MEETS DEATH

Oklahoma City Man Apparently Killed Instantly

An Oklahoma City truck driver apparently met instant death early Sunday in a flaming crash in Gray County one mile east of Groom.

Tolbert Green Jr., 40, was dead when pulled from the wreckage of the 1961 White truck-tractor and semi-trailer.

McLean Highway Patrolman Charles Henderson said Green probably went to sleep at the wheel of the big truck as he traveled west on Highway 66 at 2 a.m. Sunday.

Pat W. Kelley, 41, also of Oklahoma City, was asleep in the truck at the time of the accident. De spite injuries, he pulled Green's body from the cab before the truck and stationwagon burst into flames The trailer did not burn.

Kelley was admitted to Groom of the injuries, which were not believed serious. He later was released and returned to Oklahon

Henderson said Kelley was clad only in his underwear at the time of the mishap. His trousers were later found near the wreckage. Only his billfold-containing some $140 and many valuable papers-was saved. Kelley's trousers were badly burned, but the billfold escaped The McLean March of Dimes the flames.

The louder we blow our own horn the more people will look around to see what's wrong.

We can't imagine why so much publicity was given to the pleading words of Mrs. Khrushchev that we lay down our arms. Even if she does not know the intent of the Communist Party, which we doubt, it could serve no good purpose. In fact, it is almost certain that some will be deceive ed by the sweet talk. We need to remember that we can depend on a Communist-WE CAN depend on him to be a Communist.

Port City Stockyards in Houston. An infection ratio of only 1 per cent was found at San Antonio's Union Stockyards. Fort Worth Stockyards' ratio was 3.7 per NO EMERGENCY-The man who holds the state purse strings for the House of Representatives said he sees no urgency requiring fast legislative action to bolster the screwworm eradication program by $1,400,000.

Chairman Bill Heatly of the House Appropriations Committee said his conclusion of a recent screwworm eradication project hearing is that livestock producers have raised enough money to keep the program going until March 1

Meanwhile, an interim study committee headed by Sen. Culp Krueger of El Campo strongly recommended that the $1,400,000 appropriated now, and another $1,600,000 be appropriated for the year beginning Sept. 1.

This would make up the $3,000,-000 members of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation have been seeking from the state
