Citizens Meet To Explore Water Exploitation

An interested group of about 40 local men met in the County Commissioners Court Room at 10:00 Tuesday morning to discuss the proposed water wells in the north part of Schleicher county to serve San Angelo, and whether this action would lower the water table in the Eldorado area.

Bob Bradley, geologist, gave a technical presentation of the water bearing formations which serve the Southwest Texas area.

Several said that "they want our water" and have hired some high-salaried promoters to push the project through.

A few residents and landowners of the Huldale area have been approached about selling their underground water.

Morty Mertz pointed out that about five years ago some legal notices were run for setting up a water control district for this county but the district was never designated as such by the Texas Water Commission.

A committee expects to go to Austin next Tuesday to meet with that group to see if such action can be taken. If so, a local water control district might enjoin the San Angeloans from drilling the wells.

Local promoters are also looking into other possible legal actions to prevent taking of our underground water.

Plans Set For Band Bake Sale

Mrs. Jerroll Sanders, president of Band Aides, has completed plans for the bake sale to be held just prior to Thanksgiving. The bake sale is necessary to help raise money for band expenses over the year.

The sale is set so that people may plan ahead for that Thanksgiving entertaining with goodies ordered in advance, and delivered by band members. A committee of band students will be taking orders or a call to Mrs. T. P. Robinson 853-2465, or Mrs. Clifford Schooley 2835 or Mrs. Bill Maness 2341 will enable the caller to select what they want and when they want it delivered.

Emergency Ambulance Service Now Set Up And In Operation With 15 Men

In a meeting last Wednesday night an ambulance service was officially organized for the purpose of providing ambulance service in emergencies.

Initiated by the Commissioners Court the meeting last Wednesday came as a result of five weeks work by the Schleicher County Foundation which took on the job as one of its initial projects in which their major task was in signing up enough members willing to serve as volunteers. The fifteen volunteers are:

- |                   |                 |
|-------------------|-----------------|
| Danny Barfield    | John Pitts      |
| Lawrence Dannheim | Kenneth Rosford |
| Elton McGinnis    | Jerrall Sanders |
| Kenith Homer      | J. C. Schooley  |
| Raymon Mobley     | R. V. Sheppard  |
| Phil Olson        | Pat Wester      |
| Cecil Pearce      |                 |
| Domingo Pina      | Buddy White     |

In order to function in a business-like manner, they elected officers, with R. V. Sheppard as president; Kenneth Rosford, 1st vice pres.; and Lawrence Dannheim as 2nd vice pres. The name of the organization will be "Schleicher County Emergency Service."

Regular, but brief, meetings will be held each week in the Legion hall at 6:30 on Wednesdays.

In the event of an emergency call, the members will report in pairs. For instance, if a call should come in on Thursday, Nov. 5th, John Pitts and Domingo Pina would respond.

If the call came on Sunday, Nov. 8th, Pat Wester and Buddy White would serve.

A type-written duty roster is being posted in the Sheriff's office, and in the hospital.

Everyone should understand that this service is what its name implies—it is strictly an emergency service—not a taxi service. In fact, a charge for its services was set up in their first meeting as follows:

- $10.00 for call inside city;
- $15.00 for call in the county;
- $25.00 for call to Sonora;
- $35.00 for call to San Angelo.

4. Three Eldorado Eagles deserve commendations for capturing Bangs forward passes last Friday night. They were Ricky Griffin, Terry Clingan, and Victor Belman.

5. Oscar Martinez distinguished himself last Friday night by good and consistent play; but once when Ricky Griffin intercepted a Dragon pass and was on his runback, just before a Dragon was about to tackle him, Martinez laid the Dragon definitely low with a devastating shoulder block in most effective as well as spectacular fashion.

6. Senior Walter Speck, strong Eagle defensive lineman, suffered keen disappointment last Friday night. He had to sit out the Dragon contest with infected tonsils.

Let's Hope For Good Weather Friday

As the Eagles prepare to meet the Sonora Broncos here Friday night, they and their fans hope for better weather than we had two years ago, the last time we hosted the Broncos.

It was Friday, Nov. 8th, 1968, and that game too was designated Homecoming. A big turnout was expected.

Early in the day, we had a cold, icy rain to fall accompanied by a norther. There was also a light snowfall, the earliest of the Fall in the memory of most local residents. San Angelo had two inches of snow and Midland and Abilene had four inches each. Hazardous road warnings were issued for the area north of us.

But the game was held as scheduled, with a somewhat smaller crowd. We lost to Sonora 7 to 0, and Lisa Whitten and Randy Yates were crowned band and football sweethearts.

Golf Exhibition And Clinic Set In Sonora

Miss Lee Spencer, Member of Ladies P. G. A. from San Antonio, Texas, will be in Sonora on Saturday, November 7th for an Exhibition and Clinic. The Clinic will begin at 10:00 a.m. with the following schedule:

- Demonstration of all clubs and their use, trick shots, etc.
- Question and answer session.
- Group work with individuals as demonstrators.
- Lunch break at 11:30.
- 1:30 p.m. Nine hole playing exhibition. Players will be Miss Spencer, J. W. Neville and George Johnson.
- 3:00 p.m. Graph-check photos. Miss Spencer will take sequence photos of anyone's golf swing (8 pictures). The price for these pictures and a written critique will be $3.00.

This exhibition and clinic is a rare opportunity for our local golfers so you are urged to participate in this event. You may gallery the nine hole playing exhibition if you so desire. Miss Spencer is a teaching pro and features lessons with the multi-lens swing camera.

It doesn't matter how you look at it; but tomorrow night's football game between the Eldorado Eagles and the Sonora Broncos is a continuation of the same old "one waterhole two-herds and the shoot-out" story. The District 9A championship is up for grabs and tomorrow night's winner just about has it gift wrapped and ready to go. The loser will have in all probability full claim to second place 9A honors. Too much emphasis on winning makes second place an empty honor. It should not be that way.

Last game on Sonora's schedule is tough Robert Lee and the finale for the Eagles is Menard.

Coach Sherwood Barker of Eldorado says that in his opinion Sonora has a better team than it had even when the Broncos won State Championships and when they were regional champions as well.

Eldorado's Eagles are definitely the challengers and underdogs also. But then they have been underdogs before this current season and they have demonstrated their ability to rise to the challenge.

Sonora's Coach Jerry Hopkins will field a formidable squad composed of 14 seniors, 12 juniors, three sophomores, and one freshman. The Broncos are big, strong, and are a well balanced team whose only loss to date has been to Class AA Ozona in their annual "grudge" contest last October 2. That one was a close 14-12 "hair raiser" in Ozona's favor.

Eagle Coach Sherwood Barker

stated in the information he has provided the Eagles that the Broncos mottos potent methods of attack are the forward pass, first; cutbacks, second; and counter plays, third; and, if the Eagles hope to win, they must successfully oppose those three types of Sonora attacks.

The Broncos starting offensive lineup is as follows:

No.	Name	Pos.—Wt.—Class
81	Richard Bernal	LE 170 Jr.
76	Scott Shurley	LT 200 Sr.
60	Tony Renfro	LG 175 Sr.
51	Ben Snodgrass	C 155 Sr.
65	Kerry Jay	RG 180 Sr.
74	Gene Trainer	RT 185 Jr.
82	Mike Taylor	RE 165 Jr.
40	Arn. Sammaniego	LHB 140 Sr.
41	Scott Jacoby	RHB 155 Sr.
32	Milton Noel	FB 160 Jr.
10	Eddie Sutton	QB 155 Sr.

The Broncos for the past several years have employed variations of "Wing-T" offensive formations.

Their QB, Eddie Sutton, is an adept ball handler and excellent passer. Their backs, Jacoby and Sammaniego, are tough, strong and fast. Their fullback, Milton Noel, carries a good percent of the time and is fond of "running over" would be tacklers.

Scouts rank the Bronco right end, Mike Taylor, as probably the best pass receiver in West Texas. The other end, Richard Bernal, plays close to the tackle as a blocker but is a good receiver himself who often finds open areas in opposing secondary defenses.

The Bronco line is made up of capable blockers and hard hitting tacklers. Their defensive posture is a five-man line with Senior Jim Cade as the roving defender or "monster." He is one of three secondary defenders. In the line, the Broncos employ No. 62, 155-pound senior Willie Gutierrez at right end and No. 52, 170-pound junior Ricky Hill at left end. Both are outstanding. The Broncos move in No. 20, Ricky Street, at left half-back with the safety position filled by a superb defender against passe sparticularly; he is No. 44, 140-pound senior Sammy Perez.

Although not so deep in reserve strength, a group of dauntly and unafraid Eagle veterans will man the forward defenses against the Broncos. Lads like Roy Jones, Dobbie Lively, Gary Danford, Walter Speck, Charles Adams, Robert Hibbits, Oscar Martinez, and Jerry Baty don't "scare" and will have to be completely overpowered to stop their potent defensive efforts. As backup men, both Fiery Bob Whitten and Billy Doc Hubble look across offensive sets without trepidation.

Terry Clingan, Victor Belman, Keith Williams, and Ricky Griffin will rove the areas behind the Eagles' first line defenses. They too have seen some dangerous forward passes and stopped some running backs before. Jimbo Overstreet's "fragile finger" has stood up in the last two games as offensive center. And lastly, Archie Nixon, already a veteran quarterback, although only a junior, has looked across some good opposing defenses these past three years and certainly won't panic at what he sees of the Broncos.

There is just one championship; and there are two good football teams, both of which know that only one team can have the prize. Tomorrow night's contest promises to be a bitterly contested but sportsmanlike affair. If it isn't regarded as a thrilling and pleasant demonstration of courage, strength, discipline, and fair play on the part of the nearly 50 teenage boys who will participate, it just should not be played. After all, it is only a game.

Turkey Shoot Set For Sunday By JC's

Eldorado Jaycees have set their annual turkey shoot competition and it will be on Sunday behind the Ag barn, between the hours of 1:00 and 6:00 p.m.

Shooting this year will be on targets instead of live birds, and winners will collect dressed turkeys at a local store.

Rony Kerr, who is chairman of the event, states they will offer rifle and pistol competition. Entry fees will be $1.25 for each go-around.

Lions Broom Sale Set For Nov. 11th

Mavor Eldon Calk today praised the Lions Club for its efforts to help the blind citizens of Texas to help themselves and at the same time to raise funds for glasses for needy children, Lions Camp for Crippled Children, and other community projects, through a community wide sale of blind-made products.

"There is a definite need for funds to further this very worthwhile project," he stated, "and it is most heartening to see the Lions devote so much time and effort to raise these funds. We are cooperating to the fullest to help the Lions make this year's Broom Sale their biggest and best yet."

Lion Bobby Palmos, chairman of the drive, announced that plans have been made and the Broom Sale will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1970 beside the bank building in Eldorado. There will also be a door to door canvass and if you are missed call 2544 and a Lion will call at your home.

Only federal offices here will be closed Nov. 11th, so it will be business as usual for everyone else.

Trapping Has Declined Steadily In Texas

Austin, Tex.—Fur trapping as a major industry in Texas may have gone out with the raccoon coat.

The fur trapper running his traps now is as much a relic of the past as a blacksmith or iceman.

In a synthetic age when most clothing materials originate in the test tube, animal skins have been devalued from staple to novelty.

The only real concentration of effort in trapping in the state now probably is in southeast Texas, where muskrat and nutria trapping still is going strong in some areas. The total volume of pelts, however, is difficult to gauge because most of them are sold in Louisiana and other states.

The value of raccoon and ring-tail skins has prompted an upswing in the trapping of those species in the past year, but the overall picture remains about the same.

Trapping for the major fur-bearers in general has slowed from a million dollar-plus annual industry to a business sideline and hobby for a few outdoorsmen.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Department figures indicate the average annual harvest between 1935 and the beginning of World War II was between one and two million pelts per year. The average price paid per pelt was at least $1, making trapping a sizeable industry for the time.

During 1968-69, the number of pelts sold in the state, according to estimated figures furnished by fur buyers, was well below 200,000 and the average price paid for most species has failed to keep up with the inflationary spiral.

Not everyone mourns the demise of trapping. Humane groups have called it cruel, and some conservationists have seen it as a threat to certain rare species whose furs are coveted by the fashion world. But biologists generally agree that it probably is the decline in prices rather than a scarcity of fur-bearing animals that depressed the trapping trade in Texas.

Texas as a trapping area also was hit harder than some other states because most of its fur bearers are of the long-haired variety, such as the raccoon, opossum, fox, coyote and badger. The prices paid for such pelts declined steadily after World War II, while prices for short-haired pelts such as muskrat remained more stable. Fur farms also have been a factor in the market.

All the while, prices of traps and other commodities the trapper had to buy steadily increased as fur prices slipped. And the youthful age group which traditionally made up the bulk of the state's trappers became part of a more urbanized society—finding television and other means of entertainment more desirable (or available) than tramping through the woods on a trap line.

Like it or not, trapping now is more oddity than industry, and it probably is valued more for recreation than monetary gain.

86 VOTED ABSENTEE

With passing of the deadline to vote absentee in the General Election, there were 86 such votes cast in the office of J. P. Enochs, county clerk. That figure indicated that a large number would vote Tuesday.

Eagles Hand Bangs Losing End Of 43 To 6 Score Last Friday Night

The Eldorado Eagles breezed by the Bangs Dragons 43-6 last Friday night in a game in which the officials could not be called "unfair"; but unfortunately they did permit the losers to give way to what might be described as "temper tantrums." For this reason it was a difficult game for the Eagles but both coaches and team members deserve commendations for keeping their own tempers as well as they did. Certainly, it is humiliating to lose before hometown fans; and the Dragons have had their share of this unpleasant experience this season; but trying to scratch at opponents' eyes and other such juvenile tricks are more a reflection of a team's inability to play effective football than anything else. Certainly such actions are not manifestations of courage.

Coach Sherwood Barker at a critical point in the last half asked and received permission to meet with the Eagles in mid-field where he cautioned them against retaliation in kind. They heeded his counsel and the game continued as a game should. Not only did Coach Barker calm the Eagles but in consideration of the Dragons' agitated feelings, he held the score down with judicious substitutions.

But statistics show how completely the Eagles dominated the contest:

Eldorado:	Bangs:
22	first downs	7
256	yards rushing	37
100	yards passing	61
356	total yards	98
6 of 15	pass compl./att.	3 of 18
3	passes captured	0
3	fumbles captured	1
5 for 35	punts & av. yds.	8 for 29
9 for 95	penalties	8 for 72

Score by quarters:

Eldorado	10	21	6	6-43
Bangs	0	0	6	0-6

Eldorado scored the first time the Eagles took possession of the ball. They received and in four series of downs featuring Hubble's drives and an Archie-Nixon-to-Jerry-Baty pass, halted momentarily on Dragon's two yard line. From there, Hubble an associate up front blasted over. Nixon with K. Williams holding kicked the extra point and the Eagles led 7-0. It had taken them four minutes to score.

With three minutes to go in the first quarter, the Eagles penetrated to the Dragon 25-yard line where Williams again held and Nixon booted a field goal.

The second quarter saw the Eagles "break the game open" with three touchdowns. Hubble again blasted over from the two-yard line; Nixon, keeping the ball on an option play, ran 32 yards into the end zone; and Keith Williams turned a forward pass completion to a touchdown, this combination going for 27 yards. The Nixon-Williams kicking combination worked flawlessly and all three points were tallied to bring the half-time score to 31-0.

In fact, it was just as the half ended that the Dragons were able to earn their first first down.

The third quarter saw Victor Belman slice over from one yard out to score the Eagles' fifth touchdown. This time an attempt for two extra points failed. Also, at this time the Eagles reviewed a harsh football lesson; they fumbled near their own 35-yard line where the Dragons recovered and managed one of their three successful forward passes, this one being for their only score. Their try for extra point failed; but the Dragons had scored on the Eagle error.

The last quarter saw Keith Williams sprint over from seven yards out for the Eagles' sixth touchdown. A try for two extra points failed and the game ended with Eldorado out front 43-6.

Four Eagle defenders distinguished themselves by tabbing tackles in the double digits. They were Dobbie Lively with 12, Roy Jones and Bob Whitten with 11 each, and Gary Danford with 10. Sophomore Oscar Martinez tabbed 8 while Billy D. Hubble stopped three Dragons. Roy Jones, Dobbie Lively, Gary Danford, and Bob Whitten and Oscar Martinez made things unpleasant for the Bangs QB, repeatedly whacking him down before he could unload his pass or hurrying his passes so that they were ineffectual or were intercepted. For example: he threw 18; of these three were intercepted and only three were completed.

B. D. Hubble carried 20 times for 95 yards; Keith Williams, 11 times for 76 yards; Archie Nixon, 11 times for 66 yards; while Terry Clingan, Victor Belman, Mike Manning, Ricky Griffin, and Charles Adams carried 3, 5, 3, 2, and 1 times each for 18, 20, 7, 9, and one yard respectively.

Oscar Martinez recovered one of the Dragons' three fumbles while

B. D. Hubble sacked up the other two.

As usual, Bandmaster McDonald's Eldorado Eagle "Musical Marionettes" staged their sparkling half-time show. It would be hard to explain how there can be so much difference between two bands when the enrollment of the two schools is so nearly equal.

Rites At Sonora For Ben Meckel, 84

Funeral services were held Saturday in Sonora for Ben F. Meckel, 84, prominent Sutton county ranchman, who died at 11:00 a.m. last Wednesday after a short illness. He was the father of Mrs. Mora Lee West of this county.

Mr. Meckel was born Jan. 13, 1886 at Art and had been a resident of Sutton County for the past 70 years. He had extensive ranch holdings in Sutton and Schleicher counties.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. August Meckel and moved from Mason county to a ranch near Sonora in 1900. He had attended school five years in Mason and had taken a bookkeeping course in Waco as a teen-ager.

He was married to Myrtle Viola Davis on July 19, 1909. When they married, the Meckels owned two horses and a wagon. That's when he began what was to become extensive ranch holdings.

They bought a small house in Sonora, borrowed money and bought 600 goats, and Meckel began herding the goats. Later, he borrowed again and purchased a thousand ewes.

He kept on herding the sheep and goats, hanging onto his money and clearing his debts. At the same time he continued to acquire much ranchland in the Sonora area. Too, he began to ranch cattle as well as the sheep and goats.

He was a member of the Hudspeith Memorial Hospital Board in Sonora and member of the hospital ranch board. He had retired from ranching in 1957.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Jimmie West of Eldorado; a sister, Mrs. W. B. Rexroat of Fort Worth; eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by another daughter, Mrs. Bill Tittle of Sonora and a son, Lavelle Meckel of Eldorado.

United States Marine Corps
Ground Guarantee Plan Announced

Marine Sgt. Rudy Torres Due Here Nov. 18th

The U. S. Marine Corps has just pulled the wraps off a new enlistment program which guarantees qualified applicants' training. Making the announcement was Sgt. Rudy Torres who is in Eldorado the third Wednesday of each month. The new recruiting program, calculated to keep pace with the ever increasing demand for skilled technicians, include the following specialties: (1) Combat and Combat Arms; (2) Administrative Specialist; (3) Technical Specialist; and (4) Electronics and Communications. Although the Marine Corps welcome applicants already skilled in any of the fields listed above, the program is primarily designed to attract young men and women—preferably high school graduates—who have an interest in these specialties and who would become thoroughly qualified through formal schooling or on the job training. In order to become eligible for guarantees to these occupational fields, applicants are required to pass certain written tests, in addition to the examinations administered to applicants for general service. Upon acceptance of any of the specialized fields under the new program applicants can be granted a choice of reporting anytime they desire within 180 days. Following nine weeks of recruit training and two weeks of advanced training, applicants will be assigned to their elected field for training, and duty at one of the Marine Corps' world-wide installations.

Austin, Tex.—With the next legislative session just two months off, a blue-ribbon speaker's committee has set out to evaluate the jobs of state lawmakers and how they can better perform their duties.

First meeting of the 150-member panel named by House Speaker Gut Mutscher and headed by Waggoner Carr, former attorney general, was held at the capitol last week.

One of the first things Mutscher suggested was a study of the work load heaped on officials who draw only $400 a month base pay.

Committee is expected to come up with a recommendation and support for legislators' pay raises.

Mutscher asked the group to give special attention also to legislative facilities, ethics and internal security.

He further suggested a look at steps now taken to assure protection for orderly conduct of the state's business at the capitol and "physical protection" of state officials, employees and the public.

Mutscher said both houses of the legislature will hold a pre-session conference at Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas.

Carr ruled out the study of such matters as annual legislative sessions and abuses by joint conference committees, since the committee was named by the House speaker and was not authorized by the Senate.

"Timing of sessions and joint conference committees are matters of concern to both houses," he noted.

Four sub-committees were named and immediately began work. Sub-panels will work in areas of duties, responsibilities and compensation; ethics and standards of conduct; physical facilities and internal security.

Baptists Release School

Baptist General Convention here approved the request of Baylor Dental School at Dallas to be released from church control so it could accept government financial aid.

Baylor Medical School in Houston was released two years ago, permitting it to seek state funds for enrollment increases.

Convention called on the University of Corpus Christi to repay a $500,000 loan it received from the federal Small Business Administration to repair Hurricane Celia damage and borrow from a non-governmental source.

Delegates adopted resolutions commending national leaders for their spirit of peace to end the Vietnam hostility; urging courts to use discretion in dealing with each marijuana case on merits; and opposing grants of tax funds to parochial schools.

Insurance Ad Rules Proposed

State Board of Insurance set a November 30 hearing on proposed new rules governing advertisements by health insurance companies.

One rule would require a clear and conspicuous statement in ads of any waiting periods between the date of the policy and the time it actually provides coverage.

Another rule would make the same kind of clear disclosure necessary where coverage is limited for illnesses caused by conditions existing before policy date.

Suggested rules would apply to all newspaper ads, as well as radio, billboards, leaflets, form letters and recurring representations by agents.

Companies would have to maintain a file of ads for inspection by examiners representing the State Insurance Board.

Courts Speak

State Supreme Court set a Dec. 9 hearing on a Houston area welder's accidental "injury" suit which intermediate court held showed only evidence of occupational disease (siliosis).

High Court directed the Bowie County District Court to block an oil pooling arrangement which was ordered by the Railroad Commission for the 80-acre, one-well Simms Field in Bowie county.

Federal District Court here postponed until November 12 a hearing on the San Antonio Conservation Society's suit to bar construction of San Antonio North 281 Expressway.

George W. Hawkes, publisher of the Arlington Citizen-Journal, was recipient of the 1970 Public Relations Award, presented annually by the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

House Speaker Mutscher picked Alvin A. Burger of Austin, long-time (now retired) head of the Texas Research League, as executive director of a special committee studying legislative duties, pay and ethics.

Mutscher appointed W. C. McGee Jr. of Houston and Ward K. Wilkinson of Dallas to his committee on efficiency and economy in government.

Manning C. Phillips, FBI veteran, was employed by Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin's crime prevention division.

High Cost Of Campaigning Told

U. S. Senate candidate George Bush topped all spending by general election candidates, according to required reports filed with the Secretary of State. Bush said he has spent $696,008 and received $665,708 in contributions.

Bush's Democratic opponent, Lloyd Bentsen, itemized campaign spending of $419,332 and contributions of $424,563.

Gov. Preston Smith said he has spent $652,860 and received $534,651 in contributions. His Republican opponent, Paul Eggers, reported spending $409,028 and receiving $312,661.

Justice Planning Funds Received

Texas Justice Council received final approval of its 1971 block planning grant, totaling $1.2 million.

Money will be spent for state-wide planning to improve the criminal justice system. Forty per cent of funds will go to local governmental units.

Texas will receive a block action grant of $19 million for fiscal 1971 from the U. S. Department of Justice to support action projects in the field over the state.

Securities Board Enjoins Church

Deputy Securities Commissioner Roy Mauer has issued an order enjoining the Trinity Baptist Church of Austin from selling any type of securities.

Order said that the church kept misleading, inaccurate and incomplete records. Also that Pastor R. D. Wade had loaned $25,000 in bonds on an unsecured non-interest bearing note which church members had not approved.

Wade has used $18,000 of the bonds, according to the order, to purchase a motel in his own name. Eight series of bonds are outstanding, some of them default.

According to Mauer's order, the Board, as of October 22, did not have the funds necessary to pay the interest and principal due November 1.

Bonds were being sold to the public through Fred Matthews of Nationwide Church Bonds, Inc. of Birmingham, Ala., but Matthews was not registered in Texas as a security dealer, as required by Texas law.

Warning Issued

Parks and Wildlife Department has issued warnings against using as food or water containers any of the one-gallon DDT cans which recently washed up on the beach near Port Isabel.

A Harlingen man reported spotting 25 or 30 of the olive drab cans along a five-mile stretch of beach below Port Mansfield cut. Cans proved to be full of insecticide DDT. Only four actually were recovered. P&W fears that others may have been taken away by people who might plan to use them for water cans, or that they were washed out to sea and will reappear on other beaches.

Short Snorts

Attorney General Martin has held that the State Health Department and Nursing Home Licensing Board could privately exchange confidential information.

New bank applications have been filed for Arlington and San Antonio.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, 72, long-time state Selective Service director, died following a three-months' illness.

Autos with inspection stickers numbered 11 must be reinspected this month, "12s" in December.

One hundred and eighty six political subdivisions were required to buy $103,674 worth of unnecessary coverage to get needed liability insurance, Dallas Sen. Oscar Mauzy has charged.

Construction was on the increase last month and the outlook for building in early 1971 is bright, says the UT Bureau of Business Research, which also advises that personal income in Texas rose 3% in September.

County Extension News

W. G. Godwin, Co. Agent

Ninety lambs were sheared, ear-tagged and vaccinated Saturday by 4-H and FFA members for the market class of lambs. 4-H and FFA members showing market class lamb in January local show are Britt and Matt Baumgartner, Carl and Mart Dannheim, Norris Sauer, Benjie and Gynna Jay, Cynthia and Lorretta Schooley, Benny and Teresa Logan, Roy Gene, Michael Earl, and Len Lloyd; Mike Lux, Kurtis and Karla Homer, Ronda Kerr and Cori Sudduth.

Ronnie Mittel and Clifford Schooley, 4-H leaders were in charge, assisted by 4-H parents.

"As a whole the lambs were very good quality," so stated Mr. Mittel and Schooley, 4-H leaders.

The end of the growing season is an ideal time for taking and getting soil tested. Don't wait until the spring rush of field work to do this important job.

Soil sample boxes, information sheets and tips on how to take soil samples are all available from my office.

A soil auger or probe is the best tool for taking soil samples; however, a spade works fine.

A good soil sample is a must if it is to reflect the actual plant food situation in any given field. Several samples should be taken at different spots over the field and then mixed into a composite sample for the entire field.

Each composite sample should be numbered and the information sheet covering the field completely filled out. The information on the sheet is valuable to the soil scientists when they make their fertilizer recommendations.

By taking soil samples as soon as crops are harvested, time can be saved and in many areas of the county the needed fertilizer can be applied when the soil is prepared for next spring's crops.

Fall application or early winter application of fertilizer insures that it will be out and ready when spring planting time arrives.

Just the minute you get satisfied with what you got, the concrete has begun to set in your head.

Winter frequently lools the enthusiasm of even the most avid gardeners, but for safety, economy and peace of mind, take a last look at the garden area surrounding your home before winter sets in. Put away all tools in order to prevent accidents. A forgotten hoe or rake can cause a serious accident. Look for other hazards such as a sagging clothes line, loose flagstones or bricks or a carelessly placed coil of garden hose.

Avoid the possibility of serious poisoning by making certain that all insecticide, herbicide and other agricultural chemicals are properly labeled and stored. All empty or nearly empty containers should be destroyed.

Leaves and other debris should be removed from the yard. The yard will be more beautiful and safer and the materials can be used in the compost pile. Next spring this compost can be very useful in the flower and vegetable gardens.

Check the shrubs and other plantings. Do they need mulching, pruning, tying up, fertilizing, removal or relocation? A list will help you get all the needed jobs done.

Other jobs around the home garden may be put off until one of those warm days that always seem to come in mid-winter. If the clean-up jobs are done this fall, you will be ready to start gardening with the arrival of spring and get the jump on everyone in the neighborhood.

Love at first sight is often cured by a second look.

"Contours of Change" is the title of the recently released 1970 Yearbook of Agriculture. It has been described by Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin as a "book for all Americans."

Publisher is the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The 498-page book deals with the Americans who live in rural areas. They make up about one-third of the nation's population. The book is divided into four sections and 59 chapters and the authors are mainly specialists of the U. S. D. A. and the state land-grant universities.

Persons interested in what has happened, what is happening and what may happen in the years ahead should find the book very worthwhile. The nation's population is expected to increase by 100 million within the next 30 years and during the decade of the seventies, a half trillion-dollar expansion in economic activity is foreseen.
