Lynx Open Against Sunray

Fans Expect New 'Style'

After a month of waiting, Spearman football fans will get their first look at the Spearman Lynx as directed by the new coaching staff headed by George Wright.

Spearman opens the season here Friday night at 8 p.m. against the Sunray Bobcats, the opening game foe for the past several years.

Football fans are anxious to see the more wide-open style of football that Wright has installed for the Lynx offense this season.

In the month of practice the Lynx have had since work-outs began Aug. 15, a passing attack has been stressed. Wright has two outstanding passers in junior Charles Shieldknight and sophomore Mike Davis.

Receivers have been the weak points in the new attack, but several backs and one or two ends have begun to find the handles on the ball when it comes their way.

Although the Lynx will field a bigger team than in past years, it still will not shake the ground with its weight. The seven starters in the line as the coaches saw them Tuesday will average 161 pounds.

The tackles and guards are good sized boys, but the center and ends pull the average down. At tackles will be Randy Moore, 180, and Ronnie Gilbert, 176. Guards will be Phillip Renner at 160 and Monty Lusby at 209. Tuesday the starting center was Karl Kunselman at 145, but two bigger boys are pushing him. Glen Blodgett at 170 and Steve Holton at 171.

In the backfield quarterback Charles Shieldknight at 173 and fullback Hal Shufeldt at 170 are the big boys. Fullback Jerry Holton is nursing a charlie horse in his leg. If he sees action it will be as a nose guard on defense, Coach Wright said.

At the halfbacks will be senior Gary Cates, 146, and sophomore Bobby Smith at 142. There are size and experience backing up this starting eleven for offensive and defensive duties.

In the line there are several big boys for guard and tackle duty. Ronald Gray at 145 is the smallest at guard and line-backer, then comes Gary Farles at 190, a guard and defensive end. Willie Reneau is a guard and weighs 187, Keith Reeves is a 166 pound guard and defensive end.

Jock Lee and Mansel Bryan are 180 pound tackles. At ends are James Schnell, Monty Black and Joe Vanderburg. Black and Vanderburg will see little action, Black has been out only two weeks and also has an infected foot this week. Vanderburg is recovering from a broken hand.

In the backfield sophomore Wesley Jenkins will be backing up the halfbacks along with Bruce Brown and Steve Jordan. A couple of sophomores, Joe Hutchison and James Lemmons are fullback reserves. Carroll Day is the third quarterback

LYNX FOOTBALL TEAM—These varsity and B-team Lynx football players will get their first game competition of the year Friday and Saturday nights. The varsity will meet Sunray here Friday night and the B-team will play in Sunray Saturday night. This is the first action for the team under the new coaching staff headed by George Wright.

We Izzard and several other writers keep saying if you can remember this and that you don't have to worry about the draft.

We wouldn't mind worrying about the draft again if we could again do all the things as well as we did when we were worried about the draft.

Several walls and signs around Spearman have been worked on lately with black spray paint. Some of the work has made some "cute" signs out of speed signs and the others have been just the old seniors signs.

The grapevine says it is not high school kids doing the work. The grapevine has a way of being right, but we hope it is wrong.

We cannot imagine that some people who are supposedly going to college, doing such a thing. If they did, they may be going to college, but they certainly are not mature enough as men and women to accomplish much.

We just could not believe our eyes and ears Tuesday (Con't. on page 2.)

Water Plan Hearing Set In Lubbock

Local officials are planning to attend the final hearing on the Texas Water Plan to be held Friday in Lubbock.

County Judge Johnnie Lee said he was going and possibly some of the county commissioners will attend, also.

Chamber of Commerce Red Smith and other Chamber members are planning to attend.

This will be the last hearing for this state-wide plan. The plan concerns water use and conservation throughout the state for the next 50 years.

Under the plan east and south Texas are the only ones to benefit from the plan. West Texas and the Panhandle is left out of the program.

Texas has also been left out of the plans for water conservation throughout the western half of the nation.

Local officials are urging any and everyone to attend this hearing. It is of vital importance to the area.

MEETING SUCCESSFUL

Over 50 persons attended the Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday to plan a program of work. See story inside for details.

Sub - Varsity Teams Meet Gruver, Sunray, Borger Sat.

Three of Spearman's four-sub varsity and junior high school football teams will see their first action Saturday. Saturday afternoon the junior high seventh and eighth grade teams will go to Gruver for games there. The first game will be played at 2 p.m.

These seventh and eighth grade teams have been working out only since school opened.

The high school B-team will get its first action after a month of practice at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in Sunray against the Sunray B-team.

Since Sunray does not have a freshman team, the first-year Lynx will wait until Sept. 15 for their first game. The freshmen go to Borger for a game with the Borger freshmen at 7:30.

Police Solve Light Shooting

A teen-ager has found his shooting targets to be rather expensive.

City police have solved the streetlight shooting that has been going on. The youth is being required to pay for the lights and the cost of replacing them.

Chief of Police Leland Wood said the light and fixture for the residential area street light is $10.50, plus the labor. The mercury vapor lights cost over $30.

the Word

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet; and a light unto my path."
— Psalm 119:105

If you are a Christian, you are blessed with a great heritage. It is a heritage of truth and has nothing to do with imagination or myths. It is a truth that remains unchanged, no matter how many times someone attempts to rewrite or offers a "studied" translation.

This truth is the word of God. It is found in the Holy Bible. It is found in Ten Commandments, which form a guidepost for Christian living.

Accept this truth; it is useless to argue against it. Conscience and common sense will not permit you to be unaware. You fool no one, not even yourself, if you pretend to ignore or disbelieve.

behind Shieldknight and Davis. Wright said the Sunray team will bring a strong fullback into the game with Reuben Morgan, 172, being a workhorse.

Sunray has two big tackles, Dawson Stubbs a 214 pound junior and Jim Bain a 189 pound senior. Their other big line-man is junior Richard Harris, 185, at end.

According to the program, Morgan is the only regular back over 150 pounds.

Wright said Sunray has a flip-flopping backfield and line with a wingback and running back being the same boys either to the right or left.

Sunray is also introducing a new coaching staff, headed by DeWayne Cleveland, with this game. They have been picked in the also-ran division of the 1-A district.

Irresponsibility

Senator Strom Thurmond, a man to be reckoned with when it comes to bureaucratic abuse of public funds, recently pointed out some enlightening facts concerning the Office of Economic Opportunity which is charged with the responsibility of administering, among other things, the "war on poverty."

In his report to the people of South Carolina, Thurmond said, in part
The bureaucratic irresponsibility which prevails under the OEO is illustrated in the salary scales paid. In OEO, there is one super-grade (high pay level) official for every 18 ordinary employees. By comparison, the ratio is one supergrade employe for every 1,000 ordinary employes. Poverty officials draw fantastic salaries. Forty-four OEO officials in Washington draw almost $1 million annually. The Deputy Director draws $28,500 and three other assistants draw $27,000 each. Of 40 others, nine get $24,000; 11 get $21,445 and 20 get $18,935.

The high salaries are not confined to Washington OEO workers however. In one area, a "poverty grant" of $82,150 was received. Of this, $56,723 was budgeted for salaries, leaving only $25,427 for operations. When complaints were made because the payroll of the Community Renewal Team of Greater Hartford (Conn.) was running more, than $600,000 almost half the money received from Washington, the program's boss retaliated that he was doing quite well because the national figures showed that about 70 per cent of the total poverty program represented salaries.

Since most of the OEO's programs were untried in practice, Senator Thurmond added, it was to be expected that the best talent available would be sought to work with the programs. OEO's salary scales cannot be justified on this basis, however. In one OEO project, employe's salaries averaged 57 per cent higher than those received by employes prior to going to work for OEO. For instance, a welding instructor making $3,200 was hired for $9,780. A physical education instructor making $4,600 was hired for $9,480.

Local school systems have suffered from OEO pirating of teachers. A math teacher making $4,730 was hired away by OEO at a salary of $10,080. At Camp Gary, Texas, 143 of the camp's total staff of 208 was hired away from schools, often at double their previous salaries. Even though the OEO recognizes education as one of the most effective tools for combating poverty, apparently no consideration was given by OEO to the poverty-creating effects of disrupting established educational systems.

Irresponsible administration by OEO takes many forms. In Philadelphia, it took the form of failure to screen the group leaders hired to work with youngsters under the Neighborhood Youth Corps, for the first 16 hired, 13 had arrest records which included larceny, assault and battery and morals charges invol-when more than 50 people attended the Chamber of Commerce program of work planning meetings.

There were some real fine suggestions for projects, both short and long to come from the meetings.

Manager Red Smith had the members divided into groups of six or seven people and each group worked up five suggestions for projects.

It was real grass roots groups working and this is what the Chamber has been needing.

There was a fine cross section of the membership at the meetings and the program of work should represent the wishes of the majority of membership.

Let us hope, for the good of Spearman and Hansford County, that this spirit of cooperation will continue and the Chamber can become a real tool for improving the area.

Football season begins this Friday night and for the next 10 weeks the kids on all the football teams will be in the limelight.

The boys have given many hours of work and sweat to try to become football players. The players and coaches will be doing their best to win every game.

Let us all remember they are ving minors. In Omaha, Nebraska, it took the form of failure to screen the beneficiaries, for the 153 youths enrolled by the Neighborhood Youth Corps, only 10 were eligible, that is, were from families with incomes below $4,000 annually.

It has been reported that in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, the "war on poverty" furnished tuxedos to 16 high school boys for their senior prom costing $290.

Probably the most ridiculous instance is that an OEO "Head Start" official who chartered a twin-engine airplane for a 200 mile flight to address a graduating class of Head Start pupils--all between the ages of 5 and 6.

Shorn of its garish and deceptive political trappings, the war on poverty is revealed to the taxpayer as an irresponsible waste, and to the victim of poverty as a cruel hoax. For all the money spent on the war on poverty, about all that has been produced is a series of program catch-words, such as "VISTA" and "Head Start."

Congress should take a cue and impose some catch-ward programs of its own--like "Head Knocking" and "New Start."

Homemaking Notes

Home Demonstration Agent

Care of campus wardrobes will be a big concern for many co-eds as they return to college this month.

Campus wardrobes can be just so large, and they deserve the best kind of care.

Co-eds can stay at the top of their classes if they observe a few clothing care tips.

Last minute shoppers will want to make sure a garment or material has been pre-shrunk or stabilized before buying it. Also, check the belt when buying dresses. Some expensive garments may have inexpensive paper-backed belts that are not durable.

After you have purchased a garment, keep the hangtags. They contain important cleaning information that will help you and your cleaner.

It's a good idea to file the hangtags at your dorm for handy reference. Besides the information included on the labels, here are some other clothing care tips.

1. Don't leave stains in any fabric too long, or they will set and become permanent. Blot away as much of the stain as possible right away. Don't rub, however, for rubbing will spread the stain and may damage surface fibers--especially silk.

2. If you use a spot remover, test on a hidden seam first. Some spot removers will affect a variety of fabrics and dyes.

3. Avoid pressing a garment in which there are spots or perspiration salts or body oils.

4. Have your clothing cleaned regularly. Abrasion from wear and dirt will wear out your clothes. Professional cleaning will restore the fabrics to their original beauty.

5. Rotate your wardrobe. Clothing, like people, need a rest and fresh air.

What about fabrics of the future? A futuristic look at fabrics of the 1980's has been projected by Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service clothing specialists and U.S. Department of Agriculture scientists.

The clothing specialists and researchers forecasts that we'll be wearing more knit garments of natural and manmade fibers; and there will be more colorful offerings especially in men's clothing. More bonded fabrics and more stretch fabrics also will be in use.

The researchers say that more wearing apparel will be developed with a specific use

Miss Cheryl Montaine of Canyon is a house guest this week in the Cecil Crawford home.

Miss Polly McLain of Canyon spent the Labor Day weekend with her parents, the L.S. McLains. Sunday evening they went back to Canyon to see the production of "Texas."

Miss Kathy Crawford left Wednesday morning for Tucson where she will be in civil service.

Gary Haner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haner will leave Friday for Kingsville where he will enter his second year at Texas A&I. Gary will be assistant dorm manager this year.

Mrs. Mike Crawford and Shawn of Canyon are spending a few days with the Cecil Crawfords.

People who are too proud to beg and too honest to steal can still borrow and forget to pay.

in mind, such as "wash and wear." The so-called "durable-press" will be perfected further and it may be practical to perfect seams that are fused rather than sewn.

Temperature-controlled garments adaptable to both cold and hot weather, are expected in the future. More soil-resistant, easily packed, lightweight fabrics that are easier to take care of are forecast.

Researchers are presently working on a method of developing a one-step process to making fabrics such as spraying them the thickness desired and thereby eliminating the two-step spinning and weaving process now used for fabric making.

Additional research will be directed toward improving existing fibers, fabrics and finishes by 1980, the research-extension teams have indicated.

The Texas Home Demonstration Association, statewide homemakers' organization, will hold its annual meeting in Corpus Christi, Sept. 21-22. Delegates from Hansford County Home Demonstration Clubs are Mmes. L.W. Rosenbaum, Jack Johnson and Lenzie Anderson.

Mrs. C.R. Berkley of Odessa, president, announces that general convention business sessions, lectures, workshops, an election of officers, committee reports and tours are planned.

The meeting is the fortieth for the organization, and a special recognition ceremony is planned for 40 year club members.

Key speaker at the opening convention session will be Ben Barnes, Texas speaker of the House of Representatives.

Scheduled to extend greetings to THDA delegates are H.C. Heldenfels of Corpus Christi, chairman of Board of Directors of Texas A&M University; Nueces County Judge Noah Kennedy, Jr. of Corpus Christi, and Dr. Melver Furman, mayor of the host city.

Other speakers will include Mrs. E. Survant, of Trinchera, Colo., president of the National Extension Homemakers' Council; Dr. Virginia Apgar, The National Foundation, New York City; and Miss Bonnie Cox, former Extension Service organization specialist now retired and living in College Station.

Officers will be elected on Sept. 22 and installed at a dinner that evening. Mrs. George Hackney of Greenville, present parliamentarian and past president of the Extension homemakers group, will serve as installing officer.

Current officers, besides Mrs. Verkley and Mrs. Hackney, are Mrs. Maynard Gaines, Coleman, vice president and public relations chairman; Mrs. L.P. Chapman, Paris, secretary; and Mrs. Sam Speir, Manchaca treasurer.

Between 800 and 1,000 delegates and members of the 36,500 member homemakers' organization are expected to participate in the meeting, officials have announced. Home demonstration work, generally called home economics Extension work in other states, is an adult education program in better homemaking.

THE LAST NOTE: People can be divided into three groups. Those who make things happen, those who watch things happen, and those who wonder, what happened?

Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Brock and family went to Canyon Monday evening for the last performance of "Texas".

COME TO THE FAIR

More than 100 million Americans will attend more than 3,500 state and county fairs in the United States and Canada this year, according to "Changing Times," the Kiplinger magazine.

PENCIL POINT

A special pencil for first graders will be on the market in time for school, according to the Lead Pencil Manufacturers Association. The big, black lead produces a mark without much muscle pressure and is designed to give the child a sense of achievement. Incidentally, mothers need not worry about exposing the child to lead if he puts a lead pencil in his mouth: It is graphite that makes a pencil write.

Day by Day
by Day McClellan

I'm very sorry I was misleading concerning last week's mention of the Texas Youth Conference and the two young people from our county who attended.

On reading my column again, I see I didn't say the program was in any way concerned with 4-H work; I said both young people are active in that organization. But, since The Sunday Plainsman received a "correction" from someone, perhaps I was misleading.

All I meant to do was suggest that Rebecca Hutchison and Dee Green (I called him Jerry last week, just to add to the mix-up) are available for programs concerning what they learned about the juvenile delinquency problem at the conference. Contact either of them or J.L. Brock, county coordinator.

Another club year has begun. As I have done in the past, I'd like to remind club reporters that we are delighted to have a complete report of your club's meetings. Also, in the same breath, let me remind those whose job it is to collect the clippings of stories for scrapbooks, etc., that those should be saved as they are published. Due to the fact that our files are now quickly recorded on microfilm, we no longer keep numerous back issues as we once did. If you happen to miss a clipping, better hurry and let us know in a week or two, while we can still help you.

With the change in seasons, things have changed a little at T. Plainsman. Faye Lynch, who has taken the summer off, is back and Phyllis Kirkland, her replacement, is no longer with us. Phyllis and her husband Jimmy will be resuming their education at WT in a few days.

Two others who have joined the staff in the past week are Mary Faith Nollner, who works in the page construction department and Carl Nickles, a printer, who returns to work for us following four years in the Navy.

We regret that we are losing Mrs. H.B. Parks as our correspondent at Morse. She has done a fine job in collecting the news of her area for us for a number of years now. She is teaching in the Morse School this year and will no longer have time to be our correspondent.

Mrs. Parks will be hard to replace, but we'll do our best. Percentage-wise, we probably have more subscribers in Morse than anywhere, so we'll try hard to continue to publish all the news of their local and school happenings.

It's funny how summer has a way of slipping by. And it seems to happen faster every year.

But anyway, here it is September again, with school in session and the drive-in theatre open only on weekends. I'm certainly going to miss Peggy Ellsworth's absolutely scrumptious hamburgers we've enjoyed so often at the drive-in this summer.

I'd say Minnie and Roy Jones will be sorry to see the drive-in close, come October, too. I don't think they ever stay for the movie but I don't believe we were there a single time that they weren't there for their evening meal too.

Apple pie is good anytime, but with the first breeze of autumn, it somehow tastes even better. There's a recipe in the September issue of "Family Circle" for apple candy pie that is really out of the ordinary. It's made special by topping it with rich praline "frosting" on top of the crust that gives it a melt-in-your-mouth flavor. Try it, if you haven't already. It might become your family's favorite. It certainly disappeared in a hurry at our house.

Prisoner Petty Among Best Rodeo Participants

HUNTSVILLE(Special)-- At age Thirty six, Henry Petty shows all the marks and scars of having served more than fifteen years in the Texas prison system and of having been a convict participant in the last 15 Annual Prison Rodeos.
Petty is currently assigned to the Ellis Unit. He was just 20 years of age when he and four young companions walked into a Dallas business establishment, robbed the attendant, and then as they were leaving, Petty was attacked by the victim. As he says, "At that minute I feared for my life--so I shot him". For his effort, Petty netted a few dollars and a life sentence.

He first rode in the Prison rodeo in 1951. "Back in those days we really had no money-making riders", Petty says.
"O'Neal Browning and myself used to battle it out for first money every Sunday in October...Old Browning usually took top pay."

Petty has no particular speciality at the rodeo. Albert Moore, Rodeo Director says,
"Petty will get astride anything we put in the chutes...and he always gives a good ride. I believe he would ride a tiger if someone put a rope on him."

Petty is the rider who brought a dead silence to a capacity Prison rodeo Arena in 1965. He was thrown from a horse named "Hard Head" and his right leg got tangled in the stirrup. Petty was kicked at the base of the skull on the first kick, knocked unconscious, and for three or four minutes the insane horse tried to kick Petty Loose. The Prison Doctor who attended Petty reported that had he not been knocked out that he would have been killed for certain.

Asked how he feels about riding in the 1966 Rodeo Petty,
"Well Sir, the only spending money I get in here is what I make at the Rodeo, I was scared last year when they told me what happened, but that is the way it goes. I busted my back in 1964 when a bull got to me, but I have to go back and keep riding. I'll be out there this year showing those new-comers

how to make a dollar on a wild bronc or bull...There just ain't no other way."

Petty went out of prison, Four times he has been before the parole board and four times he has been turned down.

He will be considered again for parole in March 1967. He says he is hopeful for favorable consideration but is not too optimistic. "I gotta have a job... and I don't have much free world contact anymore."

He wants to work on a ranch.
He says, "I am a good stockman, and can drive a tractor as good as the next one. Man I had to be good. I learned it all here in prison. Now I would like an opportunity to use it in the free world before I get too old."

His warden says Petty can be the best worker on the Unit and that he is good with livestock and good on a tractor.

But right now, any parole possibility is put off until March 1967, and Petty has put his thoughts on the 1966 Rodeo first.
"This year I got to do good. Mr.
Albert Moore has told me he expects me to be in the top money makers...and that is where I want to be when they close the chutes on the last Sunday in October."

When he finished talking and finished his cigarette he picked up his hat and started back to the fields on the Ellis Unit. He turned around and said, "If you write anything about me be sure and tell the folks that I'll be out there every Sunday in October and I can guarantee them a ride for their money."

Learning Results From Having A Listener

Do you listen to your child?

Much of a child's learning comes about because someone is listening, reminds Mrs. Patsy Yates, Texas A&M University Extension family life education specialist.

Many adults think that if they are talking and a child is listening, learning is taking place. However, the opposite is often quite true, she adds.

A child's learning depends largely on how he perceives and feels about a situation. When parents are aware of these feelings, they can be helpful. This can come about by listening carefully to the child.

When there is reason to learn, a child learns. How, when and what a child learns, however, depends to a great extent on his surroundings, which include people as well as things. Parents must know a child very well to know the best time for him to learn--and this, too, comes only from listening to the child.

Why a child talks or asks questions is not always clear or easy to recognize, says Mrs. Yates. Sometimes they are simply wanting information and sometimes they are seeking attention. These are both valid reasons--each as important as the other--but parents must realize that each requires its own special kind of response.

When the child asks questions to gain attention, the response is important on an emotional level. The child is seeking to feel like a more valued person. Questions that seem unimportant to adults may serve to reveal deep areas of concern to the child.

Children generally are much more sensitive to parents than parents are to children. When parents don't listen, children don't listen, either. Such closing of communication seriously reduces the amount of learning taking place.

"Learning to listen well takes time and effort, but when you listen to your child, you'll learn a lot about him, and he will learn a lot about growing up," Mrs. Yates says.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Gift and sons of Oklahoma City spent the Labor Day weekend at Red River.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. McClellan and family spent the holiday weekend at their cabin in Taos Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Slyter and son of Peabody, Kans. were holiday weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holt and her grandmother, Mrs. A. F. Loftin.

Gov. Says High Food Prices Not Farmers' Fault

More than 1,000 persons attending Texas A&M University's Agricultural Extension Service Biennial Conference this week heard Gov. John Connally defend farmers and ranchers against charges that they cause inflation and high food prices.

"Some economists have suggested that the basic cause of our present apparent inflation is the price asked for their goods by those who raise food and fiber. I strongly disagree," the governor said. "Although retail food prices have risen since 1951, prices obtained for products as they leave the farm have declined 25 percent."

He said if the farmer had received the same share of the food dollar in 1965 that he received in 1947, American consumers would have spent another $15 billion for food last year.

"In my judgment, those who work the land have acted against inflation, instead of being one of the causes of inflation," the governor emphasized.

Theme of the Aug. 29-Sept. 2 conference was "Mobilizing Our Potentials in a Changing World."

Connally said farmers and ranchers have not received adequate returns for doing their jobs better.

"Efficiency should result in lower prices, but a lower income should not be the reward for those who make this increased efficiency possible," he added.

Connally asked the Extension workers to study merits and possibilities of the Texas Water Plan, which he said is not a cure-all but is flexible enough to be a big help.

Studies have shown, he said, that water can be channeled from East Texas and the Lower Missouri and Mississippi Rivers for use in South Texas. And perhaps water can be brought from the Upper Missouri and Mississippi Rivers and the Columbia River to supply irrigation for the Texas Plains.

Selective Service Marks Hershey's Anniversary

State Selective Service headquarters Thursday marked the 30th anniversary of Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey's association with the draft system.

General Hershey, the national director, who will be 73 years old Sept. 12, began his Selective Service work Sept. 1, 1936, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, noted.

It was in 1936, while General Hershey was in Hawaii serving as an Army major, that he was ordered to Washington to serve as the executive secretary of the Joint Army and Navy Committee for Selective Service.

In this assignment, General Hershey carried out planning and training activities, the most important thing being the development of a proposed military manpower law in the event it was needed by the nation in the future.

He saw this proposed legislation become effective Sept. 16, 1940. President Roosevelt appointed him director of Selective Service July 31, 1941, and he has held the job since.

Colonel Schwartz, the Texas state director, in talking of General Hershey's three decades as draft board chief, said people in the System often wondered what has kept him at this same task for so long.

"I can sum it up in three words," he said, "Dedication and citizenship."

During his 30 years of activity with the System, General Hershey has seen it send 10 million men to the armed forces in World War II and 2 1/2 million during the Korean war, Berlin build-up, Cuban crisis, and Viet Nam conflict. During this time, he saw draft boards register 82 million men.

General Hershey has served in Texas in capacities other than as director of Selective Service. He served in the Army along the Mexican border in 1916 and at Fort Bliss, El Paso, in the 1920s.

In Austin several years ago, when a group of men gave him some highway and city maps to find his way around the Rio Grande Valley and the Border, he offered his thanks, but remarked that he thought he wouldn't get lost, as he had covered most of the ground on a horse.

In February of this year, General Hershey completed 55 years of military service, 26 of them as a general officer.

WHY BE A GRIME FIGHTER?

Cook Clean

WITH A FLAMELESS ELECTRIC RANGE

You'll spend less time at tiresome kitchen clean-up chores when you cook electrically. Because electric heat is flameless, there's no fuel grime. Pots and pans stay shiny with less scouring. And since the electric oven requires no oxygen to support combustion, there's no flow of air into and out of it, carrying greasy cooking vapors into your kitchen. Walls, woodwork and curtains stay fresh and new-looking with a minimum of care. So why be a grime fighter? See your dealer soon about a clean-cooking flameless electric range.
