New German Troop Movements Threaten Sweden's Neutrality; Norway's Battlefront Widened

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

THE WAR: Two Million Men

As the British government announced that the empire "now has 2,000,000 men under arms" military experts were speculating as to how many of this number had landed in Norway, current theater of World War II.

Nazi official sources admitted for the first time that their forces had clashed with allied troops on Norwegian soil. Direct combat was centered around Steinkjer, where it appeared the British had been routed, and around the "gateway" to Oslo, a strategic valley north of that city.

It was in this sector near the city of Dombas that Robert Losey, U. S. military air attaché, was killed during a German air raid. He was hit in the heart by a bomb splinter as he stood near a mountain tunnel being used for air raid protection.

Around Oslo itself, guerrilla warfare was in progress. Small bands of the scattered Norwegian forces teamed up with British troops and staged periodic raids upon points held by the Germans.

British air patrols were busy raining bombs on German, Danish and Norwegian coastal bases of the Nazi air force in desperate efforts to cut off homeland communications and supplies of troops.

Digging In

At home, allies and Germans alike were taking measures to strengthen the home front. While Germans pulled in their belts another notch with more restricted rations being effected, England launched a salvage campaign similar to the Nazi requests for scrap iron.

BRITISH SALVAGE DRIVE A lesson from Mr. Hitler.

lators and washing machines were among the thousands of articles tossed into the melting pot to become sinews of war.

England also announced a new budget and imposed a host of new taxes and levies.

CONGRESS: Slush

Seeking the aid of G-men, the senate campaign investigating committee is opening up inquiries into complaints of "slush" funds and other political misbehavior in five states—Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, Maryland and West Virginia.

As far as West Virginia was concerned there was no secret about the complaint source, for that state's Senator Neely (Democrat) stated he had requested the inquiry to "prevent the statehouse machine from debauching and corrupting the elections with the use of money and whiskey."

In Nebraska, recent primary election expenditures were to be checked; Missouri investigators would look for evidence of improper use of funds in that state's senatorial race and another race for the senate was being reviewed in Maryland. Investigators had already returned from Kansas with reports of their findings on reported "improper use of state patronage" in connection with selecting Republican convention delegates.

NEUTRALS: Baltic Barometer

Ever since the Nazi war machine showed its teeth to their Norwegian neighbors the Swedish people have been hoping that their land will not be the eventual battlefield of the Scandinavian campaign.

ORIENT: Inevitable?

After Secretary of State Hull made it clear recently that the status quo must be maintained in the Dutch East Indies and Japan politely agreed, it appeared that for a while at least, Uncle Sam could relax his vigilance in that sector just a bit. But as two warships of the U. S. Asiatic fleet sped northward out of Manila to check on the report that the British navy was spreading its blockade of Germany to Eastern waters, Rear Admiral Joseph K. Taussig was telling the senate naval affairs committee in Washington that war with Japan was inevitable.

Said the admiral: "I cannot see how we can ultimately prevent being drawn into war on account of the Far Eastern situation. We would be warranted in using economic and financial means and, if necessary, force, to preserve the integrity of China."

Admiral Taussig believes that the government at Tokyo has a definite program for world conquest that will some day have to be reckoned with. Such a program, he claims, includes the gobbling up of the Philippines, French Indo-China, the Netherlands Indies, and other sections of the Far East.

Next day, Hamilton Fish, Republican representative from New York, denounced the admiral's statement and told his colleagues that congress should investigate inflammatory speeches of navy officers. He said he believed navy officers thought the only duty of the fleet was to go to war with Japan.

Meanwhile a report came out of Tokyo that German and British diplomats were striving desperately for Japan's "benevolent neutrality" in connection with the present European war. Great Britain is trying to extend her blockade to Pacific waters and keep war materials from the East Indies from reaching Germany via Pacific shipping lanes, the port of Vladivostok, and the trans-Siberian railway.

NAMES in the news . . .

James H. R. Cromwell, U. S. minister to Canada, will resign within the next month to run for the Democratic senatorial nomination in New Jersey. Secretary of State Hull forced the issue when he stated in Washington that he "expected" Cromwell to relinquish his post before primary election time.

Walter Kohler, millionaire plumbing fixture manufacturer, died at his home in River Bend, Wis.

Commissioner F. C. Harrington told his 2,162,000 WPA employees that they were absolutely free to vote as they pleased. In all current WPA envelopes he enclosed a message which stated: "Voting is your own business, keep it that way. . . . No one can fire you because you do not vote or because you do or do not belong to a political party."

The federal appellate court in New Orleans dissolved an injunction against Georgia's Gov. E. D. Rivers, after he re-instated W. L. Miller as chairman of the state highway commission.

STATIC-OF-THE-WEEK

Fred A. Howe (above), a marine radio operator, told the Dies committee that the Communist party had members aboard several American merchant ships so that "in time of war they could help establish a Soviet system here." He said that some of the employees on these ships were radio operators. Plans call for them to execute Soviet orders from their key positions. Howe also charged that the Communist party controls the American Communications association, C. I. O. operators' union.

TRAGEDY: Holocaust

Usually it is the feared flood that brings news of disaster from along the banks of the Mississippi, but now fire has made its bid for dishonor in the land of the levee. In a Natchez, Miss., dance hall, 247 Negro men and women were burned to death as racing flames trapped them at his chance of escape—a single doorway.

About 500 persons had been dancing for hours to the swing music of Walter Barnes' Negro orchestra of Chicago, when suddenly the decorative—but dry—Spanish moss that hung from the rafters burst into flame. Survivors said that a mad rush for the door followed as the band continued to play in an attempt to avert a panic. At least eight members of the 12-piece band perished.

Investigation showed that there was but one exit to the hall—the front door. Side windows had been boarded up. Exactly what caused the first flame, formal investigation could not determine.

PRESIDENT: Visitors' Day

When, late in the summer of 1938, in a speech at Kingston, Ontario, Franklin Roosevelt declared that his country would intervene in Canada's cause should that nation ever be invaded, U. S. citizens were inclined to discount his words, for war in Canada seemed far away.

Now, with a Canadian forces backing up Great Britain in Europe's conflict, the picture has changed and as W. L. Mackenzie King, Canadian prime minister, sat down around the conference table with the President in the "Little White House" at Warm Springs, Ga., that Kingston speech stood out with special significance. What was discussed at the conference was not disclosed but one thing seemed sure: Western hemisphere war problems were not neglected.

Before leaving Washington, the President outlined for the Senate a method to help the treasury meet its deficit by reducing capitalization of a few large U. S. spending agencies.

SUPREME COURT: Pickets

In two opinions the United States Supreme court upheld the right of freedom of speech by declaring unconstitutional laws in Alabama and California which regulated the acts of "peaceful" pickets in industrial strikes. Both leading U. S. labor groups were cheered by the decisions for the cause of each was involved. In Alabama, the American Federation of Labor had challenged a state law regulating pickets which was passed in 1923 in the California case. C. I. O. fought against a 1938 statute, claiming it infringed on freedom of speech. Justice Murphy delivered the opinions and Justice McReynolds dissented.

AGRICULTURE: Eyes Front

While hog prices were advancing to a new 1940 peak (still nothing to get excited about) wheat, corn and oats futures reached their highest point in 2 1/2 years. Fear of spreading war coupled with reports of short grain crops forecast for Europe's breadbaskets combined to brighten the picture somewhat for American grain producers. At present Canada and Australia hold the largest surplus of wheat.

Colorful Rainy Day Outfits Are Stylized to Perfection

of white oilskin which has raglan sleeves and fitted waistline. She wears white galoshes to match. She does not really need an umbrella but if she should carry one just for effect we are quite sure she would be choosing one of those delectable types made of transparent white oil silk patterned in a design that looks exactly as if actual chalk-white lace had been applied.

Gayety on a gloomy, rainy day and all because her raincoat is as cheery as a streak of sunshine applies to the attractively outfitted girl centered in the picture. The coat has raglan sleeves to fit over any garment and a zippered front closing. A cotton numerical print fabric in striking colors fashions it. The big news about the rainproof fabric of which it is made is that it has been treated with a new synthetic which scientists call koroseal, which not only makes it impervious to water, but also renders it spot-proof and fire resistant.

The material is also processed so that it does not become stiff or crack with age. Thus does modern genius continue its wonders to perform. Note her boots, they are the latest. They are amazingly light weight, and easy to slip on. Solve the hateful mud spot on hosiery annoyance perfectly.

No clothes worries during spring and summer's inevitable showers awaits the young miss standing to the right in the group, for her new raincoat is also made of a material treated scientifically as above described so that it will victoriously defy the onslaughts of the elements, no matter how fierce the wind or rain. This coat is fashion-right in every sense of the word. It boasts a very new blouse-top silhouette with full skirt giving the wearer a trim figure by the use of shirring at the waistline. If she so chooses she can pull the parka hood up over her hat for protection. The comfortable bishop sleeves will fit over a woolen coat or a summer frock.

Speaking of looking your prettiest on a rainy day, the young woman pictured to the left in the illustration goes stepping in a hooded coat

Dressmaker Suit

This charming dressmaker suit with its flattering lapels and cuffs of ruffled white pique is made of sandrella, a lightweight closely woven material of virgin wool. The style represents one of the newest fashion developments of the season. The crisp texture of the fabric resists wrinkles and the stress of hard wear. She wears her straw breton in latest approved far-back-on-head fashion.

Animals Pattern New French Prints

Balenciaga chooses flying ducks to pattern new spring prints. Bruyere shows elephants and Schiaparelli, more eclectic, takes the doves, the penguins, the deer and the fish.

Another series of prints uses modern objects such as garden tables and chairs, drawn in such a fashion that they look almost like lace patterns over a plain ground, wood-paneled shoes, castles (chosen by Balenciaga), children's fates (on Ducharme fabrics), dancing figures . . . many of these in almost miniature sizes.

Fingertip Gloves New Fashion Fad

A quarter of an inch at the end of your nails starts a new style in gloves. They're designed with extra extensions to take care of those long glamorous nails. The gloves are three-dimensional, the fourchette in contrasting colors to match the shade of your fingertips. The glove is flattering to any hand—long finger nails or no—because it gives them such a long tapering line.

Curved Metal Heels

Hollow metal curved in graceful scrolls is used for heels on some of the spring shoes from Paris. The metal, of course, is flexible and allows you to walk with a springy movement.

THE TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under existing laboratory conditions. These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed. Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor! DOANS PILLS

SENIOR PLAY MAY 10

"Galahad Jones," this year's senior play, will be presented Friday evening, May 10, at 8:30 in the high school auditorium.

The plot revolves around a certain Tommy Jones (Clinton Dorsey)... The irate father is played by Roy Couch; the understanding mother by June Blackerby; the older sister by Iona Batson; her district attorney fiancée, George Merton, by John Bond.

Swedish character parts are ably portrayed by E. J. Window, Jr., and Christine Kennedy, stars of "Here Comes Patricia." We predict you will enjoy all the scenes these two are in.

For only 10c and 25c you can see a play that has everything—humor, love interest, action, suspense. Come and enjoy the evening with us.

PEP SQUAD SLUMBER PARTY

Were you serenaded Saturday night or rather Sunday morning about four o'clock? It was only the pep squad girls of this year's club trying to keep awake.

The pep squad girls met Saturday night under the sponsorship of Miss Dale Smith, for their last meeting of the year. They skated from 8:30 until 10:30, then went to the preview; afterwards they went to the park for a lunch prepared by the girls. Following the lunch came talk—then home to bed about 6 a. m.

The junior and senior classes of this year decided that the fights that have been being carried on each year by the two classes might be changed into something more interesting for everyone. Of course this decision was reached with the help of our principal and superintendent. The classes decided that it would be much more fair to each case to engage in a series of contests which a committee would select with regard to the abilities of their classmates. The contests were fifty yard dash won by the juniors; one hundred yard dash won by the seniors; football throwing contest won by the juniors; soft ball throwing contest won by the juniors; shotput contest won by the seniors; relay race won by the juniors; wrestling won by the seniors; and the tug of war won by the seniors.

The fight was awarded to the seniors with a score of 5-4. Their flag will grace the high school flagpole until the next junior-senior fight.

WE PRESENT

Miss Virginia Dale Smith, freshman English and music teacher, was born in Childress, August 19, 1916. She has attended Panhandle A. & M., Boulder, Colo., and Texas Tech Colleges. Her favorite movie actor is George Brent and her favorite movie actress is Norma Shearer. Her only dislike is insincere and undependable people.

Before coming to McLean where she has taught for three years, Miss Smith spent one year teaching at Goodwell, Okla. Miss Smith is well known throughout the high school for her good humor.

Clyde Magee agriculture teacher in the high school, was born in Franklinton, La., Dec. 28, 1908.

Mr. Magee obtained his college education at Louisiana State University, where he got his B. S. degree. He has taught at McLean five years.

He has no favorite movie actor and his main dislike is Mickey Rooney.

SNOOPER

These freshman-junior romances surely are blossoming out. Mary Lee Abbott and Paul Bond seem to be the latest victims. One never knows when or where the bug will bite. It seems to have attacked them at Pagan Friday night.

Gayle Montgomery, freshman, and Maxine Goodman, junior, seem to have been "bit" by the same bug that attacked other freshman-junior couples.

We wonder what two senior girls entertained two sophomore boys at play practice Tuesday night. Christine Kennedy and Marena Roach, could you tell us just what Eroy Fulbright and Earl Humphreys were doing at senior play practice?

We wonder why Paul Miller came home so early Friday morning after having taken Bernice Combs to a B. T. U. weiner roast Thursday night.

Just why did Erza, Jr., shave Friday when he had such a wonderful beginning for that beard he needs to complete his make-up? Ruth, do you know anything about his reason?

PROGRAM AT PAKAN

Members of the A cappella choir, girls' quartet, saxophone quartet, and string band of the high school presented a musical program at Pagan last Friday night.

The Pagan community invited them to contribute to the community program.

The girls' quartet sang "Sleepy Time Gal," "Singing Hills" and "Gauchos Serenade."

"Give the World a Smile," "When the Saints Go Marching In," "Leaning on the Ole Top Rail" and "Tell Me Why" were the numbers the A cappella choir sang.

The saxophone quartet played "Beer Barrel Polka," "Raleigh March" and "McGehee March."

Approximately twenty cars from McLean were present.

JACK YOUNG TO NATIONAL BAND CONTEST

Jack Young, a state winner in the band contest held at Plainview several weeks ago, left Wednesday to enter the national contest now in session at Baylor University at Waco.

He was accompanied by Waco Director M. J. Newman and Miss Evonne Floyd, piano accompanist.

Over 100 bands and orchestras will take part in this contest, and Jack will have 57 competitors in the clarinet solo division. He will play "Fantasie Caprice" by Le Pehre.

This is the second time Jack has entered the national contest and the student body feels confident that he will win high honors.

Economic Barrier Disrupted by Invasion of Norway

Map shows blockade system built by the allies against Nazi Germany before Adolf Hitler boldly struck away a part of that barrier by his blitzkrieg in Norway and Denmark. Note how few "passageways" existed in the economic blockade wall built by the allies.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK — We heard that Wendell L. Willkie had 300 invitations to make public addresses. Across his big desk, which in its mountainous disarray makes a newspaper man feel at home, we asked Mr. Willkie about it. The report was all wrong. The number is something over 2,000. Also in the ruck were enough pleas for magazine and syndicate articles to give Mr. Willkie writer's cramp for the rest of his life, if he took on even one-tenth of them.

Mr. Willkie, built like a guard, works like an end or a halfback. The range and agility of his mind is such that he might be a swing man, either in the line or the backfield. On his desk was a new book, the life of the Elder Pitt, about which he is writing a review; also a litter of papers having to do with pretty nearly everything from kanto to kilowatts.

An hour's conversation covered a similar range. He talked rapidly and vehemently, sawing and hammering with his extended palm, when he told how the Commonwealth & Southern forced down rates, or challenged what he terms the unfair TVA bookkeeping; making hesitant or groping gestures when he touched on the intangibles of social origins and inducements. He is like that—assured and vehement on what he knows and thoughtful and explorative on what he merely thinks.

He doesn't want to kill the Securities and Exchange commission. He would merely put it under sound democratic controls.

Mr. Willkie has tremendous gusto and live, intellectual curiosity. He says all this talk of nominating him for President is incidental to the fact that he made a rock-and-sock battle on something he knew about—something which happened to be important and which perhaps helped to clarify certain basic issues. He says he never spent a dime on a personal build-up and never will. Almost his strongest emphasis was reserved for his observation that the run-of-the-mill citizen is a lot brighter than he's supposed to be, and that therein lies the hope for our continuing democracy. Out of its context, that might sound like the old homespun Indiana political hokum, but that's the last thing you could tag Mr. Willkie with.

IN 1914, Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, was riding the venerable destroyer Patterson up the coast of Maine. He said to young Lieut. Stark Has Talked Back To His Big Chief "May I believe you for a while? I am an experienced navigator and I know this coast." The young lieutenant replied, "I am in command here and responsible for the ship. I doubt your authority to supersede me. If you can offer any helpful suggestions I should be glad to hear them."

It was said that Mr. Roosevelt liked that kind of sea talk. At any rate, last August, he jumped Adm. Harold R. Stark over 54 others who outranked him, to make him chief of naval operations, No. 1 post in the navy. White-haired and professorial, Admiral Stark continues before the senate committee on naval affairs his advocacy of an adequate navy, this time pointing up his argument with a reference to Japan's eight new dreadnaughts, supposedly under way.

Admiral Stark commands a force of 110,000 men, 11,000 officers, 18,000 marines, 550 ships and 2,000 fliers. Two of his outstanding policies are a belief that the navy should control and operate its own air fleet, and disbelief in "attrition" warfare. In other words he thinks the navy should be always in instant readiness for quick, hard hitting. His technical attainments advanced him in his earlier years and in later years his frank and outspoken formulations of broad navy policy. He is regarded by close observers of naval affairs as a fortunate combination of the "activist" tradition and studious and informed knowledge in the overlapping zone of naval and foreign policy. This becomes important in the latter-day urgency and delicacy of international affairs.

He is an inlander, born and reared in Wilkes-Barre, Pa. When the World war started he was herding five destroyers in the Philippines, so old they weren't supposed to go out after dark. However, he got them half way around the world and entered them in the main event. He is primarily a big-gun expert. In spite of all modern improvements on the big battle wagons, he thinks the decision is apt to go to the nation whose ships are able to display the finest assortment of the biggest and best guns. He's out for all he can get.

Washington Notables See Senators Open '40 Campaign

Among the 33,000 baseball fans on hand to see President Roosevelt serve his seventh term as official opener of the Washington Senators' American league campaign were (bottom row, left to right) Vice President John Nance Garner, Sen. Charles L. McNary of Oregon, Sen. Tom Connally of Texas and Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky. Opening day saw the Boston Red Sox beat the Washington Senators 1 to 0.

Metal Bric-a-Brac Feeds German Guns

Old metal isn't "junk" in Germany. It helps provide the sinews of war for the glory of the fatherland. Pictured at top are German citizens turning in old iron, copper, brass, lead to a "clearing house." Below: The same metal after it has been transformed into death-dealing shells. Hitler himself set good example by donating the bronze doors of the new chancellery to the cause.

Man With a Plan

A man with a platform is John Vause of Beaufort, N. C., whose name is spelled wrong in the ad. His offer appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer, owned by Joseph Daniels, ambassador to Mexico. Vause says his platform consists of an agricultural allotment plan administered by farmers for farmers.

Economic Ace

Economic trouble shooter for Germany, Dr. Gerhardt Westrick studies the background of the country where he will employ his genius for the fatherland. He is charged by Hitler with improving Nazi-American commercial ties.

Oxygen Tent Saves Chimpanzee Patient

Baboo, three-year-old chimpanzee, pictured with his owner, Ed Strassburg, in a Miami, Fla., hospital, where the chimp battled for his life against double pneumonia. He is shown just three days after emerging from an oxygen tent. Baboo was given the same treatment accorded humans stricken with the same illness.

FARM TOPICS

NEW DRUG AIDS WAR ON PESTS

Kills Insects Without Injury To Animals.

Government chemists have developed and proved a new drug, known as phenothiazine, which will kill insects without injury to warm-blooded animals, including man.

Scientists who conducted the research said phenothiazine is "one of the most versatile chemical substances brought to light in recent years." It has not as yet been placed on the market.

As soon as manufacturers make application to the secretary of agriculture, phenothiazine will be released as a medicine for treating certain infestations of sheep, swine and horses which heretofore have resisted medication.

As an insecticide, phenothiazine has been specifically effective in controlling such pests as the codling moth, Mexican bean beetle and grape berry moth. It has not been effective against the boll weevil, tobacco hornworms and the Japanese beetle.

The drug has proved effective in the control of mosquitoes, but its use is somewhat limited because of the cost. But for rock garden ponds for example, enough phenothiazine to prevent mosquito breeding will not harm goldfish, nor is it harmful to wildlife that might drink at treated ponds.

Flexible Farm Lease Cuts Moving Losses

More than four-fifths of the Farm Security administration tenant borrowers now have written leases, one-fourth of which are either automatically renewable or run for periods of more than one year, said Dr. Will W. Alexander, FSA administrator, in a recent report to the secretary of agriculture.

Favoring written leases is one of Farm Security's steps toward slowing down the movement of tenant farmers. In 1935 one-third of the tenant farmers — approximately 5,000,000 people—moved. Minimum cost of moving was $50 per family, for the families involved. Landlords also suffered damage and depreciation. The nation lost by waste of soil encouraged by such tenure practices. "Oral agreements lead to disagreements and unnecessary moving," Dr. Alexander comments.

A flexible farm lease form has been prepared by the Farm Security administration which can be fitted easily to needs of farmer and landlords in any part of the country. It provides that the lease shall continue in effect for several years, or that it shall not be terminated by either party without written notice to the other, several months in advance.

Best Churning Cream Determined by Tests

The best test for cream to be churned into butter is about 29 per cent—at least from the standpoint of avoiding loss of butterfat with the buttermilk, according to trials of the Wisconsin agricultural experiment station. Cream testing 29 per cent had a satisfactorily short churning time of less than 36 minutes. Cream with a test of 21 per cent churned in 28 minutes, and 25 per cent cream in 32 minutes, but the time and power saved with these lower testing creams did not offset the disadvantage of losing more fat in the buttermilk.

This work showed it is doubly desirable to avoid churning cream with a higher test than 33 per cent, because under such conditions there is not only a high loss of fat but also a tendency toward salty or oily body in the butter.

All these trials were carried out with cream standardized to a desired butterfat content, pasteurized at 150 degrees Fahrenheit for 30 minutes, cooled to 45 degrees, and held for 16 hours at that temperature, and then churned at 50 degrees in motor-driven churns operating at a fixed speed.

Fish Meal as Feed

Two per cent of codliver oil in the chicken fattening ration or 2 per cent of best quality codliver oil plus a 15 per cent level of high-grade fish meal, fed for a six-month period up to the time of killing, was without detrimental effect on the flavor of the meat, either fresh or stored. This was the finding with Light Sussex chickens in a test reported from the school of agriculture at Cambridge, England.

Bang's Disease

Failure to eradicate Bang's disease in dairy herds usually is due to three factors. First, farmers may fail to remove promptly all aborting cows from other cattle and to destroy the aborted material before it has infected other cows. Second, owners may introduce into their herds cattle carrying the Bang's disease organism. Third, owners may neglect to have the Bang's tests made at sufficiently close intervals.

Little Girl's Blouse, Pinafore, Panties

BUSY mothers with lively little girls in the 2-to-8 size range can solve several important problems with this one clever, very complete pattern (8674). It includes a puff-sleeved blouse with drawstrings, panties, and a pinafore frock that can be used, without the blouse, as a sunback outdoor fashion for summer play, too. The whole ensemble is adorable.

with a touch of quaintness that adds much charm to its simplicity. A linen or gingham pinafore, with mull or dimity blouse, will be pretty for general wear. Plaid or striped seersucker will be practical for the pinafore when she wears it as a sunback frock—can be tubbed so easily, and needn't be ironed. The step-by-step sew chart gives complete, detailed directions. Pattern No. 8674 is designed for sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards of 35-inch material for pinafore and panties; 3/8 yard for blouse, 2 1/2 yards ribbon. Send order to:

(Continued from page 1) play the kind of ball that the professional politicians wanted him to play. I notice he has some of them on the run.

They have told me that there would be no need for me to run for office if I did not play ball with the politicians, and I will state that it all depends on the kind of ball they want to pay. It seems to me that the trouble with our politics today is that not enough men have the courage of their own convictions.

I am very much in favor of the Soil Conservation and the farm program for the benefit of the agricultural interests of the nation and believe that the procession tax was the best and fairest method of raising funds with which to meet the parity payments to the farmer. In this connection I believe that the crop insurance feature of the present law for the benefit of the farmers should be enlarged and amended so as to include those farmers who do not participate in the allotment program because the phase of the law is self-supporting within itself. To the further advantage of the farmer, I believe that the most economical and best place to store products for market is on the farm where raised.

I believe in a closer cooperation and understanding between the farmers and stockmen of the country and their bankers. Any program that would bring them closer together will receive my endorsement, since it could only work to the benefit of both the farmer and the banker and business in general.

I believe wheat growers should receive a minimum of $125 per bushel and the cotton grower a minimum of 15c per pound to be on a parity with industry. Thanks to our government for leaving the cowman alone.

I realize that this particular area has some of the highest freight rates known in the land. I believe these rates should be reduced, but since the Honorable Marvin Jones, with his experience, leadership and untiring efforts, has been unable, so far, to secure a reduction of such freight rates my efforts along this line would probably not be successful; however, it would be my intention and purpose to keep up the fight along the same line as it has been made by Marvin Jones to accomplish a reduction of such rates.

I realize, too, that the railroads are in a financial slump, along with the farmers, and I cannot see much relief from the freight rates in the near future.

I am in favor of organized labor. I am strictly opposed to any intervention upon the part of our government in the present or any other foreign war, although it is my firm belief that our government should keep a watchful eye on any foreign interference with any of the countries of the Western Hemisphere, and I would favor at all times a sufficient army, navy, marine and air corps to protect this country and assist in protecting any other country on the Western Hemisphere from foreign interference or invasion. I believe we should maintain at all times a navy second to none.

I believe that to keep the good will of our neighbor republics south of us, we need a closer relationship between their monies and our dollar. In this connection, it is my candid opinion that capital does not cooperate closely enough with the government for the general welfare of the nation.

I am opposed to the Cole Bill now under consideration in Congress to put the oil business under Federal control.

I am not asking for this office on the influence of friends, as many politicians will say, and I would not attempt to insult the intelligence of the voters of this district by telling them whom to vote for in this race. It occurs to me that there is every kind, class and denomination now asking to be elected to Congress from this district, and the people have plenty to choose from without telling them how to vote. I am simply submitting myself and my views for their consideration in selecting their next Congressman.
