

IT'S A MAD—MAD—MAD WORLD

Business community goes MAD Tuesday

From 6 to 9 p.m., Tuesday, there is going to be considerable insanity on both sides of the counter in 18 stores of the Spearman business community but...it is planned that way!

They call it Moonlight Madness. They, also, have been calling it a huge success every season that the merchant members of the Chamber of Commerce have been participating. There have been times when buying traffic through the shops has been seen traffic outside on Main Street double parked.

Strangely enough, both buyer and seller freely admit the entire promotion is a "come-on."

But it works because the specials offered to entice purchasers are truly that—special opportunities at quality and unusual choice. Often it is obvious that the store has to be taking a loss on such an item at such a low price.

Of course, the old saying: "...the proof is in the puddin'" prevails here. Whatever their purchase, Moonlight Madness buyers go home extremely satisfied—a fact proved by their enthusiastic return next year.

The real spirit of the annual promotion is found in the fact that shoppers can move leisurely through the stores for three hours making their decisions. They visit with the merchants and discover what is yet to come as the fall and winter season progresses into Christmas.

Too, it is a social occasion. Different families have different schedules daily and this often puts friends out of touch for a time. They meet at the Moonlight Madness Sale, get reacquainted and go home doubly sure they were glad they came to town.

The stores will be offering lovely merchandise, especially for "early Christmas shopping" items.

Participating in the Moonlight Madness are JG's, Jan's Fashions, Sacks Third Ave., Trudy's, General Store, Cates Mens Wear, Beedy Furniture, Boyd's Shoes, Hickerson Jewelers, Gift Box, White's Auto, Kids' Stuff, Baker's, Gordon's Drug, Cochran's Fabrics, Lady Fair, Bunkhouse and Spearman Pizza Hut.

Success of previous such promotions have proved one other point:

The Chamber of Commerce has a sense for practical, profitable promotions and the leadership to "make them fly."

Modest about the entire thing, chamber leaders insist the real success of the event—proving the wisdom of merchants in setting specials—is in that first hour shoppers are back home and compare their purchases with their pocketbooks.

ACTING IN A SPECIAL CALLED SESSION

Acting in a special called session to beat a deadline, Spearman City Councilmen voted Thursday to nominate five persons to Hansford County Appraisal District's Board of Directors.

The council members nominated incumbents Lynn Hart, Thane McCloy and Jimmy Shieldknight as candidates for the board, and nominated Roy Bulls and Gene Fletcher as candidates for the two seats on the board which are being vacated.

The city thus became the fifth Hansford County government entity to nominate the same five men to the appraisal board. Spearman ISD, the Hansford County Commissioners Court, Gruver ISD, and Pringle-Morse school district had already nominated Hart, McCloy, Shieldknight, Bulls and Fletcher as appraisal board candidates.

By acting Thursday morning, the Spearman aldermen preceded by a few hours Gruver City Commission's nomination of the same five men. Gruver nominated the five during a regular city commission session Thursday afternoon.

fourth place, Cody Pipkin and dad Vernon; and fifth place, Jesse Tindell and his father Raymond. See story, page 5.

Faye's Daze

I really don't have my mind on my work today, I'm too excited since my kids from Dallas are due in tonight. I haven't seen Lauryn since July 4, which is an awful long time not to see your one and only grandchild. Art was up over Labor Day weekend but didn't bring her.

These autumn days are nice and do you realize on October 30 it will be back to standard time. We will set our time back one hour for the annual six month change.

You all remember Murphey's Law which first became famous several years back when his few original ones surfaced--most notably the one that remains the calling card for the humorous writer --"If anything can go wrong, it will."

Well, he's back at it again and this time it's another round of doozies and here are a few samples:

--The one time you leave work early, the big boss will be riding down the same elevator--with the new efficiency expert!

--The one time you pick your teeth with your fork, everyone at the banquet will happen to glance in your direction!

--Transparent tape, on its way to mend an object, will always first attach itself to a totally unrelated object!

--The year's worst thunderstorm will always occur the day after you drop your raincoat off at the cleaners!

--The simpler the task, the more memos are written about it.

--The same bad weather that delays your arriving flight never delays your connecting flight!

--No matter how many people follow you into an elevator, every one of them will pass for a floor below yours!

--When looking for a clue as to why something goes wrong, never rule out sheer stupidity!

--Long before a child-proof medicine bottle will flip its lid, you will flip yours!

--Important information is phoned to you only when there isn't a pencil in the house!

--No matter which hand is free when you're bringing home packages, your house key is in the other pocket!

--If there is but a single small puddle anywhere in your front yard, your newspaper will be thrown in it!

Chamber elects three new directors

Spearman Chamber of Commerce's Board of Directors elected three new directors, set the date for the annual Chamber banquet and decided to revive the Fruitcake Revue during a regular board meeting Thursday.

Jeff Beedy, Bob Boxwell and Rita Curtis were elected as new members of the Chamber's board of directors, succeeding outgoing board members Monty Blackmon, Dr. Doug Steger, O.D., and Judy Nelson.

Meeting in the Home Demonstration Club Room with Assembly of God women preparing and serving the luncheon, the Chamber of directors also set Feb. 18 as the date for the big annual Chamber banquet. It was announced that Jack Jackson, formerly of American Airlines, will be the guest speaker.

And they voted to hold the Fruitcake Revue follies after a two-year lapse. Cindy Schneider was elected to be general chairman of the follies committee. The board discussed a possible date for the follies, and late February or early March were mentioned as top possibilities for the follies, which will be co-sponsored by the Chamber and the YMCA, but more concrete plans will be formulated later.

Mary Lou Wysong, manager of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce, announced she will attend the 46th annual Conference of the Chamber of Commerce Executive's Association of West Texas, to be held Oct. 16-18 at Country Villa Holiday Inn in Midland.

As current president of the CCEAWT, Mrs. Wysong will preside over the two-day conference. She said that one of her most enjoyable duties during the conference will be introducing the guest speaker for the Monday noon luncheon—C. Ralph Blodgett, mayor of Spearman and newly installed president of Texas Municipal League. Blodgett will address the Chamber executives on the topic, "Success with Everything on It."

POLICE REPORT

On October 6, 1983, a Spearman Police officer received a call from a Spearman business in reference to a theft. The officer arrived and spoke with the complainant, who advised him that a female subject had left without paying for the gas she had gotten. He advised that she had gotten $9.16 worth of gas, but only paid for $9.00 worth. He advised that if the female subject would pay the 16 cents, he would not file charges. Contact was made with the subject and she advised that she would go by and take care of the matter. No further information at this time.

On Oct. 7, 1983, an officer was dispatched to a Spearman residence in reference to an accident that occurred at the Spearman High School. Upon arrival, the officer was met by the complainant who advised that while his vehicle was parked in the West parking lot at the high school, someone had backed into his vehicle, striking it on the driver's side door, causing it to cave in and break the window out. The officer and the subject went to the high school, where the vehicle was hit. The officer found a small gray piece of plastic that could have come from the vehicle that had struck the subject vehicle. Case still under investigation.

On Oct. 7, 1983, a complainant entered the Spearman Police Department and advised that during the night, someone had broken into 3 washing machines at his place of business. The officer and the complainant went to the place of business and the officer observed three machines missing the coin slots. Complainant advised that the slots were removed from the machines and the money was taken out. Pictures were taken of the scene. An undetermined amount of money was taken. Case still under investigation.

On October 11, 1983, a Spearman resident called the Spearman Police Department and advised that a juvenile(s) had torn down the decorative fence along several sections of the brick fence. An officer and the Chief of Police arrived at the residence and was met by the complainant who advised that a juvenile was seen tearing down the fence. Pictures were taken of the damage. Investigation continuing. A reward is being offered to anyone having any information concerning this case.

On October 11, 1983, a Spearman resident was arrested on a warrant charge. Subject was transported to the Spearman Police Department where subject made payment on the warrant.

On Oct. 13, 1983, a Spearman resident entered the Spearman Police Department and advised the officer that during the day of Oct. 13, 1983, two large black dogs had gotten into his chicken pens. He advised that they had killed approximately 30 chickens. The officer went to the location and observed several chickens laying where they had been killed. The officer searched the area for any signs of the dogs. None were found. Case still under investigation at this time.

On Oct. 13, 1983, Animal Control Officer was on patrol when he noticed a dog running down 7th street. The Animal Control Officer followed the dog to a Spearman residence. The dog went under the fence of the residence. Animal Control Officer went to the residence but no one was at home. No further information at this time.

On Oct. 13, 1983, a dog was picked up in the middle of the street on 11th and Barkley by the Animal Control Officer on City Ordinance, Canine at Large. Dog was placed in the pound until owner can claim the animal.

Cub Scout pack 578 Dad-Lad Cake Bake Auction

It was an evening filled with excitement and a lot of fast action as Cub Scout Pack 578 held its annual Dad-Lad Cake Bake auction.

There were bananas, carrots, pumpkins, peas-in-a-pod, watermelons, apples and even cucumbers festively incorporated in the designs and decorations of the cakes, shown by the Dad-Lad teams.

Some 150 boys and adults attended the bake show and auction.

"Auctioneer Ed Dear, with his silver tongue, got the bidding started and it didn't take long for all the cakes to be sold," a spokesman for the sale said.

Judges Mike Schnell, Lil Turner, Verlan Winegarner and

Kitty Edwards had the unenviable task of picking the five best designed cakes from the many shown. Finally--after closely examining the cakes lining two long tables--they compared notes and came up with a joint decision.

First place winner in appearance this year were Brandon Close and his father Mike Close. Second place was won by the son-mother team of Jess Johnson and Eva Johnson.

Third place went to Brandon Babitzke and dad Buford Babitzke, the son-father team of Cody Pipkin-Vernon Pipkin place fourth and Jesse Tindell and his father Raymond Tindell took fifth place honors.

According to the sale spokesman, this year's Dad-Lad Bake auction brought in $3,000 for the boys to use on Superstars, day camp, badges and other projects during the coming year.

Not only did the cakes bring good bid prices, but a number of them were resold, some of them more than once, to bring in additional revenue.

The highest single price for any cake--not counting resales--was the $135 bid by Ned Turner to purchase the cake made by his grandson.

Forty-seven different business firms, industries, or individuals contributed by buying cakes or giving donations.

"We would like to thank these businesses for their support for our organizations," the spokesman remarked.

Those buying or contributing donations included:

Spearman Drug, Burl Buchanan, Bunkhouse, Interstate Savings, Spearman Rotary, Max Taylor, R.E. Sanders, J.R. Colvard, Jaycees.

Spearman Auto, Hansford Implement, Baker & Taylor Drilling Co., First State Bank, Golden Spread, H & M Hot Oil, Lusby Cats, Agco, Ned Turner.

Anthony Electric, Loyal Turner, Dennis Brooks, Clark Aerial Spraying Service, Nelson's Builder's, Northern Natural Gas, Lions Club, Melvin Bradley, Busters Dusters, Alton's Gulf, Boxwell Bros.

Cates Men & Boy's, H & H Water Well, Dr. Steger, Crawford Motor, Cattleman's Restaurant, Bulls Country, J.G.'s Country, J.G.'s.

Blackburn Flowers, Moose Lodge, Berry Cleaners, Brock Insurance, Desk Set, Farber Livestock, Brown & Graham, Charolette Ford Trunks and John Hutchison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Turner admire the cakes made by the father-son teams in the annual Cub Scout Dad-Lad Cake Bake contest. Turner paid the highest bid--$135--to buy his favorite cake, made by his grandson Christopher Turner, with the help of Christopher's dad, Loyal Turner.

Three times no charm for Lynx JV

Three times is not always a charm...

Twice the Spearman Lynx Junior Varsity battled from behind to tie the score against the Canadian Wildcat JV Thursday night in Canadian. But a late in the game drive that would have tied the score, and given the Lynx JV'ers a chance to win if they could add the PAT boomeranged, and Canadian won the hard fought contest, 24-12.

The last shot by the Spearman "come back kids" misfired in the last minute or so of play when a Canadian defender picked off a pass and raced 50 yards for a touchdown to provide the Wildcat JV with its victory margin.

Canadian got on the scoreboard first with a 12-yard scoring pass play after a 0-0 stalemate in the first quarter. The Wildcat JV then set the pattern to be followed by both teams the remainder of the game as they missed the PAT.

With the time down to 20 seconds left in the first half, the Lynx JV'ers knotted the score on a 32-yard bomb from Allen Mires to Bob Cook, making it 6-6.

In the third quarter, Canadian unwound its best sustained march of the night, but the Spearman defense tightened up and apparently halted the drive at the 12 as they stopped a fourth and three run short of a first down. But a late hit penalty gave Canadian new life at the Spearman four, and they scored from there on a quick pitch sweep to go forge back in front 12-6.

However, not for long. The Lynx roared back to score late in the third quarter to knot the score again, 12-12. The touchdown again came on a 35-yard Mires to Cook pass, as the quarterback rolled out on a bootleg and tossed a strike to the fleet-footed Cook in the end zone. It was now 12-12.

For several minutes the teams locked in a defensive duel, but with three minutes left, Canadian went one up again, with a bit of razzle dazzle as they completed a 30-yard halfback pass for a touchdown, and the lead again, 18-12.

Determined to "do it again" the Spearman JV'ers launched their last drive in the closing seconds, only to have it snuffed and Canadian score again on the interception and runback.

After the game, Lynx JV Coach Gordon Lockett said, "We moved the ball well, I guess you could say the team played a good game overall. Our boys came back twice and were on their way again when that interception killed us."

"Oh, we made a couple of mental errors--let down a little a couple of times--and that's what really hurt us, for otherwise, we played a real good game."

Prices start as low as $310.

DeArmond's enjoy small town Montana life

A desire to work together and to "get away from it all" led Bob and Lynn DeArmond to Bearcreek, Mont., where they own the Bear Creek Saloon.

Bob is the son of Mary Jane DeArmond and Don DeArmond, both of Spearman, and is a graduate of Spearman High School.

Bearcreek, once the largest incorporated town in Montana, is now the smallest with a population of 63. Its heyday was during the first four decades of this century when the discovery of coal brought miners and businesses to the narrow valley in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains.

As the need for coal declined with the advent of gasoline and diesel fuels, the mining activity decreased. The final blow was a mine disaster in February, 1943, when 74 miners were killed in a single blast. That mine never reopened, and the town was headed for ghost town status, with the exodus of people and businesses and the removal of houses and other buildings.

Today, it is a quiet place, inhabited by people who like the serenity of the area and its proximity to the mountains. Some residents are retired; others are young men and women who have moved from the cities, taking lower-paying jobs just to be able to get away from the hustle of the metropolitan areas.

The town is on the way to ski and hunting areas, hence travelers from many states pass through. Many have learned that a good stopping place is the Bear Creek Saloon, one of the few businesses in town.

The DeArmonds, who bought the saloon a year ago, had lived in Cheyenne where his work as an oil field driller and hers at a bank meant that they spent little time together. Wanting to do things together, they saw the saloon as an opportunity to do this, also they like the secluded mountain location of the small town. They like to have their children, Mike, 17, and Susie, 14, in the Red Lodge schools where the classes are smaller than in Cheyenne.

The family's dogs, Willie and Lillie, whose full names are Buckskin Willie and Buckskin Lillie, thrive in their Bearcreek home. Wearing their bandannas, the dogs are a familiar sight to customers, unless the dogs have hitched rides on the family car or truck.

Bob and Lynn manage the business with one of them there all the time. They have remodeled the basement into spacious, pleasant living quarters, which overlook Bearcreek.

They have also added to the old-fashioned character of the saloon. The saloon has been in the same building for many years. The main room has a large, dark wood bar. The back mirror is divided by big, wooden columns, ornately carved at the top. This bar originated in St. Louis before the turn of the century. The game room has a raised poker table, set off by steps and a railing, in the corner, where gamblers can play unmolested by the other patrons. Also, there is an old-style pool table in the center of the game room. In the side room, a stage fills one end. The semi-circular railing was once an altar rail in a church. The stage, where once plays were presented, is now the setting for the music the saloon has once or twice a month.

Several pig roasts, where the DeArmonds roast the pig and many people bring salads and desserts, have attracted local residents and those from nearby towns.

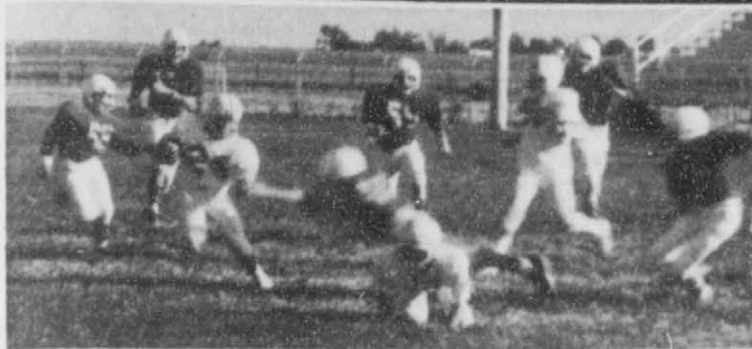

They also have pool and horseshoe tournaments.

The DeArmonds relish life in Bearcreek. Bob cuts wood every day to provide a good supply for the stoves. He said that doing the remodeling, making the rapairs and putting on a new roof were all new experiences for him, but he enjoys the work. Lynn enjoys the people who stop by, and many of the local people do, to chat and to get or give the news.

They thrive on it and are becoming a part of the community. Bob is running for a seat on the town council. The quiet town of Bearcreek, with the mountains towering in the background, is giving one family the lifestyle it likes.

Their dogs Willie and Lillie, matched pit bulldogs, attract attention of saloon patrons. Willie sits quietly on bar stools and sometimes has to be asked to get off a stool so a customer can sit down. He wears a red bandanna because his master is a cowboy and he thinks Willie should be a cow dog.

Quarterback J Garnett (24) gets a key block from a Spearman teammate and scurries away from the lunging defender for a sizeable gain in the Spearman-Boys Ranch seventh grade clash in the Lynx Stadium Oct. 6.

Salvation Army needs support

What makes The Salvation Army Service Unit Committee in Spearman unique from other agencies is that none of our committee members and officers on the committees are salaried people. The Salvation Army Service Unit Committees are among the army of Americans who share the concern of the United Way for the less fortunate in their community. All are volunteers who give unstintingly of their time and compassion to provide the services of The Salvation Army.

Help is given immediately when it is needed. There is no red tape. When problems arise and people are in desperate situations, or in need of temporary assistance, they know they can count on us. Helping them instantly, especially in some situations, has a tremendous impact on their lives, as well as loved ones.

The Salvation Army will work cooperatively with other agencies to meet the human needs of the community. Services include emergency aid for stranded travelers; aid to prisoners and their families; disaster relief; camping program for underprivileged boys; alcoholic rehabilitation programs; assistance for the needy at Christmas; help for the elderly. In general representing The Salvation Army to the people of Spearman through our local committee, providing the community with access to the programs and services of The Salvation Army. All state services are available including the counsel and advice of experienced Salvation Army personnel.

Although, they are not the kinds of gifts that can be stacked under a Christmas Tree. In many ways they are better: these gifts are provided every day of the year. Helping the Army in this practical assistance are members of Service Units across the state. While Service Unit members volunteer hours upon hours of their time to help those in need, they must have the material resources with which to work. None of these resources such as medical supplies, lodging, food, clothing, disaster assistance, etc., come cheaply.

Each summer over 400 underprivileged boys are sent to summer camp at Camp Hoblitzelle. This is one of the many specialized services in which your local Service Unit participates. The local Salvation Army Service Unit in Spearman needs your support and financial assistance. Our request is at an all time high. Please send your check made payable to the Salvation Army. We need your help. Join us in a "People helping people" effort.

Dear Roy and Charlene:

Phil Gramm recently announced that he is a candidate for the United States Senate seat to be vacated by Senator John Tower. You had the opportunity to visit with him during his trip to Amarillo in late August, and I am sure you will agree with me that Phil is a man of principle dedicated to serving the best interests of working Americans and American business.

Phil has been one of President Reagan's strongest congressional supporters. It is vital that he be allowed to continue his support of the President as a senator from Texas.

It is equally important that Texas continue to be represented in the Senate by a Republican. Texas will be the focal Senate race in 1984, and may well decide whether the Republicans or the Democrats control the Senate in 1985.

Please join with me in supporting Phil Gramm for United States Senator by sending your generous contribution to the following address.

Grandpa fumed when I took this picture. "It won't look natural," he said. "My desk is never clean." It's clean now. The umbrella stand is empty, the hat rack bare. His old Web press has been retired. But Grandpa's presence lingers on.

For over fifty years he printed the Mayfield Progress, reporting the news with integrity. There were times when he was threatened, cajoled by attempted bribery, menaced by pressure groups, but he stayed true to principle. He was a giant in our town.

What made Grandpa strong in the face of danger — incorrupt when confronted by unscrupulous forces? His church was the center and circumference of his being. Its truths and its goodness sustained him. It was all that he needed — he remained steadfast and sure.

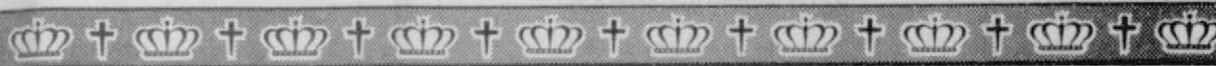

Your church is eager to help you meet the pressures of your day. Its resources are unlimited and eternal. Go to church, and take your family with you.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor,
 This is a letter that I wish every God-fearing American in Hansford County could read. In the next two weeks our United States Senate will be voting on what I believe is the single most important piece of legislation that has been presented in many years. I am speaking of the proposed amendment introduced by President Reagan to get prayer back into our Public Schools. Here is the way the proposed amendment to our Constitution reads. "Nothing in this constitution shall be construed to prohibit individual or group prayer in public school or other public institutions. No person shall be required by the United States or by any state to participate in prayer. Nor shall the United States or any state compose the words of any prayer to be said in public school."
 Most of us remember I'm sure the horrifying decision made by the Supreme Court in 1963 telling children and young people in the public schools that they no longer had the right to pray even on a voluntary basis. Not too many months ago at Coronado High School in Lubbock, Texas, a District Judge told a group of students that they could not even meet on a voluntary basis after school to pray, simply because it was on school property. This especially upset me, because it is the school I graduated from in 1973. It makes you wonder if we're living in Russia or if this is happening in the America that we all love and where we are supposed to be free.
 I've already urged everyone in our church to let our Senators know they want them to vote "Yes" for the Reagan Prayer Amendment. I hope and pray that this has gotten other people as worked up as it has me.
 If anyone wants to do something constructive I would beg them to not delay, but write or call both of our United States Senators and tell them you want them to vote "Yes" for President Reagan's Prayer Amendment. Their addresses and telephone numbers are listed at the bottom of this letter. Thank you for letting me share.
 Sincerely,
 Steve Rogers

Woodcarving seminar

For anyone caught up in woodcarving now or interested in beginning, here's an opportunity to learn from a professional.

Spirit Williams, a native Oklahoman who now makes her home in Columbus, Ohio, is coming to Booker, Texas, to exhibit her relief sculptures in wood and to give a two-day seminar.

First Bank & Trust Co. invites the public to attend the special showing during banking hours Friday, Oct. 21. The seminar, four hours each day, October 22 and 23, is by reservation only.

The seminar could be helpful to those interested in ornamental carving, such as furniture and picture frames, or in preparing woodcuts for prints. Due to space limitations, advance registration for the seminar is required. For more information, contact Luelyn Wright at the Booker bank. The seminar fee is $12.50 for students and $25 for adults.

Spirit Williams has gained important recognition for her basswood relief and overlay sculpture, "Kenya Bush". The eight-by-four foot wall panel, with seven-inch-thick relief, hangs permanently in the education center building of the Columbus Zoological Gardens. A portion of the sculpture was reproduced on the March 1983 cover of Reader's Digest.

The Columbus Dispatch art critic, Jacqueline Hall, reviewed a recent show of Spirit's and said, "She has a deep understanding of the medium and can manipulate it with great sensitivity...She should go far."

During the eight-hour seminar in Booker, Spirit will lecture and demonstrate from her workbench, covering intaglio and relief carving, overlay and cutout work. Also, tools and tool sharpening, design work, and how to use photography to improve visualization.

Born Norma Jane Hachmuth in Bartlesville, Okla., she took the professional name, Spirit, when she opened her studio in Columbus. Spirit is a liberal translation from the German, Hachmuth, which means "high spirit."

Nobles enjoys 100th birthday

The week of October 6th-8th was an exciting time for Gid Nobles of Gruver, Texas. His day began when Mayor J.C. Harris signed the proclamation declaring Thursday, October 6th as "Gid Nobles Day." Special guests who witnessed the signing were Helen Boyd, president of the Museum Board and Ann Cluck, Board Member. Other family and friends were also in attendance. As the day progressed, several friends and relatives dropped by his home on Womble Street to congratulate him and perhaps take a few lessons on how we too might learn his secret for longevity. One thing for sure, Gid had a brother who lived to be 109 years old and Gid is bound and determined to out do him.

Then on Saturday, Oct. 8, the family honored Gid with a big birthday party at the Golden Age Center. Other relatives and friends called between the hours of 12:30-4:00 p.m. The center was gaily decorated with fresh garden flowers from Maude Alexander, Blanch Tabor, Cap Benson and Fran Maupin. Other friends and family brought many gifts, flowers, cakes and shared their knowledge with hostess Melinda (Nobles) McCullough. She wishes to thank especially Mary TeBeest of TeBeest Floral and Catering for setting up the serving table so beautifully, Stan TeBeest for arranging the floral centerpiece furnished by Mrs. Don Hudson and to Mrs. La Mayne Cator who furnished the cake baked and decorated by Evelyn Dahl. Also special thanks to the family and friends who brought back-up cakes and the city for use of the Golden Age Center.

The theme for the birthday party was Western, with Gid being an Old-Time Cowboy. In addition to the many Gruver citizens who registered the out-of-town guests attending were Helen Birdsong, Turpin, Okla., Charles and Carolyn Broadhurst, Ollie and Mary Morrow, Granite, Okla., Delbert and Minnie Nobles, Ropesville, Tx., Gordon and Merle Nobles, Keyes, Okla., Jack and Helen Nobles, Dalhart, Tx., Amanda Casey, Arbeta and Jim Nobles of Spearman, Billie and Erwin Spaar, Mary Gozella and Arthur G. Nobles, all of Lamar, Colo., Georgia and Ray Lick and Ed of Skellytown, Tx., Aub Collard, Borger, Billie and Ollie Jarvis of Stinnett and Glenda Cluck Cox of Sun Valley, Idaho.

Lorenzo Gideon "Gid" Nobles was born near Graham, Texas in 1883. His family moved to Lone Star near Lockney when he was around 12 years of age. It is believed that he came here in about 1900 and when he was 21 he and one of his brothers came to the Panhandle area and homesteaded in Oklahoma Strip and worked for ranchers. Gid has stated that they started out on their claim and later sold out as fast as he could because he knew there had to be other places he would like better.

In 1907, he saddled his horse, packed a bedroll on another horse, and headed South for the Texas Panhandle. Gid really had in mind of continuing on to South America, but stopped off at the W.T. Coble ranch near Morse and he worked there for Mr. Coble for 19 years without missing a day. Nobles job was to get the hired hands started on their various jobs and then he would handle the horses. He had 15-23 hands to look out for in haying season and in winter he had 6 or 7 hands. The men operated mowing machines, rakes and go devils, 10 foot wide machines that helped the men stack hay.

When Gid wasn't involved with the haying, there was about 3,000 head of cattle to move from pasture to pasture, a chore he usually handled by himself. Since it was mainly open country, it was easy to herd the cattle. However, that soon changed as farmers began to move in about 5-6 years later and put up fences and shut off the water supply. Then the cattlemen would have to buy the grass and water.

Weather was also rough on cattlemen. Sometimes the blizzards would be bad and they couldn't get to the cattle. Later they would find the cattle buried in a snow bank with just an air hole leading to their mouths. Gid would feed them cottonseed cakes through the air holes until they could be dug out. Needless to say, not all the cattle survived.

But the ranchers prospered and so did Gid. Since he would rather own his own land than to work for others, he eventually accumulated his own land. He worked for Whittenburg and Coble among others, but for awhile he was partners with W.T. Coble.

He came to the Turkey Track which is across the highway from Gid's home on his ranch in 1910. His social life was pretty good, after working a long 16 hour day, he would usually end up at the Saturday night dance which would end at dawn.

In 1917, he married Louise Cator who had been born and raised in a rock house 2 miles from his ranch home. Her father and his brother operated a buffalo skinning business, but had settled down into ranching by the time Gid met them.

Great events happened during the 'Twenties such as the railroad that kept their cattle drives at a minimum.

But prosperity ended in the "Dirty Thirties". Most of the ranchers went broke including Gid but they outlived it, stuck it out and started over. Nobles and his brother-in-law, Jim Cator, went into business and bought 6,000 acres on the main branch of Palo Duro Creek south of Gruver.

Mr. Nobles was still active in the ranching business until he was over 90 years of age. However, he has kind of retired to his home in town. Even at that age, he enjoyed riding in the Trail Rides along the Canadian River and he declared that he didn't finish first but at least he didn't come in last.

Well, there are a lot of stories he could tell and it is believed that he has lived in Hansford County the longest of anyone which would be approximately 83 years and has lived through at least 3 wars, maybe 4, and has seen several presidents come and go.

Who knows, maybe by the time he outlives his brother, he will write his autobiography.

Dahl Re-elected to board

Elmo Dahl of Gruver was re-elected to the Hansford board of directors on October 11th. Dahl represents Zone 5 of the district.

The purpose of the Hansford SWCD is to promote sound soil and water conservation programs on farm and ranch lands within the district and to serve as a voice for farmers and ranchers on conservation matters and other issues affecting private property rights of landowners.

The board of directors coordinates the conservation efforts of various local, state and federal agencies and other organizations and has authority to enter into working agreements with the governmental agencies and private concerns to carry out its purposes.

As one of the five individuals serving on the district board of directors, Dahl will be responsible for district policies and procedures for carrying out the district program within the framework of the Texas soil conservation district law.

In Texas there are 201 soil and water conservation districts. Each is a legal subdivision of state government organized by local agricultural landowners with the assistance of the Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board. Unlike most other legal subdivisions of state government, SWCDs do not have the powers of taxation or eminent domain. All conservation programs managed by the districts are of a voluntary nature to the landowner or operator.

Mrs. Beck's nephew killed

Services for Jeffrey Dan Luttrell, 17, of 13108 El Dorado, Amarillo, were held at 10 a.m. Monday at the Village Park Baptist Church with the Rev. Bob Parker, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Claude Cemetery by Smith-Fox Funeral home of Panhandle.

Luttrell, a senior at Caprock was killed Friday night at 11:30 p.m. about a quarter of a mile west of Claude, according to investigators from the Department of Public Safety. Armstrong County Justice of the Peace Jackie Cartwright pronounced the youth dead at the scene. The death is still under investigation at press time.

The youth was the nephew of Mrs. Verlin Beck of Spearman.

He was born in Amarillo, had lived here for 14 years after moving from Claude. He attended Highland Park School before enrolling at Caprock.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Luttrell of the home; a brother, Johnny of Claude; a sister, April Beverly of Oklahoma City; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Kelley of Panhandle.

There're any number of people who could run the nation's foreign policy better but, fortunately, they're not in the White House.

GTE adds new test equipment

General Telephone added a new piece of modern test equipment to the Spearman switching office last week, according to Robert J. Meyers, GTE Operations Manager.

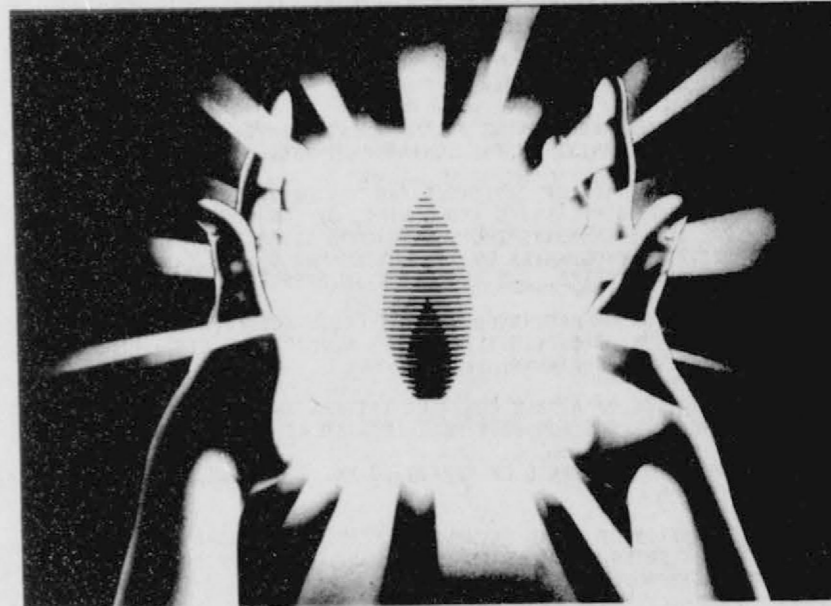

The new equipment, called M-COR (mechanized central office router), is a computerized troubleshooter that places test calls through all of the switches, while recording and grouping failures in the computer's memory. The testing is continuous, 24 hours per day, during which the M-COR will place approximately 5000 calls.

"Presently the equipment is testing only the local office, but we are programming it to test long distance circuits as well," said Meyers.

The new system greatly enhances the productivity of the central office technician by automatically performing routine maintenance checks, allowing the technician to spend more of his time actually making repairs and adjustments. It will also detect a faulty switch many times before a customer does and repairs can be made before a customer encounters dialing problems.

"We are pleased to install this equipment in Spearman as a part of our continuing effort to improve telephone service," stated Meyers.

Tips are for extra service: they're not mandatory.

Oklahoma Symphony to perform Oct. 22

The Oklahoma Symphony Orchestra has come a long way since its first concert early in 1938 when it started as a group of near-amateurs playing to small audiences. It has traveled many miles over sometimes bumpy financial roads to become one of the outstanding regional symphony orchestras in the nation. The Symphony, entering its 47th season and its sixth season under the dynamic leadership of Maestro Herrera de la Fuente, will perform on the Panhandle State University campus in Goodwell, Oklahoma, on Oct. 22, at 8:00 p.m. Works by Wagner, Faure, Ravel and Dvorak will be featured in the concert to be conducted by Joel Levine. The 56 full-time musicians who comprise the core of this professional orchestra are drawn from the most prestigious music schools and conservatories of North and South America, Canada, Europe and Mexico. The orchestra maintains a busy 32-week season which runs from September through April. In addition to regularly scheduled symphony concerts, many of the musicians play in other musical groups, teach private students and are on the music faculties of local universities and colleges. During the past season, the Symphony presented 134 concerts to over 130,000 people in Oklahoma City and while visiting 18 communities statewide. Regular classics subscription concerts numbered 24 and featured such outstanding guest artists as pianist Andre Watts, violinist Miriam Fried, conductor Jorge Mester and classical guitarist Alfonso

Moreno. Subscription concerts and present masterworks of composers from the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries as well as introduce concert-goers to works of contemporary composers and lesser-known figures. In a lighter musical vein, the Symphony presented eight POPS concerts that spotlighted such notable entertainers as Dottie West, Leslie Uggams, Doc Severinsen and Ella Fitzgerald. And a special performance of the highly-acclaimed Cleveland Orchestra, sponsored by the Oklahoma Symphony completely sold out the 3200-seat Civic Center Music Hall. This season the Symphony will bring such celebrated artists as opera star Renat Scotto, cellist Nathaniel Rosen and pianists Ruth Laredo and Alicia de Larrocha. Headlining the POPS series are Tony Bennett, Bernadette Peters, Steve Allen, Judy Collins, Ramsey Lewis, and the Kingston Trio. The Oklahoma Symphony maintains its reputation as a leader in the area of education. Two series of KinderKonzerts (for preschoolers through third graders) are presented annually in Oklahoma City. Young People's concerts presented in Oklahoma City and outlying communities drew 20,000 school-aged listeners. A recently awarded Kerr Foundation challenge grant will enable the Symphony to greatly increase its educational activities this season. Mr. Roy Bulls

P. O. Box 308
Spearmen, Texas 79081

Dear Roy:

As Hansford County Chairman, I know that you share my commitment to the growth of the Republican Party of Texas. Our state will be the key battleground in the coming Presidential election. President Reagan knows the vital role of Texas and wants to do everything possible to ensure the strongest Republican Party organization in our history.

That is why I have agreed to chair the fundraising dinner, "Texas Salutes President Reagan". The dinner will be held on Thursday, October 27th at the Registry Hotel in Dallas. The President and First Lady will join us, along with political dignitaries from across the nation.

This fundraising effort is sponsored by the Republican Party of Texas. Tickets are $1,000 each and $10,000 per table. All funds will be used to finance needed projects such as voter registration, ballot security, research and other direct candidate support.

We must do everything possible to provide the foundation for victory in 1984. I would appreciate your help in selling tickets to our Party supporters in your county. Your enthusiastic support could well determine the success of the dinner.

Checks should be made payable to "Texas Salutes President Reagan" and sent to me at 1901 North Akard, Suite 200, Dallas, Texas 75201.

Thank you for all that you are doing. I hope that we will have the opportunity to work together to guarantee President Reagan's victory in 1984.

Sincerely,

Bill

Glenn Miller Orchestra to Perryton

The Glenn Miller Orchestra will be in Perryton on Monday, November 7, in a two-hour concert at the PHS auditorium. The special event is being sponsored by the Ochiltree County Senior Citizens Association. Tickets for the 7:30 concert will go on sale Tuesday. Tickets are priced at $5 and will be available at the First National Bank, Senior Citizens Center, or from association members. Glenn Miller was the legendary big-band leader from the 1940's whose band created great dance music. Today's world-famous Glenn Miller Orchestra plays all the favorites like "In The Mood," "Tuxedo Junction," "Little Brown Jug," "Chattanooga Choo-Choo," and the immortal "Moonlight Serenade."

June Kindy, president of the Senior Citizens Association, says, "Thanks to the community, we have a beautiful center. There are some things inside we need to complete the center. This special concert is being sponsored by the association as a fund-raiser. We get to keep 50 cents of each ticket sold. So we invite everyone to attend, young and old, because this is music for all time. We encourage people from area towns to join with us. It will be a fun night and will make you feel just like dancing! We are able to bring the Glenn Miller Orchestra to town because of a grant from First National Bank."

The Miller Orchestra is based in New York City. The 17-member group, led by bandleader and trombonist Larry O'Brien, is on the road 50 weeks out of the year. They performed more than 300 concerts and dances last year, more than any other orchestra in the world. The group played at the White House for the Inaugural Ball of President Ronald Reagan.

In case you're wondering, the Glenn Miller Orchestra appearing in Perryton is the only musical organization legally authorized to carry the name of "Glenn Miller", and the only one that plays the authentic and original arrangements of the Glenn Miller Band. It is owned and operated by Glenn Miller Productions, Inc., under license from the Miller Estate and has the sole and exclusive right to use the "Glenn Miller Orchestra" name.

There's an important story behind the legendary Glenn Miller. His first band, started in 1938, didn't make it at all. It was a financial failure. But Glenn knew what he wanted, held on to that dedication, and worked to succeed. He started his second band before World War II, and it has been a hit ever since. At the height of his popularity, he volunteered for the Army, and led the famous Glenn Miller Army Air Force Band. The Band went to Europe to entertain servicemen. On December 15, 1944, Major Miller took off in a single-engine plane from England, on his way to France. The plane went down, never to be seen again. The Army declared him officially dead a year later. Glenn Miller's reputation, his music and his band have been kept alive for more than 40 years since then.

The special Perryton concert will feature all of the Glenn Miller favorites, plus contemporary music that lends itself to the Miller style. Both young and old music-lovers will appreciate the excellent music of an outstanding, professional orchestra. Glenn Miller had more hit records in one year than anybody in the history of the recording industry.

Spearman at Dalhart CONFERENCE GAME

7th & 8th grade gridders

The Spearman seventh grade gridders dropped a hard fought defensive duel, 8-0 to the Canadian seventh graders, but the Spearman eighth graders found the going rougher against a bigger, heavier Canadian opponent and fell 32-12 in games at Lynx Stadium Thursday evening.

The Spearman seventh graders fought the bigger Canadian opponents to a 0-0 standoff and moved the ball better than Canadian--except for one play.

And that one play made all the difference--a long Canadian pass for a touchdown and the game's only score.

Spearman seventh grade coach Richard Trantham said after the game that "our kids played good ball. They played a real good game defensively, and they moved the ball well. We just couldn't quite get it in there for a score."

In the eighth grade contest, the Spearman gridders suffered from a "severe overdose of 21."

Jeff Kirkland, Canadian's big swift number 21, took a pitch right on the first play from scrimmage, got a key block at the end, and raced 50 yards for a Canadian TD.

That set the pattern of things to come, as Kirkland scored time and again for Canadian, most of it coming in a big second half surge.

Spearman Eighth Grade Coach Mike Hoover said that despite the 32-12 score, the local boys as a whole team played well.

"They showed a lot of character, they didn't just let down and quit after Canadian hit them with that touchdown on the first play."

In fact, it was right after that quick opening Canadian touchdown that Spearman sprang one of its big gainers of the evening. After a couple of gains, quarterback Brett Davis dropped back to pass. Canadian threw in a big rush but just when it seemed Davis would be dropped for a big loss, he flipped a screen pass to Carl Urban. Urban, one of the smallest, but fastest and hardest players on the field took the ball and raced about 40 yards to give Spearman a first deep in Canadian territory.

Unfortunately for the Spearman team, a fumble erased this threat.

After Kirkland scored again for Canadian, the Spearman eighth graders came roaring back. Steve Morris, another not so big Spearman player, slammed into the big, hard charging Kirkland on a running try for a two-point conversion following Canadian's second touchdown and stopped him cold.

With just 2:31 left in the half, Spearman scored on a spectacular pass and run play to cut Canadian's first half margin to 14-6. This time there was no screen or fancy wrinkles to it. Davis just scrambled to where he could set and throw, and lofted a long pass. Urban ran under it, reached up and pulled it in, and out legged the defense, carrying all the way on a 67-yard touchdown play.

Canadian used their superior height, weight, and bench strength, plus the hard to stop charges of Kirkland, to build up their score in the second half.

The Spearman eighth graders scored their final touchdown at the tail end of a 60-yard drive, with Tony Herndon carrying over for the TD on a six yard sweep.

Coach Hoover said it was hard to be happy about such a loss, but that he was pleased with the effort the kids put forth--"They never gave up."

He said Morris, Jesse Herndon and Scott Swan played outstanding defense, but added that the whole team played hard.
