

Term Ends In Flurry Of Activity

Friday was the last day of school for graduating seniors as the current term draws to a close for everyone in a flurry of activity.

Baccalaureate service will be tonight at eight with graduation ceremonies Friday at 8 p.m. Seniors went through a practice run for the ceremonies, Friday, before the annual picnic.

As that time drew near (along with Plainsman press time) anxious eyes were watching clouds -- and that included members of the Spanish Club as well as graduating seniors for the club had a picnic scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Monday, remaining students will address grade card envelopes looking for a day of respite, Tuesday.

Quarterly tests begin Wednesday with period one set for 8:20 a.m. Period two will follow at 9:45; three at 11 and four at 1:15 immediately following the lunch period. Thursday, periods five, six and seven are scheduled for 8:20, 9:45 and 11 a.m.

Friday will be the "day of the teacher" -- an in-service day with final grades due in the office at 2 p.m.

Following graduation exercises, Friday night, seniors will stand on the threshold of their future with some viewing a career in business, some science, sports and agriculture to name a few of the goals expressed by these newest alumni of Spearman High

The rest of the student body views the graduating seniors with envy and summer vacation with much anticipation.

City Council Back On Schedule

Spearman city council meetings are back on normal schedule.

--And "normal" should be in quotes according to all concerned.

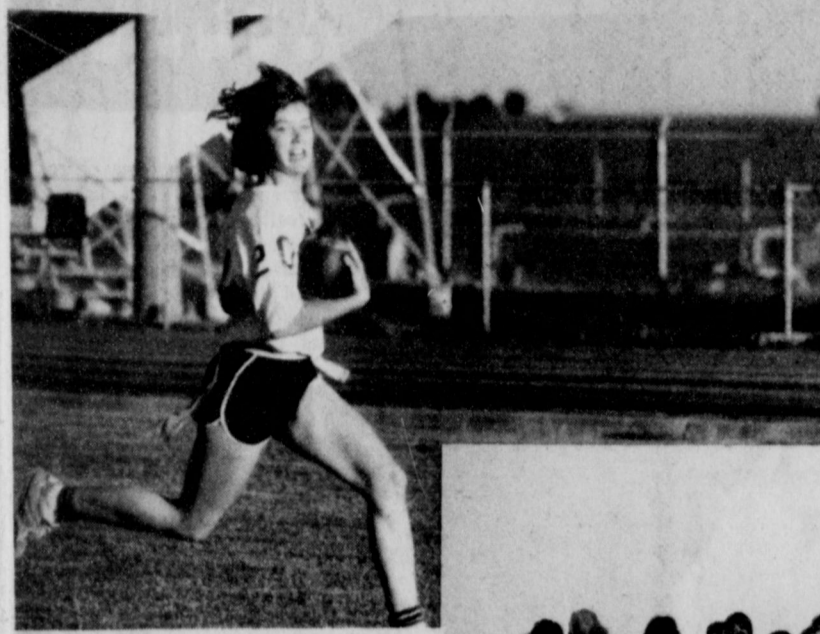

There have been many special sessions recently dealing with problems attendant to the new firehouse and the new municipal airport. Some of these extra sessions had to do with bid opening and study. Some had to do with public information connected with the new fire station, the new airport and the issuance of certificates of obligation to build them.

The regular schedule of council meetings is twice a month. The next regularly scheduled session will be Tuesday, May 27.

Summer meeting time is 8 p.m.

Do you have pictures of interest of Hansford County for the general history pages in the Hansford County book to be published soon?

The committee prefers copies of the original pictures. If you have any pictures you think might be suitable please turn them in to the museum by June 7. The photos will be returned when the book is published.

Council Considers Emergency Radio

Firefighting equipment, ambulance crew communications and various reports comprised the agenda of the Spearman city council meeting last Tuesday night.

It was noted that the cab and chassis of the 250 gallon tanker -- a 1963 model -- was worn out and should be replaced. In recommending its replacement, a four-wheel drive vehicle was recommended. No action was taken pending consultation with county officials because the tankers are essential to effectively fighting fires out in the county.

In this regard, it was also recommended that the large capacity tanker, mounted on a government surplus chassis, be modified to lower the center of gravity.

Members of the council were told that extra care had to be taken with this unit on every run because of the current high center of gravity which made a "roll-over" a definite danger at every turn.

The crews that man the ambulances made a request for hand-held radios -- "walkie-talkies" -- so communication could be carried on between the paramedic at the scene of the victim treatment at an accident and a doctor at the hospital without leaving the injured person to return to the ambulance to use the radio.

It was decided to investigate the cost of three of the hand-held units but with the understanding that only one might be purchased in the beginning with others added at a later date -- particularly if a better price per single unit can be obtained by the piggy-back purchasing method.

After discussion of the city's electric bill and finding the waste water treatment plant was the most expensive power drain -- some $30-thousand per year -- with street lighting a high-cost item, too.

After approving payment of all bills, the council adjourned.

Replanting Seen Due To Weather

Replanting is a lot better than planting once and have nothing come up."

--That was the comment of one of a number of growers in the area commenting on the effects of additional rainfall this week.

As of 5:00 o'clock Friday, total rainfall was .65.

Recent plentiful rainfall left land "to wet to plow" giving growers considerable time around the coffee cups of the community. This was followed by the moisture this week and farmers went from "to wet to plow" to hoping for time to replant and still have a full growing season.

Still, Hansford County and the entire high plains has fared better weather-wise than some major portions of the state.

Sections of Amarillo were flooded for a time, Tuesday, with unofficial reports of as much as four inches of rainfall in the inundated areas.

Meanwhile, area farmers are taking it in stride and consider the rains as a harbinger of prosperity for this growing season.

Area Retail Sales Continue To Rise; Spearman, 45 and Gruver, 72 Percent

While one-percent sales tax rebates to Texas cities continue to rise -- Spearman up 45 percent, Gruver up 72 percent -- over the same period last year, State Comptroller Bob Bullock refuses to credit a growing economy.

"We have been tinkering around with our processing system to improve it over the past few months and as a result, fund allocations and rebates have shot up from time to time because of improved handling of tax accounts," Bullock said.

According to Bullock, overall sales tax collections from the first of the fiscal year through April are up only 21.5 percent compared to the same period last year.

It is doubtful he intended it so but the comptroller's announcement that cities were benefiting considerably -- Gruver's 72 percent -- from "tinkering" in his office raising a question as to how much money cities have lost due to his handling of tax accounts "BT." (Before Tinkering.)

Nonetheless, according to figures released monthly by Bullock's office, cities here on the high plains have had their one-percent sales tax rebates grow steadily since the start of the new fiscal year and before Bullock's people allegedly streamlined the handling of tax accounts.

The answer can only be: increased across the counter retail sales on which the one-percent sales tax is charged!

Another fallacy in Bullock's figuring is the failure to admit a growing economy in those cities which increases before he tinkered. The 21.5 percent total increase statewide was, in his own terms, total sales tax receipts. Many Texas cities still do not collect the one percent city sales tax. This could hold the statewide total down while the economy was burgeoning in many areas. Too, there are areas with a regressing economy. The word here is "regression" and not "recession."

Construction booms usually end with completion of the

Mr. and Mrs. Lester McLain and Mr. and Mrs. Kim Brock and daughter were Mother's Day dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brock.

The First United Methodist Church, Spearman, Texas, was the setting for the May sixteenth wedding of Miss Khristi Kaye Gressett to Mr. Matthew Bernard Phelps, of Muleshoe, Texas.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dean Gressett of Spearman and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Phelps of Muleshoe, Texas.

Pre-wedding music was provided by Mrs. Robert Meek, pianist, and Mrs. Bill Strawn, organist. Special selections sung by Mr. Kent Guthrie included "More" and "God A Woman, A Man." A baritone solo of "The Lord's Prayer" was presented by Mr. Wayne Meek.

Greeting and registering attendant was Mrs. Tim Barkley, Gruver. Wedding programs were given to guests by Miss Sata Blackburn, Spearman. She is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. E. Blackburn.

The sanctuary was beautifully marked with hurricane aisle markers adorned with greenery and large orchid bows and ribbons that flowed to the floor. In the front of the church was an exquisite arrangement of spring flowers flanked by candleabras.

Candles were lighted by Miss Catherine Ann Campbell, niece of the groom, of Waco, and Mr. Gregory Allen Meek of Spearman.

The bride, escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white silk organza gown featuring an empire style bodice. The long sheer sleeves fell from a yoke of lace and ended at the wrists in lace cuffs. Lace decorated the front bodice and mandarin collar and was traced with seed pearls. A deep, lace edged flounce hemmed the skirt which was caught at the back waist and fell into a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a lace caplet.

For something old the bride wore her great great maternal grandmothers wedding band. Something new was diamond studs and pearls, a wedding gift from the groom. Something borrowed was a handkerchief from the groom's sister which she carried in her wedding, and a garter for something blue. A penny was placed in her shoe by her father.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Tom Sinclair of Lubbock. Bridesmaids included Mrs. James V. Campbell of Waco and Mrs. D. Lynn Srygley of Dallas, sisters of the groom. Other attendants were Mrs. Phil Sanders, Spearman, Mrs. Scott Beedy, Amarillo, and Miss Andra Smart, Canyon. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Jan Allen, Spearman.

Bridesmaids were dressed in floor length gowns fashioned from pale orchid crepe splashed with a colorful array of flowers.

The elbow length sleeves were slit to the shoulders. Each wore a strand of pearls which set off the scooped neckline. Attend-

Insurance Corner

SMOKE DETECTORS AND RADIATION

We have always believed that early detection is the greatest factor in saving lives during a fire, especially one that occurs during sleeping hours. However, there has been some question about radiation danger in some makes of detectors. Here are the facts:

There are two types of smoke detectors. A photoelectric smoke detector contains a small light source. If smoke enters this enclosure around the unit, the light beam is reflected to the photoelectric cell which trips the alarm. No radioactivity is involved.

The second type, an ionization detector, contains a tiny amount of radioactive material, which ionizes the air and allows a small electric current to flow through the chamber. When the current is disrupted by fine particles of smoke, it sets off the alarm.

The radiation is so weak, according to the National Fire Prevention and Control Administration, the National Bureau of Standards and the Nuclear Regulatory Commission that you would have to stand within ten inches of a detector for eight hours every day for a year to get even a hundredth of the exposure that occurs from normal background radiation.
