Wins T.V.

Sabrina Hatten, 10 month old daughter of Auby Hatten, was the lucky winner of the 13" color TV given away by Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co. The drawing, which was for kids only, was held at noon on December 23, 1983. Foxworth-Galbraith would like to thank all the youngsters who came in and registered for the drawing.

How cold was it?

To answer Johnny Carson's favorite question of "How cold was it?", this recent cold snap broke all existing low temperatures for the month of December in the continental USA. In Eldorado a crisp 5 degrees was recorded on the 24th with a high of 8 degrees. Only trace precipitation was present in spite of the icy covering that came Tuesday and Wednesday. Frozen water was the problem for nearly every resident and stockman. Approximately 15 calls to the city water department over the Christmas holidays were reported to date for frozen and broken water lines and at least one sewer lift station succumbed to the cold.

The hospital was another victim of the cold temperatures when a main pipe in the ceiling burst. Luckily only minor wall damage was recorded and it was in the operating scrub room closet but water did flood the scrub room, OB, operating room, central supply sterilization room, nursery and a hall in the Medical Center.

The mishap occurred during the early hours on the 26th but the hospital had its water supply back by 6:00 p.m.

Only time will tell the full extent of damage caused by the extreme cold to Schleicher County.

By Evelyn Stigler

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright of Ft. Worth were hosts for a Christmas Dinner in their home Christmas Day this year. Their home was beautifully decorated with Christmas motifs everywhere including the table decorations.

The traditional turkey dinner, dressing and all the trimmings was served with each one contributing part of the food.

There were five of the seven living children present, two brothers and three sisters with their families.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright, their daughter, her husband and son, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Ashton of Ft. Worth; Mrs. Evelyn Stigler of Eldorado and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Stigler, Duane and Paula of Euless, Jerry Stigler of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams and Michelle of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones of Morris Illinois their daughter, Mrs. Guy Marvin of Miami, Florida; Mrs. Viola Guthrie of Hico, Mr. and Mrs. G.C. Wright Jr. of Dallas and their son, his wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Wright and Joshua of Balch Springs.

The weather outside was cold but the fellowship food and fun inside this home was very joyous on this Christmas Day.

Mrs. Ella Parrent was honored on Friday Dec. 23 in the Schleicher Co. Medical Center as she was unable to get out. They exchanged gifts and enjoyed visiting, and taking pictures.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Woodward, Gail Garlach, Emily and Amy, Joyce Webb, William and Stephanie from San Angelo, Jack Cox from Abilene and Rick Cox from Lubbock, Susan and Mike Lloyd, James and Lavona and Fern Parrent from Eldorado.

Jim, Jane and Katy Kosub from San Antonio, Beep, Maxie, Channon and Meredith Cain were here visiting the Peyton Cain's during the holidays. Beep is working with Texas State Bank in San Angelo now.

Danny Boyer and family from Irving, Mr. and Mrs. M.E. Carothers (Ila Jony and Kenneth) from Waco, Larry Boyer and his family from San Angelo were all here visiting the Ray Boyers over the holidays.

About a week before Christmas Mrs. Boyer fell as she slipped on ice out the back door. She had to be taken to the emergency room where she had 18 stitches taken in her little finger.

June, Jim and Steve Carter (Wendel Briggs sister) from Wichita Falls were in the Briggs home before Christmas.

Waymon Briggs, Wendel's brother, and his son Charles from Houston are here now visiting in the Briggs home.

The T.J. Baileys have had their children, Joe Bailey from Houston, Martha and Virginia Henderson from San Antonio, John Henderson and his fiancée, Jeannine Perry from Ozona and Colonel Dick Gonzales from Fort Sam Houston in their home for the holidays. They have had to break ice and carry water to the house because of a frozen pump.

Dora Bell McSwain from San Angelo and Mrs. Coma Trotter, sister and sister in law are here visiting Mrs. Richard Cheatham. They all had Christmas dinner with the Tony Cheathams along with Tony and Fayla's children, John and his family, Vickie and Tony Marchese and their children. Fayla's sister and her husband Bonnie and Jim Hale from Kansas were there also.

Cold weather, frozen pipes, pumps and having to carry water to use in the house seem to be the topic of conversation this Christmas so it will be remembered for a long time as a cold Christmas outside. There will be more local news next week.

How to tooth a Christian By Dale Lipsett

Back when I worked for the old Shoestring Ranch, I learned how to tooth a sheep. Looking at a sheep's mouth is the only way to get an accurate idea of the age and condition of the animal. It seems to me that Christians can be toothed just like sheep. After all, God calls us sheep and with good reason.

A Christian who has just been saved runs around like a string of firecrackers looking for a place to explode; he's like a new-born lamb, only the indications of teeth are present. A Christian who has gotten into the groove of regular prayer, church attendance and Bible study is like a three-month old lamb, he's got a full set of temporary teeth. A Christian who has begun to take his Christianity outside the church house door is like a yearling sheep, he's got his first two permanent teeth. A Christian who isn't afraid to tell someone else about Jesus is like a two-year old sheep, he's got four permanent teeth. A Christian who tithes is like a three-year old sheep, he's got six permanent teeth. A Christian who is able to take responsibility for teaching others is like a good solid-mouth sheep. These are the ones who will make a profit for the Shepherd.

Sad to say, there are also Christians who give up and let some little thing make them bitter enough to drop out of church; they're like broken-mouth sheep, candidates for the sale ring. There are also Christians who've lost all their teeth or who never developed any; they're gummers and not good for anything at all. What kind of sheep are you? Would the Shepherd be proud to have you in his flock?

51 deaths predicted by DFS

The Texas Department of Public Safety has estimated that 51 persons will be killed on Texas streets and highways during the Christmas holidays. The estimate is based upon previous holiday death statistics and the number of hours during which motorists are anticipated to travel.

"Last year, 44 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the actual holiday period. However, persons injured in various accidents across the state brought the final death toll to 52," said Colonel Jim Adams, director of the DPS.

Adams said while Texas is experiencing a significant decrease in traffic deaths statewide this year, the holidays can reflect a deadly time for motorists. "As of noon, Friday, December 16, we had an 11 per cent reduction in traffic deaths and that is 412 fewer people killed. We attribute the reduction to increased DWI enforcement, widespread attention to the drinking driver and a renewed effort by drivers to obey traffic laws.

The DPS director said that holiday weekends are dangerous times to travel.

"We find the volume of traffic increases. Also, we still have some drivers who insist upon drinking and driving and others who exceed the speed limits.

These drivers are risking accident involvement," he said.

DPS statistics show that DWI and speed are the two main contributing factors to traffic accidents in Texas.

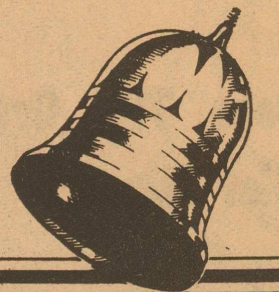

"We'll have additional available troopers to assist the motorists and to be especially watchful for the drunken drivers and those who speed."

Adams praised local police authorities for their work in reducing the traffic death toll and he applauded the various local programs to help keep the drinking driver from getting behind the wheel.

Civic clubs, local police agencies and other organizations have begun programs to help prevent drunk driving and this could help tremendously toward accident prevention. However, we will still find a few who will be on the road while drinking or speeding and will be involved in a tragic accident," he said.

The DPS "Operation Motorcade" program begins at 6 p.m. Friday, December 23 and ends 78-hours later at midnight on Monday, December 26. The program is designed to inform motorists of the number of traffic deaths occurring during the holiday in an attempt to increase public awareness of the dangers of holiday driving.

DWI laws stiffen

A minimum jail term is mandatory for any person convicted two or more times for DWI under a stricter Texas law effective January 1, 1984.

Colonel Jim Adams, DPS director and chairman of the task force which recommended tougher DWI legislation, said the new law should close the back door in the criminal justice system for repeat offenders.

"Deferred adjudication, which allowed repeat violators to wipe the slate clean after each DWI arrest, will be eliminated under this new statute," Adams pointed out. "Even if probation is given, a conviction record will be established for the offender and this record can be used in subsequent prosecution of any additional drunk driving charges. Jail time is mandatory as a condition of probation beginning with the second DWI conviction."

The new law provides increased penalties for DWI convictions. Conviction on first offense DWI carries a fine of $100 to $2,000 with a jail term ranging from 72 hours to two years. A second offense conviction is punishable by jail time ranging from a minimum of 15 days up to two years with a fine of $300 to $2,000. Conviction for third and subsequent DWI offenses carry a fine of $500 to $2,000 and confinement in jail for a minimum of 30 days to two years or in the state penitentiary for 60 days to five years.

Minimum terms of confinement are increased by 60 days and fine limits are raised by $500 if the DWI offense results in serious bodily injury to another person. If a drunk driver is found to be responsible for a traffic fatality, the law prescribes a mandatory term for the violator.

Adams said the revised DWI statute will aid in the prosecution of drunk drivers.

"Under the present law, a person is only presumed to be intoxicated if tests reveal a blood alcohol concentration of .10 per cent or more," Adams said. "The new law established that a driver is definitely too drunk to drive at the .10 per cent level."

The revised statute also contains provisions for automatic 90-day suspension of driving privileges for refusal to submit to an alcohol chemical test. The refusal also will be admissible evidence in the driver's trial. The drunk driver's vehicle may be confiscated and sold upon the fourth DWI conviction.

The DPS director predicted that the statute will help deter DWI violations and provide the means to identify repeat offenders.

"Despite increased DWI arrests, and enhanced public awareness about this problem, far too many people still believe that there are no unfavorable consequences to drunk driving," Adams said. "Texas law enforcement agencies do not have enough resources to adequately police all streets and highways. However, when these changes in the DWI law take effect, drunk drivers who are detected can count on being punished in a meaningful fashion. This should help discourage drunk driving," concluded Adams.
