

On The Divide

Like the old woman who said she didn't mind bathing all over a time or two each year, but just didn't like this going swimming stuff, members of the Lions club will do most anything for the good of the community, except to repeat the performance of impersonating women in a style show.

R. L. Sample supplied the polish for the show Tuesday night with his unique descriptions of the charming young things as they modeled, dainty feet and all, before the large audience.

Schleicher county wool is still gaining widespread publicity for its high quality and excellent grade. A specimen recently selected by J. E. Hill, clipped from Pat Martin's flock of registered Rambouillets took fourth place in competition with exhibits from several foreign countries and various parts of the United States. A total of 483 fleeces were assembled in the competition. The Schleicher county product is now being exhibited in the California Coliseum on Treasure Island.

Mr. Martin plans to frame the check he received from the Golden Gate Fair as a premium, instead of cashing it for the money.

SECOND GUESSING

(By L. T. Barber)

The Eldorado fans were about as tired as the ball players were last Friday afternoon after the hectic football game with Mason. Many groans and sighs of relief were heard when the Eagles made their do-or-die goal line stand early in the third quarter.

We have to take our hats off to smart tackle made by Underwood last Friday. Had he made the usual tackle the Mason ball carrier would have been knocked across the goal line for the score but he did not make this kind of tackle; instead he pulled the ball carrier back and kept the ball on the one yard line, where the Eagles rallied and held for 4 downs.

Another good boy on the field in his special department was Jo Ed Hill. Mason was kept away from the scoring zone by his toe. He got away several punts above the fifty yard type.

Although Mason made more first downs and threatened the Eldorado goal line on several occasions, they did not ever make any sustained drive for these threats. Errors made by the Eagles caused practically all the trouble. The only error that was made by the Puncers when they fumbled on their eighteen cost them a touchdown.

Condition of the ball players played a great part in the game. The invaders in the last quarter seemed to be tiring, while the home team seemed to be a bit better and were getting stronger as the game progressed. There is one thing that the boys on the divide never think about and that is water during the game. While other teams are drinking water during each time out the Eagles are walk-

Rains Received In Schleicher Thursday

Continuing her program of bestowing Schleicher county farm and ranch lands with life-giving moisture, promising to be a good fall seasoning, old mother nature again blessed the area with showers of rain Wednesday night and Thursday.

From various parts of the county come reports of rainfall from 1-2 to 2 inches in widely scattered areas.

About 1-2 inch was reported from the Tom Jacoby ranch, 15 miles southeast of Eldorado. From the Cliff community, Forest Runge's ranch reports a general fall of one inch. The Nutt ranch received an inch and Robert Milligan's ranch reports 1 1/4 inches. Mr. Shaw at the Moore gin and W. E. Bruton ranch report that 1 1/4 inches is general in the Reynolds community. From the Adams community comes a report of one inch from the Silas Burk Burk ranch and 2 inches fell at the ranch of Mrs. M. M. Reynolds.

ATTEND GRAND CHAPTER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Watson and Mrs. Ed DeLong went to San Antonio Monday to attend the Grand Chapter of Order of Eastern Star. Mrs. Gordie Alexander and her mother, Mrs. Archer and daughter, Dorothy Nell, accompanied them to Kerrville where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wells. Mrs. Wells is a sister of Mrs. Alexander.

The closing Grand Chapter session was held Thursday night.

VISIT IN MISSOURI

Mr. and Mrs. Lee McElroy returned home Tuesday from a three weeks visit with children in Fort Worth and other relatives in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Damron and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Faught visited in Ballinger last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson and their new grandson.

Ethel Ann Oglesby Again Gets Footlights

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI— It was footlights and grease paint again last week for Ethel Ann Oglesby, one of the outstanding students of Advanced Acting at Stephens College, when she played the part of Dorothy Fenton in Anthony Hope's Notable Comedy, "The Adventure of Lady Ursula." The play was one of a series of Saturday night dramas presented by the beginning and advanced acting groups, and drew a capacity house to the college's Studio Theater.

Ethel Ann appeared in "Stage Door", "Christopher Bean", "Hay Fever" and "You Can't Take It With You" last school year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ford Oglesby, Sr., of Eldorado.

Wyatt Beauty Shop Moves From City

The Wyatt Beauty Shop, located here since March, will move Monday to Las Vegas, New Mexico, E. J. Wyatt, owner, announced this week. Reason for the move is a chance to enlarge the shop.

Mr. Wyatt moved his shop here on March 21 from Barnhart. He says the move from Eldorado will be to a town of approximately 8,000 population in connection with the only barber shop of that city.

Poultry Show To Be Held Here On Saturday, Nov. 4

Plans are nearing completion for the Schleicher county poultry show to be held on November 4. Miss Margaret Stewart, Home Demonstration agent, announced this week. Neol C. Fry, assistant Tom Green County agent, will do the judging. The place for the show has not yet been determined.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mrs. Marion Wade, Mrs. Will Isaacs, Mrs. I. R. Conner, Mrs. Joe H. Moore, and Mrs. A. E. Tree. They are assisted by Miss Stewart.

There will be an educational program given by E. O. Nevills, County Agricultural agent; W. G. Godwin, county agent, and Mrs. George Williams. There will also be educational exhibits by various clubs.

LOCAL FISHERMEN RETURN WITH 50 POUND CATCH

Approximately 50 pounds of fish was the reward of a few days of fishing and waiting on the banks of the Rio Grande this week for L. T. Wilson and M. V. Deaton, Eldorado nimrods. The largest catch weighed 20 pounds.

Mr. Wilson caught several large cat fish on his trips last summer.

Hallowe'en Carnival Will Be Held At School Saturday Nite

The school carnival and coronation of the Talon queen will be held Saturday night, October 28 in the High School gymnasium and auditorium. This is a gala occasion many students and parents look forward to each year.

Plans have been completed for attractions including entertaining side shows, food booths in addition to booths where one may try his skill and luck in games. Prizes donated by Eldorado and San Angelo merchants, will be given winners in the games.

Net proceeds from the carnival will be used by the P.T.A. to finance publication of the school annual and band uniforms.

The coronation of the Talon queen will be held in the school auditorium. In the final run-off are Pauline McLaughlin, a freshman and Eloise Watson, a senior.

A large crowd is expected to be in attendance to enjoy the fun, freaks and food. There will be no charge for admission to the building.

SCHLEICHER COUNTY WOOL JUDGED 4th IN WORLD COMPETITION AT FAIR

In competition with fleece entries totaling more than 260 in its individual class from England, Scotland, Australia, New Zealand, British South Africa, Argentina, Uruguay, Canada and United States a specimen from Pat Martin's flock of registered Rambouillets on his Schleicher county ranch, took 4th place in marketing class No. 1, 80's or above, at the Golden Gate International Exposition in San Francisco, according to information received this week from fair officials. Accompanying the announcement was a check which Mr. Martin plans to frame instead of cashing.

The only Texas entry to place in competition at the Golden Gate Wool Show according to the list of winners, was selected by J. E. Hill of Eldorado Wool Company. Two entries from this county were sent to compete with the to-

Tank Erected For Oil Agency

A 1500 gallon storage tank was being erected near the Ellis Service Station this week by Marvin McAngus who has opened an Independent oil agency in Eldorado.

The operation of a tank truck was begun this week, Marvin stated. Fuel oils will be transported from Abilene to Eldorado where they will be distributed wholesale.

The new operator is an Eldorado boy, having been reared here and attended the local high school.

PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL BEGINS HERE TONIGHT

Rev. J. P. Kidd of Austin will arrive in Eldorado today to open a Revival meeting at the Presbyterian church tonight, Rev. N. P. Wilkinson, pastor, announced this week.

Services will be held each evening at 7:30 o'clock and will continue over a period of ten days. Morning services will also be held at 10 o'clock, Monday through Friday. A committee has been appointed to secure special music for the services.

Rev. Wilkinson announces that the church building has recently been equipped with gas heaters and will be comfortable in case of cold weather. He cordially invites the public to attend the services.

VISITING IN LOUISIANA

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wells of Shreveport, La. visited a few days the first of this week with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Newlin. Mr. and Mrs. Newlin returned home with them Thursday for a weeks visit. Mrs. Wells is a daughter.

Fred Bruton Jr., was returned home the first of the week from a San Angelo hospital where he recently underwent an appendicitis operation.

Weinner Roast Entertains Group

A weiner roast at the road-side park entertained a group of young people one evening last week. Following supper around the campfire the group went to the show.

In the party were Charlene Mund, Katherine Crosby, Bonnie Mund, Beatrice Wright, Nell Edmiston, Norman Lynn Hodges, Willard Newlin, Jimmy Danford, Willie Bridgeman, Clifton Henderson, L. D. Mund and Wendell Yates.

ELDORADO DEFEATS MASON FRIDAY; PLAY JUNCTION ON ENEMY SOIL TODAY

JUNCTION GAME PROMISES TO ONE OF SEASON'S BIG THRILLERS

The Eldorado Eagles, followed by a large crowd of local fans to furnish the moral support, will journey to Junction this afternoon for a battle with the powerful Junction squad. The Eagles will emerge upon the battle field cautiously but with confidence that she can retain her lofty perch in the district running.

The game this afternoon will be an interesting one, from reports, rumors and indications. The Junction lads will be gunning for the local chaps, but the eleven from on the Divide will show their stuff on the ball and fans from this camp are expecting them to return victorious.

Lamb Auction To Be Held Saturday By Parent Teachers

With the chant of Nelson Johnson of San Angelo as auctioneer, approximately 60 lambs will go on the auction block here Saturday afternoon to replenish the Parent Teachers Association treasury for the purchase of grammar school playground equipment and a piano for the school gymnasium.

A number of fine fat lambs have been donated by Schleicher county ranchmen, and these animals will be sold to highest bidders beginning at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the Wilson Motor Company car-lot, across the street from Hoover Drug store.

The voice of Nelson Johnson is familiar around auction corrals of West Texas and he is expected to strut Saturday afternoon as he boosts and bounds prices to the highest peaks.

Parent-Teacher officials have invited all local business men to participate in the bidding. There will be a large crowd present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Whitley visited in Brownwood last Sunday with their son, Jack Jr., who is a student in Howard Payne College.

Baptist W. M. S. To Send Clothing To Orphans' Home

The regular monthly business meeting and Bible study was the feature of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society when circles met at the church Monday afternoon.

"How Firm a Foundation" was discussed as the W. M. S. song for the ensuing year. Reports were made from each chairman. A box of new and old clothing is to be gathered and sent to the Buckner Orphan's home in the near future.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Baily Montgomery led the Bible study taken from the 28th, and 29th chapters of Gerimiah. Sixteen members were present.

W. W. Tedder of Fife visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley Thursday.

Francis Whitley of Menard spent last week-end in Eldorado visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gene Koy and Miss Bonnie Mund.

Mrs. Bertha Teague, supervisor of the W.P.A. Libraries, of San Angelo visited the local library Wednesday.

In a game that had the fans on their feet, out of breath and practically exhausted at the end, the Eldorado Eagles defeated a very strong Mason team last Friday afternoon on the local grid.

The first half, which was all Mason, kept the local customers out on the edge of their seats by fumbles and Masons continued threats of scoring.

The opening kick off set the home team back on their heels, when Jones' fumbled the kick after it had gotten away from Halbert. The Puncers took the ball on the Eagles 17 and made it a first on the six by a pass completion. Two yards were made in the next four tries and Hill kicked to his own 37. Mason failed to gain and punted in the end zone. The Eagles took over on their twenty and tries at the line went for short gains and again Hill punted out of danger, getting one off for 58 yards to the Mason 22. Exchanges of punts from here gave the ball to the Eagles on their own 25. On a bad pass from center, Underwood fumbled and Mason recovered on the Eldorado 17. Two passes were tried but were incomplete as the half ended.

The local lads came out at the start of the second half with intentions of going some where, but these plans were badly torn when after a few plays a pass from Halbert to Underwood was intercepted on the Mason 47 and returned to the Eldorado one-yard line, where he was overtaken by Underwood. Three tries at the center of the line and a pass gained only about one foot and Hill put his toe to one out of bounds on the Eldorado 48 yard line. The Puncers failed to gain and punted to Halbert who returned to the Eagle 27. Eldorado made first down of the game from here with Halbert and Williams carrying. Incomplete passes and a fifteen yard penalty for grounding a pass forced the Eagles to punt. Hill again came through with a nice 45 yarder, out of bounds on the Mason 25. On the first play, Mason made their first costly mistake by fumbling. McCormick recovered on the eighteen and from there Halbert made four yards a left tackle and a pass, Underwood to Newlin in the end zone was good for the first score. Williams' kick was good for the point.

It was Eldorado all the way from this point. Mason tried several passes and running plays but were never able to get going and never threatened the Eagle goal line again. On smashing line plays by Underwood, and tricky reverses to Halbert the 2nd score was made late in the fourth period, with Halbert carrying over from the 6 yard line. Williams try for point hit the goal post and fell back.

Rev. M. V. Williams returned the first of this week from a six-day session of the newly formed Southwest Texas Conference of the Methodist church. Rev. Williams, who has been pastor of the local Methodist church for the past year, was returned here to continue his work. The conference was held in San Antonio.

Rev. M. V. Williams Returned To Local Church

Rev. M. V. Williams returned the first of this week from a six-day session of the newly formed Southwest Texas Conference of the Methodist church. Rev. Williams, who has been pastor of the local Methodist church for the past year, was returned here to continue his work. The conference was held in San Antonio.

Rev. J. W. Leggett, formerly a pastor of the local church, who served as pastor of the Cotulla church the past year, was returned to that city.

CONSIDER THE PUBLIC

Through the press, by posters, over the radio and on the floor of our legislatures we have been more or less bombarded with propaganda for this or that form of transportation. One group asks for a square deal and a fair field. Another request is for regulations of transportation or for tax or laws which will place all forms of transportation on an equal basis.

One of the things which has been singularly missing from a great deal of this propaganda has been the interest of the public. It is certain that in all the demands for special consideration by transportation interests there have been few speeches in which a square deal was demanded for the general public.

Everyone is interested in transportation. Every dollar for merchandise or material a considerable percentage goes to pay the cost of transportation—a cost that is hidden in the purchasing price. If new methods of transportation come along which will permit transportation cost to be cut, it will mean that prices will go down and the cost of living will be reduced. Certainly the public is entitled to this saving if it can be accomplished.

An attempt should be made to meet transportation problems by having them adjusted to the needs of society rather than trying to have society legislated trying meet the needs of any individual form of transportation. Competition is not particularly welcome by some of us. But, it is the only insurance of a square deal to the public. Let competition in the transportation field continue.

HOLLOWE'EN

Hallowe'en is a very ancient festival whose origin probably antedates recorded history, but appears to have been an outgrowth of the custom of lighting sacred fires on prescribed occasions. In olden celebration was the lighting of a bonfire at nightfall by each household.

In Ireland and in parts of Scotland a similar festival, called Beltane, was observed by lighting two fires close together, when both persons and animals would pass between them in the belief that disease would thereby be warded off. Accounts of such a ceremony were recorded as early as about the year 908 A. D.

In Germany similar rites were held, often with a view of appeasing evil spirits, these being also observed with certain variations in Spain and Italy. China and Japan hold ceremonies for the entertainment of ghosts, when the streets are lined with lanterns. It is said that some American Indian tribes had similar customs.

Running through the history of Hallowe'en is the idea that spirits, mostly evil ones, were abroad on that night, which idea doubtless gave rise to the modern custom of playing pranks, such as ringing doorbells, carrying away gates and generally displacing anything lying around loose.

Fortune telling and other mysterious proceedings naturally came to be features of the observance.

Hallowe'en comes on the night of October 31, an occasion of delight for the young, but of apprehension for those who are likely to be the victims of ghostly pranks.

In our country and in our time no man is worthy the honored name of Statesman who does not include the highest practicable education of the people in all his plans of administration.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Nobody's Business

By Julian C. Capers

AUSTIN—The belief that there will be no special session of the Texas legislature was virtually unanimous among political observers here, following the visit of Lieutenant Governor Coke Stevenson, of Junction, and his statement to the press after the conference with Governor O'Daniel.

Stevenson told reporters that unless an agreed plan of taxation can be worked out in advance of a special session, it "would be a waste of time" to call the session.

Stevenson is a conservative in his legislative views, holding to much the same beliefs as the large interests which have been seeking ever since O'Daniel was inaugurated to write into the fundamental law of the land. He represented a conservative constituency, made up of large ranch owners while in the House He believes in a sales tax, and in his strenuous runoff campaign against P. Pierce Brooks, the large interests of the State which have long sought to replace ad valorem state taxes with a sales tax, came loyally to Stevenson's aid. Governor O'Daniel endorsed Stevenson, and the belief of many observers here is that the endorsement was a major factor in Stevenson's winning.

Coke's Position Curious

There is some disposition to wonder, however, how the Lieutenant Governor, who is an able lawyer and a real authority on the Texas constitution, can consistently advocate that the legislators abrogate their constitutional oath of office, waive their rights as law-makers, and commit themselves blindly in advance to a taxation bill proposed by the chief executive. Observers feel reasonably certain that a majority of neither house nor senate will do so. The logical step then, for O'Daniel, is to announce this fact, declare he cannot get the legislators to agree, and refuse to call a session. The political strategy of such a course is good. The vast majority of laymen do not understand the legal separation of the functions of the executive and the legislative branches. They do not know that the legislators are supreme in matters of taxation, and that the constitution inhibits any such subservient course as O'Daniel request, even if they were to accede to his request.

Freight Rate Action

The Texas Railroad Commission made history this week when it ordered abolished on intrastate freight shipments the 15 percent differential now charged in certain West Texas territory and the Rio Grande valley by the railroads. The roads imposed this extra charge years ago, on the theory that a higher rate was justified in a sparsely settled region. Population increases in the valley and West Texas have largely eliminated the excuse for the gouge, and the Commission ruled it could no longer be collected by the railroads.

Mann Rides Again

Jerry Mann, the triple-threat Attorney General, scored another large gain for the farmers of Texas, unless the courts later declare the play offside, when he filed suit against eleven rice milling concerns, charging violation of the State's antitrust laws. Mann accuses the rice millers of collusive buying and price fixing in their purchases of rice from producers. He asks penalties ranging from a minimum of $863,000 to a maximum of $25,905,000, but did not seek cancellation of charters. His staff worked two months gathering evidence of the alleged conspiracy, Mann declared.

Cotten Takes Gas Post

Sen. Clay Cotten of Palestine, announced he will accept appointment as chief of the utilities division of the Railroad Commission, tendered by Commissioners Lon Smith and Jerry Sadler, after they had summarily fired Olin Culberson, who has held the post since 1933. Sadler declared Culberson was discharged because he failed to file rate reduction suits against the United Gas System. Culberson cited the record to show that United had accepted rate reductions ordered by the Commission without litigation, and had settled many individual rate controversies with city councils. Cotten will resign from the Senate. The appointment pays $5,000 a year, and will probably take Cotten out of the race against Judge Tom Beauchamp of the Court of Criminal Appeals, named last week by Governor O'Daniel to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Morrow, who resigned. It is likely however, that Beauchamp will have other opponents, including Lloyd Davidson, state prosecutor before the highest criminal court.

Afternoon Tea And Gift Shower Honors Recent Bride

To compliment Mrs. Howard Belcher, the former Miss Billie Boyer before her recent marriage, a group of friends entertained with an afternoon tea and gift shower last Saturday at the First Baptist church.

An old wishing well draped with ivy and bowls of varicolored flowers were used in decorating the room. Mrs. Wiley Ratliff presided at the tea service.

The program included a reading by Dorothy Jean Burk and while Mrs. Ratliff read a poem she composed herself, Norman Lynn Hodges and Charlene Mund dressed in pink and blue evening dress, led the bride down the path to the wishing well. There she was given a note and directed to read it from the mirror in the well. Following directions of the note, the bride drew from the well a pail of gifts.

Committees assisting with arrangements include, Mrs. L. T. Wilson, Mrs. W. A. Hughes, Mrs. Gordie Alexander, Miss Evelyn Anderson, Mrs. Truett Stanford, Mrs. C. T. Aly, Mrs. Wiley Ratliff and Mrs. Fred Watson, refreshments; Misses Charlene Mund and Norma Lynn Hodges, program; Miss Margaret Stewart, Miss Opal Stribling, Mrs. Ratliff, and Ellie McKinney, decorations; and Bonnie Mund, Joy Sample and Mrs. Gene Koy, invitation.

Hardeman Named As Executive Of Young Democrats

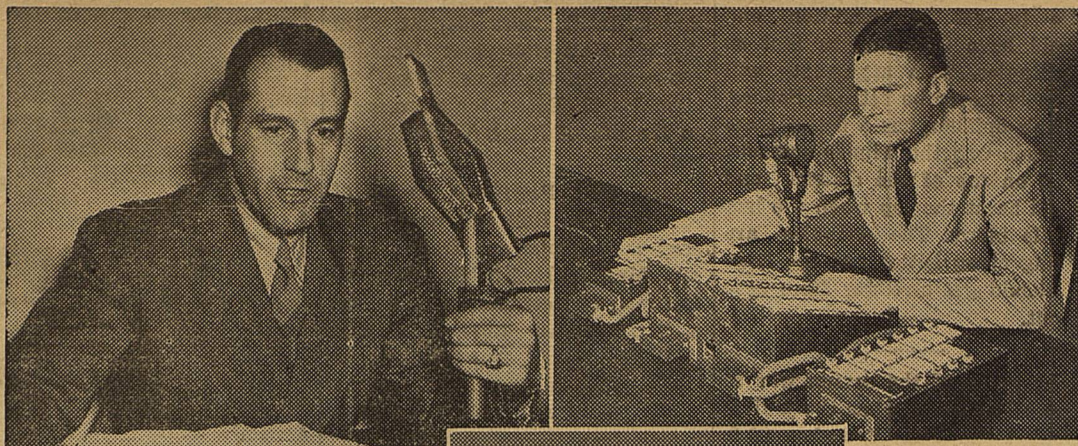

AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo, state representative and prominent leader in Texas politics, was elected to membership on the State Executive Committee of Young Democratic Clubs of Texas at a meeting of the Committee in Beaumont recently, it was announced by Price Daniel, state president of Young Democrats.

Cr. Hardeman will represent the 25th senatorial district on the Committee and will actively sponsor organization of clubs in each country in the district.

The Young Democrats have active support and sponsorship of the State Democratic Executive Committee of Texas and the Association of County Chairmen of Texas, according to Mr. Daniel, who is a member of the senior party Executive Committee and state representative from Liberty and Hardin counties.

With a gift of $1,000 from Mrs. Clara Driscoll, national committeewoman of Texas, the Young Democrats have opened state

The Young Democratic Clubs of Texas were organized in the interest of better government in the state and nation. The clubs cannot support the candidacy of any person until he has received the nomination of the democratic party.

CANNED PEARS

Most in evidence of fruits for canning now are the pears. A finer texture will be had if pears are harvested when mature but still green and permitted to ripen in a cool, dark well ventilated room.

Pieces of pared fruit should be placed immediately into a solution two tablespoons each of salt and vinegar to one gallon of water to prevent discoloration and loss of vitamin C.

Canned Pears
Pare, half and core ripe pears. Exhaust in boiling sirup for 4 to 8 minutes according to size and hardness of fruit. Seal immediately and process containers of all sizes 20 minutes in boiling water bath.

Pear Marmalade
Peel fresh late pears, quarter and slice lengthwise. Cover with sugar 3-4 pound sugar to one pound fruit. Let stand until it forms a sirup, boil slowly, until third and fruit is clear. Seal in hot sterilized containers. A good addition when fruit is partially cooked add one-half cup of grated pineapple to each pound of fruit.

LAST CALL

Fall fruits, crab and other tart apples and grapes are about all the fruit left to answer the jelly-makers' last call, so prudent housewives are taking advantage of these to complete the partially filled shelves in their cupboards. Miss Margaret Stewart, C. H. D. A., suggests tart apples such as winesap, crab apples, cranberries and grapes. She also gives a tip on Jellymaking, the cooking of jelly in small quantities. To get a clear quality product, use only four to six cups of juice at one time, she says.

FIRST NORTHERS

Following the arrival of initial "northers" in the state, Schleicher County homemakers are confronted with winter storage for the family summer garments. Miss Margaret Stewart, County Home Demonstration Agent, advises through cleaning of all summer wearing apparel before it is sorted and put away for the winter months, since perspiration or stains may have a tendency to rot fabrics if they are not removed.

You Can't do BETTER
by your Car

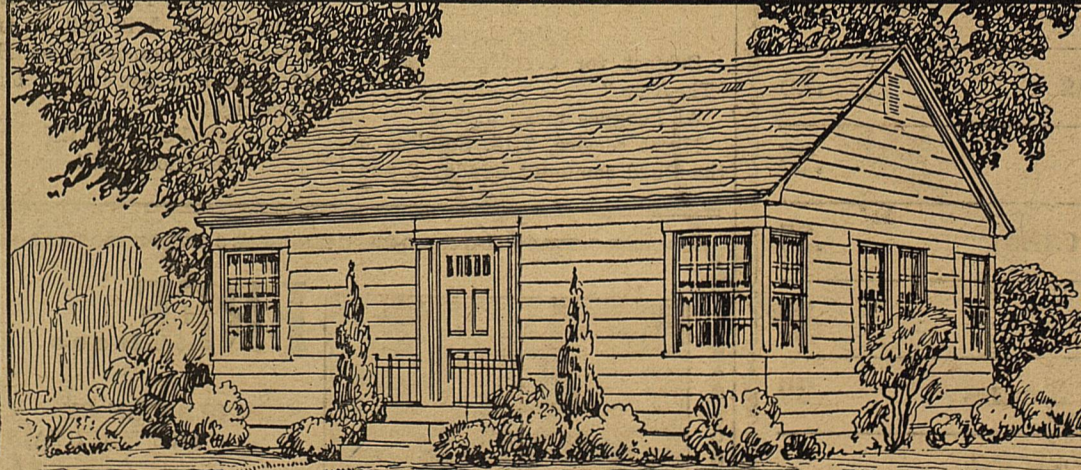

That's a fact, mister—or Mrs., as the case may be. They just don't make an automotive motor fuel better than Humble's Esso. . . . A broad statement, we grant you, but Esso will back it up in the perfect performance it gives you in every-day use in your car. . . . But we don't ask you to take our word for it; rather, we suggest that you try Esso and see for yourself. We suggest that you check its anti-knock quality, its power, its easy starting, its cooler operation. And after you've used it regularly for a while, you'll notice that it leaves your motor in first class condition—an important point to the gentleman who pays repair bills. . . . Next time your gauge shows low, fill up with Esso at the nearest Humble sign. Test a tankful—you'll come back for another!

argument going around, especially at Sonora about the strength of the Eldorado team. Some Sonora fans think that they could have won over Eldorado had their game been two or three weeks later. They have had the same time to get in condition and should have improved as fast as the Eagles. This argument will probably never be settled. Sonora, in their opinion, has a better team. Eldorado was the winner and now stand on top of the district and should be at the top when the last whistle blows. The cripples are getting along better and the Eagles should get stronger from here on out.

The game of the season was at Sonora last week, when the juniors defeated the little Bronchos 26-0. The Eldorado kids reminded us of "Our Gang" with their makeshift suits. They were dressed in all kinds of uniforms. They did not fit too well and the pads were just a bit large also. Some had shoes; some were barefooted. At any rate it was worth the trip to Sonora to see these kids perform.

They will not look like this again this year. They have received their new equipment and were out to practice Monday afternoon in full bloom. The high school Eagles were slighted considerably. Most of the fans were watching the Juniors in their practice.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

John 1:14, "Word made flesh." Here is God marching manward in Jesus Christ. Now at last God looks out of human eyes, speaks with human voice, touches life with human hands, walks among men with human feet, becomes one with the race in the throb of human heart. He is the way and the truth and the life.

Therefore, for and because of Him, our church has sent us back for another year of work in this community, for which we are thankful. May I have just room enough to say, we are also grateful for the good people of this and the Rudd community in making possible a 100 percent report for our Church.

Subject Sunday morning, "Standing in the Breach."
Subject for evening service, "The Cup."
Al Leagues meet, 6:45.
Night service, 7:15. Services in the Rudd community Sunday 3 p.m.

Woman's Club Continues Study Of American Poets

Two guests, Misses Peggy Trimble and Betty Miller of Washington, D. C., were present when the Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon in the ranch home of Mrs. Joe B. Edens for a program on the life of Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Mrs. Bert Page was leader of the program. Roll call was answered with quotations from Emerson. Mrs. J. E. Tisdale discussed Emerson's Americanism and his attitude toward the Civil war. Mrs. Edens told the meaning of Transcendentalism, and Mrs. D. C. Hill read and discussed two poems from Emerson which was followed by a discussion on Emerson's standing with the critics.

A salad course was served following the program.

Members present were Mrs. D. E. DeLong, Mrs. D. C. Hill, Mrs. Cora Millar, Mrs. Bert Page, Mrs. W. N. Ramsey, Mrs. R. O. Smith, Mrs. J. E. Tisdale, Mrs. N. P. Wilkinson, Mrs. Dave Williamson, Mrs. R.
