A big, fast flock of Eldorado's TD's hammered the deflated O-Lions with a 40 to 6 defeat in the last week to erase the Lions from the title chase. The defeat was one of the most lided suffered by the Lions in al years and resulted chiefly, the opponents using their eleven all the way. The Lion offense which has been at most of the year was ineffect against the big fast Eagles used the often spoken of ball ol method of throttling the y attack.

Forecast Heavy Voting Here In General Election

Interest In National Campaign May Bring Out The Voters

Although absentee voting was light in Crockett county, a heavy vote nevertheless is predicted for the general election next Tuesday. Interest in the issues of the election and the personalities of the presidential candidates are expected to be factors which will pro- duce another record turn-out of voters all over Texas.

Only around 40 absentee ballots had been cast for the general election here at midweek, but the small number can be accounted for in the fact that few people are vacationing at this time and ex- pect to be on hand to vote in per- son.

Crockett county went for Pres- ident Eisenhower in 1952 by a two to one margin. Observers over the state are predicting another victory for the president in Texas this year but many see it by a somewhat smaller margin than in 1952.

Texas will decide the fate of eight proposed constitutional amendments in the general election balloting and a ninth on Nov. 13. In addition to the amendments, voters in the 16th Congressional district will have a Republican-Democrat race for a seat in Con- gress to add interest. Charley Gib- son, El Paso attorney and civic leader, is a candidate for Congress on the Republican ticket, opposing Democratic nominee and incum- bent, J. T. Rutherford of Odessa. On a statewide basis, the Republi- cans will offer a candidate for governor and for commissioner of Agriculture, plus some local Con- gressional races.

Good Will Ambassador To Spain Speaks Here

Miss Betty Hanks of San Angelo who went as a good will ambas- ador to Spain under sponsorship of the Community Welfare Organiza- tion of San Angelo described her experiences in Spain in a talk to the Ozona Woman's Club here last week. The natural beauty of Spain, the poverty, the immense wealth of the church as evidenced by its buildings, the filth of the market places, all were portrayed side by side, Miss Hanks evidenced an intense interest in the people and in the judgment of her listeners must have done a good job as an ambassador of good will.

Mrs. S. M. Harvick gave a re- view of the amendments to be voted on in the coming election. Mrs. N. W. Graham was leader. Mrs. Max Schneemann gave the invoca- tion. Mrs. Hillery Phillips, Jr., played Spanish numbers on the piano.

Baylor Indicted On Three Counts, Trial Set Friday

Defendant Indicates He Will Plead Guilty To Rape Charge

William B. Baylor, 31-year-old oil field worker here, was indicted on three separate counts, on a charge of rape, when the grand jury met in called session here Monday morning and will be tried on the rape charge in 12th dis- trict court here Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Baylor, who has been in the Crockett county jail since his ar- rest nearly three weeks ago by the sheriff's department on a charge of writing an obscene note to an Ozona married woman and who later confessed to breaking into the home of an Ozona widow and making a criminal attack upon her, indicated that he would enter a plea of guilty to the charges brought by the grand jury when he was arraigned before District Judge Jim C. Langdon after his indictment Monday.

Baylor is charged with rape, with breaking into a house at night with intent to commit rape and with committing an act of sexual perversion. Baylor was re- manded to jail without bail pend- ing his trial.

A special venire of 36 prospec- tive jurymen was ordered sum- moned by Judge Langdon in addi- tion to the 33 persons on the reg- ular jury panel for this term of court. All have been summoned to appear at 10 a.m. Monday for possible jury service in the case.

On the charge of rape, Baylor faces a possible sentence of life imprisonment or even the death penalty, although the state has indicated that it will not press for the death sentence. On the charge of unlawful entry with intent to commit rape, the possible penalty is for a term of years not less than five nor more than 99. On the perversion charge the penalty is from two to fifteen years.

Baylor was arrested by officers after an obscene note was slipped under the door of an Ozona home where the husband was away at work. He confessed writing the note after being confronted with a clear impression of its contents on the top sheet of a note pad found in his car and then made a written confession of the force- ful entry into the home of a widow and the attack upon her.

TIDELANDS IN DANGER

The tidelands issue is not dead! Senator Douglas of Illinois has indicated that he will introduce legislation to take the tidelands away from the states again.

Adlai Stevenson, however, prefers not to discuss the matter. He has said the tidelands affair is closed.

Texans will remember that tidelands was a blazing issue in 1952. The Texas tidelands were of great value to us (as has been proved by the $60 million they have put in our public school fund since 1953.)

But of even greater importance to Texans were the principles involved — the principle of state rights, the principle of moral obligation, the principle of integrity.

The submerged lands had been won at San Jacinto, guaranteed to us by the joint resolution of annexation to the United States, and the title validated at the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, following another bloody war.

And Texans remember that in 1952, Adlai Stevenson told us that he would veto any bill Congress passed restoring our birthright, just as Harry Truman had done on two previous occasions.

(And Texans also remember that Retex Kefauver was one of those voting against the tidelands bill in the Senate. So did seven other out of state Senators brought in by the Lyndon Johnson-Stevenson crowd to tell Texans how to vote.)

Texans rebelled against Mr. Stevenson in 1952, when tidelands was a major issue.

Texans helped elect Mr. Eisenhower, who supported the tidelands bill and signed it into law.

If we had no other reason to support Mr. Eisenhower this time — and we have a great many other reasons — we would do it out of appreciation and gratitude.

And out of apprehension that if Adlai Stevenson were elected, Congress might pass and he might sign a bill returning our tidelands to the federal government.

Tex Says He's No Expert But He Believes Ike Is

The other night a bunch of us were sitting around in the drug store after the football game, drinking coffee and talking. You know how it is after a game in a small town, especially after the home team loses. Nearly every man in the crowd had a theory as to why we didn't win the game. Most of them, of course, blamed the referee. I couldn't help remembering that before we consolidated the county schools we didn't even have enough boys to make up a football team. And there came football supporters who were saying what Malone or Bud Williams would have done, or what a few years ago they didn't know a football from a watermelon.

But don't be the way it is in a small town (and in big ones, too, I understand). I guess there's no real hero done, although sometimes it's pretty rough on the coach.

I guess we have a right, in this free country, to be self-appointed coaches in any line we want to pick out. It seems to me that most people choose either football or politics.

Take this presidential election coming up next Tuesday: During the last few weeks I have heard too many stories and theories from too many different political experts that I simply get confused and nervous. I have to stop and think that the fellow who is talking probably doesn't know any more about it than I do, and that tells me how straightforward it is.

In fact, I guess I have had my mind made up all along. He says he's a little you can't change the way you think — the kind of man you'd be proud to point out to any person, from any country on the face of the globe, and say: "That's our President!"

About Adlai, now, I'm not so sure. Of course, if he was elected, he would be my President, too, and I would hope he'd do a lot better than most people around here seem to think he would. This is something I don't think we need to worry about, because from all I can hear and read, he is going to win it again.

It seems to me that if Adlai ever had a chance around here, he threw it away when he came out with that H-bomb business. Now, the folks in our town don't know much about H-bombs, except that they don't want any personal dealings with them. Our scientific knowledge of H-bombs is about on a par with our football knowledge, I reckon. But we do know one thing: We don't want some misguided, inexperienced fellow fooling around with our national defense. When it comes to trusting what Eisenhower says or what Eisenhower says, I'll take him. So will the rest of the country, if I don't win my guess.

Just before we broke up the other night the Browns came into the drug store, and somebody called him "Tex." You know the fellow? (That's a big Eisenhower man.) He said: "Well, it's a long campaign for the United States. Let's work the way and get the best candidate, and I understand that this week Adlai is going to get his head cut off."

HIGHLIGHTS AND DELIGHTS from State Capitol

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

In Texas, — Eight decisions on state policy soon will be up to the voters. In addition to party candidates, eight propositions to the state constitution will appear on the election ballot.

1. A proposed amendment will be considered at a election on Nov. 13.

2. An amendment will be printed on the ballot twice — once by the FOR and once by the AGAINST. Voters must mark out the one they oppose and leave the other clear.

3. The amendments and articles are pro and con.

4. Authorizes the legislature to create persons fined or imprisoned for crimes they did not commit. PRO: Would make amendments unjustly imposed on innocent. CON: Might open the door to numerous fraudulent

5. Allows county commissioners to vary allocations for tax without special elections. Greater flexibility would be for greater efficiency in financial management. CON: Commissioners courts would have such authority.

6. Adds other colleges to the program financed by the University of Texas. Permanent and authorizes investment in corporate stocks as well as government bonds. PRO: Would provide an increase in college building without new taxes. CON: Risked in wider investments is worth the possible return.

7. Increases the benefits of the new retirement system. PRO: Would attract more persons to the profession. CON: Would increase taxpayer obligations by $10,000, take a larger nick out of teachers' salaries.

8. Authorizes another $100,000 bond issue for veterans land. PRO: Program has been in order, and additional money needed to enable more veterans to participate. CON: Program does not merit public confidence; only one per cent of Texas veterans have benefited.

9. Provides a different oath of office form for elective and appointive officials. PRO: Would clarify present inconsistencies. CON: Citizens constitution with minor details.

10. Requires competent medical or psychiatric testimony before commitment of a person to a mental institution and allows waiver of jury trial, except in criminal cases. PRO: A mentally ill person should not be "convicted" as a criminal. CON: Jury trial is a safeguard against "railroading" of persons into mental institutions.

11. Permits judge to deny bail to persons convicted of two previous felonies. PRO: Would protect public safety. CON: Right of bail is one of our fundamental civil rights.

12. Authorizes the Legislature to give aid with federal assistance to citizens permanently and totally disabled by a mental or physical handicap. PRO: State has a moral obligation to these needy persons. CON: Tie-in with federal program would lead to more federal encroachment.

13. Ballot scratching — While candidates and campaign camps are busy "scratching for votes, voters are busy learning how to "scratch" ballots.

14. Ballot scratching is legal. You don't have to vote the straight Democratic ticket, or the straight Republican ticket.

15. All you have to do to scratch a ballot is to cross out or draw a line through the name of the candidate you do not want to vote for, and leave unmarked the names of the candidates for whom you do want to vote. Just be sure you vote for only one candidate for each office. It's as simple as that.

16. Machine voting is even simpler. All you do is pull the lever by the name of the candidate you want to vote for, in whatever column you choose. The machines are so designed that you can vote only for one candidate for any office.

17. If you want to vote for a candidate whose name does not appear on the printed ballot, you can write his name in — in the write-in column which is provided for that purpose. Such a column appears both on the paper ballots and the machine ballots. On the paper ballots you should scratch out the names of all other candidates for that same office.

18. Election laws say that your write-in ballot will be counted even though your spelling may not be exactly correct — and even the last name of the candidate is sufficient.

E.S.A. Sorority To Furnish Girl Scout Cabin From Play Fund

The Ozona chapter of E. S. A. met in the Girl Scout cabin Thursday, Oct. 18, for the first business meeting of the year. Elaine Rollins and Lola Cleere were in charge of the program, "Fashion and Make-up."

The club project for the year will be to work on the heart disease program.

Pearl Lemmons was unanimously elected sponsor of the sorority. Members voted to present the sorority with a picture of the lobby in memory of Eve Lemmons. A picture of the Chisos Mountain has been chosen and hung. The picture was painted by Margaret Tupper.

From the proceeds of the play which was presented in September by the sorority and so well supported by the town people, the sorority is furnishing the Scout cabin with some needed equipment. A piano has already been purchased for the Scouts. To be added to the cabin are 12 folding chairs, a flag pole and flags, a vent for the bathroom, cabinets for the various troops, and the completion of the molding along the ceiling of the building. A photograph is also to be purchased for troop use.

Elaine Rollins and Juanita Mills were appointed to help Betty Tubbs with the yearly scrapbook for the sorority. Mary Deaton was appointed to write the history of the local E.S.A.

The E.S.A. sorority and the Girl Scouts wish to thank the Church of Christ for the door to the cabin and to thank L. D. Long for the labor in putting it up. Foxworth Galbraith Lumber Company furnished the lock for the door.

THE LION'S ROAR

PUBLISHED BY STUDENTS OF THE JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT—OZONA HIGH SCHOOL

EDITORIAL!

A major part of any high school is its freshmen. In numbers, personality and good nature, our freshmen rate highest of all classes.

We realize that it isn't easy to take the teasing etc., inflicted by the upperclassmen. This joking is only meant in fun and that in just the way you are giving it. Next year you will be a big wheel and understand what we mean. The attitude of the freshmen class means a lot in the setup of Ozona High.

A great big thanks, Kids, from all the upperclassmen, to a bunch of really swell kids! For your all-in-fun spirit, we commend you!

A LOOK DOWN FRONT

There is a very hardworking group in high school that seems to get much credit. Let's take time out to look at the cheerleaders.

Wanda Armstrong, our head cheerleader, is a senior. This is her third year leading yells, and we'll really miss her next year. Wanda has something special to accent her uniform. Everyone has surely noticed George's senior ring around her neck.

Another energetic gal is Alma Ingham. This is Alma's first year as a high school cheerleader, and she's a junior. Alma has told us that she loves gray and white Fords, jersey number seventy-two, and FFA jackets. Keep up the good work, Alma; you're doing fine! Congrats on 4-H Club Sweet-heart!!!

Gwynel Walker, another junior and first year girl, adds a lot to our spirit. Gwynel's varied interests are hard to tell about. That purple and gold streak is only Gwen's little car. Quite patriotic! Have you chased your deer anymore, Gwen? Incidentally, I hear that Gwen is very fond of turkeys. She really has first-hand access to them. (Lefty, this is a good ad!)

Nellie Belle, known to you as Genelle Childress, gets quite a few whistles when introduced to the opposing team's band. It isn't hard to figure out why when you notice her blond hair. Nellie adds just enough grace not to look like a jumping jack. This is quite becoming to our OHS cheerleaders. Genelle is a junior and first-year girl, also.

Frances Childress well represents the sophomore class. She has something very becoming that accents her beautiful eyes. Bobby decided that Frances is the girl for him so they are going steady and she has his white track jacket. Don't run into anymore barbed wire fences, Frances! We're watching you lead yells, and you are doing a grand job.

We're proud of our cheerleaders this year. They work very hard building up spirit and backing our team. Notice them if you haven't. They look smart in their white and purple uniforms.

The cheerleaders would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone of you for co-operating with them this year. We have a fine team and a fine group backing them!

AROUND THE HALLS OF OHS

Have you noticed a new brunette in the halls? Monday, Sandra Jones checked in school. I've gathered a few interesting facts about her that may enable you to know her better.

Last year Sandra attended school in Big Lake. Since her father works for an oil company, she moves around a lot. After beginning school this year in California, she came back to Texas. Sandra is sixteen years old and is a junior. When I asked if she likes Ozona, she replied, "Yes, all the people here are so friendly." Sandra admitted to me that she was a little nervous when she came to school, but after a wonderful reception, she felt right at home.

Sandra, we welcome you to OHS! Enjoy your experiences here. (You will have plenty of them!) It's nice to have you with us.

ANNUAL STAFF NEWS

Annual staff members have been working frantically on lay-outs for the new '57 Ayer. Something even better for our new Ayer is the snag shot idea. Everyone bring your favorite snap shot, and maybe yours will be the lucky one or a best one to go in the annual.

Most beautiful and handsome election was held Tuesday in class meetings. Each person was allowed to write their three most beautiful and handsome on the ballot. From these votes the tops will be voted on again next week.

If anyone has any new ideas on the improvement of the '57 Ayer we, the members of the Annual Staff, would appreciate all suggestions.

JUNIOR NEWS

It's a girl! Oh boy that's great! Wow!

If these remarks are heard around school it's only because the Juniors have a new girl. Sandra Jones is the charming girl that all the boys have been going crazy over. We hope you like it here Sandra!!!

The Juniors are starting to sell mums for the Junction game. So come on boys and be alert and buy your girlfriend or mother a mum. Your girls start putting on your best manners and talk Dad into buying you a mum. Mums are gifts that all girls appreciate, so everyone see the Juniors shout your mums.

SCOUTMOUSH REPORTS

We're so glad that Porgie is back with us! (Wanda is too!)

The P. T. A. Carnival was Tuesday and it was so much fun! If you didn't see the side show, you missed a great performance. Minnie Pearl Mayfield, Bill Haley Smith, a Hulu dancer, Doctors a twirler, were there to give a good show! We saw and felt many bean shooters too! A real interesting stand was the "photo" stand where many cute and funny pictures were taken. Right, Miss? There were lots of girls who had dates! (and boys too!) Jackie and Genelle and Kent and Camille — Bobby and Frances — George and Wanda — Pie and Liz — Alma and Jess — Dix and Alleane, lots more. I'm sure that I didn't see!

O! Yes! There are some new steadies! Bobby and Frances, Molly Sue and Tommy — Congratulations.

Then the "Big Events" was the Halloween Dance the student council gave! The Cafeteria was decorated so nice! We really thank Miss Powers and the student council for this! The same kids had dates to the dance that had them at the Carnival. A few changes were made! Jake was hobbling around on crutches from the results of the game Friday. He didn't have a date and Nellie went with Bobby Estes. Alleane went with Mark Jimmy B. and Becky — Tommy and Molly Sue — Don and Judy. Carol came home from T. U. and Tooter took her to the dance. Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Henderson were there. Joe Clayton and Linda Millsbaugh — Joe Everett and Janice Semmler — O! Toothless, Legless Jacobs took Bunker, Kathy and Roy Glenn were there!

Brute showed us how to jitterbug! We had so much fun dancing Paul Jones!!!! It was hot too, after about three Paul Jones in a row!

Sun. night — Many people were getting book reports (especially seniors!) Some got theirs together! Lately Charlie has been seen around with one girl. He was with her Sunday at the movies.

Nara had a date with Robert Sunday afternoon. One of our new steadies is Bobby with a cute girl from Junior High.

Eva Montes has been having dates with Humberto Cervantez. Seen at the dance Saturday were Miami D. Alonzo L. and Tomas L. Amelia has been in high spirits this week — she received a letter from Sammy Martinez.

Melchor is spending more time studying in high school, how come Melchor?

Where's your ring Chae? Did you lose it or is somebody wearing it?

Until next week — Good-bye and we want to wish the "A" boys luck on their trip this weekend!

HALLOWEEN DANCE

Amidst a background of waffles and jack-O-lanterns the annual Halloween Dance was held in the cafeteria Saturday, October 27.

Gracing the huge cafeteria were hundreds of students. The Cafeteria hung a huge witch. Their eyes were alive with the pleasure of the evening. Then along the back there were Halloween masks decorating the side walls.

Swinging gaily from the ceiling were ropes of black and orange crepe paper.

The music was furnished by the wonderful record player the P. T. A. so graciously put in the cafeteria.

We of the student council would like to thank all of you who helped make our dance a huge success.

Had a frantic wire from Washington yesterday—saying that the local Congressman was making a surprise visit and a short speech. Could I get the word around fast?

No time for a special edition of the Clarion, so I turned to the fastest "news service" in town... Windy Taylor. He spent an hour mobilizing his Lodge and Court House cronies—all pretty fair talkers—and the rest is history. Biggest turnout ever.

As a newspaperman, I hate to admit it—but facts are facts. The Winds of this world aren't only quicker news spreaders!

Regents Chairman Tom Sealy Challenges Sen. Hardeman On Effects of Amendment To Permit Investment U.T. Funds in Common Stocks

By Tom Sealy
Chairman, Board of Regents
University of Texas

The Ozona Stockman recently published an article by Senator Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo, Texas, on the College Building Amendment (No. 3 on the ballot) to be voted upon in the General Election. In this article Senator Hardeman expressed an opinion that the amendment would permit gambling in the stock market with the Permanent University Fund. I know that Senator Hardeman is entirely sincere in expressing this opinion. I am equally sincere in expressing a contrary opinion which I believe is fully supported by the factual data set out in this article, and I appreciate the opportunity afforded me by The Ozona Stockman to give its readers the following information in support of this proposed Amendment.

The purpose of this Amendment is to provide money to build needed class rooms and laboratories for Texas state colleges and universities without increasing taxes or making additional legislative appropriations for the ensuing 20-year period commencing with the year 1958. We need only to consider the tremendous building program in our Public Schools system to grasp the magnitude of the problem facing our state colleges and universities now and during the next twenty years. This Amendment is a solution which has been carefully thought out and has been endorsed by the governing boards of all the state-supported institutions of higher education. The legislature by overwhelming vote has submitted it to the people to vote on November 6.

To provide additional funds for buildings in The University of Texas and A&M College systems, one provision of the Amendment permits the Board of Regents of The University of Texas, trustees of the Permanent University Fund, to invest up to 50 per cent of that fund in corporate stocks and bonds. The point was made in Senator Hardeman's article that this could lead to "playing the stock market."

The following facts pertain to the investment program authorized by the Amendment:

In planning the investment program the Board of Regents is charged with the same responsibilities that are imposed upon all trustees by the Texas Trust Act: specifically, that its members "shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence shall exercise in the management of their own affairs not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital." In other words, the Board is bound by the prudent man rule which is now generally in effect throughout the country. Under this rule innumerable trust accounts are managed by bank trust departments and the Regents have a responsibility just as real as those of the trustees of any other fund.

Further, as to the "safety" of the fund, the Amendment provides that:

1. Only stocks of companies which have paid dividends for at least 10 consecutive years immediately prior to purchase of stock can be acquired.

2. Not more than 1% of the fund can be invested in the securities of any one corporation.

3. Not more than 5% of the voting stock of any one corporation may be owned.

4. Only stocks of companies incorporated within the United States can be acquired.

5. Except for bank and insurance shares, stocks must be listed on an exchange registered with and regulated by the Securities Exchange Commission.

These safeguards permit an investment in a cross-section of American industry and business and participation in the long-range growth of the nation's economy.

The Board of Regents, through the Endowment Office of the University, has for years successfully invested in stocks a portion of the funds of the Hogg Foundation and other private endowment funds of the institution. This experience, brought to bear in investing part of the public endowment fund, certainly may be expected to maintain a program of investment rather than speculation.

As in the case of buying government bonds, to which investment of the Permanent Fund is now limited, stocks will be purchased for income and for long-term holding. Only in this way can the Permanent Fund benefit from long-range growth of American industry. As I see it, an investment in the blue-chip stocks of American business corporations is just like buying an interest in the United States of America.

I do not say that some risk will not be involved in the long-range program. There is no such thing as a risk-less investment. The government bonds presently owned by the Permanent University Fund are down in market value because of the increase in money market interest rates. This is true of virtually all commercial bank portfolios and all investors in government bonds.

Much more serious than the decline in market value is the drop in purchasing power of the fixed income from the bond investments. The drop in purchasing power has been almost 50 per cent in the past 20 years. As a result, it now requires the interest income from about $2,000,000 par value of government bonds to provide the same purchasing power as was realized from a similar investment of $1,000,000 in 1936.

A balanced investment program including both stocks and bonds (and, under the Amendment, more than 50 per cent of the Permanent University Fund will continue to be invested in government bonds and real estate mortgages guaranteed by the United States Government) provides some protection against both inflation and deflation. Over a period of time such a program will provide a higher yield on the total investment. Even an increase of 1/10th of one per cent on the present portfolio will increase annual income by $363,000. An increase of 7/10ths of one per cent would increase income by $2,541,000 each year.

Nearly all college and university endowment funds recognize the great advantage of a balanced investment program and have invested in common stocks for years. These include such state universities as California with 47 per cent of its endowment invested in stocks, New York with 51 per cent, Pennsylvania with 58 per cent, and Virginia with 78 per cent.

It should be remembered that the investment requirements of college endowment funds are quite different from those of life insurance companies and commercial banks. The latter concerns have fixed dollar liabilities and regulatory authorities require them to invest in fixed dollar securities, namely bonds and notes. On the other hand, fire and casualty insurance companies which have uncertain risks are permitted to invest in stocks and it is quite common for 30 to 50 per cent of the investments of these companies to be in stocks.

Faced with the continuing growth in Texas population and with the increasing demands upon the facilities of our colleges and universities, I believe the voters of Texas have an opportunity to provide an invaluable service to our children and the children of succeeding generations by voting for Amendment No. 3 on November 6.

EISENHOWER

IS A BETTER DEMOCRAT THAN YOU

TEXAS DEMOCRATS FOR EISENHOWER

(Pol. Adv.—Paid for by Texas Democrats for Eisenhower, Walter Hart, Director)

You are a free Texan... You can vote any way you like. Regardless of what you may have heard, it is perfectly legal to split your ticket if you want to, just as it is legal to vote the Democratic ticket straight, or the Republican ticket straight. The purpose of the ballot is to determine what the people want. And if you want to vote for Eisenhower and Nixon — then cast the rest of your ballot for the Democratic nominees — that is your privilege. Don't let anyone tell you otherwise! BY LAW YOUR VOTE MUST BE COUNTED.
