DOCTORS

Good doctors are scarce every where. Country doctors are under paid and overworked. Peekskill, N. Y., physicians have agreed to charge $1 for telephone consultations. If advice on how to treat a cold is worth telephoning for it is certainly worth a dollar. In England the fees of rural physicians are fixed by the Government. We may come to that in America. The fees must be high enough, however to encourage well trained young doctors to settle in small towns and to stay there.

Several Eastern towns where doctors have failed to make a living have agreed to pay a salary out of public funds to a good doctor for public health work, which still leaves him time to engage in general practice. That way of insuring a doctor a living and at the same time safeguarding the public health is a sound, American method and should be more generally adopted, as it will be.

ENGINES

The next big improvement in automobiles will be an engine that uses crude oil or distillate instead of gasoline.

Heavy oil engines use cheaper fuel, get two or three times as much power out of a gallon of it require no complicated electrical sparking apparatus, and have no valves to be reground. The motor car of the future will have an engine of that type, driving the front wheels instead of the rear wheels, and will have no gears to shift.

Airplanes will use the cheap fuel too. A Diesel type engine flew a plane from Detroit to Washington recently. Elmer Sperry announces that he has perfected such an engine for air use on which he has been working for years. A company has been formed in England to manufacture a heavy oil automobile engine invented by a Swede, Hesselman.

Sweden by the way produces more first rate engineering ability in proportion to population than any other country except perhaps Italy. Ericsson, inventor of the screw propeller and builder of the Monitor, was a Swede. So were Alfred Nobel inventor of dynamite, and De Lavel inventor of the steam turbine and the cream separator.

EDUCATION

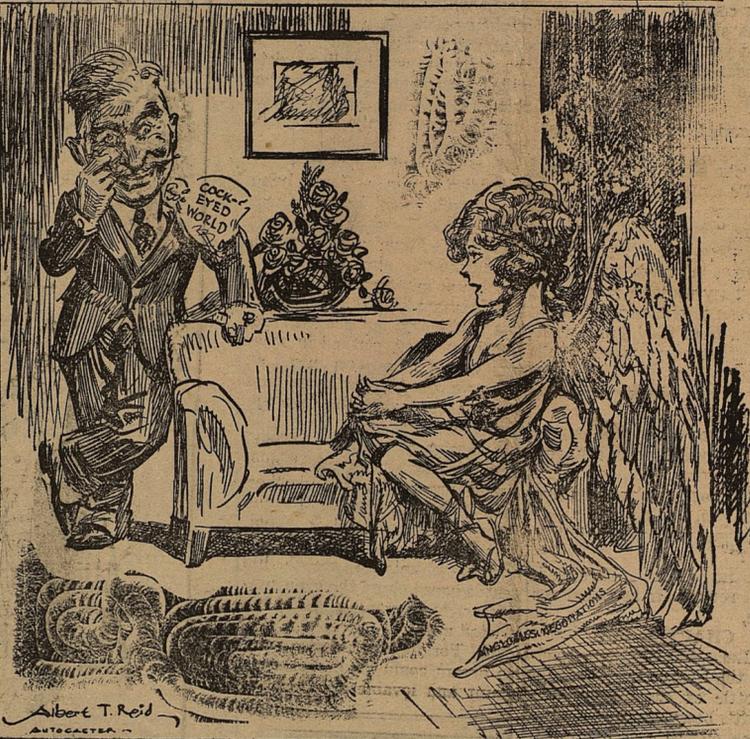

The best American I ever knew died the other day. I shall not print his name: he would not have liked the publicity. He probably had never earned as much as $120 a month but he sent his four children through college. A Cape Cod fisherman's son he was a schooner captain in the West Indies trade at eighteen. At seventy five he was hauling mail and baggage in his old ford truck, preferring independence to retirement.

Unlettered himself, one of his sons is a professor in a Western university, one son on the Harvard faculty: a daughter is superintendent of a great training school for nurses.

"Sorrell and Son" one of the most popular English novels of recent years, has for its theme the sacrifices of a father for his son's education. A new theme in England but one of the oldest

New Telegraph Line Started

Work began Tuesday morning on the construction of $50,000 worth of telegraph line from San Angelo to Sonora, which, at its completion within five months, will connect the local Western Union office with others in Christoval, Eldorado, and Sonora. W. M. Peterson, superintendent of the job, arrived Monday from the north with five special cars and 22 men which crew will follow the railroad through to Sonora on sidings which will be laid every 12 miles.

Two wires will be strung on new poles along the entire distance of 64 miles, and the necessity of setting poles through more than 50 per cent of rock will cause the job to be five months work predicted, Mr. Peterson said. Extension of the line from Sonora to Del Rio is a part of the 1930 budget, he announced.

The cars in which the crew works are now located in the Santa Fe material yards southwest of the city, and reoriented the modern facilities for putting up line. Running hot and cold water in every car, electric lights from their own power plant, a commissary and kitchen equipped with enough food, cooking implements, and ice-box to maintain the men for days, a club room for the workmen in which are tables, chairs, a radio, lockers and luxurious fittings throughout make the itinerant plant one of the most interesting construction units ever seen in San Angelo. The cost of such an outfit is approximately $35,000. —San Angelo Standard.

Barber Shop and Cafe to Open Soon

A new Barber Shop and Cafe are being installed in the new building just completed by John F. Isaacs. The Barber shop fixtures are already being installed but the Cafe fixtures have not arrived. The fixtures are very up to date and will give Eldorado another very modern equipped Barber Shop.

 Entered as Second Class matter July 9th, 1906, at post office at Eldorado, Texas, under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

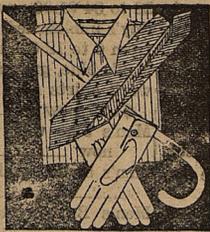

There is a moove being made now to change the present mail schedule, to leave San Angelo at 9:00 a. m. This change if put into effect will mean that Eldorado will get their mail at least 14 hours later than it does at present, let's strive for better service and not go backward. The Success believes the government should be petitioned to pay a better price for carrying the mail so the carrier would not have to haul freight to make expenses. Let's not drop back 14 hours behind the present schedule. Let's ask for better services and not worse.

Well it is all over but the many arguments and I told you that is being passed from lip to lip about the various prophecies of different games. Quite a bit of discussion about the lucky breaks of the different games and especially about the SMU-TCU struggle last week. And when we say struggle we mean just that. Of course it is perfectly natural for the supporters of each team to add the "if" in their arguments and the bad breaks all went to their team but after the cloud of dust is gone and TCU is the winner of the Southwestern Conference with an undefeated record behind. It was a tough break for them to have the last week tie marring their perfect record of nine straight victories. Only a few teams in the United States have this record but the other teams that do are receiving much more praise than the Texas school.

Last week's guesses many were wild. Some guessing as high as 21-0 in TCU's favor. The writer has not had the pleasure of seeing the SMU team in action but from all past records it is very hard for the opponents to keep them from scoring in some manner. Although they have gone through two scoreless ties this season. They also should have the tie game championship. They played in four tie games year but have remained undefeated. Quite a credit should be given the strong defensive game put up by them.

The neighboring towns are playing football now. The high school teams that are not in the race for State honors have re-tired and the town folks take up the game where the school left off. The games played at Sonora has been for a good cause. The proceeds going to buy sweaters for the school boys.

We see where Blondy Cross of the San Angelo Standard wants the TCU team to sep out and tackle the Notre Dame team. He says that they have bumped the other denominations around considerably and defeated the non-sectarians and thinks it about time for them to take on the Catholics. This would be an awful good game but it would probably be better to wait their until next year maybe and then the "Ramblers" who have proved that their name is no fake would be a little weaker.

GIFTS Men Appreciate

Now is the time you should start your Christmas shopping. There never was a time that a man did not appreciate a beautiful neck tie. Our ties are designed in perfectly good taste by the largest manufacturing concerns. Without a doubt we have the most beautiful line of ties in various styles, and colors that has ever been in this city. Give him a tie for Christmas knowing that it will be worn with pride.

BENEFITS OF A SCHOOL PAPER

A school paper is a benefit to any school. It creates a school spirit which is essential to the welfare of any school, large or small. Some people who do not know say there is no such as a school spirit in the Eldorado High School. This is the great purpose of a high school paper! To arouse school spirit! One can tell the condition of the school by reading the school paper! The school is the beginning of our social life! We spend nine months in school and three months at home out of each year, and if one does not take part in some school activity he has missed a big part of his school training. A person must take part in some school activity to get the right kind of school spirit! If we have no school spirit we are slackers and will probably be through out the rest of our lives. Now lets take an active part in school activities, not only athletics but literary work, as well and we make happier, better and more prosperous citizens in the future!

MR. AND MRS. DOC KERR SUPPORTS HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Kerr have supported the High School football team during the football season. They have gone to every game and have entertained the team several times. On Nov 8 they entertained the football boys with a big barbecue supper. This supper was enjoyed by all the boys and Coaches, Smart and Redford. The team appreciated the supper very much. Mrs. Kerr prepared sandwiches and served the team at Christoval after the last games with a pot horn. Well, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr have helped give me some peanuts. The football team very much. Fred Faith is a wonderful gives a team confidence and a thing, but when the belt busts better fighting spirit to know that some one is on the side line backing it to the limit.

The football season is over and Basket Ball just beginning. The basket ball teams hope that Mrs. and Mr. Kerr will support it like they have the football team.

During the Fair Association the Grammer Grades made ten dollars on their booth. They do not this to the school during Library week to be used to buy books for the grammar grades library.

MISS ALLEN RETURNS

Miss Allen, English teacher in High School, has returned after an absence of two weeks. She was forced to go home because of an accident and while there she took pneumonia.

Who said the Fish didn't have any smart pupils in their class. Willie Ruth Nicks of the Freshman class is an "A" student. She has a straight A card every month.

Eldorado Eagles played the Sonora Bronchos Wed. The game ended with the score of 37 to 6. It appeared as though the score was to be a 37 to 0 when Edwin don't intercept a pass and ran about sixty five yards for a touch down. There was perfect interference upon the part of the Eagles when Buck caught the pass. The team as a whole played a fair game. This game ended our season of football with nine games lost, one tied and one won.

We are known planning on a Basket Ball team. Come and see our games.

FEATURES OF THE GAME

Kinchen's blocking and tackling.
Leg's blocking.
Bull the safety man.
Buck's eighty yard run for a touchdown.
Sonora's high points on a skunked game.
The Eagles' undying spirit.
Bill's timekeeping.

JOKES

Edwin: I want some hot popped but corn — I mean cot buttered pop corn.
Edwin: I mean oh Well, give me some peanuts.
Fred: Faith is a wonderful gives a team confidence and a thing, but when the belt busts no buy tries to hold his pants up with Christian Science.

Woman: It's sa good of you, doctor, to come this far to see my husband.

Doctor: Not at all madam not at all. I have a patient next door and I thought I'd kill two birds with one stone.

One man: "But suppose your wife should leave you."

Friend: Oh, say those gentle words again.

TWO OF SCHOOL'S PROMINENT STUDENTS VISIT SAN ANGELO FRIDAY

Ray Boyer and Joe Muller Christian were visitors of the San Angelo pavements Friday. They state that they saw very many new and strange things while there.

As they came to a street crossing and started to cross, a cop stopped thm. "There is a traffic jam in the street. You will have to wait," said He.

"O Boy" replied Ray, "I always liked jam and since I got a loaf of bread with me I'll go out there and sop it up."

At lunch time they went to a hamburger joint for something to fill the vacancy they felt.

"Do you want hamburger a la carte?" asked the owner, seeing the boys were a little greenish hue.

"Shore," replied the boys. "We have heard about (a la carte) before but this is the first time we ever had a chance to get any."

The a la carte proved to be a hamburger with raw meat in it. The boys have been complaining somewhat with a stomach ache.

PROSPECTS FOR BASKET BALL TEAM

The prospects for a basket ball team are looking good. This school has some excellent material for a real team.

William McAngus who played end on the football team, was captain of the team where he attended school last year and is a good Basket Ball player.

Eli McAngus has never played on a regular team, but with his height and fighting spirit he will probably make a star man.

Jack Kerr, battling half back on the football team, was good in Basket Ball last year while playing on second team. He was especially good in making long short goals.

Joe M. Christian has never taken part in an athletics except Basket Ball and he was a fair goal pitcher on the scrub team last season. With a little more speed and accuracy, Joe will make a good basket ball player.

There is plenty of good material besides these just named. Carl Kerr, Albert McGinty, Lefty Smith, Rooster Chich, Jack Smith and others will be playing and will make good men. With so much good material there is no reason why this school should not have a good basketball team.

ELDORADO HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM 1929

Mr. H. R. Smart, coach for the 1929 football squad organized a pluck team last September, although the prospects for a team were almost discouraging.

He got a team together that has played the game fair, square and wholeheartedly. From an athletic view point, which is the sole object of school football, the year has been very successful. It not that you won or lost, but how you played the game."

Albert McGinty the only player on the team that lettered last year was captain. All the boys have worked with him to the end. The other players on the team at the close of the season and the positions they played are as follows:

Kenneth Green, Half-back and guard; Carl Kerr, guard, Jack Kerr, half-back, Elzie Moore — guard, William McAngus — end, Eli McAngus — center, Jim West — end, Buck Kent — full-back, Luther Parker — half-back, Aubrey Smith — end, J A Cates — quarter back, Fred Williams — Tackle, Raymond Smith — tackle, Marshall Chick — tackle, J C Kinchen — Center and guard, Lawson Edmiston — tackle.

MRS. GEO. WILLIAMS HONORS FOOTBALL BOYS

Sunday December 2, Mrs. Geo. Williams gave a dinner in honor of the football boys.

All of the football boys were present except William McAngus, Aubrey Smith and Jack Smith who were spending their Thanks giving hunting on the John I. Smith ranch. Marshall Chick the perfect tackle, was also absent. Others present were Victoria Jones, Vivian Reagan, and Bill Currie.

After dinner several girls came out and helped entertain the boys for the remainder of the afternoon.

Each of these boys wish to express their thanks to Mrs. Williams.

WHAT WAS WRONG?

Our football team was absolutely not a failure considering the circumstances. Did you give them all your support? No. For instance, November 22 the date of their last game at home the majority of the people of the town enjoyed the "Free Show" rather than to witness thrilling game. Was this doing the boys justice?

Last year the high school spent much time in giving the boys pep and courage while this season only a number of about ten made up the pep squad and very seldom did they give them yells during the school hours.

Not only did they not receive support but it seems they were discouraged. Once or twice there was headed a topic in the newspaper. "Comments on Sports." This said that the boys did not show the fighting spirit that the boys did last year. Did this encourage the boys? No it caused them to say "Well if that is what the people think of us why should we get out and work ourselves to death."

There were a few who never missed a game at home or away and did all in their power to help the boys. Each of the boys appreciate this but realize they have not received the support that was given the previous teams.

Now let's see if we can't make up for this during the basketball and baseball seasons.

WHERE THE SENIORS OF LAST YEAR ARE GOING TO SCHOOL

Nearly every senior of the class of '29 is off at some school. In talking to some of them, who were home for Thanksgiving holidays, it seemed that they all agreed that "College Life is great if you don't weaken." Below is a list of the names of last year seniors and where they are going to school.

Mary DeLong—T W C at Ft. Worth, Wince and Prince Murphy and Edward Ratliff are attending A & M. (These boys are catching on to college ways fast.) The Parkers are well represented at Sul Ross because the Leha and Linna, Thorpe and Roscoe Parker are seeking higher education there. Oma, and Una Ford are attending C I A in Denton, Texas, Mildred Smith is going to the School of Fine Arts in San Angelo. Glenn Ratliff is going to Baylor University and Marie Stanford who was unable on account of illness, to go to school the first semester, will leave for Baylor in a week. Mable McClatchey is attending Sul Ross and liking it fine.

There are several who did not go to school but the majority of the class is away to some school.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

in America. ***

CLIMATE

Chicago may rival Florida as a winter resort when the new power plant of the Commonwealth Edison Company is completed at State line on Lake Michigan. More steam power will be generated there than on any other square mile in the world. To cool the huge condensers of the compound engines, four hundred thousand gallons of Lake Michigan water will be pumped up every minute and will flow back with its temperature nearly a hundred degrees higher.

In New York the average temperature of the whole Upper East Side of the city has been appreciably increased by the condenser water from the New York Edison Company's plants, flowing into the East River. The southern end of Lake Michigan and all the towns that border it will have a perceptibly warmer climate when the new State Line plant gets into full operation.

ACCIDENTS

Automobile accident cases cost the hospitals of the United States more than $15,000,000 last year for the care of the injured. More than one-third of this was never collected, because the persons responsible for the accidents could not be compelled to pay for the damage they had done.

Next to industrial accidents, automobiles send more individuals to the hospitals than any other one cause. The care of the victims is a charge on all the rest of us, to the extent that the deficit in hospital expenses has to be made up out of taxes.

Almost every state makes insurance against industrial accidents compulsory on employers. Only Massachusetts requires automobile owners to carry liability insurance. If you are injured by a car with a Massachusetts license, the insurance company pays. If a car from any other state hits you you can usually whistle for your hospital bill or start a tedious and expensive law-suit.

Eventually every progressive state will adopt the Massachusetts system or something like it.

MOUNTAINS

Motorists driving from Harrisburg (spelled without a final 'h') to Pittsburgh (with the final 'h') are interested in the signboards on the peaks of the Allegheny Mountains (spelled with an 'a' after the 'h') as they cross into the valley of the Allegheny River (spelled with an 'e' instead of an 'a').

Differences of spelling aside, the signs tells the height above sea-level of each high spot on the road. That is something we all like to know. It is surprising that the idea of marking the high places has not spread farther.

We certainly overlooked mentioning a trip taken by one of Eldorado's famous bear hunters, Mr. Leslie Galbreath, who visited Mr. Sam Leudecke's ranch in the Davis Mountains. Leslie never killed a bear although he shot at one two or three times. We do not know whether he was retreating or charging when he was doing the firing.
