Turkey, Turkey Everywhere and Thanksgiving 4 Months Away

Thanksgiving is almost five months away . . . but there are more turkeys in McLean than at any other time in the city's history.

We got the bird the other day when a large refrigerator van filled with frozen turkeys overturned and the entire load had to be hurriedly transferred to the McLean Zero Locker.

The driver of the refrigerator truck apparently went to sleep about 3 a. m. Friday. He ran off the road and the big truck overturned. However, neither the driver nor his partner were hurt in the mishap.

He tripped into Miller's Cafe about 4 a. m. and summoned aid to help transfer the turkeys before they spoiled. Bill Kingston and a crew of volunteers went out and helped unload the 676 cases of frozen turks.

There were four turkeys in each case which made a total of 2704 turkeys. The truck was en route to Oklahoma City when it overturned.

Lamb's Nephew Drowns in Nebraska

Funeral services for Joe Robert (Jody) Mothershed were conducted in Memphis at the First Baptist Church Monday morning, July 6, 1959.

Jody was born Nov. 6, 1952, in Memphis, and died Thursday, July 2, 1959, in Axtell, Neb. He fell into an irrigation ditch while on a picnic and drowned.

Jody was a nephew of Creed Lamb of McLean. Creed went to Axtell Friday for the body and returned to Memphis Saturday.

Survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mothershed of Memphis; two sisters, Nancy and Susan of the home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Mothershed of Parnell; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ara Jean Lamb of Memphis; and maternal grandfather, J. C. Lamb of Memphis.

Shower Drops .18 Of an Inch on City

In a brief shower here late Wednesday afternoon, McLean got .18 inch of rain. It fell about 6:45 p. m.

That makes the July rain total .41 of an inch and the total so far this year 15.18 inches. Last year at this time we had had 19.11 inches.

On July 5 last year McLean got a 1.11 inch rain and the next day got 1.59 inches more.

Two District 2-A basketball players will play with the North's all-star team at Huntsville July 18. The team will be coached by Bob Moore of White Deer.

Both played in the national AAU tournament for Dowell's Dolls, composed of high school girls, which upset several more experienced squads before bowing to the national champions, the Wayland Flying Queens.

QUEENS REMAIN UNDEFEATED IN BASEBALL CIRCUIT HERE

The Queens—McLean's girls 6-1 record. The Queens—McLean's girls team—was the only team to remain undefeated in the Little League, Pony League, or Girls League play following another week of good baseball here and at Lefors.

The McLean girls have compiled a 7-0 record so far this year. Their latest victory was over the Kittens 14-8 here Monday night. They drubbed the Dolls 36-12 last Friday, and on Monday, June 29, the Queens took a 14-6 win over the Lefors Bobby Socks.

In the Little League the high-flying Cubs took a tumble when the Braves beat their ears down to the tune of 28-16 here Tuesday night, June 30. However, the Cubs were still on top of the Little League heap, boasting a

Two Minor Burglaries Monday

Both the Alanreed Cafe and the Dairi-O here in McLean were burglarized Monday night.

Neither place suffered much of a loss, however, and Constable J. D. Fish said both were "amateur" jobs and were apparently done by the same people—probably juveniles.

A total of $4 in pennies was taken at Alanreed, along with a box of cigars and miscellaneous items. Entrance was gained by breaking in a door.

J. D. said the burglars also attempted to raid the juke box, but apparently were scared off just before they got it open.

At the Dairi-O, entrance was gained through a window. A few coins were taken here, but the loss was under $5.

According to J. D., no arrests have been made, but investigation continues.

While in McLean Dyer did an outstanding job with the agriculture department, as well as performing in many other capacities in school and civic work. He has been Boy Scoutmaster and has worked with many Lions Club projects throughout the past few years.

Sunshine and Sadness . . .

FOUR FOR THE BOOK—Cleveland Indians' Rocky Colavito has entered his name in an exclusive section of baseball's annals by smashing four home runs in one game. Eighth man in major league history to perform the feat, he's one of but three men to make the round-trip in four consecutive times at bat. All this in a game with the Baltimore Orioles, on their home grounds.

THIS IS BASEBALL?—Luis Aparicio, Chicago White Sox shortstop, endures some little men provided by the out-of-this-world imagination of his boss, the fabulous Bill Vecek, during a go-round with visiting Cleveland Indians at Comiskey Park.

FACIAL BAROMETER—Casey Stengel's mobile mug mirrors the misery that went with the proud Yankees' recent coal-chute descent to the cellar of the American League. Worse, it was the first time that the Yanks hit bottom during the years of Casey's tutelage. Worst is the fact that the league's perennial cellar-dwellers, the Detroit Tigers, clawed the proud Bombers to the bottom of the pile.

ERNEST JOINER in the RALLS BANNER: If God can't be found in church, chances are remote he'll be found anywhere outside the heart. And if God was in the First Baptist Church at Alice, Texas, a few Sundays ago and saw the saved ones pouring in to receive their S & H Green Stamps promised them by the Sunday School superintendent, He ought to be ashamed of Himself. It's had enough to tempt people into church with stamps, coffee and doughnuts, and coffee, as some do in Ralls, but when a congregation's salvation is a matter of picking up two lousy, insignificant trading stamps worth less than 1/2 cent, then salvation isn't worth messing with. If God is so all-fired hep on getting His message over, I suggest He come out and tell people in five-letter words what He hasn't been able to put into the mouths of priests for 2,000 years. And I don't mean for Him to start speaking from burning bushes or out of the mouths of asses, either. If He can't come Himself, and must send somebody else, He ought to be able to provide "His messenger with proper credentials rather than offering trading stamps, coffee and doughnuts, and long-winded preachments signifying nothing."

PAT BENNETT in the CROSSBYTON REVIEW: To many Americans tolerance means only that others must tolerate their ideas.

J. S. Mill, the great 19th century thinker, suggests two maxims by which we might judge such matters.

(1) That the individual is not accountable to society for his actions in so far as these concern the interests of no other person but himself.

(2) That for such actions as are prejudicial to the interests of others, the individual is accountable and may be legally restrained.

Ofhand, we can think of two recent instances where attempts have been made to suppress actions or ideas of others in more or less private matters. While not in sympathy with either of the "offenders" we think it wrong to suppress them legally.

One case involved the attempt of Texas' astute legislators to stamp out nudism. The second was the recent banning of "Lady Chatterley's Lover" from the mails.

TOM SUITS in the PETERSBURG JOURNAL: "Modest women don't wear slacks, shorts or the modern swim suits," says a woman columnist. And dudes don't lay eggs."

DOUGLAS MEADOR in the MATADOR TRIBUNE: My knowledge of biology is so limited that I had never thought of the inevitable until I saw a pregnant mannikin last week. She was very demure in the window of an exclusive maternity shop.

JERRY HOLLINGSWORTH in the WINKLER COUNTY NEWS: A man with a disgusted look in his voice called in Tuesday to tell us about a woman driver he followed for four blocks along South Poplar Street.

She was driving, he said, right smack between the right and left-hand lanes.

She extended her arm out the window signaling for a left-hand turn. Her turn-signals indicated she was going to make a right-hand turn.

She kept driving straight without making any kind of turn.

Man said he finally became frustrated and turned off on Sherwood just to escape.

A. M. JACKSON in the SLATON SLATONITE: When my sister's husband commented on the fact that he was considering taking his former job back as a ranch hand, his seven-year-old daughter asked, "Were you a cowboy, daddy?" When he answered "Yes," she wanted to know "What channel were you on?"

Best Room!
JUST ONE OF 7 Big Bests
OFFERS you over any other car

Take a tip from the experts . . . in their own words . . . and from on-the-record facts and figures: More than ever, Chevrolet gives you more than any other of the leading low-priced three! More room to relax in, for instance. A sampling of official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* makes this clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for one thing, is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

Best Brakes Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy out-stopped both of the "other two" in a NASCAR-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

Best Style It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Best Engine Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvett V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: ". . . surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Ride MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself once you take the wheel.

Best Economy No other car in this class in the famous Motor Trend Run, got the best mileage per gallon—23.5 mpg—any full-size car. 23.5 mpg—gallon—with Powerglide.

Best Trade-In Chevrolet's N.A.D.A. 1 Guide Book shows car prices last year averaged $128 higher than comparable "other two."

The House of Representatives last week passed H. R. 3. This is a bill commonly referred to as the "States Rights Bill." It is primarily designed to prevent federal laws from striking down state laws in the same field where there is no irreconcilable conflict. It contains two sentences: the first states in effect that acts of Congress shall not be construed by the courts as pre-empting a field and thereby nullifying state laws on the same subject, unless the act of Congress so specifically states or unless there is such a direct and positive conflict between the federal act and the state law that the two cannot be reconciled or consistently stand together; the second sentence states in effect that it was not the intention of Congress in passing the Smith Act in 1940 to prevent states from prosecuting seditious activity against the United States. It will be remembered that the Supreme Court in 1956 ruled that an alleged communist in Pennsylvania could not be prosecuted for seditious under the Pennsylvania laws because the federal government had adopted an act in that field and thereby nullified the state law on the subject.

The passage of H. R. 3 after a vigorous and bitter debate, was a clear-cut victory for those who are opposed to the centralization of government and the concentration of power in Washington. Those who opposed the passage of the act are considered generally to fall into the category of those desiring further expansion of federal regulation and activity. Needless to say, it is to be expected there will be much litigation on this subject if H. R. 3 finally becomes the law. Whether or not it will clear the Senate is an unanswered question at this time. This same bill passed the House last year by the vote of 241 to 155. The margin this year was much narrower, the vote being 225 for the bill and 192 against it. The bill that passed the House last year failed in the Senate by a narrow margin of one vote. Presuming, however, that the bill does pass the Senate, there is still the threat of a veto by Mr. Eisenhower. It is difficult to see how Mr. Eisenhower or anyone else can oppose this legislation if they desire to see the people of this country governed in the manner intended by the framers of our Constitution. However, the opponents are entitled to their beliefs on the subject which I respect, but I sincerely hope they do not prevail.

GRIM REMINDER—Two empty shoes are grim reminders of an accident that killed 81-year-old Joseph Paganetto on the steps of his San Francisco home. Brakes of a neighbor's auto failed, and driver turned into curb to avoid school children at a crossing. As he struck the brick steps at left, Paganetto stepped into the car's path.

When President Lincoln came out of the White House to address a crowd joyous that the great civil strife was ended, the conductor of the United States Military band asked him his favorite selection. Lincoln replied, "Play Dixie."

Thus, Dan Emmett gave the nation its first national song of native origin. The Star Spangled Banner, America, and even Yankee Doodle were all tunes with overseas tones.

UNCLE SAM

Last week the House Interior Committee adopted the resolution making a national shrine of the grave of Samuel Wilson, progenitor of the symbol "Uncle Sam." Few people realize that the symbol "Uncle Sam" did have its foundation in a real person, to wit, Sam Wilson, who was a prominent figure of the Revolution and colonization of this country. He was born in 1766, ran away from home and joined the army at 14½, serving until the end of the Revolutionary War. He settled in Troy, N. Y., and established a meat-packing business. He was inspector of provisions for the American Army in New York during the War of 1812. A visitor to his meat-packing plant inquired as to what the initials "EAUS" on a barrel of meat signified. The workman replied the initials EA stood for Elbert Anderson, the contractor, and the US stood for Uncle Sam or the United States. The name of Uncle Sam was later associated with the figure of the tall gentleman in striped pants, the star-bedecked coat and goatee. This figure then appeared in a cartoon and was known as Brother Jonathan. However, the association of the name Uncle Sam with the figure caused a merger of the two and it has remained since as the symbol of the United States, sometimes stern, some-

HOW HIGH IS YOUR STANDARD OF LIVING?

Can you guess how many ways you put electricity to work?

One good measure of your standard of living is the number of ways electricity is working for you. The more things you let it do, the more likely you are to live well and comfortably and get the most out of life.

Many people don't realize how many different jobs electricity does for them—all over the house. Do you?

Make a guess—how many ways do you put electricity to work? You can check your guess against the list below to figure how many appliances you really have. If you guess within 5 of the actual total, you're very observant.

What's more, you have a good idea how outstanding a value your low-price electric service really is.

Here's a Rice Pudding That's Really Different

In Sweden, it's called "grot." In any language, it's great, this delicious variation of rice pudding. The secret: addition of aromatic bitters to the basic mix.

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

Most everybody likes a creamy rice pudding. For a change, try this adaptation of a Swedish dish called "grot." It is served on special occasions. For its special lift, aromatic bitters, a blend of tropical herbs, is used. It does wonders with many foods.

Aromatic Rice Pudding
(6-8 servings)

Four tablespoons uncooked rice, 1 quart milk, 4 tablespoons sugar or more, to taste; 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons aromatic bitters, ½ pint whipped heavy cream. Mix rice with milk, sugar and salt in a saucepan or flameproof bowl. Bring to boil, then lower heat. Place pan on asbestos pad and simmer very slowly, uncovered, for 1 to 1½ hours, or until thick. Stir occasionally during cooking to blend top skin into rest of pudding.

Turn off heat. Carefully stir in bitters and let pudding cool in pan. Chill in refrigerator.

Just before serving, fold in whipped cream. Garnish with maraschino cherries.

Ginger Meringue
Bread Pudding
(6-8 servings)

Combine ½ cup sugar, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ground ginger, 2 whole eggs. Beat only until mixed.

Stir in 1 cup cold milk and 2 cups day-old bread crumbs. Add 3 cups scalded milk. Pour into a 1½-quart greased casserole.

Bake in preheated slow oven, 325 degrees Fahrenheit, for 1½ hours or until knife inserted into center comes out clean.

Cool slightly and spread meringue over top.

Meringue

Beat 2 egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Add 1/16 teaspoon salt and 3 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon at a time. Add ¼ cup ground ginger. Spread over pudding. Bake in very slow oven, 300 degrees Fahrenheit, for 15 minutes or until meringue is slightly browned.

Story Telling Hour At Library Is Well Attended

Boys and girls between the ages of 3 and 7 are urged to remember the story telling hour at the Lovett Memorial Library at 9:30 Friday morning. Mrs. S. A. Cousins will be the story teller for this week.

Last week there were 20 boys and girls who enjoyed the story telling under the direction of Mrs. Bob Black.

Mrs. Luther Petty and Vernon Kennedy took Carolyn and Patsy Pickett to their home in Amarillo following a two-weeks visit in the Petty home. Mrs. Petty and Vernon spent the night in the four days this week in the Groom Pickett home and attended the fireworks show Saturday night.

Bible Comment: Gospel of John Reveals Humanity Of Jesus

It is noteworthy that the Gospel of John which proclaims the divine nature of Jesus of Nazareth as the Eternal Christ, the Word which was in the beginning with God, and which was God—doctrinal facts which it is hard for the human mind to comprehend—presents the human Jesus, the man among men, in incidents as vivid as and even more revealing than anything in the former three synoptic Gospels.

Perhaps the most striking incident in the human contacts of Jesus, recorded only in John's Gospel, is the long story of the meeting of Jesus with the Woman of Samaria.

The most significant point of the story is in what Jesus said concerning true worship—words that unfortunately are all too much neglected in emphasis upon places:

"Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, or yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father, God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth." That is a very high point of all that the New Testament contains.

But, the minor incidents of the story also are interesting and revealing in a very human way.

The Divine Man is revealed in all the wonderment of His life among men.

They give us true insight into the earthly life of Jesus.

SPELLING CHAMP—Joel Montgomery, 12, of Denver, Colo., is this year's National Spelling Bee champion. First boy to win the title in five years, he spelled down 69 competitors at Washington, D.C. The winning word: "catamaran," a kind of raft or boat and/or any twin-hulled craft.

FACTS WE HATE TO FACE

Scripture Heb. 9:27

By R. L. Mayhall
Pastor Church of the Nazarene

None of us like to face unpleasant facts. However, facts remain facts, whether we are willing to face them or not. They remain there, staring us in the face.

There are four facts we just don't like to face. First irreversible fact that we are growing older. Time runs only in one direction, and no one can call back any portion of it, nor stop the wheels of time. Some might attempt to look young, others might act that way. Nevertheless the aging pains and limps are there. They still remain.

It's hard to face the fact that we are getting older and cannot become younger. We will never be younger than we are today.

A second discomfoting fact is we reap what we sow. And just remember we always reap more than we sow. All through life we sow. There are only two kinds of seed to sow, good and bad. Therefore, "Be careful indeed, sow only good seed for you will reap whatsoever you sow." Just remember you can't sow evil, sinful acts and reap a righteous soul. We sow in youth, we reap in old age, we reap what we sow whether good or bad.

The third fact that we hate to face is the fact that we are going to die. This is the most certain and disturbing fact of life; for it's appointed unto men once to die and no one can change or annul this appointment. Our vote, our money, our influence, or our position has no effect on death.

The fourth and final fact is the judgment. St. Paul exhorted it's appointed unto men once to die but after this the judgment. Your book might be full and you think you have no time for another appointment, but this one you will surely keep. Your name will be down, your number will be called.

They have an appointment with you whether you are ready for the appointment or not. We know that death is sure, but what about the judgment? If life is meaningless, if the uniserve is non-moral, then death is the end.

But if there is a God, and there is; and if the universe is just, and it is; and if we are immortal, and we are, then a judgment is a rational demand unless a Hitler or Capone is to receive the same reward as St. Peter or Paul. There must be a day of judgment. God is rational, just and good. He will see that the scales are finally balanced. Everyone will ultimately stand before the judgment bar of God to hear Him make one of two pronouncements: either, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," or "Depart thou wicked and slothful servant" into outer darkness where there are weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth.

The moral here is prepare to meet thy God. Yes, we all hate to face these disturbing facts but we must face them. Therefore, let us meet them honestly so we may grow old happily, reap a good harvest because we have sowed good seed.

Erwin-Murphree

Miss Ruby Murphree, the younger daughter of O. K. Murphree and wife, was married to Mr. Millard Erwin of Fort Worth Sunday morning at the home of Judge T. M. Wolfe, the judge officiating.

Miss Ruby, having lived here for several years, is well known to McLean people, and has a large number of friends here.

Mrs. Paschall Entertains

Mrs. J. B. Paschall gave a reception in honor of her daughters, Mesdames Veale and Hood, Wednesday afternoon. A delightful afternoon was spent in various games and music. Delicious refreshments of cream and cake were served. About 18 women were present and all reported a pleasant time.

A Dinner

On Sunday, June 22, Mrs. J. R. Stockton gave a dinner in honor of her son, Frank, who returned home Saturday. A fine meal was enjoyed by all and good music of various kinds was rendered. All had a good time and glad to see Frank looking so well, and appearing so cheerful.

Those present besides the family were U. S. Lovejoy of Dallas, Fred Stockton and family of Oklahoma City, C. E. Francis and wife, Will Davis and family, and Will Stockton of Shamrock.

Ice Cream Party

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carpenter gave an ice cream party Thursday night at their home north of town. A large crowd was present and quite an enjoyable evening was had by all.

Mrs. Morse Entertains

A few young people were invited to the home of Mrs. Morse Monday night for a social visit with Miss Lettie Bogan, who was home only for a short time. Everyone enjoyed the evening talking of things that had happened since she had left McLean. In the middle of the evening refreshments of cream and cake were served. These were real nice but the cream helped to bring about the awful ice fight that followed. Late that evening the crowd left, reporting a delightful time.

Those present were Misses Jessie and Anna Alexander, Ethel Stockton, Lorene Stanfield, Mabel Watkins, Lettie Bogan, Frances Noel, Minnie Morse, Baby Ruth, and Frankie Mae Upham; and Messrs. Coffey, Moody, Thompson and Stockton.

A Luncheon

A crowd of young people enjoyed a delightful evening at the home of Miss Thelma Rogers last Friday night. She had prepared a delightful luncheon. At about eight o'clock the crowd left for town so they could go to the show. Everyone will have to pay Miss Thelma the compliment of being a fine hostess.

Johnston-Crawford

Miss Roma Crawford and Mr. Floyd Johnston were married Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Lefors. Rev. Sanders officiating. Among those present at this wedding were Miss Pearl Crawford and G. C. Johnston.

Mrs. Kunkel Given Dinner

Mrs. Sam Kunkel was surprised last Sunday when a crowd of relatives and friends came to spend the day. Each brought their dinner and it was served in picnic style. It was her 63rd birthday, thus her children had planned to make her happy.

of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Evans, and Don Kite, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kite, on the evening of July 3, at 8 o'clock.

The double-ring ceremony was performed in the Kellerville Baptist Church by Rev. J. R. Lawson, pastor.

Miss Hazel Golightly of McLean was maid-of-honor. She wore a dress of blue cotton satin styled with a v-shaped neckline cummerbund and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

DeWayne Orr of Pampa served as best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white lace dress over taffeta. It was fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her costume was complemented by white accessories and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Reba Rankin, cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Mrs. J. R. Lawson, pianist, accompanied Misses Verlene Tinkler and Carol Lawson, soloists, in nuptial selections.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall at the church. Mrs. Ott Davis presided at the punch bowl and the cake was served by Mrs. Jack Boyd.

Miss Linda Grimley of McLean registered the guests.

The bride is a senior in Shamrock High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of McLean High School and is employed by Citizens National Bank in Pampa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor and daughter, Barbara, and Brenda Starnes of San Antonio spent Monday night with the J. Boyd Smiths.

CARD OF THANKS

Dear friends: I don't know how I would have gotten through the past seven months without you. I thank you all from the bottom of my heart. May God bless and keep each and all of you.

The greatest blessing I have had is in learning how truly good and true the McLean people are in face of real need and help. Thank you.

Mrs. Walter Evans

Favorite joke among San Francisco lawyers concerns the phony who fakes an injury in an auto crash, comes to court in a wheel chair and is awarded $100,000. When the verdict is announced, the insurance company's lawyer snaps, "You're going to be tailed by a private eye from now on, and as soon as you take one step out of that wheel chair, we'll throw you in jail."

"Don't go to all that trouble," advises the phony pleasantly. "I'm going from here to the Waldorf in New York, then to the Savoy in London, then to the Ritz in Paris, then to the French Riviera—and after that to Lourdes for the miracle!"

Keep driving costs at a minimum with regular lubrication and thorough service. You'll find our work to be the best available, serving you with top quality products.
