Somethin' to Think About

by Gannette Wilkerson

THE BEST THINGS IN LIFE

REALLY ARE FREE

On a recent visit to Ozona country, I had a chance to do some serious arrowhead hunting. I've been an avid arrowhead hunter for 30 odd years, and have yet to find my first one. However, the treasures I do find more than compensate for not attaining this long sought goal.

I found some deer horns lodged in an Algeretta berry bush, a few small cactus for repotting, and beautiful brown beads that would have made a lovely 'Earth' necklace (but after being advised we were in sheep country, the beads were discarded). If people will buy a cow chip sprayed with gold paint and sprinkled with glitter, why not? Or a piece of caliche that looks like it had been worked (that arrowhead hunting talk). No doubt some smart ancestor of mine thought he could bring down a buffalo with a piece of caliche.

My arrowhead hunting is somewhat like my wildlife photography -- unsuccessful. Since I'm not easily discouraged and enjoy trying so much, I don't even mind meeting trees and shrubs head-on as a result of walking with my head down.

The best find, however, came at the end of the day on a quiet hillside overlooking a lush green valley. As I stood frozen, it was like being a lone audience to a command performance. The orange sun gave a hazy glow that flooded the valley and crept up the side of the hill. This spectacle of pure and reverent beauty was proof, 'the eyes are merely windows for the soul'. As the last rays disappeared behind a stage of Cedar, Live Oak, and Mountain Laurel, I couldn't help feeling an overpowering sense of loss, for the day and the moment. So maybe the real 'finds' in this world aren't the things you can put in your pocket or display on velvet, but that secret, rare moment of truth and gratitude for an awareness of peace and belonging.

-- And that's something to think about!!

1st Baptist Church Celebrates 75th Year

This Saturday and Sunday, August 28 and 29, the First Baptist Church will be celebrating its 75th Anniversary. The schedule of activities will begin at 7:00 PM Saturday evening with an open house at the pastorium. Rev. and Mrs. Gene Stark will host the occasion and cordially invite all of Eldorado to come and visit. Sunday morning will start with men's prayer meeting at 8:00 AM. Sunday School will be at 9:45 and morning worship will begin at 10:55. Former pastor Clifford Nelson (1951-53) will bring the morning message. Special music will be presented by the choir and Frank O'Banion, former Music and Education Director (1960-65).

The church will host a dinner on the grounds at noon. At 2:00 PM in the church sanctuary there will be a special 75th Anniversary Celebration Service. Former pastor Doug DuBose (1957-61) will preach. The choir will sing a special and a ladies trio will bring a special also. Other former pastors participating in the services will be J. M. Hays (1941-51); C. T. Aly (1937-39), W. D. Kirkpatrick (1939-41), and Clifton Hancock (1953-57). The Area Director of Missions for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, Rev. Bryan Ross of San Angelo will be another guest.

Dear Mom, I beat the tardy bell the very first day!

COUNTY PURCHASES PARTIAL PAR-TEE SHOPPING LIST

The County Commissioners took action Monday approving the purchase of a greens mower for the County Golf Course and a tractor drawn rotary mower for general road work. The court will be seeking bids on these two items and action to purchase them will be taken at the next regular meeting. The greens mower was item of high priority in the golf club's request for new equipment. It was the general feeling among the commissioners that this item would be necessary for year round maintenance of the greens where as the other equipment, gang mowers, would not with the coming of winter.

The purchase of the rotary mower was approved to facilitate road maintenance in areas where tall Johnson grass interferes with blading caliche roads.

The court also accepted the resignations of Clifton Doran and Dwight Bonds. Doran has been employed on the road maintenance crew and Bonds was an area probation officer working out of San Angelo.

A request was made by General Telephone to bury a telephone cable in the right of way of county roads in the northwest segment of the county. The court will request more information concerning this proposal.

The court also ordered the execution of the pipeline easements requested by Quannah Pipeline Company at a previous meeting.

Commissioners Gene McCalla, David Meador, Richard Jones, Joe Christian and Judge Bob McWhorter were present at the meeting.

EAGLE Booster Club to Reorganize urged to attend this organizational meeting to set up our program for the year.

The purpose of the Booster Club is to encourage participation in and support of our Athletic programs in Eldorado High School.

'EDITORIAL'

You're lucky. For eight issues now you have had to put up with editorials that may have been pleasing to some and otherwise to others. But this week you get a rest.

For the next few days, this writer and some of his family are off to the high country of New Mexico. There won't be much thought of what goes on back here for it's time to get away and do a little reflection, breathe in that heady mountain air, and plait ourselves back together again.

There will be mountain rainshowers, green valleys and brisk breezes — some of which may be caused by the passage of beavies of bang-tails — but it will all be different from the norm, and the break will be very much appreciated. The smell of pine, of wood fires burning in cozy fireplaces, and windy rain souging through forest giants seems to have a soothing effect, and the magic of it all will come about.

Yet a few days hence we'll hit the road back to the low country — and the hills of home, the likes of which there are no others. Que vaya bien!

BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

Since we began the Business Spotlight several weeks ago we have concentrated on some of the newer business people working in Eldorado. This week we are featuring Granvil Hext, owner of Hext Foods, an establishment that has been a part of the Eldorado business community for about 30 years.

Outside of two years that he lived in Eldorado, Granvil spent the first 18 years of his life in Mason and McCollough Counties where he attended school and began his working career. During WW II, Granvil and his family lived in California where he was employed in a shipyard. He returned to Coleman in 1945 where he was involved in the ranching business. When the drought of the early '50's ended that enterprise, Hext moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico, where he was employed as a route supervisor for a local bakery. In 1961 Jack Hext, then owner of Hext Foods and Granvil's first cousin, offered Granvil the opportunity to buy the grocery firm. Granvil accepted the offer and moved his family to Eldorado in February, 1962. Since that time Granvil has owned and operated Hext Foods. Granvil and Mary Hext now reside at the corner of Main and Brooks in Eldorado. They have two children, Butch Hext of Albuquerque and Deanne Walker of Kerrville and four grandchildren.

YOUR CHILDREN NEED MORE THAN SCHOOL ALONE

As the approaching school season appears on the horizon, it's time to realize that the school, for all its importance in teaching your children the basic skills of life, is actually the second stage of their education. The first is in the home, where they should learn manners, unselfishness, the difference between right and wrong, and respect for authority and the rights of others, before they take even the first step out of the house; because the outside world begins right on your doorstep. Moreover, the character they develop during these years will remain with them all through life, so this early training should also include an education in faith, in the Sunday school at the Church of your choice.

The ELDORADO EXPRESS NEWS, Thursday, August 26, 1976

A WEEKLY NEWS FORUM SERVING THE CITIZENS OF THE KNICKERBOCKER & CHRISTOVAL COMMUNITIES

FIRE DEPARTMENT HEAD ELECTED

The Christoval Fire Department met August 18, 1976 in the School Cafeteria with approximately 35 present. Richard Van Court reported a balance on hand of $916.32, with one small outstanding bill. He also reported that in the 2½ years that we have had a fire truck in Christoval, it had only failed to start 2 times. Van Court said that the main reason for the meeting was to elect a new President and Committee.

At the first town meeting, two sites were discussed. Mrs. Bouleware's behind Mr Boones Antique Shop; and the present location at School. School equipment is kept in the same building as the fire truck, causing some minor problems. Mr. Erickson reported that this was the only available space for these items.

It was decided to keep the Fire Dept. on a voluntary basis.

Pete McBurnett reported that the Shaw property could be used to build a building to house our Ambulance with enough room for the Fire Truck. Also, there would be enough room for a large Community room in the rear. The Contract calls for an 8 year lease with option, at no charge as long as its used for this purpose. Pete also reported that he had gotten a bid of $4,000.00 to complete the building, but he felt that if everyone in Christoval would help to construct the building it would cut the cost in half.

Nominations were opened for a new President. Those nominated were Andy Allen, Lois Jones & Pete McBurnett. Andy Allen was elected President, and Pete McBurnett Sec. Treas.

Lois Jones reported that the Siren that is mounted on the Nursing Home Building is not the right kind.

Pete McBurnett was nominated Chairman of the Building Committee.

Mr. Scotty Newman, Tom Green County Commissioner, suggested that we take advantage of the fire schools they have in San Angelo. He also stated that the County would take care of the repairs that were just completed also the paint job.

The next meeting will be a combined meeting of the CKCIG & the Fire Dept.

Fire drills will be held in the future.

MOTHERS' CLUB

The first Mothers' Club meeting will be held at 2 p.m. Monday, August 30th. All mothers who are interested in helping with school projects please attend. The Mothers' Club wants to express their appreciation for the people who bought cakes, and helped at the picnic.

STRAWBERRY ICE CREAM

Doris Arthur wanted to share this recipe. She has sent it via friends and relatives to nearly every state in the U.S.
2 strawberry soda pops
2½ pts. of half & half
2 eagle brand milk
2 boxes thawed strawberries
Mix in freezer bucket & freeze.

The members of the CKCIG are holding a bake sale Saturday, August 28th. The proceeds will go to the ambulance fund.

FLEA MARKET

Don't forget the Flea Market will be in Christoval again Saturday and Sunday, August 28th and 29th.

BACK TO SCHOOL PICNIC HELD

Approximately 237 people attended the annual Christoval Mothers' Club Back to School Picnic. Several families from Boys' Ranch were there.

The teachers were introduced by Superintendent E.T. Erickson. Coach Chick Sales introduced the Cougar Football team. Gene Jones auctioned 20 cakes for a total of $156.05. An additional $6.00 was donated. Twenty-four members signed up to join the Mothers' Club.

The Mothers' Club is open to all mothers who have students in grade 6 and up. They work in the concession stand during all ball games.

The money made during the year is used to sponsor an annual banquet in the spring.

Officers for the '76-'77 year are: president, Ann Green; vice-president, Billie Sawyer; treasurer, Bonnie Arthur; Secretary, Ann Turnbo.

The first meeting is Monday, August 30th at 2 o'clock at the school.

CHILDREN ASK!

'Why do I have to sleep so long?'

For years studies have been made for an accepted explanation of sleep. What makes us sleep? How, exactly, do we fall asleep? Muscle fatigue is one good reason for sleep.

We know that sleep is a 'must,' but people vary in their toleration of lack of sleep. Parents notice this in their children. One writer states that persons knowing exactly what they want out of life, and are on their way -- a quality which shows up early in some children -- seems to require less sleep than dispersed or diffused personalities.

Do some experimenting. Try 8 hours, 10 hours, etc. and take notes on behavior and activity patterns. Treated with intelligence, children often act with intelligence. Treated like children without minds of their own, they often will reflect same.

We are all in the same physiological boat, young and old. We need a compass and chart to make our way against or through modern civilization and doldrums of ignorance.

'Why am I so crabby today?' asked the 10 year old.

'It could be because you didn't have enough sleep last night. You were up very late,' says mother.

'But I had such a good time!'

'Maybe you don't feel tired because you are still excited about the good time. But inside, you are tired. Your body is objecting -- even your stomach, liver, feet, and other parts of your body.'

Children often think they are being unfairly put upon by adults, parents, teachers, etc. Unless they are allowed to help reason things out, experiment and seek answers, they will retreat into self or lash out. Most children never go to extremes, but they flounder and waste energy that might be spent in achieving full growth as personalities.

If you have a questioner, and a question that needs an answer that you don't have, send it in and we will give a try at helping you in the following issues of this paper. Write to ASK, % The Eldorado Express News, Box 782. by Children's Editor

"THE HAMBURGER"??..

The American hamburger is a tradition. But the introduction of soybean meal has caused the Food and Drug Administration to issue a guideline. A 'Belbuster', 'Big Mac' or whatever cannot be called a hamburger unless the product contains a pattie of 100% beef. Some do, but SOME DON'T!

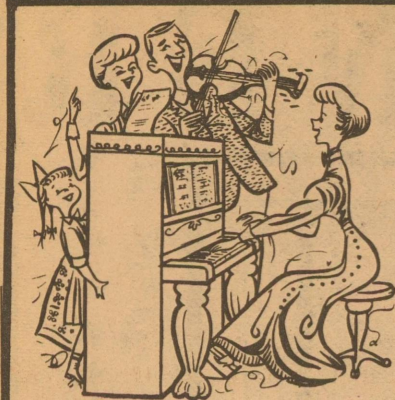

Our Policy Is: 'The highest possible quality at the lowest possible price.'

We call our hamburger A HAMBURGER.

It is a ¼ pound of pure beef, ground and prepared to your specification in our kitchen.

AROUND THE HOUSE and OTHER PLACES

This week, with school starting, I want to give you some information on consumer safety. One source estimated that many parents will spend at least $50.00 per child getting their children ready for the first day of school. With this much money being spent some precautions should be taken. Before shopping make a list. Try to avoid the temptation to overbuy. Shop around. It pays to compare price and quality in different stores. After you have made your purchases you have a right to complain if you are not satisfied with the way they perform. But before complaining, ask yourself these three questions:

1. Did I follow the use and care instructions carefully?
2. Did I use the product for its intended purpose?
3. Did I have reasonable expectations for the product's performance?

If you decide that you do have a valid complaint then use the following steps to seek help.

1. Try to solve the problem locally. Go to the store where you made the purchase. If possible, take the sales slip, product, tags, label and instructions with you. You may expect the store to either refund your money or exchange or repair the item.

2. If the problem cannot be handled locally, write to the company or manufacturer of the item. Write a legible business like letter and keep a carbon copy. Be sure to include your name, address and phone number. Identify the product purchased by brand name, model number, size and color. Explain the problem as precisely as possible. Suggest the particular corrective action you would like from the company. If you do not hear from them within a month, send a second letter.
3. If you fail to get help on the local level and also from the company manufacturer, the following Federal and State agencies will help protect your rights.

Send reports about unfair or deceptive merchandising practices to:

Federal Trade Commission
Dallas Regional Office
Room 452B, 500 South Ervay

Direct inquiries about misbranded contaminated or hazardous foods, drugs, cosmetics, medical devices, products and toys to:

CROP CONDITIONS

Cotton and grain sorghum crops continue to make excellent growth in the county. For some of you city dwellers who sometimes find it hard to get out of the city limits except on occasional trip to San Angelo, we would invite you to visit the farming area in the county and see what looks like the best grain sorghum crop in many years. You should at least drive through the Reynolds and Bailey Ranch communities and see the results of the week long rains that came about a month ago.

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT (OSHA)

During the last half-dozen years we have seen regulations affecting farmers mushroom. OSHA...is a case in point. It is in trouble in rural America. Its image is not improving; its effectiveness eroding. Its problem: Congress gave the Labor Department a mandate to set compulsory, rigid safety regulations and standards covering virtually every employer in the United States including, inappropriately, the small farmer employer.

Imagine, if you can, the Department of Labor dreaming up nationwide farm safety regulations -- regulations ranging all the way from privies to power takeoffs. If you can visualize that, you realize why farmers harbor deepseated apprehensions concerning nonfarmers making decisions about their business.

Incidentally, the Labor Department has stopped the distribution of a beef cattle booklet. The beef cattle safety pamphlet has caused much flak because of its simple language. Labor Department said it "did not intend to insult anyone's intelligence," but "criticism has...directed our attention to several sections that must be revised." Labor said it will stop distribution of the booklet until the revisions can be made.

U. S. FARM EXPORTS AT ALL TIME HIGH

U. S. Agricultural exports reached an all-time high of $22.15 billion in fiscal year 1976, Secretary of Agriculture Earl L. Butz reported today.

This was a gain of three percent from last year's record of $21.6 billion and marked the sixth straight year of record farm exports, dating to fiscal 1971, when $7.8 billion eclipsed the previous high of $6.8 billion reached in 1967.

"This is another remarkable export sales performance by American agriculture," Secretary Butz said. "For three years now our agriculture exports have been more than $21 billion and in each of these years we have needed those foreign dollars to help pay the rising import bills for petroleum and other products.

"This year despite a 6 percent increase in agricultural imports to $10.1 billion, U. S. agricultural trade deficit of $8 billion, and once again agriculture put the nation's total trade balance in the black--this time by $4 billion for the 12-month period."

CHANGES IN OPERATIONS OR ADDRESS

Producers who have changed their ranching or farming operations should notify the ASCS Office in order that we may keep our records up-to-date and that we may keep you informed on current activities in agriculture.

ADVICE FROM YOUR COUNTY AGENT By Jerry Swift

COTTON ASSOCIATION MEETS

Members of the Schleicher County Cotton Association met Thursday evening at the Memorial Building to discuss participation in the continuing effort to eliminate bollweevils from the cotton scene in Schleicher County. County Agent Jerry Swift presented information concerning cost of chemicals and bids submitted by aerial spray companies. The association awarded the spraying service to Bert Bruton Flying Service, and accepted a bid of $7.40 per gallon for the chemical "Guthon". Total cost per application of the chemical will be $9.15 per acre for 5 applications.

Previous years the association has been assisted by the State in defraying in cotton acreage in the County, and a failure to attain one hundred per cent participation from all growers in the area, Schleicher County was not included among cotton growing counties receiving aid. There was some hope expressed that funds might later be available.

Plans are to begin the program on or about September 9 with the first application. Subsequent will follow at 10 to 14 day intervals. Mr. Nick Wilson area entomologist for the Texas A & M Extension Service, will work with President, Steve Williams and the board of directors of the association in determining any necessity for changing procedures or chemicals after early results have been analyzed.

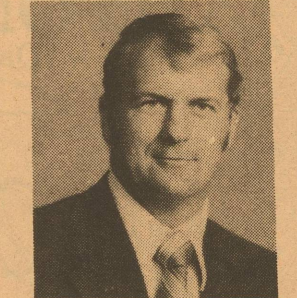

All members present expressed enthusiastic support for the need of the control program, and felt that it should be carried out in a manner prescribed by the association regardless of the prospect of some help from State sources at a later date.

All members and participants should make their checks payable to Schleicher County Cotton Association and should be handed or sent to Steve Williams not later than September 5.

Members present for the meeting were Kenith Homer, Mike & Wayne Mikeska, Earl & David Lloyd, Reuben Minor, Edwin Jackson, Jr., Ello Wilde, Jack Wade, Steve Williams, Walter Powell, Jr., Ed Meador, Duwain Sauer, Nick Jurecek, Johnny Griffin and Norris Sauer.

stock are subject at some time or place to predation, but the most serious problem exists in the sheep and goat industries.

Said Shelton: "The cattle industry suffers the greatest monetary loss, but when such a loss is expressed as a function of the economic importance of an industry, the sheep industry suffers a loss as much as 26 times greater."

PREDATION THREAT TO SHEEP, GOATS

(College Station) A scientist of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station today described losses because of predation "serious deterrents to a successful sheep and goat industry in the United States".

Dr. Maurice Shelton of San Angelo, Experiment Station research geneticist, said at a symposium of the American Society of Animal Science that "Unless this problem of predation can be resolved, the future of the range sheep industry, as practiced in this country, is in doubt". He also said that although the need to solve the problem is quite evident, acceptable and effective solutions are not so evident.

Observers estimate the cost of predation on the U.S. sheep industry as high as $38 million annually. "It is doubtful", said Shelton, "whether the industry can sustain such loss and continue to survive". Nearly all kinds of live-

SHEEP, GOAT FIELD DAY AT A&M CENTER

(San Angelo) Ranchers at a San Angelo meeting Sept. 2 can hear agricultural scientists report on their research into the apparent adverse effect of Kleingrass on some young sheep.

The Sept. 2 reports are among several scheduled for the annual Sheep and Goat Field Day of the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at San Angelo.

Reports on the Kleingrass studies will come from Dr. Charles W. Livingston of San Angelo, veterinary microbiologist, and Dr. Muri Bailey of College Station, veterinary toxicologist, both with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

Dr. George A. Ahlschwede, the state sheep and goat specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the September 2 master of ceremonies, said the field day begins with registration at 9 a.m., includes a Dutch-treat barbecue lunch, and ends at mid-afternoon.

Guests at the San Angelo Center will hear during the morning session such other topics as the adapting of lambs to high concentrate rations, the composition of some range plants native to the Edwards Plateau, some research data and experiences with Finn-sheep and other crosses, and the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association (remarks by President Bill Pfleger).

Others speakers will be Dr. Percy Turner of Water Valley, immediate past president of the TS&GRA; Joe David Ross of Sonora, rancher and Finn-sheep producer; Dr. J.E. Huston of San Angelo, range nutritionist for the Experiment Station; Dr. Maurice Shelton and Dr. Millard C. Calhoun, both of San Angelo and geneticist and animal nutritionist with the Experiment Station.

In the afternoon, speakers will be Dr. Carl S. Menzies, resident director of the San Angelo Center; Dr. Robert E. Steger, Extension Service range specialist; and Phillip V. Thompson, Experiment Station research associate in the performance-testing of Spanish goats.

Par-Tee notes

The Hext Memorial Men's Partnership Tournament was held August 21st and 22nd.

Forty-two teams played in the four flights. Of the 84 players taking part in the tournament, 53 were visitors from various towns and one of the visitors was from Wisconsin, and 31 local men.

We are pleased to note so many players from large regulation courses still find a challenge in our smaller course.

Western Auto Associate Store was giving away a colored television set for a hole in one on #9. However, no one won the set. During a practice round a few days before the tournament Winkie Wardlow of San Angelo did have a beautiful hole in one on #2 playing with Jimmie Powell. Our congratulations to him from our club members as that is the dream of every golfer for that treasured hole in one.

Thursday, August 19th, Eddie Kinser was hostess for the Women's Auxiliary Monthly Play Day. Winning medalist was Ernestine Hext and Handicap winner was Mary Robinson. We invite all interested lady golfers to join us on each Thursday afternoon at 1:30 p.m.

The Club wishes to express our thanks to the Eldorado Express News for their interest in the growth and development of the club and the coverage of the Hext Memorial Tournament.

The Tournament Committee wishes to thank every man, woman and child that helped in any way to make the tournament such a success. We missed Robert Page and wish him on the road to recovery.

Our special thanks to Rose Doyle, a former member and treasured friend to all of us, for working both days in the tournament. Its always a delight to visit with Rose and Kenneth. Happy Golfing!!

JUST JOGGIN' ALONG!

by Ed Meador

Well, the Fifth Annual Jack Hext Memorial Golf Tournament is now history and you can only say good things about it. The weather was great, and golfers turned out from all over. Orland Harris and company outdid themselves on the barbeque served Saturday evening, which seemed to fit right in with some great fellowship and visitation. A lot of credit and appreciation goes to Mickey Rathbone and all of his helpers who organized the tournament in splendid fashion, and kept it rolling right along without a hitch. There might have been some disgruntled golfers who weren't very proud of their own scores, but you sure didn't hear anyone poor-mouthing the tournament itself. And after all, there's a lot to the old saying which reminds us that "it matters not that you won or lost, but how you played the game". There's a feeling that Jack is real proud to be remembered by this good sporting event.

Speaking of Jack brings back a lot of memories. For those of you who didn't know Jack, he wasn't a big man size-wise, but he could flat knock that ball a country mile. He was a good golfer. And he could play a little football too -- like half-back on a punt formation on the 1936 Eagle team. We nearly pulled it off that year, but had to settle for a tie for district with Rock-springs. Jack, Johnny Clement, George Williams and myself made up the backfield, with people like Richard Bruton, Earl Bryant, Jack Jones, A. J. Freiss, Jo Ed Hill, Willard Newlin, and those two super fly-weight guards (125 pounds!) Orval Edmiston and Bob Bradley handling the up-front chores.

The score was 0 - 0. Rock-springs had driven the Eagles all the way back to the 3 yard line, and a fellow by the name of Sweeten, who had all the attributes of a freight train in full locomotion, came barreling through for what looked like a sure touchdown. Somebody filled the gap and saved the day. The Eagles took over and tried vainly for three downs to move. Fourth and eight to go and you knew we had to punt. Johnny stepped back and planted a nimble toe into the ball but some dog-goned Angora got his hands up, jammed the ball good and it went skittering off about ten feet high and backwards... right into Clement's hands. Jack threw a key block, and Johnny charged for enough yards to make a first down. A couple of minutes later the game was all over. And so was the season.

Jack and Johnny were co-captain that year. They laid the groundwork for the 1937 team with the leadership they gave, and that team went on to win the regional championship which was the ultimate in Class B football at the time. Most of you know that Jack died of a heart ailment in 1972. Johnny was killed in a plane crash in Kentucky in December, 1969. Two great guys who gave a lot of themselves making a lot of people happy. Memories-----guess that's part of our legacy.

BARKER 4th IN NATIONALS

Jim Barker returned this week from the National Water Ski Jumping Contest in Miami, Florida. Barker finished fourth in this years national competition, the second consecutive year that he has finished in that position. This year he improved his own personal record with a jump of 144 feet. The winning mark in this years event was 151 feet, just two feet off the world record mark of 153 feet.

Barker said that four of the top ten contestants at some time previous were world record holders. He said that like many other athletic events, jumping distances continue to get greater. Barker was the world record holder in 1974 at which time he jumped 142 ft. The current world record mark of 153 feet was set in last years national jumping meet by Jim Miles who this year finished in sixth place. Barker said with the high caliber competition, it is pretty indefinite as to how the final standing will come out on any given day. Barker has remained rather consistent with his jumping in the national event. He has finished in second or fourth places the last

CHRISTIVAL SHORT NOTES Cont'd.

Edna Mayfield, mother of Harold Pettitt, reported that she had a dream last Friday night, and it was so vivid, she thought it real. Seems that she asked Jimmy Carter, democratic nominee for president, for a loan to put up a hat factory but he turned her down and hung up the phone on her. Harold thought Jimmy treated her badly, since she had always been a good democrat. Mr. & Mrs. Harold Pettitt are the owners of the Golden Years Nursing Home.

Mr. & Mrs. Harold Pettitt had as their guests last week Mr. & Mrs. Ronald Cole of Las Cruces, New Mexico. Ronald, who is June's nephew, works for a large pecan orchard. Also visiting was June's niece and family, Dr. & Mrs. Phillip Tybor and their three children, of Chicago. Dr. Tybor is now running a survey to see what foods can be substituted with soy beans, because of their high protein value.

Mr. & Mrs. Harold Yates and the Rev. & Mrs. Harry Tansil of San Angelo visited in the home of Harold's grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Crosswhite, Sunday.

Mrs. Mildred Kirby and Mrs. Mattie K. Crosswhite visited in the home of Mrs. Alice VanHorn of Eldorado Thursday.

A GOOD BALANCE SHEET MAKES FOR A FRIENDLY BANKER

Your banker is likely to give you a loan -- or turn you down -- on the basis of ratios gleaned from your balance sheet. (These ratios are only general guidelines and may vary somewhat by area.) Current ratio. Current assets (livestock and grain, for example) divided by current liabilities (production loans, for example). If you have assets of $300,000 and liabilities of $100,000 -- a 3-to-1 ratio -- your banker will smile widely and give you what you want. If you're at a 1-to-1 ratio, you may still get your loan, but look for the banker to ask some pointed questions.

Not worth over total debt. Here, a 1-to-1 ratio is excellent. Your ratio might be as low as 1-to-4 ($1 net worth for every $4 of debt) before the banker says no. Total assets over total liabilities. This is known as your debt service load. Most big corporations run about 3-to-1, and bankers like to see farmers in about the same stance. At 2-to-1, bankers get tighter-fisted. If you're at 1.25-to-1, have a masterful plan ready.

Sloan, is still vacationing, hanging sheet-rock and playing in the mud.
