School district report card released by TEA

Eldorado schools compare well to other districts

Schleicher County ISD received its annual report card from the Texas Education Agency this week and it appears the district will remain on the state's honor roll for yet another year.

The school received the report from TEA's "Academic Excellence Indicator System." The numbers generated by the AEIS are used each year to calculate accountability ratings for school districts as well as individual campuses. This year the school district, high school campus and elementary school campus received the accountability rating of "Recognized." The middle school earned and "Exemplary" rating.

The AEIS provides teachers and administrators with a detailed look at the district's progress as well as its standings in comparison with other schools. For example, an average of 93.8 percent of Eldorado 3rd graders passed the reading portion of the TAAS test.

That compares to 85.9 percent of the 3rd graders in Education Service Center Region XV, and 86.8 percent statewide. That trend held true in almost every category. In 4th grade and 6th grade reading, Eldorado students fared better than students statewide but fell less than a percentage point below other students in Region XV. In 10th grade reading, local students lagged behind those statewide as well as in Region XV.

The AEIS report points to other trends. The SCISD attendance rate was well above average and the dropout rate was well below average. Graduation rates at SCISD (88.7% in 2000 and 87% in 1999) far exceeded state and region averages.

The report noted 662 Eldorado students in grades Pre-K through 12, during the 2000 school year. Of that total, 61.6 percent are Hispanic, 37 percent are listed as White and 1.4 percent are African American. Some 381 students, or 57.6 percent are shown to be economically disadvantaged, 63 are listed with limited English proficiency and 22 are shown to have disciplinary placements.

In all, 77.7 percent of Eldorado teachers hold a Bachelors degree while 22.3 percent have a Masters degree. 29.6 percent of teachers have more than 20 years experience. Another 29.6 percent have 11-20 years experience and 12.8 percent have 6-10 years experience. In the 1-5 year range there are 10.6 percent while 17.5 percent of Eldorado teachers are listed as beginners.

An overview of SCISD's financial position is also included in the report. Total revenue to the school district was listed at $5,301,743.00. Taking that amount and dividing it among the 662 students, the district is averaging $8,009.00 per student per year. That amount compares with San Angelo ISD which spends $5,502.00 per student per year and Iraan ISD where $12,231.00 is spent per student annually. Other per student revenue figures for area schools include: Wall ISD $7603.00; Sonora ISD $7,577.00; Menard ISD $8,931.00; Junction ISD $7,597.00; Crockett Co. CSD $9,354.00; Grape Creek ISD $6,539.00 and Reagan Co. ISD $8,672.00.

SCISD Superintendent George Blanch said he was generally pleased with the report. "We're doing pretty well," Blanch stated. "The report shows us a few areas we need to work on but overall I'd say we're doing pretty well."

Blanch said he will distribute the report to school trustees at the board's next meeting on December 10. He said that copies will then be made available to the public. In the meantime, the report can be found on the TEA website at: www.tea.state.tx.us. Or, if you wish, a link to the report may be found on the Success website at www.myeldorado.net.

Twin sisters — The Schleicher County Volunteer EMS took delivery last week of their newest ambulance. The 2001 Ford box van ambulance (foreground) will be designated as EMS-1 and will be used mainly for transferring patients out-of-county. The 1999 ambulance (background) will be used primarily for emergency response. The new unit replaces a 1994 ambulance that was retired from the service used as a trade-in.

City Council holds November meeting

by Pat Ragsdale

Mayor John Nikolauk called the monthly meeting of the Eldorado city council to order at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, November 12, 2001. Council members Robert Bybee, Toni Sudduth, Tommy Minor, Dora Bosmans and Richard Mendez were present for the meeting.

The meeting began with a public hearing regarding an amendment to the city's utility ordinance. It was noted that the amount the city charges for new taps into the natural gas system is less than the work and materials cost the city. After reviewing the matter, the council voted unanimously to increase the fee for new gas taps from $125 to $300.

David Todd, representing the engineering firm of Hibbs and Todd then met with the council to discuss upcoming work at the city landfill. He presented two proposals and expressed his desire to continue working for the city. The city council opted to hire a different engineer a few months ago and replaced Todd on an upcoming project at the city's wastewater treatment plant. After hearing Todd's proposal the council reviewed offers from engineer Steve Dennis of Midland but took no action on the matter.

The council then reviewed and approved the minutes of the group's Oct. 8 meeting. They also examined and okayed the city's tax report and financial reports. A budget amendment was also approved.

Utility Superintendent Jack Dean explained that an annual inspection of the city's water towers and ground storage tank was completed last week. Dean said that while he has yet to receive a final report on the inspection, he had received verbal assurances that the interiors of the three tanks seem to be in good shape. He also updated the council on a yearly inspection of the city's natural gas system by a Texas Railroad Commission inspector. Dean said that three minor deficiencies were corrected immediately.

City Administrator Randy Mankin then advised the council that a new employee had completed a 3-month orientation period. Mankin sought and received permission to give the employee a pay raise and change him to full-time status.

Mankin then reported that a city pickup was involved in an accident on Nov. 7th on County Road 404 near the city landfill. He explained that the landfill attendant closed the landfill for the night at 6:00 p.m. and was driving to town when he swerved to avoid hitting a deer. Mankin said the employee lost control of the pickup which left the roadway, went through a fence and collided with a number of small Mesquite trees. He added that the employee was taken by ambulance to the local hospital but was released and is already back at work.

Mankin noted that he was already planning to retire the pick-

Crunch — Daniel Mejia, 37, of Eldorado was taken last Wednesday by EMS ambulance to Schleicher County Medical Center where he was treated and released following this accident on County Rd #404. Mejia reportedly left his job at the City of Eldorado and was heading home when he swerved to miss a deer and lost control of his vehicle. The pickup left the roadway, ran through a fence on the east side of the road and crashed through a Mesquite thicket before coming to a stop. Deputy Kevin Herbert investigated the accident. No citation was issued.

Voters spend billions in Nov. 6 amendments election

AUSTIN - Did you vote? Fewer than 7 percent of Texas' registered voters in effect spent billions of dollars in the Nov. 6 election.

With all 7,307 precincts counted, the Texas Secretary of State's Office reports fewer than a million of the state's 12,066,242 registered voters cast a ballot in the off-year general election.

Though some mayoral races and assorted other items perked up some ballots, the only statewide issues were 19 Constitutional amendment propositions.

Every proposition passed, all but two by decisive margins.

The biggest squeaker was Proposition 3, an issue involving tax exemptions for certain cocoa and coffee held in Harris County.

Though the American Revolution had its roots in a dispute over

State Capital Highlights

by Mike Cox

taxation of tea, voters in Texas' most populated county were about evenly split on the issue.

The proposition carried with just 50.8 percent of the vote.

The second closest vote was for Proposition 16, an amendment to adjust laws concerning home improvement loans. That carried with 57.9 percent of the votes.

Of the 19 propositions approved by voters last week, the two biggest issues were Propositions 8 and 15.

Proposition 8, which got 61.8 percent voter approval, will allow the state to issue $850 million in general obligation bonds to pay for a variety of improvements ranging from video cameras in police cars to remodeling and maintenance at Texas Department of Criminal Justice facilities.

Thirteen state agencies will net funding through the sale of bonds.

Passing with a slightly larger margin (67.4 percent), Proposition 15 allows the state to pay for new highways with bond money. The program will operate through a new fund called the Texas Mobility Fund.

The fund will provide leverage for construction and expansion of highways, help pay for toll roads and light rail projects. The goal is speeding up the movement of people and goods in the state.

Though there is no money in the fund at present, now that the voters have given their okay, the next session of the Legislature is expected to provide the needed dollars.

Republican Sen. Florencio Shapiro of Plano, author of the amendment, has estimated that an appropriation of $100 million for the Mobility Fund would generate $1 billion in funding.

Also overwhelmingly approved by voters was Proposition 19, which will allow sale of up to $2 billion in bonds for water supply or water quality projects, as well as flood control measures.

Proposition 2 will have a major impact on the border and another, Proposition 6, could have a significant impact in a future presidential election.

For border residents, and anyone concerned with the plight of those who live in the colonias, the passage of Proposition 2 authorizes a maximum of $175 million in tax-supported bonds to improve the roadways leading to colonias.

An estimated half million people live in 1,800 colonias along the border.

By a 61.8 percent margin, Texas voters also gave the nod to Proposition 6, a measure aimed at preventing an election crisis such as Florida faced last year.

The amendment requires the governor to call a special session to appoint presidential electors if the governor believed the outcome of the Texas vote could not be determined prior to the federal deadline for certifying electors.

Looking at Birds on South Padre

Barbara Kennett was a Los Angeles policewoman twenty years, then moved to South Padre Island to retire. She and her husband got to the island in the early seventies when it didn't have many people or businesses. They noticed there were not many sailboats or catamarans, so they opened a business to rent and sell them.

Barbara was a rock hound before moving to South Padre, but since there are no rocks to speak of there, she shifted her interest to birds.

"One morning I was having my coffee and I looked into the back yard and saw eighteen Painted Buntings, a couple of dozen Indigos and a Black Stork. I thought I had better find out about those birds."

She went to town and bought a book which she says helped her some. Then she found a dedicated bird watcher who taught her about identifying and attracting birds.

"Then I put in two thousand hours out at Laguna Atascosa Wildlife Refuge. I learned as I went along."

Her house is on a small lot, fifty by one hundred feet. But that lot is a bird sanctuary that attracts migrating birds.

"One day a couple of my friends were over here and we counted seventy-two species that we agreed on in about two hours."

Every window in her house looks out onto places where birds congregate.

"I like to look out my windows and see them. Birding is fun, but usually it's hot or cold and you walk miles. I'd rather sit here in air conditioning and have them come to me."

Professional photographers from all over the world go to her house regularly during the spring and fall migrations. The walls of her house are filled with photos of birds from her yard that appeared on covers of the most prestigious bird watching publications.

The University of Texas at Brownsville used to send two vans full of biology teachers and students.

"Twenty-six people would come into my little house and we found everybody a window."

She says the trick to attracting birds is to find out what they need and provide it.

"Put plants in that have something the birds need. The important things are food, water and shelter. I don't like to put out birdseed because it attracts too many birds I don't want. I don't want Grackles and Redwings and such. I want to make a home for the little strangers."

She uses a combination of bacon fat, peanut butter and cornmeal to attract Warblers. She also cuts oranges in half and puts them out in conspicuous places. During migration, she puts out twelve oranges three times a day.

Community Network surveys

SCISD is competing for a $500,000 community network grant funded by the Telecommunications Infrastructure Fund Board. The network can provide public access to modern technology, computer training, workforce training, a web page that can deliver information related to the community, and much more. However, the public's input is needed.

People are urged to stop by one of the locations listed below and complete a general population survey. Drop boxes will be provided at each of these locations by Wednesday, November 14.

Anyone who owns a business, or who is an organizational leader in the project, and have not yet received a business/organization survey, is encouraged to contact Kay Creek, the CN2 Local Coordinator, at 853-3028 ext. 235.

Drop boxes will be provided in the following locations: Duckwall's, Amigo's Dream, First National Bank, 1st Community Federal Credit Union, Super-S, and the Annenberg Building across from Kids Kampus.

It is noted that the success of this network depends on the determining the needs of the community as a whole. Responses to the surveys will be greatly appreciated.

The council next took up discussion of a new animal control ordinance. As requested by the council at last month's meeting, Mankin presented an ordinance for their consideration. He explained that he had reviewed dozens of ordinances on the internet and had opted to use an ordinance from Belmont, North Carolina as a model. Mankin explained that he was not proposing the ordinance but intended it only as a starting point. After reviewing several portions of the ordinance with the council members he asked them to take a month and offer suggestions at the next council meeting.

The council then agreed by consensus to cast all the city's votes for Jim Martin on the board of directors of the Schleicher County Appraisal District.

At 7:35 the council entered executive session, for the purpose of discussions relating to the acquisition of real property. They emerged into opens session at 7:50 without taking action on the subject. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 7:51 p.m.

Eagles' season ends with 31-8 loss to Sonora

by David E. Hill

The Eldorado Eagles had an opportunity to force a coin toss to see who got into the playoffs last Friday night. It required a 15-point win against Sonora, who was coming off a 14-point loss to Wall the week before. The Eagles season ended 48 minutes and 4 quarters later. Sonora came out on top with a 31 to 8 victory.

Sonora would score on four of its first six possessions in the game. The Eldorado defense spent much of the evening on the field and just could not stop the ground game of the Broncos. Offensively, Eldorado struggled more than they had all season. The Eagles did not get a first down until late in the third quarter.

Eldorado's lone score came on their first drive with 8:58 left in the game. Quisto Gonzalez scored on a 1 yard run. The Eagles went for two and made it.

Gonzalez led all Eagle rushers with 128 yards while Wesley Jones had 12 yards receiving.

On defense, Jones, Ray Buitron, Ramon Barajas, and Juan Guzman led the team in tackle points.

The loss dropped the Eagles to 3 and 7 on the season and 2 and 3 in district play.

Although this was a disappointing season for the Eagles, a review of their schedule will reveal that everyone of Eldorado's pre-season opponents are playing tomorrow night. In all, eight of the Eagles 10 opponents this year have made the playoffs.

Coach McCormack said after the game, "We ran into to a very tough ball club tonight. We just could not get anything on either side of the ball going our way. But these kids never gave up, and continued to battle till the final buzzer."

Big time hit — Eagles defender Wesley Jones took the legs out from under this Sonora runner last Friday night. The Broncos defeated Eldorado in the final game of the season 31-8.

Whoa, right there — Eagles defender Chris Martinez brought down this Sonora runner with an ankle tackle during Friday night's game against the Broncos. Sonora defeated the Eagles 31-8.

8th Grade Eagles finish with 8-0 undefeated season

The 8th Grade Eagles wrapped up their season last Thursday with a 22-6 win over Sonora. That moved the team's final record to 8-0 and secured for them the coveted title of "Undefeated."

The Eagles posted all 22 or their points in the 1st half. Andy Mejia scored the first TD, running in from 15 yards out. Nestor Hernandez carried the ball in on the 2-point conversion to give the Eagles an 8-0 lead.

Kyle Taylor pounded the ball into the endzone on a 15 yard run and the 2-point conversion failed.

Andy Mejia added the 3rd TD on a 20 yard run. Kyle Taylor ran in for the 2-point conversion to round out the scoring for the Eagles.

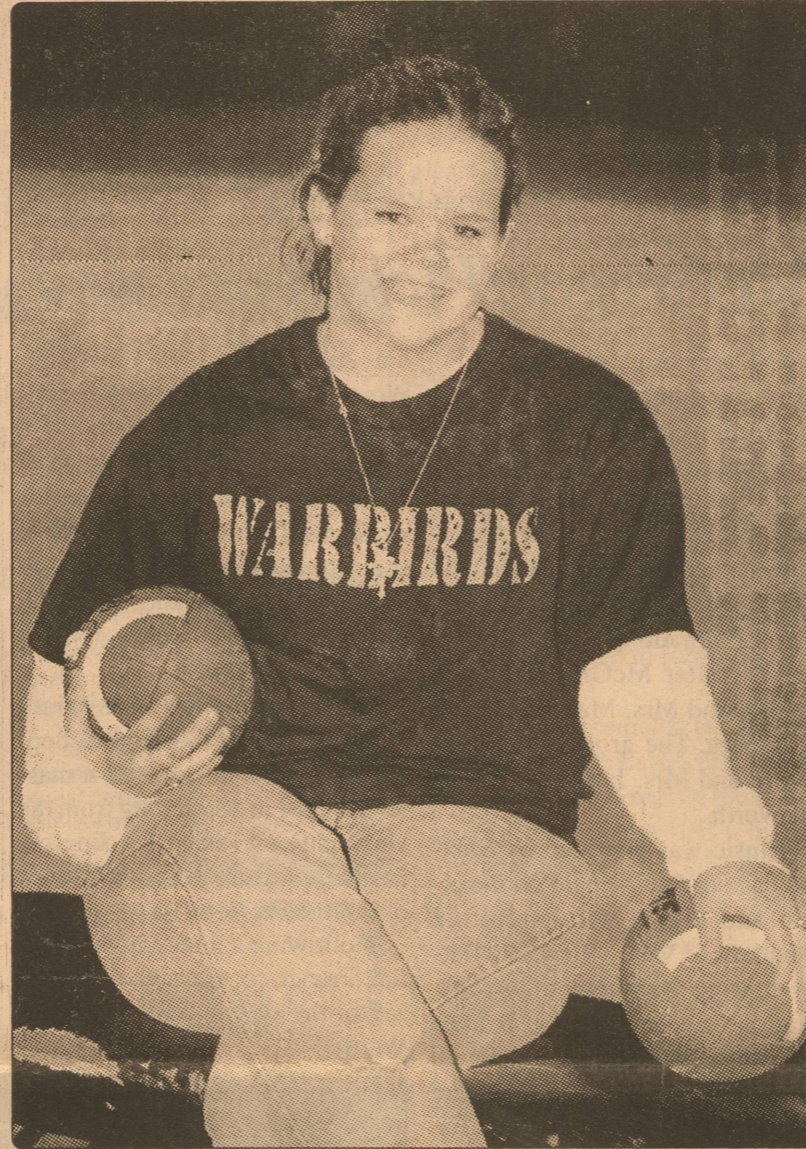

Eagles runners had a field day behind an offensive line that dominated the Broncos. Andy Mejia lead all rushers gaining 105 yards on 15 carries. Kyle Taylor gained 96 yards on 6 runs and Jorge Bustos picked up 44 yards on 4 carries. Michael Ballew gained 43 yards on 2 carries, Frank Edmiston picked up 7 on 2 runs and Nestor Hernandez gained 3 yards on 2 carries. Defensively, Andy Mejia, Kyle Taylor and Frank Wipff tallied 4 tackles each. Jorge Bustos, Joe Garcia, and Epolo Herrera each contributed 3 tackles while Frank Edmiston, Michael Ballew, Nestor Hernandez and Armando Moreno all made a tackle apiece.

After the game Coach Dave Lewis credited the play of his offensive line. He went on to note the 2nd team line. "Armando, Kyle Brown, Joe Garcia, Coy Cook and Jarron Crawford did a tremendous job coming in the 4th quarter, dealing with all of Sonora's defensive stunts."

Coach Lewis extended his appreciation to all of his players and credited their hard work and dedication with securing a perfect 8-0 season.

The team received a hero's welcome when they returned to Eldorado. Fire trucks, ambulances and police cars with sirens blaring were joined by numerous fans, friends and family members as they escorted the undefeated Eagles into town.

She's a sweetheart — Toni Martin was voted Football Sweetheart by the members of the Eagles football team this year. Toni is a junior at EHS.

8-0 celebration — 8th Grade Eagles enjoyed a victory party last Thursday upon returning to Eldorado following their 22-6 win over Sonora. The victory concluded a perfect 8-0 undefeated season. Dawn Fay is shown here serving cake to the team.

Aubrey Martinez #10 helped the Sonora PeeWee Team put away the San Angelo Cowboys.

Congratulations goes to Aubrey Martinez and all her teammates on a great Football Season. Aubrey traveled to San Angelo for the last several weeks representing Sonora. The team played with the San Angelo's YMCA youth football program.

On Saturday, November 3rd, 2001, The Sonora Broncos played the San Angelo Cowboys, at the Lakeview Stadium for the 2001 Super Bowl Game. It was there that our very own, Aubrey, helped Sonora defeat the Cowboys 29-0. This young lady got an interception and ran in for a 70 yard touchdown. In this game, she also had some good yardage and defensive tackles. She also got in for an extra point. Aubrey was announced the YMCA's first female quarterback. Each game she played quarterback in the first half and free safety on defensive in the second half.

This young lady did a wonderful job making her dad and her family very proud. Along with her very own cheerleader, her sister, Sutaíria Martinez.

Hopefully, the kids enjoyed the games and learned valuable lessons about working together as team, sportsmanship, and fundamentals of football. Special thanks goes to the coaches, John Creek, and Larry Jennings, The YMCA, and all the sponsors who made this possible.

Next time, you see Aubrey give her a pat on the back and congratulate her on a great season.

Congratulations on a great season
Aubrey Martinez.

New health screening required at SCISD: Acanthosis Nigricans

by Susie Richters School Nurse

A new type of screening is required this year for grades 3,5 & 7. It is called Acanthosis Nigricans. This is a skin marker that results from hyperinsulinemia, a condition where higher than normal insulin concentrations remain in the bloodstream. Hyperinsulinemia is a compensatory result of insulin-resistance, which creates a potential risk for the development of type 2 diabetes. This screening will be done at the same time as the hearing screening. Parents will be notified if their child has a skin marker observed on the nape of the neck.

If anyone has questions or concerns, they can call Susie Richters, RN, at 853-2770, ext. 231.

School board meets, review district's annual audit

by Kathy Mankin

Auditor Don McKee met with the Schleicher County ISD board of trustees Monday night to review the district's annual audit. He noted that revenue for the school year ending August 31, 2001 totalled $5,828,410.00. That amounted to an increase of $355,158.00 over the previous year. McKee pointed out that approximately $160,000.00 of the increase came from property taxes, $58,000.00 was collected on an insurance claim on the school's Ag Barn that was damaged in a wind storm, and $133,000.00 was attributed to the Annenburg Foundation.

McKee explained SCSID will be refunding $153,000.00 to the Texas Education Agency for funds that were overpaid to the district in past years. School administrators must predict student population when they ask for state funding for each coming school year. In recent years, the district's student population has been declining resulting in overpayments from the state. It was pointed out that SCSID currently has 617 students, a decline of 5.3 percent over last year. Provisions were made for the repayment in the district's 2001-2002 budget.

McKee noted a 2 percent decline in salaries and benefits, due mainly to personnel cuts. Salaries and benefits account for 72 percent of the district's overall expenditures.

Board President Phil McCormick recognized Superintendent George Blanch and Financial Director Loretta Edmiston for getting the district's finances back in shape. The board then voted to accept McKee's audit.

On hand for the meeting were trustees Steve Sessom, Sam Whitten, Jr., Kurtis Homer, Jo Helen Kotsch and Phil Edmiston. Board members Eddie Albin and Berta Nicholson were absent.

In other business, the board voted to purchase property, general liability and vehicle insurance from the Key and Piskuran Agency for the sum of $43,529.00. Financial Director Loretta Edmiston told the board she had contacted several school district who are insured by the agency and learned that the company has a good rapport with the schools in Sonora, Coleman and Ozona. The only other agency to bid on the insurance package was Trimble-Batjer of San Angelo. That company's proposal totalled $69,000.00.

County Extension Agent Scott Edmonson then met with the trustees and asked them to consider amending the 2001-2002 school calendar. Edmonson noted that a change in the date of the Sandhills Stock Show in Odessa made it necessary to change the date of the Schleicher County Jr. Livestock Show. Edmonson said the local stock show would move from January 4, 2002 to January 11, 2002. He asked the trustees to change the school calendar to accommodate the change. After discussing the matter briefly with Supt. George Blanch the board chose to take no action on the request.

A recommendation from the district's Textbook Committee was approved as was a recommendation concerning out-of-district field trips.

Next, the trustees voted to divide their votes for the Schleicher County Appraisal District's board of directors as follows: Phil McCormick - 978 votes; Eddie Albin - 977 votes; William Edmiston - 977 votes; Kirk Griffin - 1 vote and Jim Martin - 1 vote.

Supt. Blanch asked for approval to advertise for a mini van to replace the car that was stolen from the school's bus barn earlier in the year. The trustees approved the request.

Blanch then informed the board that the School Breakfast Program will be implemented next semester and the gave a update on the Ag Barn-Baseball Field exchange. The exchange will tentatively take place on December 1st. He also told the board about a six week long character education program called "Right Choices for Youth Program" offered through Shannon Clinic. Blanch said the program would be financed by the Education Service Center Region XV if it is implemented next year.

Crunching the numbers — SCISD trustee Steve Sessom (R) listened intently Monday night as auditor Don McKee reviewed the school district's annual audit report.

7th grade Eagles have good year despite final loss

The 7th grade Eagles lost to Sonora 40-14 last Thursday in Sonora. The young Eagles played well in the first half and scored in the opening quarter on a reverse to Russell Cathey. The Eagles added the 2-point conversion on a pass from David Hernandez to Artie Montalvo.

In the second quarter a long pass from Juan Garcia to Russell set up the Eagles final TD.

"These young men improved every game, we had a lot of fun, and played better tonight than the score showed." Coach Larry Mitchel said after the game. "I'm very proud of the team's effort and every young man on it."

Coach Mitchel went on to note that his squad wanted to thank Coach Dave Lewis, Mrs. Lewis as well as the Middle School Cheerleader.

JV Eagles close out season with two wins

by Coach Alan Gillespie

The Eldorado Eagles JV ended the season with 2 consecutive victories over Grape Creek and Sonora.

Against Grape Creek Eldorado scored two touchdowns in the 1st half and added a 2-point conversion and hung on against a late Grape Creek rally to win 14-12.

Travis Lively scored two touchdowns, throwing for one and catching a pass for another. Lively connected with Seth Taylor for the first TD. He caught a pass from Trey Chavez for the second TD. A 2-point conversion was added after the first TD when Buddy Greer ran in a fake kick on a reverse.

Toward the end of the game, Alan Dykstra and a host of Eagles converged to stop Grape Creek's attempt to tie the game with a 2-point try.

Offensively, Trey Chavez, Scott Cawley, and Landon Nixon had several long runs for the Eagles. Chavez ripped off a 65-yard run to set up a score for the Eagles. The Eagles backs found lots of running room behind the blocking of Joey Hernandez, Cole Wilkerson, Tony Chavez and Kolby Dombroski.

Defensively, there were some big hits big hits for the Eagles. Will Griffin, Homero Hernandez and Chris Sanchez led the defensive effort.

The Eagles JV then notched up a huge win over Sonora, spanking the Broncos 47-20 in Eagle Stadium.

Eldorado dominated the game from the first. The Eagles drove the ball down the field behind the running of Scott Cawley and a nifty shovel pass from Trey Chavez to Landon Nixon. Nixon also punched in the first TD. Cawley added the 2-point conversion.

After the ensuing kickoff, the Eagles wasted no time in striking again. Cawley picked off an errant Bronco pass and sprinted 30 yards for a TD.

Sonora could manage only 20 points in the game. Six of those points came on a missed field goal attempt by the Eagles. The Broncos scooped up the ball and returned it for 6. Other than that, however, Eldorado dominated the game on both sides of the ball.

Receiver Eric Garcia caught two touchdown passes, one from Cawley on a reverse pass and one from Chavez. In all Chavez threw for 170 yards. He also ran back a kickoff for a score and had several long runs to set up scores. Chavez almost scored another, but fumbled into the endzone where Will Griffin was waiting to fall on the ball. Travis Lively kicked an extra point and ran in another 2 point conversion on a boot-leg.

Scott Cawley ran in another touchdown from 30 yards on a sweep play. On the night Cawley scored touchdowns by throwing the ball, and returning one on an interception.

Alan Dykstra also had several long runs. Cole Wilkerson caused a fumble, and Dykstra and Seth Taylor made fumble recoveries.

Several Eagles had quarterback sacks including Buddy Greer and Chris Sanchez. Chris Sanchez also ran the ball 3 times for 30 yards. Bryce Leggett, Francisco Duran, Dillon Greer and Homero Hernandez played well defensively for the Eagles.

On the move — Eagles JV running back Scott Cawley pounded through the line last Thursday as Eldorado defeated the Sonora JV 47-20.

Robert Parker led the audience in the Pledge of Allegiance followed by a viewing of "Some Gave All," a video production about Schleicher County Veterans.

The Roll of Honor was read by Phil Edmiston with the flags from the various services being held by students. A special tribute to the September 11 attack of the World Trade Center was given by recognizing the heroes we encounter in every day life, as was so dramatically demonstrated on that fateful day. Robert Bybee represented law enforcement officers, David Wike represented all fireman; Joey Jones represented an emergency medical service workers; Charlie Bradley and Jo Whitten represented a business men and women. Wayne McGinnes displayed the American Flag during the tribute.

Taps was then played by Maria Hernandez and the 3rd and 4th grade students then sang the songs of the four service branches.

Hunter Alvizo, Dustin Ramos, Marcos Medrano, Wes Brown, Maureen Martinez, Garrett Lux, Dylan Dombroski, Hugo Rios, and David Tirado were among several speakers to participate in the program.

Jim Chancellor and Vicki Schwiening sang "God Bless America" with a huge lighted "USA" sign was displayed on the stage. During the song, the 3rd and 4th grade students filed in from the back of the auditorium, wearing new t-shirts bearing a picture of the American flag. For the grand finale, the students joined the audience in singing along with "God Bless America."

Elementary Principal Bob Wanoreck thanked Mrs. Joella Parker for her hard work in staging the production each year and rewarded her with a big hug. Others helping with the program included Ms. Terry Green, who accompanied the students as they sang. Glenda Nix was in charge of lighting and Debbie Griffin was in charge of the video program.

Boy Scout Troop 18 performed the Ceremony of Retreat. Included in the group were Travis Joiner, Jeffrey Bybee, Tyler Dombroski, J.P. Joiner, Reese Schwiening, Logan Jones and Scout Master Joe Dombroski.

A benedictory prayer was then offered by Walt Griggs, Pastor of Agape Assembly of God.

Prolonged Depression Has Serious Medical Consequences

QUESTION: My wife has been severely depressed for nearly three months. What kind of treatment or therapy would you recommend for her?

DR. DOBSON: Get her to a physician, perhaps an internist, as soon as possible. This kind of prolonged depression can have serious medical and psychological consequences, yet it is usually very responsive to treatment. Anti-depressant drugs are effective in controlling most cases of depression. She could also be entering menopause and may need estrogen-replacement therapy or some other hormone treatment.

Of course, medication will not correct an emotional problem, if that is what underlies her depression. She may need to talk to a psychologist or a psychiatrist after you have approached the problem from a medical perspective. The important thing is to get going. Depression should not be permitted to continue unchecked.

QUESTION: My wife says she feels "trapped" in our marriage. Despite my best efforts to win her over, she says she wants a divorce. Shouldn't I fight for what is important to me? Why can't I let my wife know how badly I want her to stay with me? Why should I play cat-and-mouse games when everything inside me is saying, "Go after her"?

DR. DOBSON: All I can tell you is that in romantic affairs, most people tend to want that which is elusive — that which is just out of reach. They don't want what they are stuck with or that which they have to beat off with a stick. Let me illustrate.

I doubt if you could have coerced your wife to marry you during your dating days. It wouldn't have worked. You had to lure, attract, charm and entice her. This subtle game of courtship unfolded one delicate step at a time. Can you imagine what would have occurred if you had wept violently and hung on her neck saying, "I think I'll die if you don't marry me. I beg you not to turn me down!"

That desperate approach might be compared (simplistically) to that of a persistent used-car salesman. What do you think he would accomplish by telling a potential customer through his tears, "Oh, please buy this car! I need the money so badly, and I've only had two sales so far this week. You just can't walk away."

This is a far-fetched analogy, admittedly, but there is relevance to it. When one has fallen in love with an eligible partner, he attempts to "sell himself" to the other. But like the car dealer, he must not deprive the buyer of free choice in the matter. Instead, he must convince the customer that the purchase is in his own interest.

If a person would not buy an automobile to ease the pain of a salesman, how much more unlikely he is to devote his entire life to someone he doesn't love, simply for benevolent reasons. None of us is that unselfish. Each of us intends to select only one person in the course of a lifetime with whom to invest our entire being, and few of us are willing to squander that one shot on someone we merely pity! In fact, it is very difficult to love another person romantically and pity him or her at the same time.

To summarize, if begging and pleading are ineffective methods of attracting a member of the opposite sex during the dating days, why do victims of bad marriages use the same groveling techniques to hold a drifting spouse? They are only increasing the depth of disrespect by the one who is escaping.

QUESTION: My 13-year-old daughter is still built like a boy, but she is insisting that I buy her a bra. Believe me, she has no need for it, and the only reason she wants one is because most of her friends do. Should I give in?

DR. DOBSON: Your straight-and-narrow daughter needs a bra to be like her friends, to compete, to avoid ridicule and to feel like a woman. Those are excellent reasons. I think you should buy her a bra today.

Deer population survey released for county

Wildlife personnel with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department recently completed annual deer population surveys here in Schleicher County. The survey lines, located throughout the county, yielded an estimate of 68.0 deer to every 1,000 acres of deer habitat or about 54,509 deer countywide. Composition of the overall deer herd in Schleicher County is at 2.97 does per buck with a high fawn segment of 79 fawns per 100 does. In relation to percentages that gives Schleicher County a composition of 16% bucks, 47% does, and 37% fawns. Overall buck antler quality is expected to be decent this year, due to the excellent range conditions we experienced during late winter last year and spring conditions this year—an important period during the antler growing process. The late summer rainfall most of the western Plateau experienced generated a much-needed green up of the pastures and an improvement in the general condition of the deer. The better range conditions may translate into a little harder hunting scenario in some areas; however, lots of the surrounding country is turning off dry again and movement of deer should increase through the season if the dry conditions persist.

This year in Schleicher County the standard gun deer season opens on Saturday, November 3, and runs through Sunday, January 6, 2002. Schleicher County will also participate in the special, late, 2-week antlerless and spike season (no fork-antlered bucks allowed during the special late season) that will open Monday, January 7, and run through Sunday, January 20, 2002. This late rifle season takes the place of the previously listed muzzleloader season; however, muzzleloaders may be used during any of the other regular firearm seasons. The bag limit for Schleicher County regarding white-tailed deer will be 5 deer again this year, no more than 2 antlered bucks in the bag, all seasons combined. In other words, the extra deer in the bag must be antlerless and not a spike or fork-antlered buck. Doe permits or special doe tags will not be issued nor required to harvest antlerless deer here in the Edwards Plateau during regular seasons. Hunters will need only the appropriate tag off of their hunting license, or a Bonus Tag where applicable, and landowner permission to bag doe or antlerless deer in Schleicher and the other "either-sex" counties this year.

After reviewing the results of the recent white-tailed deer population surveys, local wildlife personnel are recommending that Schleicher County landowners harvest deer according to the following recommendations:

For those properties located in the western half of the county, bounded by Hwy. 915 and Hwy. 2596 on the east, the recommended harvest rate on bucks is one buck per 500 acres, and the recommended harvest rate on does is one doe per 200 acres. For those properties located in the eastern half of the county, bounded by Hwy. 915 and Hwy. 2596 on the west, the recommended harvest rate on bucks is one buck per 400 acres, and the recommended harvest rate on does is one doe per 75 - 100 acres.

Landowners interested in closely managing their local deer herd need to conduct their own on-site fall population surveys, with resulting harvest recommendations that meet their specific management objectives. Texas Parks and Wildlife Department wildlife personnel are available to assist with more specific wildlife management recommendations for individual tracts of land. Please contact Game Biologist Mary Humphrey in Sonora at 387-5539 for more information on wildlife concerns in Schleicher, Sutton or Crockett counties.
