proper amounts of proteins, fats and carbohydrates. Protein helps children to grow, the sick to recover and keeps the well person supplied in enough strength to work.

I wish that the old notion away back yonder had never been started, the one that tagged cheese as hard to digest. Actually, today's medical science has found cheese is easily digested and quickly used by the body.

Cheese is a concentrated food and is best when teamed up with crackers, fruits or vegetables.

The flavor of cheese is affected by its time of aging, temperature, and moisture in storage. Mild cheddar is from 1 to 3 months old, medium cheddar is from 4 to 9 months old and sharp cheese is more than 9 months old. Aged cheeses cost more because of this extra cost of handling and storage.

Cook cheese at a low temperature. Cheese and eggs are sensitive foods. Treat them with respect and they are as easy to handle as they can be. But, like gangsters in a TV show—turn the heat up and they get tough!

And while I'm speaking of cheese—let me give you this recipe which is a cheese dish of much useability and fine taste. Simple to make too.

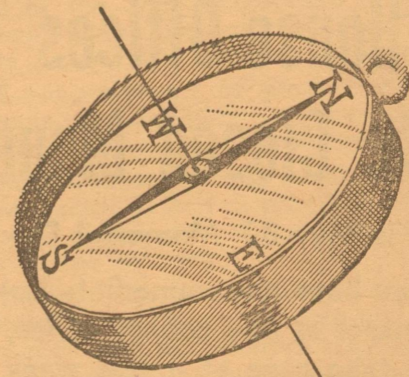

- Wood Chuck
In sauce pan melt:
2 tablespoons oleo or butter; stir in 2 tablespoons flour—add:
1 cup milk and juice from small can of mushrooms.
Over low heat stir and cook until thick. Add 1/2 cup Old English cheese or Cheese Whiz.
While sauce is cooking, saute in small amount of fat:
1 cup chopped celery
1 1/2 tablespoons chopped green pepper. Add celery and pepper to sauce. Add in order:
1 small can mushrooms
1 small bottle green stuffed olives
1 small bottle ripe, pitted olives
4 hardcooked eggs which have been diced.
Serve in toast cups, on toast squares or on hot Chinese noodles. Toast cups can be made by fitting sandwich sliced bread into large muffin pans and leaving in hot oven until cups are well set and slightly golden in color. Makes 8 servings.

Wood Chuck is one of those usable dishes which fits anywhere. For brunch or plain old lunch. For company or family. For fancy or for ordinary. For a buffet dish or something off the kitchen table, it's good.

This is an ideal dish to prepare ahead of time, by sections, I mean. Celery chooped, green pepper chooped, and set aside.

Sauce already measured out and ready to combine. Cheese measured.

Olives and mushrooms could be mixed. Hard cooked eggs could be diced and wrapped in waxed paper—ready to be added at the last minute. Nice thing about this is that it works:

Which Way Are You Going?

No matter where you go... what your plans for the future... you will be remembered as one of the outstanding groups of graduates ever!

Congratulations, Seniors

Mexican-U.S. History Traced As Lions Meet

Highlight of the Charter Night for the new Eldorado East Side Lions Club last Saturday was the address by Lion Frank Gonzales, of Lubbock and Mexico who spoke on "The Mexican-Texan Heritage." Lion Gonzales traced the history of the United States and Mexico for the past 400 years and stressed how religious liberty, the democratic form of government, and freedom for the individual had all contributed to the development of this country. The settlers from England landed on these shores in 1607 and 1620, but the Spanish followers of Cortez reached Mexico and other Central American countries about a hundred years earlier. While the English came to stay and settle, the Spanish came for gold and other treasure to exploit and take back to Spain. For three centuries Spain dominated Mexico, before that country won its freedom. Then for another century a series of dictators ruled. Only about 50 years ago did Mexico achieve the beginnings of a democracy. Lion Gonzales' address was well received by all present, and he was introduced by Deputy Dist. Gov. Armando Figueroa of San Angelo. Domingo Pina received the charter for the new club from Dist. Governor George Thompson of Sweetwater, and several other awards were given during the evening, including a rare Membership Award for Fred Watson, and Extension Awards for Ray Boyer and Armando Figueroa.

Democracy is the best form of government the genius of man has yet contrived. But it can't be wound up like a clock and left to run. Its successful operation is predicated on an alert, energetic, militant citizenship. An alert citizenship exercises the right to vote and June 4 is the run-off Democratic primary. Vote!

Senior Prophecy

After consulting our reliable Ouija Board, we, the Seniors of 1967 have clearly foreseen the future held in store for the Juniors of 1965.

Upon much prodding from his classmates, Wayne McGinnes finally decided to go into the motorcycle business. He now owns half interest in Dono's cycle shop.

Steve Blaylock has just been proclaimed Fisherman of the Year. He won his fame by capturing the largest catch of his career—a 110-lb., 35-22-35—Mermaid?

There is a new celebrity on the Ed Sullivan Show this week. Our own Jerry Stigler is doing his impersonations of a highway patrolman.

Upon completion of her Spanish Major at ASC, Jane Cain has returned to Eldorado upon request of a BELOVED teacher. Now she holds the distinguished position of Mr. David Leslie Wouillard's Private Secretary.

Due to the influence of some new friends made at the Broadmore Skating Rink, Elena Garza has decided upon an army career and joined the Wacs.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Henderson Jr. now run the Honeymoon Hotel in Colorado Springs. It is a very discreet place, located somewhere on an island, I think.

On completion of his 100-foot chain, Ronnie Griffin has received the 16-lb. keg of Draft Root Beer. Big Dum-Dum Griff, as he is affectionately called, is acclaimed as Ciudad Acuna's most daring-toreador?

Mrs. Allan Batson, formerly known as Lulu Geldard, is now employed as head cook at the mess hall at Ft. Polk, La.

Charlie Nixon, after spending 2 years in the State Penitentiary for taking a bubble bath in the public baby pool, was released last week. Before freeing him, the warden asked Charlie if he intended to "go straight." What was Charlie's reply? "I 'magine!"

News Flash! The women's pole-vaulting record has just been broken by Nancy Davis! Nancy won her position on the Olympic Track Team for her outstanding speed and agility.

We have received word that Joe Phillips has bought the Cosden Service Station. Lummy Jr., as Joe preters to be called, has greatly increased business by having belly dancers washing the windshields.

The Winner of the Soap-Box Derby in the Chicago slums is none other than our own Kaye Harkey!

After postponing her wedding for three years, Karla finally decided she should consult the Wise Old Owl to reassure herself that she was making the correct choice. What was the Owl's reply? "Hoot, Hoot, Hoot."

Replacing Bert Parks as Master of Ceremonies for the Miss America Pageant of 1969 is none other than debonair Scott McGregor! Scott qualifies for the job because of his lovely signing voice (?) and his eye for beautiful women. Between pageants, Scott lives quietly at home with—his dog Snip.

New York is anxiously awaiting the arrival of Sir James Franklin Belk, world-renowned big-game hunter. On his most recent safari, fearless Sir Belk bagged a black widow spider, two granddaddy long-legs, a rare 10-foot extremely dangerous specie of the garden snake, and, last but not least, the aerial off his jeep.

The Three Musketeers have just released a new comedy series called Danny's Ducks. The first production is entitled "The Ducks Who Couldn't Take a Joke."

Due to her love for the science of chemistry, Janee Lacy has spent years of research and written a book entitled "110 Ways to Bump Off a Chemistry Teacher."

Larry McGinnes is now the foreman of the Big S Ranch 14 miles out of Eldorado. Wonder how he got the job?

Toya Finley has just purchased the Big Tree Restaurant in Sonora. Mrs. French—Oh, I mean, Miss Finley, plans to convert the cafe into a Cowboy a Go-Go Club.

Because of his singing ability acquired and practiced on the Senior Trip, Joe Max Edmiston is now the choir director at Texas Tech.

Due to the excellent instruction received under Mr. Nelson, Jody Wagley has just accepted the position of Professor of Mathematics at Harvard.

Steven Mercer is now head cheerleader at Howard Payne. Just to keep in shape, Stevie also dances in the cage on Hullabaloo.

Instead of the daring red-head, the Brylcreem company has just contracted lively Beth McCalla to come out of the Brylcreem tube.

Eldorado Drug No. 2 has just opened on Pike's Peak. Who's the new manager? Why—it's Karen Corbell. It seems she's doing very well—after, all, it is Pike's Peak!

The Master of Ceremonies for I've Got a Secret, Maxie Delry, announces the line-up for the show next week. Joan Doyle promises to disclose to the listeners the true color of her hair. There seems to be some doubt as to whether or not Joan can even remember.

One of the highlights of the year 1975 was the crowning of Pope Fuzzy—I mean, Pope Phillip IV.

A celebration is being held in the Broadmore Hotel in Colorado Springs. It seems that "Cowboy" Bob Lester has returned to his old stomping grounds to celebrate his 103rd birthday.

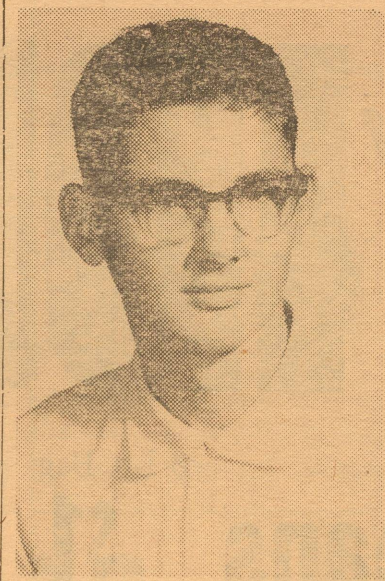

Vicky Shore has just replaced Ann-Margret in the leading role of "How to Stuff a Wild Bikini."

Marsha Mund, former basketball star, is the first women's referee. She received a citation for her superior refereeing in one particular game, where she threw 11 of the 12 Rocksprings players off the court.

Former coach, Tommy Sikes, now holds the high position of highway patrolman. "Mouse" Sikes is striving to decrease the number of traffic accidents between Eldorado and San Angelo, since he travels that highway quite regularly.

Coach Jack Bell has resigned as basketball coach at dear ole EHS and taken the position of head girls' basketball coach at Menard H.S., upon the insistence of his wife.

All joking aside, we will always remember the Seniors of '66, and cherish the memories that we have shared. Thank you, Seniors, for making our Junior year the success it was. Good Luck, Seniors, Good luck. —Jr. Class of '66.

PHILLIP MONTGOMERY

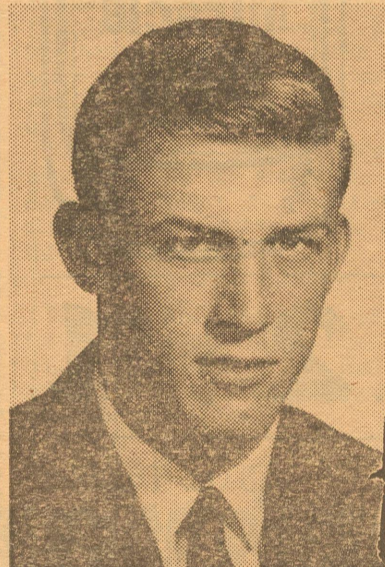

Last year and this year, Phillip has been in the F.F.A. He is also in the Spanish club and on the wool judging team. He has played football for the past three years and has also been on the basketball and track teams. He was in the Junior play and Senior play.

There's nothing nicer to have than a phone of one's own . . . no more thoughtful gift than a bright new STARLITE® color phone.

You'll like the little STARLITE phone too. It's only half the size of a regular phone, has a dial that lights in the dark and comes in 5 lovely decorator colors.

Just drop by and take one home—all wrapped for giving, and ready for installation right after the occasion. Or pick up one of our Telephone Gift Certificates and let the lucky person choose a favorite color. To save you trouble, we'll put the charge on your phone bill.
