School Bus Laws Confuse Drivers

"This school year, as in the past, the School Bus Loading Laws confuse many drivers," states Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety.

The Uniform Vehicle Code in Texas states that the driver of a vehicle, meeting or overtaking from either direction a school bus displaying red flashing warning lights that is in the process of loading or unloading passengers, shall stop until the school bus starts moving, the red lights are no longer flashing, or the bus driver directs motorists to proceed.

"Freeways and divided highways add to the drivers confusion," Major Bell added. "If a bus is on an access road, only the traffic does not normally cross the median or barrier then only traffic on the portion of the roadway occupied by the bus must stop. It is most important that drivers observe the School Bus Loading Laws for the protection of our school children."

Texas Hunting Fishing Day Set

Sept. 25 has been set aside by Gov. Dolph Briscoe as Texas Hunting and Fishing Day in recognition of the contributions state outdoorsmen to make conservation.

Gov. Briscoe along with the mayors of Amarillo and Lubbock are among the 50 top state administrators, 500 mayors, 237 congressmen supporting National Hunting and Fishing Day, which is celebrating its fifth anniversary. The announce theme for this years NHF day is: "Making a Good Thing Better."

For nearly 40 years, sportsmen have paid a special 11 percent tax on their sporting equipment, providing conservation across the country with over $600 million, and they increase that total by nearly $50 million each year. During the next year, Texas will receive $2,235,800 for fish and wildlife restoration from this source.

Because of these sportsmens interest in hunting and fishing throughout the vast and varied lands and waters of Texas, countless Texans along with other Americans have made great contributions to the many values of these outdoor activities. Texas sportsmen bought 1,051,834 hunting license in 1975 which accounted for six percent of the 16.6 million sold across the United states. License sales officials of the P&WD received $5.8 million from combination hunting and fishing, resident hunting and resident hunting exempt licenses.

Anglers and hunters are vocal in seeking to keep our waters clean and our lands balanced for a great Texas agriculture industry which can also afford ample wildlife habitat.

Through organizations such as Ducks Unlimited, bass, and gun clubs, attention is directed toward the inestimable value of natural resources to mankind and the dangers of its abuse.

All citizens are urged to join with anglers hunters and conservationists in renewing our appreciation for and dedication to proper use of natural resources now and for future generations.

Tigers Walk Over Pampa J-V 23-6

Last Thursday night the McLean Tigers beat the Pampa sophomores 23-6. Curtis Simpson scored first for the Tigers on a 47 yard run. Sam Haynes ran for the 2-point conversion to put the Tigers ahead 8-0. John Hunter of Pampa ten raced 46 yards down the left sidelines for their only score of the night. They failed to convert the extra point. The Tigers lead 8-6 at the end of the first half. In the third quarter Sam Haynes threw a pass to Dale Kilham as he raced 21 yards for a touchdown. Haynes then threw a pass to Curtis Simpson for the 2-point conversion. The Tigers led the lead 16-6. Early in the fourth quarter the Tiger got the ball on their own five yard line. The very next play the Tigers fumbled and Pampa recovered. On Pampa's next play their quarterback was hit as he was trying to pitch the ball. The ball went up in the air and Carter Trew caught it and raced 52 yards down the field as he was caught from behind by a Pampa defender. A couple of plays later Haynes scored on a 42 yard run on a quarterback keeper around right end. Randy Kennedy kicked the extra point to make the final score 23-6. The Tigers will travel to Lefors this Friday night to play the Lefors Pirates at 7:30 p.m. This is the Tigers' first district game.

ALL IMMERSION IS NOT SCRIPTURAL BAPTISM

Just because a person is immersed is no indication that he or she had been scripturally baptized. There is more to scriptural baptism than being immersed in water. All baptism is IMMERSION, but all immersion is not scriptural baptism.

In the New Testament we learn the characteristics of Scriptural baptism and what it really is. Unless these characteristics are present---then the resultant action is not as the Lord ordained.

It is not Scriptural baptism when water is sprinkled or poured on the person desiring baptism. (Rom. 6:3-5; Acts 8:38-39).

It is not Scriptural baptism when a person states before immersion that he believes he has already been saved. (Mark 16:16; Acts 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21)

It is not Scriptural baptism when it is administered by the authority of the church rather than in the name of (by the authority of) Christ. (Acts 2:38; 19:5).

It is not Scriptural baptism when the person has been taught that baptism is NON ESSENTIAL to salvation, that he has been saved and is merely being immersed so that he can have membership in a denomination. (John 3:5; 1 Cor. 12:13; Gal. 3:26-27)

Because of a misunderstanding of these principles and characteristics, many people think they have been Scripturally baptized when in reality they have merely been immersed.

Market Report

Pork prices will drop in the near future, but best prices will be higher by winter, according to predictions from Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, a consumer marketing information specialist.

Consumers can look for lower pork prices in the near future--as supplies are expected to be well above that of last year.

Currently at pork counters, emphasis is placed on Boston butt roasts and quarter-loins cut into chops. Smoked features include semi-boneless hams, picnics and frankfurters.

Mrs. Clyatt is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The System.

Beef supplies are more plentiful now -- and prices are lower than a year ago. However, producers have been losing money on cattle for some time, and this situation just cannot continue indefinitely.

The result likely will be less beef on the market this winter--and high prices on that which is available.

At the present time, special prices most often appear on beer chuck roasts, chuck and round steaks, ground beef and liver.

With eggs showing price increases, consumers can get most economy with a simple price-test.

If there is a less than a seven-cent price spread between one size and the next smaller size egg--in the same grade, the larger size is more economical.

At dairy sections, milk, sour cream and a variety of cheese are in the spotlight.

Also, instant non-fat milk is plentiful and helps stretch the milk expenditure, Mrs. Clyatt said.

It can be used effectively in most recipes calling for milk. It need not be reconstituted for baking purposes. Add it in powder form to the dry ingredients--and add water for the liquid measure.

At fruit counters, economy buys include bananas, grapes, nectarines, pears and prunes.

Cantaloupe and watermelon of good quality have moderate prices--as the season draws nearer the end.

At vegetable counters, economy buys include cabbage, carrots, potatoes, dry onions, yellow and zucchini squash.

Hard-shell squash supplies are increasing--acorn varieties in best supply. Cucumber, another fall vegetable, is also available and worthy of consideration.

In other grocery store sections, look for specials on jellies, jams and peanut butter.

CONSUMER WATCH-WORDS: Consumers save five to nine cents per pound when they buy whole fryer chickens and cut them up at home.

Young At Heart Meet Saturday

The Young At Heart Club met Saturday night with everyone having a good time playing 88. There were three guests from Shamrock present.

Hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith.

The luncheon was held on Tuesday with 45 eating. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Davidson of Wheeler.

Most people take for granted the safety of the drinking water that comes from their home faucets, especially if their water is provided by a municipal water supply system. But safe drinking water isn't achieved automatically and, according to water hygiene officials of the Health Resources, in some Texas communities it is achieved only with great difficulty.

C. K. Foster, director of the Water Hygiene Division, TDHR, says that the standards for water purity will change in the near future. "Presently, we operate under state statutes which were passed in 1945, as well as the U. S. Public Health Service's Drinking Water Act. However, a new federal law will become effective in June of 1977," he explains, "which will change somewhat our procedures, with the maximum contaminant levels being changed in some cases."

The present standards are concerned primarily with bacteriological contamination and some inorganic chemicals, especially heavy metals, Foster says. In some instances, the present standards only provide for recommended limits. The new standards will be considerably more stringent.

Water Hygiene standards differ somewhat for two major classes of water supply system: community systems and non-community systems. Foster explains "Obviously, the non-community systems do not require the same surveillance, for instance, that the community systems would, because people don't drink the water continually from a non-com-

By Joe Van Zandth
Upland cotton production in Texas is forecast at 3,130,000 bales based on Sept. 1 conditions and shows a decline of 270,000 bales from the August 1 forecast. Hot dry, weather across most of the central, northern and western area of the state in August stressed the central, northern and western areas of the dryland stands and caused heavy shredding of young fruit. Yield is estimated at 334 pounds per acre, down 20 pounds from last month but still well above last year's 293 pound average. Harvested acres estimated at 4,500,000 are unchanged from last month.

Harvest has progressed satisfactorily in South Texas, the Lower Rio Grande Valley and Coastal bend where farmers were nearing completion of an outstanding cotton crop. Some early fields were being harvested in Southcentral Texas and the southern Blacklands where crop prospects were mixed. Early stands generally look good and are producing good yields but late stands were more severely affected by moisture stress and heavier insect populations. Even with good current prices a few stands in the Blacklands have been plowed up because of poor prospects.

For the United States, all cotton production on Sept. 1 is estimated at 10,375,400 bales, 25 percent above the 1975 total. Expected production consisted of 10,318,200 bales of Upland and 57,200 bales of American-Pima cotton. Cotton producers expect to harvest 11.1 million acres compared with 8.8 million acres in 1975. Average lint yield per acre is forecast at 451 pounds compared with 453 pounds last year. I recently received a new update on the cattle outlook from Dr. Ed Uvacek, Extension livestock marketing specialist. His forecasts still point toward continued weakness in the cattle market for the next two or three months. This pressure on fed beef will come from four main sources: about 18% more fed cattle from feedlots only slightly less non-fed and cow slaughter than the record highs of last fall; and substantially larger pork and broiler productions.

Continued violent price fluctuations in the fed cattle market seems almost certain. It is a very psychological market and is influenced easily by any rumors. Prices for fed cattle are expected to move to their lowest level in the Oct. period. Hopefully, by mid-November, slaughter supplies of non-feds and cows will thin out enough to allow some market strength.

Feedlot losses are mounting and should substantially reduce the demand for replacement animals. This altogether with larger supplies of feeder animals that are still available and only slightly lower feed grain prices, could cause some real pressure on feeder cattle prices this fall.

Uvacek predicts that choice 1,000 pound steers at Amarillo will bring between $37.00 - $39.00 for the July-Sept. quarter. For the Oct.-Dec. quarter he forecasts prices to range between $37.00-$40.00. Then for the Jan.-March, 1977 quarter he thinks choice steer prices will average $43.00-$45.00.

Sometimes I disagree with Dr. Uvacek's predictions, but his predictions for the balance of this year sound fairly reasonable to me and close to what I think will happen.

Efficient gardeners or thrifty homeowners can make good use of those piles of autumn leaves, dead branches or other plant debris by converting the waste material into a compost pile.
