SCHOOL VOTE SET AUG. 31 AT KELLERVILLE

Patrons to Decide Whether to Join Shamrock Schools

Patrons of the Kellerville common school district will vote on Saturday, Aug. 31, to decide whether to consolidate with the Shamrock school district.

Petitions requesting that the election be called were circulated in the Kellerville district and filed with the Wheeler County judge last week.

If the consolidation is approved by a majority of the voters, the Kellerville School will be closed down and students in the district will attend classes in the Shamrock public school system.

In the past, grade school has been held at Kellerville, with the high school students attending classes either in McLean or Shamrock.

25 School Age

Kellerville Supt. Gene Pike said Wednesday that there will be as many as 25 school-age children in Kellerville this fall. Possibly 15 of these will be grade school students.

Pike, superintendent of the Kellerville School for six years, said that if the consolidation is approved the contracts held by him and the other two teachers—Mrs. Joe Taylor and Myrtle Norman—will be honored by the Shamrock school district.

If voters do not approve the consolidation, then school will continue at Kellerville as in the past. Since the petitions were circulated last week, the Shamrock board of education has sent specially prepared brochures to the individual taxpayers at Kellerville. The brochures explain the Shamrock district's tax structure and give other information about the Shamrock system.

Basic Completed

By Gary Clawson

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—(Special)—Gary W. Clawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Clawson of McLean, recently completed basic training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, graduating during the weekly Recruit Brigade Review involving some 3,000 men. The nine-week training includes naval orientation, history and organization, military law, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, shipboard routine and damage control, physical fitness, swimming, first aid and survival. During their training recruits receive tests and interviews which determine their future training and assignments in the Navy. Upon completing the program they are assigned to service schools for technical instruction or to ships or shore stations for on-the-job training in a Navy rating specialty.

Band School Will Be Held Next Week

The McLean High School Band School begins Monday morning in the band hall. Director Jim Boyd said Wednesday. Boyd emphasized that the one-week school is for high school band members only. References for woodwinds will be from 10 to 11 a.m.; for brass from 2 to 3 p.m. daily. Full band practice is set for 7 to 8:30 p.m. Tuesday and at the same time on Thursday.

Football Practice Opens Monday

Football workouts get underway bright and early Monday morning for the McLean High School Tigers, who have been picked as co-favorites in District 2-A.

Coach Derral Davis said Wednesday night that practice sessions will be held at Duncan Field at 7 a.m. and 7 p.m. each day until school starts on Aug. 26.

At that time the number of workouts will be reduced to one—at 3 p.m. daily.

Davis said he is expecting a larger than usual group of boys to report for practice.

He asked all youths planning to play football to report to him as soon as possible so that arrangements can be made for physical examinations.

Each boy must have a physical exam before beginning workouts for football.

Hunt, Snider Assistants

Assisting Davis with the coaching chores this year will be Lloyd Hunt and Bob Snider. Hunt is beginning his third year as assistant coach, and Snider joined the school faculty this year.

Snider will coach junior high athletics. In addition to his duties with the high school team.

Reserve seat season football tickets will go on sale Monday morning at Parsons Rexall Drug at $5 for the five home games.

Fans who purchased reserve seat tickets last season will have until the end of this month to choose the same seats.

Opening game for the Tigers is scheduled for Sept. 6 with the Shamrock Irish. This date also will be Homecoming for the McLean Ex-Students Association, which holds a reunion every other year.

The Tigers' complete schedule includes:

- Sept. 6—Shamrock, here
- Sept. 13—Panhandle, there
- Sept. 20—Groom, here
- Sept. 27—White Deer, there
- Oct. 4—Open Date
- Oct. 11—Wheeler, there
- Oct. 18—Clarendon, here
- Oct. 25—Memphis, there

The last five games are District 2-A contests.

SWPSC CUTS RATES HERE, OVER PLAINS

Reduction Made Possible Through Growth, Equipment

Lower rates for Southwestern Public Service Co. customers in McLean were approved by the city commission Tuesday night.

Jay Thompson, company manager here, in presenting the reduced rates for commission approval, said this is another step in the Southwestern Public Co.'s program of rate simplification and equalization.

Average monthly savings will be 62 cents for residential customers in the 47 north plains communities where the new rates will be in effect—including McLean, Alanreed and Lefors.

Thompson pointed out that the area served by the company was at one time served by a number of smaller electric companies, each with its own rate structure.

Simplification Program
Southwestern for several years now has been moving forward with a rate simplification program to cover all of its territory.

The new rates, which Southwestern Public Service proposed to put into effect for residential service billed after Oct. 1, call for a charge of six cents for each of the first 50 kilowatt-hours used monthly, four cents for each of the next 50 and two cents for each additional kilowatt-hour used monthly.

The present rate schedule is based on 6.6 cents for each of the first 50 kilowatt-hours, 3.85 cents each for the next 50 and 2.2 cents for additional kilowatt-hours.

Although there is a slight increase (See RATES, Page 5)

Commissioners Vote To Retain County's Assistant Agent Job

The Gray County commissioners court Monday reversed earlier action and voted to retain an assistant agricultural agent.

County commissioners recently discussed the need for an assistant county agent and decided against hiring a replacement for Ocell Regier, who earlier this year was appointed county agent at Wellington.

County Judge William J. Craig notified the Extension Service of the commissioners' decision. The court was then informed that the appropriation for the county would be transferred on Sept. 1 to another county desiring an assistant agent.

Meetings Held

Groups of residents in the various county precincts met last week and went on record as favoring retention of an assistant agent, and informed their respective commissioners of this decision.

The groups felt that the approximately $3,000 per year cost to the county was being well spent, since 4-H Clubs have been organized and are becoming more active all the time.

Several counties attended the commissioners' meeting Monday morning, when by a unanimous vote it was decided to retain the assistant county agent's position. Applicants for the job will be interviewed in the future.

TIGERS ARE CO-FAVORITES

The McLean Tigers and Lefors Pirates share the favorite's role in the District 2-A football championship battle during the 1963 season.

This is the opinion of district coaches polled last week at the annual Texas High School Coaches Association Coaching School in Houston.

The coaches placed Wellington in third, Memphis fourth, Clarendon fifth, and Canadian sixth.

Top returning McLean lettermen listed in the coaches' poll were Bob Patton, Dickie Crockett and Eddy Windom, who are expected to form the nucleus for this fall's Tiger squad.

In District 1-A, the Stratford Elis are favored to become champions this year.

District 1-A coaches ranked Gruber in second, Sanford-Fritch in third, Sunray fourth and Panhandle fifth.

Sunray took the 1-A crown last year, drubbed Lefors, the 2-A representative in the bi-district playoff and went to the quarterfinals before being knocked out of the running for a state title.

Grinding Crash Near Alanreed Injures 5

Amounts Range to 4 Inches

Heavy Showers Soak This Area

The rains finally came during the past week—and in amounts which will give cotton and feed crops all across this area that mighty push toward harvest.

Most of the weather news was good, but there was some bad mixed in.

Lightning killed seven fine steers, weighing 600 to 650 pounds, at the Kid McCoy place near McLean.

The animals were owned by Bartley Brothers of Gruber.

Wind last Saturday blew over a barn on the Miller Ranch south of town, but the soaking rain just about made up for the damage.

2.41 for McLean

Bernard McClellan reported a grand total of 3.9 inches of rain since last Friday at his place on the Hedley road south of McLean. Similar amounts were reported all across this area.

Officially, McLean could boast of 2.41 inches from the showers and thunderstorms since Saturday. Rain-heavy clouds skipped around the city on Friday and Saturday, but the showers stopped where they would do the most good.

Charles Weaver and several other farmers and ranchers on the Hedley road had as much as 2.2 inches Saturday.

After receiving .66 inch on Saturday and a trace the next day, McLean's turn came on Monday and Tuesday—which measured 1.05 and 1.30 inches, respectively.

Mercury Down

And with the rains came that old familiar feeling of fall as temperatures dropped to the low and mid-80's for highs on Tuesday and Wednesday.

The 2.41 inches of moisture received in the past week is the sum total for the month of August. To date for the year, McLean through Wednesday had recorded 11.19 inches, well below the 13.07 inches on Aug. 15 1962.

Last August the city measured .66 inch of rain for the entire month.

High temperature for the week was 102 degrees on Monday. The low was 59 on Wednesday.

SCHOOL SET AT ALANREED

Classes to Begin Monday, Aug. 26

Purchase of a Thermofax copy machine and a projector was approved last week at the regular meeting of the Alanreed board of education.

The machines were bought from the Baker Co. of Amarillo, and Al Tinsley representative of the company, will deliver them to Alanreed on Friday, Aug. 23.

Supt. George Smith announced that a workshop is to be held on that day, starting at 1 p.m. and continuing for approximately two hours.

During the workshop instruction in the use of the new machines will be given.

Smith said that following the workshop the Alanreed School faculty will hold its first meeting of the 1963-64 school term.

Prepare Final Plans

Architects are at work now on final plans and specifications for the new school building to be constructed at Alanreed.

Supt. Smith said he hopes final approval can be given the plans by the board of education next month, opening the way for construction of the modern new facility.

Classes begin on Aug. 26 in Alanreed.

Members of the faculty, in addition to Smith who will teach social studies and shop in the seventh and eighth grades and coach all athletics, include:

Mrs. Lawrence Hauck, first and second grades; Mrs. R. B. McMillen, third and fourth; Mrs. Mary Durham, fifth and sixth; Eugene C. Dickinson, seventh and eighth grade math, English and Science.

Lt. Sue Evans In Washington, D. C.

Second Lt. Sue Evans, daughter of Walter Evans of McLean, has been transferred to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Lt. Evans, who before the transfer was assigned to Fort Sam Houston, is serving as a dietitian at the Walter Reed Hospital.

In the service for a year, Lt. Evans left Friday for Washington after spending a 10-day leave with her father and other relatives.

MAN, CHILD ARE CRITICAL AT GROOM

Five persons were hospitalized Wednesday afternoon—two in critical condition—following a near head-on collision on four-lane Highway 66 3.4 miles west of Alanreed.

Andrew Thomas Allen, 51, of Amarillo and his daughter, Debbie, 13, were reported in critical condition late Wednesday at Groom Memorial Hospital.

Allen was the driver of a 1949 Dodge coach involved in the grinding crash at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Also injured were: Mrs. Florence Mae Wonnacott, 44, of San Bernardino, Calif.; Marie Genest, 42, also of San Bernardino, and Florence Hilburn, 66, of Ann-darko, a passenger in Allen's car. Highway Patrolman Charles Henderson said Mrs. Wonnacott's 1963 Mercury convertible crossed the median as she drove west.

Side Ripped Away
The Mercury crossed into the path of Allen's car, and the collision resulted.

Almost the entire left side of the Dodge was ripped away by the force of the impact. The right side of the other vehicle also was badly damaged.

The Mercury slammed against a guard post as it spun away from the point of impact. The post prevented the car from plunging into a deep ditch on the south side of the highway.

Allen's car came to rest an estimated 75 yards east of the other auto. Allen was pinned against the steering wheel of his car, and was found lying partially on the floor.

All were taken to the Groom Hospital in Lamb Funeral Home (See WRECKS, Page 5)

Plan Your Irrigation System

There is more to irrigation than drilling a well and watching the water flow. We need to know when to apply irrigation water in the amounts and at the time it is needed to secure efficient use of available water, without waste for significant, uniform growth of the crop and optimum crops production under existing conditions.

There is some good research information available on when and how much to water the various crops at different stages of growth. Irrigation like any other business, will produce according to the way it is managed.

WASHINGTON AND
"SMALL BUSINESS"
By C. WILSON HARDER

On several occasions on nationwide polls conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business, the nation's independent business proprietors have requested a sharp curtailment of the foreign give aways which have plagued the American taxpayer.

Forthcoming debates in Congress over continuation of foreign give aways are bound to be interesting, because the solvency of the nation is now at stake.

C. W. Harder

The gold reserves of the United States are now down to less than $16 billion, the lowest since 1939. Part of this supply is by law required to back the American currency, but if foreign creditors decided to cash in their dollar holdings now, it will take the entire pot and more. Already this year over a billion dollars has been stripped away from the supply.

It is quite easy to understand why. There has been $100 billion thrown around in foreign nations in give aways. The huge American corporations, seeking cheaper labor, and a more favorable tax structure, have taken billions of dollars and invested in facilities abroad. In addition, tariff cutting has cost billions of dollars to pay for cheap foreign imports.

So far, the only measure taken to prevent the flight of gold from these shores has been a reduction from $500 to $100 on the amount of duty free souvenirs tourists can bring back from abroad. This is somewhat tantamount to trying to bail out the Atlantic Ocean with a tablespoon.

This is not the first time that there has been a gold exodus from the United States. In the early 1930's the nation was rapidly losing gold, causing panic.

The remedy applied then was to raise the price U.S. would pay for gold from $20.67 per ounce to the present $35 per ounce. This move encouraged everybody to sell gold to U.S.

Of course, this then made the American dollar worth about 57%. This in turn reduced value of insurance policies, bonds, other items such as annuities.

But the affect of this was somewhat minimized because the nation was at bottom of greatest depression in history when prices were low, wages were low, as well as both public and private indebtedness.

Today, these factors are in the reverse. While perhaps no one can accurately foresee what would happen if the gold price was boosted further, it would seem logical to assume that this would set off an inflationary spiral which would ruin all currencies resulting in the complete economical chaos communists would welcome.

Therefore, there seems to be only one logical solution to one of the gravest crisis to ever face the American Republic.

That would be to end all foreign give aways, cut taxes to encourage investment capital to stay in America, and take a realistic viewpoint on tariffs to stop the vast flow of American dollars overseas.

ELM LEAF BEETLE IS CAUSING DAMAGE TO TREES IN AREA

The following information was received by Foster Whaley, Gray County agent, this week from Don R. Rummel, area entomologist, Lubbock.

Since there has been widespread damage to elm trees in several areas of west Texas this summer, the following information is furnished in order to acquaint you with the life history and control of this pest. Your comments or suggestions regarding this release will be appreciated.

Origin and Distribution

The elm leaf beetle is of European origin and is believed to have entered this country about 1834. This pest is distributed throughout the United States wherever elm trees grow.

Description and Life History

The adult beetle is about 1/4-inch in length, light yellow to brownish-green in color with several black spots on the head and thorax and a black or slate-colored stripe on the outer margin of each wing cover.

The adults overwinter in sheltered places, such as plant debris or buildings, which offer protection from the weather. They emerge in the spring and fly to elm trees with unfolding leaves, where they feed and begin laying eggs.

The small, yellow eggs are usually deposited in groups of five to 25 on the underside of the leaves. Eggs hatch in about one week, and the yellow, slug-like larvae begin feeding on the leaves. The larvae feed for about three weeks and when full grown are approximately 1/2-inch in length. The larvae pupate around the base of the tree or in any nearby shelter, and emerge as adult beetles in one to two weeks.

Control

The elm leaf beetle may be controlled and damage to trees prevented, by spraying when the leaves are nearly full grown or as soon as feeding is noticed. Many of the larvae may be killed by spraying about the base of the tree, when they have come down to pupate. Chemicals effective in controlling this pest are listed under foliage-eating insects in L-199, "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects on Ornamental Plants."

WALTER ROGERS REPORTS

SPENDING IS BEING CUT

Congress is making a fair record this year in reducing government spending. Spending is being substantially cut, although I have been on the losing side of several efforts to bring even larger reductions. The latest tally of House appropriations actions shows that the House had pared $3,378,212,726 from budget requests totaling $72,780,351,251—about three-fourths of the total amount to be appropriated before the session ends.

The nation's defenses require two-thirds of the $69 billion approved. The House voted $47,082,009,000 in one defense appropriation bill. Other defense money bills will raise the total being spent this year to approximately $53 billion.

That $47 billion appropriation for the Defense Department was cut by nearly $2 billion from the original budget request. The remaining $1.3 billion slash in government expenditures was made all along the line. Not a single appropriations bill escaped without some cutting.

To show you how massive was the sum appropriated for the Defense Department compared with sums for other government departments, I cite you these totals approved in other House bills—for the Treasury and Post Office Departments, $5,997,026,000; for the Labor Department and Department of Health, Education and Welfare, $5,449,981,000; for the Departments of State, Justice and Commerce and to maintain the Judiciary, $1,851,269,000; for the Interior Department, $922,625,200.

There are still several major appropriations measures to be acted upon. It is possible that when the actions are completed the budget will have been cut by $5 or $6 billion. Those of us in the Congress who work for substantial but realistic budget cuts may be able to note some real accomplishments before the year is out.

One of the big annual appropriation battles is shaping. It's the fight that comes each year over the foreign assistance program—foreign aid. The first round ended when the House Foreign Relations Committee reported a foreign aid authorization bill calling for a ceiling on expenditures of approximately $4.1 billion.

This is about half a million dollars less than the President recommended in his revised request. The bill would not provide the appropriation—only the authorization for one. Thus, foreign aid must cross hurdles in House and Senate action on both authorization and appropriation bills. I predict that cuts will come.

I have consistently opposed foreign aid—both authorization and appropriation bills. Foreign aid was sold to the American people and the Congress as a weapon to help the United States and the free world stand against communism in underdeveloped nations. Every American should support such an admirable purpose. My quarrel with foreign aid is that as a weapon it has been entirely too costly for the results it has produced.

The proof of this is so very obvious in many parts of the world where underdeveloped nations have been the victims of Communist infiltration. Our defense spending obviously HAS been effective in the Cold War.

Despite my opposition to foreign aid, there is little doubt that it will be approved by the Congress. The reason is that it has wide support in both political parties and by American big business and labor. The support of the latter two groups is undoubtedly due to the fact that 80 per cent of the dollars spent on foreign aid remain in the United States—and constitute a giant subsidy to both big business and labor.

I have received a number of inspiring letters on the topic "I Say YES! to America," the subject of what I hesitate to call a "contest." The purpose is to encourage patriotic expression, to encourage Panhandle citizens to think deeply and then express their feelings about their country.

To each person who writes a letter I will send booklets explaining our legislative process and aspects of our government. To those who write the five best letters in four age categories—grade school, junior and senior high school and adult—I will send books containing inaugural addresses of all U. S. Presidents and explaining communism and the menace it poses.

First-place winners will receive U. S. Flags which have flown over the Capitol. Letters should be postmarked by midnight, Aug. 25. I have had some wonderful letters—and several that sadden me, such as the one from a resident who wrote: "I have nothing to be proud of in America. I am ashamed to the core."

I liked these two sentences from another letter: "Old Glory will continue to wave. Free men, in the sight of God, will have it no other way."

County 4-H Club Holds Barbecue

The Gray County 4-H Club enjoyed an outing at Lake McClellan Aug. 8.

The group began to assemble at 10 a.m. and feasted on individual picnic lunches at noon. The big feast came at 5:30 p.m. when barbecue, beans, salad and desserts were served to 150 4-H'ers, parents, visitors and agents.

The planned program of the afternoon consisted of welcoming guests and demonstrations.

Jeanne Anders of McLean 4-H Club gave a safety demonstration on mouth-to-mouth respiration at the all-day 4-H Club barbecue at Lake McClellan.

Bill Skaggs of the Top o' Texas Club and Stephen Maddox of Grandview gave the farm management demonstration they took to 4-H Roundup in June.

During the afternoon the group played games led by Carolyn Willoughby, president of McLean 4-H, Stephen Maddox of Grandview, Bill Skaggs, president of Top o' Texas Club, Lodema Cole of Pampa.

Franklin Baggerman was the adult advisor for the planned recreation.

Mrs. Jaumitta Channell, assistant home demonstration agent, and Foster Whaley, county agricultural agent, worked with a committee to plan the day's activities. They wish to express their appreciation to everyone who helped in making this the success it was.

Shirley and Kay Kohls of Iowa Park are spending a few weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Rippey.

The Bereans Did Their Own Thinking

Not many of us think for ourselves when it comes to matters in religion. We prefer to leave religious subjects and Bible issues to those supposedly trained and skilled in this field—the priests, theologians, pastors, and ministers. Sometimes we get the idea that the Bible cannot be understood by common people. Some religious leaders even teach and encourage this view.

Does the Bible say anything about the ability and the responsibility of the average person to understand its message? Most certainly it does.

To the Christians at Ephesus, Paul wrote: "Wherefore be ye not foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is" (Ephesians 5:17).

Surely God does not require of man that which is beyond his ability.

The Jews of Berea, for example, are described in the New Testament as "noble." Yet, they were not famous, nor were they rich or powerful. In fact, they were somewhat obscure. The description of their nobility is recorded in Acts 17:11:

"These were more noble than those in Thessalonica in that they received the word with all readiness of mind and searched the scriptures daily, whether these things were so."

This reference to the Bereans is significant because it is plainly a tribute to a religious people. The Bereans were noble in attitude. They were noble because they were eager to be taught the truth—they were sincerely truth-seekers! Although ready to receive religious teaching from others, they were at the same time very careful to examine such teaching in the light of the scriptures.

Certainly the Bereans could not be called professional theologians. They were simple people of honest hearts and open minds—moreover, a people with a profound respect for the authority of the sacred scriptures.

Unfortunately, this attitude of the Bereans—the spirit of independent, personal investigation—does not prevail widely among religious people in the twentieth century. It is a sad commentary on our lack of love for the truth (2 Thessalonians 2:10-12). Man is in a pitiable state (a sad plight) when he possesses neither the intellectual vitality nor the spiritual interest to study God's will for himself.

The New Testament abounds with evidence that harmonizes with the attitude of the noble Bereans. The apostle Peter insisted that Christians should know what they believe and why they believe it, "ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you" (1 Peter 3:15).

The apostle John places the responsibility directly upon every Christian to follow the pattern of the Bereans and prove every teaching to be sure it is from God: "because many false prophets are gone out into the world" (1 John 4:1).

By revelation John commends very highly the favorable characteristic of the church of Ephesus of being ready at all times to check truth against error. They had "tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars . . ." (Revelation 2:2).

Members of churches of Christ today are simply trying to reproduce faithfully the church of our Lord as it existed in the first century—the same in doctrine, worship, name, organization, service, life and work. The Bible clearly teaches that the seed of the gospel—the word of God—will produce after its kind, pure and undenominational Christianity. The first century church was founded upon the basis of the word; it follows that the same word must serve as the blueprint for the twentieth century church.

We invite our friends to "search the scriptures" to see whether these things be so!

Mrs. Wonnacott told Patrolman Henderson that she suddenly lost control of her car. She couldn't explain why.

Wearing Seatbelts
 Henderson said Mrs. Wonnacott and Mrs. Genest wore seatbelts at the time of the accident.

Three other mishaps were investigated the past week by Patrolman
 R. C. Parker.

On Tuesday, a Washington man's household goods were heavily damaged in a one-car and trailer accident 2.5 miles east of McLean on U. S. 66.

Parker said Harry Willard Laney of Tacoma, Wash., was driving west in his 1963 Oldsmobile and pulling a U-Haul trailer loaded with household furnishings.

The trailer started whipping from side to side and finally turned over on the right shoulder.

Two highway crashes occurred on Tuesday.

3 Hurt
 In the first, .9 mile east of Alameda, a Michigan woman and two young boys were injured.

Mrs. Minnie Dorothy Appelt, 56, of Carsonville, Mich., was driving east in her 1962 Chevrolet station wagon and towing a 1962 Chevrolet car.

The vehicle being towed started to whip, causing Mrs. Appelt to lose control and both autos overturned the left shoulder of the highway.

Mrs. Appelt, Keith Brandt, 5, and Kevin Brandt, 4, were taken to Highland General Hospital in a Lamb Funeral Home ambulance.

Parker said damage to the two vehicles was heavy.

Hack McCurley of McLean escaped injury the same day when his pickup ran off the road 1.9
 miles north of the city on SH 273.

Damage to the 1961 Chevrolet was estimated at $400.

 crease in the second step of the new rate, the large reduction in the first step assures all customers, large or small, of paying less than in the past.

Actually Adjustment
 Thompson said that while the new rate schedule provides lower rates for service here, his company regards it more as a rate adjustment than a rate decrease.

He pointed out that the rate simplification and equalization program might make it necessary, in the future to ask for small increases in other portions of the company's service area.

Increased use of the electric service and the continued growth of this region makes it possible for Southwestern Public Service
 Co. to install larger and more efficient generating equipment.

This is a major factor in the company's ability to keep the cost of electric service low, in the face of many increasing costs for supplies and equipment.

BURIED AT BATTLEGROUND

No silent grave for him—a battleground is where he is laid to rest.

They called him Reveille. He saw many a battle where his remains now lie. And great battles still are waged on this battleground.

The site is Kyle Field at College Station, Texas. It is the stadium for A and M College, in Central Texas' Brazos County.

A "T" emblem in granite forms the marker for Reveille, who is buried beneath in a child's casket. Reveille was the canine mascot of the Aggies. He died in 1944.

Derrith Welch was admitted to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Wednesday afternoon. He was to undergo surgery this morning.

AUSTIN—(Special)—Texas Youth Councils parole division will triple in the next six months or so. But the problem of trying to help "reform school" graduates become useful citizens is still great.

Until Sept. 1, five state parole officers are responsible for some 1,800 juvenile parolees spread out over 169 counties. That's a ratio of one parole officer to about 357 parolees, compared to national standards of one officer to 40 parolees.

Staff will increase to 10 on Sept. 1—a ratio of one to 178. On March 1, 1964, when five more are added, ratio will be down to one parole officer to 119 parolees, spread over the Lone Star State.

Biggest number of parolees is centered in big cities where the general rate of crime is always higher. More than a third of the paroled children are in Dallas, Harris and Bexar Counties; another 288 in El Paso, Jefferson, Tarrant and Travis Counties.

About 154 are Nueces, McLennan, Bell and Lubbock Counties.

But sizeable juvenile parole populations are centered in smaller counties, such as Cameron, Grayson, Brazoria, Ector, Galveston, Gregg, Hale, Hidalgo, Howard, Hunt, Midland, Navarro, Potter, San Patricio, Smith, Taylor, Wichita and Williamson.

Some counties only have one paroled child. But the state is responsible for every one it has "retrained."

INSURANCE HEARING—A State Insurance Board hearing on proposed rules for regulating credit insurance—which pays off a man's debt if he dies, or makes the payments when he is disabled—drew a big crowd.

One controversial point was a ceiling rate of 90 cents per $100 of insurance.

Some insurance company executives insisted the ceiling should be no more than 60 or 65 cents per $100. But one spokesman thought the 90-cent per $100 rate was too low and recommended $1.

Some loan companies said they now give credit insurance free. They feared the proposed rules might outlaw this practice.

A second hearing with new proposed rules will be aired on Sept. 10.

CITIES GROWTH FORMULA—About 200 city attorneys, city engineers and city councilmen gathered in Austin to hear a Texas Municipal League explanation of the Texas Municipal Annexation Act, which will become effective on Aug. 23.

Annexation act sets out "extraterritorial jurisdictions" dictating the extent of a city's growth in any three-year period. For cities of less than 5,000 population, the extraterritorial area extends a half-mile beyond city limits; cities 5,000 to 25,000, one mile; cities 25,000 to 50,000, two miles; cities 50,000 to 100,000, three and a half miles, and cities 100,000 and up, five miles.

But a city would not have to expand all the way around its rim. It could swing arcs or "fingers" out to "desirable areas for growth," and obtain the annual area allocation of 10 per cent of its square acreage in these areas.

For example, officials of a city of 20,000 acres could annex up to 2,000 acres of "desirable" land one year; 2,200 acres the next, etc., without ever annexing undesirable new territory.

SHORT SNOOTS—Rep. Sam F. Collins of Newton asked to be allowed to serve as a state representative without pay, when he accepted a job as assistant to General Manager John W. Simmons of the Sabine River Authority.

Gov. John Connally appointed Hudson Davis of Borger as Canadian River Compact commissioner, and R. Leighton McKinley Jr. of Denison, Interstate Compact commissioner of the Red River.

The state general revenue fund finished July with $19,500,000 in the black.
